Washington, April 11.—President Taft will open the baseball season tomorrow by tossing the ball from his box in the new American league park grandstand for the game between the Boston and Washington teams. The president's interest in the national game will draw him to many games this season. He still is a strong devotee of golf and on Saturday will have his first game over the new Chevy Chase links.

IS AGAINST FLOGGING.

Minority Report of Michigan Committee to Condemn Prison Warden.

Lansing, Mich., April 11.—Recommendations for the dismissal of Warden James Russell; that the state never again employ the warden's brother, William—a former official—at the prison, and for the abolition of the present system of flogging, are among the principal features of the minority report of the Marquette prison investigation committee of the Michigan house of representatives which will be presented to the legislature today.

The majority report, favoring Russell, but recommending that convicts should not be punished for failure to perform their tasks, was presented to the legislature last week.

COPPERS DECLINE; SELLING LIBERAL

Market Is More Active Under Pressure—Denn Is Boosted.

The copper market was fairly active today and was under pressure. The Eastern professional element did not care which way values went and it was easier to force them down than to jack them up. There is little inducement this week to put up prices in view of a holiday at the end of the week. So long as the supreme court decisions are hanging over the market there is little likelihood that it will do anything encouraging to holders.

Denn was strong, advancing from $6.87½ to $7.12½. On the other hand Shattuck was weak, selling from $18 to $17.75. The fluctuations of these two stocks, of course, are due to manipulation solely. It appears to be the desire of the owners to consolidate the two properties and make Shattuck carry the burden. If Denn can be boosted to $9 or $10 it can be put in on a 2 to 1 basis. The Shattuck dividend announcement has not been forthcoming and the next meeting of the two companies has been postponed until May 10. The effect of this suspense is to force some little fellows to get out of their Shattuck which helps the plans of the "insiders."

Amalgamated sold at $62.37½, $61.62½, $62.12½ and $61.87½. Butte-Ballaklava at $4.96¼, Butte Coalition at $17.50, Giroux at $6 to $5.87½, Calumet & Arizona at $49 to $48.75 to $49, Greene at $6.37½, $6.50 and $6.43¾, North Butte at $28 to $27.25, Superior & Pittsburg at $14 to $13.75.

The new main working shaft of the Giroux Consolidated company is complete to the 1,400-foot level. Three drifts are being run in different directions from the station at the 700-foot level of the main shaft, and two drifts are also being run at the 1,000-foot level. At the 1,200-foot level less water is being encountered than a few weeks ago. The water in the old workings is now about sixty feet deep, and is receding steadily. Crosscutting is also in progress from the 1,400-foot station. A pump with a capacity of 600 gallons per minute has been ordered for this station.

Development work at the South Lake has been practically suspended for the present, awaiting further financing by the company. It is understood that the directors now have under consideration the matter of strengthening the company's treasury position, but it is unlikely that any definite action will be taken for some time. The company has 40,000 shares of stock in the treasury, par value $25.

The concreting of the shaft of the Houghton Copper company, which was temporarily discontinued at a depth of 290 feet, has proceeded upward for a distance of 120 feet, leaving about seventy feet to be finished. This work should be completed in about a month, at which time shaft sinking will be resumed.

It is reasonably certain, says Warren W. Erwin & Co. of New York, that complete liquidation did not occur in 1907, and that it has not occurred since the period from 1892 to 1896. During that period liquidation took place not only in Wall street and in commodities—as it did in 1907—but it also occurred in land and lot values. Booms then collapsed in most Western cities. In many instances the prices of lands and lots declined to one-third of former prices. In 1907 the prices of lands and lots declined not at all, while since 1897 the prices of farm lands have risen rapidly and are now at the highest point ever reached. Statistics show that the prices of farm lands in Western states have increased from 100 to 500 per cent since 1900. These lands are now dangerously high, and there is no profit in raising corn or wheat at their present prices. Should Wall street get what it is praying for—still lower prices for food products—it may also get before the end of 1911 a collapse in land values that will wreck thousands of our mushroom national and state banks that have loaned heavily on these lands.

Deemer, 37; Kenyon, 62; Curtis, 4; Porter, Democrat, 51; absent or not voting, 4; necessary to elect, 78.

The legislature met again at 1:30 and took another ballot as follows: Second ballot—Deemer, 38; Kenyon, 64; Curtis, 2; Porter, Democrat, 52; absent or not voting, 2; necessary to elect, 78.

The famous figure of the brown dog has disappeared from the fountain in Battersea, Eng. It created a lively sensation while it was there and it was the cause of a great many encounters between the police and its friends and enemies. The brown dog was a bronze and stood on a granite fountain. On this fountain was the following inscription:

"In memory of the brown terrier dog done to death in the laboratories of the University college, February, 1903, after having endured vivisection extending over more than two months and having been handed over from one vivisectionist to another until death came to its release. Also in memory of the 232 dogs vivisected at the same place during the year 1902. Men and women of England, how long shall these things last?"

The friends of the young doctors tried to tear down the figure, the antivivisectionists fought for its protection and there was rioting about the fountain. Finally the Battersea common council had the figure taken down and broken to pieces and the inscription on the fountain removed.

AFTER WICKERSHAM.

Resolution Provides Investigation of His Outside Work.

Washington, April 11.—Representative Rainey of Illinois, in a resolution introduced in the house today proposes an investigation of the department of justice concerning proceedings instituted under the Sherman anti-trust law and subsequently dropped and as to whether Attorney General Wickersham has outside employment which would disqualify him for his position in President Taft's cabinet.

BELTRAMI COUNTY URGED TO HURRY SUBSCRIPTION.

Bemidji, Minn., April 11.—(Special to The Herald.)—W. L. Brooks of this city, chairman of the committee for the raising of funds among the several counties in this vicinity in the interests of the Northern Minnesota Development association has received a letter from G. G. Hartley of Duluth asking that special effort be made in completing the collection of the necessary funds assessed to these counties.

NORTH DAKOTA WOOL MEN HAVE ELECTED OFFICERS.

Bowman, N. D., April 11.—A meeting of the Tri-State Wool Growers' association was held here and the following officers elected: President, William S. Hamilton; vice president, Dave Fonsen; secretary and treasurer, J. C. Lytle; executive committee, C. R. Sully, Dave Fonsen and F. F. Butler.

MINOT AUTOMOBILE PARTY SUSTAINS SHAKEUP.

Minot, N. D., April 11.—Looping the loop over a ten-foot embankment, a 30-horse power Overland, driven by Dr. Offerman turned somersault twice.

William Thome, a passenger, sustained a fracture of the leg and dislocation of the hip. Dr. Offerman and two other passengers were uninjured aside from a rather severe shaking up.

STEPHENSON'S VOTE FOR LORIMER IS CONDEMNED.

Madison, Wis., April 11.—The Ballard resolution, condemning Senator Isaac Stephenson for his vote to permit Lorimer to retain his seat and commending Senator La Follette for his vote was passed by the senate today. It now has passed both houses of the legislature. Two senators, Perry and Lyons, voted against the resolution.

MAY WHEAT PUSHED UP

Bulls Jack Up Values and July Follows—Rain in North Dakota.

Cash Market Fair—Milling Demand Better—Trading Dull.

Duluth Board of Trade, April 11.—Wheat values went up today, the bulls being active. The cash demand continued fair at the leading Northwestern market and the milling demand for choice spring wheat was improved. Trading was light. Cash wheat was ¾c over May, which advanced ¾c. July went up ⅝c. Durum gained 4c, oats closed unchanged. Rye and barley were unchanged.

Flaxseed gained 1c, May closing $2.52b. July was unchanged. March-April Plata seed at Antwerp was $2.14.

Cables were higher, being influenced by stronger American markets and short covering on account of strength in the May delivery. Receipts at Liverpool were light and cargoes in near positions were firmly held. Foreign markets are less bearish. The decrease in the world's visible induced short covering and values closed higher. The foreigners construed the American report as bearish.

The world's visible supply of wheat decreased 932,000 bu. Last year the decrease was 1,344,000 bu. Wheat east of the Rockies decreased 1,521,000 bu; Canada decreased 211,000 bu; United States and Canada decreased 1,732,000 bu. Wheat afloat and in Europe increased 800,000 bu. The European supply is distinctly bearish, amounting to 113,336,000 bu against 112,568,000 bu last week. Last week there was a decrease of 616,000 bu and last year a decrease of 708,000 bu when the total amounted to 95,840,000 bu.

Minneapolis millers are bullish on the May delivery chiefly because they want to get higher prices for their wheat. So long as the cash position is apparently firm prices may work higher but the time is only a few days distant when seeding in the Northwest will be well under way under favorable conditions and this fact cannot be regarded other than a bearish factor. Rain fell today in Eastern North Dakota. The government predicts cooler weather for the Southwest and Northwest.

Flour supplies are very moderate. In this respect the situation is favorable to receive benefit from any development that would have a tendency to encourage buyers in making a departure from the extreme conservatism they have practiced for so long a time and still adhere to. No improvement, however, is to be expected untill sellers are able to put up a bullish argument to the trade and convince them that it will pay to invest in flour at prevailing prices because it is so cheap that it cannot become much cheaper.

Wheat Cheap.

At present such arguments fall flat, in view of the radically bearish sentiment in all wheat and flour markets. Wheat has declined to a lower level than reached in years, and mills are so anxious for business that price-cutting is rampant, so that the flour buyer is quoted a variety of prices, almost every seller making a liberal concession from the millers' nominal asking limit. The result of this competition is that the growth of confidence is checked and trading is confined to small lots, buying being wholly on a supply and demand basis. Buyers are willing to admit that flour as at present quoted is intrinsically cheap, but are disposed to postpone operations on a large scale till the market becomes settled.

The market for spring patent has somewhat narrowed. Less than $5 for first patent in wood has been quoted, but there are a number of millers who refuse to shade that figure, and it is asserted that no good first patent can now be bought for less, while Minneapolis producers quote up to $5.25 in some cases. There is most anxiety to secure orders for prompt shipment, and concessions are quoted to buyers who are prepared to give shipping instructions with an order. In most instances millers demand a higher price for flour delivered beyond thirty days than for prompt shipment. The reason for this is found in the feed situation, all millfeeds being high, owing to the light output, as the result of the curtailment of milling operations, but there is no assurance that present feed prices will be maintained, and were it not for the strength in feed millers would not be able to make such low prices on flour.

Soft winter wheat flour is selling in moderate volume at current prices, which are slightly lower than the mills quoted a week ago. Most offerings of patent are covered by a quotation of $4.25@4.60, and straights range from $3.90@4.40, New York state and Michigan mills quoting $3.90@4.10. Clears are quoted at $3.70@4.00 per barrel.

There is little interest in Kansas flour offered in sacks at $4.30@4.80 per barrel, and it is said that a firm offer of $4.25 would be acceptable to some millers.

The situation has improved slightly in the matter of shipping instructions on old contracts, though there is still much to be desired in this direction. It is exceptional to find a millers' representative practically cleaned up on back orders, but such is the report made this week in at least one instance.

MARKET GOSSIP

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool: Wheat—The market at the opening was influenced by the firmness of American cables yesterday and the closing strength in Buenos Ayres and values were ¼d to ½d higher, and following the opening there was a further advance of ⅜d to ⅝d with the principal strength in May in which shorts were nervous. Receipts for three days were light and cargoes in near positions were firmly held at 1½d to 3d advance with foreign crop conditions less bearish. Spot markets were firm with an improved demand and an expected decrease in the European visible. During the morning the market was inclined to sag with some professional selling in the way of realizing and prices reacted from the high of the morning. The world's visible is bearish and leading firms here were inclined to place a bearish construction on the American government report. At 1:30 p. m., the market was firm for the near month and 3⅜d higher than yesterday.

Corn—Corn was firm at the start and ½d higher and following the opening May further advanced ¼d with a scarcity of American offers, fair spot demand and covering by shorts, American grade being 1d higher.

Broomhall's crop reports: United Kingdom—There are some complaints heard regarding the delay in seeding of oats, otherwise the outlook for all grain is satisfactory. France, Germany—Continued complaints are being heard as a result of the late freezing weather, while many reports are to the effect that no damage resulted from this cause. Hungary—The weather has been extremely cold with much freezing and damage reports are heard but it is too early to ascertain with any certainty. Italy—The weather is now favorable for the crops, being milder following wintry temperatures. Spain—There are some complaints heard regarding the outlook for the crops. Cold weather following rains. Bulgaria—The crop outlook is favorable.

The Northwestern Miller of Minneapolis has issued from the press its Millers' Almanack for 1911-12. As usual the publication is perfect typographically, printed on book paper handsomely bound. The publication contains data and statistics on the grain crops of every country in the world, interesting information about the flour business, trading customs in this and other countries and an immense fund of information valuable to millers and people interested in the grain trade. The book can be had of The Northwestern Miller for 50 cents.

MINNEAPOLIS MARKET.

Wheat Firmer on Fair Buying By Local Millers.

Minneapolis, Minn., April 11.—Minneapolis millers were fair buyers of near months today and wheat was inclined to be firmer. Deferred contracts were weak. A big decrease in the world's visible, good cash demand, light local receipts and decreasing elevator stocks were also factors of strength. Rain in North Dakota prevented farmers from seeding today. The forecast for the three Northwestern states was unsettled. May closed ⅞@1c higher than yesterday, July ⅞c higher and September ⅛@¼c lower. Local elevator stocks decreased 330,000 bu for three days.

Minneapolis today received 89 cars of wheat against 84 cars a year ago; Duluth 28 against 118 and Winnipeg 268 against 273. May opened 94¾@94⅝c; high, 95½c; low, 94½c; closed, 95⅝c. July opened, 95⅞c; high, 96⅝c; low, 95⅝c; closed, 96¼c. September opened, 89⅞c; high, 90⅛c; low, 89½@89⅝c; closed, 89½@89⅝c.

Cash wheat was in very strong demand Offerings were light and met with ready acceptance. Milling demand far in excess of receipts. No. 1 northern sold for 2@3½c above the May contract. Close: No. 1 hard, 98⅞c; No. 1 northern, 98@98⅜c; to arrive, 97⅜c to 98⅜c; No. 2 northern, 94⅜@96⅞c; to arrive, 94⅜@96⅞c; No. 3 wheat, 92⅜@94⅛c. No 3 yellow corn, 48@48½c. No. 3 white oats, 30½@31½c. No. 2 rye, 85@86c.

Millstuffs — Shipments, 1,660 tons. Market was strong and steady, active and general demand at firm prices. Bran in 100-lb sacks, $21.50@22.00.

The flour market remained about steady. Demand fair and moderate orders placed. Inquiry quite general. Stocks comparatively light. Prices unchanged. Shipments, 39,619 bbl. First patents in wood, f. o. b. Minneapolis, $4.35@4.65; second patents, $4.25@4.55; first clears, $2.85@3.30; second clears, $1.85@2.50.

Flax—Receipts, 2 cars, year ago 10; shipments, 1. Demand continued strong for both spot and to arrive. Flaxseed at 1c over Duluth May contract. Offerings very scarce. Closing, $2.53.

Barley—Receipts 56 cars, year ago 15; shipments, 59. Barley steady today. Demand best for choice malting grades. Offerings continued liberal, closing range 70c@$1.05.

Liverpool Grain.

DECLINES IN STOCKS

Market Weak Under Heavy Selling With But Scattered Buying.

Missouri Pacific Has Sharp Rise Near Close Which Is Steady.

New York, April 11.—There were few changes from yesterday's close at the opening of the market today. Lehigh Valley and Missouri Pacific gained ½ and American Cotton Oil lost as much. Most of the speculative leaders were quoted without change over night.

A break in the prices of fertilizer stocks and other inactive specialties was the only movement of consequence in the first hour. American Cotton Oil dropped 2 points, Virginia-Carolina Chemical 1 and the preferred 2⅜. National Biscuit lost 1¼ and the United Railways Investment 1½.

Concentrated selling with but only scattered buying imparted a weak tone to the market, and prices fell to the lowest level of some days. Heaviness was marked in the standard issues, including United States Steel and Union Pacific. United States Steel broke under 77 on a sale of 2,300 shares, which was more than the total of dealings in this stock in the first hour. Weakness in the fertilizer issues was ascribed to doubt as to the maintenance of the dividend on American Cotton Oil. St. Paul, Northwestern, Erie first preferred and Amalgamated Copper declined a point below yesterday's close and some other less active stocks even more Bonds were steady.

A better undertone developed and there was a slight recovery all around. Trading, which had been fairly active while the decline was in progress, lapsed into semi-stagnation. Some very large blocks of New York City new 4¼ per cent bonds changed hands at 101⅞ to 102, compared with 102 yesterday's closing. At 1 o'clock the market was sagging again, with Union Pacific and Reading ruling a point below yesterday's close.

The market closed steady. Some of the traders retired their shorts put out early in the day and this demand sent Missouri Pacific to nearly a point above yesterday's closing. In other quarters the rally was slight. Trading was very small in the late dealings.

Cotton Market.

New York, April 11.—The cotton market opened steady at a decline of 4 points to an advance of 9 points, summer and early fall deliveries being relatively firm on a continuation of the covering movement, while spring and winter months were lower under realizing and in sympathy with disappointing cables. Trading was very active and all active positions made new high records for the movement within the first ten minutes, selling about 3 to 5 points net higher, but offerings were general on the bulge and one of the leading bull brokers was both a heavy and peristent seller of May and July. Prices eased off in consequence and the market during the middle of the morning was nervous and unsettled with prices ruling about 1 to 4 points net lower.

Spot closed quiet, 5 points lower; middling uplands, 14.70; middling gulf, 14.95; no sales. Futures closed steady; closing bids: April, 14.48; May, 14.60; June, 14.57; July, 14.54; August, 14.13; September, 13.21; October, 12.82; November, 12.78; December, 12.74; January, 12.71; March, 12.77.

Sale of School and Other State Lands

STATE OF MINNESOTA, State Auditor's Office.

St. Paul, April 8, 1911.

Notice is hereby given that on May 17, 1911, at 10 o'clock A. M. in the office of the County Auditor, at Duluth, St. Louis County, in the State of Minnesota, I will offer for sale certain unsold state lands, and also those state lands which have reverted to the State by reason of the non-payment of interest.

Terms: Fifteen per cent of the purchase price and interest on the unpaid balance from date of sale to June 1st, 1912, must be paid at the time of sale. The balance of purchase money is payable in whole or in part on or before forty years from date of sale; the rate of interest on the unpaid balance is four per cent per annum, payable in advance on June 1st of each year, provided, the principal remains unpaid for ten years; but if the principal if paid within ten years from date of sale, the rate of interest will be computed at five per cent per annum.

Appraised value of timber, if any, must also be paid at time of sale.

Lands on which the interest is delinquent may be redeemed at any time up to the hour of sale, or before resale to an actual purchaser.

All mineral rights are reserved by the laws of the State. All sales of land will be made subject to the provisions of Chapter 90, General Laws of 1911.

Lists of lands to be offered may be obtained of the State Auditor or the State Commissioner of Immigration at St. Paul, and of the County Auditor at above address.

SAMUEL G. IVERSON, State Auditor.

D. H., April 11, 18, 25 and May 2, 1911.

BIDS WANTED

Bids will be received by the Board of Water and Light Commissioners Thursday at 4 P. M. of the 20th inst. for laying of water and gas pipes in various streets, avenues and alleys in the city.

Specifications of the work can be obtained of the manager.

Accompany bids with certified check equal to 10 per cent. of bid and mark on the outside "bids for laying pipe."

L. N. CASE, Manager.

ORDER FOR HEARING ON PETITION FOR ADMINISTRATION—
State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis —ss.

In Probate Court.

THE PETITION of Henna Korte of Virgina, Minnesota, having been filed in this Court, representing, among other things, that Paul Paulson, then being a resident of the County of St. Louis, State of Minnesota, died intestate, in the County of St. Louis, State of Minnesota, on the 11th day of March, 1911; leaving estate in the County of St. Louis, State of Minnesota, and that said petitioner is the guardian of the minor heirs of said decedent, and praying that Letters of Administration of the estate of said decedent be granted to John Kotola.

IT IS ORDERED, That said petition be heard before this Court, at the Probate Court Rooms in the Court House in Duluth, in said County, on Monday, the 1st day of May, 1911, at ten o'clock A. M., and all persons interested in said hearing and in said matter are hereby cited and required at said time and place to show cause, if any there be, why said petition should not be granted.

ORDERED FURTHER, That this Order be served by publication in The Duluth Herald according to law, and that a copy of this Order be served on the County Treasurer of St. Louis County not less than ten days prior to said day of hearing.

Dated at Duluth, Minn., April 3rd, 1911.

By the Court,

S. W. GILPIN, Judge of Probate.

(Seal, Probate Court, St. Louis Co., Minn.)

Reapportionment Dead Again and This Time It Seems Final.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

St. Paul, Minn. April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Duluth gets its sub-experiment and demonstration farm, the fight for which was begun by C. P. Craig and A. B. Hostetter of the Commercial club and followed up vigorously and effectively by the members of the St. Louis county delegation in both houses. The bill, which passed the senate some time ago, was passed by the house this morning by a vote of 75 to 39 and it now goes to the governor for his signature, as the house attached no amendment. An appropriation of $65,000 is carried, and there is also a similar appropriation of $35,000 for a similar institution at Waseca.

Representative C. T. Knapp of Chisholm led the fight for the bill with a practical, convincing and effective talk, in which he spoke of St. Louis county as a place of vast undeveloped fertility which must develop its agricultural resources in order to build up its communities. The experiment farm is needed, he said, to demonstrate the best means of making this development possible.

Representatives Crane and S. N. Lee, both farmers, opposed the bill, making light of scientific farming, but Representatives O'Neill and Ferguson, also farmers, supported the bill, as did Representatives Congdon, Lennon, Spooner and Washburn.

The opposition to the bill leasing the Oneota state elevator site to Duluth as a site for a public dock is practic-

MINOT'S PUBLIC BUILDING SITE

Its Selection Settled and Work Soon to Commence on $150,000 Structure.

Minot, N. D., April 12.—Minot's $150,000 federal building will be erected on the Kulaas site, which was originally selected by the government at Second and Reishus streets.

Word to this effect was received by John E. Greene from United States District Attorney Engerud, who received his information direct from Washington.

District Attorney Engerud states that the government, after looking into the situation, prefers the original site selected by the government, and instructs Mr. Greene, in the event that he cannot quiet the title within a reasonable time, to begin proceedings to acquire the property by condemnation.

Other Minot residents have received letters from Senator P. J. McCumber stating that the government had decided to adhere to the original site selected.

Congress has appropriated $150,000 for the building and it is thought that this sum will be available within a short time, so that it is possible that work might be started on the building by the early fall.

THREE BILLS ARE PASSED

Grant for Forest Fire Fighters Is Increased to $106,000.

St. Paul, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—The legislature spent yesterday afternoon in the very dry and uninteresting but very necessary labor of passing appropriation bills.

The proceedings were very tame, and nowhere near the amount of fight that had been expected developed. In the senate there was practically none, and that body passed the three appropriation bills a couple of hours before the house finished plodding through their many details.

No amendments of consequence were adopted, except that the house increased the appropriation for paying those who fought forest fires last year from $50,000 to $105,000, the full amount due. In the house an amendment by Representative Andrew Anderson, striking out the provision that the appropriating of $325,000 annually for the state university shall be continuous, was adopted. The university

URGES RESIGNATION OF BOARD OF CONTROL

L. A. LYDIARD,

WHITTIER IS EXONERATED

House Reverses Report By Red Wing Boys' School Committee.

Recommendation of Change in the Management Is Stricken Out.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

St. Paul, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—The house last night amended the report of the committee which investigated the Red Wing boys' training school, by striking out the recommendation that a change be made in the management, thus exonerating Supt. Whittier. The debate lasted until nearly midnight.

Representative L. A. Lydiard moved the adoption of the majority report, which was signed by Senator Clague, Senator J. D. Sullivan, and Representatives Holmberg, Lydiard and Reed.

The report charged that unnecessary cruelty had been shown by Supt. Whittier and his assistants, asserted that while slight corporal punishment was all right as to younger inmates it was vicious as to those over 16, and recommended a change in the management and the discharge of assistants Dorn and Stoppleman.

Representative R. C. Dunn moved

RECEIVER FOR A BIG CORPORATION

Bon Air Coal & Iron Company in Trouble Over Judgment.

Augusta, Me., April 12.—Frank L. Dutton of this city has been appointed received of the Bon Air Coal & Iron company, a Maine $5,000,000 corporation, which operates coal and iron mines in Tennessee. The appointment was made on petition of Clarence J. Housman of New York city and grew out of a suit brought by Charles W. Hotchkiss against the corporation in which he recovered judgment for $130,000.

An attempt is to be made to enforce the judgment through receivership proceedings.

FORMER MAYOR ENDS LIFE.

Jacob Clute of Schenectady Kills Himself With Revolver.

Schenectady, N. Y., April 12.—Jacob W. Clute, three times mayor of Schenectady, killed himself with a pistol shot in the bathroom of his home today while the sheriff and under-sheriff were waiting at the door with a body execution for him, growing out of alleged irregularities in the handling of an estate.

FORCED TO ASSIGN.

Hay Company of Springfield, Mass., in Trouble.

Springfield, Mass., April 12.—Reporting liabilities of $100,000 and assets of $6,000, the S. D. Viets company, hay, grain and flour handlers, have been forced to make an assignment to William E. Gilbert, vice president of the Union Trust company. Nearly all of the creditors reside in Chicago, Minneapolis and other Western cities.

ROGERS BOY IS KIDNAPED BY HIS UNCLE

Employed Ex-Convict to Do Work Who Betrayed Him.

Ransom of $12,000 Paid for Boy's Return Has Been Found.

Las Vegas, N. M., April 12.—Implicated by the confession of Joe Wiggins, a former life convict, Will Rogers, an uncle of little Waldo Rogers, was last night arrested for complicity in the lad's abduction. For his return $12,000 ransom was paid, Will Rogers acting as agent for Mrs. Rogers.

Late last night Will Rogers confessed his part in the abduction. He told where the money was hidden and officers have gone in search of the $12,000. In his statement Will Rogers does not connect his brother, John, with the kidnaping plot. The latter has not been arersted, but is under surveillance.

The disclosures have again aroused the city to a degree of excitement

WOULD SECURE HYDE'S RELEASE

Attorneys to Soon Make Application to Judge of Criminal Court.

Kansas City, Mo., April 12.—Dr. B. C. Hyde's attorneys will hold a conference this afternoon to decide upon future action in behalf of their client. The first step probably will be an application to Judge Ralph S. Latshaw of the criminal court for the release of the physician on bond. Frank P. Walsh, leading counsel for Dr. Hyde, said this morning that he believed the application would be granted.

"I have read the opinion of the supreme court by which the case of Dr. Hyde was reversed and remanded for a new trial," said Mr. Walsh, "and it is really more favorable to the interests of Dr. Hyde than first reports indicated. The very wording of the opinion is almost a command to the trial judge to release Dr. Hyde on bond.

"All Dr. Hyde's interests are here, the securities he will offer are first-class and it is pure nonsense to suppose that he would resort to flight at this time when his prospects are so rosy.

"We will apply for his release on bond just as soon as the preliminaries can be arranged."

Des Moines, Iowa, April 12.—Judge William S. Kenyon was elected United States senator to succeed the late Senator Jonathan P. Dolliver, on the sixty-seventh ballot in the Iowa legislature this afternoon. The victory came with the second ballot of today's session, and following a stormy session Kenyon received 78 votes, just enough to elect, against 26 for Supreme Court Justice Horace E. Deemer, his Republican opponent.

NO FOOD FAMINE IN ALASKA TOWN

Supplies Removed Before Business Section of Iditarod Burned.

Seattle, Wash., April 12.—While more than twenty business buildings were destroyed in the recent fire which wiped out the business section of Iditarod, Alaska, there is no food famine, as nearly all the stocks of supplies in the stores were removed to places of safety. The fire occurred during a heavy snow storm, and the town being without a fire department, citizens fought the flames by means of a water bucket brigade.

MILLIONS INVOLVED

Liabilities Aggregate $13,500,000 With Assets of About $1,000,000.

New York, April 12.—Three involuntary petitions in bankruptcy aggregating $13,500,000, were filed here today against three officers of the failed Carnegie Trust company, now in the hands of the state superintendent of banks. The respondents are William J. Cummins, president of the trust company; Charles Arthur Moore, Jr., and Martin J. Condon, directors. Their financial status is given in the petitions as:

Cummins, liabilities $5,000,000; assets $400,000.

Moore, liabilities $2,000,000; assets $100,000.

Condon, liabilities $6,500,000; assets $500,000.

Payson Merrill was named receiver for all three under bonds of $100,000.

But three petitioning creditors are named, which is all the law requires, but their lawyers said that many more are associated with them. The creditors who appear are:

The Complainants.

Hermann G. Brewster, $30,000; Herbert Hatfield, $9,644, and James S. Watson, $80,000, all for money loaned. They allege against Cummins in their petition that preferential payments have been made since he became insolvent and that there has been transfer and concealment of considerable property with intent to hinder, delay and defraud creditors.

CHAMPAGNE DESTROYED

Result of Riot Over Action Taken By the French Government.

Damery, Department of Marne, France, April 12.—The champagne riots which began in this department yesterday were continued today. Wine cellars are being destroyed and the disorder is spreading in spite of the presence of troops called out to preserve order.

The trouble began yesterday on the the receipt of news from Paris that the senate had passed a resolution in favor of the suppression of all territorial delimitation of the area in which wine can legally be designated as champagne.

The manifestants are organized and aroused to a pitch of fervor in the justice of their cause. During the progress of the advance they sang revolu-

PROSECUTION CLOSES CASE

All Testimony Against Judge Cowan Has Been Presented.

Bismarck, N. D., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Before 5 o'clock this afternoon the case of the prosecution against Judge John Cowan of Devils Lake will have been completed, announcement to that effect being made at noon today by counsel for the board of managers. That will bring the opening statement of the defense on for tomorrow morning, as the court will take an immediate adjournment when the prosecution announces that it rests.

This morning's session was given over entirely to the introduction of court records to substantiate the charges against Cowan of frequenting places that he knew were violating the liquor laws or that were, in fact, violating such laws.

The senate yesterday voted to exclude the evidence or offer of proof with reference to delaying cases in the second judicial district other than those specified in the articles of impeachment. The vote was 24 to 18 against admitting the unspecified cases. The result of the roll call was as follows:

OVERTURES TO MADERO

Unofficial Proposal for Peace Made to Insurrecto Leader.

Conference Held in Rebel Camp Near the Bustillo Ranch.

Madero's Camp, West of Bustillos, Mex., via Laredo, Texas, April 12.—Peace overtures, for the first time since the Mexican insurrection began, were laid before Francisco I. Madero, the insurrecto leader, at his camp west of Bustillos Hacienda yesterday. The result is still pending with a prospect that he will either reject or accept the proposals within a few days. The preliminaries are of an unofficial character, but are looked upon as possibly opening a way for more direct negotiations between Senor Madero and Mexico City.

Federicko Moye, a merchant, went to Mexico City, where, he says, he held a conference with government officials relative to peace. Minister Limantour is said to have been one of those consulted.

Senor Moye was told that the gov-

HEAR TALKS ON MISSIONS

Second Day's Sessions of Laymen's Conference in Progress.

The follow-up conference of the Laymen's Missionary movement in Duluth was begun last night with a big meeting at Pilgrim Congregational church. Fully 200 men attended the supper which preceded the meeting and many more later to hear the speakers.

Today at noon the advisory committee held a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. and conferred with the visiting speakers on the subject of the continuation of the mission work in Duluth. Since the conference a year ago nearly all Duluth churches have done good work in extending the movement and the present conference is intended to strengthen them in their efforts to that end.

This afternoon at 4 o'clock the conference session will be held at Pilgrim Congregational church. W. L. Smithies will sum up the local situation and different phases of mission work will be discussed. A supper will be served in the church parlors at 6 o'clock and it will be followed by addresses. J. Campbell White will speak on "The Hope of Evangelizing the World," and Col. E. W. Halford will discuss "Every Christian's World Field and Obligation." Rev. Robert Yost, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will preside at the conference session this afternoon and Rev. M. S. Rice will preside this evening.

Mr. White's Talk.

J. Campbell White, who is general secretary of the laymen's movement and a mission worker with an international reputation, made a profound impression on Duluth people last night. He was unable to attend the conference held here a year ago and his visit this year was looked forward to with great expectations by Duluth workers. They were not disappointed. Mr. White has a wide knowledge of the field, a firm grasp of the subject and a manner of putting his facts before his hearers in convincing style.

Mr. White made a strong plea for the foreign missions. He said that the field should be occupied and without occupying the field, praying cannot be efficacious. "Send the missionaries and pray afterwards," he said. He took up the objection that giving money to foreign missions leaves less for the home missions and said that the theory does not work out in practice. When foreign mission work prospers, home mission work prospers, he said.

Mr. White went on to say that the present plan is to send one missionary to every 25,000 people in heathen lands. He stated that after ten years in India he knew that it was possible to reach all the people in this way.

He ended his address with a strong plea that more interest be taken in missionary work. "We are facing eternal bankruptcy except as we invest ourselves and our treasure in things spiritual," he said.

Col. E. W. Halford spoke on "The Present Working Policy of the Laymen's Missionary Movement." He said that if men would give the same intelligence and energy to the church that they gave to their business, the world would soon be evangelized.

"Is this too much to urge, too much to expect?" he added. "It is a question of attitude. If the church is a mere side issue with men, if its work is a matter of little or no concern, then, of course, the answer to the challenge will be a continuance of the indifference, neglect, and even opposition, studied or unstudied, that has for so long a time characterized the relation men have held and maintained.

"On the other hand, if the church is believed to be important enough, and its work large enough to enlist the life and effort of men, it may be expected that a new conception will come to Christian men, and that it will be a possible thing to infuse Christian life and service with something akin to the methods used in the business enterprises of this day and age. The epigram that 'there must be more business in religion and more of religion in business' states the case exactly."

WHAT THE OPEN MARKET HAS DONE

The report of the Producers' Co-operative Market association, submitted to the public affairs committee of the Commercial club by John Stone Pardee, secretary of the association, follows:

"The Co-operative Market association, established one year ago through the good offices of the public affairs committee, has demonsrated its usefulness and necessity. It has opened markets where new settlements were just beginning production; it has encouraged larger planting on the same area for the current season and it is instructing farmers what to grow, how to pack and how to ship to get the best results. In the movement now afoot to make this one of the principal sources of the United States for seed potatoes, this association may have a wide influence.

"Early in its experience the association outgrew its financial provisions and during the winter it has been constantly embarrassed by the fact that no capital had been provided to take care of the sums necessarily tied up in the business. By the assistance of the Commercial club, sufficient credit is now given to the association to put its business on a sound basis. Its members, in the meantime, are subscribing toward funds, for the most part payable out of their coming harvests, which will replace by their own capital the credit thus furnished.

"The association is one of the wholesome factors in the development of this section, in establishing friendly relations between the city and the country and in building up here the markets for food stuffs on which the industrial development of the city in large measure depends.

"On an experimental basis the association handled $30,000 of farm products in its first year, a volume that will be multiplied over and over in the current and succeeding years.

"JOHN STONE PARDEE,
"Secretary."

RAILROADS

TWO RAILROADS ARE INDICTED.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 12.—Indictments were returned yesterday against the Pennsylvania Railroad company and the Pittsburg & Lake Erie Railroad company, by the federal grand jury in the United States district court. The charges are of a criminal nature and involve the alleged failure by an interstate carrier to observe the tariffs filed with the Interstate commerce commission and with unlawfully granting concessions in the matter of demurrage charges.

The indictments against the railroads are the same, and there are ten counts for both on each charge, or forty counts in all. Upon conviction, the maximum fines would aggregate $400,000 against each of the corporations.

All of the offenses are alleged to have been committed within the last three years. The Pittsburg & Lake Erie company's violations consist of shipping carloads of billets from Youngstown, Ohio, to the Carnegie Steel company of this city. Some of the cars, it is said, were detained twenty-four days beyond the free time allowed, and the railroad failed to collect demurrage charges. Shipments of ore over the Pennsylvania railroad from Cleveland and Ashtabula, Ohio, to Pittsburg, with similar demurrage concessions on cars, is also charged.

The actions will be placed on the list for the May term of court by United States District Attorney John H. Jordan, who was assisted in the investigation by J. J. Hickey of Washington, a special official of the interstate commerce commission.

DOES NOT OBJECT TO PHYSICAL VALUATION.

Topeka, Kan., April 12.—H. U. Mudge, president of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroad, in an address before the Topeka Commercial club last night said he was not opposed to physical valuation of railroads and declared that the people finally would settle railway problems correctly. In the course of his address he said:

"I believe most railroad men now think it would have been better for the railroads if the federal government had claimed the right to regulate all freight rates and that the railroads had conceded this from the start.

"We have provided machinery for abolishing discriminations and rebates, but we are now confronted with a new theory—that even if rates are uniform and fair within themselves, they ought to be reduced so that the income of the roads shall be only sufficient to pay a fixed return on the physical value of the property, in other words that railroad stocks shall be taken out of the field of speculation.

"This, I think, would mean that investors would demand bonds instead of stocks. If the return is to be limited, they will insist upon some security and we will be dependent entirely upon borrowed money for our improvements, with the result that our fixed charges will increase very fast and finally there will come a time when we cannot meet them.

I do not objetc to the physical valuation of railroads. I know that in the aggregate the rates would have to be increased to pay a fair return, but I doubt the wisdom of limiting the earnings of the roads in this way."

GOVERNOR WILL SPEAK AT MARSHALL MAY 30.

St. Paul, Minn., April 12.—Governor A. O. Eberhart will deliver the Memorial day address this year at Marshall, where an imposing soldiers' memorial monument is to be dedicated. He accepted the invitation last week. Governor Eberhart will soon issue the regular Memorial day proclamation. Many of the state officials are now being arranged with for Memorial day addresses.

CRIMINAL NEGLIGENCE

Failure to Consider Workhouse Plan So Described By Mayor.

Both City and County Jails Condemned—Time Is Ripe.

The public affairs committee of the Commercial club went on record last night as against the erection of a new and expensive jail and in favor of the establishment of a rock pile for vagrants, a work farm for drunkards and other petty offenders and the use of the jail only for those awaiting trial on grievous charges. On motion of Mayor M. B. Cullum, Chairman W. A. McGonagle of the committee was authorized to appoint a committee to confer with the county board and endeavor to bring the city and county together on a plan for a joint workhouse.

Mayor Cullum made a strong speech in favor of the workhouse plan declaring that the city and county should take advantage of the results obtained in other places where advanced ideas in caring for petty offenders have been adopted. He declared that it is little short of criminal for a community to confine in a vile jail men whose only fault is an inordinate appetite for liquor. He said they should be given an opportunity to breathe fresh air and work the alcohol out of their systems before being turned loose.

"The city of Duluth and county of St. Louis, now that both the county jail and city lock-up have been condemned, are in the best position of any community to profit by the experiences of others," he declared. "This question must be important enough for the city and county to get together before they spend half a quarter of a million dollars, and discover if they cannot profit by new schemes. In the city of New York they have established workhouses and at least half of the minor offenders come out reformed. The results are so promising and so profitable in morals and money that other cities are adopting the idea.

"We are at a stage when it would seem to be almost criminal negligence not to profit by the experiences of others. To take an unoffending woodsman, who comes into the city and spends his money in the satisfaction of his appetite and his passions, and to throw him into a dungeon, is inhuman. In Minneapolis they have taken prisoners of like character out to a farm near the city and by the work of the prisoners they have a fine set of buildings that represent financial returns, while the returns in benefits to the community by the reform of the men cannot be estimated. Not only men, but women, have been sent out to the farm to breathe the fresh air and to do healthful work. We should do the same, and we could inaugurate the system at a small expense.

"The county is fully as responsible in this matter as the city. If we take the subject on geographical lines, the county is probably responsible for 75 per cent of the men we get in the municipal court. They come from outside of the city and go outside of the city again."

Others spoke along similar lines, and there was no objection to the adoption of the motion placing the club on record as in favor of the work farm, or the motion for a committee to work on the subject. It was reported that the great difficulty was in getting the county and city together, and the committee will offer suggestions to both the county and city in the hope that the system may be inaugurated.

Aeroplanes Not Fighters.

Wilbur Wright does not believe the aeroplane will ever get to be a weapon of war, except as a scout. He thinks that weapons will be devised that can drop them by shell fire. As science makes one discovery, another follows in logical line, just as the making of golden grain belt beers by pure methods of sterilization, followed the proof that the old way of brewing from ordinary water, and impure air, bred millions of germs in the lager. It's another case of the moss covered bucket against the crystal glass. Your dealer or duluth branch of minneapolis brewing company will supply you.

ENDS MENTAL TROUBLES.

Litchfield Man Takes His Life at Fergus Falls.

Fergus Falls, Minn., April 12.—The body of John Palm of Litchfield, an inmate of the insane hospital here, was found hanging in a clump of woods on the eastern portion of the hospital grounds Monday forenoon by Sam Deak, another inmate.

Mr. Palm was 51 years of age and was formerly a prosperous merchant of Litchfield. He became melancholy, and feeling that he would be benefited by hospital treatment, he came here voluntarily on Feb. 11. He was allowed to go about the grounds and disappeared on April 2. His brother and another party came up from Litchfield Sunday to endeavor to locate him, and his body was discovered while they were here. He had fastened a rop to a limb of a tree and slowly strangled himself, his knees touching the ground when he was found. His insanity had been of a religious nature. He is survived by a family of eight children. The remains were taken back to Litchfield for interment Monday night.

DEGREES ARE BEING WORKED

Large Class Taking the Scottish Rite Degrees at Masonic Temple.

The Scottish Rite Masons of Northern Minnesota are having their annual reunion or celebration which includes the conferring of degrees on candidates. They are in session at the Masonic temple.

The work began yesterday morning. Last night the candidates were taken up as high as the fourteenth degree. The work was contiued today. The candidates will get their thirty-second degree Thursday.

The celebration will continue until midnight Thursday. Tomorrow the annual Maundy Thursday banquet will be held.

DO YOU WANT TO BUY OR RENT?

Read Next Saturday's Herald and Save Time and Trouble.

Remember that next Saturday The Herald will make a special effort to publish a complete list of all the improved and unimproved city property for sale, and houses, flats and rooms for rent. It will be a timely list, coming as it does before the first of May, which has been established by custom as "moving day" in Duluth.

There are a great many persons who will make a change of residence on or about May 1. Some of them may desire to buy homes or buy a lot on which to build. Others will be looking for places to rent, or for rooms. Be sure your ad reaches their eye next Saturday.

Mail, telephone or bring your ad to The Herald office as early this week as possible, and mark it plainly how many times it is to run. One cent a word will do the business.

If you have farm lands or mineral lands for sale, no better opportunity has ever been afforded to reach the buyer.

WOMAN'S REALM.

The copies of the April issue of the "Courant" which were ordered through Mrs. F. L. Barrows, have arrived and are now at the public labrary, where all those who ordered them can obtain them. There are also some extra copies, so that any one intrested may obtain one.

Almost the entire issue was devoted to "The Care of the State's Delinquents," and the subject which has been of such great interest to all people of Minnesota as well as in other states, is treated in a most thorough manner. Mrs. I. Higbee, president of the State Federation of Women's clubs, writes that in her opinion the subject is "treated with the greatest fairness." Mrs. Higbee was with the investigating committee on its trip to Red Wing and is well informed on the matter.

THE EVENING STORY

"A Friend In Need Is A Friend Indeed"

By Jane Harris.

One morning six of us, at breakfast at Capt. Neil's hay ranch, were startled out of our seat by a sudden pounding of horses' hoofs. Fearing a stampede of our recently corralled stock, we all ran outdoors, and were almost instantly surrounded by a swarm of wild riders, be-feathered, and armed for war. Their chief, Two Bulls, leaped from his pony and held an animated colloquy, in the Sioux tongue, with the captain.

At the end of it the ranchman turned to us, and in his snappy, matter of fact way, interpreted.

"Boys," he said, "there's a lot of Assiniboins coming down this side of the river, shooting up people and gathering horses. A hunting party from Two Bulls' village was chased last night. Two Bulls wants us to help fight them. In my opinion it's either fight with them or stand a siege at the ranch, taking the chances in this dry weather of being burned out. What will you do, stay at the ranch or go and fight in the open?"

He turned towards us, and as his eyes rested on his nephews, Joe and myself, we saw in his face, stout hearted old soldier and plainsman though he was, the pallor of a new anxiety.

He seemed somewhat relieved when we voted promptly, with his older men, to go out and fight with the Sioux.

"Good!" he said quietly. "I believe that's best. We'll take our stand at the Four Mile ravines.

In ten minutes we were mounted and clattering up the river. A grizzled veteran galloped beside me.

The Four Mile ravines were but three miles above the hay ranch. At a point about two miles up the river a scout signalled to us with his blanket that the Assiniboins were in sight.

He went forward now at a stiff gallop. The captain dropped back alongside me for a word. "Keep close to me and obey orders," was all he said.

In a brief time, following an old buffalo path in single file, we had crossed the first ravine, and five minutes later we met the signalling scout up on a high slope. His news was disquieting. The enemy, in numbers "like the grass," were already swarming into the upper ravine.

Very quickly we set forward and hurriedly were arrayed among the bush at the heads of three small draws. We had fairly good fighting cover, and dismounted to fight.

The captain stationed me on his right, and Joe on his left, each two or three yards distant, and he cautioned us again to "stick by" and to obey his every motion of command. The fighting came quickly. Commanded to lie flat in the bushes, I did not know the enemy was at hand until I heard firing and saw my uncle levelling his rifle among the bush tops.

The first volley from our men had the effect of driving the Assiniboin scouts back on the main body. In five minutes the savages were swarming in front of us, riding in two great circles from the nearer rims of which they stormed our cover with bullets and arrows.

I could not see well from my position, and, forgetting my orders, I crawled a little way to the left, where the brush was not so high. Here I had a better, although more exposed, position, and could fire with some degree of aim at the whirling streams of riders. I suppose I forgot my fears. At any rate, I fired rapidly, and no doubt recklessly, until my cartridges were gone.

I stated to crawl back to the captain to report my lack of ammunition. At that moment I felt a hard stroke on the back of my neck. A bent brush, as I thought, had hit me and nearly knocked me over.

I put a hand to my neck and raised myself to my knees, feeling a little dizzy at first; then, with a curious sense of indifference to the fighting, to everything about me, I crawled mechanically on.

Suddenly there was a rush in front of me. Somebody jerked me to my feet, and I found myself between Joe and the captain, running down the hill toward our horses. I saw other men and Indians also running for the horses.

On our right there was a great dust rising out of a ravine. We had been flanked, were beaten, and in hot retreat. I realized this in a dull way. I saw a fleeing Sioux ahead of me pitch down the slope, roll two or three times over, and lie still, and I knew that Assiniboins were shooting at us from the abandoned bushes on our left.

We got to our horses quickly. I tried to mount mine, and failed. Someone behind me lifted me into my saddle. I turned and saw Joe, his face white and anxious.

"There's blood on your back," he shouted. "Are you much hurt?"

"It's nothing," I said. "Just a bush." At that moment, though, I realized that my shirt was wet at the collar and between my shoulders.

The captain and Joe rode on each side of me as close as they could press their ponies. We went pitching into a steep draw, where my horse several times slid on his haunches; and braced on my stirrups, I clung with both hands to my saddle pommel, not realizing that my gun had fallen out of my grasp.

We reached the bottom of the ravine in safety, and were spurring our horses for the main channel or cut. Our Sioux had scattered, and but one of the captain's men was with us.

In a minute we should have reached the big ravine; its opening was before us, but the space was suddenly filled with charging hostiles.

The next instant we were struggling up a steep slope on the left, our ponies digging their hoofs into the hard soil, while a flight of bullets and arrows whistled round us.

At the end we halted in a clump of bushes high up on a slope. I was lifted, wondering, from my horse, which, with the others, was turned loose. Joe and the captain tried to lay me down on my face; but I scrambled to my feet and insisted on standing.

"He might as well!" I heard the captain mutter, and curiously I noted that his face was white and set. He and Joe ceased to urge me to lie down.

While able to stand and use my eyes, I had lost a part of my faculties. I knew that the Indians were gathering behind the ridge near at hand, that the enemy was both above and behind us. I could see the scalplocks over the rises here and there, as one discharged his arrows at long range.

But I felt no fear, although a charge upon us was so imminent. I was dully curious to see the wild fellows again circling about in all their color and regalia.

Joe, who had been scribbling something on an old bit of paper, got to his feet, white of face, but calm. He reached a hand to me.

"Good-bye, old man!" he said. "I've written a line to the folks, which I hope some one will find."

I took his hand mechanically, wondering that he was about to leave me. Then came shouts in our ears, shouts of cheer from the captain and his men, and in a whirl of dust, I saw a cloud of horsemen plunging down the slope above us.

Somehow a little life thrilled into me, and I understood that Hollow Horn Bear and his men had come and were fighting—fighting like demons—to save us. I added my shouts, in some fashion, to those of my comrades in the bush.

In a twinkling, though, we were surrounded by two hundred battling horsemen, where, on the steep slope, ponies fell and men were flung headlong, to regain their feet and their mounts, if not mortally hurt, or to continue the fight on foot.

In the midst of this I saw my uncle at my side waving his arms in the sign language. Neither he nor Joe had a cartridge left. Then a powerful Indian, mounted on a black mule, his own face painted black, his war bonnet hanging by a string to his scalplock, swooped me off the ground as if I had been a blanket roll, and bearing me in his arms, plunged recklessly down the hill and out of the fight.

At that moment I realized for the first time that I was seriously wounded, and that I was growing faint from the loss of blood. And with the knowledge came more desperate weakness, and then the world suddenly became a blank.

When I came to myself, I was on my bunk at the ranch house, the fight was over, the hostiles whipped, and Joe and my uncle were at my side.

Then I learned that when I thought I had been hit by a bent bush a buckshot had gone through the back of my neck. I was told that my rescuer, the Hollow Horn Bear and his men, on their way up river, had heard and located the fighting, had crossed at the mouth of the first ravine, had encircled among the steeps and had taken the enemy by surprise.

They had come none too soon. The Sioux were minus fifteen good warriors, and there were but five of us left at the ranch.

16-YEAR OLD PRINCESS TO WED

PRINCESS ELIZABETH OF ROUMANIA.

The beautiful daughter of the crown prince of Roumania is reported engaged to the oldest son of the crown prince of Greece. Princess Elizabeth is only 16 years old. She inherits much of her beauty from her mother who was Princess Marie of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha.

The Doctor

The Lymphatic Glands.

"It is not uncommon to find children and young people with swollen glands behind the ear, towards the back of the head or in the neighborhood of the jaw. They may be due to chronic eruptions about the face and head, to sores, to running ears, or to some injury, while diseases such as measles or scarlet fever may cause the glands to inflame.

In chronic inflammation it will be noticed that a hard kernel, the gland in reality, can be felt and moved about under the skin. An acute attack will be marked by swelling, the presence of fever and a good deal of pain.

What causes the inflammation depends a good deal upon the position of the glands affected for instance, decayed teeth will be at the bottom of inflamed glands under the chin, an irritable or gathered finger will produce inflammation in the glands of the armpit, and so on.

To remove the source of irritation is the only way of getting the inflammation to subside, and it is specially to be remembered that the glands itself must not be rubbed. This is often done with the idea of dispersing the swelling.

Cloths wrung out of warm water may be laid on the part, and the patient should take an aperient castor oil or seidlitz powder. Light nourishing diet, such as milk puddings and eggs, should be given.

If the inflammation passes away without the formation of matter, well and good, but in many cases an abscess forms in the gland and requires to be opened by a surgeon. It is altogether a mistake to suppose that the better way is to apply poultices and draw the matter out through the skin.

This is a more lengthy process, besides which the wound made by the breaking of the abscess is not so likely to heal, because it will be irregular. Too often a bad scar results, and the only chance of preventing this is to have the abscess properly treated at once, not to call in the doctor as a last resource.

This is the age of nerves, therefore let us endeavor to take things as easy as possible or as consistent with circumstances. We should not worry over trifles—this is what most women do. We should try to keep our minds free from unkind or uncharitable or discontented thoughts.

Such emotions cause wrinkles and sallowness, and some say that ill-temper is one of the causes of indigestion. I think every woman should find time for a little reading and a little needlework every day. In the old days, when there was less going about, and women read and sewed more, there was no talk of nervousness.

Now, there is another great aid in giving a woman a feeling of comfort and well-being, and that is the fact of being nicely dressed—not expensively, but dressed with care, and in a becoming style.

It is right for a woman to wish to look well in the sight of others, and if she allows herself to drift into a carelessness, or to look, a dowdy, she does not care to go out, and, as a natural consequence, her health and spirits suffer. A well-made costume, a neat, becoming hat and good boots will make all the difference.

How to Remove "Salt Cellars."

Evelyn—In reply to your request for your friend, I will endeavor to explain to you the best and quickest method of taking away the hollows from a scraggy neck and making it look rounded and beautiful. I hope your friend will persist in the treatment until she finds she is deriving benefit from it. I know so many people who hear of good remedies for certain evils, try them for a very limited time, think they are no use because they do not give the desired result in a day or two, and give them up in disgust.

There is no "lightning" method of filling out hollows in the neck, so unless your friend has patience, and does not mind expending about a quarter of an hour's time every day in carrying out my instructions, she had better leave the matter alone altogether. The treatment is perfectly simple, and consists almost entirely in feeding or nourishing the flesh by external means.

Before the nourishing process is commenced, the skin must be prepared for it by being bathed in hot water until the pores are well opened, and the skin softened and warmed. If the pores are all closed up the skin cannot absorb the oil that is necessary for its nourishment.

One of the best methods of opening the pores is to apply hot compresses of flannel. In the evening, before retiring, is the best time for the treatment.

The neck must be bared, and then hot water applied with two squares of thin white flannel. First one square is dipped in a basin of very hot water, wrung and applied to one of the "salt cellars." As soon as one flannel cools the other should be put on so that the skin is kept warm all the time. The process should be repeated for at least five minutes before the skin is wiped dry.

Now comes the fattening application. Have a small dish of oil ready, and into this the fingers must be dipped, and then applied to the hollows. These are rubbed firmly with a rotary motion until the skin feels in a glow, and all the oil is absorbed. It will take about ten minutes.

After this there should be a final application of a very little cologne or alcohol to act as an astringent in shrinking or closing the pores again. It is better not to try and treat the whole of the neck every night; one "salt cellar" at a time is generally sufficient.

Almost any kind of oil will help in fattening the neck, or any other part of the body; but I think there is nothing better than olive oil. As its name implies it is made from vegetable fat, and its application will, therefore, cause no tendency to superfluous hair. It also contains a great percentage of skin food, and is very nourishing.

Some people take a teaspoonful of olive oil daily all through the winter, and find it of great benefit, not only as a preventive of illness, but as a skin beautifier and a flesh former.

If your friend objects to the odor of the oil when used for outward applications she might add a few drops of lavender to it. This will not injure the beneficial qualities, and it will take away the slightly unpleasant smell.

FOOD PRICES ARE LOWER

Cost of Living Is on the Decrease in Duluth.

	April 1910.	April 1911.
Navy Beans per bu	$3.00	$2.60
Cornmeal, lb	.04	.03
Lard, per lb	.18	.12
Cheese, good grade, per lb	.25	.22
Rolled oats,	.05	.03½
Ham	.18	.16
Bacon	.25	.18 to .24
Flour by the barrel	6.50	6.00
Eggs	.24	.17
Butter	.35	.27
Prunes, by the lb	.04	.06
Apples, by the peck	.50	.75
Coffee	.20 to .40	.25 to .45
Potatoes	.45	.85

Canned goods, tomatoes, corn, etc., are about a penny a tin higher than was the case this time last year.

Fruits have been cheaper this season than last. This includes oranges, lemons, cranberries.

There is no change in the price of bread. The loaves remain the same size as last year and the price is the same, 5 cents to 10 cents a loaf.

Breakfast foods are the same as in 1910.

It is cheaper to live in Duluth than it was a year ago.

Out of eighteen items used in every home every day, it has been found that eleven commodities are cheaper than they were last year. Five items are higher and in two there has been no change.

The prices quoted above are the retail prices of foodstuffs. They were obtained from a local grocer this morning.

Beans, corn meal, lard, cheese, rolled oats, ham, bacon, flour, eggs, butter and fruits are cheaper this year than they were last and the difference in the price in nearly every instance is enough so that it is noticeable in making a purchase of groceries.

Dried fruits are a trifle higher. Apples are the only fresh fruit that are higher. Coffee is higher, owing to the fine Italian hand of the coffee trust, and potatoes are nearly twice as much per bushel as they were this time last year. Canned goods, such as tomatoes and corn, are the same and in spite of the talk some time ago about the increase in the price of bread or the cutting down of the loaves by the bakers, the price is the same and the loaves have not been cut down.

The items that have decreased are the items that are generally used. They count for a good deal in the size of the monthly bill. Ham, bacon, flour, butter, lard and eggs are a big part of the monthly order. Eggs are the cheapest in years, according to local grocery men.

The prices in Duluth have some St. Paul and Minneapolis prices beaten. Down in the Twin Cities, for instance, they are paying 15 cents a pound for lard. In Duluth the price is 12 cents. Butter is 28 cents a pound in Minneapolis and 27 cents a pound in Duluth. Eggs are practically the same in both Duluth and St. Paul.

If the Duluth housewife can get along for a time without apples, canned goods, some kinds of fruits, she can buy nearly everything else cheaper than she could a year ago with the exception of tea and coffee and spuds.

The dry season of last year is responsible for the high price of canned goods. Salmon in tins is also higher and this is because of the restrictive laws imposed on the catching and shipment of this fish by the Pacific coast legislatures.

Careful figuring will, with the present prices in force, allow the good wife to trim the monthly bills to a considerable extent.

WEST END

OLD RESIDENT IS CALLED BY DEATH

Gustave Hanson, Aged 49, Lived in Duluth for Twenty-Three Years.

Gustaf Hanson, aged 49, old resident and a well-known wood dealer at the West end, died after a short illness yesterday afternoon at his home, 2015 West Fourth street.

Mr. Hanson came to Duluth twenty-three years ago last fall and has been a resident ever since that time, locating in the West end. Most of the time he has been engaged in the wood business.

Mr. Hanson is survived by a wife and two daughters, Misses Victoria and Goldie Hanson. He is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Albert Wentin of St. Paul, and a brother, Albert Hanson of this city.

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence, with interment in Park Hill cemetery. Rev. Swaney Nelson, pastor of the Swedish Baptist church, will officiate.

ADAMS ASSOCIATION TO GIVE FIRST PARTY OF SERIES.

The first of the series of dancing parties to be given this summer by the Adams Athletic association will take place at Lincoln park pavilion tomorrow evening. A good program has been arranged and it is expected that the party will be well attended.

The committees in charge of the affair are:

Floor Committee—Helmer Otterson, Albert Olson, Paul Nyman, Helmer Grener, Axel Erickson and Arnold Olson.

WRATH STIRRED BY POST CARDS

Contemptible Methods Used to Injure West End Club.

The maddest young men in Duluth are some of the members of the Adams Athletic association of the West end.

Every summer the members give a series of dancing parties at Lincoln park to help pay the expenses of keeping up the clubrooms, and also for the pleasure the dances afford. During the last few days, scores of postcards have been circulated in the West end, addressed to young men who are not members of the society, and reading as follows:

"Dear Sir—On Thursday, April 13, we contemplate opening our dancing season at the Lincoln Park auditorium, and you are hereby notified in writing that your presence is not requested at any of our dances. This is in a strictly confidential manner, and is the outcome of an unanimous vote of the club. Kindly be governed accordingly. COMMITTEE,

"Adams Athletic Association."

It is not difficult to imagine how many bitter enemies have been made for the society by this means, and the committee knew nothing of the cards until one of the members had one brought to his notice by an irate recipient. The members of the association are trying to discover the writer of the cards, and also to trace as many of them as possible.

FUNERAL OF YOUNG WIFE WILL BE HELD FRIDAY.

The funeral of Mrs. Agnes Freeman, the one month's bride of John Freeman, who died yesterday at her home, 2113 West First street, will be held Friday instead of Thursday, as had been announced. The services will take place at the Olson & Crawford undertaking rooms, 2118 West First street, at 2 o'clock. Rev. C. G. Olson, pastor of Bethany Swedish Lutheran church, will officiate, and burial will be in the Lutheran cemetery.

Mrs. Nels Larson Dies.

Mrs. Johanna K. Larson, wife of Nels Larson, died yesterday at her home, 302 Eighteenth and One-half avenue west. She was 33 years old, and besides her husband is survived by a daughter, 16 months old. Death was due to liver trouble. Mr. and Mrs. Larson were married nearly three years ago in Duluth. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Olson & Crawford undertaking rooms.

De Merce Child Dies.

Frank Joseph De Merce, the 8-month-old son of Tim De Merce of 2016 West First street, died yesterday of pneumonia. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock from St. Clement's Catholic church, Twenty-first avenue west and Second street, with interment in Calvary cemetery.

West End Briefs.

Mme. Hilda Hellstrom Gagne will give a concert this evening at Bricklayer's hall, Nineteenth avenue west and First street, appearing in different Swedish national costumes and dances. Madame Gagne has appeared before West end audiences before.

Mrs. Joseph Peer of 2717 West Fourth street, entertained the Women's Missionary Society of the Second Presbyterian church at her home this afternoon. Mrs. John McCloud of the Glen Avon church spoke on "Home Missions."

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Swedish M. E. church will be entertained tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. P. Johnson of Twenty-first avenue west and Fourth street.

Mrs. W. H. Leonard entertained the Ladies' Aid Society of Grace M. E. church at her home, 2511 West First street, this afternoon.

Special Good Friday services will be held Friday evening at the First Swedish M. E. church, Twentieth avenue west and Third street.

The funeral of Sigvard Anderson, 42 years old, of 2621 Courtland street, was held this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the Olson & Crawford undertaking rooms and at 2 o'clock from the First Norwegian-Danish M. E. church, Twenty-fourth avenue west and Third street. Rev. Edward Erickson officiated and burial was made in Park Hill cemetery. The longshoremen attended the funeral in a body.

Sentenced For Shooting Cattle.

Bismarck, N. D., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Joseph Yustus, convicted in McKenzie county of shooting cattle, not owned by himself, was placed in the state penitentiary here Monday to serve a year. Yustus while held a prisoner in the Williams county jail at Williston, in some manner sustained an injury that has proved very serious, and that fact was partially responsible for the light sentence that was imposed on him.

UNFAIR RATES HAVE MOVED DULUTH 150 MILES INLAND

Traffic Committee Is Trying to Remedy This Condition.

Annual Report Shows What Has Been Done to Date.

Julius H. Barnes, chairman of the traffic commission of the Commercial club, read the annual report of the commission at the annual meeting of the public affairs committee last night, setting forth the work that has been done in the past year and the work that must be done in the future.

The difficulties of the work which the traffic commission faces is explained in the report, as follows:

"Our disadvantages are of long standing, and represent advantages possessed by other cities, which advantages must be taken away, or reduced, in any improvement of our own conditions.'

In explaining the advantages possessed by the Twin Cities in the matter of lake and rail rates, Mr. Barnes pointed out that the rate on first-class merchandise from the East to the Twin Cities is only 15 cents higher than the rate to Duluth, while Duluth jobbers stopping merchandise here for redistribution must pay 35 cents for the haul between Duluth and the Twin Cities.

"The effect is to move the lake port 150 miles inland, and the prestige of great tonnage is hard to overcome," he said.

The same condition holds true of grain rates. The rate on grain from Sioux Falls, S. D., to Chicago, only 200 miles farther than Duluth, is only 1½ cents higher than to Duluth, while the rate to Duluth is 4½ cents higher than to Minneapolis, with a haul of only a little over 100 miles greater.

Mr. Barnes' report follows:

"I take pleasure in submitting herewith a brief resume of the work of the traffic commission for the past year.

"The transportation problems confronting Duluth are very difficult of solution, the conditions obtaining having been the results of years of effort upon the part of competitive communities and of some carriers to neutralize the advantages of our location upon the one hand, and the effect of water competition upon the other.

"Our disadvantages are of long standing and represent advantages possessed by other cities, which advantages must be taken away, or reduced, in any improvement of our own conditions. Every move made by Duluth is watched by many cities much larger, stronger and of greater prestige than Duluth, and all of these cities move with us to protect themselves and retain all they can of what they possess whether such possessions be fair and reasonable or not.

"The principal advantages of our location should come from water transportation but more favorable rail and water rates are given the Twin Cities, relatively, than we have.

"A request has been made upon the Eastern roads to correct the discriminations in the rail and lake rates and the matter is being actively prosecuted.

Free Storage.

"Free storage of freight in transit through Duluth in the railway dock houses is a serious discrimination against the Duluth jobbers and efforts are being made to have the practice abolished. A meeting of all the interested carriers was held in Chicago some time ago and action taken to do away with free storage. This action has since been held up because of certain legal complications, but we hope to be able to report before long that a satisfactory settlement has been reached.

"Upon request the Great Northern railway has put two good sleepers on the Duluth-Grand Forks run.

"The Northern Pacific railway has discontinued the through sleeper from Duluth to the Pacific coast and in lieu thereof a sleeper between Duluth and Mandan, N. D.

"The Great Northern has very materially improved its freight service from Duluth to the West and very few complaints are now made to this commission of delays.

"The Northern Pacific railway has also made some improvement in freight service.

"The Soo line service is not what it should be, but the management is making earnest endeavors to bring it up to its usual high standard.

"A large number of discriminations in rates have been corrected and many more are under negotiations with the railway companies.

"The rates on grain from Southern North Dakota, South Dakota and Southern Minnesota are highly discriminatory against Duluth and unduly perferential of other markets. A complaint has been made to the interstate commerce commission by the Duluth Board of Trade asking that rates to Duluth be reduced to a proper basis. The Milwaukee chamber of commerce, the Superior Commercial club, the North Dakota railway commission, the Tri-State Equity society and the Minneapolis chamber of commerce are interested and will be heard in the case. This case is of great importance to Duluth and, if a favorable issue is had, a large grain tonnage will come here that now moves to other markets.

"Many other matters of minor importance have been taken care of. We are constantly called upon for information concerning rates, routing, the proper handling of claims and the almost innumerable matters pertaining to the business of transportation. The commission's facilities are constantly becoming more useful to our citizens in general and are open to all.

"Many of the affairs of the commission are necessarily of a confidential nature and the details thereof cannot be elaborated upon in a report such as this.

"We confidently expect that the coming season will bring some marked changes in our transportation conditions. Yours very truly,

"JULIUS H. BARNES."

CLOQUET YOUTHS JOIN BOY SCOUTS

Many Patrols Including One of Indians Organized in That City.

Cloquet, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—L. S. Dale of St. aul, Northwest organizer for the Boy Scout movement, has completed several days' campaigning in Cloquet in connection with the local Y. M. C. A., and with the co-operation of the officers at the Y. M. C. A., General Secretary H. W. Mixsell boys secretary; Charles Gross, Physical Director Earl and Mr. Lucas, the membership secretary. The association rooms for several days have been entirely given over to the work of organization of Scout patrols, and about 500 boys have been interested in the movement. The boys are so enthusiastic that it has been hard to get them out of the building at night at closing hour.

Mayor C. I. McNair has become interested in the work locally and at a meeting last night of the men who are behind the movement he spoke enthusiastically of the benefit he expected Cloquet boys to derive. Mr. McNair was elected president of the scout commisisoners, a body in which are included most of the prominent business and professional men of the city: Sherman L. Coy, Huntington Taylor, W. K. McNair, Judge J. E. Diesen, Rev. C. W. Lowrie, Rev. F. C. Coolbaugh, Dr. J. G. W. Havens, Rev. T. T. Roan, City Attorney J. A. Fesenbeck, H. W. Mixsell, J. T. Sheehan, Albert Cox, H. G. Stevens, Claus Johnson, Indian Agent A. A. Bear, Superintendent of Schools Peter Olesen, L. F. Leack, A. K. Oswald, Alex Summerfield, Oscar Anderson, John Long and Charles Clapperton. Dr. J. G. W. Havens was elected secretary, Charles Clapperton vice president and Charles Gross, the secretary of the boys' department at the Y. M. C. A., will be in charge of the organization of all new patrols, with D. J. Meyers as his aide. The committee on election of Scout masters will report in a few days.

Only Indian Boys' Organization.

Cloquet has the distinction of having the only Boy Scout patrol of Indians in the world, Mr. Dale and Mr. Gross organizing ten of the boys in the Indian village north of the city. Harvey Hanson, the teacher at the Indian school, is the Scout master of the young red men, and the enthusiasm with which they have taken hold is surprising and gratifying. This is also the first work that the Y. M. C. A. has attempted among the local Indians. Already the boys have learned to spell the name of their patrol, Eagle, by standing in a row and holding their arms aloft to form the letters. They can give a dignified, uniform salute, and in drilling and throwing their comrades in blankets they promise to give the city boys a run for their money. The idea of camping out, long hikes and outdoor life appeals to them. Mr. Dale was delighted with the outlook among the Indian boys and proud of the patrol.

Twelve Cloquet Patrols.

In the city twelve patrols have been organized, the lads ranging from 12 to 18 years. Five of the patrols are to be known as the Y. M. C. A. patrols and the other seven as school patrols, the former meeting at the association rooms Tuesday and Thursday evenings, and the younger lads at the different schools on Tuesday and Saturday afternoons. The boys at the Jefferson school were so enthusiastic over their organization that they painted and otherwise prepared their own meeting place, a room in the basement. The Y. M. C. A. patrols are known as the Wolf, Black Hawk, Rough Riders, Beavers and Silver Fox, and they are divided into two troops, the first three troops designated as the Daniel Boones and the other two the Roosevelts. The Washington school boys formed the Chippewas, the Jefferson school the Eagles and the Blazing Arrow, the Garfield school the Sioux Indians. Stag and Red Trailers. Trophies will be offered the boys for efficient work, the commissioners now having the matter under consideration, and Mr. Dale has offered a uniform to the most efficent Scout among his Indian boys.

DICKINSON COUNTY STUNG.

Upper Peninsula County Paying Bounties on Wisconsin Wolves.

Channing, Mich., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—According to a resolution adopted by the board of supervisors of Dickinson county it has come to the knowledge of that body that Upper Michigan counties bordering on Wisconsin have been paying bounties on wolves killed in territory included within the boundaries of the Badger commonwealth. This state of affairs, it is asserted, arises from the fact that wolves command a bounty of only $15 in Wisconsin, while in Michigan the amount is $25. It is held to be desirable that the bounty paid in both states shall be uniform, the amount to be fixed by the legislatures of the respective commonwealths, and to that end the Dickinson board formally has requested the representatives of the county at Lansing to institute the necessary proceedings. The co-operation of all the upper peninsula counties is being sought. It is said that a great deal of Michigan money has been paid out the past few years in liquidation of the bounties on Wisconsin wolves.

PARK PROJECTS ARE INDORSED

Lake Shore Strip and Street Ends for Playgrounds.

On recommendation of the committee on parks, playgrounds and docks, the public affairs committee of the Commercial club went on record last night in favor of park projects which were indorsed by the committee last week.

One suggestion is that the city set about obtaining a strip of land along the lake shore from the canal piers to Tenth avenue east, so as to carry the riparian rights. The project is that the space between the shore and a line drawn from the outer end of the piers to Tenth avenue east be filled in at some future date to make a lake shore park.

The other suggestion is that the park board make a list of the stub ends of streets which will never be used for highways, and that the city take steps to turn them over to the park board for use, paths or stairways to be run through them to retain their character as public ways. It is also suggested that neighborhood clubs cooperate with the park board in beautifying such tracts.

SEARCHING FOR CLEVER FORGER

Albert Duval, Former Bethel Worker, Wanted on Forgery Charge.

The police are again looking for Albert Duval, professional forger and ex-convict, who has startled the authorities in the past by his audacity having gone so far as to order a carload of beer and to purchase a race horse with worthless paper.

Last week it is claimed that he forged the name of Rev. J. T. Moody, formerly of the Bethel, to two checks which he passed in this city. Later he is said to have represented himself as Rev. Mr. Moody in St. Paul, and to have succeeded in accumulating a small "stake" by putting up worthless checks in payment for purchases.

Duval has served time in the Wisconsin state prison at Waupun, being sent up for three years in January, 1906, getting out early because of good behavior. In 1908 he was sent to Stillwater from Duluth for two and one-half years, getting out last October, cutting down his sentence by good behavior.

Duval had charge of the restaurant when Mr. Moody was connected with the Bethel, and it is stated that he left the Bethel at the same time as Mr. Moody.

METHODS USED BY MINNEAPOLIS

Flour City Business Men All Advertising Their Coming Carnival.

Minneapolis is advertising its civic celebration, "Linking of the Lakes," by almost every means known to the advertising world. Its festivities to commemorate the connecting of the many lakes within its borders will be held July 2 to July 8. Practically all of the business houses of Minneapolis are using envelopes advertising the celebration.

On the face of the envelope is a river or lake scene and a map of the chain of lakes. On the back are terse bits of information about Minneapolis and its commercial activity.

It has been suggested that Duluth should advertise its water carnival next summer similarly. The local carnival will be the greatest of its kind ever held on an inland water. It is probable that the committee in charge will investigate this feature of advertising and make use of it.

DELAY IN BUILDING STEEL PLANT WAS MOST FORTUNATE FOR DULUTH

City Will Have Plant Equipped With Latest Improvements.

W. A. McGonagle Gives Striking Report on Work of Public Affairs Committee.

At the annual meeting of the public affairs committee of the Commercial club last evening, W. A. McGonagle submitted a comprehensive resume of the year's activities and results and offered suggestions for further work toward the development of Duluth's commercial and industrial interests, as well as the agricultural resources of Northeastern Minnesota.

Mr. McGonagle's report was greeted by prolonged applause by the members of the public affairs committee, and at its acceptance a vote of thanks was extended by the committee to its chairman for the efficient and consistent work he has done for the club and the city. In acknowledging the vote of thanks, Mr. McGonagle said:

"I am a citizen of Duluth the same as you and I am doing my share of the work the same as you. I hope to do that as long as I reside in the city."

Mr. McGonagle's report in full follows:

"To the president and members of the Duluth Commercial club:

"It is my privilege as chairman of the public affairs committee to briefly state some of the more important matters that have been brought before our committee and to indicate some of the results that have been attained during the present year.

"There has never been a time when so many of our busiest men worked together with so much zeal, diligence, enthusiasm and loyalty as they have during the year that closes tonight; there was never a time when the things that were done for Duluth were brought to a focus at a common center as at this moment; there has never been a time when a single body of men was recognized as the forum of public opinion and the force of public purpose as it is the privilege of the Duluth Commercial club to be recognized today.

Co-operation Among Citizens.

"The chairman of the public affairs committee, recognizing the loyalty and devotion of each and every committee to the welfare of the club and the important work under its charge, hereby publicly acknowledges his indebtedness to each and every one of them and states without fear of successful denial that the true team work of the several committees, working in perfect harmony with the officers of the club, is responsible for the success which justly places the Duluth Commercial club at the head of the list in working capacity and results attained of all the Commercial clubs in our country. The same spirit must and will obtain hereafter, and, as we build a superstructure of commercial greatness upon the granite foundation of our eternal hills, let us always remember that a long pull, a strong pull and a pull together always brings results.

"I desire to express my personal appreciation as well as the appreciation of our public affairs committee to those of our citizens who so generously furnished us with the money necessary to carry on the important work of our committee and who also gave willingly their time and talents for the benefit of the entire city. Duluth has more public spirited citizens in proportion to its population than any city in the United States and we have never called upon our substantial citizens for their advice and personal assistance without obtaining a ready and willing response. I desire also to express the appreciation of our committee to the press of the city of Duluth. No public body has ever received more generous support than we have from our local papers, not only in the way of full reports of our proceedings but also by wise counsel given to us generously when we were in need of such advice. We have just cause to be proud of the newspapers published in our city and of the able editorials published in them from time to time which have had a marked influence in securing the rights that we are entitled to on account of our situation and have always led the way to needed improvements in municipal and other matters.

"I desire also to express our gratification that we have been able to work in harmony with the city administration of Duluth and I desire to express our especial thanks to the mayor of our city who has taken his full share of the public burden and has loyally co-operated with our committee in every way to secure the results needed for all the people.

"The secretary's report contains detailed information of the finances and work of the organization, the various committees will give you an account of their activities and a printed report will follow containing a digest of the principal transactions of the year. At this time I shall only touch on a few features of the work accomplished, with reference chiefly to what will need to be done by the gentlemen who are to succeed us in this committee.

Living Conditions.

"Our first concern has been, as theirs will be, to make living conditions better in Duluth. It is our concern because Duluth, like all cities, feels more and more the consciousness of a community so that it matters to every one how the other half lives. It is our concern because things like public health and avoidance of disease and civic cleanliness affect every man's health and purse and comfort, because a disease microbe in one home is a menace to all. It concerns us because it is recognized that a good town to live in is a good town to do business in. As a commercial body or a body of citizens or as individuals with homes and families of our own, the health and prosperity of the whole city is our business.

Agricultural Propaganda.

"For a long time the first step in that direction has been the agricultural propaganda, in which this body took a leading place and until now a unique place among the American cities. As a condition precedent to manufactures, the cost of living must be reduced. First in the effort to reduce the cost of living was the agricultural settlement of this region. Nobody can imagine a prosperous factory town fed exclusively on products shipped hundreds of miles. This movement triumphant success has been gained. It has been demonstrated that this is a great dairy country; it is a recognized fact among agriculturists; it is getting to be a recognized fact in common report. It is demonstrated that this is a wonderful country for certain vegetables; it is recognized by agriculturists; it is becoming a matter of common report. It is demonstrated and recognized that this is one of three sections in the United States where potatoes will be extensively grown for market and for Southern seed. The numbers now at the state fair clinch the demonstration work that has been more convincing every year. In reaching this point we discover that there is more work to be done in bettering agricultural conditions than ever. It is the duty of this community in co-operation with the state to teach better methods of cultivation, better seed selection and better seed usage in this region that the results may be worthy of the work performed. The recent tour of the potato special brought out emphatically the necessity for breeding a supply of potatoes and for good seed at home.

Agricultural Education.

"From the beginning an agricultural school has been a part of the plan. Now through the efforts of this body it seems likely that a school will be established to fit ideally the conditions. At the same time, there is need for pushing the project of a county agricultural high school for the range and for continuing to advocate agricultural instruction in the city schools. The contests for children conducted by this committee in the past were valuable and those now under consideration should be encouraged.

"As an outcome of the agricultural propaganda came the formation of the Co-operative Market association, in which again this body seems to have established a precedent. It has brought us good advertising, it has helped the farmer to find a market where he did not know the way to reach it, it has encouraged the grower so that the acreage of men on the land will be very largely increased this season. This committee is committed to its support to any reasonable extent and it is believed that our successors should maintain the same policy. I am informed, however, that the members of the association are ambitious to put it wholly on its own feet and that within a year they may fairly expect to accomplish it.

"As the country around us is settled, we need expect to hear no more about the high cost of living measured in food prices. In other respects comparative conditions are in Duluth's favor.

Railroad Facilities.

"Progress has been gained by the traffic commission throughout the year. Numberless errors in rates have been corrected and many faults in service have been overcome. It is to be regretted that the manifest inequality of rates between Duluth and the Twin Cities has not yet been adjusted. With the present tendency to standardize railroad rates all over the country, it is inevitable that the basis for which the traffic commission has contended will sooner or later be reached.

"There are still complaints that express companies do not give proper service. This body has joined in the request to the interstate commission for a searching inquiry to the entire problem and it is from that source that a comprehensive remedy is most likely to be given.

"Railroad terminals at Duluth continue in a very unsatisfactory condition. No action has resulted from the admirable report of a special committee submitted more than a year ago and there has been no material improvement in facilities. There is a feeling of antagonism towards Duluth by some of the railroads of Minnesota that must and will disappear when Duluth has the tonnage to ship outward that will annihilate the artificial distributing point of the Twin Cities and establish forever the natural point of distribution at Duluth.

"The city is aiming to gain control of a dock terminal site which will eventually afford some relief. But it is evident that shippers will be handicapped until a terminal system scientifically planned is established with reference to all the commerce of the port.

Manufacturing.

"With the improvement of agricultural conditions and the removal of some of the most burdensome handicaps in the railroad situation, the manufacturing committee has been justified in adopting a more aggressive policy. Careful study of the possibilities of manufacturing in our city has been made and we are now seeking manufacturers to whom we will present convincing facts that must cause them to locate in Duluth, either with the parent plant or with a healthy branch plant that will soon become stronger than the parent plant. Plans to foster such new industries are now being worked out and will be announced in full at the proper time.

"The Minnesota Steel company has continued with unabated zeal to complete the buildings that will in a very short time demonstrate, even to the doubting Thomases that the United States Steel corporation was acting in good faith when it agreed to build a substantial steel plant at Duluth. Fortunate indeed are we that the completion of this plant was delayed, pending the perfecting of new processes of steel manufacture, and now that the electric furnace is a pronounced success, it will mean much to Duluth in the way of a greater and greater center for the manufacture of steel products. The cement plant in connection with the steel plant will add still further to the commercial greatness of our city and when we consider the numerous plants for the manufacture of steel specialties that always follow in the train of a new steel plant, we may begin to realize the tremendous importance of the new steel industry for our city and state.

Charter Changes.

"It is shown beyond dispute that we cannot get the most efficient management of the city or the most economical expenditure of funds without a radical change in the structure of the city government. After mature consideration, a committee of this body reached a conclusion in favor of what is known as the commission form of government. The objects of centralized authority, direct responsibility to the voters and co-ordinated management are hardly debatable. The need of some such change will be increasingly impressed upon the voters by the fact that we have to come to the point where the existing machinery of government in many places actually does not work.

Co-ordination Plan For State.

"On similar lines, there is urgent necessity for rearrangement of many of the bureaus of the state. Some progress is likely to be made in that direction by the present legislature but it does not appear that a final order is likely to be reached, and Northern Minnesota, which is peculiarly interested in many of these matters of administration, must continue to give its attention to improved methods.

Local Penal Methods.

"The overcrowded condition of the county jail has been brought to the attention of this body and the alternative of a big jail or some form of workhouse has been seriously considered by its committees. All recent tendencies and all enlightened experience run away from the big jail toward a reformatory with wholesome work and, as far as possible, outdoor conditions for prisoners who are not beyond redemption. A work farm, where the prisoners and small offenders could be put to work clearing land at the beginning, appears to be the most economical and wholesome solution.

Good Roads.

"The policy of this body in regard to gooe roads was settled long ago and is not likely to be changed. St. Louis county is enlarging its expenditures to $250,000 a year and could spend more to advantage if it had the supervisory equipment to handle it economically. Upon the advisability of allotting to roads all that can be spent economically, there is no division of opinion. Under present conditions it is gratifying to note that the county is doing better work every year in road construction.

Taxation.

"The demand for higher wages for teachers and the practical impossibility of granting all that they ought to have and at the same time keeping up with the swift growth of the district school population brings the question of taxation squarely before us. It is a truism that cities, having increasing burdens, must develop new sources of revenues and the need of the situation comes home forcibly to us as the weight of taxation is felt and the urgency of broadening municipal service is seen. It would be well to give serious consideration to systems in vogue in other cities for which advantages are claimed.

Ornamental Lighting.

"Ornamental lighting on Superior street and First street and connecting avenues and Fifth avenue west has been established during the year. The courthouse grounds and the federal building have been equipped in conformity with the design, adding greatly to the effectiveness. A further improvement in this direction would be the lighting of Superior street westward from the present limits of the lamps to Sixth avenue west and the Soo station.

Parks and Playgrounds.

"This body stands ready at all times to support the city government in extending parks and playgrounds, as among the best accessories of health contentment and good citizenship. It is an axiom nowadays that a city cannot be prosperous unless it is clean and attractive. Duluth's unrivaled park system is to be held as an industrial asset as well as a source of gratification to every resident and visitor.

Cultivating the Field.

"In the beginning I touched on the cordial relation between Duluth and its neighbors. There is a nearer friendliness in all the county than there used to be. There is a stronger sentiment of county unity. There was much less eagerness to lay taxes on this section at this session of the legislature than two years ago. The farmers in this region appreciate the efforts to improve their situation through the market association. The part we were able to take in relief work on the border has made us friends.

"We ought to go further. There are new ideas nowadays of service that a corporation owes to the public, that a community owes to the larger community of which it is the center. As the head of this territory, Duluth owes a service to all the region that has never before been considered due from any city. The part that the Duluth delegation has played in the conventions of the Northern Minnesota Development association is the part the city should play in the commercial and industrial development of the region.

"It would be worth while to adopt the suggestion several times made that this body should put a man in the field for some weeks or months to learn what adjustments could be made between this and other communities for mutual benefits, to ascertain perhaps what just grievances the smaller communities endure that could be corrected if they knew how or if they had the alliance of a larger community with its more extended facilities for such matters. If that had been the policy of the larger cities in the past, we should not now witness the amazing spectacle of country members trying to disfranchise city voters.

Forest Fire of Northern Minnesota.

"On Oct. 7 we were startled by the news flashed over the wires that a terrible calamity had overtaken our sister cities of Baudette and Spooner and that immediate help was imperative. A very destructive forest fire had swept away both cities, about thirty lives were lost, not less than $3,000,000 worth of property destroyed and nearly 4,000 persons in need of immediate relief in the way of clothing and provisions. Your committee in conference with our mayor, and knowing the spirit of our citizens, immediately organized a relief expedition with beds, bedding, clothing, provisions, tents and medical supplies and employing a special train for the purpose, had these needed supplies on the ground in less than twenty-four hours after the call for help came from the fire stricken region. Mayor Cullum, secretary Eva, J. W. Kreitter and your chairman went with the special train and personally supervised the administration of the relief. It became apparent at once that a large amount of money was immediately necessary to provide permanent relief and Mayor Cullum and your officers returned to Duluth to solicit the required funds.

"It was conservatively estimated that it would require $100,000 to take care of the permanent needs of the people. Duluth was asked to donate one-fifth of this amount and in less than ten days gave more than was asked. St. Paul and Minneapolis each came to the rescue with $20,000, the range cities of Hibbing, Virginia, Eveleth, Tower, Ely and Two Harbors, also hundreds of villages and hamlets in Northern Minnesota gave freely of their money and goods, until a total of approximately $90,000 was pledged and paid. Governor Eberhart appointed your chairman as chairman of the Northern Minnesota Red Cross Relief association and named as associate members E. T. Lies, secretary of the Minneapolis Associated Charities, and J. H. Beek, secretary of the St. Paul Jobbers association. This committee elected Maj. H. V. Eva as its secretary and the relief work will be closed up on May 1 with a balance of cash on hand and its work fully performed.

"Duluth has again and in a substantial way shown that it is prepared in any emergency to do its full share and our people in Northern Minnesota now realize more than ever before that in Duluth and the Duluth Commercial club they have 'a friend in need that is a friend indeed.'

Northern Minnesota Development Association.

"During the year our club was strongly represented at the meetings of the Northern Minnesota Development association held at Crookston and at Brainerd. These meetings were of the greatest importance to the interests of Northern Minnesota and have been the means of bringing together into united action and united purpose all the people of the northern part of the state. In the work of securing rights, legislation and public needs that have long been denied to us by the more populous portions of the state, the results of these meetings have demonstrated the necessity and effectiveness of united action in securing needed legislation and business methods in the operation of our state government and while we have been denied the passage of a reasonable reapportionment bill by the state senate of Minnesota, there is still hope that reason will prevail before a final adjournment of the legislature and at least partial recognition be given to the rights of our people in the way of a more equal representation in the state legislature.

Tri-State Fair.

"The Tri-State fair project, originated by members of the Superior Commercial club, was given very careful consideration by our committee and on account of the very large financial requirements of the project was laid on the table in favor of some less ambitious undertaking.

Publicity.

"During the year, under the leadership of the publicity committee, a number of special excursions were arranged and many of our prominent citizens were enabled to realize for the first time the magnitude of the manufacturing interests of our own city. Carefully compiled figures indicate that there is at the present time, $10,000,000 of capital invested in Duluth manufacturing enterprises; that there is a product from these factories of $19,500,000 per year; that there are 7,000 employes engaged in the manufacture of many products and that there is an annual pay roll of $4,900,000. This is a fair beginning for a city of the size of Duluth and we hope that with increased facilities, proper freight rates and the recognition of Duluth as the natural distributing point for the Northwest, it will increase these figures tenfold within a reasonable number of years.

Sunday Closing at Postoffice.

"Our committee, at the solicitation of a committee of the letter carriers, of this city, solicited and secured the co-operation of the postmaster at Duluth in securing the recommendation to the postmaster general for the abolition, as far as possible, of all work at the postoffice on Sunday. Arrangements were made by which our merchants could secure letters received on Sunday from lock boxes. This plan seems to be working to the entire satisfaction of all persons interested and one of our hardest worked and most faithful bodies of public servants have been given the recognition to which they are entitled in the way of one day's rest in seven.

Reciprocity.

"Our committee has had before it for consideration and has strongly recommended the passage of the reciprocity bill now before congress and has urged upon our senators and representatives the importance of favorable action upon this bill which means so much for the future welfare of Duluth as anything that ever was proposed for the benefit of this city. We have received the hearty co-operation of Congressman Miller but have met with determined resistance by our United States senators. Senator Nelson replied courteously, giving his reasons for voting against the bill. These reasons, in our opinion, being entirely unsatisfactory and based upon misinformation in regard to the actual benefit of such a bill to the farmers of Minnesota. Senator Clapp has not given us the courtesy of a reply or communities. We are, therefore, at a loss to undertsand his reasons for supporting the bill that is of the utmost importance to his constituents in the state of Minnesota. It might be well for our business interests to organize a school of instruction for the benefit of our United States senators and to advise them that in the consideration of great public questions, more regard should be given to the will of the people and less to their individual opinions. President Taft has taken a very forward position in the matter of reciprocity and having failed to secure passage of the bill in the last congress, has called an extra session to give special consideration to this very needful legislation and we are confident that the present congress will take favorable action in a reasonable time.

Salaries of School Teachers.

"Your committee has had under consideration and has conferred with the board of education in regard to the salaries of teachers in our public schools. These faithful servants of the public have never received proper consideration or compensation and when we consider the importance of the teachers in moulding the character of our own children, we should see that only teachers of the highest grade are employed and that satisfies sufficient to hold them in responsible positions are paid. Our committee have been able to secure for the teachers a part of the increase that was justly due them and hope by further negotiation with the board of education to secure such additional compensation for our teachers from time to time as will warrant them in remaining in the service of our public schools.

Visit of George H. Maxwell.

"Your committee took part in the promotion of the lectures delivered in this city recently by George H. Maxwell on his homecroft mission to our city. Mr. Maxwell brought to our attention with startling clearness the possibilities of Duluth as a summer resort, and the possibilities of reducing the cost of living by encouraging home gardens. He brought out with clearness the fact that our wage-earners, by cultivating home gardens at the close of their day's work, were not only reducing their own cost of living, but were depriving the saloons of at least a portion of their regular customers, the result being a happier, wealthier and more contented lot of wage-earners. It is to be hoped that the lessons given during Mr. Maxwell's lectures will remain with our people, and that the opportunity for the development of our city will be taken advantage of to the fullest possible extent.

"Now, in closing the work of the public affairs committee for the present year and turning over our work to the successors, who will be chosen by the Commercial club, I desire again, both personally and officially, to thank each and every officer and committeeman of the public affairs committee, and each and every officer and director of the Duluth Commercial club, for the loyal and self-sacrificing support given to us during the past year, and we bespeak for our successors the same kind of loyal service, assuring them that as we return to the ranks, we will be ready at all times to give them our personal services and our support in any work they may undertake for the good of the Duluth Commercial club or for the welfare of the city of Duluth.

"W. A. McGONAGLE,
"Chairman, Public Affairs Committee."

McGONAGLEISMS

"As we build a superstructure of commercial greatness upon the granite foundation of our eternal hills, let us always remember that a long pull, a strong pull and a pull together always brings results.

"A disease microbe in one home is a menace to all.

"It is recognized that a good town to live in is a good town to do business in.

"There is a feeling of antagonism towards Duluth by some of the railroads of Minnesota that must and will disappear when Duluth has the tonnage to ship that will annihilate the artificial distributing point of the Twin Cities and establish forever the natural point of distribution at Duluth.

"Fortunate indeed are we that the completion of this (steel) plant was delayed pending the perfecting of new processes of steel manufacture, and now that the electric furnace is a pronounced success, it will mean much to Duluth in the way of becoming a greater center for the manufacture of steel products.

"It is a truism that cities having increased burdens must develop new sources of revenue.

"The part that the Duluth delegation has played in the conventions of the Northern Minnesota Development association is the part the city should play in the commercial and industrial development of the region.

"If that (cultivation of smaller cities) had been the policy of the larger cities in the past, we should not now witness the amazing spectacle of country members trying to disfranchise city voters.

"It might be well for our business interests to organize a school of instruction for the benefit of our United States senators and to advise them that in the consideration of great public questions, more regard should be given to the will of the people and less to their individual opinions."

17 Ingredients in One Perfect Blend

It takes 17 ingredients to make a spaghetti such as we cook for you.

It takes hours to prepare it.

If you had the recipe it would cost you to make it full twice what we charge to supply it.

And you haven't the recipe. Nobody has it outside of our kitchens.

It is our creation—the result of two years' work. And its immense popularity makes it a priceless possession.

All who have tried this spaghetti say that they never have anywhere tasted anything like it.

Yet many have eaten Italian spaghetti as it is cooked in Rome.

We use in the making:

Durum wheat spaghetti.
Herkimer County full cream cheese.
Best creamery butter.
The same expensive tomato sauce we use in Van Camp's Pork & Beans.

It comes ready cooked. All you have to do is to heat it.

We have made good things for nearly fifty years. But no other dish which we ever devised has created such a furore of favor.

We ask you to try, and you'll be glad that we make it. Order a few cans now.

FARM BILL MAY BE IN DANGER

Public Affairs Committee Urges the Legislature to Pass It.

Fearing that there was still some danger of the bill providing for a demonstration farm for St. Louis county being crowded out by the congestion in the house, the public affairs committee, at its annual meeting last night again took a stand in favor of the passage of the bill and sent the following telegram to Representative Chester A. Congdon at St. Paul:

"The public affairs committee of the Duluth Commercial club, at its annual meeting tonight, unanimously agreed that the Duluth demonstration farm bill is most important to this section, and through you wishes to urgently request the house of representatives to pass this measure, and, if passed, this club pledges its continued effort to make this farm most efficient, as outlined in the original request for the bill."

The house Monday night advanced the bill to the calendar, Representative Congdon's motion to that effect prevailing after some opposition. The members of the Commercial club and the members of the Duluth delegation have worked consistently for the bill, and it is hoped that the telegram to Representative Congdon will have some effect if a critical stage is reached.

KNOWLEDGE?---OR MISINFORMATION?

WHICH?

Have You the Facts Accurately? Or Have You Been Misinformed?

The doctor who conceals a useful truth is equally guilty with the propagator of an injurious falsehood. —Augustine.

You either know what Bake Oven means—or you do not know. That is the long and short of it.

If you do know, why, then, of course, you are a Bake Oven advocate, just like—well, all of the folks who have found out. This little mention would have to grow to be a whole newspaper if it were to tell of all the prominent and competent people who have learned by personal experience what this new healing science can accomplish; and who are now its vigorous advocates.

Wouldn't you tell your friends about it if your health was unexpectedly restored by a new and natural method? Wouldn't you hand the good news along so that they might share it?

Of course. And that's just how the Bake Oven has grown from an infant thing to its present mature strength—holding its friends by the good it does and through them gaining new ones constantly. Its habit of bringing comfort and cure, even in the very difficult cases, fast makes partisans even of unbelievers.

If you are not an advocate of the Bake Oven, why, then, you simply don't know. All of the folks who have really found out have become enthusiasts—just as the writer became an enthusiast after he had seen a number of people made well and had himself experienced marked benefits from the Bake Oven treatment.

The Bake Oven is successful because it is reasonable and effective, and the most refined and educated people are its champions. If properly applied it is not too severe for the weakest or most sensitive, and yet it is forceful enough for the most rugged.

It is cheapest because it does the work and prevents a dribbling expense for years, or a costly and dangerous operation. It has come to stay. The home of the curious invention is the third floor of the Christie building, between First and Second streets on Fourth avenue west.

The Bake Oven Specialists give Free Consultation, and have the best of lady nurses to care for lady patients. Hours, 8 a. m. to 7 p. m. Sunday, 9 to 12 only.

SCOTS TURN HOMEWARD

Movement for Pilgrimage Has "Hame to Caledonia" for Slogan.

Angus Gordon Murray Chief of "Scots of America" Visits Duluth.

Angus Gordon Murray, chief of the "Scots of America," is in the city interesting his countrymen in the great national movement which has been started for a return to Scotland the coming summer of all native sons. The "old chief," as he is generally known, is stopping at the McKay hotel and is receiving many calls from Duluth Scotsmen. He hails from Toledo, Ohio, where he is the head of the Scots of that state.

"'Hame to Caledonia' is the slogan of the Scots of America," says Chief Murray. "The return movement is the greatest event in the annals of Scottish enterprises in this country. Fully 3,000 sons and daughters of 'Bonnie Scotland' are preparing to go back to visit the land of their forefathers. Great receptions are being arranged by the authorities of Edinburgh, Glasgow, Aberdeen, Dundee and Inverness. A great reunion will be held on the banks of Loch Lomond. Andrew Carnegie will have a special train at Glasgow to bring his countrymen to his Highland home, Skibo castle, where he will entertain them royally. The Scottish national exhibition will be held in Glasgow this summer, and the centennial of the launching of the Comet on the Clyde will be celebrated, as will many other national events of national importance particularly dear to the hearts of Scotsmen. The steamer Grampian of the Allan line has been chartered for the occasion and will sail from Montreal July 8, and will have on board a full quota of Scotch entertainers. Donald Young of Panton & White is the Duluth representative of the Scots of America, and he will have charge of the local end of the preparations."

The preparations for the return movement have been under way for the last year or more. They have been made on an extensive scale and everything has been done which will tend to increase the comfort and enjoyment of those who will make the trip. This is true not only of the voyage itself, but of the preparations which have been made for the visitors after they reach Scotland. Numerous excursions have been arranged, accommodations of all kinds will be provided, and there will be receptions and entertainments in abundance, while those who wish to follow their own program can do so.

It is stated that a number of Duluth Scotsmen have signified their intention of making the trip, and it is expected that many more will do so before Chief Murray leaves the city.

CLUB IS VOTING FOR DIRECTORS

Seven Candidates for Five Places on Commercial Club Board.

The annual election of directors of the Commercial club is on today. The polls opened at the club at 11:30 a. m. and will close at 7:30 tonight. There are seven candidates for the five places on the directorate, C. A. Luster, J. A. Ferguson, B. P. Neff, W. J. McNabe, James Maney, P. E. McCormack and E. Silberstein. The judges of election are F. E. Church, E. B. Dunning and G. Roy Hall.

The annual meeting of the club will be held tonight. C. A. Luster completes his first term as president and, as the policy of the club has been to elect the president for two successive years, it is expected that Mr. Luster will be re-elected.

The business of the annual meeting will be followed by a smoker. A program has been arranged by C. L. Kennedy, F. W. Hessenmueller and John J. E. Wertin.

authorities were anxious to have this made an annual appropriation, but the house thought it just as well to have the university come in at every session and makes its needs known.

Representative Clinton Robinson wanted to cut out the provision appropriating $100,000 for two dormitories at the Morris agricultural school, one for boys and another for girls, but his motion to that effect was not adopted.

Representative W. T. Stone attacked the appropriation of $79,600 for the maintenance of Elliott hospital at the university, but was not successful in his attempt to eliminate the appropriation.

Salary is Limited.

The senate adopted an amendment limiting the salary of the secretary of the state board of health to $4,000 a year. It is now fixed by the board of health, and estimates of what it amounts to vary from $5,000 to $7,000.

The house made a successful attack on the appropriations for the Deerwood fish hatchery, based on the report of a committee which recently visited the several fish hatcheries, to the effect that it is impossible to breed fish at Deerwood because the water is so full of iron that the fish do not live. The bill provided $3,000 a year for maintenance, and that was cut to $500. It also provided $2,000 for improving the bass hatching pond, and that was cut out altogether.

It was stated on the floor of the house that the iron seekers are anxious to buy the state's fish hatchery site at Deerwood.

Representative W. T. Stone wanted to cut out the appropriation of $25,000 a year for the immigration bureau, but did not get far with it. About thirty other amendments offered by Dr. Stone were voted down, and in many cases only his own vote was cast for them.

Temperance Measures.

Before taking up the appropriation bills the house finished its special order on temperance measures.

First it killed the bill by Clinton Robinson taxing beer wagons, prohibiting their delivering beer to any places but licensed saloons, and requiring the secretary of state to make lists of places having government liquor licenses and to furnish copies of the lists to local authorities.

While it was admitted that the purpose of the bill was decidedly meritorious, Representatives Fowler, Kneeland, Pfaender, G. W. Brown and others declared that it was ineffective and wouldn't do what it was intended to do, and though its author offered to accept any amendments that would make it more effective it was beaten, 67 for and 59 against.

The house passed a bill by Representative Hoffman making breweries and brewery agents take out licenses and pay $150 a year for them. The bill provides that licenses are to be issued by the county auditors for the sale of malt liquors in quantities of at least 288 ounces—which means a case of twelve twelve-ounce bottles — in original packages, not to be drunk on the premises. The bill was adopted, 78 to 29.

Reapportionment.

The enemies of reapportionment again forced a delay yesterday afternoon in the motion to make the Hanson bill a special order.

Senator Hackney moved that the bill be made a special order for this afternoon, and demanded a call of the house. While the call of the house was in progress Senator Hackney was prevailed upon to withdraw his motion, with the privilege of making it this morning.

Northern Minnesota senators, with few exceptions, repudiated the Southern Minnesota "reapportionment" scheme of leaving Southern Minnesota as it is and adding a few senators to the cities and Northern Minnesota, but its advocates were persistent, seeing in it a way of beating reapportionment.

The outlook last night was very dubious for reapportionment at this session.

D. A. Stuart, attorney for Drainage Engineer Ralph, made his argument to the Knapp investigating committee last night. A report is expected in a day or two.

that that part of the report recommending changes in the management be stricken out, made an earnest plea for justice for Whittier, whom he thought was doing his duty as he saw it.

Defended by Kunze.

His motion was seconded ably and eloquently by Representative W. F. Kunze of Minneapolis, who used to be superintendent of schools at Red Wing, and who spoke as one having ample knowledge of conditions at the school and of Whittier's management. He said that the boys are well cared for, and are punished only when punishment is needed and as a rule no more than is needed. The boys are bad boys, or they wouldn't be there, and corporal punishment is needed. Other similar institutions in other states use corporal punishment, he said, and he read a number of telegrams proving this. He quoted from some of Whittier's reports to the board of control earnestly urging better conditions for the boys at the training school, and asked: "Does that sound like it came from a brute?" He charged that the investigation was not an investigation, but a prosecution. He said that he had been approached by people who said that they ought to "get" Whittier. Mr. Kunze's speech was warmly applauded.

Representative Campbell spoke against the amendment, and so did Representative O'Neill. Representative W. T. Stone of Park Rapids said he knew Whittier of old as a kind and able man, and he also said that corporal punishment is more humane than other punishments such as are required for boys like those at Red Wing.

Origin of Charges.

Regardless of the action of the house, there is a fairly general impression about the capitol that this incident has been greatly over-wrought and that it had its origin in a dispute between the girls' and boys' schools at Red Wing, with local citizens mixing in to aggravate the situation until the entire state has been drawn in more or less.

It has also been whispered that politics is involved, and that the case would be made the basis of an attempt to get rid of the board of control and give Governor Eberhart a chance to appoint a new board. Representative Lydiard, in moving the adoption of the report last night, said that the board of control ought to be forced to resign.

That Whittier cannot be altogether a bad man is shown by a story that is being told by his friends. It appears that he failed in the creamery business a dozen years ago, and though he went through bankruptcy and his debts are not legal obligations, he has been paying out of his salary ever since on the $10,000 indebtedness resulting from his failure, until he now owes only about $1,000, which he is reducing still further.

that the authorities fear may result in a demonstration against the prisoners. The accused are in the county jail, which is guarded by a large force of deputies. The prisoners will be taken to the penitentiary at Santa Fe for safe-keeping.

The arrest of Wiggins came late yesterday. His confession, which followed gave a new and sensational turn to the mystery that for more than ten days has surrounded the kidnaping of little Waldo Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Rogers and his safe return upon the payment of $12,000 ransom.

According to the story told by Wiggins, he first became acquainted with John Rogers through the law firm by which the latter was employed and which was instrumental in getting Wiggins pardoned from the penitentiary. Wiggins says that while working in the coal mines at Madrid, N. M., he received a letter from John Rogers suggesting a scheme for making $10,000 easy money. Wiggins says he came to Las Vegas in a few days and later entered into the plot.

Boy Is Kidnaped.

Waldo Rogers, the 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Rogers and the grandson of H. L. Waldo, a Kansas City millionaire, was kidnaped from the family residence on the night of March 29.

Taking advantage of the absence from the city of the boy's father, two masked men went to the Rogers home shortly before midnight and at the point of a revolver compelled Mrs. Rogers to dress the child for a night ride and deliver him to them. They repeatedly assured her that the child would not be harmed and that he would be returned safely providing the police were not informed, and $12,000 in small bills was paid to their representatives.

They named a lonely spot eleven miles north of Las Vegas as the place where the money was to be delivered by Mrs. Rogers' representative, who was to come to the rendezvous alone the following day. Taking only her bankers and her brother-in-law, Will Rogers, into her confidence, Mrs. Rogers secured $12,000 the following morning and delivered it to Will Rogers to carry to the place of meeting.

Will Rogers returned Thursday night with the child, who was well and unharmed. He told Mrs. Rogers and later the authorities that he had been met at the appointed place by a man who, after receiving and counting the money, directed him to a canyon fifteen miles south of the place of meeting where he had found the little boy lying in an arroya wrapped in a blanket.

The authorities were not informed until the child had been returned to his mother when a search for the kidnapers was started that involved the territorial mounted police, private detectives and posses composed of Las Vegas citizens and ranchers for miles around.

Reward of $20,000 Offered.

A reward of $20,000 was offered for the capture and conviction of the kidnapers and the entire country was ablaze with indignation. Threats of lynching were freely made.

Bloodhounds were taken to the supposed place of meeting north of Las Vegas but were unable to find the trail of the supposed fugitives.

H. L. Waldo, grandfather of the boy, arrived in Las Vegas April 1 to aid in tracing the kidnapers.

The $12,000 secured by the kidnapers has been recovered.

Will Rogers, in his confession, declared that his brother, John Rogers, had no knowledge of the crime. He confessed to having planned the abduction and said the actual stealing of the child was done by Joe Wiggins.

Not until the confession and the recovery of the money did S. A. T. Rogers, father of the stolen child, believe his brother was implicated. Will Rogers is being closely guarded as it is feared that he will attempt suicide.

A Splendid Tonic

Cora, Ky.—Mrs. Iva Moore, of this place, says: "I was so weak, I could hardly walk. I tried Cardui, and was greatly relieved. It is a splendid tonic. I have recommended Cardui to many friends, who tried it with good results." Testimony like this comes unsolicited, from thousands of earnest women, who have been benefited by the timely use of that successful tonic medicine, Cardui. Purely vegetable, mild, but reliable, Cardui well merits its high place in the esteem of those who have tried it. It relieves women's pains, and strengthens weak women. It is certainly worth a trial. The body was sent to Stanton, Mich., for interment in the dead man's childhood home.

Michigan Boy Kills Sister.

Ontonagon, Mich., April 12.—Manipulating an automatic revolver, the property of an employe at the farm, the 12-year-old son of Matt Johnson of Masac, Ontonagon county, shot and instantly killed his 10-year-old sister. The youngster had taken the pistol from its place on the wall and was demonstrating to the little girl how it worked. The bullet passed through her head.

HOW EVERY WOMAN CAN BE BEAUTIFUL

Valuable Hints and Suggestions for Correcting Complexion Faults and Retaining Beauty.

F. Howarth Dryden, consulting chemist to manufacturers of toilet preparations and writer on aesthetic subjects, gives the secret of valuable formulas in an article appearing in Bradner's Magazine. "Every woman," he says, "should, and can, have a delightful complexion and truly beautiful hair. The formulas here given I consider of the very highest order and the ingredients can be had from any druggist at little cost:

"TO DEVELOP THE FORM: Underdevelopment results through a starved condition of delicate underlying tissues, and as massaging exercises but does not nourish, it is a waste of time and energy. To develop and round out the form, try this:

1 ounce gallol.

"First, dissolve sugar in water, then add gallol. The dose is two teaspoonfuls before meals. This builds up from the inside and soon rounds out hollows and develops a fine figure.

"FOR A SMOOTH, VELVETY SKIN: To make the skin smooth and velvety and remove blackheads and pimples, as well as to give the complexion that look of refinement, make this retiring cream:

1 pint hot water.
2 ounces amarol.

"Dissolve the amarol in the water and it is ready. Cleanse the skin well, and apply this retiring cream every night. Use it freely and your complexion will soon take on the mystic charm of genuine beauty.

"WHEN HAIR IS DULL AND BRITTLE or falls out, it is necessary to employ a tonic to correct faulty conditions of the scalp and hair follicles. Once this is done the hair grows in thick and long and becomes glossy and silky. This formula always gives splendid results:

½ pint alcohol.
1 ounce beta-canthol.

"Mix water and alcohol, then add beta-canthol. Massage into the scalp frequently. For best results, it is advisable to cleanse the hair and scalp occasionally with eggol."

EXTRAVAGANCE THE THEME

"The Spendthrift" Presented By Capable Company at Lyceum.

"The Spendthrift," by Porter Emerson Browne, author of "A Fool There Was," was given at the Lyceum theater last night by a capable and well balanced company before a fair sized audience.

If Mr. Browne did not have a contract with his producer, Frederic Thompson, stipulating that his plays are to be more important than the actors from the viewpoint of the four-poster and the theater program, it is likely that Lionel Adams or Miss Doris Mitchell would be billed as a star, or perhaps both as co-stars.

In "The Spendthrift," Mr. Browne discusses a phase peculiar to the 60-horsepower civilization in which we live. Mr. Browne does not descend into the depths of sociology or psychology. He skirts the edges of both but occasionally gets his feet wet. Wherefore he is never tiresome, sometimes witty, often brilliant and always understandable by the average theatergoer. He places strong emphasis on the obvious and the result is considerable applause for sentiments mouthed by character actors.

Richard Ward is driven into bankruptcy by extravagance of his wife, a shallow, superficial, selfish, pleasure-loving woman who worships the ego. To help out her husband she gets $20,000 from a dissolute youth and tells her husband the money came from an aunt. He wrings a confession of the lie from her and the other man is summoned to her bedroom at night, her husband forcing her to use the telephone as means of communicating to him. The visitor says he did not win any favors for his $20,000 but the husband refuses to believe the assertion, having once caught his wife in a lie.

The woman leaves and after five months as a teacher to some children in a squalid tenement district she is found by a friend and as the curtain falls she and her husband are enfolded in each other's arms.

This is very pleasant, no doubt, but after presenting his propositions with much dramatic effect, long speeches, little essays and philosophic tid-bits, the author winds up the affair with a solution of gestures which is no solution at all. The spectacle of a man and woman falling into each other's arms is no exposition of why a man returns to a woman who ruined him; who refused to be a mother to his children, who could not stimulate him mentally, who did not inspire him to anything except to provide her with money and then more money so her rouged cheek would not be soiled by the falling tear. Men may go back to such women but usually they don't.

However, if one chooses to overlook a few unexplainable twists which are given to the plot in order to close the show at 10:30 p. m., one can get considerable amusement and pleasure out of "The Spendthrift." With all of its faults it is superior to most of the offerings which are being rammed down the throats of folk who live in the "provinces."

Lionel Adams is better known in the East than in this part of the country. An experienced and well trained actor, he has supported many stars and is himself of stellar caliber. As Richard Ward, the husband, he was forceful, convincing, subdued when repression was a virtue, explosive when the author provided him with torrential words.

Doris Mitchell was so creditable that she failed to elicit any applause except that which she shared with Mr. Adams. This was due to the convincing manner in which she played a character that did not win the sympathy of the moist-eyed contingent of the audience until in the last few minutes of the play. People forget that actors do not "make it up" as they proceed and are inclined to applaud sentiment rather than acting. They are in reality paying tribute to the author although they seldom realize it. Give a poor actor a "fat" part and he will get more approbation from the crowd than a good actor with a "slim" part. Miss Mitchell as Richard Ward's wife effectually submerged her own pleasing personality so that that of the character she portrayed stood forth in vivid relief, an artistic creation to be studied and admired.

Albert Sackett was satisfactory as Philip Cartwright, a friend of Richard Ward. Monty Ward, Richard's brother, was played acceptably by Forest E. Orr. Gwendolyn Piers was Clarice Van Zandt, who started her married life with Monty Ward in a mining camp that she might not grow up with the ideals that had ruined her sister. She was an attractive young woman and was equal to the slight demands upon her art. Mattie Ferguson was Gretchen Jans, the aunt of Richard Ward, who was a sort of Hetty Green in a small way. She did first class character work and made a hit with the audience. William H. Sullivan was Suffern Thorn, the "other man."

Green Room Gossip.

"Love," said the philosopher, "is a disturbing and a deciding element. It disturbs mankind and then decides them. Love has proved the great and deciding factor in the individual history of man and also the history of nations."

The question of girls and also the question of the tender passion of love are closely allied. Together they form an interesting combination. Starting Sunday afternoon the members of the Mack-Leone company will give some interesting information on girls and love. The answer will be given with the assistance of jingling music, pretty girls and tuneful lyrics.

"The Girl Question" is a play with music. It has plot and interesting action. The production will open with next Sunday's matinee and there will also be matinees Monday and Wednesday.

"Young men, there are two things you must avoid—whisky and unclean linen." That was the advice given by Charles Leonard Fletcher by Edwin Booth, when the former was a spear carrier at $10 a week, in Mr. Booth's company at Boston. Mr. Fletcher is appearing at the Orpheum this week in the sketch "His Nerve."

"I got my first experience with Mr. Booth's company as a spear carrier," said Mr. Fletcher, "and I will never forget that advice he gave me one night, after I had practically married him off the stage. He was then so weak he could hardly stand, and frequently I have carried him to his dressing room."

After Mr. Booth's death, young Fletcher played in melodrama for several years, and then took a very minor part under Richard Mansfield, for the purpose of studying that actor's methods. Then followed twelve years of impersonations in vaudeville, following which Mr. Fletcher secured his present sketch following its presentation at a Lambs' club gambol in New York city.

The U. S. A. Boys are scoring a tremendous hit at the Empress this week. There is martial chord in the breast of every man, and the work of these boys seems to awaken this feeling and this partly accounts for their success. A great deal of credit is due Capt. H. A. Gird, who is in command. Capt. Gird saw over four years' active service in the Philippines, and it was during this time that he conceived the idea of this act. The U. S. A. Boys were originally composed of men who had been in the regular United States army. They have now men in their ranks from the German, English and French armies. While making a tour of Europe which lasted for three years, the U. S. A. Boys appeared before the crown prince of Germany and he said that he wished his regiment were capable of performing the feats that seemed to be so easy for these boys. By his command, the U. S. A. Boys gave a special performance for his regiment and after the performance he presented Capt. Gird with a gold medal.

The work of the U. S. A. Boys is not only very thrilling, but it is instructive as well.

The week-end bill at the Lyric theater will be seen for the first time tonight. The feature program will be "Athaliah," a photoplay showing a stirring series of episodes in the Bible.

After murdering forty-two of her household, Athaliah takes the throne of Judea. Her subjects tire of her cruelty and Abner, a captain, although in her service, is secretly on the side of the high priest. A revolution follows and the queen is killed.

The story is taken from Second Kings and Second Chronicles and follows closely the immortal tragedy of Jean Racine.

A comic film is "When Woman Strike." "By a Woman's Wit" is a dramatic story told in pictures. I. S. Mistachkin will sing "I Like You Just Because You're Not Like Anyone Else I Know."

At the Odeum the program will be changed tomorrow night. "The Broken Cross" is a stirring tale. "Dr. Charcot's Trip Toward the South Pole" is an interesting film of an educational nature. "Billy's Valentine" is a funny photoplay. "Dixie Gray" will be sung by George Lenz.

NORTH DAKOTA FARM DATA

First Preliminary Comparative Statement Issued By the Census Bureau.

Washington, April 12.—Census Director Durand issued today the first official statement from the census bureau relative to the agricultural statistics of the state of North Dakota collected at the thirteenth decennial United States census April 15 last.

It is based on a preliminary comparative summary submitted to the director by Dr. Le Grand Powers, chief statistician of the division of agriculture in the bureau of the census. This summary shows, for both the census of 1910 and that of 1900, the reported total value of farm land, buildings, implements and machinery; total acreage; improved acreage; average acres per farm; average value per acre of farm land and buildings; average value per acre of farm land alone; and the aggregate expenditure for labor and fertilizers. It also distributes the total number of farms according to color of farmer; specified character of tenure; whether held free or mortgaged by owners; and by certain acreage groups.

The director gives notice that the summary's figures are subject to revision later, owing to the fact that a number of farms whose returns are incomplete will be included in the final tables. These additions will not, in all probability, modify any of the amounts or rates contained in the present statement.

The census of agriculture was taken primarily for the purpose of obtaining an accurate inventory of all classes of farm property existing on April 15, 1910; a complete exhibit of farm operations during the year ended Dec. 31, 1909; and a statement of the number and value of domestic animals in cities and villages on April 15, 1910.

Statements relative to acreage and yield of crops and the domestic animals of North Dakota will be issued by Director Durand as soon as the tabulation of this data has been completed.

The Per Cents of Increase and Decrease.

It is pointed out in the statement today that the principal rates of increase in North Dakota in 1910, as against 1900, are: In the total value of all farm land alone, 321 per cent; in the total value of farm land and buildings, 314 per cent; in the total value of farm buildings, alone, 262 per cent; in the total value of all farm implements and machinery, 212 per cent; in the total expenditures for labor, 136 per cent; in the average value per acre of farm land alone, 131 per cent; in the average value per acre of farm land and buildings, 126 per cent; in the total improved farm acreage, 112 per cent; in the total farm acreage, 83 per cent; in the whole number of farms, 64 per cent; and in the average acres per farm, 12 per cent.

The statement shows in detail that the number of farms reported in 1910 was 74,165, as compared with 45,332 in 1900, an increase of 28,833, or 64 per cent.

Farm Values.

The total value of farm land and buildings was given in 1910 as $823,035,000, as against $198,780,000 in 1900, an increase of $623,255,000, or 314 per cent.

The total value of all farm land alone was reported in 1910 as $729,896,000, as compared with $173,352,000 in 1900, a gain of $556,544,000, or 321 per cent.

The total value of farm buildings alone was given in 1910 as $92,139,000, as against $25,428,000 in 1900, an increase of $66,711,000, or 262 per cent.

In 1910 the value of farm land alone constituted 89 per cent of the total value of land and buildings, as compared with 87 per cent in 1900.

The reported value of farm implements and machinery was $43,887,000 in 1910, as against $14,056,000 in 1900, a gain of $29,831,000, or 212 per cent.

The total acreage reported in 1910 was 28,392,000 acres, as compared with 15,543,000 in 1900, an increase of 12,849,000 acres, or 83 per cent.

The improved acreage was returned in 1910 as amounting to 20,439,000 acres, as against 9,645,000 in 1900, an increase of 10,794,000 acres, or 112 per cent.

The improved acreage formed 72 per cent of the total acreage in 1910, and 62 per cent in 1900.

The average acres per farm reported in 1910 was 383, as against 343 in 1900, an increase of 40 acres, or 12 per cent.

The average value per acre of farm land and buildings in 1910 is stated as $28.95, as against $12.79 in 1900, a rise of $16.16, or 126 per cent.

The average value per acre of farm land alone in 1910 was reported as $25.71, while in 1900 it was $11.15, the amount of gain being $14.56, or 131 per cent.

Color of Farmers.

Of the whole number, 74,165, of farms reported in 1910 there were 73,454, or 99 per cent, operated by white farmers, and 711, or 1 per cent, by negro and other non-white farmers, as compared with a total of 45,332 in 1900, of which 43,998, or 97 per cent, were conducted by white farmers, and 1,334, or 3 per cent, by negro and other non-white. The increase in the number of farms of white farmers during the decade amounted to 29,456, and the decrease in the number of farms of negro and other non-white farmers to 623.

Farm Ownership.

The total number of farms operated in 1910 by owners, part owners, and owners and tenants, comprising the "all owners" class, was 63,035, as compared with 40,972 in 1900, an increase of 22,063.

The total number of farms conducted in 1910 by cash tenants, share tenants and cash and share tenants, comprising the "all tenants" class, was 10,648, as against 3,865 in 1900, an increase of 6,783.

The total number of farms operated by managers in 1910 was 482, as compared with 495 in 1900, a decrease of 13.

The total number of farms operated by the "all owners" class constituted 85 per cent of the whole number of farms in 1910 and 90 per cent in 1900; those operated by the "all tenants" class, 14 per cent in 1910 and 9 per cent in 1900, and those conducted by managers, 1 per cent in both 1910 and 1900.

Of the total number, 63,035, of farms operated in 1910 by the "all owners" class, there were 31,271, or 50 per cent, reported as owned free of incumbrance, and 31,764, or 50 per cent mortgaged; for 806 of those reported owned free, however, no report of mortgage debt was secured.

In 1900 infrmation was secured concerning the "owned farm homes," at that time 27,491, or 70 per cent, were reported free from debt, and 11,965, or 30 per cent, mortgaged. There were 1,378 in 1900 for which no mortgage report was secured, these being included in the farms free from debt. The census bureau has no information respecting the number of mortgaged farms leased to tenants.

Distribution According to Acreage Groups.

The statement relative to farms distributed according to certain acreage groups shows that those of 19 acres and under numbered 212 in 1910 and 791 in 1900, a decrease of 579; of 20 to 49 acres, 438 in 1910 and 555 in 1900, a decrease of 117; of 50 to 99 acres, 1,193 in 1910 and 716 in 1900, an increase of 477; of 100 to 174 acres, 22,892 in 1910 and 18,471 in 1900, an increase of 4,421; of 175 to 499 acres, 34,355 in 1910 and an increase of 40 acres, or 12 per cent. 18,339 in 1900, an increase of 16,016; of 500 to 999 acres, 12,660 in 1910 and 5,114 in 1900, a gain of 7,546; and of 1,000 acres and over, 2,415 in 1910 and 1,346 in 1900, an increase of 1,069.

Acreage Group Proportions.

Of the whole number of farms, those of 19 acres and under formed 0.3 per cent in 1910 and 2 per cent in 1900; those of 20-49 acres, 1 per cent in both 1910 and 1900; those of 50-99 acres, 2 per cent in both 1910 and 1900; those of 100-174 acres, 31 per cent in 1910 and 41 per cent in 1900; those of 175-499 acres, 46 per cent in 1910 and 40 per cent in 1900; those of 500-999 acres, 17 per cent in 1910 and 11 per cent in 1900; and those of 1,000 acres and over, 3 per cent in both decades.

The expenditures for labor in 1910 reached the sum of $21,715,000, as compared with $9,207,000 in 1900, an increase of $12,508,000, or 136 per cent.

The expenditures for fertilizers amounted in 1910 to $9,000, while in 1900 it was $14,000, a decrease of $5,000, or 36 per cent.

LOOKS LIKE MURDER.

Mutilated Body Found Near Railroad Tracks at Claremont, Minn.

Owatonna, Minn., April 12.—The mutilated body of a man who was probably murdered was found Monday two miles west of Claremont, near Owatonna. County officials believe that foul play was used.

In the pockets of the dead man was found a notebook bearing the name of Albert H. Welch, a nephew of Mrs. C. L. Davis, 2810 Polk street northeast, Minneapolis.

Coroner Adair believes the man met with rough treatment aboard a train and was perhaps pushed off. The body is that of a clean cut young man with good clothing, and hair well cared for.

I PRESENT TO YOU A "HEALTH BELT MAN"
HE IS 55 YEARS "YOUNG"
Yes, 55 years young. not 55 old, for My Health Belt poured new life into his blood, nerves and tissue until
HIS STRENGTH WAS RESTORED
My marvelous HEALTH BELT is a wizard Worker, a mechanical self-treatment of the highest therapeutic value. It stands by you and never abandons its task until you are brought back to health, without an ache, pain or weakness. No drugs, no dieting, no restriction of any sort, excepting that all dissipation must cease. Worn during the time you are sleeping, it opens its flood-gates and drives a great, soft, warm stream of electric vitality into your blood and nerves throughout the entire night; you sleep better for its use; it cures forever the weakness in your back; it seeks out and expels from your system all rheumatic pains. Courage, ambition and a new view of life, with full self-confidence, surely result. It makes you young and keeps you young, with the vim of the biggest, most forcible man you ever saw. The "HEALTH BELT MAN" cannot grow old, for he knows the secret of perpetual youth. It will place you in the "feeling fine" class. "I am a man again, thanks to your wonder-working Health Belt. Use my name as you see fit." So write Capt. Alfred A. Howard, Chatham, Mass. So have said thousands before him.

PROGRAM OF DEMOCRATS

Caucus of House Members Divides on Order of Legislation.

No Opposition Develops to Reciprocity With Canada.

Washington, April 12.—Reciprocity with Canada and a farmers' free list, it was decided at the Democratic caucus held here last night, will be the legislation taken up in the order named by the present house of representatives. The woolen and cotton schedules, according to present indications, will follow.

In the caucus there was no opposition to reciprocity and no change or amendment to the bill as presented by Chairman Underwood of the house ways and means committee, were offered by any of those present.

On the free list will be included those things which the farmer needs most, namely agricultural implements, dressed meat and meat products, flour, rough lumber, boots, shoes and saddles; wire fencing, baling wire, cotton bagging, cotton ties, bagging ties, burlap, and salt.

On many of these products the present tariff is practically prohibitive and there are few importations of them on that account. It is impossible for this reason to estimate what the difference will amount to by putting them on the free list.

Program Supported.

In the debate which followed Chairman Underwood's presentation of the general plan, a spirited disposition developed on the part of several members to demand that the Canadian reciprocity bill and the free list bill be combined. Representatives Rucker of Colorado and Sherley of Kentucky shared in these efforts to overrride the majority, but the ways and means program was generally supported.

It is probable that the Canadian bill will be introduced Thursday. The introduction of this bill and the farmers' free list bill as caucus measures will not stand in the way of immediate introduction of three important measures—popular election of senators; publicity before election of campaign contributions, and statehood for Arizona and New Mexico. These are not to be treated as caucus measures, but will come in as party bills and will be taken up for action as soon as they can be reported from their respective committees.

Another caucus is to be held to debate the revision of the wool and cotton schedules to be taken up in the house following the passage of the reciprocity and free list bills.

The caucus voted a straight indorsement of the Underwood reciprocity bill, 12 8ayes, 29 nays and six voting present.

The caucus added a provision to the Underwood reciprocity bill, calling on the president to continue negotiations with Canada with a view of establishing further reciprocal trade relations. Mr. Fitzgerald fought this provision, but was voted down.

The caucus decided to appoint an organization committee to work out the matter of patronage. Adjournment was reached an hour after midnight.

MARTIN HEADS THE COMMITTEE

Virginia Senator Chairman of the Steering Committee.

Washington, April 12.—The Democratic members of the steering committee of the senate were announced last night. Mr. Martin of Virginia is chairman and the others named as members are Messrs. Culbertson of Texas, Simmons of North Carolina; Clarke, Arkansas; Bankhead, Alabama; Fletcher, Florida; Williams, Mississippi; Kern, Indiana; and Hitchcock, Nebraska. The last two represent the pronounced progressive element in the senate.

Senator Martin, the chairman of the Democratic caucus, who framed the committee, had announced his intention of giving the new and progressive senators fair representation. The steering committee's first function will be to take up the personnel of committees. The Republican members for this task already have been chosen.

Several of the more important committees probably will be enlarged to meet the demands of the Democratic senators for greater representation on them. The demand for places by Republican senators is so strong that it does not seem practicable to reduce the Republican representation and the Democrats insist upon more liberal recognition.

Senator Gallinger, chairman of the Republican committee on committees conferred on this subject with Senator Martin and they agreed to take up the matter with their fellow senators. The minority representatives took the position that there should be at least four Democrats to every five Republicans on the committees and Mr. Gallinger, while disposed to concede the fairness of this contention in the main, held out for more than one majority on the larger committees, such as foreign relations, finance, interstate commerce, etc.

FINDS LIVE BEE PACKED IN CAN OF PIPE TOBACCO.

Marion, Ohio, April 12.—In a sealed can of smoking tobacco packed and shipped from Winston, N. C., Warren H. Harding, whom many voted for for governor, made a surprising find.

In loosening up the tobacco and when his fingers were about one-third way down in the can a black honey bee of the Southern type emerged from its unusual quarters and, fully alive to its release and the bright sunshine entering the windows, grew very lively.

It had been uninjured in the packing and proved a healthy specimen. Whether it was hatched in the can or was simply, through some accident, imprisoned, is a question.

ENDS LIFE RATHER THAN GIVE UP STORE.

Chicago, April 12—Adolph Hoffman, a pioneer art dealer here, committed suicide yesterday because he was forced to vacate the little store room he had occupied for twenty-five years. Hoffman was notified two weeks ago he would have to give up the rooms as the building was to be remodeled. After leaving a note giving the cause of the suicide, Hoffman swallowed poison.

PROPRIETORS ARE INDICTED

Harris & Blanck of Waist Company Charged With Manslaughter.

Held to Be Responsible for Death of Employes in Factory Fire.

New York, April 12. — Isaac Harris and Max Blanck, owners of the Triangle Waist company, were indicted yesterday afternoon by the grand jury which is investigating the circumstances of Washington Place fire of March 25, in, or as a result of which 145 employes of the company lost their lives.

The indictments, four in number, charge each man with manslaugher in the first and second degrees, the maximum penalty for which is twenty and ten years imprisonment, respectively. Harris and Blanck were arrested at their homes, arraigned and after entering pleas of not guilty, were released under $25,000 bail.

The indictments charge that the defendants are responsible for the deaths of Rosie Grasso and Margaret Schwartz, whose charred bodies were found on the ninth floor of the burned building. The Grasso girl was 16 years old. Margaret Schwartz was 22.

The district attorney hopes to prove that the girls tried the door on the ninth floor in an effort to escape, but that it was locked. A charred piece of the door in question, with the bolt shot, was shown to the grand jury, as well as a part of the burned stairway. A few minutes afterward the indictments were returned. Other indictments may follow.

Judge O'Sullivan gave the defendants until April 25 to withdraw their pleas of not guilty. Both men took their arrest calmly. The grand jury investigation will be resumed next week.

While the grand jury was engaged in perfecting the indictments, a special benefit matinee for the benefit of sufferers from the fire was held at the Metropolitan opera house under the auspices of the association of theatrical managers of Greater New York. The sum of $8,350 was realized.

The box office receipts were $8,000, which was augmented by $350 by the sale at auction of a souvenir program autographed by every artist taking part in the performance.

DEATH UNCOVERS BADEAU'S RICHES

Neighbors Never Dreamed That He Was Worth a Million.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., April 12.—The death of William H. Badeau of Fishkill at the age of 83, who lived so frugally that neighbors never dreamed he was rich, has brought out the fact that he possessed a large fortune. In his safe deposit vault in the Matteawan National bank, Mr. Badeau had bonds and mortgages enough to fill a good sized trunk. They are valued at $550,000. He owned much realty also and it may be that he was worth more than a million.

Mr. Badeau never married. He left no will. His nearest relatives are a brother, Joseph N. Baudeau of Fishkill, and a sister, Mrs. Mathilda S. Robinson of Cold Spring, both in moderate circumstances. Joseph N. Badeau is a machinist employed for many years in the Fishkill Machine works.

Surrogate Hopkins appointed La Tourette Brinkerhoff administrator of William H. Badeau's estate, fixed his bonds at $200,000 and ordered that $483,181 of the securities of the estate remain under lock and key in the Matteawan Savings bank.

Former County Judge Phillips, attorney for the heirs, said that H. Badeau's relatives did not know of his wealth.

"Mr. Badeau was not a man of conspicuous business ability," he said. "He was not interested in any large commercial enterprises. He acquired his money by saving it and investing it in good securities. The size of his estate is explained by the unusual length of his life."

For a number of years William H. Baudeau travelled for E. & H. Anthony & Co., dealers in photographic supplies. He spent much time abroad. Twenty-five years ago he retired. Although he had never been west of Buffalo, most of Mr. Badeau's fortune was invested in Western bonds and mortgages. He was vice president of the Glidden, Idaho, National bank, which he had never seen and owned a large amount of stock in it.

OHIO CITIES MAY HAVE BASEBALL ON SUNDAYS.

Columbus, Ohio, April 12.—The senate yesterday passed the Greeves Sunday baseball bills, both of which have gone through the lower house. One removes Sunday baseball games from forbidden amusements and the other gives city councils authority to say whether Sunday games shall be permitted under the first law. A bill passed by the assembly a year ago providing for local option in cities on Sunday baseball, was vetoed by Governor Harmon.

ARE BUYING LANDS.

Prospective Settlers With Money Visiting Pennington County.

Thief River Falls, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Several large lands deals have been closed in this city, the buyers being men of means from out of town, who will move their families here as soon as necessary arrangements can be made. S. A. Benson of South Dakota, purchased the Trytoon three-quarters of a section northeast of the city. Another purchaser was J. B. Connors of Rolette, N. D., who secured 800 acres of land west of town, known as the Pirchard farms. The consideration for these two tracts was large, as they are near the city and are excellent farms. Mr. Connors will establish a model dairy and will deliver his product to this point and also ship to the cities.

Both express themselves pleased with this territory and that they decided to invest their money here in preference to some place in Canada. Many other purchasers of land in smaller quantities have arrived here during the present month and have moved out on land recently bought. This section of the country cannot complain of the failure of settlers to stop off here and take land for homes.

Omaha Brakeman Killed.

Hudson, Wis., April 12.—Alfred Halverson, 27 years of age, a brakeman in the employ of the main line of the Omaha railroad, fell beneath the wheels of a moving engine at the depot here Monday. Both his legs were severed and he died shortly after. His home was at Menomonie, Wis.

BISON, S. D., JAIL BREAK.

Two Prisoners Well Supplied With Money Make Getaway.

Bison, S. D., April 12.—George Dively and Andrew Parker, two prisoners confined in the Perkins county jail here, made their escape by sawing through an iron bar by means of a silver knife and then prying off a bar which held the outer door of the jail.

The escape was effected between 7:30 and 9 o'clock at night, as Deputy Sheriff Ellefson had been absent from the jail about that time, and upon returning at 9 o'clock found the cell empty and the prisoners gone.

Dively, who is described as about 37 years old, 5 feet 9 inches in height, blue eyes, light curly hair and a light mustache, weighing about 165 pounds, was in jail on a charge of grand larceny, committed at Lemmon. Andrew Parker, who was held on a charge of burglarizing a homesteader's shack, is 26 years old, weighs about 145 pounds, is 5 feet 8 inches tall, has light hair and blue eyes.

Dively is well supplied with money as he had $1,000 on deposit in the Farmers' State bank at Bison, but drew it out on some pretext a few days before the escape. It is believed the prisoners had outside help to enable them to make their getaway, as no trace has been found of them.

A YEAR OF GOOD WORK.

Congratulations are due the Duluth Commercial club on the work that made possible such a report as that made last night by Chairman McGonagle of the Public Affairs committee, which appears on another page in The Herald tonight. The report shows a year of splendid work on the part of the committee and the club, and no less a year of advancement for the city, both in the accomplishment of things for the municipal welfare and in bringing the citizens into closer union for the good of all. The Commercial club has done admirable work, and the city should appreciate it. There is much yet to be done, and the spirit shown by the club and its committee are assurance that there will be no flagging of interest or effort during the years to come.

Chief among the larger development matters dealt with in the report is the new steel plant. Chairman McGonagle sees good for Duluth in the fact that the work on that structure was not begun as nearly as had at first been hoped. Now, he says, the plant will be equipped with better machinery and methods than were known of a few years ago. This certainly is an advantage to be thankful for. It is to this city's interests that this plant be thoroughly up to date, and if that feature is to be accomplished as a result of the slight delay that has been seen in the construction work, the delay is the means of a gain for Duluth.

Development of the agricultural resources about Duluth is treated at some length in the report, as indeed it must have been, in view of the great activity the club has shown in that matter. This is a work that means inestimable advantage to this city, and the club has shown intelligence and foresight in the way it has gone about the solution of the problem of such development.

In other matters too, such as improved methods of city government, betterment of living conditions, education of citizens as to the commercial and industrial resources of the city, development of trade with the surrounding country, etc., the club has been active, and the Public Affairs committee particularly so.

It has been a good year—a year of effort and a year of attainment; and it closes with firm resolutions to make the year just beginning even more full of accomplishment. The Commercial club has done well. May it remain prosperous and powerful, a builder of civic pride and civic prosperity, an organization of which Duluth may be proud for the good it does for the city and the community.

HELPING CANADA ALONG.

Those Canadians are a great lot of people. If they are as optimistic in everything as they are in connection with this reciprocity matter they are sure to get ahead. Perhaps the strong infusion of Yankee blood in the Dominion is responsible for some of their ideas, or perhaps it isn't. Anyway, they can see things in more than one light, and keep one eye shut at the same time.

Here is the latest: They say that even if reciprocity fails of ratification, Canada will be the gainer because of incalculably valuable advertising the Dominion is getting throughout parts of the United States. They look at it like this, according to the Calgary News-Telegram:

Here are a lot of people in the States who are opposing reciprocity on the ground that the soil of Canada is so rich and the land so cheap that the American farmers can't expect to stand any show at all against Canadians, even with the richness and availability of the soil in the States, and the necessity of paying transportation charges to get the products from Canada to the American markets. Now, say the Canadians, in what way could Canada get any better advertising than that, anywhere, and how could she get it in such quantities and so admirably placed as is the case in this anti-reciprocity agitation?

Well, aren't the Canadians right? What are the politicians and the special privilege advocates who are stirring up opposition to reciprocity among the farmers really accomplishing? They are saying to the American farmers something like this:

Here, just a few miles to the north of you, so near that there really isn't any difference in its relation to market and your own present relation to the same market, are vast areas of marvelously fertile land, to be had for a song, in a country where you can hire cheap labor and buy manufactured articles at less than cost, and where you can make a million or two every few years and finally retire on a competence by the time you reach middle age.

Do you believe it, farmers? Do you believe it hard enough to leave your present land and emigrate? If you don't believe it that hard, you don't believe it hard enough to be warranted in making vigorous opposition to reciprocity. If you believed it you would have been one of the 102,000 Americans who emigrated to Canada in the last ten months. Wouldn't you now? Of course you would. Well, are you going to believe it now just because the American Protective Tariff league says so in order to get you to oppose the best commercial proposition that has been before the American congress in years? Of course you are not. No, you won't. But somebody else will, and that somebody else is getting that belief out of just the kind of advertising that Canada is getting out of this kind of talk.

The Canadians are right. They are getting a whole heap of high class advertising out of this anti-reciprocity agitation. They can point to it and say: "See what even our competitors feel obliged to say about our land and our resources." And meanwhile the men who are giving them this advertising are playing into the hands of special privilege on this side of the line and special privilege on the other side of the line, at the same time. What a fine, patriotic, business-like, common sense piece of business!

GET YOUR GUESSER GOING.

What's in the wind at Washington? Why this unlooked-for anxiety on the part of Mr. Mann to land the erstwhile insurgent Republicans in the best possible places on the committees of the house? Why this sudden and perplexing effort to placate the members whose throats the "regulars" were so willing to cut at the last two sessions? In short, as Artemus Ward asked, "Wherefore this thusness?"

Of course there are a lot of gueses that might be made. For instance, there is the most obvious one, that the regulars—for Mann is a dyed-in-the-wool-schedule regular and it is absurd to imagine that he took this step without consulting Cannon and the rest—that the regulars are doing this in an attempt to bribe the insurgents to "be good" a la standpatter. Not that anything in particular would be gained in the house vote by such goodness, but because it would give a united party in the house to back up party unification in the senate, for whatever end the G. O. P. leaders in that body may have in view.

Then here is another guess: That the regulars have learned the lesson of the last election. Now that may sound absurd, but please remember that this is only a guess, not an assertion. Suppose they had learned something, the thing they would want to do would be to tickle the insurgents in the place where it would make them laugh the way the regulars like. Then the insurgents would go home and tell the folks that the regulars weren't such a bad lot after all, if you once got to know them well, and all that.

As a third guess we may imagine that the regular Republicans have decided to behave themselves, and are just trying to put the strongest men possible in the various places, so that the country may have the fullest benefit from their services—

Really, this guessing business leads one into undreamed-of paths of speculation and imagination. When one gets to figuring on the interest one of those rock-ribbed, hide-bound, Schedule K Republicans feels in the welfare of the people and the country it is time to quit. The people know it, too, they showed that they knew it at the last congressional election. And they are not going to be fooled out of knowing it by any committee assignments or any other ruse. What's the good—or harm—in putting insurgents, past or present, on committees or off committees or in corners or on the floor when they are only part of a minority in both the committee and the house? The people will realize that, too, before the session is over, though maybe Mann and his men hope they won't. And that, by the way, is as good a guess as any.

It's an interesting situation, and one that will stand any amount of study that the casual observer or anybody else wants to give to it. Maybe somebody will guess right. It's rather fun to try, anyway, so get your guesser going and see what you make of it all.

VACANT LOT GARDENS.

The Herald last night printed a letter from Bishop McGolrick that ought to appeal to every owner of vacant property in Duluth. In his letter the bishop urged holders of vacant lots to give to citizens who have no such areas the privilege of making gardens on the lots. He pointed out the benefit this would be to those who thus secured gardening privileges, how it would not only make it possible for them to help themselves financially by being able to supply their tables to some extent with vegetables, but would also be a benefit to them physically by giving them outdoor work of a practical kind, that could be done in their spare hours. He also pointed out the advantage of giving this opportunity to the children of learning something about gardening, and of the pleasure there is in watching things grow.

Bishop McGolrick has made a valuable suggestion, and he has backed it up with a promise to help to get owners of vacant property to give the use of such lots for this purpose. By this he has shown not only his own confidence in the value of his plan, but a willingness to bring about its adoption that ought to be shared by the lot owners themselves.

Certainly it would be no detriment to a bit of land to have it occupied in part by a flourishing garden. Even a row of potato vines is more attractive in appearance than a tangle of weeds or an uneven area covered with a scattering of grass interspersed with mudholes. As a matter of commercial interest the ocular demonstration of the agricultural possibilities of the land would be of some value, for a lot that will support a flourishing back yard garden is more desirable to a prospective buyer and builder than one that is capable of no other cultivation than the erection of a stone pile or a pyramid of empty tin cans.

Here is a suggestion for some practical philanthropy that will accomplish three desirable things at once, a feature that is rarely met with in any kind of philanthropy: It will give advantage to the recipient, advantage to the giver and advantage to the thing given. At the same time it will cost the giver nothing and will help the city to the extent that some now barren lots will become attractive gardens and also by giving some worthy citizen a better chance to prosper than he otherwise would have.

The bishop's plan is a good one, in every way. The Herald indorses it gladly, and wishes that it may meet with the generous response and practical and valuable results it is entitled to receive and accomplish.

We may yet see the Association of Burned-Out Legislators.

Oh yes—what about concerts in the city parks during the coming summer?

New York has 50,000 old maids. And Nat Goodwin forbidden to marry again!

Out in California they propose to make husbands support their wives whether they want to or not. Such interference with personal liberty is positively shocking.

By the way, do you remember what British Ambassador James Bryce said about the reciprocity agreement with Canada? It was this: "The arrangement rests on a growing realization of the fact that a high-tariff wall between two contiguous countries whose products are economically interchangeable is an injury to both and opposed to sound financial principles."

THE OPEN COURT.

(Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about the topics of general interest. Letters should not exceed 300 words—the shorter the better. They must be written on one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer, though these need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.)

AUTOMOBILE OWNERS PAY SEVEN TAXES.

To the Editor of The Herald:

Mayor Cullum stated in an interview that the people wanted the wheelage tax. Whom does he mean? The sixteen members of the common council do not constitute the people by any means. The city pays the expenses of the city comptroller and others to sundry conventions throughout the country and they learn of new ways of taxing the people, and some wise member of the council, who feels that the citizens of Duluth are not taxed sufficiently, introduces an ordinance for the new tax. I wonder if the members of the council ever looked up how many taxes an automobile owner pays—seven, viz: personal tax, state number, state chauffeur's license, city ditto, wheelage tax, and police court fine and costs. Can not the city send the comptroller on a round up trip and see if there is not another way of putting on another tax? A bill was introduced in congress to regulate autos—possibly this might be pushed by the Commercial club.

It appears to me the best way to collect the wheelage tax is, not by dragging the present heavily taxed property owners into police court, but by the common council repealing the wheelage tax and city chauffeur's license tax, as the streets of this city are used by farmers, and teams and autos from Superior and other neighboring cities that never pay a cent to the city of Duluth in any shape or form. DEFENDS FREEDOM OF THOUGHT, NOT ANARCHY.

In your issue of the 3d, L. Z. comes to the rescue of Dr. Lefkovits. I have accused him of intolerance because he calls people who differ with him "hair-brained." According to L. Z., his "system of philosophy must be inefficient."

I am not defending anarchism nor atheism, but the fundamental right to differ with others in what I believe.

In saying Tolstoi was an aranchist, I merely judged him by what he has written and not by what Emma Goldman has said he was.

Emma Goldman has said Christ was an anarchist and was crucified for that crime. It is very certain that the crime of blasphemy was not known to the Roman law.

The basis of my right to believe a thing is the fact that I am willing to defend another's right to believe differently from what I do.

I do not defend Emma Goldman's system of philosophy; I defend her right to believe in it, and when she calls me a "robber" for believing in government, she weakens her argument and does not answer mine.

L. Z. speaks of the materialism of Emma Goldman and says "there is a materialism so fine that it is spiritualistic, wearing a name more acceptable to scientific ears."

I understand she is a believer in the materialism of the modern evolution school of which Ernst Haeckel is the leading exponent.

This seems to me quite scientific on her part.

Then there is the school so finely spiritualistic that it is all spirit. This school was founded by Mary Baker Eddy and denies the existence of matter. This is "so fine a conception of materialism" that it seems to me a misconception of mind. So much so that the late Mark Twain wrote a book in ridicule of it.

My delay in replying to L. Z. is due to the fact that I live on a farm at some distance from town and do not get my mail every day.

SAYS PAMPHLET SHOULD BE SUPPRESSED.

To the Edior of The Herald:

I ask permission to trespass on your valuable space, that I may call the attention of the people of Duluth to a certain pamphlet entitled "An Oath of Treason" which is enjoying a distribution at the hand of misguided dupes in this city. The writer of this letter is a traveling man and is the recipient of one. The author of the pamphlet poses as a "great intellect" upon whose shoulders rests the destinies of the Protestant faith. He sallies forth with an expose of alleged oaths of Catholic churchmen both lay and clerical, and refers to the priesthood and the Catholic sisters in a malignant diatribe couched in language that could only emanate from a depraved, diseased, polluted brain; libellous written slanders that are so transparent that they carry their own antidote with them. Living as we are in an enlightened age it is the moral duty of the authorities to not only protect the good name and reputation of a city but also its citizens. The writer enjoyed the privilege of attending some of the sessions of the parliament of religions in Chicago in 1893. There were present at that great gathering the most eminent men on this earth representing all creeds and from all parts of the world. The followers of Brahma, Buddha, Mahommett, Confucius and Jesus, all profound scholars, venerable and dignified in their intercourse with each other, and recognizing one common Father of all, all believing one sublime truth—love to God and love to man. Each accorded the other the privilege of worshipping God in accordance with conscience. These good men set an example that should bring the blush of shame to the narrow-minded bigot who would condemn his fellow man for opinions sake. I sincerely hope the people of Duluth will show their disapproval of the vender's and dissemenators of slanders like the "Oath of Treason" that they may receive the condemnation which they justly deserve.

Respectfully,
J. C. O. K.,
A Traveling Salesman.

St. Joseph News-Press: Speaking of brand new fiction and handsome illustrations, there are the seed catalogues.

Spruce Up!

Pittsburg Chronicle: Wisconsin women having been granted the right to vote in all state elections, it behooves Wisconsin office seekers to look their prettiest and act their nicest.

MINNESOTA OPINIONS.

One on Frank Eddy.

St. Cloud Times: Hon. F. M. Eddy went up to Brainerd the night before election and made a rip-roaring speech in favor of the Republican candidate for mayor. Result: Next day the Democratic candidate was elected by 200 majority over the Republican, who was third in the race. That's one on Frank.

Still Hangs to His Vagaries.

Albert Lea Tribune: Former Congressman McCleary of the Second district of this state still hangs to the high tariff vagaries, which brought about his defeat several years ago for a seat in the house. At a recent banquet given by some of the highly protected interests at Pittsburg, Mr. McCleary was present and was one of the speakers. Of course, he opposed the Canadian reciprocity measure and took the ground that it must be a tariff for all or no tariff at all. Of course, it is natural for McCleary to look at the matter in that way. He is receiving his support from the special interests which stand for the very highest tariff possible, and they do not like to see a reform that will work for the interest of the people. Mr. McCleary would have a tariff wall between this country and Canada so high that nothing could be thrown over it from either direction.

One Good Thing Ahead.

St. Cloud Journal-Press: Last week of the Minnesota legislature. There are usually some good things ahead of us—and this is one of them.

Not Likely to Admit It.

Mankato Free Press: It was hardly to be expected that Mr. Hines would admit that he was the collector of the "slush" fund.

It Certainly Must.

Stillwater Gazette: Must be an awful poor newspaper that is obliged to give away a pair of shears to everybody who will buy a copy of the Sunday edition.

Way to Get Rich.

St. Paul Review: It has become perfectly evident that the quickest way to get rich in Minnesota is to capture a state office and then get on the drainage board.

Cannot Fool the People.

Hibbing Mesaba One: Senator Clapp gathers his sap from Eastern trees, and perhaps he is foolish enough to think he can always fool the people of Minnesota. His sugar is diluted with something that don't taste good.

Will "Insurgents" Meet Test?

Rochester Post and Record: The Democracy is not the only political contingent that will go on national probation with the assembling of the new congress. The Republican "insurgents," especially in the senate, will be on trial in a degree even more strenuous, and the Canadian reciprocity agreement will supply the first real test of the sincerity of their reiterated utterances in favor of tariff reform. During the closing out of the recent session, evidence was not lacking that many of the most influential insurgents were wavering in their support of tariff revision, as it was involved in the Canadian proposal. The interval between the sessions has clarified the situation. If Republican insurgency means anything at all, it means tariff revision. That is one of the most vital principles in its creed, the slogan it raised in that battle with the standpatters which split the Republican party asunder, and helped pave the way for Democratic victory last November. If, now, it is to reverse itself squarely upon the presentation of the first bona fide opportunity for tariff revision, what will be its position before the country?

Champ Is Right.

St. Cloud Times: It is reported from Washington that the committee on ways and means favors reporting and passing through the house two or three tariff measures before passing the reciprocity resolution. It is further rumored that if Speaker Clark's views are followed, the Canadian agreement will be the first proposition reported to the house. The Missourian is said to take the position that if the Democrats report any tariff bill in advance of the Canadian agreement, they will be accused of "playing politics," in view of the fact that congress was called in session by the president to consider the matter entered into with the dominion. It is alleged that Champ Clark is influenced by his candidacy for the presidency in this position. No matter what his motive, Mr. Clark is correct. The reciprocity pact should be first in order.

A MOMENT WITH THE WITS.

Jill—Wild oats, I guess.

Boston Courier: Caller—Will the cashier be away long?

Office Boy—That depends entirely on the jury.

Tatler: "'Ave ye 'ad enough?"

"Yuss, I 'ave. Faint 'cause I'm beat though, but I've—I've got a nasty 'eadache."

Brooklyn Life: The Virtuoso—He paid $4,000 for a Whistler.

The Drummer—Gee! You can get a Singer for about $50.

Patient (feebly)—Oh, doctor, do leave me something in my system.

Washington Herald: "He has a grudge against the plain people."

"As to why?"

"Says they wear so many rubbers that it forces up the price of tires."

Minneapolis Magazine: "Your own baby, if you have one," advertised the enterprising photographer, "can be enlarged, tinted and framed for $9.75 per dozen."

Toledo Blade: Bach—Confess, now, Henry—you don't pay as much attention to your wife as you did before you were married?

H. Peck—Lord, yes, I mind twice as quick now.

Washington Star: "Does your motor give you much trouble?"

"No," replied Mr. Chuggins. "It is a source of great trouble, but I invariably pay for it. None of it is in the nature of a gift."

Chicago Tribune: "Junkins, your wife is the most brilliant conversationalist I know of."

"Well, she's had lots of practice. She goes to a theater box party two or three times every week."

Washington Star: "When Dustin Stax went into Wall street he didn't have a dollar he could call his own."

"Yes. But in those days he was more particular about whose dollar he called his own."

Louisville Courier-Journal: "Can you give my constituent here a job on your railroad?" asked the state senator.

"But he can't talk English,"

"Well, give him a job calling trains."

Washington Herald.—"I am going to start a garden," announced Mr. Subbubs. "A few months from now I won't be kicking about your prices."

"No," said the grocer; "you'll be wondering how I can afford to sell vegetables so cheap."

London Opinion: Mr. X.—Oh, I've been doing quite a round of calls and I've been so unfortunate!

Mrs. X.—What, everybody out?

Mr. X.—No, everybody in!

Puck: In 1950.—Mrs. Wiggs—She is enormously wealthy.

Mrs. Boggs—Yes. She was an only wife, you know!

Washington Star: "It is said that you gave money to the legislature."

"Another untruth!" replied the man who was being investigated. "The legislature took it away from me."

TWENTY YEARS AGO

•••Clark & Crossley of Duluth and Northampton, Mass., have decided to establish their third bank. West Duluth will be the lucky town this time. Mr. Crossley said today that he is now figuring on the material for a four-story brick business block, trimmed with brownstone, to be located on the corner of Central and Grand avenues, West Duluth, diagonally opposite the site of the proposed hotel, and in this building the bank offices will be located.

DULUTH AND THE HERALD.

Decidedly Rich.

Cass Lake Times: Naughton, The Duluth Herald cartoonist, has surpassed himself, which is a most difficult task, in the special mail edition for Tuesday morning. Note the at-last-I've-come-into-my-own expression on the face of the Democratic donkey with the aggressive jumbo on its back containing "Democratic control." While Uncle Sam, please observe, with his hands behind his back, nevertheless bestows a placid look of approval upon the prodigal. It's rich!

The Decency Campaign.

Laporte News: Duluth has instituted what The Herald terms "the decency campaign." The city health department has issued cards bearing the inscription "Let Us Be Decent," and The Herald devotes nearly half a column in emphasizing it. This kind of a campaign need not be confined to Duluth. It can be put into practice in every city, town, village and home in the state. There are parents who appear decent enough except in their own homes, but their children fail to draw the line and grow up selfish, insolent and wholly disregard the rights, privileges or feelings of others. The home can do a great deal to teach the rising generation to become decent in more ways than one.

Short Measure.

Oslo Tribune: A man in Duluth was arrested the other day for selling a half cord of wood short of its measure. The wood was sawed up ready for the stove and the man undoubtedly thought it a chance to make a little extra money. We believe that if everyone buying ready sawed wood would ascertain himself of the full measure before paying for it, there would undoubtedly be many guilty of the same crime in other towns, too.

The Good Work Begun.

Stillwater Gazette: Duluth's school teachers asked for an increase in salary and although they didn't get all they asked for, they did secure a slight advance over the former monthly stipend. The reason assigned by the school board for not complying with the full demand of the teachers was that the city hasn't the money. But the teachers have received recognition and no doubt the good work will be extended until it covers the whole state and possibly the entire Northwest.

Done for Duluth.

Cass Lake Times: No, we don't miss the Twin Cities' papers, not a bit. The Herald and News Tribune fill every want. Neither one is syndicate controlled, hence the free hand in all their editorials while their news columns are prompt and wholly reliable. The Herald issued a big Easter edition Monday of fourteen pages as a supplement to its regular. Did you ever know a St. Paul or Minneapolis paper to do that on a Monday? It was done for Duluth, and Duluth will pay the freight.

All Eyes on Duluth.

Big Fork Compass: The city of Duluth is making preparations for the holding of its first annual Mardi Gras or water carnival and Venetian fete on July 20, 21 and 22 next. No city in our state has better natural facilities for holding an annual festival such as has made New Orleans famous, nor has any city a more energetic set of public spirited business men to get behind such a festivity and make it a success. We'll all be there.

Vile Lodging Houses.

Greenbush Tribune: The Duluth Herald has been printing some photographs recently of lodging houses in that city. If things are half as bad as pictured, it is high time such publicity was given. Human beings sleep in places in Duluth and other cities that are too horrible for words to describe. With so much of God's pure air and sunshine without we are prone to wonder why human beings will stay in our larger cities when the best they can afford is a place in these dungeons of filth and foul air. No wonder there is need of a fight against the white plague.

Absent Voting In Australia.

Consular Reports: The Australian Commonwealth, like the United States, is divided into states, with election sub-districts. By one method for absent voting the elector is permitted to cast his ballot at any polling place within the state or district for which he is registered on making a simple declaration that his name is enrolled on the records of one of the polling places within that state or district.

The second method of absent voing is by mail. An elector who has reason to believe that during the polling hours of an impending election day he will not be nearer than five miles to the polling place at which he is registered, on application may receive a postal vote certificate and a postal ballot paper. With these he may at any time on election day present himself before any government officer or employe at any place in the commonwealth and in his presence mark the ballot. He will then deliver the marked ballot to the government officer or employe, having first put it in a sealed envelope, and the latter will mail it to the electoral officials of the district for which the voter is enrolled. The ballot so sent will be counted when received by the electoral officials in the same manner as if it had been regularly and personally cast at the polling place.

Where the King's Clothes Were Kept.

Westminster Gazette: St. Andrew's-by-the-Wardrobe, for the restoration of which the rector appeals, is a conspicuous waymark in Queen Victoria street and derives a grotesque distinguishing title from former proximity to the King's Great Wardrobe. This was originally the town mansion of Sir John Beauchamp and was purchased from his executors by Edward III for the keepers of the king's apparel. "There were kept," says Fuller, "the ancient clothes of our English kings which they wore on great festivals." Shakespeare in his will left to his favorite daughter, Susannah, the Warwickshire doctor's wife, a house near the Wardrobe, "wherein one John Robinson dwelleth." The present church of St. Andrew's-by-the-Wardrobe was rebuilt by Wren after the great fire and became the city center of the evangelical revival under William Romaine.

Profitable Public Ownership.

Consular Reports: In the past ten years the city treasury of Hull, England, has received from the profits of the municipal street car system over $700,000, which has lessened local taxation by just that amount. This is after paying all operating expenses and interest charges, keeping the system in first-class order, and adding a stated amount annually to the sinking fund.

The net profits in the fiscal year ended March 31, 1910, were $111,657, and $77,864 was set aside for the relief of taxes; in 1909, with net profits of $130,646, the sum of $87,597 was devoted to tax relief.

There are no fare zones. The fare is 2 cents, which carries a passenger from one end of the line to the other, and in the morning hours the charge is only 1 cent. Notwithstanding these cheap rates the Hull street cars under municipal ownership and operation each year show a profit.

American Peeresses at the Coronation.

New York American: The American is in a position to announce for the first time the full official list of "Peeresses from America" who will wear their robes and coronets at the crowning of their majesties, King George and Queen Mary at Westminster Abbey on June 22. The list is as follows in their order of precedence:

1—Duchess of Roxburghe, who was Miss May Goelet.
2—Duchess of Manchester, who was Miss Helena Zimmerman.
3—Marchioness of Dufferin and Ava, who was Miss Florence Davis.
4—Countess of Suffolk, who was Miss Marguerite Leiter.
5—Countess of Essex, who was Miss Adela Grant.
6—Countess of Granard, who was Miss Beatrice Mills.
7—Countess of Craven, who was Miss Cornelia Martin.
8—Countess of Donoughmore, who was Miss Elena Maria Grace.
9—Countess of Ancaster, who was Miss Breese.
10—Lady Greville, who was Miss Grace.
11—Lady Monson, who was Miss Stone.
12—Lady Decies, who was Miss Vivien Gould.
13—Lady Bateman, who was Miss Graham.
14—Lady Newborough, who was Miss Grace Carr.
15—Lady Cheylesmore, who was Miss Elizabeth French.

CURLING CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

WALTER M. EVERED, President.

D. C. WAKEMAN, Secretary.

W. B. GETCHELL, Treasurer.

THOSE WHO WI LL HEAD WESTERN CURLING ASSOCIATION.

Walter M. Evered of the National Iron works was elected president of the Western Curling association at its annual meeting held last evening at the rink. Fifty-seventh avenue west and Bristol street. Dr. C. R. Keyes was chosen first vice president; E. E. Burns, second vice president; Dallas G. Wakeman, secretary; and W. B. Getchell, treasurer.

The annual reports of the club showed the association to be in good condition financially, with a large and growing membership. The committee to look up the matter of repairs to the rink did make any recommendations at the meeting last evening. It is understood that there will be no extensive improvements this coming season.

The annual banquet which will be held the latter part of April or the first of May will wind up the activities of the curlers until cold weather comes next winter. The plans for the banquet will be left to the incoming officers who will comprise the committee. It is understood that the affair will be an elaborate one this year.

The banquet committee will get busy at once on the plans.

OFFICERS ARE RE-ELECTED

H. H. Peyton Again Heads Proctor Club—Annual Banquet Held.

H. H. Peyton was re-elected president of the Proctor Commercial club at its second annual meeting and dinner last evening at the Proctor Y. M. C. A. S. J. Raetz was also re-elected secretary. The other officers are: T. McCabe, vice president, and J. Carruthers, treasurer.

About 100 people attended the annual banquet, which was served by the ladies of the Proctor Methodist church. C. W. Ramshaw acted as toastmaster and called upon several speakers who discussed the proposed new sewer system, treet car extensions, and other matters of interest to the Proctor people.

H. H. Peyton, as president, reviewed the work of the year in his annual report. C. Rossiter and Alderman L. A. Barnes of West Duluth told of what progress had been made in the direction of securing a street car extension from West Duluth to Proctor. Mr. Rossiter is chairman of the committee on street car extensions.

H. G. Gilderman, chief of the Proctor fire department, called attention to the coming tournament of the Range Volunteer Firemen's association, which will be held in Proctor in July. Ten teams of fourteen men each will be sent here to participate in the affair.

Prof. Frederick Bass of the state sanitary board, gave one of the most important talks of the evening on the sewer possibilities for Proctor. J. W. Kreitter, superintendent of the Duluth, Missabi & Northern railroad, also talked on this subject. The speakers thought that a sewer system for the village would cost $50,000.

Others who gave talks were Father Walsh, Secretary S. J. Raetz, who submitted his annual report, J. J. Frey and A. J. Meldahl of West Duluth.

KILLED IN EXPLOSION.

Victor Shore, Former Resident, Meets Sudden Death in Silver Mine.

Mrs. N. Christopher of 148 St. Croix avenue, received a message yesterday announcing the death of her sister's husband, Victor Shore, in a blast in a silver mine at Rossland, B. C. Mrs. Shore will bring the body to Duluth for interment and the funeral will be held Monday from the Finnish church on Sixty-fifth avenue west.

Mrs. Shore will arrive Sunday morning with the body and it will be taken to the home of her mother, Mrs. Tilna Mustonen, 123 North Sixty-fourth avenue west. Besides his wife, Mr. Shore is survived by two children.

Sentence Suspended.

William Strevel, aged 40, who was arrested yesterday and arraigned in municipal court at the instigation of his wife on a charge of drunkenness and disorderly conduct, was found guilty, but received a suspended sentence. Strevel is the man that the police picked up last winter lying in the street with his feet and hands frozen.

Revisits West Duluth.

Max Sachs, a former West Duluthian, now manager of the Fergus Shirt factory at Fergus Falls, Minn., visited West Duluth for the first time in eleven years today. Mr. Sachs was connected with M. S. Shore & Co., shirt makers on Grand avenue a number of years ago. He notes that West Duluth has grown since he was last here and sees much in store for the western end of the city in the industrial line.

West Duluth Briefs.

Rev. J. A. Krantz, pastor of Elim Swedish Lutheran church and president of the Minnesota conference of Swedish Lutheran churches with Rev. Carl Solmonson, pastor of the First Swedish Lutheran church of this city, returned this morning from the Cuyuna range, where they have been looking after mission work in the interests of the conference.

A. Gustafson, an Adolph farmer, was a West Duluth business visitor this morning.

ADVOCATES THE OREGON SYSTEM

Senator Poindexter of Washington Addresses the Minnesota Legislature.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

St. Paul, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—United States Senator Poindexter of Washington, who is in St. Paul today, en route to Washington, addressed both houses of the legislature on the Oregon plan of electing United States senators. He advocated the enactment in Minnesota of a measure similar to the Oregon law, providing for the popular election of United States senators. Such a measure, he said, would prevent the recurrence of the things which have brought shame to some states in the election of their senators and would prevent the deadlocking of legislatures.

ADDITIONAL SPORTS

WILL PLAY CRICKET ON CEMENT PITCHES.

Mohawk, Mich., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Mohawk, Tamarack, Calumet & Hecla and other teams of the Copper Country Cricket league are building cement cricket pitches this year. The cement pitch allows the fastest kind of cricket and does away almost entirely with liability of ground errors. The fastest cricket played in America can be played here after these pitches have been put in. Several of the clubs have, heretofore, used cocoa matting or plank pitches.

COPPER COUNTRY LEAGUE FORMED.

Hancock, Mich., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Copper Country Baseball league, to be made up of teams from Mohawk, Calumet, Hubbell, Hancock, Houghton and Gay, was organized at Hancock Sunday afternoon. W. E. Smith of Mohawk was elected president. The season will not open for another month. The league will be semi-professional in character, playing Saturdays and Sundays. The offer of iron country clubs to enter was turned down because of the distances to travel.

Will Hold Marathon.

Calumet, Mich., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Practically all arrangements have been made for the marathon race to be run here on Memorial day by Young Miller of St. Paul, world's champion welterweight wrestler, and Jussi Steltz of Hancock and New York city, marathon runner and claimant of the championship of Finland. The race will be run during the holding of the first athletic meeting of the year for the Copper country. One of the principal events, aside from the marathon, will be a two-mile race between Jilbert of Laurium and McGlynn of the A. O. H. club of Hancock for the Northern Michigan record. Entries for a fifteen-mile race, mile walking, toe and heel, contest; mile run and other track and field events will be invited from all parts of the Northwest.

First Soccer Game.

Baltic, Mich., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Vulcan, Mich., soccer football team will meet the Baltic team at Ishpeming in the first game of the year on April 29. Following this game the Vulcanites will tour the iron and copper districts, meeting the Calumet Y. M. C. A., the Mohawk, the Quincy, Hancock and South Range soccer teams. This will be the first of an elimination series of contests for the state championship.

URGES NECESSITY OF CONCERTED ACTION

To Prevent Affirmation of Decision of Sanborn in Railroad Case.

Jefferson City, Mo., April 12.—Governor Hadley announced that he would take up with the executive committee of the governors' conference of the United States the necessity for concerted action against the affirmation of Judge Sanborn's decision in the Minnesota rate cases by the supreme court of the United States.

The governor said that if the decision should be affirmed it would strike down the police powers and sovereignty of the states and would render them mere dependencies of the national government.

He suggests that the governors appear before the court as representatives of states, each in the capacity of amicus curiae, and file briefs in opposition to the doctrine laid down by Judge Sanborn, that the states are without authority to regulate corporations doing interstate commerce.

Eighteen governors are affiliated with the organization, which met last year at Frankfort, Ky.

FLIES 290 MILES WITHOUT STOPPING

Aviator Prier Goes From London to Paris in a Monoplane.

London, April 12.—Pierre Prier, the aviator, started in an aeroplane from Hendon today in an attempt to make a flight to Paris without a stop. He successfully crossed the English channel between Dover and Calais and continued on his flight toward the French capital.

Arrives Safely.

Issy les Moulineaux, France, April 12.—Aviator Prier arrived here at 5:45 this evening from London, having made the trip of about 290 miles in a monoplane without a stop.

QUADRUPLE CAPACITY

Improvements on Incline Track Begun By Traction Company.

Improvements to the incline railway were begun this morning when a crew of men began work at the top of the hill where a hoisting house will be erected.

The improvements planned by the Duluth-Superior Traction company call for an expenditure of about $30,000.

Two cars will be run over the line and each will have twice the seating capacity of the car now in use. The crew of men will be increased and the work will be rushed from this time on. It is expected that the improvements will be finished and the line working within a month.

The line may not be in use for several days while the workmen are in the midst of their operations. Residents of the hill top will be forced to climb the grade for a short time. The delay in the service will be made as short as possible.

The business of the line has been on the increase for a long time and it was lately found that the single car is no longer able to handle it.

With the new cars and the new equipment, the trips will be made more often and each car will accommodate a larger number of people.

IS SAVED BY HER CHILDREN

Blind-Pigger Escapes Jail Sentence Because of Her Family.

Mrs. Lena Peterson, arrested twice in a week on a charge of running a blindpig in her place on St. Croix avenue, was found guilty after a trial in police court yesterday afternoon. She was allowed to go home last night to care for her three children and sentence was adjourned until today, when sentenced was postponed thirty days pending good behavior.

Last week she paid a fine of $100 for selling beer without a license. Were the circumstances of the ordinary she would be given a straight jail sentence, but with the children to be cared for, the officials hesitate on this course. Although she paid a fine the last time, it is claimed that she could not do so again, and that if an alternative sentence were imposed, she would have no choice but would have to serve the sentence.

OBITUARY

Abraham Belasco, father of David and Frederick Belasco of theatrical fame, died in San Francisco April 11 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. M. F. Mayer. Mr. Belasco was 80 years old. He was born in London and came to California fifty-six years ago. He was first cousin to David James, at one time England's most famous comedian. Seven sons and two daughters survive. Interment will be in San Francisco.

Peter J. Sjoblom, editor of the Minneapolis Telegram when he was taken ill a year and a half ago with pneumonia, which developed into tuberculosis, died in Minneapolis, April 11. He was one of the pioneers of Minnesota. All hope of recovery was given up six months ago. Mr. Sjoblom was born at Gothenburg, Sweden, June 26, 1866, and was brought to this country when but a few months old. His father, Rev. Peter Sjoblom, came to Indiana, but moved to Red Wing in 1869, two years later. Rev. Mr. Sjoblom was one of the early pioneers of the state, and one of the fathers of the Swedish Lutheran church in America.

Cornelius McAuliffe, until recently managing editor of the Chicago Record-Herald, died in Chicago, April 10 of diabetes. He had been in charge of the editorial department of the Record-Herald since the consolidation of the Times-Herald and the Record.

Packey McFarland's Secret for Fatigue

How He Stops Exhaustion.

We are not all pugilists and so cannot remain in the pink of condition all the time by exercise. But even as great a pugilist as Packey McFarland becomes exhausted once in a while, and his method of restoring his nervous energy is nit by hardening his muscle but by using the very same method which thousands of men and women are using today.

Packey's secret is really no secret at all. Here it is, in his own words: "While training I at times become fatigued and find splendid use for Make-Man Talbets, as I found them, from personal use, the best tonic I have ever used."

Any man or woman who will try Make-Man Tablets for building up the nerves (and we all need it at least once in a while) will find them the most effective tonic ever offered the public. The first box will prove it.

They enrich the blood cells, infuse the starving "zigzag" nerves with the natural strength they need. For Nervousness, Insomnia, Rheumatism, Kidney or Liver Trouble, Make-Man Tablets have no equal.

Make-Man Tablets are sold at all drug stores at 50 cents a box. If you want to try them before buying, just drop a line to the Make-Man Tablet Co., Make-Man Bldg., Dept. 15, Chicago, Ill., and they will send you a trial treatment absolutely free.

Sold and recommended by all leading druggists and A. E. Swedberg, White Swan Drug Store, 3 East Superior street, also 2015 West Superior street.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

OLD EDITOR TO REWARD

Native of New York, Fought in Rebellion, Captured and Then Escaped.

Brainerd, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Hermon G. Ingersoll died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. J. Smith, yesterday. The deceased was born at Oswego, N. Y., Aug. 25, 1830. His early life was spent in the city of his birth where he learned the printer's trade and followed it for many years On Dec. 22, 1852, he was married to Lavina M. Newton at Oswego, and they joined the pioneers the nemigrating West and settled at Plover, Wis., where he entered the printing business, and was also connected with the publishing of a paper at Stevens Point, in the same county.

When the Civil war came on he enlisted Dec. 14, 1861, in the Eighteenth Wisconsin regiment and was discharged from service March 14, 1865, at Madison.

Marched With Sherman.

He participated in fourteen battles, was taken prisoner at the battle of Corinth, Miss., and afterwards escaped through the Confederate lines, and was with Sherman in his famous march from Atlanta to the sea. After the war he returned to his home and family at Plover, Wis., and resumed the publication of his paper, which he continued for nearly twenty years. In 1900, Mr. Ingersoll removed to Brainerd, where he has since resided, and until six months ago he retained his usual vitality. He leaves a widow, and three children, Mrs. Peter Shumaker of McGregor, Iowa; Mrs. W. J. Smith of Brainerd; N. H. Ingersoll, postmaster of Brainerd, and one of the publishers of the Brainerd Daily Dispatch.

Pioneer Woman Called.

Mrs. Anna S. Wright, for twenty-five years a resident of this city, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Yost at St. Paul. She had attained the age of 83 years. The deceased and her husband settled at a point thirty miles north of St. Paul in 1856, coming to this state from Philadelphia. She leaves the following children: Mrs. George Bertram and Mrs. Ira Whiting of Brainerd; Mrs. Joseph Yost of St. Paul; Mrs. Newton Roth of Long Prairie; Mrs. Paul Braden of Gordon, Wis; M. C. Wright of Merlin, Or.

INDIAN SCOUTS SEE BIG FATHER

Famous Redmen, Who Warned Custer of Danger, Are Seeking Pensions.

Bismarck, N. D., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Chiefs Enemy Heart and Red Bear, accompanied by Alfred Bear, who accompanied them as interpreter, have returned from Washington, D. C., where they went to visit with the Great Father to see about securing a pension for services rendered to the United States army during the frontier days when they were employed as scouts by the government troops.

Chiefs Enemy Heart and Red Bear are members of the Airkara tribe. They were Indian scouts stationed at old Fort Abraham Lincoln under Custer. When Custer and the other forces started on the memorable expedition up the Yellowstone which resulted in the massacre on the banks of the Little Big Horn Enemy Heart remained at Fort Lincoln to aid the troops which were left there to garrison the post.

Red Bear Warned Custer.

Red Bear, however, went along with the expedition and was one of the scouts who discovered the camp of the Sioux. They notified Custer of the camp, and he bade them to remain where they were while he prepared to sail right in and clean them up without waiting for any reinforcements. It is the opinion of the Indian scouts that had Custer taken them along with him there would have been a different story to tell.

In Washington the old chiefs attracted a great deal of attention, especially when it became known that they had seen service in early days under Custer.

Pension Commissioner Interested.

The pension commissioner whom they saw was very much interested in them and looking up the army records found that they had been enrolled as scouts. He said there was no doubt but what they deserved to be pensioned. However, they had left their discharge papers and other documents at their homes on the Fort Berthold reservation and they will send them down to Washington so that the proper papers may be made out.

The commissioner also assured them that in case their papers did not warrant classifying them under any one of the three classes covered by the general pension law that he would see that a special bill was introduced in congress providing for a pension for them.

MINNESOTA VILLAGE DOCTOR MOBBED.

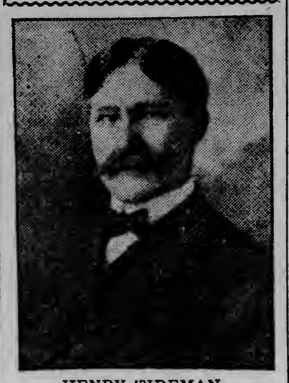
Albert Lea, Minn., April 12.—Sheriff Subby has been called to Glenville, eight miles south of this city, where Monday night Dr. J. P. Freeman, the village doctor and druggist, was attacked while in front of his residence given a coat of tar and feathers, and then released. It is said to be likely that prosecutions will be asked by the victim. Dr. Freeman is 40 years old, married, and has one child.

THIEF RIVER MILITIA COMPANY IS INSPECTED.

Thief River Falls, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Company I of Thief River Falls was regularly inspected Monday by Capt. Kobes of the United States Fourteenth Infantry from Bismarck, N. D. Capt. Ahler of St. Paul also on the same date made an inspection of the equipment and property of the company in this city.

It is stated that some changes will probably be made in the personnel of the company and that when the term of enlistment of the present company members expires, which is about April 20, that a new organization will be accomplished.

MENOMINEE MAN HAS SOLVED BIG PROBLEM



HENRY TIDEMAN.

Menominee, Mich., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Henry Tideman, general manager of the Menominee Electrical & Mechanical works, and a member of the Menominee school board, believes he has solved the problem of ventilation.

He found some of the school rooms poorly ventilated, with practically no remedy and set to work to evolve a comparatively cheap and easily available system of ventilation and succeeded in working out the problem most satisfactorily. His contrivance is operated by power and is fitted to the window sash and will drive fresh air in and at the same time drive the foul air out. It can be turned on or shut off at will through the operation of the power switch.

Mr. Tideman gave a demonstration of his invention for the benefit of the school board. One of the experiments tried was in a room filled with smoke. His apparatus cleared the room of the foul air in five minutes. Another experiment was tried with a greasy coat that had become rain soaked. It was placed on a table and in a few minutes the air was pungent with the odor. The ventilator was started and it cleared the room in a few seconds.

IS GIVEN DAMAGES FOR TIMBER FIRE

Carlton County Farmer Is Awarded $650 Against N. P. Road.

Carlton, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—After a trial lasting all day Friday of last week and all day Monday and part of Tuesday of this week, the jury went out at about 2 p. m. yesterday on the case of Jonas Ralhia of Sawyer vs. Northern Pacific Railway company, and at 5 last evening returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the amount of $650 for damage to his timber land caused by fire started by one of the defendant company's engines last October.

The amount asked for was $1,900. The amount of the judgment was approximately $10 per acre for the timber on the land. There are about thirty of these fire cases on the calendar this term. Four of them are being tried together today, from the West district.

Sheriff Harry W. McKinnon was called to Mahtowa yesterday, where he took into custody Mrs. Anna S. Hard, who was suspected of being insane. She was examined by the insanity board here yesterday and adjudged insane, and was taken to Fergus Falls today. She is the mother of Peter Hard, a well known and respected farmer of near Mahtowa. Mrs. Hard went insane on the subject of religion.

CUYUNA ORE WILL SOON BE SHIPPED

Unexpected Delay Causes Disappointment But Is Only Temporary.

Cuyuna, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Relatives of Charles Vennerstrom, who died at a local hospital last Friday, arrived Sunday from Negaunee, Mich. The remains were taken to Michigan on Monday for burial. The deceased was married and leaves a wife, three children and an aged mother.

The contract for erecting the cement walks will soon be let by the village council. There is said to be plenty of applications for the job. Water and sewer systems will also be installed.

Delay in Shipping Ore.

The mining men and citizens of Cuyuna generally were greatly disappointed Saturday when it was learned that the new Soo ore dock was not sufficiently completed to receive shipments. The train, consisting of thirty cars of high-grade ore, was made up; it had been beautifully decorated and was about to leave for the Head of the Lakes with the first load of ore to be shipped from the Cuyuna range country, when a message was received to the effect that delay was necessary.

Device to Prevent Runaways.

Marinette, Wis., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Charles Soward of Marinette has invented a device to be used in the emergency of runaways. By simply pulling a lever the team is set free of the rig. He has already received flattering offers for the sale of his patent.

Could Not Write

Versailles, Ky.—Mrs. Elisha Green, of this place, says: "I could not write all the different pains I had, when I first tried Cardui. I could scarcely walk. Now I am able to run the sewing machine and do my work; and my neighbors tell me the medicine must be good, for I look so much better." Cardui is a specific, pain-relieving, tonic remedy, for women. In the past 50 years, it has been found to relieve women's unnecessary pains, and female misery, for which over a million suffering women have successfully used it. Try Cardui for your troubles. It will help you. At the nearest drug store.

BRINGS POPE'S BLESSING.

Bishop of Winona Tells of Meeting the Pontiff.

Winona, Minn., April 12.—Bishop Patrick R. Heffron is home from Rome where he made his first official visit to Pope Plus X. The bishop was most cordially received by the pontiff. He brings back the blessing of the pope for the people of Winona, and his hearty indorsement for the establishment of the boys' college here. Bishop Heffron was presented by the Pope with a beautiful episcopal ring with a rich emerald setting. Bishop Heffron said:

"The Pope was very cordial and spoke enthusiastically of the United States. He says he admires and loves the Americans. To use his own words he said, "The Americans do things and do not exhaust their energy in mere talk. In America there is liberty in the right sense. The United States is the bright spot on the map of the world at the present time.'

"Plus X is 76 years of age, strong, courageous and thoroughly practical. His health is robust and he does an immense amount of work. Last year he received more than 50,000 people in audience."

WOMAN SUFFRAGE TALK.

Meeting Favorable to Cause Is Held in Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 12.—Woman suffrage was defended by a number of representative club women at a largely attended mass meeting under the auspices of the Political Equality League of Wisconsin at Pabts theater last night to further the suffragist measure now pending in the Wisconsin legislature.

Miss Grace Wilburn Trout, president of the Chicago Political Equality League, made the principal address, advancing many arguments in favor of the cause.

Senator David James told of its passage in the upper house and predicted favorable action in the assembly.

Should the measure get through the legislature, it will be submitted to a state referendum.

EX-MINNESOTA CONVICTS ARE BEING LOOKED FOR.

Des Moines, Iowa, April 12.—Deputy United States Marshall Bidwell has taken up the chase for Tom Hatch and Peter Juhl, escaped convicts from Stillwater, Minn., who are believed to have engineered the plan to dynamite and rob the Polk county treasury of $100,000 ten days ago. Federal officials believe that Hatch and Juhl robbed the bank at Dayton yesterday, the general store at Angus Tuesday night and the postoffice at Bayard Friday night. It is the postoffice robbery that has aroused the government officials.

Drilling on Cuyuna.

Brainerd, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—William Bamberg, formerly in charge of all the drills of the Rogers, Brown Ore company, has established himself in business and commenced doing contract work, running several drills west of Ironton and south of Brainerd.

WISCONSIN BRIEFS

Milwaukee—Volney D. Becker, aged 68, died Monday of acuto indigestion. He was a brother of Washington Becker and an uncle of Former Mayor Sherburn M. Becker. He was born in Otsego, N. Y., coming to Milwaukee in 1850. For ten years he was engaged in cattle raising in Texas for a Milwaukee syndicate. Returning to Milwaukee he conducted a malleable iron foundry in Port Washington for two years.

Madison—Les Pattles de Mouche, by Sardin, the annual French play at the university, presented by the Romance Language club, will be staged in Milwaukee this year the last of this month if present plans carry. Prof. Barry Cerf is coaching the play, and promises an interesting performance.

Marinette—Announcement is made that the Kreiter Manufacturing company of Milwaukee will move its piano manufacturing establishment to this city, where a $100,000 factory plant has been secured through the Marinette chamber of commerce. It is expected to have a portion of the new establishment in operation by May 1.

Madison—Articles of incorporation for the Rusk County Bank of Ladysmith were approved by Bank Commissioner Kuoit Monday. The bank will have a capital of $25,000. The incorporators are F. B. Aainsworth, Glenn H. Williams and W. S. Manning.

Stoughton—The Stoughton Farmers' club has been organized here to promote pure breeding of stock and progressive agriculture. The officers are: John M. Bailey, president; Elmer Tusler, vice president; John McComb, secretary and treasurer; Elmer Tusler, J. M. Bailey, Sylvanus Ames, John McComb and Seth W. Stockton, directors.

Hudson—Lewis Ross, arrested on Saturday for robbing a store at Wilson, was senteced on Monday to six months in the county jail. It is reported that Ross formerly resided near Glenwood City. The sheriff also had a warrant for his arrest as a bigamist.

Ashland—City Clerk Ed Stahl was painfully burned Sunday by a gas explosion in his office in the city hall, and is congratulating himself that it was no worse. His right hand and arms were painfully burned, and he received burns on the face and neck.

MINNESOTA BRIEFS

St. Cloud—The best country road in this section of the county is leading to Rockville from Waite Park in the Julius Payne neighborhood. Mr. Payne and his neighbors weer early converts to the split log drag, and have been using it ever since. The result is that that piece of road cost the farmers less money than any similar length of highway that is given any attention at all, and it is in fine condition all the time.

Winona—One of the largest and most important convocations ever held in Southern Minnesota by the Scottish Rite Free Masons opened at the Masonic teniple Monday afternoon. Perfection lodge No. 7 had charge of the ceremonies for the day. Work was done in the fourth to fourteenth degrees. All the candidates for the degrees mentioned were admitted.

Mankato—The city council has elected H. F. Blomquist of New Ulm city engineer to succeed John Wilson, who is desirous of getting away not later than May 1. The election, under the charter, would hold for but one day, if any one was to raise the point.

Stillwater—One of the applicants for a pardon before the state board that will convene next Monday in St. Paul is Frederick Klingbiel, under a life sentence from Washington county for murder in the first degree. He is now an old man and is confined in the crank ward at the prison.

Brainerd—The Cuyuna Range Power company has filed its certificate of incorporation with the register of deeds, capital $25,000. This is the power company which has secured the franchises to furnish electric light and power to the villages of Deerwood, Crosby and Cuyuna and will eventually supply Ironton and many of the neighboring mines.

Mankato—At the meeting of the village council of North Dakota Saturday night the contract for preparing the plans and specifications for the proposed $20,000 water works system for that village was awarded to City Engineer John Wilson of this city.

Brainerd—Mrs. Randall Wright, aged 84 years died on Sunday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Jost in St. Paul. Her children, including Mrs. George Berthum of this city, were in attendance at her bedside. The body was shipped to Brainerd Monday night.

St. Cloud—The Granite City Railway company has made plans for the construction of seven-tenths of a mile of road this summer which will extend the Waite Park car line to the banks of Sauk river. The company has secured a franchise for this extension. The added trackage will run the cars to the Grocers' pavilion and the ideal picnicking grounds along the river.

Little Falls—The McKenzie County Chronicle, published at Alexander, N. D., has been purchased by J. H. McGarry and Owen A. Konchal. The later is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Konchal of this city and at one time one of the owners of the Morrison County Democrat.

Moorhead—The ice in the river began running Monday afternoon and is piling up against the First avenue south bridge. George F. Fuller notified City Clerk Price, and two men were sent at once to keep the ice running. It is not believed that it will be necessary this year to take up the foot bridge at Fourth avenue southwest.

Akeley—Mrs. T. B. Walker of Minneapolis has written a letter of congratulation to the citizens of Akeley for their refusal to vote license at the last village election. The village has always been dry, but last election an attempt was made by the breweries to license liquor selling. A majority of six to one against license was evidence that the people do not want saloons.

Fergus Falls—George Stockburger was found guilty Monday on a charge of illegal liquor selling and fined $50 and costs. Mr. Stockburger is in charge of a beer warehouse here and he made a novel defense. The police looked in through a window and caught some young men drinking. Mr. Stockburger sleeps in the warehouse, and his contention was that it was his home and that he therefore had a right to treat his friends there.

Marquette—G. W. Gehrand, superintendent of the public schools for the past two years, was Monday night engaged by the board for an additional year at a salary of $3,000.

Ishpenming—Contractor Hubbell, who had charge of the timber operations for Jenny & Thompson, in the district north of Ishpeming during the past winter, Monday shipped his camp equipment, horses, etc., to Grand View, Wis., where he has a farm. It is not expected that there will be any logging operations north of here next winter, as Jenny & Thompson cleaned up their cut.

Negaune—C. E. Mahoney, vice president of the Western Federation of Miners, will be in Negaunee the latter part of this week and on Sunday afternoon he will speak at a mass meeting, to be held in the Labor temple. Mr. Mahoney is well known to a number of the miners of this range.

Munising—Messrs. M. M. Bonds and E. W. Firber of Allanson, Mich., the gentlemen who are considering the proposition of locating a woodenware factory in Munising, were here Saturday to take up several matters appertaining to the deal. While nothing definite can be stated at this time as to the prospects of securing this new industry, the plans are working out favorably.

Marquette—At a stated conclave of Lake Superior Commandery No. 30, Knights Templar, held Monday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing years: Eminent Commander, J. H. O'Meara; generalissimo, J. S. Mennie; captain general, F. G. Jenks; senior warden, W. H. Schwitzer; junior warden, L. J. Jacobs; prelate, E. L. Pearce; treasurer, W. M. McCombs; recorder, W. A. Urich; standard bearer, Alex P. Meads; warden, G. A. Carlson; sentinel, P. J. Delf.

Calumet—Members of the Calumet Women's Suffrage club are circulating petitions to be presented to the state legislature, asking that body to provide for submitting the question to a vote in this state. The petitions have been freely signed.

Hancock—Felix Lepage, who recently was brought back from Minnesota on a charge of desertion, was bound over in $500 bond for trial at circuit court, failing to obtain which he was remanded to jail.

Houghton—George Starr Lasher of Plainwell, Mich., a recent graduate of the University of Michigan has taken up his position as instructor of English at the Houghton high school this morning. He succeeds Miss Charlotte Peynor, resigned, who will leave in a few weeks for the South with her mother

Hancock—The members of the class of St. Patrick's school, who will graduate June 14, are James D. Madigan, Francis T. Murphy, J. Russell Conway, Alice Vincent, Aileen Canfield, Lucy Sterk, Roselle Kerry, Mary Haschley, Anna Carroll, Mary Crowley, Rose Whelan, Margaret O'Neill, May Carroll and Frances Belling. Miss Alice Vincent will be valedictorian and James Madigan, salutatorian.

Houghton—During the month of February in Houghton county there was a total of 182 births and 105 deaths, the rates being 15.0 and 26.0 per 1,000 estimated population There were thirty-one deaths of infants under one year of age, seven of children between 1 nd 4 years of age and sixteen of people 65 or over.

Laurium—It has practically been decided that the proposed marathon running race between Jessie Steltz, the well known Hancock long distance runner, and Walter Miller of St Paul, welterweight wrestling champion of the world will be conducted at the Laurium driving park on Memorial day, May 30.

Ishpeming—R. S. Archibald, who is in the employ of the M. A. Hanna company, with headquarters at Duluth, is doing some geological work at the American mine, west of the city.

Marquette—Lorenzo D. Harvey of Cohocolay died at St Luke's hospital Monday. Mr. Harvey was one of the first builders of the upper peninsula In 1857 he came to the iron range and was engaged in building the first furnace at Negaunee Mr Harvey died at the age of 79 years. He leaves a stepson, Arthur D. Moore of New Jersey. Mrs. Harvey died many years ago.

DAKOTA BRIEFS

Pembina, N. D.—Judge Kneeshaw of Pembina and his son, James, have returned from a month's travels through the South. They spent most of their time in Texas, covering a good part of the unsettled territory and visited scenes of the Mexican uprising along the border.

Grand Forks, N. D.—R. C. McReynolds, former superintendent of grounds at the university, left Monday for his home in Lincoln, Neb. He has been here for some time closing up business matters.

Minot, N. D.—The Minot College of Commerce will open next fall, according to an announcement by A. E. Stossmeister, the president.

Grand Forks, N. D.—About 1,200 people gathered at the auditorium Sunday evening to hear Rev. P. A. Baker, D. D., of Westerville, Ohio, speak on the subject of law enforcement regarding the liquor traffickers. Rev. Mr. Baker is general superintendent of the anti-saloon league of America and is well versed in the subject upon which he spoke.

Mandan, N. D.—Miss Ella Hartley, a popular young lady of Bismarck, and Joseph Matthews of Mandan were married last week at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. Charles Harris of the Presbyterian church. The groom is in charge of the Bismarck Commission company at Mandan and they will reside here.

Bismarck, N. D.—The members of the North Dakota railroad commission have returned from Minot, where they held a four-day meeting, that being one of the stated meetings of the board. There was a good deal of business transacted at the meeting, so much so in fact that the meeting was one day longer than was originally planned.

Fargo, N. D.—Fargo lodge No. 260 has the largest membership of any Elk organization in the state. Its total is 489. During the year the initiates and those received by demit exceeded 100. It was the first year the 100-mark had ever been reached.

Bismarck, N. D.—Sunday evening at Christ's church at Mandan, Rev. N. E. Elsworth united in marriage John K. McLeod of Flasher and Miss Bethsheba M. Payne of Stanley, N. D. The service was performed in the presence of a number of intimate friends of the contracting parties. Mr. McLeod, or "Little Mac" as he is familiarly known in the newspaper world of the state, is the hustling and progressive editor of the Flasher Hustler.

Groton, N. D.—The mass meeting called to assemble at Groton last Saturday afternoon to voice the protest of the people of that section of Brown county against the pending reciprocity treaty was largely attended, and the sentiment of the meeting was unanimously in opposition to the treaty.

New Rink Is Practically Assured for Duluth Curling Club.

Stephen H. Jones Elected President for Fourth Time at Annual Meeting.

At the annual meeting of the Duluth Curling club held last night at the Commercial club, a new rink for the 1911-12 season was practically assured, and Stephen H. Jones was elected to fill his fourth term as president of the organization.

There was but one other change in the offices. Guy Warren was elected secretary, W. H. Kilchli has been secretary for the year past. Frank Crasweller was elected vice president and F. W. Hargreaves, treasurer. D. B. MacDonald was elected a director for three years.

The committee appointed several weeks ago to talk the matter of a new rink over with the members of the club and to secure subscriptions, reported that its efforts had been successful and that it had already been able to raise more money than is needed to make the first payment on the land at Fourteenth avenue east. The option runs out May 1 and it is practically certain that the deal will be closed before that time. More than $10,000 was secured but the exact amount was not made known.

The treasurer reported that the club was in good shape financially. There is more than $1,000 in the treasury and there are but few bills against the club.

"JAWN" RELEASED FROM QUARANTINE

The quarantine on the residence of Jawn Desmond will be removed today and the genial magnate may be out greeting friends tomorrow. The release of Jawn will mean that work on the new park will begin, possibly the present week.

Over the telephone today Jawn stated that the work would start in a few days and that he hoped to get the project under way the present week. When work does start on the new park it will be pushed through to rapid completion, according to the plans of both Desmond and the contractors.

Desmond is in receipt of a letter from Darby in which the "harp" says the new recruits are showing up even better than he expected. Brittan and Reinhart are showing great form, while Fisher continues to show good form behind the bat. The only thing the orator is worrying about is his pitching staff.

A game will be played tomorrow with one of the strong amateur teams of Cleveland.

CUBS GET PLAYERS.

Four Louisville Outfielders Go By Trade Route to Chicago.

Louisville, Ky., April 12.—Four outfielders were chopped off the Louisville board bill on Monday when Manager Howard announced he had traded Kaiser, Keener, Smith and Wolfe to the Chicago Cubs.

Grayson is to receive in return an infielder and a specified amount of money. Just who the infielder is will not be announced at present, but it is believed it is a catcher. Kaiser has shown great speed and hitting ability while here and will be used by the Cubs as utility infielder. The other three will probably be farmed out. Outfielder Jim Kelley, who slammed out a home run in Sunday's game with Toronto was given his unconditional release. This trade with Chicago means that Red Fisher will hold down the job in the left clover patch, at least until Grimshaw arrives and Howard can go to the field. Howard announced on Monday that either Richter or Newton will pitch the opening game and the team will line up as follows:

Howard, first base; Ritchey, second base; Beumiller, shortstop; Lennox, third base; Fisher, left field; Stanley, center field, and Hayden, right field.

Danny Shay and his blues arrived Monday night and will spend the last day in secret practice at the ball park. Shay has not yet announced his lineup for opening day.

SPORTING NOTES

The present form of baseball contract contains no "reserve clause." There is no "option clause," either, but there's a provision that the player "must abide by the rules of the national commission." This means that the "reserve list" when compiled by the commission, after consultation with the major league clubs, will prevent players from leaving their present employers under the rules of organized baseball. In the opinion of lawyers this form of contract would not stand a test in the courts in the event of a baseball war, for there is no legal restraint placed upon the players' services. Just why the "reserve clause" has been eliminated is not made clear.

"That the average manager is not taking any long chances of changing his team by the trade route is demonstrated by the fact that since the 1910 season closed but two deals have been made in the American league," writes J. E. Grillo.

"In December Cleveland traded Nig Clarke for Arthur Griggs, and in February St. Louis gave up Hartzell and a bonus for Laporte and Austin. It is doubtful if there has ever before been so little swapping of playing material. A manager feels that it will be safer to hold on to what he has than to take a chance of making a trade.

"The better the player the harder it is to convince rival managers that there is nothing wrong with him. Let a club offer to rid itself of one of its stars and there will be a suspicion at once that there is something wrong with the player."

"A fiasco of the first magnitude" is the way the London Field describes the Grand National steeplechase, the blue ribbon cross-country race of the world, decided a few days ago in England. The cable reports were so meager at the time that it is surprising to read in the London exchanges, now at hand, that twenty-six horses started and that Glenside, the winner, was the only one which did not fall. Three of those which came to grief were remounted and straggled in after Glenside. Altogether, it was a farce comedy of the roaring kind. Glenside won only because he stood up. He was so distressed in the last mile, according to reports, that he floundered over the last fence in dangerous fashion, and, once on the flat, dropped almost to a walk, with his tongue hanging out as a sign of distress.

NEW WHITE HOPE FROM BOSTON

John Zvrino Knocks Out Two Opponents in One Evening.

Boston, Mass., April 12.—Another possible "white man's hope" was uncovered in the opinion of many persons at the National Amateur boxing championship tournament at Mechanics' hall last night, when John Zvrino, a 200-pound member of the Armory A. A., of Boston, won the heavyweight championship by disposing of Joseph Burke Cox, also of Boston, in 50 seconds with a sledge-hammer right swing. It had required only two rounds for him to put away T. J. Dorsey of the Irish-American A. C., New York, in the semi-finals. Both were knockouts.

Of the other half-dozen championships awarded, that for the 105-pound class probably produced the next best fighter of the evening in Johnny Fallon, a Boston messenger boy. James Jarvis of New York won from Frank McGarry, New York, in the 135-pound class after three rounds.

A single round sufficed for Napoleon Boutiller of Boston to lay low John H. Cralle of Philadelphia in the final of the 158-pound class.

The championship of the 125-pound class went to Frank Huffnagle of Brooklyn by default. A. Kaufman, also of New York, breaking his hand.

NO "WEAK SISTERS" IN THE ASSOCIATION.

Toledo, Ohio, April 12.—"Although I may be lacking in originality," said Thomas Chivington, president of the American Association today, "nevertheless I venture to predict that the American Association season of 1911, which opens Wednesday, will be the best ever enjoyed by this league, both from a playing and financial standpoint.

"The article of ball played by the various teams of the organization last season was of a high quality, yet the race was far from being a close one; this year the standard of excellence set last season should be maintained, while the struggle for the pennant promises to be far lighter.

"In 1910 the Minneapolis club proved to be stronger than the other clubs of the circuit, but 1911 finds no such inequality, as all the weak clubs have strengthened materially during the off-season and will enter the race much improved in all the departments of the game. As far as I can see now, there are no "weak sisters" in the American association."

New York, April 12.—With a half-nelson and crotch hold, the Polish wrestler, Zbyszko, threw Joe Rogers, the New York giant, twice last night. The conditions of the match were two falls out of three. The New Yorker was on the defensive entirely and before the first fall held out against the Pole for 1 hour, 4 minutes and 27 seconds. He went down the second time in 14 minutes and 57 seconds.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 12.—Pitcher Tom Dougherty of the Cincinnati National league baseball team was today purchased by President C. S. Havenor of the Milwaukee Association club.

COMMENTS AND OPINIONS ON THE SPORTING PARADE

Welcome to King Baseball—Tommy Crawford's Aspirations—Somebody Cut the Wires—Murphy, the Optimist—A Plunge Into History.

(BY BRUCE.)

THIS afternoon the National and American leagues will open the big league baseball season. Hurrah for the big leagues!

There is really nothing like baseball, and that isn't said simply because the baseball season is at hand. So much has been said about the game that it is very difficult indeed to say anything new regarding it.

She is the greatest old game ever invented. Baseball carries the interest of this whole big United States. It might almost be said, as of a famous medicine that the children cry for it. The women are interested in it, all of them; some directly and some indirectly.

Some of them are interested in it because they imagine they really understand it; others because it keeps their lesser halves away from home when the evening meal is getting cold and then colder. As an interest holder the great old game holds proud sway over all other sports of the realm.

Therefore the opening of the season of the two greatest baseball organizations in the world means renewed interest not only in the cities that makeup these two circuits, but also throughout the length and breadth of the land.

We are all glad of the coming of baseball. It will bring a new interest in the day for all of us. There is hardly a man who is not some way interested in the game. He either has a friend playing in some team, or he has a friend who has a friend who is hitting 'em on the nose for some team.

It means also that dear summer has come with finery and fluffery. Even if there is snow on the ground, we will refuse to take winter seriously with King Baseball doing business at the old stand. There are many reasons why we hold out the welcoming hand to the grand old game, doing a salaam that would make the Cuban dip look like the frosty nod from someone who had but recently acquired money.

They are off to the fight, and it looks like a good one. So far we have only sized up the teams on paper. Chicago, New York and Pittsburg look strong in the National. In the American we can't help but bank on the Mack men as repeaters, with Detroit and the New York Highlanders as strong contenders.

At the very start the race looks like a very interesting one in both leagues. There is new blood in almost every team in both the National and American leagues, for the manager who stagnates, who refuses to live up to the tendency of the baseball times, discerning, discriminating times, soon loses his job and climbs down to the bushes.

Uncertainty makes baseball uninteresting. There are probably six teams in the American league that are given a pennant chance by the fans at this early date. There are also at least five teams in the older organization which are considered pennant contenders in the older organization.

With that opinion in the minds of the fans, there is bound to be interest in the game. It is a clean and skillful sport, that each year has shown an improvement in its players, from the moral and mental standpoint as well as the physical and it is a sport where decency and fair play abound.

The advent of baseball for the season of 1911 is one that is hailed with joy by the fans, millions of them throughout this big land of ours, and we all throw our caps into the air, figuratively speaking, and give several tigers and at least a couple of hurrahs for the dear old game of baseball.

Wants to Be a "Hope."

FROM the tenor of a letter received by Promoter Steele from a Tommy Crawford, light heavyweight of some renown, he has ambitions to join the class of the clinging and climbing "hopes." He is very different from most of the "hopes" we have been reading about, in that he weighs only about 170 pounds. Small men have hoped before, for there was Napoleon and Dr. Munyon.

Some plans divulged yesterday indicate that a meeting between Crawford and Cleve Hawkins may be put on at Superior. This fight would be one of the best encounters ever staged at the Head of the Lakes and would draw a very liberal patronage from this side of the bay.

They say that Crawford made a very great showing against Al Kaufmann in their exhibition bout in Milwaukee. At that, Kaufmann has never shone as a short route boxer. But Crawford has class, as indicated by his record in the dope book, and his coming to the Head of the Lakes for a fight would be welcomed by those who like to witness a good and clean mill.

Someone Sure Did Cut the Wires.

A STORY from Cincinnati tells how hand-book men and those guys whose interest in the galloping nags consists in a piking wager or two, were grief stricken when they learned that someone, or many ones through some order, had cut the wire loop connecting Norfolk, Va., with the main wire lines, thereby shutting off communication with the cities where pool rooms are run.

Take those piking bets away from the small fry and one of their chief interests in life would be taken away. The bet is to them like candy to the crying kid, wine to the soused soul of the drunkard, or chop suey to those midnight revelers who are hungry and yet can't get any kind of a devouring hold on roast beef or "b&o."

It may be hard to imagine the peeve of the Cincy small sports; but it was there just the same.

It Has Cost Brush Some Coin.

JOHN G. BRUSH paid $11,000 for Rube Marquard. In his first two years with the Giants this man pitched in but nine victories. Figuring on his worth in this regard, it may be said that each victory of the former Indianapolis twirler cost the management of the Giants $1,222.22.

Ahem; they must have needed games pretty badly, eh?

Harken to Chubby Charles.

MISTER MURPHY believes in optimism as the stage door Johnny believes in the adage which saith that all things come to him who waits. He should, too, for Motis Murphy has made several fortunes out of optimism.

The chubby one believes that the Cubs will not only win the pennant in the N. L., but also the world's championship. At least Murphy says he believes it, and there is no way of proving that he does not.

According to Murphy's merry sayings, Shecklard and Kling have returned to that form which made them famous. They didn't become famous for the reason that Milwaukee did, either, Toney and Griffin are great pitchers if Mr. Murphy is to be believed, and Sayer, Boyle and Ball are great ball players.

Wait and see, says the man on the fence.

Stepping Back Into Dear History.

GOING back into the fighting days, before the advent of Herr Placke, one of the first faint "hopes," it might be very well to call attention to the fact that David with the swell whip was one of the very first of the "hopes."

As a matter of fact David was one of the greatest hopes that ever broke into publicity. According to the information we have been able to gather, he was not a large man.

The duke of Wellington might also be called one of the best hopes of his day. He entered the ring at Waterloo on the short end of the odds and it is said that one of the first of the house of Rothschild got his start playing Wellington straight across the boards against Kid Napoleon, then the champion. Wellington had a wicked jab and countered lots of stuff Kid Napoleon sent in.

It might also be stated here that Kid Napoleon was one of the first of the fighters to try the come back route.

Coming down further, can't you recollect how Bill Tecumseh and U. S. Grant were two of the leading hopes of their times. Casey at the bat was one of the early hopes of the Boston. Come to think of it, the "white hope" stuff they are springing at the present time it is merely a revival of some of the big stuff that our fathers sprung, many years ago, lad.

GUNTHER HAS BETTER OF LEWIS

Former Duluth Fighter Has Shade on Philadelphian in Paris.

Reports of the fight between Harry Lewis, claimant of the middleweight championship, and George Gunther, the Australian negro who made his home at the Head of the Lakes for about six months, which was fought in Paris, state that the black boy had all the better of the milling.

It is stated that Gunther put up a slashing fight during the entire twenty rounds of milling and won the verdict of the crowd by a large margin, though the fight was called a draw.

Gunther has been considered a fast, hard-hitting and clever middleweight for a long time. His margin on the clever Philadelphian will be a big feather in his cap. It stamps him as one of the best men fighting in that division.

For some time past, Gunther has been unable to get fights in this country. Very few of the white fighters care for the Australian's game. It is said that he offered to fight Philadelphia Jawn O'Brien on a winner take all basis, but the Philadelphian declined. He has also repeatedly offered to fight any of the heavyweights around Philadelphia.

Head of the Lake fans saw Gunther in his two fights with the late Walter Whitehead. It was the consensus of opinion that Gunther could have beaten Whitehead most any time he so desired. The Australian negro is one of the best men in the world for his weight.

Wins Dog Race.

Nome, Alaska., April 12.—A. A. (Scotty) Allan, driving the dog team entered by Mrs. C. E. Darling of Berkeley, Cal., won the all-Alaska sweepstakes, coming into Nome late yesterday after coving the 412 miles to Candle and return in 81 hours and 40 minutes.

President Gets His Pass.

Washington, April 12.—President Taft yesterday received his annual pass entitling him to admission to games anywhere on the American league circuit during the 1911 season and, with Major A. W. Butt, his aide, and Secretary Hillis, he will occupy a box down in the front row at American league park here to see the Senators and Boston open the season. The president will toss a ball from his box to start the game. Walter Johnson will not pitch in the opening game. On Saturday the president plans to play his first game of golf this year on the Chevy Chase links.

SCHRECK SAYS MORRIS IS WONDER

CARL MORRIS.

If there is anybody who ought to know at this time what sort of a fighter Carl Moris is, it is Mike Schreck. Morris beat him up in a beautiful way in the ring at Tulsa recently. When Schreck was able to sit up and articulate he expressed the opinion that Morris was the best man in the ring today. He believes Morris needs more experience but thinks that when he has had this he can take on Jack Johnson whenever he likes. Morris is not an expert boxer yet, but he is strong, quick and full of nerve and he can hit with one hand as hard as with the other.

SHADES GARDNER IN PITTSBURG

Pittsburg, Pa., April 12.—Frank Klaus, the Pittsburg middleweight, had a shade on Jimmy Gardner of Lowell, Mass., in a six-round bout here last night. Gardner did some masterful boxing and although his blows lacked force, they had sufficient steam to make Klaus careful. Klaus sent vicious blows at Gardner's head and the nimble Massachsuetts lad either ducked or sidestepped and sent back stinging uppercuts.

In the first round Gardner blocked many hard blows and made Klaus look like a novice. The second round was Gardner's by a shade. Klaus sent Gardner to his knees with a left swing to the head in the third round. Gardner was soon on his feet and sent a volley of blows into Klaus' mid-section and rushed the Pittsburger across the ring. Klaus took a big lead in the fourth round, landing on Gardner's face and head three times.

In the fifth Klaus ripped a vicious blow to the body, but Gardner recovered instantly and sent jabs and uppercuts to the face and checked the vicious attack.

In the sixth Klaus landed on Gardner's face and then shot a stiff left hook to the body. Gardner sent a volley of jabs and uppercuts to Klaus' face, confusing the Pittsburger so that he missed many blows.

Neither of the men was marked or distressed at the end.

BUTCHER BOY COMING OVER

Foreign-Bred Pacer Will Be Seen on American Tracks.

New York, April 12.—A foreign-bred pacer of unique history and distinction will be in the field of the fifteenth renewals of the chamber of commerce stake at the Blue Ribbon meeting in Detroit next August. Unpromising as a colt, at 3 years, his tail was docked and he was consigned to the menial task of dragging a cart. It was the making of him. He is the fastest side-wheeler in Great Britain now. Butcher Boy is his name.

A. C. Pennock, who last year had so much success on American tracks with the Austro-Hungarian trotter Willy, 2:07¼, is the man who will introduce Butcher Boy. He bought the Welsh horse recently and now has him at the Glenville track.

Butcher Boy was foaled in Cardiff, Wales, his sire being a thoroughbred, Limestone, and his dam a practically unknown mare, but said to be one of the Hal family exported from America in the early '90s. He is over inclined to make a race horse of him at the start, but with stubborn perversity, Butcher Boy refused to show the class that was in him until his cart hauling days.

Showed Speed.

He at times showed a lot of speed then, and Adam Detz, who lives in a suburb of Liverpool, took a fancy to him, in spite of the fact that he was erratic and had tempered, and bought him. He paid about $50. With the best of care and kind treatment, Butcher Boy changed his manners entirely and not only became a sensible sort of a horse, but the fastest in Great Britain and a good money-winner.

From the start of his racing career, Butcher Boy was rigged with a set of hobbles, which is the custom with all pacers in England, the races being started from a stand, with a crack of a pistol as the signal. The lee harness enables the horses to tear away on a pace when they hear the report. English tracks are of cinders and not fast in consequence, the fact that the fastest work done by Gallagher, 2:03¼, was just inside of 210, showing the difference.

Butcher Boy has been raced two years, beginning with the New Year's meeting in Scotland in 1909, in which he was a winner. He kept it up and became unbeatable, most of his victories being in handicaps. His mile record of 2:16 was made in one of these events, and he paced 1¼ miles, owing 260 yards in addition, in 3:10 4-5, which is at the rate of 2:16½, and would bother a lot of American pacers under the conditions.

Creates Interest.

More than ordinary interest attaches to his appearance on American tracks because of his history. Pennock is wondering about the starting, as Butcher Boy knows nothing outside of the pistol. The clever trainer thinks if they will allow him to have a boy with a gun at the start and fire it, Butcher Boy will not only get away flying, but the American pacers will stampede. Butcher Boy will be trained at the Cleveland track.

Pennock says he will again race Willy down the big line, and it is thought by many that now that this stallion has learned how to race in this country, he will be harder to beat than he was last year, when he stepped to the three-quarter pole without much trouble in 1:32. It is possible that Willy will have another companion from the old country, as his owner, Mr. Winans, is negotiating for the purchase of the French trotter Jockey, that has been beating all the cracks on the ovals of Austria, Germany, France and Italy for the last two years. Jockey possesses only a remote strain of American blood, the rest being French and Russian, while Willy is thoroughly American.

CENTRAL STARS DEFEAT C. A. C.

Last evening the Catholic Athletic club basket ball team was defeated by the 1910 members of the Central high school quint by the overwhelming score of 45 to 0. The Catholic boys were never in the game for one minute, being completely outclassed at the hands of the more experienced players.

Larry Boyle, captain of last year's Central team, played forward for the 1910 champions and threw nine baskets. His playing was quite the steller feature of the evening, Waldron threw seven baskets from the field.

The C. A. C. indoor baseball team was defeated by the Young Men's Sodality of West Duluth by the score of 13 to 7.

The lineups:

Y. M. S.	Position.	C. A. C.
Gallagher, Miller	c	Hoch

WILL CONSTRUCT NEW TENNIS COURTS.

C. G. Dickerman, Carrol Graf and C. E. De Witt have been appointed a special committee to look after the construction of the two tennis courts at Oatka beach. Work will begin Monday.

Daniels Breaks a Record.

New York, April 12.—C. M. Daniels, the world's champion amateur swimmer, succeeded in his effort to establish a new record for the 200-meter swim, clipping 2-5 of a second from the former world's figure, at the New York A. C. natatorium here last night. T. B. Goodwin, also of the New York A. C., furnished the pace for half the distance, then allowed Daniels to finish alone. Daniels' time was two minutes, 28 seconds.

Hartsell Takes Bride.

Philadelphia, April 12.—Roy A. Hartsell, shortstop of the New York American league baseball team, which opens the season here today, was married yesterday to Miss Ella M. Stebbins of Golden, Colo., which is also the home of the groom. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William B. Chalfant, pastor of the Thirteenth Street Methodist Episcopal church. There were no attendants.

Overdriven Horse Dies.

Marinette, Wis., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—As the result of being overdriven a horse belonging to Thomas Brown, a liveryman of Marinette, dropped dead when about twelve miles from the city, and a second horse, which was one of the team, is in a critical condition. The team was in charge of a driver from Mr. Brown's livery named Joseph Bruluach. It is alleged that the driver left the horses at the time of the trouble and has not been seen since.

S.S.S. CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES

Health in its magnificence appeals to everyone, and especially is this true of a clear skin, free from eruptions and disease. We instinctively realize that back of this desirable condition pure, rich blood is flowing through the system, furnishing nutriment to all the tissues.

This perfect condition of the skin exists as long as the blood is normal, but when it becomes contaminated with humors and acids its supply of nutritive properties is greatly lessened, and it becomes a sharp, acrid fluid which diseases instead of preserving the natural health and texture of the skin. Then come Skin Diseases; the character of the eruption depending upon the nature of the humor with which the blood is infected. If there is an excess of acid in the circulation the trouble is characterized by itching and burning eruptions. Other impurities produce watery blisters, rashes, etc., commonly known as Eczema, Tetter or Salt Rheum, while still other morbid matters in the circulation cause Acne, pimples and like troubles.

Dear Sirs:—My body broke out with a rash or eruption which, in spite of all efforts to cure, continued to get worse. The itching, especially at night, was simply terrible; it would almost disappear at times, only to return worse than ever. I had tried many highly recommended preparations without benefit, and hearing of S. S. S. determined to give it a fair trial and was inexpressibly delighted when a few bottles cured me entirely, removing every blemish and pimple from my body. I shall not fail to recommend S. S. S. whenever an opportunity occurs to do so.
Escondido, Cal. L. MARNO.

It is right and proper to get what relief one may from the application of washes, salves, etc., but such treatment should not be depended upon alone to produce a cure—only a thorough purification of the blood can accomplish this.

S. S. S. cures Skin Diseases of every character and kind, because it purifies the blood. It goes down into the circulation and removes the humors and acids, builds up the weak, acrid blood, and completely cures Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Acne, pimples, rashes, eruptions, and all skin affections. When S. S. S. has cleansed the blood of the impurities the skin is nourished with rich, cooling blood, the tissues and fibres are strengthened, the pores and glands are stimulated to their full duty, and every symptom passes away. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice free. S. S. S. is for sale at drug stores.

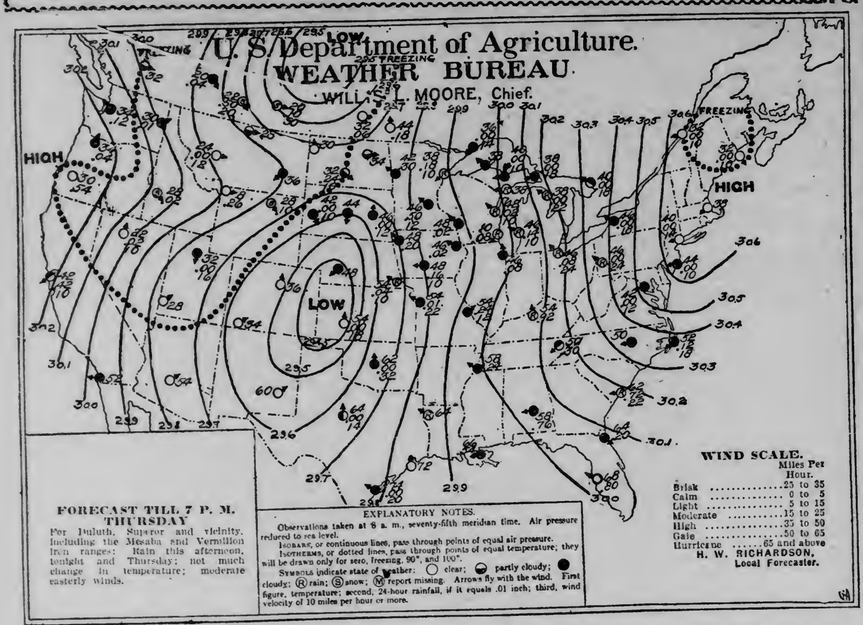
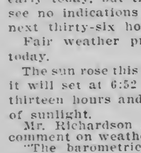
OFFICIAL MAP OF THE WEATHER



RAIN



Last night was damp, and, if the weather man makes good on his predictions, tonight will be wet. A rain early last evening was followed by a mistiness that carried over until this morning. The sun made a few weak attempts to break through the clouds early today, but the weather man can see no indications of sunshine for the next thirty-six hours.

Fair weather prevailed a year ago today.

The sun rose this morning at 5:26 and it will set at 6:52 this evening, giving thirteen hours and twenty-six minutes of sunlight.

Mr. Richardson makes the following comment on weather conditions:

"The barometric depressions central this morning over Saskatchewan and Kansas caused rain over Pacific states, North Dakota, the Mississippi and Ohio valleys, the Lake region and South Atlantic and East Gulf states, and rain or snow over Western Canada, Wyoming and the Plateau region during the last twenty-four hours. Warmer weather prevails over Southern states. Somewhat lower temperatures attend an increase in pressure throughout the extreme Northwest. At the Head of the Lakes rainy weather will be the rule during the ensuing thirty-six hours."

General Forecasts.

Chicago, April 12.—Forecasts for twenty-four hours ending at 7 p. m. Thursday:

Upper Michigan—Rain tonight and Thursday.

Wisconsin—Rain tonight and Thursday.

Minnesota—Rain tonight and Thursday; colder in west and south portions Thursday and in northwest portion tonight.

Iowa—Showers tonight and Thursday; warmer in east portion tonight; cooler in west and central portions Thursday.

North Dakota—Generally fair tonight and Thursday, except unsettled in southeast portion; colder tonight.

South Dakota—Unsettled with rain or snow tonight or Thursday; colder tonight and in east portion Thursday.

Montana—Generally fair tonight and Thursday; colder in east portion tonight.

Shippers' forecast: Protect 36-hour shipments of perishables against temperature 20 deg. to 30 deg. in the Dakotas and Western Minnesota.

Upper lakes: Moderate to brisk southeast winds; rain tonight and Thursday.

EASTER APPAREL
For the Boys of Duluth

Boys, here's a new Easter Suit for you!

Go to the Columbia for it and you'll save time and money. No trouble to be properly fitted and to find a suitable pattern at any price you are allowed to spend.

Popular Russian Suits in greys, tans and other shades, for ages 2½ to 7, and at prices from $1.95 to $10.00.

Handsome Norfolk and Sailor Suits are the leading styles for ages 5 to 10. Here in a large variety of patterns in the new grey and tan shades. Also a big line of blue serges. Prices $2.00 to $12.00.

Manly double-breasted and Norfolk Suits are the styles in vogue for boys 7 to 18 years of age. Fancy mixtures and plain shades. Greys and tans have the call this season, with the old reliable blue still a favorite of many boys, $2.00 to $12.50.

Leaders we are—more than ever—in fitting out the young men of this city. An entirely separate department is devoted to serving them with clothes from the best specialists in young men's clothes.

Checks and stripes are in the front rank this spring, but greys and blues still retain their old popularity with many neat dressers. $10 to $30.00.

No other store in Duluth shows such complete and up-to-date selections of Boys' and Young Men's Furnishings as are to be found at this store.

Hats, caps, shirts, waists, cravats and everything else to complete the Easter outfit. And everything at lower prices, quality considered.

ernment already had made great concessions and it was hinted that even greater changes pertaining to the presidency and vice presidency were discussed.

Hurrying to Chihuahua, Senor Moye was joined by Dr. J. R. Meyffert and yesterday they drove in an automobile to the camp. Meantime the telegraph wires in Chihuahua were connected with those in the field controlled by Medero and messages were sent advising the insurrecto leader of the coming of the messengers. So eager was Senor Madero to hear proposals that he halted in his march to Casas Grandes region, and with a force of men returned to a point near Bustillos. The meeting took place as Madero sat surrounded by his staff.

Asked on what terms he would conclude peace, Senor Madero said he only could repeat demands already made.

Senor Madero was told the war was causing great hardships, that it was injuring industry and imposing intense suffering, not only on those fighting but on non-combatants. He replied he fully was aware of this condition and was as anxious for peace as anybody, but he could see no way for peace unless his cause triumphed, and in the end he felt the insurrection would prove a great blessing. He then inquired as to the news from Mexico City.

A conference was then held with the statement that possibly information might be given out later.

The fact that envoys were in conference with Madero was not taken to indicate that peace was in immediate prospect, as the talk was of an extremely tentative character, undertaken as a means of feeling the way to more direct negotiations.

Famine Predicted.

El Paso, Tex., April 12.—According to Bishop Orson Brown of Colonia Morelos, one of the Mormon colonies south of here, the colonists are greatly disturbed by prospects of raids upon their plantations. The Mormons have their crops planted, but the natives, Bishop Brown declares, have done no planting and face a famine in the near future.

According to advices from Torrion, James Boland, representing American operators in the Los Reis district of Durango, has made formal complaint to United States Consular Agent Carothers at Torreon, regarding the interruption of business caused by the insurrection. Gen. Lojara, commanding the federal forces in that district, has been asked for protection for American interests.

Artillery is the most pressing need of the insurrectos and every effort is being made to smuggle cannon across the border. Information has reached United States officials here that several machine guns have been "cached" near the border in New Mexico, west of here, pending a favorable opportunity to take them over the international line.

The El Paso Pioneer society has asked Mayor Keiley for a special guard for a brass cannon standing in the city hall park. The companion to this cannon has recently been stolen from the park, and is now said to be in use in the insurrectos' siege of Ojinaga, east of here.

DANGERS IN SOCIAL DRINKS

Those Who "Know When They Have Enough" May Ultimately Reach Sanitariums—Even Jails.

"Gipsey" Smith, the English Evangelist, well-known to St. Paulites, in a recent statement said:

"Just a word or two to you social drinkers. I am not talking to drunkards now. This is not a sermon to the down and out. It is merely a confidential talk to the moderate drinker — that self-confident class that knows when it has had enough, and is never, never, never seen under the influence of drink. What I want to point out to you nibblers at the devil's bait is that too many of you ultimately reach sanitariums, insane asylums, aye, even jails."

The moderate drinker, the social drinker, periodical or habitual drinker, or the down-and-out-drunkard—all have found that the Neal Three-Day Drink Habit Cure is the easiest, quickest and most positive method of becoming freed of the enticing and dangerous vice of alcoholism. No hypodermic injections, powerful drugs or narcotics are used; the complete and perfect cure is effected in three days and at the end of that time the periodical, habitual or social drinker will find that all craving, appetite or desire for liquor has gone and that even the sight or thought of whiskey is repulsive to him.

If you are afflicted with the drink habit and really want to be freed, or if you are interested in a friend or relative who needs treatment, write to the Neal Institute Co., corner Belknap and Seventh streets, Superior, Wis., for their free booklet giving full information and a copy of their contract. It will be mailed to you under a plain sealed envelope and everything will be strictly confidential. You can be treated at the Superior Institute, or at St. Paul, Minn., Institute, 676 Dayton avenue, or the Minneapolis, Minn., Institute, corner Fourth avenue south and Seventh street, whichever happens to be the most convenient to you.

ally cleared away as a result of a meeting of the special joint investigating committee this morning, and the bill will probably pass. The committee, of which Senator Cheadle and Representative Knapp are members, practically agreed on the bill with two amendments. One prohibits the city from sub-leasing the property except with the consent of the railroad and warehouse commission. The other provides that at any time within twelve years, if the co-operative elevators of the state form an organization and want to build a terminal elevator at Duluth, the railroad commission shall have power to give them a site on the Duluth public dock.

These amendments removed all objections. Senator McGrath of Winona, who objected to the bill, when it was reached in the senate, in behalf of the farmers, was satisfied with the terminal elevator amendment, and will support it.

Reapportionment is dead again, and this time it seems to be final. The enemies of equal representation, with their many schemes for compromise which all amount to schemes for delay and defeat, apparently have prevailed, and there is at this time no prospect that any reapportionment bill will pass. For a short time, after the Hanson bill came in, the outlook was good; but when the author of the bill himself deserted it for an absurd compromise that could not be considered by Northern Minnesota members without losing self-respect, and delays were forced, it was made clear that there was no hope of any relief from this session.

Senator Hackney did not make his motion to make the Hanson bill a special order, stating that he delayed it a day to provide a chance to get another. As the matter stands now, it is very doubtful if votes enough can be secured to make the bill a special order, and that means that nothing will be done.

Senator Sageng this morning moved to recall the Pfaender initiative and referendum bill, which the house passed some time ago, from the judiciary committee and Chairman Putnam of the committee promised to have it reported out tomorrow.

Senator Saugstad introduced in the senate a joint resolution directing the attorney general to take steps to dissolve all brewery corporations that are engaged in the retail saloon business, on the ground that this is beyond their corporate power.

Senator G. H. Sullivan put it over to tomorrow by giving notice of debate.

The special order in the house this afternoon on the state-wide primary and recall bills was put over to tomorrow afternoon on motion of the house elections committee, so that amendments offered by the committee to the primary election bill can be printed. The amendments form an entirely new bill, providing a state-wide primary, but also providing party conventions at which candidates for the primary elections shall be named, and shall go on the ballot with the words, "recommended by the convention," following their names. There are to be county conventions which will pick county candidates and also select delegates to all other conventions.

The distance tariff bill is a special order in the house this afternoon and it is likely to be passed. Two amendments will be incorporated, one compelling the railroad commission to establish reasonable maximum rates and the other classifying railroads according to earnings, so that small roads may have higher rates.

The forestry bill has passed both houses, leaving the chief forester's salary at $4,000, and is up to the governor for signature.

Representative Lundeen of Minneapolis will introduce a resolution directing the discontinuance of corporal punishment at the Red Wing training school. The senate will take up the Red Wing matter tonight.

The house passed a bill by Representatives Spooner and Nolan providing for a commission to recommend to the next legislature a plan for the simplification and consolidation of various state bureaus.

STILLMAN H. BINGHAM.

BASEBALL SEASON FOR 1911 IS OPENED BY MAJOR LEAGUES

day, but an attempt will be made to play unless the downpour becomes heavier.

Both Frank L. Chance, manager of the Chicago team, and Roger Bresnahan of the St. Louis players say their men are in perfect condition and hope to begin the fight for the season's pennant with a series of early victories.

Rain at Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, Ohio, April 12.—Early in the day the outlook was not encouraging for Pittsburg and Cincinnati to open the National league baseball season here this afternoon. It had been raining all night and the indications were that the weather would not clear before time for play should be called.

Both teams were reported to be in good condition. Cincinnati, however, will start the season without its regular second baseman, Dick Egan being on the injured list. Tom Downey, utility infielder, will play second base. The Pittsburg team will have its regular players in the field. The batteries announced for the first game are Camnitz and Gibson for Pittsburg and McQuillan and McLean for Cincinnati.

The batting order of the two teams follows:

Pittsburg—Byrne, 3b; Leach, cf; Clarke, lf; Wagner, ss; Miller, 2b; Hunter, 1b; Wilson, rf; Gibson, c; Camnitz, p.

Umpires—O'Day and Brennan.

Rain at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., April 12.—On a ground thoroughly soaked by rain and under skies which promise another downpour the American league baseball season will open here this afternoon with a game between the locals and Cleveland team.

The St. Louis team will appear for the first time under the management of Rhoderick Wallace. In the tentative lineup Wallace is shortstop, the place he has held for a number of years. He picked to pitch the opening game the veteran John Powell. Manager James McGuire said he probably would use Blanding.

The game will be called at 3 o'clock. The probable batting order follows:

St. Louis—Hoffman, cf; Murray, rf; Williams, lf; Laporte, 2b; Clarke, c; Newnam, 1b; Wallace, ss; Austin, 3b; Powell, p.

Cleveland—Graney, lf; Turner, 3b; Jackson, cf; La Jole, 2b; Easterly, rf; Stovall, 1b; Land, c; Olson, ss; Blanding, p.

Chilly at Washington.

Washington, April 12.—A chill east wind, overcast skies and a prediction of rain for the afternoon, threw Washington baseball enthusiasts from President Taft down, into something of a panic of uncertainty early today. As the morning wore on, however, the sun managed to break through the clouds for a time and there were high hopes that the weather bureau might be in error and that the opening of the American league baseball season in this city would take place as scheduled.

Washington will have the Boston team as opponents and the game will begin promptly at 3:30 p. m., President Taft being on the program to toss the ball to the diamond from his private box in the new concrete grandstand.

Manager McAleer will send either Gray or Walker against either Wood or Cicotte of the Boston aggregation.

The line-ups follow:

Boston—Gardner, 2b; Hooper, rf; Speaker, cf; Lewis, lf; Wagner, ss; Engle, 3b; Williams, 1b; Carrigan, c; Kleinow, c; Cicotte, p; Wood, p.

Umpires—Connolly and Mullen.

New Team at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 12.—Indianapolis will send practically a new team against Milwaukee when the two baseball teams meet here this afternoon in the opening game of the American association season. Williams at second probably will be the only last season player in the Indianapolis lineup when the game is called, but Craig, also of last season's squad, may pitch part of the contest. The opposite is true of the Milwaukee team, which arrived last night. Tom Jones, formerly of the Detroit Americans, at first, and Leibold, in the outfield, will be the only new faces in the visitors' lineup.

Aside from the band concert at the park, there will be no opening program. Thomas Brolley, who introduced in the Indiana legislature the bill permitting Sunday baseball in this state, will toss the ball on the field. The batteries probably will be: Milwaukee—Gilligan, Graham and Breen; Indianapolis—Schiltz, Craig and Carisch.

Rain at Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., April 12.—Unfavorable conditions prevail for the opening of the American association baseball season here today. Rain, which started a downpour yesterday, continued throughout the night and early today, threatened postponement of the contest.

The Kansas City team arrived yesterday for the opening series. Manager Shay named four pitchers, Owen, Powell, Maddox and Seibert, as possible starters in today's game, while either Richter or Newton will pitch for Louisville.

Mullin to Pitch at Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., April 12.—This afternoon, weather permitting, George Mullin, the oldest member of the Detroit club's present pitchers, and Ed Walsh, the "spitball" twirler of the Chicago team, will in all probability oppose each other in the opening game of the American league season at Bennett park.

The weather man predicted rain for opening day. It came shortly after midnight and continued to drizzle during the morning.

Oscar Stanage is Manager Jennings' catching choice, with the possibility of Schmidt being used, while ex-Manager Billy Sullivan has been named by Manager Duffy of Chicago. The probable line-up:

Fine Weather in New York.

New York, April 12.—Baseball came into its own for 1911 today with the beginning of the major league season in eight cities. At the Polo grounds the New York Nationals and the Philadelphias will open the season's play in the National league here. Weather prospects were better than the most sanguine had hoped for, the day starting clear, and the air was degrees milder than for days past.

Mayor Gaynor was scheduled to toss out the new ball to start play. Manager Dooin early announced that his pitching selection would be Earl Moore, with the player manager himself at the receiving end. McGraw was less communicative, but there were indications that Leons Ames would oppose Moore, with Myers to catch him. It was probable that the line-up of the two teams would be:

Umpires—Johnstone and Eason.

Not Hopeful at Toledo.

Toledo, Ohio, April 12.—With an intermittent rainfall this morning, the prospects are not very bright for the opening game of the season here in the American Association game between Toledo and Minneapolis. Many business houses and factories planned to close, and the Business Men's club here, consisting of a membership of 1,500, intend to go in a body. A crowd of 10,000 was anticipated with fair weather.

Predictions for today are rain and slightly cooler.

Toledo is handicapped through the inability of three of the best men, Hickman, Flick and Derrick, to play. Lack of condition is the cause for the first two and sickness the last.

Robinson is slated to pitch for Toledo, with Rapp catching him, while Altrock will twirl for Minneapolis, with Owens behind the bat. President T. M. Chivington of the American Association is here to witness the opening game.

Clear at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, April 12.—The championship season of the American league will open at 3 o'clock this afternoon at Shibe park with a game between the world's champions and the New York team under the management of Hal Chase. The weather this morning is clear and cool.

Manager Chase said today he had not decided definitely whether Vaughn or Ford would do the pitching. Neither was Manager Mack fully decided whether to pitch Bender or Coombs. The pitching selections of both managers will be announced later in the day.

The teams will line up:

New York—Wolter, rf; Hemphill, cf; Chase, 1b; Hartzell, 3b; Daniels, lf; Johnson, ss; Knight, 2b; Sweeney, c; Ford, p; Vaughn, p.

Umpires—Evans and Egan.

Clear in Boston.

Boston, April 12.—Sporting Boston awoke today from her long winter nap to the call of the ball, with the tail-enders of the National league of last year's season, Boston and Brooklyn, as the attraction. This forenoon the sky was clear, but an easterly wind blew straight from off shore. The batting order:

Boston—Clarke, lf; Goode, cf; Herzog, ss; Miller, rf; Ingerton, 3b; Sweeney, 2b; Tenney, 1b; Graham or Rariden, c; Mattern, p.

Clearing at Columbus.

Columbus, Ohio, April 12.—Prospects for the official opening of the American Association baseball season here today were discouraging at 8 o'clock, but indications pointed to clearing weather. It was said that the game between Columbus and St. Paul will certainly be played if it is not raining at 3 p. m. The batteries probably will be:

Columbus—Lessard and Bemis.

St. Paul—Laroy and Spencer.

SIMPLE REMEDY FOR KIDNEYS

Mix one half ounce fluid extract buchu, one half ounce murax compound, six ounces good pure gin. Take one to two teaspoonfuls of the mixture after each meal and at bed time. The ingredients of this prescription can be had at any well stocked drug store. Anyone can mix. This treatment has benefited thousands since it was discovered a few months ago. It quickly relieves and restores weak kidneys, bladder and other urinary channels. One should not delay after noting symptoms such as backache, rheumatic pains and other well known signs. Serious kidney disease may develop quickly if neglected.

GOING TO SPLITROCK.

Lighthouse Keeper Young to Resume His Duties This Week.

Munising, Mich., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—O. P. Young, who has been spending the winter here with his family, expects to leave this week for Split Rock, Minn., on the treacherous north shore coast of Lake Superior, where he will resume his position as lighthouse keeper for the season of navigation.

The Split Rock lighthouse and fog signal was only completed and placed in commission last season. It is at present the most modern station of the kind on fresh water and the assignment of Mr. Young to this post came as a just recognition of years of faithful and efficient service in Uncle Sam's employ. Mr. Young expects to move his family to Two Harbors, a progressive city of 5,000 people, fifteen miles from his post, as soon as the school term closes here.

DAUGHTER IN SUPERIOR.

C. G. Ermatinger, Old Chippewa Falls Resident, Dead.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., April 12.—Funeral services were held here today for C. G. Ermatinger, aged 74, an old resident of this city, who died Tuesday in St. Paul, where he had resided for ten years. He is survived by his widow, eight children and six grandchildren. The children are Mrs. D. McDonald, Superior, Wis.; Mrs. W. T. Tyler, Springfield, Mo., wife of the general manager of the Frisco line; Mrs. C. J. Tostivin, Chicago; Mrs. T. W. Running, St. Paul; George A. Ermatinger, Oklahoma City; Albert Ermatinger, Denison, Tex.; Peter Ermatinger, treasurer of the Metropolitan opera house, St. Paul, and Charles Ermatinger, a Western Union operator, St. Paul.

All the immediate relatives, with the exception of a sister and two brothers, were at his bedside when he died.

LAUDS STATE TREASURER.

Public Examiner Compliments Mr. Smith on Condition of Office.

St. Paul, Minn., April 12.—"Permit me to congratulate you on the excellent way in which the records of your office have been kept," said Andrew E. Fritz, public examiner, to State Treasurer Smith yesterday in sending him the result of the quarterly examination of the treasurer's books.

"Every penny is in place and all the bonds are properly listed."

DOCTORS REFUSE TO TREAT PATIENTS

United Doctors Turn Away Many Who Are Incurable. This is Their Rule.

Yesterday was another busy day for the United Doctors, who now have their Duluth institute located on the third floor of the Columbia building. All day long the waiting rooms were crowded with patients, eagerly awaiting their turn for consultation with these great specialists.

A number of cases were accepted for treatment, but a large number were turned away; were kindly but firmly told that their case could not be accepted for treatment as it is the invariable rule of the United Doctors to not accept any case for treatment unless they are sure it can be benefited. These specialists want the reputation of curing every case they treat so they are very careful in selecting their patients.

Jacob R. Good of Thief River Falls was among those in the waiting room yesterday. Mr. Good said: "I brought my wife to these specialists because I have heard so much about their work in the East. My brother, who lives in Illinois, was cured of kidney trouble by the United Doctors at their Danville, Ill., institute after four good doctors said he had Bright's disease and must die. That's why I have faith in the United Doctors."

All who call on the United Doctors before April 20th are cured free, be they rich or poor, the only charge is for medicine. This free offer is made to secure a large number of patients quickly, to show the public what this wonderful new treatment will do for sick people even after all others have failed.

The diseases treated by the United Doctors are: Diseases of the nerves, blood, skin, stomach, kidneys, liver and bowels including rheumatism, constipation, dyspepsia, indigestion, gall stones, paralysis, weak nerves, heartburn, epilepsy, catarrh, goitre, appendicitis, asthma, eczema, scrofula, diseases of women, and all weaknesses and diseases of men.

ON THE IRON RANGES

MINING CAPTAIN THWARTS HOLD-UP

Schley Mine Official Grapples With Highwayman and Has Him Arrested.

Gilbert, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Capt. Pope of the Schley mine was held up at the point of a revolver Sunday afternoon while on his way home by a Montenegren named Latina. Pope grappled with his assailant and after throwing him, proceeded on his way home. Latina then went to his boarding house and proceeded to shoot matters up. Later Latina was arrested by Chief of Police Saline and Monday he was brought before Judge Welch, charged with carrying concealed weapons and was fined $25 and costs.

After paying his fine Latina was again arrested and taken before Judge Flynn, charged with assault in the third degree and was fined $75 and costs; not paying he was taken to Duluth for thirty days.

OLD FRANCHISE IS KNOCKED OUT

Hibbing Council Declines to Wait Longer on Judge R. F. Berdie.

Hibbing, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—The weekly report of the clerk of the municipal court showing the total receipts of $104.26 for the week ending April 8, was read and approved at the meeting of the council last night.

Transfer of liquor license from Paul Maras to Charles Schubert was granted for 219 Pine street saloon. A communication referring to the coming meeting at Eveleth on April 26, with reference to the passing of uniform franchises for the various range towns through which the proposed electric line is to pass, was read.

The request of Judge R. F. Berdie to continue the old franchise which was granted to him five years ago was turned down by the council. The judge offered to commence work within thirty days and to deposit $2,000 or more in the bank as evidence of good faith if required, and the council expressed themselves as ready and willing to receive any evidence that he or the Northern Traction company might show of what they intended to do towards building the road.

Would Help Local Man.

Capt. Wearne voiced what appeared to be the opinion of the whole council when he said: "I believe this council would much sooner grant a new franchise to you or any other local man than they would to outsiders upon evidence of commencing to build the line."

Considerable discussion was given to the matter. An ordinance was ordered drawn up providing for a safe and sane Fourth of July for this year and all succeeding ones. The measure would have been passed last year except for the fact that many merchants had laid in a large supply of fireworks.

RUZZITO CASE GIVEN TO JURY

Several Lively Incidents During Trial in the District Court.

Hibbing, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—The case of State vs. Bruno Ruzzito, charged with assault was before the district court all yesterday, the whole day being taken up with hearing of the balance of evidence, the last witness being examined shortly after 5 o'clock.

Some exciting moments occurred during the examination of the witnesses. Once when the defending counsel after a somewhat heated query to which the opposing counsel took exception, said, "If I led the court to believe that I tried to misleed the witness, I apologize to the court."

Later on in the hearing a defending counsel tried very hard to force Engineer Ormond to admit that he was excited when the arrest of Bruno Ruzzito took place; failing to do this the counsel sarcastically remarked, "Then it is a common occurrence for you to go out on a manhunt with a gun?" The court took exception to the question and it was stricken from the evidence. The charge to the jury was read at the opening of the session early this morning and the case was submitted.

Eveleth Society Elects.

Eveleth, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Crescent Literary society has elected the following officers: President, Carl Oscar Nelmi; vice president, Albina Viger; secretary, Ethel Wilk; treasurer, Evelyn Prince; librarian, Anna Nelmi; program committee, Jacob Saari, Anna Nelmi, Adeline Rohrer; sergeant-at-arms, Samuel Owens.

HERALD'S STORY MAKES BIG HIT

Hibbing Commercial Club to Reproduce Duluth Newspaper's Article.

Hibbing, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Commercial club is so pleased with the four pages about Hibbing that appeared in The Duluth Herald on Monday that it is going to reprint George Reid's story and the pictures in booklet form and send the booklets broadcast to advertise the agricultural opportunities of this section.

No city or town in Northern Minnesota has a more active Commercial club than Hibbing, and it has begun a systematic campaign to attract farmers to the fine agrcultural lands lying all around Hibbing. The Herald on Monday told about all that there was to tell about Hibbing but failed to mention the officers of the Commercial club, who are giving up so much of their time and effort to benefit Hibbing. Mayor H. R. Weirick, councillor, W. C. Barrett, Judge Brady, P. J. Ryan, and T. K. Klass form the board of directors of the club, and D. D. McEacin is president, with Robert Stratton, vice president, J. L. Lewis, secretary, and Miles Gandsey, treasurer.

SHOEMAKER MAKES SUCCESS FARMING

Former Eveleth Cobbler Shows What Can Be Done Along St. Louis River.

Eveleth, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Farmers in this vicinity are meeting with much success. Martin Panian, a former shoemaker who has turned to farming, left this city last fall to reside on a farm near St. Louis River, which is eight miles from here. Yesterday he was here and disposed of 150 chickens, many eggs and much butter.

He has over 600 chickens and much garden stuff. He reports that the farmers in that vicinity are raising much poultry and that garden stuff will be plentiful this year. At Wolf, William Haenke, the veteran range farmer, is meeting with much success in dairying, while others have been raising many potatoes and expect large crops this year.

RECALL PETITION IS FOUND FAULTY

Virginia Council Takes No Action on Rebuke to Alderman Kimball.

Virginia, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—As the city clerk found that the petition for the recall of Alderman Kimball, for alleged failure to carry out the wishes of his constituents was faulty in that half of the names signed were those of nonvoters and this did not leave the required 2 per cent, no action was taken at last night's council meeting on what was expected to be the star feature of the meeting.

No Action on Buying Plant.

Neither did the finance committee report on the light and water plant question on account of the absence of President Osborn of the council. Vice President E. B. A. Johnson presided and said the report would go over until the next meeting.

The council was invited to attend a meeting at Eveleth at which all range councils are expected to be represented for the purpose of getting together for dealing with those who want electric line franchises. Several companies have made applications at as many cities and the meeting is for the purpose of ascertaining which company, if any, shall be given the preference in all the cities.

The city attorney reported that there was no cause for action in the case of Mrs. Olilo who has made a claim against the city for $5,000 damages. She alleges that she fell on a slippery sidewalk and broke her arm.

BLIND-PIGGER MULCTED.

Judge Brady Fines Hibbing Addition Lawbreaker $100.

Hibbing, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Chief of Police Wring is taking steps to put a stop to the blind-pigging that is said to be going on in the adjacent locations and as a preliminary move Joe Slobenger was fined $100 and costs by Judge Brady yesterday.

As reported in The Herald Monday, twenty men were drunk in a switch shanty at Mitchell on Sunday night, and a rush call to the police resulted in the capture of one man, who was taken down again later and identified the man who sold the liquor. The vendor of the beer sold it at 10 cents a quart and sad he bought it from the Virginia Brewing company by the keg, though it is doubtful if they knew what he did with it. In addition to this a determined effort will be made to stop the practice storing wagons and buggies, boxes, barrels and other sundries on the sidewalks and in the streets and alleys of the village. The police have been ordered to report all future cases of infringement of the ordinance regarding the matter.

MR. JAMEISON MODERATOR.

Meeting of Duluth Presbytery Begins in Virginia.

Virginia, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—There are nearly fifty ministers from Duluth and range points attending the annual meeting of the Duluth Presbytery, which began here last night, when Rev. S. A. Jamieson of Duluth was elected moderator to succeed Rev. W. O. Garrett of Coleraine. The retiring moderator spoke on "Obedience."

Business sessions were held this morning and afternoon while the ladies served a dinner from 12 to 2. The business session ends today.

Tonight there will be a service at which the principal speaker will be Frank Higgins, the lumberjack camp missionary, who is known as the Sky Pilot to the lumberjacks.

The sessions are being held in the First Presbyterian church. Following the presbytery, special services will be held in the church during the rest of the week and some of the visiting clergymen will remain to speak at these meetings.

The reports presented show that new churches and missions have been established and that the work of the church shows considerable progress for the last year.

CONSTRUCTION OF HOTEL IS STARTED

Work Has Commenced on Structure at North American Mine and Brickyard.

Tower, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Work started Monday of building the superstructure of the hotel at the North American mine and brick yard. Contractor Heglund of Minneapolis was here last week and his foreman, A. E. Green, who will have charge of the work. A crew from Minneapolis and a lot of local laborers will push the work as rapidly as possible. The structure is to be of stucco, and the main floors will be tiled. The hotel will be modern in every way and is estimated to cost $50,000. It will contin two dining rooms, one for transients and another for employes of the brick yard and mining companies. The building, which will contain forty or fifty sleeping rooms, will rise three stories above the basement. The site is a charming one on a hillside and overlooks the various enterprises of the new townsite.

PASSION PLAY LECTURE

Given By Two Harbors Ministers Is Greatly Enjoyed.

Two Harbors, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—The seating capacity of the First M. E. church was fully tested last night when the pastor, Rev. T. Stanley Oadams gave his popular lecture, illustrated by eighty views on "The Passion Play of Oberammergau."

The views were works of art and are from the official photographs made in Oberammergau last summer. The fine coloring of the views added greatly to the entertainment. Mr. Oadams has made a study of this play for over twenty years and has some of the highest commendations from many states where he has lectured. A more delighted audience was never seen at any entertainment here, and the receipts were highly gratifying. This was the introductory service of Passion week. Another illustrated service will be held on Good Friday evening conducted by Mr. Oadams. Mrs. Oadams is an adept at the stereopticon and was heartily congratulated upon her splendid work.

EVELETH CLUB WILL CONSIDER RANGE ROADS.

Eveleth, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—President James C. Poole of the Commercial club will call a special meeting soon to determine the location of the proposed range electric road in this city. Three positions have been given out by Attorney Gillette, representatives of the road requesting Adams avenue residents to sign same, and petition the council to grant the road permission to use Adams avenue. The petitions have been placed in the hands of Mayor Jacob A. Saari, James C. Poole and George A. Perham for circulation. Many of the business people are opposed to granting the road permission to use Adams avenue, as they believe trade from the surrounding towns and locations will go to other cities if Adams avenue is used, as that thoroughfare is a residence street and has no business places.

EVELETH SENIORS TO OBSERVE ARBOR DAY.

Eveleth, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Arbor day, April 21, will be fittingly observed here by the senior class of the high school. A class tree will be planted in the high school grounds by the seniors, while the other classes are grouped about the campus. The exercises will be very impressive and an innovation here.

The following program will be given: Music, high school orchestra; reading of governor's proclamation, President Anna Sholund; reading of state superintendent's letter, Secretary Curtis Bent; violin solo, Leslie Tobin; address, Rev. J. B. Hancock; quotations, class; music, high school orchestra.

GILBERT COUNCIL AWARDS GARBAGE CONTRACT.

Gilbert, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—The village council at a special meeting received bids for emptying the garbage cans of the village every second day. O. Mattala received the contract at $90 per month. Bids were authorized advertised for the new sewer system. The route of the new sewer is being surveyed this week by City Engineer Bowman and it is expected that work will be begun by May 15.

A. H. Radermacher was appointed village attorney at a salary of $50 per month, a raise of $25 per month over last year.

Gold Dust

Makes Pot and Pan Spick and Span

Soap and muscle won't clean your pots and pans properly — thoroughly.

Ordinary washing of cooking utensils passes over whole hidden nests of little wigglers—commonly called germs.

GOLD DUST is a sanitary washing powder that not only removes the visible dirt and grease, but digs deep after every trace of germ life—sterilizes pots, pans, pails and kettles — leaving them clean, wholesome, safe.

Shake a little GOLD DUST in your dish-water and see the startling results.

GOLD DUST is sold in 5c size and large packages. The large package offers greater economy.

OUTDOOR PRACTICE.

Tower Fire Department Is Getting Familiar With Work.

Tower, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Next Sunday evening the pulpit of the St. James Presbyterian church will be occupied by Rev. Hughes of Ely. He will continue to fill it each Sunday night until the arrival of the resident pastor about June 1.

Rehearsals for "Belshazzar" are progressing well. The first one in the opera house took place last night.

The family of N. J. Benson arrived Sunday from Duluth for a stay at their Tower home.

This month the fire department begins a series of out of door practice, including running with apparatus, coupling of hose, and the handling of streams. The new chief, William Wilson, is taking a great interest in the drilling of his men and a system of fines is imposed in case of absence from meetings or drills.

Mrs. D. Hadley is expected here for a visit soon, from Virginia.

The work of preparing for the "drive" is progressing and with spring rains, the logs will soon be finding their way down the river leading to Lake Vermilion.

The outlook for a busy summer at Tower is very bright. Lots of work is already in progress and a dearth of mechanics is felt.

The Duluth & Iron Range railroad is preparing for a big summer's travel. Their agents are busy all along the line and special preparations are being made here.

CHANGE IN POSTOFFICE.

One at Silver to Be Removed to Cramer.

Washington, April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Representative Miller was today advised that the postoffice at Silver, Lake county, will be removed some three miles from its present location to a point on the railroad, and the new office will be named Cramer and J. N. Cramer appointed postmaster.

HAS SISTER IN DULUTH.

Mrs. Annie Hunter of Two Harbors Victim of Cancer.

Two Harbors, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. Annie N. Hunter, wife of Albert Hunter, a well known Iron Range engineer, died from cancer yesterday afternoon, aged 46.

She is survived by her husband, a son, Albert, aged 20 years, also two daughters, Grace, 18 years old, and Ethel, 15. The funeral will be held at the residence Thursday afternoon and the burial will be at Two Harbors.

Mrs. Hunter was a sister of Mrs. Lottie A. Holmes of 811 East Fifth street, Duluth.

MINING COMPANY TO FILE EVELETH CASE.

Eveleth, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—The large cave on Monroe street and Douglas avenue, which has been causing the health department much trouble, as residents have thrown refuse there without permission, will soon be filled up by the mining company. A spur track will be run from the Adams pit and much sand deposited in the large cave. The cave has been fenced in, but many stealthily deposit refuse there at night.

EVELETH JEWS TO OBSERVE PASSOVER.

Eveleth, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—The local Jewish residents will observe Passover services this week, commencing this evening. Many of the stores will remain closed tomorrow and Friday. Services will be conducted at the local synagogue and many will attend from the surrounding towns.

FAVOR POWER SCHEME.

Tower, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—The engineers who went out to inspect the site of the proposed power dam for Tower's electric plant, have returned and report favorably on the proposition. They find at the present time more horse power capacity than at first estimated.

Red Jacket After Tournament.

Red Jacket, Mich., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Red Jacket fire department will look for the 1912 tournament and reunion of the Upper Peninsula Firemen's association, which embraces in its membership every fire department in the Upper peninsula, as well as that of Hurley, Wis., and Sault Ste. Marie, Ont. This year's tournament will be held at Bessemer.

tionary hymns and waved red standards. This they did to disown the government which they affirm has abandoned them to ruin. They declare the government had acted as a result of the steps taken by the makers of inferior grades of wine.

Wine Presses Destroyed.

The column had reached the town of Ay at noon. Co-operating with another band, which reached Ay from a different direction, the rioters proceeded to Venteuil, where they destroyed the huge wine presses. Troops then dispersed the mob.

The attorney general went to Venteuil by automobile with the object of investigating the situation there, but was unable to advance through the streets because they were piled high with broken champagne bottles.

Damery today is a picture of desolation. The streets are literally running with champagne. Within a stone's throw of the red banner floating over the city hall stands the ruins of six houses of wine merchants, which were practically demolished by the mob last night.

Troops Concentrated.

Epernay, Department of Marne, France, April 12.—The commanding army officer of this district has concentrated several thousand troops at this town, which is an entrepot for champagne wines and at other threatened points in this vicinity, to prevent further destruction of wine property. The troops have been given orders to use such force as is necessary.

An important division of the wine manifestants succeeded in avoiding the troops and reached Epernay this afternoon in small groups. Then the separate bands reformed and sacked several depots of champagne. Troopers charged the rioters with drawn sabers and several persons were wounded.

Government Disturbed.

Paris, April 12.—The French government is disturbed over the riots in the chanipagne district of Marne, resulting from the adoption of a resolution by the senate in favor of the suppression of territorial delimitations. Instructions have been sent to the commanders of troops in the districts to preserve order and save property, but not to prevent orderly processions.

The chamber of deputies has not yet decided the question of delimiting the champagne districts, but the measure may be discussed by that body today.

Closson & McIlvane. Mr. Koenig said today that the actions filed by him and his associates were not brought against the respondents as directors in the Carnegie Trust company, but as individuals.

The creditors are numerous and their claims will aggregate certainly $6,000,000 and probably more, said Mr. Koenig.

"In order to protect themselves fully they have filed in some instances duplicate claims, which accounts for the larger aggregate amount appearing in the papers," he said.

Mr. Cummins is understood to be in Nashville, Tenn., his home. Mr. Condon said at his office he would have no statement to make. Mr. Moore is still at Rome, Italy, where his father is so seriously ill that he has not been informed of the complications in which his son has been entangled.

President of Snuff Company.

Besides being a director of the Carnegie Trust company, Condon is president and director of the American Snuff company.

Moore, Jr., is a son of the president of Manning, Maxwell & Co., one of the largest makers of machinery in the country. He was formerly secretary of the company, but resigned within the last two months.

The Carnegie Trust company long on the edge of failure, was thrust over the precipice by the failure and indictment of Joseph G. Robin, president of the Washington Savings bank, and an officer closely connected with the Northern Bank of New York, which also failed.

The publication of proceedings taken by the state banking department against those two banks showed that Robin, who had formerly been a director of the Carnegie company, had given it his paper for large amounts even after his resignation and the mere shadow of his name was sufficient to bring on a run which the bank could not withstand.

bill passed last session, except for a clause authorizing the president to continue negotiations for reciprocity with Canadian articles not covered by the pending agreement, and a bill to put on the free list about 100 articles now dutiable under the general tariff. Both will receive early consideration.

The free list bill is designed to placate farmers for agricultural losses which they will sustain under the Canadian agreement, but it contains also some foodstuffs and boots and shoes. The list is as follows:

The List.

Plows, harrows, headers, harvesters, reapers, agricultural drills and planters, mowevrs, horse-rakes, cultivators, thrashing machines, cotton gins, farm wagons, farm carts, and all other agricultural implements, including repair parts; bagging for cotton, gunny cloth and fabrics suitable for baling cotton; burlaps and bags for sacking agricultural products; hoop or band iron or steel for baling cotton, wire for baling hay, straw and other agricultural products; grain leather, kip, buff, split, rough or sole leather, bend or belting leather, boots and shoes, harness, saddles and saddlery, and leather for manufactured articles; barbed fence wire, wire rods, wire strands or wire ropes; wire woven or manufactured for wire fencing; beef, veal, mutton, lamb, pork and meats of all kinds, fresh, salted, pickled, dried, smoked, dressed or undressed, prepared or preserved in any manner; bacon, hams, shoulders, lard, lard compounds and lard substitutes; sausage, buckwheat flour, cornmeal, wheat and rye flour, bran, middlings and other offals of grain, oatmeal and rolled oats, and all prepared cereal foods; biscuits, bread, wafers and similar articles not sweetened; timber, hewn, sided or squared; round timber used for spars or in building wharves; shingles, laths, fencing posts, sawed boards, planks, deals, and other lumber, rough or dressed, except ebony, mahogany, rosewood and other cabinet woods.

Sewing machines and salt complete the free list.

COPPER COUNTRY SALOONS PROSPER

Despite Anti-Liquor Agitation Only Four Saloon Men Will Quit Business.

Calumet, Mich., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Despite the anti-liquor agitation and, especially, the hard fight in Michigan between the wet and the dry elements, the saloon business in Houghton county continues to be profitable, as is evidenced by the number of applications for license renewals this spring. In the whole county there are not more than four liquor dealers going out of business and the county will continue another year with more than 250 saloons, it is believed.

Calumet Has 119 Saloons.

In Calumet township, alone, with its population of 35,000, there will be 119 saloons in business after the first of May, the same number now in business. In the village of Red Jacket, with its population of only 3,000 people, there are eighty saloons. Laurium has twenty-seven. There are twelve in the township outside of these two villages.

WILL HAVE A LARGER FIELD

R. C. Coffin Will Be Assistant to State Y. M. C. A. Secretary.

R. C. Coffin, educational director at the Y. M. C. A., has resigned his position with the local association to accept another as assistant secretary of the state organization. He will take up his new duties June 1. He will have charge of the correspondent member work, whereby the association keeps track of the movements of members from place to place, will assist in the finances and may have charge of the work on the range.

Mr. Coffin came to Duluth two years ago, and in that time has done much to broaden and build up the educational work of the local institution. Previously he had charge of the county work of Faribault county, and went from there to Illinois. His new position will give him a wider and more influential field than he has had in the past.

Calumet Man Bank Examiner.

Calumet, Mich., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—William J. Coombs of Calumet has been appointed state bank examiner. He is now in Lansing receiving instructions.

GAASTRA, MICH., NEW MENOMINEE RANGE TOWN.

Vulcan, Mich., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—A new town is springing up at the western end of the Menominee iron range. It has been named Gaastra, in honor of its founder, D. Gaastra of Kenosha, Wis. The town is in Iron county. It owes its birth to the development of a number of new mnes in the vicinity and the consequent demand for a convenient place where people might live and transact business. Building operations on a considerable scale were instituted last year and they will be conducted actively the present season. Mr. Gaastra, himself, will erect some forty or fifty dwelling houses, the contracts for ten of which already have been awarded. It is expected that before the year has closed the population of the town will have rounded the 1,000 mark.

EDITORS' ANNUAL OUTING.

Minnesota Scribes to Romp in Itasca State Park.

Bemidji, Minn., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—The annual summer outing of the Northern Minnesota Editorial association will be held at Itasca State park, the headwaters of the Mississippi river, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 8-9-10, next, these dates having been selected by agreement of Harold Knutson, president, and A. G. Rutledge, secretary, of the Editorial association; M. Heinzelman, park superintendent, and Mrs. Heinzelman, and Editors Haradon and Page of Park Rapids.

Among those who will attend the outing are Governor Eberhart, Lieutenant Governor Gordon, and possibly Speaker Dunn of the house of representatives.

The housewife knows. She knows when she cuts the first slice whether a ham is rich and tender. And she knows that is always tender, fine-grained and exceptionally delicious in flavor.

"Prepared in the cleanest and most careful manner."

Your dealer has McMillan's "Paragon" Ham and Bacon, Kettle Rendered Lard and real Country Sausage, or can get them for you. Ask him.

SCHOOL IN GARDENING

Class of Forty Students Is Being Organized to Take Course.

Agricultural School Interested in Duluth as Field for Extension Work.

The Duluth Commercial club, the Y. M. C. A. and the extension department of the state agricultural school will conduct a school in gardening and horticulture in Duluth, beginning the first Monday in May, if forty students can be obtained.

A. B. Hostetter of the Commercial club and R. C. Coffin of the Y. M. C. A. are busy rounding up students for the class. The poultry school conducted along the same lines proved such a success and the Maxwell homecroft propaganda has taken such firm hold on Duluth people that little trouble is expected in getting more than the necessary number to inaugurate the course.

The state agricultural school officers are interested in Duluth as a field for the extension work. Prof. A. D. Wilson, supervisor of demonstration farms, has promised to send instructors to Duluth May 1 if the school can be started and Mr. Hostetter and Mr. Coffin are anxious to enroll the students as soon as possible in order that Prof Wilson may be notified to hold the instructors in readiness to come here and begin the course.

The plan is to hold the school for one week in the Y. M. C. A. Instructions would be given in selecting seed, planting, caring for the growing plants and protecting them from insects and other menaces. Practical demonstrations would be given of trimming trees and bushes and of caring for plants.

Mr. Hostetter and Mr. Coffin believe the course would be of great value, not only to novices in gardening, but to others who would get the benefit of expert instruction and scientific experiment. The subscription for the course will be $2, which will include all expenses for instruction and books.

Prof. Wilson has promised that if the school is held, experts will be sent to Duluth from time to time during the season to inspect the work of the members of the class and offer suggestions as to improvements. The same plan is being followed in regard to the poultry class.

BOARD INSPECTS EXTENSION ROUTE

Improvements Must Be Made Before Street Car Line May Be Extended.

Members of the board of public works and other city officials went over the route of the proposed street car extension in the Second ward yesterday. They did not reach any definite conclusion as to what would be the best route to follow, but will probably take the matter up later with the street car company. It was expected that a number of the residents and property owners would be on hand to accompany the officials, but no one appeared.

President Olson said that before the tracks can be laid up Sixth avenue east between Sixth and Seventh streets a large concrete culvert and fill will have to be made, but that this may be avoided by running over to Seventh avenue east on Sixth street and going up Seventh avenue to Seventh street. Several different routes have been discussed but none of them have been recommended.

President Olson of the works board said that the $2,000 levied by the conference committee for the improvement of the Farrel road should be spent this year in order that farmers out of the city might be given a better road to the downtown section through the Second ward.

SIOUX COUNTY DELAYED.

Fight Between Factions Has Held Up New County Plans.

Mandan, N. D., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Inability of the warring factions in the district that has been proposed as the new county of Sioux, now embracing a portion of the Standing Rock Indian reservation south of Morton county, has prevented final action in the matter of promulgating such new county. The matter is still before Governor Burke but it is anticipated that there will be an early settlement of the question.

Opposition to the creation of the new county is based on the fact that the percentage of white persons in the territory is small as compared with the Indian population; that the movement was started by certain parties who had interested themselves for the sole purpose of assuring the town of Fort Yates as the county seat, and furthermore that there is no general demand for the creation of an organized county at this time, interests of property owners being best served through the present plan of no civil organization.

In the proposed county of Sioux there are approximately thirty or thirty-five townships, and a great deal of the land is very fine for agricultural purposes.

THE MONTH'S ACTIVITIES OF THE BOYS' DEPARTMENT, Y. M. C. A.

The regular monthly meeting of the boys' department cabinet was held last evening at the home of William Eklund, a former cabinet president.

The following were present: Palmer Bevis, Glen Merritt, Earl Bradley, Ledru Bevis, Irving Moore, Russell Duncan, Duncan Frick, Nat McConaughy, J. R. Batchelor, N. D. McLeod.

The social committee reported that seven socials had been conducted during the month with an attendance of 315. A special committee was appointed last evening to arrange a special program for the summer months.

The entertainment committee reported that the recent minstrel show was the most successful affair ever conducted by the club. The outing committee conducted two outings during the past month and an attractive program is being arranged by the committee which will take in the whole summer. The big feature will be the camp in August. The first two weeks will be for boys under 14 years, and the last two weeks will be for older boys. Short camps and all day outings will be held every week during the summer.

The athletic committee reported that the basket ball season will close in another week, after a very successful season. The winter term in the gymnasium will continue until the end of the month when the annual gymnastic exhibition will take place. Commencing May 1, the summer program in the gymnasium will begin. The big gymnasium will be converted into an indoor playground and regular work will be conducted all summer. A city boys' baseball league and field meet will be conducted by the committee.

The Bible study committee will close its season next Monday. For the next six weeks, on Monday evenings a series of practical talks will be given by promiennt men of the city on the following topics: "Business Opportunities and Responsibilities," "The Scientific Farmer," "The Doctor and the Community," "The Lawyer and His Clients," "Banks and Banking," "The Church and Young Men's Christian Association." The objects of these talks will be to place before the boys these various vocations. Lunch will be served every Monday and talks will be given around the table.

The membership committee will push the membership in the club. The swimming pool, camp and outings will be popular features for the summer. Every boy in the club will be taught to swim this summer.

The Sunday club meetings are well attended and the committee will continue them until the close of May.

The May meeting of the cabinet will be in the form of a farewell meeting to six of the cabinet members who will graduate from the club. A committee was appointed to suggest six new boys to take the places made vacant. The committee on the Scouts reported that the first display of the Scouts would take place Friday, April 28. The Scouts are greatly interested in their work, and outings will be held every week. Wednesday at 4:30 all the Scouts will meet in uniform to practice their display. The date of the annual banquet has been postponed to Friday, May 12, in order to give those who are trying to win a place in the Hustler club an opportunity to get their points. Warren Moore heads the list in this club with 110 points out of a possible 120. Plans for the second annual boys' exposition are progressing. Boys from all over the city are interested and making things to exhibit. The date set is May 5 and 6. All entries must be in by April 25. Exhibits may be brought in later. The cabinet will offer three prizes to the three boys who have the best gardens.

STREET WORK HAS BEGUN

Board of Public Works Removing Winter Accumulation of Filth.

Health Department Is Also Planning Its Spring Campaign.

The board of public works has begun its active street cleaning work for the season. From now on it is expected that Duluth thoroughfares will present a more pleasing appearance.

The crews working on the streets have been increased to the average summer proportions and they are busy scraping and hauling away what remains of the winter's accummulation of dirt. The flushing machines have been called from retirement and are being used on the downtown streets and avenues, principally Superior and First streets and the avenues between them.

Attention is also being given to the alleys of the city by the board of public works. Some of them are in extremely bad shape and will have to be cleaned up before they are fit for general use. The property owners or occupants will be served with notices to remove the accumulations for which they are responsible, and President Olson of the board has stated that if these notices are not observed arrests will be made.

The health department is getting ready to start its cleaning campaign and will become active as soon as the last of the snow has disappeared. Dr. Webster stated this morning that a chief of inspectors will be appointed, whose duty it will be to see that the men who have charge of sanitary districts do their work properly. He will be expected to tell the men how to proceed and to call them to time when they fail to get results.

Thus far this season but little has been done in the way of cleaning back yards or vacant lots. Many of them are in the worst kind of shape, being littered with refuse, ashes, garbage and old lumber and old wagons and sleighs. All of them will have to be removed, and it was stated by officials at the health department this morning that arrests will be made where notices to clean up have been served and not observed after the expiration of a reasonable time.

HELMETS WILL REPLACE CAPS

New Easter Bonnets for Police Will Arrive May 1.

The uniform caps now worn by Duluth cops will be tossed into the discard after May 1. On and after that date, until the snow flies again in the fall, their heads will be decorated with the regulation helmets. They will be of a pearl gray color, and it is expected that they will be "becoming" after the wearers get used to the feel of them and the public to the sight of them.

The sizes needed have been ordered and it is expected that they will be here in a short time. Incidentally, they were purchased through a local firm. For some time it has been urged that the coppers on the Duluth force have been showing a tendency towards baldness, and the blame has been placed on the caps, which are close fitting and warm. By fall it is hoped by those interested, that the hirsute growths of the men will have shown sufficient recuperation to dispel all fears in this direction.

MAY RETAIN OLD CRUSHER

City Officials Inclined to Believe New Plant Should Not Be Erected.

Will Visit Point of Rocks and Determine Course for Year.

Mayor Cullum, City Engineer McGilvray and the members of the board of public works will visit the Point of Rocks tomorrow morning to look over the situation to determine whether or not it will be advisable to install a new crusher there this year.

Last fall the conference committee levied $10,000 to be used for this purpose, but now the question has been raised as to whether or not it would be the best policy to put it in this year. It is stated that the old crusher, now located there, will be large enough, provided a new boiler is installed. It is also claimed that it would be hard to find a suitable location for the proposed new crusher, which would be much larger than the one used in the past.

The new crusher would cost between $8,000 and $9,000, and it is estimated that it would have a capacity of 250 cubic yards of crushed rock a day. If it should be operated at full capacity the city would have to find a market for the product, as about the only concern which uses any quantity in this city is the street railway company. The city also has use for considerable crushed rock, but both would not use what would be turned out by the new crusher. The large quantity which would be turned out would necessitate a large plot of ground for storage purposes, and this does not seem to be available in the immediate vicintiy of the Point of Rocks.

It has been suggested that if the city were to use the old crusher this year, enough stone could be gotten out to supply the demand and to do some work at Twelfth avenue west. This would consist of a stone retaining wall along the creek, above Superior street, and a filling in with crushed rock.

Most of the morning will be spent on the ground by the city officials, and the matter considered from all sides. They will start at Eighth avenue west and take in the entire cliff to Fourteenth avenue west.

SUPERIOR

KNIFE DRIVEN INTO HIS HEAD

Laborer Stood Beside Bar Until Surgeon Arrived to Remove Blade.

With the blade of a case knife driven an inch into his skull at the back of his head and broken off near the handle, Mike Rathowicz, a laborer, following a stabbing affair in the St. Paul saloon, 301 Tower avenue, Superior, stood up at the bar and waited until a surgeon came and pulled the knife from his head.

Rathowicz was stabbed by A. Grabowski, who is held by the police on a charge of first degree assault. Both men were drunk and the origin of the quarrel is not known. Rathowicz was taken to St. Mary's hospital. He will probably recover.

Grabowski plunged an ordinary case knife into the back of Rathowicz's head with such force that it sunk through the skull for more than an inch. Grabowski then broke off the blade leaving two inches of it sticking in the man's head. Grabowski was arrested in the saloon by Officer Hillman.

BOARD OF TRADE BUILDING LEASED.

The ground floor of the Board of Trade building, Tower avenue and Belknap street, has been leased for a large department store and will be occupied in time for the fall and winter trade. The place will be remodeled to suit the new tenants, Twin City people, who have signed a long term lease.

The fourth floor of the Board of Trade building is now being remodeled for the Superior Commercial club. It is expected that the work will be completed about May 1, when the Commercial club will move from its present quarters in the Hammond block.

STREET CAR LEAVES TRACK.

A street car on the South Superior line, bound for the South end last evening, left the tracks at a point half way between the South and West ends, bumped along the ties for a considerable distance, and although no one was hurt, traffic was tied up for several hours.

The car was loaded with passengers and it was considered miraculous that no one was injured. The passengers were badly jolted however. The South Superior line will be repaired this spring and heavier rails will replace the present tracks.

SCHOOL BUILDINGS USED TOO LITTLE.

An interesting lecture on "The Larger Use of the School Plant," will be delivered at the high school auditorium Friday evening, March 28, by Prof. Edward J. Ward of the University of Wisconsin, under the direction of the university extension course. Prof. Ward believes that school buildings are idle too much of the time and believes that they should be thrown open to the public for neighborhood meetings.

Firemen's Ball.

April 17 is the date set for the annual ball of the Superior fire department members. It will be held at the Sons of Norway hall. The funds raised at the dance will be devoted to entertaining the State Firemen's association convention, which will be held in Superior this summer. The Grand Opera house orchestra will furnish the music.

Mrs. Lavelle Dies.

Mrs. Paul Levelle, aged 55, for twenty-three years a resident of Superior, died suddenly yesterday at her home, 386 Main street. She is survived by a husband and one son, Alderic. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon.

MAY NOT SHIP BEFORE MAY 1

Soo Road Not Yet Ready to Receive Ore at Docks.

Although the cars are loaded, the first of the ore from the Cuyuna range may not be received in Duluth before May 1.

This is because the entrance to the docks has not been completed and the shipments are consequently held up.

The entrance, it is expected, will be finished by the first of the month and then shipments will be regular.

George H. Crosby said this morning that the time of the beginning of the shipments is indefinite and that there would be little, if any ore, shipped before May 1.

Ice in St. Mary's River Will Prevent Early Opening of Navigation.

Package Freighters Ready to Move—Lumber Charters Made.

Duluth shippers and steamship men have heard no more about the opening of navigation, as it will be controlled by the condition of the ice in St. Mary's river. With the official date of the navigation set for April 15, it is almost certain that not a boat will move out of the Duluth harbor on that date.

Even were the St. Mary's river clear of all ice obstruction, there would not be very much freight to move. The Mutual Anchor line boats are ready to move, and would probably move if the ice were all out of the channels; but there is no heavy east-bound freight movement in sight at the present time and the officers of the several package freight steamship companies have no complaint, as far as it is known here, on the late opening of navigation.

There is no grain chartering being done here, and at the present rate there are no boats in the market for grain. There is no ore in sight for shipment just yet.

At the lower end of the lakes there will be some coal for early movement with the great bulk of the coal movement held until later. Reports from Cleveland state that vessel men are not in the market for coal.

General opinion is that the season will not be opened, at least to any appreciable extent, until April 25. It is stated that the ore receiving docks of Lake Erie have 8,000,000 tons of ore on hand, with the furnace yards well supplied in addition.

Reports from down the lakes indicate that Hay and Mud lakes are still frozen solid. East and West Neebish are both pretty well obstructed by ice, and it will be some time, according to present indications, before there will be any navigation.

Some early single trip contracts have been made in lumber. The rate in these cases have been on the basis of $2.50 from Duluth to Lake Erie ports. It is not generally believed that there will be an early opening in the lumber traffic.

COPPERS ADVANCE AFTER A DECLINE

Values Open Strong, Fall and Rally When Shorts Cover.

The market was lifeless today. Values opened strong and eased off and then rallied when shorts began to even up commitments in the face of a holiday on Friday and perhaps another on Saturday. Reports that copper metal is not on the market at 12c or under were denied by the Amalgamated interests and the copper market firmed after the denial was issued, although it is not likely that the statement had any effect.

Amalgamated sold at $62 to $61.62½ to $62.37½, Butte Ballaklava at $5, Calumet & Arizona at $49, Greene at $6.50, Giroux at $5.81¼, $5.87½ to $5.81¼, Ojibway at $5.50 to $5.25, Superior & Pittsburg at $14 to $13.75, North Butte at $27.25 to $27.75.

The annual meeting of the Moonlight Mining company will be held near Wallace, Idaho. The company is controlled here. It owns a silver-lead mine in Idaho.

A car of fifty tons of ore is being shipped from the Amazon-Montana this week, said W. T. Smith, president of the company, who has returned from the mine. The mineral developments on the 350-foot level are fully up to expectations, it is said. The values run high in lead and silver and carries some gold. The car is expected to net about $1,000.

More rich ore has been encountered on the 800-foot level east of the Butte-Ballaklava. The vein will be developed. The Butte Ballaklava will enter the shipping list as soon as the shaft is repaired. When fire broke out recently in the Anaconda the flames were fought from the Butte Ballaklava workings and the saft of the company was considerably damaged.

The directors of the Summit Copper company will meet here April 20 to decide upon the construction of a concentrator. President W. A. Eaton has returned from the mine in Arizona. He said a 200-ton concentrator will be in operation by Oct. 1. The driving of a crosscut from the shaft to the Pasquale vein on the 600-level has been started and the vein may be reached about July 1. The Summit is shipping high grade ore taken out in development work, but no regular shipments will be made until high and low grade ore can be mined simultaneously and treated by the concentrator.

Baker Is Arrested.

Andrew Sagerson was arraigned in police court yesterday afternoon on a charge of violating the bakery ordinance in that he did not have his bakery in as sanitary a condition as required by the ordinance. His case was set over until next week to give him an opportunity to make the necessary improvements.

Both Are Fined.

Mike Sissila and Alex Johnson each got $40 and costs or thirty days in the county jail when tried in police court yesterday afternoon. Sissila was found guilty of having struck Johnson over the head with a beer bottle and Johnson of being drunk. As it appeared that Johnson had provoked the assault, he got the same dose as was meted out to his assailant. The trouble was the outcome of a drunken row on Lake avenue.

Hillsiders Will Meet.

A special meeting of the West End Hillside Improvement club will be held tonight. The annual election of officers will be held.

Horse Wouldn't "Go."

Because a horse "refused to go when told to do so," and proved to be balky, George F. Davis, a local drayman, has started suit against Hagstrom Bros. to recover $150, the purchase price of the animal. Davis says that he bought the horse from Hagstrom Bros. on their representation that it was kind and gentle and fitted for the kind of work he wanted it for.

Rent Your Rooms.

IOWA'S NEW SENATOR.

Judge Kenyon an Assistant to U. S. Attorney General.

Des Moines, Iowa, April 12.—The senatorial deadlock has existed in Iowa since Jan. 17, when the first ballot was taken. At that time Senator Lafayette Young, the present incumbent, was the leading opponent of Judge Kenyon, but was succeeded by Justice Deemer on the twenty-third ballot about six weeks ago.

Judge Kenyon, the new senator, was born in Elyria, Ohio, June 10, 1869, and received his finished education at Grinnell, Iowa. He was admitted to the bar following his graduation and shortly after was elected public prosecutor of Webster county, Iowa. He was judge of the Eleventh Iowa judicial district until 1903, when he was appointed an attorney for the Illinois Central railroad. In 1907 he was made general counsel of that company with offices at Chicago, and served in that capacity until 1910. He was appointed assistant to the attorney general of the United States March 14, 1910. His home is at Fort Dodge, Iowa.

VALUES FALL AFTER BULGE

Cash Position Strong But Crop Prospects Are Bearish.

Seeding Under Way—Conditions Favorable—Weak Abroad.

Duluth Board of Trade, April 12.—Wheat lost 1c today, May declining that distance. Scalpers accepted profits. July lost ⅞c. Cash was stronger, relatively, and was 1c over May. Oats, rye and barley were unchanged. Durum lost ⅝c.

Flaxseed was unchanged. There was no trading. Foreign markets were stronger.

The wheat market was choppy, developing some strength before noon on account of continued short covering. There were reports of Manitoba wheat being exported, a strong cash demand in the Northwest and a fair flour business. The May delivery at Chicago appeared to be closely held. Toward noon reports of Manitoba business for export were discredited, the cash demand slumped and the trade awoke to a realization of widespread moisture in the Northwestern states and the Dominion provinces.

When the precipitation as recorded on the weather map began to be a factor in the day's movement the mental attitude of sellers was influenced by a report of the Canadian Pacific railroad which declared that conditions are unprecedentedly good in the three prairie provinces. It is expected that seeding will be well under way by April 20. Manitoba farmers have commenced seeding. In Minnesota and South Dakota seeding is under way and in some parts of Southern Minnesota it has been completed. Seeding has started in North Dakota under favorable conditions. Seeding in Eastern Montana cannot be said to be fully under way.

There appeared to be no legitimate reason why the May delivery should show the strength that it displayed early in the day. The Chicago May has walked forward lately without much resistance although the buying power has been comparatively light. Under pressure it dropped a cent shortly after noon from the high point. Crop conditions and prospects could not be improved upon. The weather map today shows mild temperatures and some rains in the Northwest and Middle West. Rain or snow is predicted for South Dakota tonight, fair and cooler weather for North Dakota and rain and cooler weather for Minnesota.

Rains in Argentina and a drop in the Buenos Ayres market caused weaker foreign markets. Drenching rains have fallen in the Central districts of Argentina and were beneficial for seeding. Offerings from Russia and Australia are freer.

Cash Sales Wednesday.

Broomhall cabled from Liverpool—At the opening the wheat market was unchanged to ⅛d higher than Monday and ⅛d to ¼d lower than yesterday and during the morning there was a disposition to realize further and prices lost an additional ⅛d to ¼d. Pressure was due to the weakness in Buenos Ayres at the close and a smaller inqury for cargoes and parcels with Russia offering freer and lowering of the Australian offers. Arrivals here are small and there is a fair demand for spot with the continent again in the market in a small way. The market, however, was dull owing to the approaching holidays. At 1:30 p. m. the undertone was easy and ¼d to ½d lower than yesterday and ⅛d to ¼d lower than Monday.

At the opening the corn market was firm and ¼d higher than yesterday with the reduced Argentine surplus and the firmness in America. Later there was a reaction on a small inquiry for spot and in sympathy with wheat. Wheat cargoes arrived off coast one and awaiting orders, one. Wheat cargoes in distant positions easier, demand less active. Corn firm but quiet. All the markets in the United Kingdom and continent will be closed on Friday and Easter Monday. Paris closed on Saturday and Liverpool and London on Saturday and Liverpool at 2 p. m. Thursday. Buenos Ayres will be closed Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Paris wheat closed 1@1½c lower than Monday; flour closed 2¼c lower than Monday. Berlin wheat ¼c higher.

Updike Grain, Omaha, Neb., wired—"We have just completed an inquiry as to the condition of winter wheat in Nebraska at the present time. The government on April 1 made the condition 86 per cent. According to our reports the condition at the present time is at least 90. The condition of the plant seems to be almost perfect throughout the state, excepting the southwestern portion, where considerable wheat is just coming up. It has been our observation that if the farmers will leave winter wheat alone after planting it and not get discouraged and plow it up that it usually goes ahead and makes a crop under ordinary conditions, even though it is not above the ground before April 15. Most of the reports state that they should have a rain in ten days. According to our reports, there were quite general showers throughout the state last night. There is a material increase in acreage of winter wheat in Nebraska this year. If we get general rains over this state during the next week we look for conditions May 1 to be 95 per cent.

"Flour stocks are being reduced," says Frank I. King of Toledo. "New crop is rapidly approaching. May liquidation will continue all month, shorts get nervous on small bulges, while some longs are still patiently waiting. May deliveries will be free unless cash demand improves sharply or July goes to a premium. Minneapolis expects light receipts next week. The bears are shy after so much prosperity, but the foreigners continue attracting their bread from other countries. Congress will soon tackle reciprocity. Speculation continues mostly of scalping character. Weather fine."

CHICAGO MARKET.

Good Rains in Spring Crop Belt Weaken Wheat.

Chicago, April 12.—Good rains in the spring crop belt had a bearish effect on wheat. Another influence on the side of lower prices came as a result of larger Australian and Russian offers at Liverpool. Conditions of growth in foreign countries were also reported as being satisfactory in general. Weakness seemed most prominent on the distant deliveries. The market opened ⅜c down to a shade up. May started at 88¼c to 88⅜c, a sixteenth higher to ⅛@¼c off, fell to 87¾c, and rallied to 88⅛c.

Light offerings and shorts buying caused a sudden bulge, especially on May which though recently at a discount went to 3¼c premium. The close was nervous at 88½c for May, ⅛@¼c net gain.

Despite the showery weather corn weakened with wheat. There was considerable local selling. May at the outset was 49⅜@49½c to 49⅝c, a shade to ¼c down, and appeared to be inclined to keep within that range.

Scantiness of country offerings hardened the market but a reaction followed. The close was steady with May at 49c, a net loss of ⅝@¾c.

With two leading houses here active as buyers, oats displayed quite a little strength. May started unchanged to ⅛c higher at 31⅝@31¾c, and rose to 31⅞c.

Provisions eased off in sympathy with hogs. First sales were the same as the previous close to 15c below, May options going at $15.00 for pork, $7.75 for lard, and $8.30 to $8.32½ for ribs.

MINNEAPOLIS MARKET.

After Early Firmness Wheat Prices Turn Weak.

Minneapolis, Minn., April 12.—After early firmness the wheat market turned weak. The decline was caused by moderate liquidation in Chicago. May closed ⅝c lower than yesterday, July ⅝c lower and September ⅜@½c lower. Local elevator stocks decreased 500,000 bu for four days. Rains in Northern states, both this and the other side of the international boundary, favorable. Minneapolis today received 92 cars of wheat against 170 a year ago; Duluth 35 against 67 and Winnipeg 169 against 128.

May wheat opened 95c, high 95¾c, low 94⅜c, closed 94¾c; July opened 96c, high 96½c, low 95⅜c, closed 95⅞c; September opened 89⅝c, high 89⅞c, low 88¾c, closed 89⅛c.

Cash wheat in very strong demand. Offerings light. Mills active buyers. Demand in excess of receipts. Premiums advanced. No. 1 northern sold 2½@3½c above May. Close: No. 1 hard, 98¾c; No. 1 northern, 97¼@98¼c, to arrive, 96¾@97¾c; No. 2 northern, 94@96¼c; to arrive, 93¾@96¼c; No. 3 wheat, 91¾@94¾c. No. 3 yellow corn, 48¼@49c. No. 3 white oats, 30½@31½c. No. 2 rye, 86c.

Millstuffs—Shipments, 2,261 tons. Market strong and steady. Demand active and generally strong. Bran in 100-pound sacks, $21.50@22.00.

Flour—Prices quoted higher today on account of strength in cash wheat market. Demand fair. Orders numerous but aggregate volume of business moderate. Shipping directions improved. Shipments, 54,601 bbls. First patents, $4.45@4.75; second patents, $4.35@4.65; first clears, $2.95@3.40; second clears, $1.95@3.60.

Flax—Receipts 1 car; year ago, 4; shipments, 3. Flax was quoted steady but the market was nominal on account of light offerings. Prices for both spot and to arrive, 1 cent over Duluth May, closing $2.53.

Barley—Receipts, 37 cars; year ago, 11; shipments, 52. The barley market was strong early, but weakened later and closing prices about steady with yesterday. Offerings liberal and closing range, 70c@$1.06.

DULLNESS IN STOCKS

Business at Standstill During Greater Part of the Session.

Prices Harden in the Final Hour and Close Is Firm.

New York, April 12.—A mixture of gains and losses was recorded in the opening sales on the stock market today. Great Northern preferred, with a gain of ½, and Rock Island, with an advance of ⅝, were the strongest among the railroads. Union Pacific lost ⅛.

Stocks which had shown a little heaviness at the outset stiffened a trifle, but as there was no general response elsewhere prices went off again. Pacific Telephone was actively dealt in and advanced a point.

Fluctuations through the morning were inconsequential. Almost the only business transacted was that due to the evening up of contracts in preparation for the expected Easter holidays. Business was at a standstill much of the time. There were a few changes in inactive stocks. Westinghouse Electric first preferred and Long Island lost 2¼. The standard stocks at noon ruled at about the level of yesterday's close. Bonds were steady.

The market closed firm. Prices hardened in the closing hour to the best figures of the day, with Union Pacific, Reading, Missouri Pacific and United States Steel foremost in the rise. American Steel Foundries improved 2¾ and Distillers' Securities 1¼.

Cotton Market.

New York, April 12.—The cotton market opened steady at an advance of 1 point on October, but generally 1 to 4 points lower under over-night selling orders and while prices rallied to about the closing figures of last night on the old crop and to a net advance of 2 or 3 points on the new during the first few minutes, they soon weakened under more or less general realizing for over the approaching holidays. Cables were a shade better than due at the hour of the local opening, but eased off later.

The weather map showed further rains in Eastern and central sections of the belt and talk of delayed farm work may have accounted in some measure for the relatively steady tone of the new crop.

Spot closed quiet, 5 points lower; middling uplands, 14.65; middling gulf, 14.90. No sales. Futures closed steady; closing bids: April, 14.79; May, 14.58; June, 14.54; July, 14.51; August, 14.11; September, 13.16; October, 12.81; November, 12.74; December, 12.73; January, 12.69; March, 12.75.

FARMERS TO GET HAIL INSURANCE

New North Dakota Measure Will Be Given First Trial in State This Year.

Fargo, N. D., April 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—North Dakota farmers will have first chance at state hail insurance this year. At the annual meeting of township assessors with the county auditors over the state today the auditors are instructing the assessors as to their new duties in this connection.

The latter have to ask farmers how many acres they wish to insure. The totals are made up by the county auditor and forwarded to Hail Insurance Commissioner Gilbreath. This is the first year the measure has ever had the trial in this state and its results will be closely watched.

WILLIAM J. BRYAN TO SOAR IN AEROPLANE.

Washington, April 12.—Weather permitting, William Jennings Bryan will take his first spin in the air this afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock as the guest of Antony Janus, a local aviator, in the Rex Smith aeroplane, a Washington-built machine, which has been making many successful flights carrying as passengers prominent society young women and some government scientists. The flight will be over Potomas park.

North Butte Mining Company.

Notice is hereby given that the sixth annual meeting of the stockholders of North Butte Mining Company will be held at the office of the Company at Room 1400 in the Alworth Building in Duluth, Minnesota, on Monday, the 17th day of April, A. D. 1911, at 12 o'clock noon, for the election of three Directors to hold office for three years, and the transaction of such other business as may properly come before said meeting.

The stock transfer books will be closed from April 1st, 1911, to April 22d, 1911, both inclusive.

Dated Duluth, Minn., March 22d, 1911.

FREDERIC R. KENNEDY, Secretary.

DICKENS' LITERARY GAINS.

Truth: The papers have been printing a great deal of pure nonsense on the subject of Dickens' literary gains. We are told among other things that the emoluments from his books were "totally inadequate, owing to the nonexistence of copyright." No writer of his time was so highly paid as Dickens.

It was calculated by one who knew all about his affairs that he made about £10,000 out of each of the books which he wrote after 1846. The price paid down for "Edwin Drood" was £7,500. Author and publisher were to share equally in the profit of sales of over 25,000 copies and 50,000 were sold of each of the opening numbers. The payments for the early sheets for America and for the Tauchnitz edition must have brought the author about £2,600 besides.

Dickens is stated to have died leaving "earnings that often accrue to a respectable solicitor." This is rubbish also. also. Dickens left £93,000 in round figures, and this did not include a considerable sum of money that he had settled some years before his death. (His readings (1858-69) had brought in about £36,000.

It is forgotten that Dickens began life without one penny and that every farthing he spent or gave away or left was earned by himself, only excepting £2,000 which was bequeathed to him by a friend about two years before his own death. Dickens lived liberally (some people said extravagantly) for about thirty-four years, he brought up and started in life a large and very expensive family and he gave away a great deal of money to needy relatives.

SPEED OF A RHINOCEROS.

Dora Vandeleur in the Empire Review: Out he burst at last with a crashing of brush and timber, reaching the open just in front of me; stopped for a minute to sniff the breeze, then advanced at a quick trot toward my pony.

Being mounted and inexperienced, I felt a false sense of security; he lumbered toward us with surprising swiftness, yet it seemed so difficult to believe this uncouth animal bent on mischief that I simply sat still and watched its approach.

The pony stood this inaction as long as its nerves allowed, which I should judge was until the creature had got within eight or ten yards; then wheeled with a most disconcerting suddenness, and set off like the wind across the level.

Fast though the pony flew (and having caught his panic, I was urging him to his utmost), to my horror and astonishment the rhino not only had no difficulty in keeping up, but gained.

I heard a shot, and then another, and looked back over my shoulder hopefully; the creature was coming on faster than before! A third shot came from somewhere on my right, and I felt the pony slacken his pace; evidently the last bullet had found a billet somewhere in the rhino's thick hide, for to my surprise and relief he had wheeled round sharply, and set off at a clumsy gallop across the plain at right angles to his former direction.

The whole party followed in hot pursuit, even the Irish terrier puppy which accompanied us on all our expeditions rushed as hard as he could, tumbling head over heels upon the tussocks of coarse grass, and emitting shrill yaps of defiance.

We could not get near enough to get another shot at the rhino; it was amazing that such a great unwieldy brute could travel at the pace he did, far quicker than a horse's gallop. Finally we had to give up the chase, much to our disappointment, for my sister and I had been longing for a rhinoceros horn to take home as a trophy ever since we started on our month's trip up country.

ANCIENT ROME'S LIBRARIES.

T. P.'s Weekly: The libraries of ancient Rome were immense and splendid. Lucullus, whose name is associated with table luxuries, expended much of his wealth on books. His library, says Plutarch, had "walks, galleries and cabinets open to all visitors." Julius Caesar proposed to open this library definitely to the public.

How were these vast libraries, in addition to the bookshops, filled? With his trained staff of readers and transcribers, a publisher could turn out an edition of any work at very cheap rates, and almost at a moment's notice. There was no initial expense of typesetting before a single copy could be produced, no ruinous extras in the shape of printers' corrections. The manuscript came from the author; the publisher handed it over to his slaves; and if a book of modest dimensions, the complete edition could be ready if necessary within twenty-four hours. Actually, then, books were produced and sold more easily and quickly in ancient Rome than they are in modern London.

SHOT BY THE KAISER.

Bailey's Magazine: According to German papers the German emperor has since he first commenced to shoot killed to his own weapons 33,637 pheasants, 17,963 hares, 3,392 wild boars, 2,447 rabbits, 1,880 red deer stags and 90 hinds, 1,768 fallow bucks and 98 does, 931 roebucks, 826 cormorants and herons, 439 foxes, 121 chamois, 108 capercailzie, 95 grouse, 87 ducks, 24 blackcock, 12 elk, 6 bison, 6 badgers, 4 woodcock, 3 bears, 3 wild turkeys, 3 reindeers, 2 guinea fowl; 2 snipe, 1 whale, 1 pike, 1 martin and 516 various.

FISHERMAN'S PROFITS.

Boston Record: Some persons claim that there is no money made in the fish industry. Capt. Morris Lubee of the fishing schooner George H. Lubee and the crew of that craft beg to differ. In ten days the crew of this schooner made $2,500.

Four trips were made, three to T wharf, and one to Portland, Me. After the members of the crew, fourteen in number, had given their share toward the ship's stores, each had $85 left. During the ten days engaged in fishing the men made $8.50 a day.

SHOPPING IN BURMA.

Blackwood's Magazine: You may walk through the muddy old markets of Rangoon for hours at a time or through the brand new bazaar at Mandalay without any of the salespeople taking the slightest notice of you as a possible purchaser of their wares. The dear little ladies sit cross-legged upon long tables in front of the high cupboards containing their goods. They are placidly smoking or chatting or painting their faces or braiding their hair. They are not attending to business in the least.

If the European is conspicuously dressed or presents a figure which the Burman, with his finely trained sense of humor, considers at all ridiculous then a gay ripple of laughter passes along the stalls, and then indeed the would-be customer is noticed; but otherwise the tourist is an object of no interest whatever.

It requires a great effort to get a Burmese shop woman (they are nearly all women) to show you her silks, and when at last she has spread her merchandise broadcast upon the table and you are living in the illusion that you are living in the middle of a rainbow, with a chance of holding fast to some of its colors, she will ask her price (which is seldom more than one rupee too much) and will stick to it like glue.

She is an indolent lady in many ways who loves a quiet life, and she has determined that her most comfortable course is not to haggle in the market place. So you may make up your mind that bargaining and persuasion are useless arts to practice in Burma, however, valuable they may be elsewhere.

This is a "new-fashioned town"—and the increasing use of want advertising proves it; for want advertising is the newest-fashioned utility of them all!!

If you will bring your Calumet & Arizona and Superior & Pittsburg certificates to Paine, Webber & Co.'s office, we will have them transferred into the new Calumet & Arizona stock for you.

CONTEST NOTICE—
Department of the Interior, United States Land Office.
Duluth, Minnesota, April 5th, 1911.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Carl F. Hanson, contestant, against Homestead Entry No. 07665, Serial No. 07665, made November 12, 1909, for N½ SE¼ and SE¼ NE¼, Section 19, Township 65 N., Range 16 W., 4th P. Meridian, by Harry H. Johnson, Contestee, in which it is alleged that said entryman, Harry H. Johnson, has wholly abandoned said land and has continued said abandonment for a period of more than six months last past, and that he has wholly failed to establish actual residence upon said land; that said alleged absence from said land was not due to service in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States in time of war, said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at nine o'clock a. m. on May 5th, 1911, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Duluth, Minnesota.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed April 5th, 1911, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.

CHARLES F. HARTMAN,

Sundeen being duly filed herein, representing, among other things, that said decedent, then being a resident of the county of St. Louis, State of Minnesota, died testate in the County of St. Louis, State of Minnesota on the 21st day of March, 1911, and that said petitioner is the surviving spouse of deceased, and that said petitioner is named as executrix and praying that said instrument be allowed and admitted to probate as the last will and testament of said decedent, and that letters testamentary be issued to Annie S. Sundeen thereon.

IT IS ORDERED, That said petition be heard before this court, at the Probate Court Rooms in the Court House, in Duluth, in said County, on Monday, the 24th day of April, 1911, at ten o'clock A. M., and all persons interested in said hearing and in said matter, are hereby cited and required at said time and place to show cause, if any there be, why said petition should not be granted.

ORDERED FURTHER, That this order be served by publication in The Duluth Herald according to law, and that a copy of this order be served on the County Treasurer of St. Louis County not less than ten days prior to said day of hearing.

Dated at Duluth, Minn., March 28th. 1911. By the Court,

S. W. GILPIN,
Judge of Probate.

(Seal. Probate Court, St Louis County, Minn.)
ANDREW NELSON,
Attorney for Petitioner,
Duluth, Minn.

MINNESOTA HISTORICAL SOCIETY

DEAD AND BURIED BY SENATORS

Fair Form of Reapportionment Quietly Laid to Rest.

House May Pass State-Wide Primary and Recall Bills.

Much Time Wasted on Motions Intended to Expedite Business.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

St. Paul, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—The story of reapportionment was ended this morning in the senate, so far as this session is concerned. All hope of passing any reapportionment bill has been abandoned, and the fight to bring the pressure of public opinion to bear in the interests of justice in the session of 1913 will begin immediately. The executive committee of the Northern Minnesota Development association will meet this afternoon and prepare a statement as a foundation for the new campaign for fair representation.

Apathetically, and burdened with the knowledge that he was foredoomed to defeat, Senator Hackney, chairman of the senate committee on reapportionment, this morning moved that the Hanson reapportionment bill, under its file number of 912, be made a special order

WILL MEET IN DULUTH IN JUNE

Northern Minnesota Development Association to Have Spring Meeting.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

St. Paul, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—A meeting of the executive committee of the Northern Minnesota Development association was held here yesterday afternoon at which the date for the spring meeting of the association at Duluth was fixed for Thursday and Friday, June 1 and 2. Secretary W. R. Mackenzie of Remidji, secretary of the association, will proceed at once with the arrangements, leaving to Duluth the preparations for the entertainment of the delegates.

The members of the executive committee who are on the ground have abandoned hope of passing any reapportionment bill at this session, and have no greater hope for an extra session, feeling that with the same men in the senate, without giving public opinion a chance to make itself felt, nothing would be gained. No reapportionment bill can be passed that does not involve concessions and sacrifices that Northern Minnesota and the cities cannot afford to make.

FIRE ESCAPES SAVE 100 LIVES

New York, April 13.—During a fire today in the factory of the Manhattan Soap company in West Thirty-sixth street, sixty girls on the second floor filed down the fire escapes to the roof of an adjoining shanty, to which firemen ran up a ladder. A count of the employes showed one girl missing, but it is believed that in the confusion she may have gone home.

On the upper floors were 100 men who escaped by the fire escapes and elevator. The property loss is heavy.

BRYAN CANCELS HIS ENGAGEMENT

Unable to Be Present at Democratic Banquet at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 13.—Democrats of national prominence began arriving today from various parts of the United States for the banquet to be given here tonight by the National Democratic League of clubs. Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey, will be present, but William J. Bryan has cancelled his engagement. Several receptions and an automobile ride are being planned for the guests.

J. Hamilton Lewis of Chicago, will be toastmaster and will introduce the following speakers:

Governor Woodrow Wilson, subject, "The Party and the Present;" George Harvey of New York, "Progressive Democracy;" H. B. Ferguson of New Mexico, "Militant Democracy;" Allen Albert of Columbus, Ohio, "The Power and Influence of the Press;" John Temple Graves of New York, "The New Democracy;" Governor Lee Cruce of Oklahoma, "Democratic Reforms."

Subjects have not been assigned Governor James H. Hawley of Idaho; Warren Worth Bailey of Pennsylvania and Former Governor George W. Peck of Wisconsin.

DISTANCE TARIFF BILL PASSED BY THE HOUSE BY NARROW MAJORITY

THE SENATOR FROM TRAVERSE COUNTY

EDWARD RUSTAD

Result Due to Strong Argument Made By Speaker Dunn.

Bill Has Been Practically Redrafted Since Defeated in Senate.

Senate Follows House Action on Red Wing Boys' School.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

St. Paul, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Cashman distance tariff bill, killed in the senate early in the session and revived suddenly in the house immediately following the decision of the circuit court of appeals in the Minnesota rate cases, came up in the house yesterday afternoon as a special order, and barely squeezed through as the result of an impassioned argument for it made by Speaker H. H. Dunn.

The vote was 62 for and 56 against, one more than enough to pass it. On the original roll call, before the result was announced, the vote was 60 to 58, lacking one of enough to pass. For a few moments there was a hurried campaign on the floor for the necessary vote. Representative Andrew Anderson and Kelley, who had voted against the bill, changed their votes in its favor, providing the necessary number to pass it and one to go on. A motion to reconsider its passage was voted down, 47 to 70.

LEGAL FIGHT ON DRUG ACT

Supreme Court to Rule on Question of Statements on Labels.

Government Making Effort to Sustain Claim of Right to Prosecute.

Washington, April 13.—The first big legal contest arising out of the passage of the pure food and drug act of 1906 had the right-of-way today in the supreme court of the United States. The government was making a last effort to sustain its claim to the right to prosecute criminally persons who labeled drugs or medicines with false statements about the curative properties of their preparations.

The point arose in the United States district court in Western Missouri, where an indictment against Dr. O. A. Johnson was quashed on the ground that the act did not apply to false statements about the curative properties of drugs, but only to false statements regarding the ingredients. Dr.

CHAMPAGNE WAR STILL CONTINUES

French Women Assist in Destroying Great Quantities of Wine.

Epernay, Department of Marne, France, April 13.—Despite the fact that the department of Marne is a vast armed camp, with infantry and dragoons bivouacked throughout the night in most every village in the champagne district, rioting broke out anew today and the flame of anger and vengeance continues to sweep the grape growing region.

At Vinay the rioters hastily threw up barricades with barrels, cases and debris of all sorts, and succeeded in holding back the advancing troops, while another group of manifestants armed with torches entered the vast champagne depot.

The mob smashed all the bottles of champagne they could find, wrecked the wine presses and then set fire to the buildings.

Women Foremost in Work.

Women were foremost in the work of destruction, chanting snatches of revolutionary airs and urging on the men. When the troops reached Vinay the women lay down on the roads and defied the cavalry to ride over them. Eventually the troops succeeded in getting control of the situation and dispersed the manifestants.

At dawn many places in the wine growing district showed the horizon darkened by the smoking ruins of wine depots burned during the night. At the same time exploding detonators summoned additional wine growers to the different rallying points for the purpose of resuming their march of destruction.

Reinforcements of troops are arriving at Epernay on every train and immediately detraining the soldiers are dispatched to the centers of activity, where they are forced continually to charge and disperse the reassembling manifestants.

The government officials claim that the sacking and burning of wine property is being led by criminal elements which are flocking into this region from other districts.

The public prosecutor at daylight this morning proceeded to Ay, where a conflagration started by incendiaries threatened for a time last night to destroy the entire village, and made twenty arrests among the ringleaders of the manifestants.

INSURRECTOS AT CANANEA

Large Number of Them Appear Suddenly Before Mining Town.

Burn Bridges and Cut Wires Between There and Naco.

Agua Prieta, Mex., via Douglas, Ariz., April 13.—The combined force of rebels under Juan Cabral, Antonio Garcia and Richard Romero, appeared suddenly before Cananea yesterday. Three bridges between Naco and Cananea on the railroad were burned and wires were cut. All communication was thus suspended. No trains arrived in Naco.

The federal force of 1,100 men, including 200 cavalry, under command of Media Barron and other leaders, which went out from Cananea a few days ago, entered Arizpe to find the rebels gone. All the federal troops are now in Cananea. In the heart of the town is a rising mesa, called Swansea hill. This has been fortified with high strong rock walls on its crest. No person is permitted to approach this mesa, and it is thought to be mined. One machine gun is located on the east mesa between the largest two hotels; one on the south and another on the west slope beyond the smelter.

The rebels retired to Bacono Chi, south of Cananea. This probably means that no immediate attempt will be made to capture the city.

LEGISLATORS LEAVE STATE

Tennessee Insurgents Go to Alabama to Block Legislation.

Knoxville, Tenn., April 13.—In order to forestall further action on an amendment to the state election law which passed the house of representatives yesterday, twenty Republicans and fourteen Independent Democrats of the Tennessee legislature have gone to Decatur, Ala., where they declare they are prepared to "insurge" for six months or more. Executives of the legislature have not indicated how they propose to deal with the bolters.

The measure which brought forth the displeasure of the "fusion" forces is declared to be a "regular" Democratic move to obtain control of the state election machinery. This was in the hands of the "fusion" forces last year when Governor Hooper, a Republican, was elected.

Reciprocity Bill Favorably Reported By Ways and Means Committee.

Resolution Providing for Election of Senators By People to Be Passed.

Washington, April 13.—The Canadian reciprocity bill introduced in the house yesterday was reported favorably to the house today by the new ways and means committee. The committee also passed favorably on the free list tariff measure, but will not report it until tomorrow.

The Canadian reciprocity bill was taken up first by the committee, and after a brief discussion, Representative McCall, its sponsor in the Sixty-first congress, moved that it be approved by the committee. This was done without division.

The free list bill, however, was not unanimously approved, the vote on it in the committee being a strictly party vote, the Democrats favoring it and the Republicans voting solidly against it. Republican members, with Sereno Payne as spokesman, declared that the proposed bill was hasty and ill-advised, that the measure had not been referred

FORFEITS ESTATE IF SHE REMARRIES

Will of Craige Lippincott Gives Practically Everything to His Wife.

Philadelphia, April 13.—With the exception of a few bequests to his two daughters, a grandson and two employes, the estate of Craige Lippincott, head of the J. B. Lippincott Publishing company, who committed suicide last week, is given in trust to his widow, Mrs. Sallie E. Lippincott.

The will was filed today for probate and is dated April 8, 1908. The value of the personal estate is given by the executors at "upwards of $100,000," and the real estate at $65,000.

The will provides that if Mrs. Lippincott should remarry she forfeits her interest in the estate and will then receive $10,000 a year for life, the estate going to her children and grandchildren. No bequest is made to J. Bertram Lippincott, the dead publisher's son, who is made the executor of the estate.

VALUATION EXCESSIVE

Calumet & Hecla Property Not Worth $42,000,000, Say Merger Opponents.

Present Affidavits By Mine Officers Showing Such Is the Case.

Detroit, Mich., April 13.—The proposed consolidation of the Calumet & Hecla Mining company with nine other copper mining companies came up again before United States District Judge Swan in chambers here today. Arguments were made on the petition of G. M. Hyams of New York, a minority stockholder of the Osceola Mining company, for a temporary injunction to prevent the consolidation, and counsel for Mr. Hyams presented affidavits in reply to the answer filed here two weeks ago by counsel for the majority or controlling interests in the companies. The affidavits filed today declare that the value of $42,000,000 assigned to the Calumet & Hecla properties in the consolidation is excessive, and that this is shown by sworn testimony given by President Aggasiz and General Manager McNaughton of the Calumet & Hecla in the Bigelow case at Grand Rapids four years ago. It is alleged they then testified the Calumet & Hecla mines had a life of ten to fifteen years, while now it is claimed the mines still have a life of fifteen to sixteen years.

It is alleged in today's affidavits that conglomerate sands valued at $4,000,000 are really worth nothing, and that the entire plan of consolidation was hidden from the independent stockholders of the various companies until Jan. 2, when the statutory notice of sixty days was given them. Thomas Chadbourne, director of the Ahmeek company, is alleged to have resigned his directorship upon finding that he had been kept in ignorance of the consolidation plans till late in December, though he had been in frequent consultation with the promoters.

BILL WILL NOT BE JEOPARDIZED

Clause Providing for Further Negotiations With Canada Well Considered.

Washington, April 13.—The clause in the Canadian reciprocity bill, inserted by the Democratic house caucus, providing that the president continue negotiations with Canada to secure further reciprocity will not in any way jeopardize the bill itself, in the opinion of political leaders of both parties.

Chairman Underwood of the ways and means committee, Representative McCall, who introduced the bill in the Sixty-first congress, and President Taft himself conferred as to the added clause before it was proposed and incorporated in the Underwood bill. Secretary Knox also was consulted. The clause does not in any way affect the provisions as outlined in the original bill after the prolonged negotiations between the agents of this country and Canada. It merely opens the way for future negotiations, and in that respect is said to have won supporters for the bill.

COMMITTED NO CRIMINAL ACT

Defense of Packers in Demurrer to Validity of Government Suit.

Chicago, April 13.—Counsel for the indicted Chicago meat packers appeared before Judge Carpenter in the United States district court today and argued their demurrer against the validity of the indictments upon which the Federal government is bringing criminal action.

Their arguments were confined to these set up in the demurrer that the indictment was faulty, that it charged no crime, and that the Sherman anti-trust act itself did not create any new crime, and hence, even if the packers disobeyed the statute, they were committing no criminal act.

This last feature, the attack on the effect of the law itself, never has appeared before in anti-trust suits by the government.

HEAVY SENTENCE IMPOSED ON MILLER

Given Seven Years and $11,000 Fine for Fraudulent Use of the Mails.

Aberdeen, Miss., April 13.—Judge H. C. Niles, in the federal district court here today, sentenced J. H. Miller, who was found guilty of fraudulently using the mails, to seven years in prison and to pay a fine of $11,000.

L. C. Steele and C. H. G. Linde, who accepted a verdict of guilty on the same charge, were sentenced to two years' imprisonment and a fine of $10,000 each.

The men were members of the cotton firm of Steele, Miller & Co. of Corinth, Miss., which failed several months ago. It was charged at the time of the failure that bogus bills of lading amounting to millions of dollars had been issued by the firm.

Indictments were found against Miller, Steele and Linde, charging that fraudulent bills of lading were sent through the United States mails.

TOM L. JOHNSON IS LAID TO REST

New York, April 13.—With solemn and fitting honors the obsequies over the body of Tom L. Johnson were held today in Greenwood cemetery, Brooklyn, where, near his old friend, Henry George, the late mayor of Cleveland was laid to rest.

Accompanied by his family and many friends, the body was brought from Cleveland on the private car Livingston, attached to the Twentieth Century limited. William J. Bryan, Henry George Jr., and Lincoln Steffens were among those to meet the funeral party at Grand Central station, whence the cortege took its way to the cemetery.

In the party were Mrs. Margaret Johnson, widow of the late mayor; Loftin E. Johnson, Mrs. Elizabeth Mariani and her daughter, Margaret Mariani; the family servants and a number of Ohio friends, including the Rev. Harris R. Cooley, who performed the funeral ceremony both here and in Cleveland, and the pallbearers. The pallbearers were: William J. Bryan, C. M. Bates, Trenton, N. J.; Ben T. Cable, Rock Island, Ill.; August Lewis, New York; Lincoln Steffens, F. C. Howe, Henry George, Jr., Henry Moxham, Senator Allee Pomerene, Ohio, and Dr. P. A. Brennan.

Gust Brown, alias Johnson, and Andrew A. Gunderson, alias McCarthy, the men arrested yesterday afternoon by Detectives Schulte and Irvine, were not lacking in a sense of humor.

The above is a copy of the "check" which they are claimed to have used to put against the real money of the "suckers" they trimmed in card games and swindles of various sorts. The police say that they are clever crooks. They declare that they have pulled off a number of games in this city, and suspect that they have operated considerably in other towns. As far as known they garnered $325 from easy marks in Duluth, and when searched at the police station nearly $800 in cash and greenbacks was found in their clothes, secreted partly in their linings. Of this amount $500 in $100 and $50 bills was discovered this morning, after they had been "mugged" by Eugene F. Rothie, the local Bertillon expert.

The "check" which they used is evidence of the kind of men they swindled. They made a practice of fleecing the most innocent homesteaders, farmers, woodsmen or laborers, who had saved "stakes." How any one could stand for being buncoed and made a fool of with a piece of paper which was such a farce seems incomprehensible. "The longer we are on the job, the more we are convinced that the saying that "a sucker is born every minute is true," say the police.

The men also had a bundle of blank checks of the ordinary kind in their room, and it is presumed that they also used them, filling them out to meet the requirements of the occasion when they felt that they had some victim who might not stand for the joker.

The swindling of Jacob Sunderland Monday in a "big mitt" game is the third job which the couple is believed to have pulled off successfully in Duluth. The first was worked March 19, when Charles Morris was touched for $50 in a three card game. He was met by the steerer in the Soo depot, and led to a box car, where they were joined by the second man. The second was the relieving of John Hamerin, a woodsman, of $75 in a Superior street saloon. It is thought they have pulled off other jobs in the city, and it is believed that one of the two was in the city about a year ago, when several similar jobs were consummated.

Sunderland was steered into a Lake avenue saloon Monday morning after he had come down from his place on Chicago Bay with $200 with which to purchase a horse. He was inveigled into a poker game. One of the men flashed the "bank of laughter" on him, borrowed $100 from him on the strength of it. After they had the money, one of the two made a getaway, and he followed the other into several saloons while he pretended to get the "check" cashed. The last Sunderland saw of him he excused himself to telephone.

Gunderson and Brown had rented a room on First street near Second avenue east. After each job they retired to this room, and laid low until they felt certain that the "sucker" had left town. This is said by the police to show that they were of the "wise" variety, as they would have laid themselves open to capture sooner had they remained about the city.

FOR A CITY HEALTHFUL

Monthly Bulletin of Health Department Contains Many Timely Hints.

Clean Bread, Garbage Collection and Individual Towels Wanted.

RECOMMENDATIONS IN HEALTH DEPARTMENT BULLETIN.

Push the lodging house ordinance.
Insist upon sanitary delivery of bread.
Boost municipal collection of garbage.
War against the fly.
Individual towels in public schools.
Individual towels and sanitary drinking fountains in public buildings.

Many broad recommendations for the conservation of public health are made in the monthly bulletin of the health department for March, which has just come from the printer. They cover a wide range of subjects and are brief but to the point.

Following a statement of the purposes of the bulletin, it goes on to state that the smoke ordinance was killed because a few of the prominent offenders protested against it. It lays the blame for this to the lack of interest of the general public.

Touching upon the proposed lodging house ordinance the bulletin says that its fate depends upon the enthusiasm with which the people work for it. It calls upon the reader to see his alderman to have him work for it. It also asks the reader to call upon his representative in the council to insist upon sanitary delivery of bread, stating that its delivery should be surrounded by such restrictions as will insure cleanliness and freedom from contamination.

Garbage Disposal.

"Another matter which we wish to call your attention to is the way in which your neighbor, if not yourself, is disposing of garbage," says the bulletin. "If a stockbreeders' herd contracted disease because some one threw disease producing rubbish contiguous to his stable, can you imagine what that breeder would say and do about it? Yet people are throwing rubbish contiguous to your home, endangering the lives of those who are near and dear to you. If you raise a protest it is a very feeble one and not long sustained. Thus do we apathetically conserve human life. Give us a municipal garbage collection so that we may put our mark on the party, who under cover of night throws garbage where it out not to be.

"These garbage heaps as well as the manure piles are the breeding places for that common infecting agent, the fly. There is no need of having the annoying flies nor the diseases which they transfer; stamp out the breeding places and you stamp out the fly.

"We note that the state superintendent of public instruction, and the secretary of the state board of health of Kansas intend to install individual towels in all public schools. The estimated cost will be 50 cents per 1,000 towels. Don't you think the Duluth public schools could afford the luxury?

"Can anyone tell us why every public building in this city should not be equipped with the individual towels and the sanitary drinking fountain? Why not take the lead in these sanitary measures and set the example for the rest of the state instead of waiting until ordered by the health department to install the same? If you have not thought of or discussed this subject you will find it fully explained in many of the current magazines. The danger, however, from towel and cup infection is so apparent that it needs no explanation."

Vital Statistics.

Speaking of vital statistics the report is as follows: "There were eight-five deaths in March. This was the same number of deaths as there was last month. Chicken pox which is usually considered a trivial infection claimed one victim. There were only five new cases of diphtheria during the month with no fatalities. Erysipelas, which has been quite prevalent all winter was the cause of two deaths, six cases being reported. The number of measles cases shows an increase of eleven last month. However, there were no fatalities from the measles this month. The number of deaths from pneumonia was only one; this was surprising for this time of year. There was certainly more than one person sick with pneumonia during the month, although only one case was reported to the health department. Scarlet fever claiming one victim, shows an increase of four cases. Three cases of trachoma were isolated from an Austrian boarding house where they were using the towels, etc., in common with the other boarders. the anti-tuberculosis nurse reports quite a number of new cases; nineteen positive and seven suspected. On the whole the contagious disease situation is much better than is was for last month."

The comment upon the medical inspection of schools is interesting, and is to the effect that it has been a great factor in the prevention of diseases. During the month 660 children were examined. Of these 369 had defective teeth, 95 defective vision, 21 defective hearing and a considerable number were found to have skin or contagious diseases.

The report says:

"The schools that have been regularly inspected have been singularly free from contagion this year. The credit for this is not due solely to the medical inspectors, but is the result of their work together with the added interest taken by the teachers, the parents, and the children themselves, in recognizing early cases of contagion. Improved hygiene on the part of the children, and better ventilation are also contributing factors."

BANDIT HOLDS UP TRAINMEN

Conductor and Brakeman on Santa Fe Robbed of Small Sum.

Syracuse, Kan., April 13.—An unknown man boarded Santa Fe Train No. 5 as it left here at 1 o'clock this morning. He was heavily armed, and pointing a revolver at the conductor, E. B. Reilly, and Brakeman O'Leary, robbed both of their money. He obtained only a small sum.

When he attempted to rob the passengers, Reilly made a show of resistance and was shot twice through the shoulder by the bandit. The man then stopped the train and jumped off. A posse is searching for the robber. Reilly, who lives here, was taken to the company's hospital at La Junta, where it is reported he probably will recover.

St. Paul, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—In spite of the action of both houses of the legislature refusing to recommend the dismissal of Supt. Whittier of the Red Wing boys' school, Governor Eberhart has sent word to the board of control that Whittier and his two assistants associated with him in the charges of cruelty must go.

Early action on the part of the board to comply with the governor's orders is expected.

STILLMAN H. BINGHAM.

Stein Song Up to Date.

Every one will remember the great stein song, interpolated in The Prince of Pilsen. It was a great song, but it has been made greater by the new way they are singing it in the west. Here are the words:

Oh it's always fair weather,
When good fellows get together,
And a stein on the table, with a good song ringing clear;
So it's birds of a feather,
When good fellows get together,
With a stein on the table, filled with golden grain belt beers.

COPPERS DEAD; UNDERTONE FIRM

Values Advance Slightly, Traders Covering Before Holidays.

The copper market was dull and lifeless. Traders who were short covered before the holidays of tomorrow and Saturday, all stock markets being closed on those days. As an Eastern authority said, "It would be idle to predict the action of security prices as there is nothing in the news to foster activity in either direction. The intense dullness is getting on the nerves of traders and is creating much dissatisfaction among professionals who have not had much enrouragement in their endeavors to force movements in either direction."

It is rumored that the Minnesota railroads will restore the 3-cent passenger rate after June 1. The report caused some strength in the Northwestern rails.

A recent letter received by the Greene-Cananea management from the properties at Cananea, dated April 1, states that a new ore body has been encountered at the Sierra de Cobre property in the No. 5 Eureka tunnel. The report adds that the ore body is forty feet in width and averages 5 per cent copper. Should this ore carry the average silver contents of the mine it would assay approximately five ounces of silver per ton. Further particulars in regard to the new discovery have not yet been received, but from the information at hand, the management believes that the new ore body is one of considerable importance.

A Butte dispatch to Thompson, Towle & Co. says: The Croesus vein on the 1,800-foot level of the North Butte has opened sixteen feet wide, and ore averages 9 to 11 per cent copper. In sinking the main shaft a new vein has been cut at a depth of 2,750 feet, believed to be the vein having its apex north of the Edith May claim. The width of the vein has not been ascertained as yet, but four feet of it gives assays of 22 per cent copper, with a quantity of copper glance.

MRS. WIELAND PASSES AWAY

Well-Known Duluth Woman Dies After Long Illness.

Mrs. Louise Wieland, 64 years of age, the widow of the late August Wieland, who died several years ago, died this morning at 11:30 o'clock at her residence, 1107 East Third street.

She had been ill with Bright's disease for some time.

Mrs. Wieland was a well known resident of the city, having lived here for the last seventeen years. She is survived by one son, Theodore F. Wieland and one daughter, Miss Clara P. Wieland. Her son resided in Bayfield until recently, when he again entered partnership with Frank Wade in the hardware business at West Duluth. The funeral will take place Saturday afternoon and interment will be at Forest Hill cemetery, but all the arrangements have not been completed.

OBITUARY

Maj. Gen. James F. Wilson, one of Canada's most distinguished soldiers, died in Montreal, April 12, after a long illness. He was 59 years old. Gen. Wilson saw active service in the Soudan in the expedition sent to the relief of Gen. Gordon at Khartoum and in the Northwest rebellion of 1855-6.

COMMITTEES OF THE SENATE ARE NOT READY.

Washington, April 13.—Giving notice that it would be impossible to complete the reorganization of the senate committees before next week, Senator Gallinger today moved that when the senate adjourned today it should be until next Monday. The motion was adopted.

SITUATION AT BORDER

Discussed for First Time in Congress By Senator Rayner.

Says That the Monroe Doctrine Is Not Involved in Matter.

Washington, April 13.—The first expression in congress concerning the situation on the Mexican border was heard today when Senator Rayner of Maryland addressed the senate on that subject. Although a Democrat, Mr. Rayner spoke in confidence of the attitude of President Taft and expressed the opinion that there would be no war with either Mexico or Japan.

While he did not so express himself in exact terms it was evident that Mr. Rayner had in mind the reports that Japan is exerting herself to procure a coaling station on the Pacific coast of Mexico. He said:

"I am willing to admit that if Japan is entering into negotiations for coaling stations and bases for naval supplies for military purposes with Mexico, we are entitled to know what these negotiations are. Congress is, however, without any information or evidence upon the subject. This country would not ordinarily be entitled to know the secret treaties or alliances that other countries may make, but upon the part of Mexico we would unquestionably be entitled to an explanation."

He added that he had no fear that history may repeat itself, or that any government would attempt to imitate the example of Napoleon III, "who through false pretenses and subterfuges sent an Austrain archduke to a Mexican throne simply to abandon him afterwards to despair and death."

Japan Does Not Seek War.

He was confident that Japan does not seek war with the United States and declared that there could be no cause for hostilities between the two countries.

Discrediting the report that Japan might desire to take surreptitious possession of the island of Guam as a cable station, he declared that if such was the purpose it could not be justified under international law. He found in Guam usefulness only as a cable base and speaking sarcastically of the island said: "Guam is a charming spot, and one of the most lustrous and brilliant jewels in our Oriental galaxy. Its principal products are vipers, lizzards, snakes, wild swine, rats and castor oil, and if the island were put up at auction today, with all of the inhabitants in it, beyond its value as a military post, it would not bring a dollar and a half in any of the markets of the world."

Much of the Maryland senator's speech was devoted to the contention that the Monroe doctrine is not involved in the Mexican situation. Quoting authorities to show that the original Monroeism looked only to the prevention of the establishment of new monarchial institutions in the Western Hemisphere, he sought to discredit the position in relation to the collection of claims against Western nations taken during the Roosevelt administration in the Santo Domingo controversy. This he characterized as the "Roosevelt doctrine," rather than the Monroe doctrine. He said in part:

Bankers Would Declare Wars.

"Let us look for a moment at what sort of wars we would have if the Roosevelt construction of the Monroe doctrine was to prevail and was to be incorporated into our diplomatic code. We would have an interminable succession of bondholders and stock market wars. War, instead of being declared by congress, practically could be declared by the banking syndicates of London, Paris, Amsterdam and Berlin, represented by their financial agents in America and we would become sponsors and guarantors for every bankrupt and impoverished government in Central and South America.

"We never as yet have been informed as to what amount of money was made out of the Santo Domingo settlement nor what was the price at which their bonds were sold before our intervention, and what was the price that the holders afterwards obtained for them in settlement of their claims, nor who was in the deal, nor who were the beneficiaries of our interferences.

"I will not sit here in silence, with folded arms, and permit this revolutionary principle which was formulated and promulgated over night by Mr. Roosevelt to be known by any other name except the name of the illustrious individual who first conceived it and put it into practical execution. I want to lift this cloud from around the brow of the rising generation."

Speaking of the president, Mr. Rayner expressed satisfaction in that "whatever he does will not only be necessary and proper, but, in his opinion, will be for the best interests of the country."

At the conclusion of Mr. Rayner's address Senators Lodge and Cullom took occasion to confirm the Maryland senator's statement regarding the improbability of a misunderstanding between the United States and Mexico.

"I have examined the official correspondence with care and I have been unable to discover any allusion to Japan," said Mr. Lodge, "and," he added, "so far as I am able to judge the reports in the press are a mere fabrication."

Confessing ignorance as to the motive for the circulation of these reports he expressed the opinion that there was strong interest back of them.

Saying that he, too, had examined the Mexican correspondence Senator Cullom expressed the opinion that "there is not a scintilla of truth in the reports involving Japan."

MOTOR TRUCK DELAYS TRAIN

Becomes Stuck in the Mud on Iron Range Crossing.

A motor truck, the property of the Wright Clarkson Mercantile company, became stuck in the mud on a crossing of the Iron Range tracks near the Endion depot this morning and held up the trains of the company for about twenty-five minutes.

The mud is deep and sticky and the truck was heavily loaded. After it was unloaded and given some help, it finally was able to pull out under its own power.

MARINE

WILL LOAD WITH GRAIN

First Cargoes Will Be Taken in Duluth Next Week.

Two Vessels Already Loaded at Superior, Detained By Ice.

According to the report of the D. T. Helm office, there will be some grain loading on this side of the bay next week.

Vessels are already loading on the other side of St. Louis bay, the W. E. Davock having taken on 100,000 bushels of wheat at the Itasca elevator. T. is steamer will take on more grain at Elevator K and will then return to Itasca for more grain. The Penobscot was loaded the present week with 270,000 bushels of grain at Elevator K.

From present statements boats will start from the Duluth harbor with grain just as soon as the ice is out of St. Mary's river. How soon that will be the vesselmen do not know.

It was stated at the Helm office today that the grain rate from Duluth to Buffalo would open at 1½ cents. Vesselmen are not seeking charters at this figure, according to the statement today.

Officials of the Northern Navigation company stated that their boats were already loaded at the other end of the lakes and would be ready to start as soon as the passages were free of ice.

There is little grain in sight here for the opening, which promises to be light.

LITTLE CHANGE IN INSURANCE

Change to Flat Rate Makes Slight Difference to Owners.

Advices from Cleveland state that there will not be very much change in the hull insurance rates which are expected to be announced the present week. It is stated that the hull rate will probably be fixed at 5½ per cent.

Last season the rate was fixed at 6 per cent, with the clause inserted that 10 per cent of the earned premium would be returned to all vessels that went through the entire season free from claims. According to the report from Cleveland, this clause will be cut out the present season and a flat rate made.

The cutting out of the return clause will make little difference in the insurance. The hull insurance will expire Nov. 30, as was the case last season.

WHY THESE MEN ALWAYS SUCCEED

Dr. Duckworth Explains Why United Doctors Never Fail.

"Why are you so universally successful in your treatment of disease?" was a question asked Dr. Duckworth, the chief of staff of the United Doctors, who have their Duluth Institute on the third floor of the Columbia building, yesterday. The genial doctor smiled and said: "The answer is a simple one. The specialists who compose this association of specialists not only represent all the schools of medicine, and thus bring to us the best of all systems of medicine, but they also are men who have devoted the best years of their lives to the study of certain chronic diseases. Not only are they graduates of the best colleges in Europe and America, but they have spent years in the diagnosis of the particular diseases which they have chosen to treat. During these years they have seen thousands and thousands of different cases and naturally have gained a great deal of experience. By the use of this knowledge and valuable instruments for diagnosis they are able to tell immediately whether the case is curable or not without asking a single question. If the case is not curable, they will not accept it. This accounts for the fact that they make no failures. All our doctors are registered in the county and in the various states in which they practice. We have hundreds of testimonials from people we have cured in Duluth, and we have refused to treat as many more whose cases we found incurable."

The conversation was interrupted at this point by a gratified patient, John McKinnon, who was loud in his praises of the skill of the United Doctors. In a statement for publication, Mr. McKinnon said:

"Superior, Wis., April 4, 1911.

"To the Public:

"For the past three or four years I have suffered a great deal at times with kidney trouble, would have backaches and headaches so bad that I was unable to carry on my daily work.

"I read in the daily papers of the great work being done by the United Doctors and decided to consult them in regard to my trouble. On the 21st day of March I called at their office and was examined thoroughly. The Doctor told me the cause of my trouble and I at once took up their treatment.

"Now after taking the treatment for two weeks, I feel much better and am confident that I will be a well man in a short time.

"I never miss an oportunity of speaking a good word for these Specialists. JOHN McKINNON."

Dr. Duckworth smiled that Kentucky smile of his that makes one feel at ease in his presence. The interviewer bade the gentleman goodby, passed through the crowded waiting room and remarked: "Well, I can understand why these gentlemen have the confidence of their patients."

BEARING THE CASKET TO THE HOSE CART.

The funeral yesterday afternoon of Edward Albert Oestreich, the fireman of No. 3 firehall, who died severals days ago, was one of the largest ever seen in the city. Hundreds of people turned out to pay their last respects to the memory of the late engineer of the department. He had been connected with the department the last twelve years, and was most popular, not only with his fellow members, but with all who knew him. The services took place from the English Lutheran church at the corner of Lake avenue and Third street. The church was crowded to the doors, and many who wished to gain admittance had to be turned away. The casket was born to Forest Hill cemetery in one of the hose wagons, which had been draped for the occasion. Over it was spread a large flag, and over this were heaped many flowers. The body was followed to the cemetery by a large squad of firemen and a platoon of police.

HANNA MAY LOAD ORE MONDAY

Will Be Ready to Leave Harbor When River Opens.

It is reported here today that the steamer L. C. Hanna, now being put in condition for the season at Superior, will be the first vessel to load with ore at the Head of the Lakes for the 1911 season. Today it was stated that the Hanna would go to the docks Monday and would be ready to go down as soon as the ice was out of the rivers.

Several early loadings of coal are also reported from the lower lake ports, which call for early delivery to the Head of the Lakes.

STRAITS ARE CLEAR OF ICE

WORK DONE IN FOUR MONTHS

Associated Charities Issues Report of What Has Been Accomplished.

More Than 150 Men and Women Provided With Work.

In his report of the work done during the first four months of the establishment of the Associated Charities in Duluth, Courtenay Dinwiddie, the secretary, calls attention to the work done along the following lines: Work for the unemployed, relief for business men from beggars, helping the sick, co-operation with the police, laws to help the poor and the social condition of those who live in cramped quarters, and the wrking together of the different societies for charitable relief.

The report states that over 150 men and women have been given temporary or permanent work. The temporary work has been furnished at the rock pile and the permanent work has been found in and out of town. Some of the men have been placed on farms and others have been given city employment. In nearly every instance the people helped have turned out well and are now self-sustaining.

A central agency has been established for the relief of business men. Tickets are given to business men who desire them and when they are in turn given to those who seek assistance, the secretary promptly notifies the signer that his ticket has been presented and that the holder will be taken care of.

A visiting nurse has been employed and she is busy about the city all the time. It is her duty to advise those who are ill and to prevent disease by thorough instruction in sanitation and wholesale cooking. Since Miss Anderson has taken up her duties in Duluth, the results of her work have been noticeable.

Under the heading, "Co-operation with the police," a review of what has been and what is being done at the rock pile is given. All able bodied men are forced to work instead of hanging about on the Bowery, and the number of tramps and beggars has been lessened since the work at the rock pile was begun.

The report states that more than 300 cases of destitution and distress have been aided by advice, employment, emergency relief or reference to the society most fitted to extend assistance.

There has been a cordial spirit of co-operation between the societies and duplication has been avoided through a central and confidential list of those helped.

STRAWBERRIES AT GREYSOLON FARMS

Four Acres Will Be Planted in Fruit This Year.

Although the transportation problem has not been fully solved, the improvements at the Greysolon Farms are going on rapidly and some tracts will be cultivated this year. One of them will be planted in strawberries and the results will be watched with interest by the promoters of the farms project and others interested in agriculture and horticulture.

The owner of the tract of five acres has decided to plant four acres this year. Strawberries must be rotated, so if he has the sucess he expects this year, he will purchase five acres adjoining and provide space for the rotation.

Some strawberry experiments in this section have been successful, but gardeners fear to go into strawberry culture extensively on account of the danger of the crop being spoiled and work and acreage wasted. The Ontonagon county berries from Northern Michigan are about as fine as can be found on the market and that county is about in the same latitude as Duluth and the climatic conditions are about the same.

DON'T PULL OUT THE GRAY HAIRS

"Pull out one gray hair and a dozen will take its place" is an old saying, which is, to a great extent, true, if no steps are taken to stop the cause. When gray hairs appear it is a sign that Nature needs assistance. It is Nature's call for help. Gray hair, dull, lifeless hair, or hair that is falling out, is not necessarily a sign of advancing age, for there are thousands of elderly people with perfect heads of hair without a single streak of gray.

When gray hairs come, or when the hair seems to be lifeless or dead, some good, reliable hair-restoring treatment should be resorted to at once. Specialists say that one of the best preparations to use is the old-fashioned "sage tea" which our grandparents used. The best preparation of this kind is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation of domestic sage and sulphur, scientifically compounded with later discovered hair tonics and stimulants, the whole mixture being carefully balanced and tested by experts.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is clean and wholesome and perfectly harmless. It refreshes dry, parched hair, removes dandruff and gradually restores faded or gray hair to its natural color.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists.

CANNOT STOP AT CROOKSTON

Roosevelt Obliged to Decline Invitation of Representative Steenerson.

Washington, April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—Representative Steenerson is in receipt of a letter from Col. Theodore Roosevelt written from Spokane in which he says it will be impossible to stop at Crookston to deliver a lecture under the auspices of First Presbyterian church of that city. Col. Roosevelt states that had not his itinerary eastward bound been completely made up it would afford him great pleasure to stop at Crookston for a few hours, but regrets greatly he finds it impossible.

Representative Steenerson today received a letter from the secretary of state informing him that he had taken up with the Canadian government the fishery questions which have been causing some friction along the Red River of the North.

GOES TO POOR HOUSE TO DIE

Mrs. Anne Ermine, 78 Years Old, Applies to County for Aid.

Has Two Sons But Doesn't Know Where They Are.

Will Carleton's "Over the Hills to the Poor House" was made true to life this morning when Mrs. Anne Ermine, 78 years old, feeble, tottering and ill, applied to Poor Commissioner Charles Shogran for permission to spend the rest of her days at the county farm. Permission was granted and she went "over the hill" in the farm wagon.

Until a short time ago Mrs. Ermine lived on her farm some miles north of the city. She had lived there many years. The family was never very prosperous, but they managed to eke out an existence on the piece of ground that they had bought long ago.

The husband died. He was very old and for some years before his death he was unable to do much work. Most of the garden work was done by Mrs. Ermine, who was an active women in spite of her years and her life of hard work.

There were two boys. They long since grew up and went away. She knows that it is because they do not know of her condition that she is now compelled to apply for county help. She has lost all track of them. They are the best boys in the world, she says.

For some months past she has been living with relatives on a farm in Wisconsin. Yesterday they sent her to Duluth. She knew there was nothing for her to do but to apply for a place at the poor farm.

When she left her farm it was heavily laden with debt and she knew that it would only be a matter of a short time until the land would be taken over on a mortgage.

The sale of her cow and a few chickens brought money enough to take her to her destination in Wisconsin. She thought if she could get there she would be taken care of until the end came. Her relatives apparently got tired of caring for her and sent her back.

She asked as a special favor of the poor commissioner that he promise not to try to find her sons.

"They probably have all they can do to take care of themselves and it would worry them to think that their old mother was in the poor house," she said.

Herald Market Basket Tomorrow Will Overflow With Good Things.

Watch for The Herald's Market Basket tomorrow. If you have not acquired a real healthy appetite after forty days fasting, a perusal of the market basket will surely make you hungry, for the city's representative provision and meat dealers will publish an especially tempting list of Easter eatables.

There has been, it is claimed, a substantial reduction in the cost of nearly all the things we need for subsistence, as well as the fruits and luxuries, and the Market Basket will tell you where you can purchase economically, yet supply your table with the very best the season affords.

Whether it be groceries, meats, butter, eggs, fruits, vegetables, flour, ice cream, flowers or drinkables, you will need only to look at The Herald's Market Basket tomorrow night to get a line on your Saturday shopping.

GLENDIVE, MONT., JAILBREAK

Glendive, Mont., April 13.—Charles Reinhard and Charles Fleming, self-confessed burglars, effected a comparatively easy escape from the Glendive jail Monday night. The two men had been arrested for a burglary effected near the city limits in broad daylight. They were arrested at Yates on the Montana-North Dakota line, where they attempted to dispose of some of the stolen property.

New Bemidji School Official.

Bemidji, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—At the meeting of the board of education Tuesday evening the matter of appointing a member to succeed A. A. Meiges, who recently moved to Minneapolis, was brought up.

S. J. Harvey was suggested for the position, and his appointment followed.

Compound Callouses

Tells Splendid Cure for Them and All Foot Troubles

A compound callous is the secondary stage when it grows inward and presses on the nerves, causing intense pain. Callouses never cure themselves but always get worse, sometimes irritating the whole nervous system. The following is a most effective and speedy cure.

"Dissolve two tablespoonfuls of Calocide in a basin of hot water. Soak the feet in this for full fifteen minutes, gently massaging the sore parts. (Less time will not give the desired results.) The soreness will disappear immediately and the callous can be easily peeled off. Repeat this for several nights. A little olive oil rubbed into skin is very beneficial.

This Calocide is a very remarkable preparation for all foot ailments. Bunions, corns and ingrown nails get instant relief and are soon cured. Bad smelling and sore feet need but a few treatments. Calocide is no longer confined to doctors' use. Any druggist has it in stock or will quickly get it from his wholesale house. A twenty-five cent package is usually enough to put the worst feet in fine condition. It will prove a blessing to persons who have been vainly trying ineffectual tablets and foot powders.

ORE STRIKE ON CUYUNA

Ore Uncovered at Depth of Thirty Feet on Olmstead Homestead.

Superior and Crosby Men Have Promising Property in New District.

What promises to be another rich strike of ore on the Cuyuna range, has just been made at a depth of only thirty feet.

This strike crosses what is known as the Jack Olmstead homestead, the southeast of the northeast, and the northwest of the southeast of section 18-46-29.

This property was purchased from Mr. Olmstead just after he had received his government patent, by Dr. R. J. Sewall of Crosby. It has always been looked upon as one of the most promising properties on the range.

In 1909 a company was formed with Charles W. Potts of Superior as secretary; Dr. H. J. O'Brien, president; Dr. R. J. Sewall, vice president, and J. T. Murphy, treasurer. The drilling now in progress is being done in conjunction with the Williams-Brown interests whose property adjoins on the east.

Up to the present a surface of thirty feet is the least known on this range, and would appear to put this property in the stripping class, or open pit, as on the Mesaba.

In any case explorations will continue on the property until the width and depth of the ore body, which is known to be a large one is mapped out.

NEW HOUGHTON BUILDINGS.

Odd Fellows and Masons Are Completing Fine Temples.

Houghton, Mich., April 3.—(Special to The Herald.)—Two big, new buildings are being completed in this city. They are the Odd Fellows' temple and the Masonic temple, the first a three-story brick and stone structure and the latter one of four stories. The Odd Fellows of Northern Michigan will gather at Houghton for the dedication of the new Odd Fellows' temple on April 26 and 27. This will be the most notable gathering of Odd Fellows ever held in the northern part of the state. The Masonic temple will be dedicated Sept. 1 and prominent Masons are coming from all over the state and from points in the Northwest outside of Michigan to attend the dedication.

If you want to rent your rooms advertise them in next Saturday's Herald. Hundreds of people are looking for rooms now for the summer. They will be out in force Easter Sunday. 'Phone your ad in now if you cannot come to The Herald office.

WEST END

TWO FACTIONS IN WEST END CLUB

"Insurgents" Meet, "Depose" President and Elect New Officers.

Factions have split up the West End Hillside club and Peter Olson, former Sixth ward alderman, will resign as president of the organization. He said that the regular meeting of the club would be held Friday, May 12, and that his resignation would be officially acted upon at this meeting and in all probability a new officer chosen.

A few of the hillsiders met last evening and in the name of the West End Hillside club declared Mr. Olson deposed and elected new officers. As the meeting was not regularly called and only the one faction was present, Mr. Olson says that he does not recognize this action as amounting to anything but "horse play" and says that he believes that he represents the conservative element of the club.

The split in the club came about as a result of a discussion over the water mains, which will connect the West End Hillside district. A few want the mains laid around via Twelfth street and the boulevard instead of Seventh street, which has been indorsed by the club. The unsatisfied members, says Mr. Olson, got together in secret session and elected officers.

As affairs now stand, the club has two sets of officers. The "insurgents" named Ole Klnn, president; Ole Swenson, vice president; and H. J. Webber, secretary and treasurer. Other members of the club and Mr. Olson, however, do not recognize the new officers as such.

SCHULTZ FUNERAL.

West End Man Had Lived in Duluth Forty-One Years.

Funeral services for August F. Schultz, a Duluth pioneer, aged 72, who died yesterday at his home, 312 South Twenty-eighth avenue west, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Stewart undertaking rooms. Interment will be in Forest Hill cemetery.

Mr. Schultz came to Duluth in 1870 and built a house at the foot of Eighth avenue east, one of the first in the East end. Later he moved to Eighth avenue east and Third street and after that lived at Sixth avenue east and Superior street, where the Fitger Brewery now stands. He then located in the West end.

He was born in Germany in 1839 and came to this country in 1869. The next spring he came to the Head of the Lakes, via Chicago and Houghton, Mich. He worked at the trade of a carpenter for forty years. His wife died sixteen years ago.

Two sons and two daughters survive him. They are Mrs. T. H. Lyons, Miss Minnie Schultz, Henry Schultz of Duluth and Franz Schultz of Chicago. The latter is connected with the publication of a German newspaper. He was at one time connected with the Volksfreund, a German paper published in this city.

Larson Funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. Johanna K. Larson, wife of Nelson Larson, who died Tuesday at her home, 303 Eighteenth-and-a-Half avenue, was held this afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Olson & Crawford undertaking rooms, 2118 West First street, to the Union cemetery. Rev. J. J. Daniels officiated.

Foresters Entertain.

Court Central, No. 161, United Order of Foresters, entertained at a social session with lunch and cards last evening at Columbia hall. There was music and speaking on the evening's program, among the visitors were: John McMurchy of Iron River; J. B. McGilligan of Superior; Mrs. Rachael Duff, Mrs. Voight, Lottie Hatley, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Paul.

West End Briefs.

Special song service will be held Easter Sunday at the First Swedish M. E. church, Twenty-fourth avenue west and Third street. Miss Wilesen will be the soloist. A program for the Sunday school children will be held.

The first of the series of dances to be held this summer under the auspices of the Adams Athletic association will be given this evening at Lincoln park pavilion.

A. B. Anderson of 2615 West Fifth street has returned from a business trip to Minneapolis.

The Epworth League Sewing Circle of the First Norwegian Danish M. E. church will entertain this evening at an experience social at the church, Twenty-fourth avenue west and Third street. A program has been arranged for the occasion.

Mrs. Swaney Nelson is ill at her home, 2212 West Third street.

The funeral of Frank Joseph Demerce, 8-month-old son of Tim Demerce of 2016 West First street, was held this morning at 10:30 o'clock from the St. Jean Baptiste church, Twenty-fifth avenue west and Third street. Interment was in Calvary cemetery.

The Sunday school of the First Swedish Baptist church will hold its Easter Sunday school program at the Swedish temple, Twenty-second avenue west and Third street this evening.

Moya made a spectacular attack on Zecatecas Sunday and then abandoned the fight without having been placed at any great disadvantage, was explained by an unofficial report here yesterday. Moya wanted a small consignment of arms and ammunition which had been delivered at Zecatecas for the federals. He got it. After sending a messenger to the garrison demanding the surrender of the city and after having seen the messenger clamber back upon the long trail to the top of the hill, shot at by the federals, Moya himself led 100 of his 500 men down into the city. The force on the hill was instructed to continue drawing the fire of the garrison, while he and his 100 men went after the arms and ammunition.

What has been described an attack by this little detachment, was really a mad dash across the town to the station where the guns and cartridges were stored. They lost as little time as possible in fighting. It cost them a few men, but they succeeded in getting the guns and ammunition, and after making a detour back to the hill, where the remaining 400 were dutifully sustaining the fire, the order was given to cease firing at about 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

One Conductor Helped Back to Work.

Mr. Wilford Adams is his name, and he writes: "I was confined to my bed with chronic rheumatism and used two bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy with good effect. The third bottle put me on my feet and I resumed work as conductor on the Lexington, Ky., Street Railway. It will do all you claim in cases of rheumatism." It clears the blood of uric acid. LEGAL FIGHT ON DRUG ACT

Johnson was charged with having shipped in interstate commerce drugs which he stated would cure cancer, but which the government claims "were entirely ineffective and worthless for that purpose."

It is claimed on behalf of Johnson that if the law is to be interpreted as forbidding a statement about the curative property of drugs, the act is unconstitutional. Such statements are defended as mere forecasts concerning a future event. Denial is made that they should be regarded as statements of facts. Physicians throughout the country would be in extreme peril, it is claimed by Johnson's attorneys, and would hazard the risk of criminal prosecution by giving any written opinion to their patients or any explanation upon a prescription as to what it was intended to accomplish, where it should become a matter of interstate transportation, if the indictment against Johnson were allowed to stand.

Solicitor General Lehmann, in a brief for the government he has just filed with the court, says that a study of the act shows that congress had in mind striking at false statements regarding the remedial qualities of drugs. He defends the law as constitutional when interpreted to forbid such statements.

He denies that the law so interpreted would reach any physician in the practice of his calling. He declares that the act does not deal with mental healing, with cures by faith or prayer or Christian science, but "with practices."

If you want to rent your rooms advertise them in next Saturday's Herald. Hundreds of people are looking for rooms now for the summer. They will be out in force Easter Sunday. 'Phone your ad in now if you cannot come to The Herald office.

REPUBLICANS SAY PROPOSED FREE LIST BILL IS ILL-ADVISED

to the tariff board, and that Chairman Underwood and his Democratic colleagues on the committee had not sufficient data to show what effect the changes would have.

When the house met, Chairman Underwood submitted the report of the committee. The reciprocity bill will be called up tomorrow for discussion.

Direct Election of Senators.

With the announcement from Representative Underwood that the Democrats were determined before adjournment today to pass a resolution providing for election of senators by direct vote of the people, the house plunged into debate on the proposed constitutional amendment.

Minority Leader Mann asked that the whole subject go over for a day so that members could examine the language of the proposed amendment to the Constitution. The proposal for delay met with no favor on the Democratic side.

"There has been a great deal of talk from the other side about delaying business in this house," said Representative Rucker of Missouri, who had the resolution in charge. "I now invite you gentlemen to do your worst. Lay on MacDuff!"

Mr. Rucker admitted that the report on the resolution had been available for examination only about thirty minutes, but said that the whole subject had been thrashed out time after time for forty years.

MANY LOSE THEIR LIVES IN TORNADO

schoolhouse and the railway station.

The seriously injured were taken in a special train to Tulsa, where they were placed in a hospital. It is believed some of them are fatally hurt.

The telephone wire over which this information was received was in working order only a few minutes and the names of the dead and injured are not obtainable.

Whiting Escapes Injury.

Whiting, Kan., at first reported to have been a severe sufferer, almost escaped injury. Communication with that town was not re-established until today, however, as the tornado did much damage in the farming districts both north and south of there. All rural telephones are out of commission and the extent of the damage in the country is not known.

One person was killed and three seriously injured at Reserve, Kan., a small village in the northern part of the state. Mrs. Fred Stone was killed when her house collapsed. Her two sons were seriously injured. The wind was so severe that it stripped the clothing from Mrs. Stone and her children. Mrs. Roy V. Vernon was seriously hurt when her house was wrecked. The tornado destroyed five houses in Reserve.

Three Killed at Delaware, Okla.

A report received this morning over a private wire was to the effect that three persons were killed and several houses blown down at Delaware, Okla., but no names are obtainable. The same message stated that several houses were destroyed in Ochelata, Okla.

Thirty-two persons were hurt and thirty houses were demolished, the property damage being estimated at $50,000 at Eskridge, Kan. A schoolhouse was destroyed and thirty children were injured, some seriously. Mrs. Claire Rutledge and Daniel Cousins were badly hurt by flying timbers.

At Hiawatha, Kan., one person was killed, four seriously injured and a number slightly hurt.

Jane Petton, aged 7 years, was killed and Laura Browne, a school teacher, Gladys Mellot, William Roberts and a man named Zimmerman were badly hurt.

Twenty-five Dead.

Kansas City, Mo., April 13.—Tornadoes which swept parts of Missouri, Oklahoma, Kansas and Arkansas late yesterday and last night are known to have killed twenty-five persons, injured more than 100, rendered more than 500 homeless and to have done thousands of dollars worth of damage to property. Of the dead only twelve have been identified. The first tornado was reported at Eskridge, Kan., twenty-five miles south of Topeka, at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Here many houses were destroyed and much damage done to crops.

The storm which swept Eskridge, struck Powhattan and Netawaka, Kan., nearby towns, then swept off to the northwest, striking Whiting, Kan., north of Topeka, where sixty houses were demolished. Continuing to the northwest Hiawatha and Manville, Kan., were struck and here three persons were killed and much property damaged.

At 8 o'clock last night a tornado struck Lawrence, Kan., killing two persons, injuring twelve and doing damage estimated at $175,000.

An hour after the first tornado struck Eskridge, Kan., at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon a tornado swept through Oklahoma, parts of Arkansas and Southwest Missouri. Big Heart, Okla., having a population of about 1,000, was the first town struck. Here the storm came suddenly, tearing down houses about the head of the people. Many rushed into the streets only to be knocked down by flying debris and others to their death.

At Big Heart 400 persons are homeless and the work of rescuing the dead and injured from the wreckage was carried on by the light of lanterns.

Throughout the entire territory covered by the tornadoes yesterday great damage was done to crops and it is probable that the total loss caused will not be known for several days.

PEOPLE WILL WATCH FOR IT

Saturday's Herald Will Be Directory for Buyers and Sellers.

Saturday, April 15, The Herald will publish a list of the houses, flats, lots for sale or for rent in the city, farm, mineral or wild lands for sale by Duluth dealers, and rooms for rent throughout the city. It is intended that the Saturday issue will be a directory that will bring together the buyers and sellers, the landlords and tenants, and it will save all parties concerned time, trouble and expense.

If you have any property to sell, or a house, flat or room to rent, don't fail to get it listed in Saturday's Herald. Mail, 'phone or bring the ad to The Herald office before Saturday, if possible, and tell us how many times you want it to appear. One cent a word will cover the cost.

The Saturday issue will also afford a splendid opportunity to find a purchaser if you have any stoves, rugs, pieces of furniture, etc., to dispose of before "moving day." Now is the time to clear the basement and attic of things you have stored away because of no other place to put them. No doubt you have things other people will want and a few cents expense will bring dollars to you. Think it over and 'phone The Herald.

for this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

"What is senate file 912?" asked Senator Schaller, one of the executioners, with a sardonic twinkle in his eye.

The motion had a second, and it was put to the senate by Lieut.-Governor Gordon. There was a fairly respectable number of ayes, followed by a resounding chorus of noes.

"The motion is lost," said Lieutenant Governor Gordon, and the fair form of reapportionment, with its arms folded peacefully on its breast, was laid to rest.

The state-wide primary bill and the recall bill, both passed by the senate, will be up in the house as a special order this afternoon and both will be passed, though doubtless amendments will be added to each that will lay the foundations for an attempt to lose them between the two houses in the closing rush.

The house, before getting down to business this morning, consumed considerable time on motions intended to expedite business. Representative R. C. Dunn offered a resolution limiting speeches to two minutes and providing that, except by unanimous consent, no member could speak more than once on any bill or motion.

Representative Lennon gave notice of debate.

Representative Dunn moved to suspend the rules so that the resolution could be considered at once.

There was a call of the house and then a roll call on the motion to suspend the rules, which failed, 61 to 44, 80 votes being necessary. The resolution went over to Saturday.

The house also indulged itself in a little spat over a motion by Representative Spooner that senate bills on the calendar be disposed of first, so that the senate might be encouraged to hasten consideration of house bills.

Representative O'Neil said that "we should not take off our hats and crawl for the senate," and Representative McNeill called attention to the fact that the senate had voted to not sit Saturday. Nevertheless, the motion was carried.

A miscellaneous appropriation bill, covering items not included in the three omnibus bills, was introduced in both houses and will be considered by the house Saturday and the senate Monday. The bill allows $500 to H. V. Mercer of the workingmen's compensation commission, who asked for $32,000, and a similar amount to W. E. McEwen, who asked about $2,000.

The senate voted this morning that when it adjourns it will be until Monday. A roll call was demanded and the vote was 44 to 17. The house voted to meet at 9 o'clock Saturday morning.

The senate passed the three house bills paying country newspapers for publishing the constitutional amendments last fall, including publications beyond those authorized by law.

The senate also passed Representative Holmberg's bill providing for the consolidation of rural school districts.

STILLMAN H. BINGHAM.

MRS. B. C. BARTLETT PASSES AWAY

Injured in Hinckley Fire—Was Descendent of John Davenport.

Mrs. B. C. Bartlett, aged 69 years, of 912 East Second street, died at the family residence at 7:15 this morning, after an illness of ten days. The decedent leaves a husband, four daughters and three sons. The daughters are: Mrs. Henry H. Myers, Mrs. Douglas C. Moore, Mrs. Spencer S. Rumsey and Miss Clements Bartlett, all of Duluth. The sons are: George D. Bartlett, Hiram S. Bartlett of Duluth, and Thomas W. Bartlett of Washington state. The latter has been notified and the funeral announcements will be made as soon as he can be heard from.

Mrs. Bartlett was a resident of Duluth for over thirty years and leaves a wide circle of friends and acquaintances to mourn her demise.

Her maiden name was Mary A. Davenport and she was a direct descendant of John Davenport, one of the three Englishmen who founded the New Haven colony in Massachusetts in the early days of the country. John Davenport was the first preacher in the colony. Her grandfather was a Revolutionary soldier.

At the time of the great Hinckley fire in 1894, Mrs. Bartlett was in that town and received injuries in making her escape from which she never recovered, and which were indirectly the cause of her death.

MAUNDY THURSDAY SERVICES AT ST. PAUL'S.

Maundy Thursday services will be held this evening at St. Paul's Episcopal church at 7:30 p. m., with the celebration of the Holy Communion and a sermon by Dr. A. W. Ryan on "The Master's Preparation of His Disciples." There will be a full choir and appropriate music.

Tomorrow, Good Friday, services will be held at this church as follows: Morning prayer at 10 o'clock; 12 m. to 3 p. m., the service of commemoration, with addresses on the "Seven Last Words." The general topic will be "The Mysteries of Life and Christ's Sympathy Therewith."

Saturday at 3:30 the baptism service will be conducted for a large number of candidates.

"Worth Its Weight In Gold"

MRS. I. B. ZELLER.

Mrs. I. B. Zeller finds it to be the very best tonic and all around medicine in the world. It cured her of constipation of long standing.

Recently she wrote: "I have used Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for some time with fine results. I find it the best tonic I ever had. I will recommend it to all my friends as the best all-the-way-round medicine I ever had in my house. The main trouble I had, and of which Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey cured me, was constipation. I was compelled to take a laxative every night until I took Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. It has helped me wonderfully, and it is worth its weight in gold." Mrs. I. B. Zeller, Findley, Ohio.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

has been before the pubic for the past fifty years, and its merit has never been questioned. It is the result of years of careful work and is an absolutely pure distillation of sound, clean grain, thoroughly malted. The voluntary testimony received from thousands of our grateful patients is proof positive that it is the greatest known remedy for all throat, lung and stomach troubles. It aids digestion, quickens the heart action, restores health and vigor, makes the old feel young and keeps the young strong and vigorous. It is prescribed by doctors and is recognized as a family medicine everywhere.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is the only whiskey that was taxed by the Government as a medicine during the Spanish-American war.

Sold in SEALED BOTTLES ONLY by druggists, grocers and dealers, or direct, $1.00 a large bottle. Our doctors will send you advice free, together with a valuable illustrated medical booklet.

LOOK BEYOND THE NORTH

Duluth Must Also Make Friends in South, Says W. A. McGonagle.

Annual Election of Commercial Club Directors—Officers Chosen Later.

Co-operation among members of the club and the cultivation of a friendly feeling between Duluth and the farmers and small town dwellers of not only Northern Minnesota, but Southern Minnesota as well, were declared the objects for which the Commercial club must work during the coming year, at the annual meeting of the club last evening. Every speaker touched upon the necessity of co-operation and the necessity of strengthening the bonds that already unite Duluth with the small towns of Northern Minnesota, while W. A. McGonagle declared that the propaganda of friendliness should extend into Southern Minnesota.

"Never in the history of the club has there been such unanimity of purpose as during the past year," declared W. A. McGonagle. "This year we must look beyond the city of Duluth; we must look beyond Northern Minnesota we must go down into Southern Minnesota, where we are misunderstood and must cultivate friends there as we have in Northern Minnesota. We must invade every part of the state and secure friends for Duluth and its institutions. We can have as good friends in Southern Minnesota as in the North when they understand that Duluth is for all of Minnesota and not for itself alone."

"The passage of the demonstration farm bill is the first article of Northern Minnesota's declaration of independence," declared C. P. Craig, and the crowd cheered. Mr. Craig pointed out that the work of the Commercial club should not end with the securing of the demonstration farm, but that the club should lend its hearty support to the working out of the project and to the extension of its work.

Mr. Craig pointed out that Duluth should keep at home the money it spends for produce. He said that if people raised produce for market they would have more to spend for other articles of food and the retail stores would not suffer by the fact that people raised the vegetables for their own tables.

Mr. Craig said that Dean Woods has expressed the hope that the Duluth demonstration farm school will be the largest institution of the kind in the state, outside of the parent school at St. Anthony's park. That result can be brought about, he said, and he urged the members of the club to lend their assistance.

Directors Elected.

The annual election of directors yesterday resulted in the election of C. A. Luster, Bentley P. Neff, J. A. Ferguson, W. J. McCabe and James Maney. Mr. Luster and Mr. Ferguson succeed themselves.

The total vote at the election was 253, the vote for the different candidates being: C. A. Luster, 233; J. A. Ferguson, 220; James Maney, 214; B. P. Neff, 239; W. J. McCabe, 196; B. Silberstein, 83, and P. E. McCormack, 51.

In reporting to the club, Mr. Luster said that the general activities of the club had been covered fully in the annual report of Chairman McGonagle of the public affairs committee, submitted the previous evening. Mr. Luster touched upon the finances and membership. He said that financially the club was in much better shape than the previous year, while the membership had not grown as expected. He said that the members should conduct a campaign for new members and bring the club to such a point that its membership would exceed that of the commercial organizations of St. Paul and Minneapolis, despite the difference in population.

Charles S. Mitchell made a happy little speech. He is always a booster and he didn't deviate from his set course last night. He pointed out that the cost of living had gone down in the last year and, "anyway," he said, "if the cost of living were ten times as high as it is and you had to go in debt every month, you ought to be glad to live in Duluth." He urged the cultivation of friendly relations with the small towns and said that the big cities of the state have merited the hostility now being shown them by "swiping" every industry the small towns could get and playing the selfish part at all times. He urged Duluthians to show the right spirit at the meeting of the Northern Minnesota Development association here and to prove to the delegates that Duluth is their friend.

Stephen H. Jones, president of the Duluth Curling club, said that the curling club building project is not exclusively for the club. He said the big rink will be provided with a sectional floor that may be laid in the summer to give accommodations for conventions and other big gatherings. It will be possible to seat 7,500 people, he said, and an auditorium that Duluth has sadly needed, will be provided. Mr. Jones said that it will be necessary to call upon citizens for investment when the building project is taken up and that the enterprise should be regarded as a public matter when that time comes.

B. P. Neff thanked the club members for his election to the directorate and P. E. Dowling made a boosting talk. "Smokes" and a musical program completed the evening's entertainment.

The directors will elect the club president Friday or Saturday of this week.

A Reliable Medicine—Not a Narcotic.

Mrs. F. Marti, St. Joe, Mich., says: "Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in which I have great faith. It cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells, and he got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house." All druggists.

GIVEN $100 FOR BALKING SUICIDE

Fargo, N. D., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—For making two heroic descents head foremost into a deep well to rescue an attempted suicide, a Minneapolis man sent a young man named Olson of Oriska, a check for $100. Olson's act has also been reported to the Carnegie hero commission and he may get a medal and cash.

Miss Schmidt, a domestic, was despondent and jumped into a well in an effort to commit suicide. Olson's first effort at rescue failed, but he succeeded in bringing her to the surface in the second attempt, though his efforts in that unnatural position caused serious hemhorrages in the head. After going to her home, it is asserted Miss Schmidt made a second unsuccessful suicidal effort with a rope.

PINE RIVER NEEDS MORE SCHOOL ROOM

Voters to Decide April 22 Whether Additional Building Shall Be Built.

Pine River, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—A special meeting of the voters of School District No. 1 has been called for April 22, to decide whether Pine River shall have a new schoolhouse to be erected during the coming summer.

The present building is so overcrowded that a woodshed has been placed beside the building in which one of the primary departments is housed comprising over fifty small pupils. A number of children who would like to attend school have been debarred by reason of no room. If the new building is allowed according to plans it will be a high school and will draw $500 more state aid annually than has been received by the district heretofore.

WILL END WORK WITH BANQUET

Scottish Rite Masons Have Had a Strenuous Week Working Degrees.

Scottish Rite Masons of Northern Minnesota will meet at the local Masonic temple tonight for their annual Maundy Thursday banquet.

The banquet winds up the work of conferring the degrees to a large class, which is taking the Scottish Rite work. The thirty-second degree will be conferred on the class just before the banquet.

Plaaten's full orchestra has been engaged to furnish the music at the banquet and T. W. Hugo will deliver the address of the evening.

Last year there were more than 400 at the Maundy Thursday banquet and this year it is expected that there will be at least 100 more than last year.

It is the big event of the year for Scottish Rite Masons.

EASTER SUNDAY

WE DON'T know just why, but for some reason—perhaps custom—we all aim to be well dressed, particularly so on Easter Sunday. We do not pose as weather prophets, but we feel that the sun is going to shine on Easter morn. Are you going to feel uncomfortable and out of place, sort of "not in it" feeling wearing your old clothes?

Get in the "Parade" Sunday morning. You can do it if you get real busy Friday and if that is impossible—then Saturday. —You Don't Have to Pay Cash.

LAND OPEN FOR SETTLEMENT

Tract Near Cass Lake Will Soon Be Given to Settlers.

Nearly 30,000 acres of cut over land located near Cass Lake will soon be open for settlement.

Capt. William O'Neil of Cass Lake, superintendent of logging on the Chippewa Indian reservations, was at the St. Louis yesterday. While here he made the announcement that some time before May 10 he will file notice with the United States land office at Cass Lake that the land is ready for settlement.

Homeseekers will not be forced to stand in line to get their land. As soon as the notice is served a settler may make immediate settlement and file at the land office later. This system has been found to work better than the old system which kept people in line before the land office doors for days and weeks before the opening.

Descriptions of the land to be opened for settlement may be had on application of Mr. O'Neil at Cass Lake.

In addition to the land to be opened near Cass Lake a larger tract of about 7,000 acres will be opened some time this summer near Cloquet. Filings on this land may be made at the local land office.

ATTORNEY BEING TRIED.

Anoka Man Alleged to Have Taken Woman's Money.

Anoka, Minn., April 13.—The trial of F. S. Stewart, a local attorney, alleged to have appropriated $2,000 he claims to have borrowed from Mrs. Mary Savage, is being held in the district court.

Judge Dickinson of Minneapolis is presiding. Frank White of Elk River is acting as county attorney. Stewart is represented by Attorneys Blanchard, Coleman and Wyman, all of Anoka. Some important new evidence in favor of the defendant is said to have been secured.

TRIPLETS ARE BORN.

To Chippewa Falls Woman Who Herself Is a Twin.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., April 13.—Mrs. W. L. Chown, formerly Miss Leiner of St. Paul, who was married there a year ago next summer to a machinist in the Soo shops here, has presented her husband with triplets, two girls and a boy.

They look exactly alike, they were weighed, the girls weighing 4½ and 5½ pounds each and the boy 5½ pounds. Mrs. Chown was a twin herself.

SHADES OF MAXWELL! WHO COOKED UP THIS FOUL PLOT?

It depends on the point of view.

Out in Woodland they tell you that Lakesiders have seen the light and that they have finally come to the fountain head of wisdom. As proof of this assertion they point to the fact that C. E. Roe of Woodland will speak before the Lakeside club next Friday night in the town hall on "How to Make a Garden." Shades of Maxwell! What will it then avail a Lakesider to grow big potatoes? Roe will get the credit.

In Lakeside you will hear that Mr. Roe will discuss agriculture, of course, but that no true Lakesider need follow Woodland methods of farming because a successful Woodland gardener is about to invade the Lakeside camp and spread the Woodland propaganda.

So that the faithful may not be led away by the eloquence of the visitor, A. H. Crasweller of Lakeside will speak, also. He will tell how to make a garden, not in Woodland, but in Lakeside.

Several of his Woodland friends will accompany Mr. Roe to the lair of the enemy and will engage Lakesiders in argument in an endeavor to prove to them that the only garden spot on earth is north and east of Congdon park and not east and south of it.

EXPERT SWIMMER DROWNS; LAND LUBBER IS SAVED.

Neenah, Wis., April 13.—While rowing a scow, Frank Omachinski, aged 29 years, was drowned Tuesday night when the craft capsized. His brother, Henry, got to shore, and later assisted in recovering the corpse. Henry had never been able to swim, while the drowned man was an expert swimmer and diver.

Shoots Owner of Bed.

Sioux Falls, S. D., April 13.—Charles Davis, better known as "Tennessee" Davis, a homesteader in the ceded portion of the Rosebud reservation in Tripp county, has been lodged in jail on the charge of shooting with intent to kill Alvah Peterson, an employe of a restaurant at Colone. The shooting resulted from Davis' objection to being forced to surrender the bed in Peterson's room in which he had settled himself for the night in his intoxicated condition, making a mistake and taking Peterson's room instead of his own.

Instant Relief from Neuralgia

Sloan's Liniment has a soothing effect on the nerves. It gives instant relief for neuralgia or sciatica.

This Week's Sunday School Lesson

WRITTEN FOR THE HERALD BY REV. J. S. KIRTLEY, D. D.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON, APRIL 16. John xx, 1-81 The Resurrection Morn.

FOREWORD.

We leave our Old Testament studies and find a lesson for Easter in the Gospel of John. Jesus lay in the grave from Friday afternoon till Sunday morning, one whole day and parts of two days. According to the Jewish method of reckoning time, the parts of days were called days. No one of his friends expected him to rise, though he had told them, again and again, He would. His enemies heard of His teaching on that point, and were afraid His disciples would steal the body and claim a resurrection. So they did two things to prevent it, secured the grave, both with a stone and with the king's seal, and set soldiers to watch, whose life would be the forfeit for sleeping or being overcome by enemies. Because the disciples doubted so persistently, the proof was made abundant.

THE LESSON.

I.

The Empty Tomb. 1-10.

"Now on the first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, while it was yet dark, unto the tomb, and seeth the stone taken away from the tomb. She runneth therefore, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we know not where they have laid Him. Peter therefore went forth, and the other disciple, and they went toward the tomb. And they ran both together; and the other disciple outran Peter, and came first to the tomb; and stooping and looking in, he seeth the linen cloths lying; yet entered he not in. Simon Peter therefore also cometh, following him, and entered into the tomb; and he beholdeth the linen cloths lying, and the napkin, that was upon his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself. Then entered in therefore the other disciple also, who came first to the tomb, and he saw, and believed. For as yet they knew not the scripture, that He must rise again from the dead. So the disciples went away again into their own home."

1. DEATH.—It was not a swoon. He gave up the ghost. The soldier's spear tested and proved the fact. The manner of His burial prevented imposture on the part of Himself and His disciples. No one was ever more completely proven dead. And he was accounted dead by all His friends. They never expected to see Him alive again.

2. WOMEN.—It was a remarkable proof of their devotion that some of them watched the shocking and sickening sight of the crucifixion and agony and death. It was still further proof, when they watched the burial, so as to embalm the body, after the Sabbath was past. A new problem presented itself, as they approached the tomb — how they should get it opened, a problem that was already solved, to their surprise. Their persistence attracts us. Even with the open grave they did not yet think of His resurrection. Their only explanation was that the body had been stolen for further mistreatment, or to be placed in a permanent tomb. But their devotion persists, especially that of Mary Magdalene. Perhaps she did not know why she went rushing off to tell the men, but she was impulsively forwarding God's own purposes. For those hurried steps were forging a link in the chain of revelations to the disciples. While she was gone, the other women lingered in the vicinity of the tomb, and that was another link.

3. AWAKENING.—Woman was "last at the cross and first at the tomb," but a man was the first to recognize the resurrection fact. It was John, Mary's message started them, at full speed, for the tomb. Being the younger, he outran Peter. Evidently the great fact seized his mind, when he saw the condition of the tomb and he reverently remained outside, even though Peter came up and pushed his way in. In writing about it, John says he "saw and believed." Through three things his mind was completely convinced—the teachings of the scriptures, the words of Jesus illuminating them and the evidence of his own eyes.

II.

Appearance to Mary, 11-16.

"But Mary was standing without at the tomb, weeping; so, as she wept, she stooped and looked into the tomb; and she beholdeth two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain. And, they say unto her, woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord and I know not where they have laid Him. When she had thus said, she turned herself back, and beholdeth Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus. Jesus saith unto her, woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou hast borne Him hence, tell me where thou hast laid Him, and I will take Him away. Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turneth herself, and saith unto Him in Hebrew, Rabboni; which is to say, teacher."

1. RESTORATION. — Jesus has a task on hand, to restore Himself to the disciples, in a way to establish His identity and recover them from their despair. He began at the right point, with Mary—the acutest agony, because of what she had received from Him, and the most efficient helper in spreading the news. Grief had dazed, though it had not crazed her. Her devotion deserved special recognition.

2. BLINDNESS.—We really wonder at her blindness and her persistence, in spite of it. Even when the angels spoke, she did not feel alarmed. She failed to know Him and thought He was the gardener, and that the body had been taken from a borrowed tomb to a permanent place, though at first, she must have suspected violence. There was much needed to open her eyes, and the kindly wisdom of Jesus accomplished it by pronouncing her name with the old accents. The gardener did not know the name nor did he have that voice. Her reply shows the exalted mood into which she was instantly swept, in spite of the past.

III.

Mary's New Commission. 17-18.

"Jesus saith to her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended unto the Father; but go unto My brethren, and say to them, I ascend unto My Father and your Father, and My God and your God. Mary Magdalene cometh and telleth the disciples, I have seen the Lord; and that He had said these things unto her."

Two truths are taught us strikingly in these words to her. The first is that he is restored to them in the permanent spiritual relationship, that was not to be tested by the physical touch. It was not necessary to hold on to Him in a physical way, for fear He would escape. He will not allow the disciples to enjoy Him in that way, any more. When the process of change in His body is complete, she will know Him in a spiritual way.

The other truth is that one who has knowledge of Him has a special mission to others. Happiness comes from helping; conviction from communicating. The message she bears is what we hear—that He is our Brother and God our Father, into Whose presence, He has gone on in advance of us.

WHAT THE MASTERS SAY.

The risen Christ lingered on earth long enough to fully satisfy His adherents of the truth of His resurrection. They were not easily convinced. The apostles treated the reports of the holy women with scornful incredulity. Thomas doubted the testimony of the other apostles; and some of the 500, to whom He appeared on the Galilean mountain, doubted their own eyesight, and only believed when they heard His voice. The loving patience with which He treated those doubters showed that, though His bodily appearance was somewhat changed, He was still the same in heart as ever. This was practically shown, too, by the places which He visited in His glorified form. They were the old haunts, where He had prayed and preached, labored and suffered.—Stalker.

The resurrection is not an isolated event in history, but at once the end and beginning of vast developments of life and thought; the climax of a long series of divine dispensations which find in it their complement and explanation; it has formed the startling point of all progressive modern society, ever presenting itself in new lights according to the immediate wants of the age. Taking all the evidence together, it is not too much to say that there is no single historic incident better or more variously supported than the resurrection of Christ. —Westcott.

PERTINENT QUESTIONS.

1. Are our mental difficulties as great as our moral?
2. What is the greatest service of memory to us?
3. What is the one greatest proof of Christ's literal resurrection?
4. Why has Christ a special claim on women?
5. Why does the integrity of our Christian lives depend on telling others?
6. What is the value of prompt obedience to all of Christ's commands?
7. What is the secret of modern disbelief of the resurrection of Christ?

SILENT TRIBUTE TO TOM JOHNSON

Hundreds of Thousands Stand With Bared Heads as Funeral Cortege Passes.

Cleveland, Ohio, April 13.—Braving the chilly winds and drizzling rain, a throng of persons estimated at from 150,000 to 200,000 stood in the streets late yesterday and paid silent tribute to the memory of Tom L. Johnson, as his body was conveyed from the family apartments to the union depot. The train bearing the family party departed at 6:10 o'clock last evening and will arrive in New York at 9:11 o'clock this morning.

Rev. Charles R. Cooley, a lifelong friend of Mr. Johnson, officiated at the brief funeral services in the family apartments yesterday afternoon. At the grave in Greenwood cemetery, Brooklyn, he will deliver a short address and a prayer.

The simple funeral cortege consisted of the hearse and the mourning party in four carriage, preceded by a squad of mounted policemen.

Long before the cortege started the streets were lined with people. As the procession passed down the streets, the men removed hats while women bowed heads. Flags at half-mast floated from the buildings, and in store windows pictures of the former mayor were displayed draped in black and the Stars and Stripes. For five minutes, during which time the cortege passed the city hall, where Mr. Johnson had so long presided, most of the downtown stores suspended business. The courts were adjourned and municipal business generally was suspended.

Hundred of floral tributes were received at the Johnson apartments from far and near, among them being designs from the Cuyahoga county Democracy, the Detroit, Mich., fire department, the Cleveland newsboys and the state Democratic committee.

The movement for a memorial was given further impetus yesterday when, at a meeting of the city council, plans for a new city playground to be known as "Johnson park," were discussed. Mayor William B. Thompson of Detroit, and Mayor Herman Baehr of Cleveland addressed the meeting.

ARRANGING THE COMMITTEES

Senate Assignments Are Being Prepared By Leaders.

Washington, April 13.—The Republican and Democratic committees appointed to arrange the senate committee assignments for the present congress began business in earnest yesterday by holding separate meetings and taking up the preliminary details of the work.

In the readjustment of committees, arranged by Senators Gallinger and Martin in behalf of the two parties, the committee on agriculture has been increased from thirteen to sixteen members, the Democratic membership being enlarged from five to seven and Republicans from eight to nine. The appropriations committee is increased from thirteen to seventeen, the Republican representation being made ten instead of eight and Democratic seven instead of five. The commerce committee membership continues seventeen but one member is taken from the Republican column and transferred to the Democratic, giving the Democrats seven instead of six. Finance and foreign relations are both increased from fourteen to fifteen membubs, the Democratic representation being enlarged from five to six in each case. Interstate commerce jumps from thirteen to sixteen members, the Democrats increasing from five to seven and the Republicans from eight to nine. The judiciary committee is increased from fifteen to sixteen, the Democrats getting the additional member, making their representation seven.

The naval committee, composed of only eleven members, seven Republicans and four Democrats, will have the Democrats six and the Republicans eight. There will be seven instead of five Democrats on the postoffice committee, the Republican representation of nine being unchanged.

Dies of Rare Disease.

Philadelphia, April 13.—After three years' illness from a disease so rare that it is said to have been the nineteenth case in the history of medicine, James M. Rhodes, Jr., known socially and a former guard on the Princeton football team, died yesterday at Villa Nova, near here. The disease is known to physicians as elastomycotes, and is manifested by a malignant vegetable growth which attaches to the intestines.

ONLY ONE "BEST"

Duluth People Give Credit Where Credit Is Due.

People of Duluth who suffer with sick kidneys and bad backs want a kidney remedy that can be depended upon. The best is Doan's Kidney Pills, a medicine for the kidneys only, made from pure roots and herbs, and the only one that is backed by cures in Duluth. Here's Duluth testimony:

J. E. Watts, 918 Tenth Ave. W., Duluth, Minn., says: "I gladly verify the public statement I gave in 1908, regarding Doan's Kidney Pills. I had an attack of backache and lamenes in my loins which obliged me to stop work. There was so much pain in my kidneys that I could not bend over and I was so that the least movement made me miserable. I tried different remedies, but nothing helped me until I used Doan's Kidney Pills. They acted like a charm, and it would have been impossible for me to have obtained better results. Since then I have always kept Doan's Kidney Pills on hand and they have helped me when I have taken them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

SWINDLED IN CARD GAME

Victim Afraid to Report Case —Police Arrest Two Suspects.

Charged with having swindled Jacob Sunderland, a Chicago Bay farmer out of $200 in a "big mitt" game in a Lake avenue saloon Monday morning, Gus Brown and Andrew McCarthy, alias A. A. Gunderson, were arrested yesterday afternoon by Detectives Schulte and Irvine in a downtown saloon.

The police believe that the men are crooks of the strong arm variety who make a practice of preying on ignorant woodsmen and farmers, and the capture is considered a feather in the caps of the detectives who rounded them up. They are suspected of having robbed several other "suckers" since they have been in the city.

When the police searched the room in which the two had been living, on First street near Second avenue east, they found a complete crook's outfit. There were a number of locks, used in what is known as the lock swindle, which has caught "rubes" all over the country; a bundle of blank bank checks, which are filled out for big sums to make the "sucker" believe he is with a man who has plenty of money; and a bottle of "knockout drops," which will lay a victim out as unconscious as though he had been chloroformed by a physician. The finding of this stuff satisfied the authorities beyond a doubt that they had a pair of bad men in custody, who may be wanted in other parts of the country and who undoubtedly have past records.

Sunderland came to the city Monday morning on a north shore steamer to buy a horse with the $200, intending to go back on the next boat. While he was standing about on the docks, seemingly uncertain as to what to do first, he was approached by Brown, it is stated, who said that he was a Swede named Gunderson. He suggested that they talk over things in the Old Country for a while, and steered Sunderland into a saloon a short distance up the avenue. Sunderland refused a drink on the grounds that he never indulged, and then his new found friend invited him into the backroom, where they wouldn't be bothered.

Begin Card Game.

In a few minutes they had a "sociable" game started. Shortly after they started to play Brown's pal, supposed to be McCarthy came in. He wanted to "sit in" and was not refused. Pretty soon Sunderland drew four aces. Brown threw his hand into the discard, but McCarthy held his up. Brown urged Sunderland to bet all he had on his four aces. He put up $100. Then he loaned Brown $100, in order that he might also get some of McCarthy's money. As soon as they had Sunderland's roll in sight the crooks stuffed it into their pockets. McCarthy didn't even take the trouble to show Sunderland his hand. He made his getaway at once. Sunderland went with Brown, who was going to cash a check for $600 in order to repay Sunderland his loan of $100. He excused himself to go to a telephone, and that was the last Sunderland saw of either of them.

Afraid to "Squeal."

The crooks had so impressed him with the danger of letting the police know that he had been in a poker game, that he was afraid to report his loss. He ran across Sheriff Carhart of Cook county on the street and recounted his experience to him. The police were notified and given a description of the two swindlers, who were picked up yesterday afternoon.

The two are supposed to be the same men who relieved John Hamerin, a woodsman, of $75 the latter part of last month. He was also in a card game with them in a backroom and had shifted his wallet from his trousers to his coat pocket for safe keeping. One of them is thought to have taken it during the game. Hamerin reported his loss, stating that one of the men had the third finger off. Brown is minus part of that member, and the police think that there is little doubt but that he is one of the men who got Hamerin's cash.

The saloon keeper in whose place Sunderland lost his money identified the two men as having been in his place playing cards with Sunderland Monday. Sunderland left for home yesterday afternoon, but he will be brought back to Duluth to appear against Brown and McCarthy.

MILLIONAIRE AND WIFE NOT HAPPY

A. S. WHITE.

Archibald S. White and his beautiful wife are not happy in spite of the millions they have to spend, if reports from Paris and Cincinnati are to be believed. Mr. White is in Cincinnati attending to his gas business and Mrs. White is in Paris studying music. Mrs. White was Olive Moore, sister of C. E. Moore, the well-known Cincinnati business man. Mr. White is quoted as saying that they have agreed to a divorce for which Mrs. White is to sue.

INDICTMENTS QUASHED.

First of Election Fraud Cases at Danville, Ill., Dismissed.

Danville, Ill., April 13.—In the first of the alleged election fraud cases resulting from the recent grand jury probe, indictments for perjury against City Attorney Frank W. Jones and Peter Sanichas, a Greek merchant and politician, were quashed yesterday by Circuit Judge Schofield. Following arguments of two and a half hours and citing of supreme court decisions, the court held the indictments insufficient in several particulars.

Jesse Proctor, indicted for alleged bribery in the "wet" and "dry" election a year ago, was found not guilty, the court instructing the jury to find for the defendant, the principal witness for the state testifying Proctor was not the right man, it being a case of mistaken identity.

Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Mrs. Jackson Hadley, Esopus, N. Y., writes:

"It is with the greatest pleasure I write this. For years I have suffered terribly with kidney and bladder trouble. The pain in my back by spells was so great I could scarcely stand on my feet, and such terrible headaches and pain around my heart, and was so nervous all the time that life seemed a burden to me.

"I paid out a great many dollars, both for doctors and patent medicines, and no benefit only for the time.

"One day, looking through a Peruna almanac, I saw how many had been benefited by using Peruna. I followed directions, and after taking four bottles of Peruna can stand on my feet and work all day with comfort. The pain in my back and head has entirely left me, and I am not so nervous, and can say I am completely cured from all kidney trouble."

Internal Catarrh.

Mrs. M. E. Seymour, R. F. D. 2, Bowman, Georgia, writes:

"I am ready to speak a few words in favor of Peruna and Manalin.

"I have tried them for nearly every ill of life for myself and family, and find them to be all the doctor claims them to be. Peruna cured me of internal catarrh when my doctor could not."

Headache and Weak Back.

Mrs. Emma Green, 1040 Kalamath St., Denver, Col., writes:

"Peruna has been a great blessing to me. I suffered agonies with severe headaches and a weak back and could hardly drag myself around.

"A friend who was visting me was taking Peruna for the same trouble and induced me to try it. I soon found that I was being helped and in less than three weeks I felt like a different woman and in four months I was well. Peruna certainly gave me strength.

"I consider it an ideal woman's remedy."

Systemic Catarrh.

Mrs. Augusta Pauline Ochs, R. F. D. 2, North English, Iowa, writes:

"I took Peruna over three years. I suffered from systemic catarrh and had pains in my right side so I could hardly do my housework.

"I am 66 years old, and am now doing all my housework. I am in the best of health and cannot thank The Peruna Medical Department enough for their good advice and medicine."

WOMAN'S REALM.

Duluth women will be interested in the work being done in Detroit to suppress cheap and trashy songs as it bears directly on the work which has been taken up recently here by the Women's Council in the supervision of theaters and other places of amusement. The council has appointed a committee of twelve with Mrs. Marvin as chairman to watch all places of amusement and to do what they can to better conditions.

Detroit has been carrying on the same kind of campaign and the following from the Detroit Journal gives some ideas expressed by Miss Jennie Stoddard, a well-known musician of that city:

"'Be my sweetheart, hug and squeeze,
kiss and tease, do.
Say you will, now, don't be bashful,
I'll be loving, tender and true;
Call me dearie.
If you care, you will dare Sue,
We'll be happy, just we two;
Come, be my sweetheart.'

"Songs of this kind are responsible largely for the growing depravity of boys and girls in Detroit and other large cities, according to Miss Jennie M. Stoddard, well known in local musical circles, who yesterday addressed the Northwestern Women's club on 'The Ethical Value of Music,' incidentally attacked some of the 'best sellers' as having a vicious tendency and held up the musical numbers given in cheap theaters and dance halls as lowering to the moral tone of hearers.

"She read several other songs of the same standard.

Childhood Innocence Gone.

"'The belief is the innocence of children to which some of us have clung,' said Miss Stoddard, 'has proved to be an illusion and must be relegated to the garret with other old-fashioned things.

"'Among the causes suggested for the depravity of youth not once has music been mentioned, but may it not have played its part?

"'The youth of our city in masses are allowed the freedom of the cheap theaters and dance halls. In all these places there is music and that not of the highest type.

"'Musicians are apt to consider so-called popular music with contempt, but do they realize that this is the music that is largely forming the musical taste of the growing generation. In how many homes where the older people are lovers of the best do we find sheets of music whose gaudy title pages proclaim their standing in the musical world as the painted denizen of the half world advertises her social standing? What do the young people play and sing when they gather around the piano of an evening?

"'Nor is this a wholesale denunciation of popular music.

Sacred Things Ridiculed.

"'There are many popular songs which are tender in sentiment and pure in thought, but, alas, these are the exception. The majority of the songs heard in the cheap theaters and for sale on the counters of our music stores are either sentmental drivel or something infinitely worse. There is nothing in life, no matter how pure or sacred, that is not made a target for the shafts of ridicule.

"'Going into a music store recently I asked the clerk for some of the best sellers, saying that I did not want the most extreme ones. The three verses quoted are among those which were shown to me.

"'To the mature mind songs of this character are either disgusting or simply funny, according to our viewpoint. But what about the immature minds into which such sentiments are being driven home by both eye and ear?

"'The opera 'Salome' gave rise to many songs whose title pages were so suggestive and words so immoral that they could not be exposed on the counters for sale.

"'Who can doubt that the moral tone of those who listen constantly to this sort of music is being lowered and vulgarized?

"'Mothers should see that the popular music in the home is clean in sentiment and harmless in suggestion.'

"Miss Stoddard is director of the Chaminade quartet of women, director of the Tuesday musicale chorus and formerly was secretary of the Tuesday musicale. She is well known as a singing teacher."

"The Pink Lady" Is Latest Fad of New York Theater-Goers

HAZEL DAWN IN "THE PINK LADY."

Hazel Dawn is the name of the particularly pulchritudinous pink person who is now at the New Amsterdam theater in New York, appearing in a musical comedy called "The Pink Lady." The play which has been running only a week, is one of the successes of the New York season, and much of its attractiveness is in the prettiness of Hazel Dawn.

Hints for the Boudoir

By MILDRED WYCKOFF.

Care of the Nails.

Few people who are in the habit of cleaning their finger nails with a knife realize that the practice is harmful for two reasons. The knife increases the space between the nail and the flesh, thus affording more room for the dirt to lodge; it also scratches and roughens the inner surface of the nail and makes it more prone to catch any dirt that may come into contact with it.

Added to this there is a danger that the delicate skin commonly known as the "quick," may be pierced and poisoning may easily begin from just such a small wound. The great naturalist, Frank Buckland, had a serious attack from skinning a poisonous snake after having cleaned his nails in this way. A brush and soap and water should be enough to remove any dirt.

The skin on the back of the nail at the root should be kept back by an ivory pressere, not a knife, but if you get into the habit of pressing the skin down with the towel whenever you wash your hands it will give little trouble. Where this skin has a tendency to break at the sides and form "hand nails" or "back friends," as they are popularly called, a little vaseline or glycerine should be used regularly after washing at night.

Enlarged Pores and Blackheads.

"Could you please tell me what will cure enlarged pores on my temples, nose and cheeks, and also something to cure blackheads?" asks "Allie."

You must first remove the blackheads before attempting to close up the pores. Bathe them in hot water, then apply a little cold cream. Let this remain on for ten minutes, then wipe off with an old linen rag. Again bathe the blackheads with hot water, then cover thumb and forefinger with an old linen rag and gently squeeze them out.

It may be necessary to repeat this treatment two or three evenings in succession if the blackheads are very stubborn. When the blackheads are removed bathe the face in warm water, then rinse in cold water to which a few drops of simple tincture of benzoin have been added. This will help to close the pores. Always make a point of rinsing your face in cold water, and you will not be troubled with enlarged pores.

Dark Stain on Neck.

"I have a dark stain round my neck just where the collar rubs. Will you tell me how to remove it?" asks "Betty."

Wash the stain in hot water and a good soap, then rub it well with warm water and ammonia in the proportion of one quart of water to twelve drops of ammonia. This will soon remove the stain.

Saving on a Small Scale

By HARRIET PRESCOTT SPOFFORD.

In the matter of small savings and watchfulness of expenditure the English housewife is ahead of us. For example, the English housekeeper deals out to her servants the week's allowance of sugar, rice, flour, coffee, and all other household provision that is kept in quantity, and requires an account of it all to be rendered, the thing having been brought to so fine a point that she knows the exact amount of each article requisite for her family, allowing so much to each individual, and that quantity being sufficient, as she knows by experience; two ounces of tea, for instance, being regarded as a week's supply for each single individual, one-half pound of sugar, three and one-half pounds of meat for a woman and five and one-quarter for a man—facts which the housekeeper probably learned from her mother before her—knowing, moreover, that the greater variety of food offered diminishes the quantity of the simpler kinds required.

All of these stores she sets down in her housekeeping book as she gives them out, and she does not fail on the next dispensing day to consult her dates, and if anything be left over in the cook's hands not accounted for, to subtract that from the amount to be newly issued. And in England servants expect this; so far from being indignant with it, they would feel as if there were no guiding hand behind them were it left undone, and they given their head in an overflowing storeroom, as servants are with us.

In fact, there is no saving which the housewife across the water considers too small to practice, or as beneath her dignity; and when we shall have followed her example in her pet economies more generally than we follow it at present, we shall have more right and more ability to indulge ourselves in our pet extravagances otherwise.

OVER THE WIRE

By W. Douglas Newton.

When Allan Reich had gone, Helen discovered that, after all, she had been rather stupid. She stood quietly by the window of the flat and thought over the matter, and presently she had to admit it to herself.

When she asked Allan to call that afternoon it had been with the full understanding that it was for one reason, and one only. He was to propose to her. She had even set out the plans of the little episode with some thought.

Her aunt and Sidonie were to be out, and Dolphine, the maid, had instructions to be discreet. She wore the biscuit-colored gown that suited her so perfectly, and the time she had passed at the dressing table had been of unreasonable duration.

And after all, she had refused him. She frowned as she looked across the park as she thought this, and her own strange waywardness astonished her.

It was not that she did not know her own mind. She had considered this marriage from every practical and sensible standpoint; given it a vast amount of thought. And only after that had she decided to accept Allan. Argument found him so eminently eligible—and then she loved him tremendously also.

"No wonder they call us 'the capricious sex,'" she told herself. "And I considered myself above all that sort of thing."

For strangely she knew quite well why she had refused Allan Reich in this fantastical manner. She knew that at the moment he had told her of his love a wave of revulsive feeling had swept over her, and for that moment her whole nature had risen up powerfully against him, loathed him—and it was in that instant that the stupid mischief had been accomplished.

Allan had been as likeable and as lovable as ever. He had come to her exhibiting every symptom of eagerness and affection. The afternoon with him had been a pleasant one. The gradual approach, the slow leading up to the supreme moment of the visit, the moment of formal proposal had been delicately and suavely handled by them both.

Not a jarring note anywhere. Of course, there was no tangible reason for that sudden gust of sensation. She could account for it in no way. She was able to remember that she had experienced a somewhat similar emotion once before with regard to him.

When she had met him for the first time the revulsive feeling had touched her then, but it had never recurred until now.

The nature of Allan Reich was one that possessed so much that was likeable, so much that was the essence of kindness, manhood and honor.

"Pah!" she said, as she looked out at the window, "there is no explanation. It was stupid and foolish of me. How irrational a woman is, and how I hate myself."

But in strict reality she did not hate herself. She felt only that she had postponed an event. That Allan would ask her to marry him again. He knew that a woman's "No" was not a final thing.

Then it was she remembered with a gasp of pain that on this occasion at least it might prove to be a final word. She recollected suddenly that as he left her Allan had said he would leave the country; that it would be distasteful after this. He would go abroad and at once.

At once. The words had a terrible significance, and the abrupt sense of utter loss came almost too painful to be borne without crying out. She shuddered at the pang of it.

"Oh, no," she cried. He mustn't go away. Frantically she searched in her thoughts for a means to prevent his going. "He must not go away," she argued. "But how can I—" And she thought of the telephone. She ran to it, and rung up Allan's home.

She would not let the valet call Allan. He was in his rooms packing, so the man told her over the wire, but she felt she could not speak to him now.

"No," she cried. "Do not call him. Say that Miss Herbertson wishes him to call at once. Yes, Miss Herbertson; Helen Herbertson, and—at once. That is all. Tell him that I shall be waiting for him."

She dropped the received and let it dangle from the 'phone. She did not wish to be interrupted. She desired to be cut off from the world. In forty minutes Allen would be here. In forty minutes he would have come from his rooms to her. She certainly did not wish to be interrupted then, nor now, because she wished to think.

She sat down by the window thinking of her own strange caprice, of this stupid, abrupt, and reasonless emotion of distaste that had shaken her. She had a stupid way of saying that "first opinions are best opinions," and no doubt she had remembered this at the great and emotional moment of proposal, and acted so stupidly.

And she thought, with this strange, quiet shyness, that when he came she would tell him all about it. It would be delightful reparation, after all.

She thought again of Allan's manliness and cleanly-mindedness. It was indeed this fine intrinsic figment of his nature that had attracted her at the outset. He was so upright and blameless.

She had turned to this side of his nature almost at once with a great sense of relief. She had always cried out in her heart for a man like that. Well, Allan Reich was just such a man, and she had refused him.

She glanced at the clock, noting the time, and as she did so she heard a rattle in the dangling telephone receiver.

"Oh, no!" she laughed. "Oh, no, you don't. A modern and up-to-date improvement like yourself is not going to spoil sport, surely?"

She got from her chair, partly to ignore the insistent thing, partly because in her nervousness she felt it necessary to move about the room.

The call of the telephone, however, was not to be ignored. It buzzed, and was silent. Buzzed again and again, and then paused. Buzz! Buzz! It went in its staccato imperative demand.

"Oh, bother you," cried Helen, and tried hard to concentrate her attention on the park that she could not see for the darkness. The receiver buzzed.

Helen stamped her foot, and looked at the clock.

"Oh, bother you," she cried again, and then it flashed abruptly to her mind that perhaps this was Allan. She sprang to the receiver, and called.

"Hullo! Who are——?"

"Oh, there you are—at last," interrupted an impatient man's voice. Awful time you have been, Daisy," the telephone hummed and hawed hazily. "What's the matter with the telephone, anyway?"

"What——" stammered Helen. "Who are you?"

"Oh, Horace. You know, Horace Howard." "Why," thought Helen "Allan Reich's man is calles Horace Howard; the fellow she had been speaking to just now, the valet."

"Horace Howard," went on the voice, "and very much at your service." Helen made a half strangled sound in her throat. She wished to say something, to warn the fellow, but he rattled on—"Know your voice anywhere, Daisy; it's one in a thou— Well, you listening, I'm in an awful hurry; had a job to get you. These telephone people are the limit; this 'phone is awful bad, isn't it?—Well, well, we aren't—are you listening?— we aren't going away after all."

"I think you've made a mistake," cried Helen. "Ring—"

"Can't hear you very well; something wrong. Well, we aren't going away now, because, after all, she's going to have him."

Helen Herbertson gasped, and tried to get a sentence in edgeways.

"You've made—"

"Oh, keep quiet, young woman," galloped on the voice. "How can I tell you if you interrupt? I'm in an awful hurry. Well, she's going to have him. Dear Helen is going to have him. She telephoned up just now in no end of a flutter. Wanted Master Allan to go round to her at once. At once; couldn't wait at all. Must have him. Dying for him. So round he goes, you bet, who'd sniff at half a million; not Mister Reich, you bet.

"So he's booked and cooked, and I'm not due to leave the old country and you, my dear. No more interested friendships with ladies of the chorus. The little Vandalour girl must shut up her cosy flat and go—or find another Johnny, 'cos Mister Allan Reich is going to be a good boy now—"

"Heavens," stammered Helen. "Do you mean that Allan Reich is that sort—"

"Oh, come off it. Don't try to be the mother's innocent. Of course he is. What do you think? All young fellers about town have their little affairs. Mister Allan, too, he's only in the fashion. Only, I must say that of 'im, he's a clever dog. Knows how to keep his goings on in the dark on the strict Q. T.

"Nobody would guess just what he is to look at him, but, my word—well, what do you think of this? Between ourselves y'know—he and the little Vandalour girl arranged over the 'phone to go on a small jaunt abroad because this Miss Herbertson had chucked him, and now—"

Helen Herbertson flung the receiver from her. She had listened, so far against her will, horror held, but now she flung the instrument from her.

"Heavens," she moaned, "and I deemed him magnificent because of his unique spotlessness. Oh, dear God—"

And at that moment Delphine came in at the door.

"Mr. Reich," she announced.

"To Mr. Allan Reich I am not at home—ever," said Helen.

Ears That Show Weakness

By LURA STANLEY.

Large fleshy ears (especially those which have the lobes of the ear red) show coarseness of nature and sensuality.

If the ears stand forward so as to show their entire form when the face is seen from the front it denotes rapacity and cruelty. Ears close to the head show refinement and susceptibility.

Long-shaped but small ears indicate refinement; a very small ear close to the head shows delicacy of perception, refinement, but also timidity.

The ears should be so placed as not to be higher than the eyebrow or lower than the top of the nose; if set in too sloping a direction they show timidity; if too upright, animal instincts, courage amounting to cruelty, especially if they obtrude from the head.

A thin ear shows delicacy and poetry of feeling; a thick ear the reverse. A wide space between the wing of the nose and ear-hole shows coarseness of nature; too little space, meanness and coldness of temperament.

Language of Sealing Wax.

White sealing wax means a proposal of marriage; black, a death; violet, condolences; invitations to dinner are sealed with chocolate color; vermilion is used for business letters; ruby color by fortunate lovers; green means hope; brown, melancholy (devised possibly from brown study); blue, constancy; yellow, jealousy; pale green conveys a reproof; pink is used by young ladies and gray between friends.

The Kitchen

Breakfast Pie.

Take half a pound of bread crumbs, a quarter of a pound of cold meat or ham, two teaspoonfuls of chopped parsley, one teaspoonful of chopped onions, three-quarters of a pint of stock or sauce, a dessertspoonful of mushroom ketchup, and salt and pepper to taste.

Chop the meat very finely, and mix it with the crumbs, parsley and onions, then add the ketchup and stock to it, also a seasoning of salt and pepper.

Have a pie dish greased slightly, put the mixture into it and cover the top with breadcrumbs, then put a few small bits of butter around on the top, and bake the pie in a moderate oven for about half an hour.

Serve it hot with a little finely chopped parsley sprinkled over the top.

Cocoanut Soup.

Remove the brown inner skin from the cocoanut, cut it into pieces (about an inch long); a small piece of butter weighing about two ounces, a few lumps of sugar, and a little pepper and salt.

Let it simmer for about an hour over a slow fire; pound into a mortar, and strain through a strainer into a quart of good white stock, add the yolk of four eggs, and half a pint of cream; but do not let it boil after adding this; season to taste, and serve hot with fried bread.

Worcester Sauce.

Six tablespoonfuls each of walnut ketchup, essence of anchovy, and two of soy, four cloves of shallot, a quart of vinegar, and a teaspoonful of cayenne.

Pour the vinegar into a bottle, previously well dressed, mince the shallot, and add it with the other ingredients to the vinegar. Cork well, shake twice daily for at least a fortnight, strain, and bottle for use.

AURORA BALL CLUB WILL GIVE DANCE

Affair to Be Given Friday, April 21 Will Close Season's Events.

Aurora, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Aurora baseball team will give a dance at the Mohawk hall Friday, April 21. The baseball boys have held two successful dances this winter and will close the season with this one. The team has purchased a number of new suits, gloves, masks and other material and will soon commence regular practice. No meeting of range teams has yet been called but Aurora is very enthusiastic over the proposed five-team league. There will be about eighteen players trying for positions on the team this year.

RUZZITO GUILTY; MAY BE DEPORTED

Italian Who Took Shot at Mining Official May Be Sent to Native Land.

Hibbing, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—After two hours deliberation the jury in the district court in the case of Bruno Ruzzito, returned about 2 p. m. yesterday a verdict of guilty of manslaughter in the second degree. The counsel for the state made a statement and review of the state's case shortly after the opening of the court at 9 a. m. yesterday morning and was followed by a very strong appeal for an acquittal by Attorney Victor Power, counsel for the defense. After listening to the charge by the judge the jury retired shortly after 10 o'clock, and deliberated, finally bringing in a verdict of guilty of assault in the second degree. The maximum sentence for this offense is $5,000 fine and five years imprisonment. It is understood that the federal naturalization department is taking steps to have Ruzzito deported to Italy after he has suffered whatever punishment the court inflicts.

The following cases will be held over to the next term of court: State vs. Samuel Kacich, charged with dueling to the death; state vs. Louis Pederson, charged with grand larceny, alleged to have stolen ten tons of hay; state vs. Mariano Strafranio, alleged to have shot at Dan Becco with a revolver, Becco is employed as Italian interpreter in the court.

NEXT PRESBYTERY AT TWO HARBORS

One Duluth Man Selected as Delegate to Next General Assembly.

Virginia, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—The session of the Duluth Presbytery here closed last night with an address by Rev. Frank Higgins, the lumberjack "sky pilot," whose appearance filled the church. These delegates were elected to the general assembly. Rev. J. L. McGaughey of Duluth and Elder A. T. Gordon of Virginia. Alternates, Rev. J. B. Atwood and Elder E. E. Williams.

The presbytery voted to hold the 1912 session at Two Harbors.

BOVEY MAN FINED.

Hibbing Judge Then Suspends Sentence If He Returns to Family.

Hibbing, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—John Ega, 36 years old, a resident of Bovey, was fined $5 and costs, amounting to a like amount, for being drunk by Judge Brady yesterday. The prisoner has a wife and family in Bovey and was allowed to go on suspended sentence on condition that he went back to his family. Bruno Velleta, arrested for being drunk, and further charged with continued vagrancy, was fined $5 and $4.75 costs at the same time. Bruno came to this country thirteen years ago, worked for three years and then went back to Italy for nine years, returning to America a short time ago. He had not done any work this winter and had slept under wagons and in barns, and was subject to fits. Charlie Miller, who gave himself up the previous night and was admitted to the station, later on had a fit of the delirium tremens and was unable to appear in court.

WHY MANY WOMEN HAVE BACKACHES

(San Francisco Examiner.)

"Perhaps half the ladies here—pardon me for saying it—are troubled more or less with backache," said Dr. Cornelia Bliss yesterday to the members of the Women's Club. This usually results from a common condition, not serious at first, but which may lead to cancer, the operating table and long months in the hospital. The unnatural secretions cause systemic weakness, backaches, and headaches.

"Don't excuse yourself for permitting such trouble to exist because of timidity in consulting a physician. If you will get a 4-ounce original package of alatone at the druggist's, dissolve a teaspoonful of it in a quart of warm water, you can stop accumulations and odor at once. Alatone is entirely harmless and any one can follow the simple directions. Use this three times a week and the organs will remain healthy and clean-ly."

Hibbing School Board May Acquire Tract Cheaper Than First Expected.

Hibbing, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—The school board devoted last night's session chiefly to considering the purchase of the property for the high school addition.

An estimate presented by Mr. Conners, one of the property owners, showed a reduction of over $15,000 from the first figures submitted. Last night's estimate was: Lots 1 and 2, $8,000; lots 3 and 4, $8,000; lot 5, $7,000; lot 7, $5,250; lot 10, $7,750. No definite information was given out by the school board with regard to purchase. A suggestion was made by Supt. Blair for a vacation school, especially with regard to the manual training department. At the request of Trustee Redfern, each member of the board will be supplied with a written memorandum of the proposition and then the matter will be considered, and acted upon. A request from the Security State Bank of Hibbing was read asking to be made one of the depositories of school funds for District No. 27. The request was referred to the finance committee. The regular monthly bills were passed.

HIBBING CLUB PROGRAM.

Mrs. Herrick will give a paper on Locke and De Morgan, and their work. Mrs. Brooks will read "The Conquest of Charm."

GOOD ORE ENCOUNTERED.

Shaft No. 2 in Buhl Property in Fine Ore.

Buhl, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—Exploratory work in shaft No. 2 here is said to be meeting with good results. The diamond drill cores that were assayed at 280 to 290 feet disclosed 50 per cent metallic iron, and at 310 feet there was manifest improvement. Assays will be made of the findings. The company is satisfied that it has encountered a body of very desirable ore.

TWO HARBORS NOTES.

Changes on Iron Range Road and Other Current Events.

Two Harbors, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Duluth & Iron Range railway have made a number of changes recently with their station employes up the line. J. B. Beatty has been appointed agent at McKinley, vice W. H. Crocker, transferred to the agency at Biwabik, relieving G. W. Gates, transferred to Aurora as assistant agent.

G. C. Thompson, agent at Tower Junction, has returned from a three months' trial of his farm and conditions in Florida. During his stay in what is known as one of the healthiest parts of that state, he lost fifteen pounds in weight, and he says that Minnesota is good enough for him hereafter.

The breaking of camps up the line is about complete with the exception of some of the large loggers, who will ship for some weeks yet, or a part of the summer. The shipments of horses, south bound, aggregate nearly 100 carloads. The winter's logging has been the largest in years.

Log shipments from the Eastern Mesaba branch of the Duluth & Iron Range railroad, which now aggregate 150 carloads per day, will be reduced about 50 per cent by May 15.

The Northern Lumber company have completed log shipments from Drummond to Cloquet, Minn., via Hornby, and that station has been closed for the summer.

John Reddy expects to return his logging outfit from Mesaba to the Gooseberry track and commence log shipments from there to Duluth by May 1.

William Cutliffe is shipping logs from Drummond to the Alger Smith mill at Duluth.

The Duluth & Iron Range railroad have received about seventy-five carloads of ties from the Alger Smith line.

The Oliver Iron Mining company finished logging shipments from Embarras this week, and have moved their outfit to Brimson.

HIBBING NOTES.

Hibbing, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—Judge H. S. Huson of Grand Rapids is renewing old acquaintances here. The judge is one of the old-timers of the range and served as judge of probate for ten years, and is also prominent in connection with the old soldiers and their interests.

The Carlton Glee club gave a very enjoyable entertainment at the high school auditorium last night. The performance was well attended and a great success in every way.

District Foreman Babcock of the Mesaba Telephone company left for Nashwauk and Grand Rapids Tuesday evening for the purpose of checking up on the range before leaving for Minneapolis, where he has accepted a position with the same company that means promotion. Mr. Babcock has been an employe of the Mesaba Telephone company for fourteen years and has lived in Hibbing for a considerable time, making many friends.

The Musical Eckhardts, the premier musical specialists of America, clever vocalists and entertainers who appear in music, song and story, will be at the Healy theater Friday evening in an elaborate program.

Virginian Visiting Ishpeming.

Ishpeming, Mich., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—Jacob Kandelin, a former well known resident, who is now located at Virginia, Minn., is in the city for a few days, visiting relatives and friends. For some years prior to ten years ago Mr. Kandelin was employed as a nurse at the Ishpeming hospital. He left here to take a similar position at Virginia, and he is still engaged in that work. For some time past he has been in charge of the Virginia pest house. Some three months ago Mr. Kandelin was seriously ill with an attack of pleurisy and bronchitis.

RED RIVER VALLEY IS GIVEN SOAKING

Crookston, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—The precipitation from Wednesday morning to noon today has been over an inch and a half, the heaviest recorded during over a year. A steady rain which fell yesterday afternoon and all night turned into a heavy snow accompanied by a high west wind at 6 o'clock this morning and still continues. There will be no seeding in Northwestern Minnesota this week as the storm is general. The moisture is hailed with the keenest satisfaction and assures a fine winter rye and hay crop, good pasturage and water in surface wells.

DRILLING NEAR DEERWOOD.

Duluth and Superior Men Searching for Iron Ore.

Deerwood, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—C. W. Potts of Superior, Wis., has moved a drill east of Deerwood onto section 18-46-29, and is sinking a set of union holes for Brown & Williams of Duluth and the Cuyuna Iron Ore company. Brown & Williams is composed of William Brown of Paine & Weber, and David Williams, the vice president of the First National Bank of Duluth. The Cuyuna Iron Ore company is owned and controlled by Superior people. The property adjoins the Carlson tract.

CARLTON COUNTY BURIES SUICIDE.

Cloquet, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—John Orno, the homesteader who committed suicide in his cabin on the reservation, was buried yesterday by the county. Orno shot himself last Friday forenoon. At an earlier hour neighbors had been in and found him getting breakfast. He had been drinking heavily for several weeks. Orno was a widower, 57 years old, and is supposed to have sons at Bessemer, Mich., and Maple, Wis. The body was held at the Kelly & Moses undertaking rooms several days, but messages to his sons remained unanswered.

GRAIN RATES NOT CHANGED

Commerce Commission Holds Ex-Lake Rates From Buffalo Are Reasonable.

Finds That No Discrimination Against Chicago Exists in Present Tariff.

Washington, April 13.—In a decision yesterday afternoon the interstate commerce commission declined to make any reduction in what are known as ex-lake grain rates from Buffalo N. Y., to Eastern destinations on either domestic or export traffic.

The proceeding, pending for months, was instituted by the Chicago board of trade against the Atlantic City Railroad company and many other Eastern carriers, and by the New York Produce exchange against the New York Central & Hudson River railroad and others. The complaints were not consolidated, but were heard together and are covered by a single opinion prepared by Commissioner Prouty.

Both complainants attacked the reasonableness of the rates on grain received at Buffalo by water from the West and shipped by rail from Buffalo to Eastern points, in the one case for domestic consumption and in the other for export.

The Chicago board of trade maintained that the present rates divert traffic from the water and rail route to the all rail route, resulting in undue prejudice against Chicago. The complainant urged that in charging a higher rate on ex-lake grain from Buffalo to the East than Buffalo to the same destinations when the grain moved by the all-rail route, the carriers were guilty of unjust discrimination against the lake grain and therefore against Chicago.

The defendants replied that their ex-lake rate from Buffalo to Boston, for instance, was reasonable; that the rate from Chicago to Boston was competitive, and that the division of the Buffalo to Boston rate acceptable as the price of engaging in the competitive business ought not to be used as a standard to measure the reasonableness of their ex-lake rate from Buffalo.

The commission took the view of the carriers, pointing out that manifestly the lake and rail rate from Chicago to the East was reasonable and, in addition, it is materially lower than the all rail rate.

Substantially the same arguments applied to the export traffic rates to Eastern ports. It was decided, therefore, to dismiss both complaints and leave the rates as they now exist, the commission holding that it could not find any unjust discrimination.

LOW RATES TO CLERGY MAY BE WITHDRAWN.

Chicago, April 13.—Members of the Central Passenger association representing railroads entering Chicago, yesterday urged that the practice of issuing reduced rate tickets to members of the clergy be discontinued. It was decided to obtain a final vote by sending circulars to all roads connected with the association.

Following the meeting members said there is little doubt that the roads will endorse the plan.

BRAINERD'S BIG FOUNDRY.

Of Northern Pacific to Start Up on June 1.

Brainerd, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—H. W. Topping of a St. Paul foundry firm, W. H. Wilson, assistant to Third Vice President George T. Slade of the Northern Pacific railway and F. G. Prest, general purchasing agent of the railway company, yesterday inspected the new $500,000 foundry, pattern shop, power house, coal sheds, etc., recently completed. Mr. Topping stated the foundry will start up on June 1, employing from 200 to 300 men, and that his firm had secured the contract for all foundry and casting work to be done on the Northern Pacific railway.

UNMARRIED MEN WORST.

Lead Married Ones in Milwaukee in Getting Arrested.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 13.—Married men of Milwaukee may perk up and be cheerful again, despite the fact that cares of double harness are sometimes burdensome.

These comparative figures will show the reason for the joy that streams pleasantly about their consciences:

Married men arrested in Milwaukee during the last year, 3,255; unmarried men arrested in Milwaukee, 5,672; excess of unmarried men arrested, 2,317.

These are the facts as set forth by Chief of Police John T. Janssen in his annual report to the common council.

How Old Is Your Complexion?

(From London Graphic.)

"I have just returned from Paris where I have been hunting up all the new fashions, and I have many valuable ideas.

"I obtained an interview with Madame De Veaux, Paris' most renowned beauty. Although a woman of fifty years, she could easily pass for thirty. The skin on her face, neck and arms is clear, soft and velvety, and entirely free from wrinkles and stray hairs.

"She has never used powder or paint, but makes a solution by dissolving an original package of mayatone in eight ounces of witchhazel, and massages her face, arms and neck twice a day with it. This does not show upon the skin; removes all sorts of blemishes, and prevents the growth of hair.

"The use of powder will not be found necessary at all, as the solution removes any shine from the skin at once, and gives the face a dainty, natural color. The stray hairs will disappear if the treatment is continued.

FREE SEED ARRIVES.

Car Donated for Northern Beltrami Sufferers Reaches Bemidji.

Bemidji, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—A carload of the seed which the state legislature voted to give, free of charge, to the Northern Minnesota settlers who lost property in the conflagration of last fall, has arrived in Bemidji, and is being unloaded.

Notices are being sent to those who made application for the seed, with an enclosed slip which is to be signed by the applicant, and which must be either brought or sent to County Auditor J. L. George before the seed can be delivered.

Auditor George wishes it to be understood that the seed may either be called for or sent to the applicant.

The car consisted of 188 sacks of the various kinds of seed applied for.

FORMER ISHPEMING SCHOOL HEAD DIES IN WISCONSIN.

Ishpeming, Mich., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—Funeral services were held from the Presbyterian church here yesterday afternoon for John Northmore, former superintendent of Ishpeming schools, who died Tuesday at Sharon, Wis. He was a native of Dovenshire, Eng., aged 76, and came to this country in 1857, living first in Pennsylvania and coming to Eagle River in 1850, where he taught school and later at Eagle Harbor. From 1870 to 1887 he was head of the Ishpeming schools, then moved to Republic, where he was school superintendent for twenty years.

Shortly after the family located in Republic, Mrs. Northmore passed away, and her remains were interred in the cemetery here. A son also died here some thirty-five years ago. Some years following the death of his wife, Mr. Northmore married again and his widow survives him. Other survivors are Mrs. E. A. Brigham and John Northmore of Chicago, Mrs. H. B. Sturtevant of Delavan, Wis.; W. H. Northmore of Detroit, and an adopted daughter, Miss Clandine Northmore. Mrs. Henry Harwood of this city is a niece of the deceased.

COMES 4,000 MILES TO WED SWEETHEART.

Minot, N. D., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—Traveling some 4,000 miles to get a good husband, Miss Alice Taylor of Tunbridge Wells, London, was married to James L. Shaw of Logan, by Judge William Murray.

The marriage was the climax of a pretty romance covering a long period of years. Mr. Shaw, who is a college bred fellow and has corresponded for the Minot papers, was born in Australia and he went through the Boer war.

He has seen most of the world, and during all his travels ever kept in mind his London sweetheart. She remained faithful to him, and about ten days ago started on her long journey.

They were married at the home of Earle Stredwick at Logan. Mr. Shaw has a farm near Logan and is prospering.

FORMER BEMIDJI MAN IS DEAD IN MINNEAPOLIS.

Bemidji, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—Word was received yesterday that I. S. Boyer, 54 years old, died at his home at 320 Emerson avenue south, in Minneapolis, late Tuesday evening.

Mr. Boyer was one of the pioneer residents of this city, and was interested in the hardware business here, until two years ago when his business affairs forced him to make Minneapolis his home.

Mr. Boyer is survived by his wife, one daughter, Blanche, and three sons, T. K., Clio, and Samuel. Mrs. Boyer is a sister of Mrs. M. A. Clark of Bemidji.

Grand Forks, N. D., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—Louis Rosoff, who has operated a drug store here for the past year has filed a petition in bankruptcy and his hearing has been set for April 24 before T. B. Elton, referee in bankruptcy. Mr. Rosoff schedules his liabilities at $8,793.50 and his assets at $7,167, out of which he claims exemptions in the sum of $1,000.

New Ironton Building.

Ironton, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—Ellingson Bros., of St. Paul, are putting up a two-story general store and meat market. Redfield & Colburn of Proctor, are erecting a business block and will also put up residences for themselves. Three $2,000 residences are to be built on Irene avenue this spring. This hustling town of the Cuyuna iron range, only a few months old, has now over fifty buildings, and many in course of erection.

A WARNING TO MANY

Some Interesting Facts Regarding Health Statistics.

Few people realize to what extent their health depends upon the condition of the kidneys.

The physican in nearly all cases of serious illness, makes a chemical analysis of the patient's urine. He knows that unless the kidneys are doing their work properly, the other organs cannot be brought back to health and strength.

When the kidneys are neglected or abused in any way, serious results are sure to follow. According to health statistics, Bright's disease which is really an advanced form of kidney trouble, caused nearly ten thousand deaths in 1909, in the state of New York alone. Therefore, it behooves us to pay more attention to the health of these most important organs.

An ideal herbal compound that has had remarkable success as a kidney remedy is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy.

The mild and healing influence of this preparation is soon realized. It stands the highest for its remarkable record of cures.

If you feel that your kidneys require attention, and wish a sample bottle, write to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Mention this paper and they will gladly forward it to you absolutely free by mail.

Swamp-Root is sold by every druggist in bottles of two sizes—50c and $1.00.

DULUTH GETS ITS FARM SCHOOL.

Duluth gets its farm school, and the city and the surrounding country extend their hearty thanks to the legislature for passing the bill that provides for that structure. What the school is expected to mean to this part of the state is not easy to sum up. At the same time it is not proposed to make the institution a burden on the state government. In fact there is good reason to believe that it will prove self-supporting, and at the same time be of inestimable value to the people.

In asking for the school Duluth did not ask the legislature to adopt a plan that was unknown in state activities, but to extend the practicability of the system of agricultural education already in force in the state. The establishment of the institution here will mean that the men and women, both old and young, of this part of the state will be given an opportunity to learn how to till the soil properly and profitably; that there will be a stimulus given to the agricultural development of the northeastern part of the state that could have been given in no other way as effectively as this, and that the entire state will benefit from that development.

In no other part of Minnesota is such an institution as this needed as much as it is right here. While other sections have been developed and had their growth on account of the agricultural attractions that they contained, St. Louis county has grown in part because of its commercial advanages due to its location at the Head of the Lakes, and in part owing to the natural resources contained in its mines and forests. The development of these features has occupied attention to the exclusion, to a great degree, of the agricultural development, and now, with big and important cities growing up here, the need of turning to the soil has become apparent.

That is the kind of work that will be stimulated by the farm school. There have been individual efforts to bring about a similar result, and to these full credit must be given for the spirit that has prompted them and the results they have achieved. But with a state school here, where instruction will be more open than on the private farms and where the people will feel more free to go for instruction and advice, there will be a greater intrest and correspondingly greater development and benefits.

The St. Louis delegation deserves praise for the fight it has made to get this measure through the legislature, and the Duluth Commercial club will be given full credit for its splendid work to the same end. The work is for the good of the people as a whole, and the result will be appreciated by all. Duluth is sincere in its thanks to the legislature, and is confident that the high degree of good that was promised if the school were established will be not only realized but bettered in the results that will grow from it.

THE INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM.

Considerable discussion has been started throughout the country by the declaration of Fred A. Baker of Detroit, Mich., that the principles of the initiative and referendum are contrary to the provisions of the Constitution of the United States. He bases his contention on the clauses of the Constitution that provide for a republican form of government, and maintains that these forms of popular legislation are in contravention of that form. His attack is bitter. He says:

> The initiative and referendum is the most insidious, vicious and unconstitutional provision ever brought forward in the entire history of democratic institutions and representative government. A meeting of the people themselves, or of their representatives immediately and directly elected by them, in a deliberative assembly, is absolutely essential to the exercise of the power of taxation or of the power to enact, amend, modify or repeal a law; that is to say, there must be a meeting or assembly, by whatever name it may be called, at which the proposed tax or law can be considered, discussed, amended, adopted or rejected.

Mr. Baker complains that the lack of a legislative assembly "at which the opponents of the measure can be heard and their objections and arguments considered * * * would make any democratic or republican form of government ineffective and abortive or tyrannical and self-destructive." He charges that it would result in action by uninformed individuals who by reason of their ignorance would lack judgment and discretion. In short, that it would deprive the minority of its power and "make democracy and representative government tyrannical, oppressive and odious."

Mr. Baker's adjectives are more entertaining than his logic is convincing. If a vote under the initiative and referendum is unconstitutional for the reasons he alleges, then a primary election must fall under the same ban. What is a primary or a vote under the initiative and referendum but a "meeting of the people," though it takes the form of progressive attendance instead of simultaneous attendance? Why cannot the voters' opinions be registered as well upon slips of paper as by spoken word or uplifted hand?

Mr. Baker's plea for discussion in a legislative body will not hold water. In the days before reading and publishing were common, such a gathering and discussion were necessary. It formed the only way in which views could be presented and opinions formed by information. Today, with a newspaper in every community, the voter gains the needed information in his own home. Public discussions are held which he can attend if he choose, and in which he can take part. The Constitution was meant to insure that the will of the people shall prevail, not that their will must be interpreted by some intermediate individual or organization.

The demand for a legislative gathering is based wholly upon the theory that the people are incapable of determining legislative matters for themselves. It is a relic of the days when men were elected to office for personal ability instead of because they represented particular principles which the people indorsed. We still retain the old form, since its compactness makes the transaction of business more easy than would be the case if the whole body of people voted on every proposition, and there is a certain amount of routine that can more readily be accomplished by a legislative body than by a popular vote. But the people themselves today are informed and have intelligent opinions on all matters of public moment. They are capable of passing on such questions, and they should have the privilege, in case legislators refuse either from political, selfish or other reasons, to enact the will of the men who chose them, to override the selfishness or the political jockeying of the members of the legislature, and so insure the carrying out of the popular will.

There is only one way in which this privilege can be assured and exercised, and that is by means of the initiative and referendum. If the system is insidious, it is no more so than that which permits the buying of legislatures by special interests; if it is vicious, it is matched in that quality by the machine methods that enable crooks and grafters to become members of the legislatures and city councils, so that such a power as that given by the initiative and referendum is needed to curb them. As to its being unconstitutional, that does not appear clearly, since it is, after all, but a means for the people themselves to express and enforce their views and desires in the matter of the laws that shall govern them.

BOOSTING THE CLASSICS.

A movement for the encouragement of students of Latin has begun in the colleges of Wisconsin. It has taken the form of a "Latin league," the purpose of which is to bring classical studies to the special attention of high school and university students, in the hope of bringing the various institutions into closer contact, and helping to preserve the balance between the more liberal and strictly cultural studies on one hand and the purely utilitarian branches on the other. As part of its task the league will hold annual contests in the nature of competitive examinations in reading, writing and translating Latin, and award prizes to the winners.

Some such movement was to be expected, in this or some other form. Within the last few years there has grown up a tendency to discredit study of the "dead" languages as a waste of time and effort. The prominence given to technical training, to the development of the utilitarian features of education instead of those that relate more purely to personal enjoyment or culture, has made big havoc in the classical departments of all grades of educational institutions. It is only natural, therefore, that those who feel special interest in the study of the classics should seek some means to promote that line of work.

That the plan adopted by the Latin league will inspire greater effort on the part of those who already had determined to take up classical studies, there can be no doubt. But that it will lead to the choice of such courses by others is, to say the least, improbable.

The study of Latin is an advantage, not only from the greater opportunity it gives for personal pleasure by widening the list of authors whose works one may read in the original language, but because of the exceedingly close relation existing between that tongue and our own. The careful student of Latin gains a knowledge of English that cannot be matched by one who has not had the classical training. And even aside from this there is the help which the Latin training gives if, in later years, one cares to take up the study of any modern language. There can be no question that the student of Latin has many advantages over the one who has made no such study, particularly if one is to take up certain professional or scientific lines later on. For this reason the work of the Latin league will be significant in the educational world, since it is certain to help to concentrate the interest already directed to the classical studies.

Perhaps the league will find a means of extending the interest in that line of work, and of making the study take on some more practical form than it has had in many institutions heretofore. If it can accomplish this the league will leave a lasting mark on the educational work of Wisconsin, and by its example on that of institutions in other states.

FLATS AND FIRETRAPS.

Coming pat upon the heels of New York's fire horror, the decision handed down the other day in the district court at St. Paul is a forcible reminder that the only danger from fire does not lie in factories and business establishments. There is quite as much likelihood of loss of life in any building occupied by individuals or families which is not fitted with proper means of escape from fire or other danger.

It is easily to be conceived, indeed, that the danger in a tenement or apartment house is greater to the individual than in the business or factory block. There rarely is any occupant in the latter who is not fully awake during his presence there. In the living place, on the other hand, there are certain hours in every twenty-four when there is exceedingly little likelihood that more than one or two, if any, of the inmates will be waking. A fire at such hours means that the inmates must be roused from a sound sleep to a sense of their peril, and that means a correspondingly greater possibility that they may not escape.

There probably is not a city of any size in the country that has not rigid regulations governing the construction of hotels and the provision of fire escapes and other means of safety for guests. Occasionally a disaster somewhere brings about a strict enforcement of those regulations for a time. Yet the danger in such buildings is no greater than that in tenement and apartment houses, and it is comparatively seldom that serious attempts are made to enforce the building ordinances regarding such places rigidly.

The St. Paul decision, in which it was held that a tenant cannot be held to a lease of apartments in a building where the safety regulations are not complied with, should help materially in bringing about a reform. It means that the property is actually worth just so much less if the regulations are not complied with, and that is the kind of thing that will work more surely than anything else to make the owners see that there is no negligence. It is a good decision. The country would be the gainer if something similar could be found to apply to such structures as that in which nearly 150 New York girls lost their lives.

JULIUS CAESAR BURROWS

By SAVOYARD.

They are gathering by popular subscription in Michigan a fund with which to erect a statue to Julius Caesar Burrows, lately defeated for re-election to the United States senate from that state. If not the greatest man Michigan ever produced, Burrows is the most showy man who ever came from there. Though nearly 75 years old he is still handsome, and in his prime he must have been a regular Apollo. He also has a fine voice, resonant and not unmusical, though it was impossible for him to make a political speech that was not markedly and offensively provocative. How he did champ the bit when the G. O. P. had the bloody shirt for oriflamme! And he could stand on more ground and paw up more earth than Job's warhorse. I would love to see the greeting a congress of these politer and happier times would give one of Burrows' bloody shirt speeches. I doubt if it would go down even in Kalamazoo in 1911.

But Burrows was precious thirty years ago, when it was high political genius to inform the adversary how mean he was, and Burrows did it by innuendo exclusively, the meanest way in the world to hurl an insult. He first came to congress in 1873, and entered the body simultaneously with Joe Cannon, Roger Q. Mills and Dick Bland. In 1874 and 1876 he was defeated, as he was again in 1882. That he got to congress at all is a tribute to the intellectual abilities of the man. His manner is insufferably offensive by reason of an air of lordly superciliousness, that possibly does not reflect his real nature, and it is to be hoped it does not.

Burrows is a single speech orator. In the reconstruction and rebel treason era he was grand when waving the bloody shirt. He must have been the devil himself when on the stump in "Saw-Log Sam" Stephenson's district, bemoaning like this: "My country, O, how she bleeds!" Heap o' sham about politics, and even more sham about patriotism. After the country refused longer to march under the bloody shirt, Burrows fixed up a tariff speech, and it, too, was grand in its way. The first time I heard it, had I believed it, I should have dropped everything else, planted a tree, bought a sheep, and gone to sleep, for, according to Burrows, anybody with any interest in lumber or wool is bound to be made rich by the tariff on those products.

William L. Wilson was a delightful man, but he had a vein of satire that rendered him a terror when he was tempted to use it, which was rare. He is the one Democrat who pierced the armor of Tom Reed with a shaft of ridicule, and he directed it for a moment against Burrows' tariff speech with telling effect.

Burrows would have been elected speaker when Keifer was but for his air of superiority and exclusiveness. He had another and a more serious flaw—he was lazy. And that is another tribute to the man's qualities. How could he constitutionally and habitually indolent fill the place he did for more than thirty years? And that leads me to conclude that if Burrows had been as industrious as Roscoe Conkling, who never rested as long as there was a thing to do, he might have grasped the leadership of the senate. Instead, we hear him boasting that he fetched and carried for Aldrich in 1909 in order to "get something" for Michigan in the Payne-Aldrich tariff monstrosity.

Speaking about workers—John G. Carlisle could perform more of the labor that is required of a statesman than any other man of his twenty years in public life in all her history, and he did it without seeming effort. He knew exactly how to do a thing and accomplish it with the least expenditure of mental labor. In this respect he was a positive genius, for he could tell at a glance what document was important and what of little or no consequence. But above all, he had that Napoleonic quality that enabled him to summon instantaneously every faculty of mind necessary, and concentrate it with all the others upon a given point of study.

James B. Beck was another glutton for work, but he was fussy, and everybody knew when he was at work, which was pretty nearly all the time. But he labored hard like Champ Clark and Roscoe Conkling and William B. Allison, all of whom did an enormous deal of unnecessary work that Carlisle abstained from doing because it was useless. These men forced their minds to do manual labor, so to speak. Carlisle's confined itself to mental labor.

But it is the greater gift—capacity for hard and long continued mental effort, coupled with a genius for system. Did you ever read Kennedy's Life of William Wirt? Do you remember the anecdote of his study of a great case—and possibly it was the Wartmouth case itself—at Richmond, and how he came to Washington ready for the trial? The most lovable of men, as soon as it was known that he was in town his room was full of visitors, who kept him in social converse till midnight. The next morning he found he had left his "notes" in Richmond, and his speech to the court was a failure. Carlisle never required any notes. In this respect he was like old Ben Hardin, who never took a note. Charles James Fox took no notes, but Burke took them for him and read them to him, which was all that was necessary to make him the greatest debater political deliberative body ever knew.

But to get back to Burrows. He would have been an admirable leader had he been energetic and capable of looking the good-natured man. The country forgive Conkling his lofty air; but it would never endure the supercilious man. Burrows looked as though he thought congress a kindergarten and himself the teacher. There was that about him that seemed to say: "Julius Caesar was a great man; but his conquest of Gaul, his invasion of Britain, his mastery of Rome, were trivial episodes, comparatively. My parents put the finishing touches to his immortality when they named me for him."

Mark, I don't say that Burrows feels that, but it is certain that he looks it. When Mahone seized on repudiation to get the mastery of Virginia he sent for Burrows to help him stump the state. There is always a protection sentiment in the Old Dominion, and Burrows undertook to appeal to it. That voice would make a fool of success on the stump, and Burrows is no fool, but he underrated his audience. He treated them like children in the primer class at school, and it turned out that he did Mahone more harm than good.

While of the very elite of the front rank of the house of representatives, Burrows amounted to very little in the senate. In this his senatorial career was precisely that of one of his predecessors from Michigan in that body, Omer D. Conger, who was the most garrulous man in the house, and as meek as a basket of chips on the way to Tophet to be burned when "elevated" to the senate.

Burrows would have reached the senate long ere he did if that position had not been pre-empted by a lot of rich men in Michigan, such as Zach Chandler, Palmer Stockbridge, McMillin, and perhaps others. But Burrows was the ablest man Michigan has had in public life in all her history, and that is not saying as much as it seems to say.

THE OPEN COURT.

(Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about the topics of general interest. Letters should not exceed 200 words—the shorter the better. They must be written on one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer, though these need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.)

AN INJURY TO ONE IS THE CONCERN OF ALL.

To the Editor of The Herald:

I was glad to see in Chairman McGonagle's report at the Commercial club, Tuesday evening, the words that "it matters to every one how the other half lives," when speaking of the living conditions in Duluth, for while they do not go as far as some people wish, they go half way, and that is something to be thankful for when coming from the lips of a large employer of labor, which labor represents 95 per cent of the resident citizens of Duluth. It indicates that the time is fast approaching when we can float again in the air that symbol of industrial liberty carried a generation ago by a million workers saying "that is the most perfect government in which an injury to one is the concern of all," and although its Duluth vanguard is sadly depleted by the death of many of those patriotic citizens, who carried the motto along the streets of Duluth in 1882 that symbol has been picked up by the present generation and will be ultimately carried to a victory for industrial and civic liberty, that will make this old world blossom as a rose, and help bring that peace on earth when swords shall be turned into pruning hooks and all men will be brothers.

Duluth, April 12.

SAUCE FOR THE GOOSE; SAUCE FOR THE GANDER.

To the Editor of The Herald:

I have noticed recently articles in the papers favoring the exemption of factories and buildings from taxation for a time. How would it do to exempt farms from taxation for the first five years after they are settled and improved? Respectfully,

Court Practices in the South.

Cleveland Leader: "It's queer the way the laws in some of the Southern states differ from our laws up here," said Col. Allan T. Brinsmade, just back from a long trip through the South.

"In Norfolk, Va., I sat one day recently beside a federal judge when a criminal case was being tried. The charge was, I think, robbing the United States mails. At 5 p. m. the judge turned aside and speaking very quietly said:

"'The jury will now retire.'

"'A recess, I suppose,' I observed.

"'No,' he said, 'the jury is about to retire to consider the evidence and give its verdict.'

"'But you did not charge the jury,' I remarked in a puzzled way.

"'We do not charge the juries in this jurisdiction,' he replied.

"In Savannah a day or two later I was in a court room where a divorce case was being tried before a jury. The wife, who was the plaintiff, was given the verdict.

"So she gets her decree," I remarked to a lawyer friend.

"'No, not now,' he replied. 'In this state when in a divorce case the verdict goes to the plaintiff the case must be tried again at the next term of court. If the plaintiff wins again the decree is granted.

"'If, however, at the first trial the defendant wins, the case is all over.' Queer law that, but the judge said it was working well—that after the first verdict in favor of the plaintiff a reconciliation was often brought about."

"Halcyon Days."

London Globe: Alcyone, or Halcyone, the daughter of Aeolus, married Ceyx. Ceyx was drowned and Alcyone, on learning his fate, threw herself into the sea. The gods were moved by the tragedy of the young lovers; they brought them back to life in the form of halcyons, or kingfishers, and they decreed that for the seven days from Dec. 22 to Dec. 29 the sea should remain calm while the seabirds built their nests upon it. Those seven days, the last of the year, are therefore called halcyon days, days of tranquillity, a kind of very late Indian summer.

AUTHOR HOAXED HARVARD.

The Bookman gives some facts about Richard Washburn Child, whose novel, "Jim Hands," was published a few months ago. It seems that Mr. Child when at Harvard university was the originator of a joke which has become perpetuated in the university. The Bookman describes the incident as follows:

"While an undergraduate at Harvard Mr. Child happened to be, among other things, one of the board of editors of the Lampoon. The Crimson, the Harvard undergraduate daily, had announced that it would print no editorials on Memorial day, 1901. At Mr. Child's suggestion the Lampoon issued a fake number of the Crimson, delicately caricatured to deceive all but the most observant readers.

"The appearance of the college paper was accurately reproduced, even to certain typographical errors for which the Crimson had been notorious, but the contents were such that the whole Cambridge community was for a time in turmoil. Information that the janitor of one of the college laboratories had upset a jar of microbes and that all those who had been near the laboratory should report at once to the college doctor; that so and so of the crew squad had rowed himself out of his shell, but had reached shore without ill effects, and that the president of fellows of Harvard college had decided not to offer President McKinley an honorary degree was given with the utmost gravity.

"A statement in the fake that the Crimson was making more money than was warranted and that $1.50 on all $3 subscriptions would be returned that afternoon brought many freshmen to the Crimson office at the appointed time. A sign, hung in the night over the Crimson office, reiterated this announcement and was another part of the hoax. Its complete success was for long the talk of Cambridge and the forbidden subject of conversation in the Crimson sanctum."

The Bookman says that when at Harvard "Mr. Child was also the president of the Advocate, the ivy orator of his class, the author of the libretto for the Hasty Pudding play and a football player of some ability. He was graduated from the university in 1903 and then entered the law school.

"He had some practical experience in journalism through working on the Boston papers and after finishing his law course went to Washington as correspondent for Ridgway's Weekly. After that publication had been discontinued he did special work for Collier's.

"Mr. Child is more interested in the best French fiction and in Thackeray than he is in most of the English novels. 'Balzac and Thackeray make me forget that I am reading a book,' he says. 'Dickens and most of the English authors make me positively remember it.'"

The Two Kinds of Windows.

Case and Comment: There are two kinds of widows, grass and sod. The sod species, sometimes known as the common or garden variety of widow, is relieved of the burden of a spouse. The grass widow has a husband on her hands, but cannot put said hands upon him.

Clearing Kansas of Grasshoppers.

Anthony Bulletin: A live grasshopper will eat a dead grasshopper. A farmer mixed paris green and bran together and let a grasshopper eat it. It died and twenty grasshoppers ate it up, and they died. Four hundred ate those twenty and they died. Eight thousand ate those 400 and they died. A hundred and sixty thousand ate those 8,000 and died, and the farmer was troubled no more.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

•••Harry Klagues, mining boss of the Itasca Iron Mining company, while hunting near Grand Rapids yesterday, accidentally shot himself. The gun was heavily charged with fine shot and the entire charge tore through his right hand and lodged in his side. The shot were removed and it is expected he will recover.

•••The contractors are beginning the work of building the sand fences on the lower end of Minnesota Point, which work congress authorized in order to prevent the point from being blown away. One will run along the point for a distance of 1,000 feet between the old lighthouse and the Superior entry.

•••The payment of about $150,000 to depositors by the assignee of Henry H. Bell, today is having an excellent effect on the local situation.

•••It is now settled that by the middle of summer there will be an electric street railway extending from Lester Park on the east to West Duluth on the west, a distance of about twelve miles. The surveyors are now at work locating the line in Lakeside.

•••H. Jewell of Cheboygan, Mich., is a new arival and will work for the West Duluth Manufacturing company.

•••The Gemlo Manufacturing company will this week begin to erect four large buildings, having a capacity to work 300 men, at the new townsite of St. Louis. They will manufacture stationary engines, all kinds of mill, mining and wood working machinery, and later a large forge works will be erected.

MINNESOTA OPINIONS.

A Non-Partisan Judiciary.

Cambridge Independent-Press: There does not seem to be any great hue and cry for a change in the manner of selecting judges in Minnesota. All will admit that a non-partisan judiciary from justices of the peace to supreme court justices would be a fine thing, but so far no scheme has been set in motion to bring about such an ideal condition. To be sure there is room for improvement in the present method of electing judges and one of the changes most worthy of consideration is the suggestion that judges should be elected at an election separate from a general election, that is, at a time when no other political questions are before the people to cloud their minds. Wisconsin elects its judges at separate elections and the scheme seems to be working out satisfactorily in that state.

Would Hang a Few Senators.

Itasca Iron News: If there was any red blood in Northern Minnesota our men would take down their old squirrel rifles, and march down to St. Paul, and after hanging a few state senators would redistrict this state on a fair basis. Taxation without a fair representation is tyranny, and we are damned if we are not getting tired of being run over by an avaricious lot of cusses like the bunch of state senators that override the will of the people of this state.

Results of Reciprocity.

Norman County Herald: One reason that there is at present so much talk of new railroad lines between Winnipeg and the Twin Cities is the possibility of reciprocity with Canada. If partial reciprocity brings about the building of several lines of railroad through this territory and a consequent development of this section, what would complete reciprocity do for us?

Less Languages Needed.

Stillwater Gazette: Mexico is said to be the home of sixty-three different languages, which accounts partially, at least, for the number of insurrectos. Possibly there isn't so much real trouble but when all the languages are being spoken at the same time it is quite likely that most of the natives think there is a revolution on and all are out for a fight. They need a reduction in languages as we need reciprocity.

Of the Right Stamp.

Albert Lea Standard: After a protracted and embittered struggle New York Democrats, upon the determined insistence of the progressives, have risen to the occasion and elected a Democratic Democrat to the United States senate. Senator O'Gorman is of the right stamp and his election is a notable gain to the cause of righteous and popular government.

Humbugged by Somebody.

Montevideo Leader: And now the Minnesota butter makers are getting scared for fear that Canadian reciprocity will let in so much good Canada butter that our market will be ruined. Next thing we know the American peanut raisers, the cotton and tobacco raisers and the Orange and Lemon Growers association will be protesting against reciprocity with Canada for fear that such products will come pouring into our country from the north, in quantities sufficien to glut our home markets and ruin our home producers. What shall we do? Really it strikes us that a lot of Americans are being humbugged by somebody. When Canada can raise her own dairy products, her own poultry and eggs, her own fruit and a hundred other things that she needs but has not produced in considerable quantities it will be time enough to get wild-eyed. At present she has to buy most of these things elsewhere and she would like very much to buy them in our markets.

A Chance for Eberhart.

Red Wing Republican: If no reapportionment measure is passed by the present legislature it will give Governor Eberhart an opportunity to try out the Wilson-Plaisted methods in Minnesota. They worked well in New Jersey and Maine—why not here?

Does It Sterilize?

Litchfield Independent: In all this talk about the menace to health of the insanitary drinking cup, we hear nothing said about the insanitary beer and whisky glass. Perhaps the stuff that flows over the edge does the sterilizing perfectly.

Clock of Odds and Ends.

An English butler by the name of James Gibbs has made a curious clock out of an astonishing collection of odds and ends. He designed it himself and spent his spare moments for about seven years in constructing it.

"In addition to showing the time of day and the seconds," he says in the Strand, "it also shows the days of the week, days of the month, months of the year and the phases of the moon, besides striking the hours and half hours.

"The wheels were all originally of wood, but last summer I changed some of them for others made with sheet brass. The axles are all skewers and the bearings are the eyes cut from brass hinges and let into the wooden frame.

"Bootmakers' brads are used in making divisions in the days of the week, etc., the hammer it strikes with is part of a beer tap and the pendulum, cut from an old chest of drawers, swings on a steel spring obtained from a lady's corset. The dates themselves are taken from an almanac.

"The large hands and Roman figures are carved oak and the minutes around the dial pieces of matches. The case is made of oak with the exception of the panels, which are walnut. I bought it in the rough plank and worked it with the few tools I got for the purpose.

"I am a butler and have been in service all my life and know nothing of clock or cabinet making, so you can realize what perseverance has been required. The clock is a perfect timekeeper and everything is in thorough working order."

A MOMENT WITH THE WITS.

Toledo Blade: "If you were to live abroad, where would you settle?"

"In Sicily on account of the nice people there."

"What makes you think there are only nice people in Sicily?"

"The other sort have all emigrated to America.

Punch: Constable (to visored and goggled motorist who has exceeded the speed limit)—And I have my doubts how you being your first offense. Your face seems familiar to me.

Cleveland Leader: "I wonder what the teacher meant about the singing of 'my two Hawaiis?'"

"What did he say?"

"He said that Mamie's voice was good, but Maud's was better still."

Punch: Village Constable (to villager who has been knocked down by passing motor cyclist)—You didn't see the number, but could you swear to the man?"

Villager—I did; but I don't think 'e 'eard me.

Woman's Home Companion: First Cat—How sweetly you sing! I never heard anything so entrancing! What was the last song?

Second Cat—(sentimentally)—"If I had nine thousand lives to live, I'd live them all for you."

Smart Set: Singleton—Do you believe in the old adage about marrying in haste and repenting at leisure?

Wedderly—No, I don't. After a man marries he has no leisure.

Dofbarbler: He—Yes, it's very true, a man doesn't learn what happiness is until he's married.

She—I'm glad you've discovered that at last!

He—Yes, and when he's married it's too late!

Woman's Home Companion: Customer—Are you sure you'll have my taxt at the house on time?

Garage Owner — Certainly. Don't you know there's nothing surer than death and taxis?

Reflections of a Bachelor.

New York Press: It's easy enough to acquire any habit unless it's a good one.

Families are very useful for making other troubles seem light.

How Long Can a Bee Live?

Thomas Burgess, superintendent of Kensal Green cemetery, relates a story of a bee which lived underground for seventy-five years. He says:

"While two of my men were digging a grave and when six and one-half feet down from the present surface they came on the original maiden earth, which had been covered since 1836 with earth thrown out at that date when excavating for the foundations and catacombs under our church. In throwing out a spadeful of the virgin mould under this mound it split up and broke on the board and a large bee (known as the 'bumble' bee) came out of the soil. Considering that the ground above was solid, loamy clay and six and one-half feet deep, it would be impossible for a bee to get down this depth. Is it possible, therefore, that this insect was covered up in 1836?"

Can Be Removed Easily By Stuart's Calcium Wafers in a Few Days.

Write For Free Trial Package.

Why suffer the stares of those about you because of a poor, muddy and bleary looking complexion? What you need is rich, strong, generous flowing blood to furnish a clear, clean pigment (color) to the face so that with each beat of the heart the blood courses uninterruptedly through the small surface veins of the face, thereby keeping a glowing color ever present.

Stuart's Calcium Wafers are composed of the most powerful of blood builders and purifiers, yet they are harmless and may be taken into the system by any one, even a child. What is invigorating to the weak stomach most certainly will aid the well one. Any invalid may take Stuart's Calcium Wafers and be benefited, so that no one need feel the slightest hesitancy in using these little purifiers continuously.

They work very fast and many severe cases of discolored complexions are thoroughly cleared and beautified after a brief time. The number of testimonials we have attesting to the strength, vigor and effectiveness of Stuart's Calcium Wafers would astonish one. Every druggist carries them in stock, price 50c. CONFERENCE COMES TO END

J. Campbell White Addresses the Closing Meeting of Laymen.

Temporary Missionary Committee Is Made a Permanent Body.

J. Campbell White spoke at the closing session of the anniversary conference of the laymen's missionary movement yesterday, and left later in the day.

Mr. White spoke at length at the close of the session in the Pilgrim Congregational church, Lake avenue and Second street, last night. His subject was "By-Products of the Laymen's Missionary Movement." He discussed the leading points of the movement and devoted more time to an exposition of the fundamentals of the organization than to the "by-products."

He thought that the condition of people in need of Christ was not appreciated by the missionary workers in this country who were laboring for the salvation of the heathen. He said that after ten years of personal contact with heathenism he could say with confidence that the only religion in the world with any satisfying power is that of Jesus Christ. Hinduism, Mohamedanism and the religion of Confucius have nothing in them, he said, to satisfy the soul's craving for God.

The most popular of the Hindu gods, he averred, lived such immoral lives that it is impossible to translate their biographies into the English language without running the risk of being prosecuted for obscenity. The Hindu priest, if asked why this is so, will tell you that gods, being immortal, are not bound by the laws to which mortals are subject. "Imagine immoral men," said the speaker, "apologizing for the acts of more immoral gods." He thought it impossible for real character to be formed by such influences.

"Christianity," he declared, "offers salvation by faith. Other religions attempt to offer a sort of salvation through words and even prayer." The attitude of the present generation, he said, will determine to a large extent the destiny of millions of men and women in foreign lands. "I am in this business as a layman," he declared, "because in my heart I believe it is the greatest thing that I can do. It is a man's job and it cannot be done without us. It is not the preacher's nor the missionary's task, but your's and mine. You can have as big a job as you will take. It is the men who know missions, who believe in them and who have seen them, who are putting their lives into this movement."

The conference adopted resolutions transforming the temporary laymen's missionary committee of sixty members into a permanent missionary body. It comprises the missionary committees of all of the Protestant churches in Duluth. The membership of the committee will be about 100. It will devise an adequate program of prayer for missions, the study of missions in all of the churches and a systematic canvass of every church member for weekly contributions to missions. Mr. White and Col. E. W. Halford spent most of yesterday instructing committee members in the work.

campaign on the distance tariff issue, led the fight for the bill. He called Representative G. A. MacKenzie to the chair and took the floor in behalf of the bill, the first time this has happened at this session.

Before the debate began Speaker Dunn demanded that the rule against lobbyists be enforced, and Mr. MacKenzie, from the chair, instructed the sergeant-at-arms to enforce the rule.

Bill Is Amended.

The bill, which was introduced by Representative Crane and was originally a copy of the Cashman bill, which the senate defeated, was practically redrafted by amendments drawn by Senator Cashman, offered by Mr. Crane and adopted by the house. The principal amendments were these:

Providing that the railroad and warehouse commission, "as soon as practicable," shall make and enforce schedules of reasonable maximum rates.

Classifying railroads according to gross earnings, so that weaker roads can be allowed to have higher maximum rates.

Eliminating all mention of passenger rates.

Representative D. P. O'Neill of Thief River Falls said that the time had come when the house should exercise the coolest judgment of the session. The demand for the passage of this bill grew out of the decision of the circuit court of appeals against the Minnesota rate cases, but these cases are still pending, an appeal being intended, and the passage of such legislation would destroy the state's standing in the federal courts.

Representative Washburn of Minneapolis said that the attorney general's office had authorized him to say that it was still true, as it was before the decision, that the passage of the distance tariff bill would make the rate cases "moot cases" and drive them out of court.

Speaker Dunn brushed aside the talk of the effect of the bill on the rate cases by saying that it was "a bugaboo and a clump of dust kicked up to deceive." The decision of the circuit court of appeals, he said, is more momentous than any since the Dred Scott decision, and it is as monstrously wrong.

"I am told," he said, "that the senate has reversed its position, "and that if we send this bill over they will pass it two to one. The decision means just this: The facts were found against the state, and the supreme court will sustain the decision. The rate cases are as dead today as a last year's bird's nest.

"There is a blight on the small communities, and the larger cities have grown out of proportion. It is to correct this that this bill, aimed to prevent discrimination, is brought before you today. Rate discrimination has spotted Southern Minnesota with idle flour mills and dead industries, and meanwhile the cities have had a rank, unwholesome growth."

Oppose the Bill.

Representatives Lennon, Spooner, Kneeland, Congdon and Fowler, all leading members of the speaker's organization, talked against the bill, the burden of the argument against it being that to pass it at this time will make useless all the state has done to determine its right to regulate railroad rates.

Representative Spooner said that E. T. Young and T. D. O'Brien, the state's attorneys in the pending rate cases, had advised against the passage of the bill, and that was all he wanted to know to induce him to vote against it.

Representative Kneeland of Minneapolis said that the bill had not had proper consideration.

Representative Congdon pointed out that it was rather idle to be passing a bill of this character when it will be impossible to know whether the state has the right to enact even such legislation as this until the supreme court of the United States passes on the Minnesota rate cases, and that the passage of this bill might make it necessary for the state to start its litigation all over again.

Duluth Sub-Experiment Farm.

The full text of the bill giving Duluth a sub-experiment and demonstration farm, passed by the house yesterday, is as follows:

"Section 1. That there shall be established by the board of regents of the University of Minnesota at or near the city of Duluth, in the county of St. Louis, state of Minnesota, a sub-experiment and demonstration farm and also at or near the city of Waseca in the state of Minnesota a sub-experiment and demonstration farm, each to be under the direction of the board of regents of the University of Minnesota and under such name and designation, as the board of regents may determine, whereat shall be taught by practical demonstration and training the best methods of clearing cut-over timber land, the growing of field and garden crops, marketing of such said crops, the breeding, feeding and care of dairy cows and other farm animals, butter making, production of sanitary milk, and farm and farm home management and such other subjects relating to farm life and farm practice as the board of regents may from time to time recommend.

"Sec. 2. For the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this act there is hereby appropriated from funds in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of $100,000 for the purchase of suitable tracts of land, clearing the same, and erecting thereon necessary farm buildings, purchase of implements, livestock and equipment for such sub-experiment and demonstration farms in this act provided for and for operating and maintenance thereof for two years.

"Sec. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage."

Urged the Oregon Plan.

Senator Miles Poindexter of Washington, a recent product of the primary election and of the Oregon plan of popular election of senators, addressed the house yesterday afternoon, making a very favorable impression with his clean-cut personality and forceful utterances.

He had talked to the senate in the morning, and in beginning his talk to the house he said that he had heard that one senator was taking exception to his remarks on the Oregon plan of electing senators, on the ground that the subject of his remarks was then pending before the senate.

"It is hard to say much of anything these days," said Senator Poindexter, "except on something that is or may be the subject of legislation. The states have a common interest in these things, and Minnesota's action is of concern to the people of all the states. The actions of Minnesota's senators have a national bearing, because they vote on national questions; and therefore Minnesota's method of selecting senators has a national bearing."

Senator Bourne discussed briefly the ship subsidy bill, stating that he favored repealing the legal restrictions that have grown up around American shipping rather than attempting to revive it by artificial stimulation. He said the tariff, intended to be a revenue measure, has been diverted from its original purpose so that it has served to build up and maintain special privileges long after they needed nursing. He also congratulated the house on its adoption of the federal income tax amendment, and said that the owners of great fortunes should be made to pay a larger share of the cost of enforcing laws from which they chiefly benefit.

He said that the people are going to control, and that among the agencies for that control are the initiative and the referendum, which he had seen operating in Oregon and other states and which gave no cause for alarm or opposition, as in their use the people are showing reason, conservatism and wisdom.

Senator Poindexter's talk was heartily applauded.

Registrars of Titles.

The house yesterday afternoon killed a bill by Representative Orr of St. Paul providing that the judges of the district court in the three large counties shall appoint the registrar of titles, a place now filled by the registers of deeds.

Representative Borgen of Duluth talked against the bill, saying that it was not wanted in St. Louis county and that he understood it was gotten up to give a certain man a job.

Representative Orr indignantly denied this. He said that if the registers of deeds were fit men they would still hold this work, but that if incompetent men were elected to the place, this bill would give the judges a chance to pick the right sort of men for registrars of title.

Representative A. J. Peterson of Lac Qui Parle county moved that the bill be indefinitely postponed, and opposition to the bill from Hennepin county arose.

Representative Congdon of Duluth said he could see no objection to the bill, as it simply empowers the judges to pick the proper man for this most important work.

After a brief fight the motion to indefinitely postpone the bill was adopted, and the bill was killed.

The house also killed a bill by Representative Spooner providing for a nonpartisan caucus for the nomination of candidates for elective offices in villages and fourth class cities, the vote being 44 for and 39 against.

Representative Ole Peterson's bill appropriating $6,000 for a monument at St. Peter to the late Governor John A. Johnson, passed the house 65 to 29.

The house passed Representative Denzer's bill prohibiting fraud in the sale of precious stones, and the bill by Representative Hopkins and J. N. Johnson repealing the law making attempted suicide a felony.

The senate passed Senator Cheadle's bill prohibiting fraudulent advertisements.

The senate judiciary committee yesterday afternoon voted to report out without recommendation Representative Albert Pfaender's initiative and referendum bill, with an amendment excepting from the referendum bills passed by the legislature providing appropriations for public institutions and measures relating to the public health.

The Drainage Probe.

C. A. Stewart of the University of Wisconsin, the expert engineer summoned by the Knapp investigating committee to examine the state ditches in Aitkin county regarding which complaint had been made, has made his report to the committee, and aside from a few minor defects he finds that the ditches were dug according to plans and specifications. The road work has been somewhat neglected, however. On ditch No. 83 he finds that the inspector was somewhat careless and let the contractors leave the transit line and run the ditch 400 or 500 feet away to avoid a deep cut at an angle, injuring some nearby property owners.

D. A. Stuart, attorney for Drainage Engineer Ralph, will conclude his argument to the committee Friday night, after which each member of the committee will present his idea of what the report ought to be. The report will be in about Saturday, and while a majority will merely call for a reorganization of the drainage commission, exonerating Ralph, a minority report will call for Ralph's removal on the ground of inefficiency.

The senate yesterday afternoon passed the bill by Senator Thoe prohibiting unfair discrimination between localities in the sale of lumber.

The senate last night took up the Red Wing training school affair as a special order, having before it the majority and minority reports resulting from the investigation of the charges of cruelty made against Supt. Whittier. Senator J. D. Sullivan of St. Cloud, the member of the committee who conducted the examination, led the fight for the adoption of the report. He made a strong arraignment of Whittier and his management charging needless and brutal cruelty. He said that the man who would invent such an institution as the famous whipping machine, which was used until it was burned in 1905, was unfit for such a place. He charged that the boys were whipped for smoking, when Whittier and his assistants smoked around the grounds and threw cigar stumps about to tempt the inmates. Whipping was resorted to to force confessions, in one case, it is charged, though denied by Whittier, the superintendent and one of his men whipping a colored boy until they were tired out. The books show that 155 whippings were administered last year in an institution of less than 250 inmates, and not all the whippings are on the books. The defense was led by Senator A. J. Rockne of Zumbrota, who made an able presentation of Supt. Whittier's side of the case.

The senate finally decided to amend the majority report by striking out the recommendation for Supt. Whittier's removal, and the report was then adopted, 34 to 23.

TEN MINUTES IN FARGO.

Col. Roosevelt Will Only Make Rear Car Speech in City.

Fargo, N. D., April 13.—Col. Roosevelt will reach Fargo at 9:30 o'clock tomorrow morning, but will stop only ten minutes. His itinerary has been so arranged he cannot change it to accept urgent invitations of Fargoans to be their guest again. A number of his Fargo friends are planning to join the train here and ride to St. Paul or to some point where they will meet returning westbound train, so they can renew old associations.

An attempt was made to have the former president consent to make a rear-platform talk while the train does stop here. Hundreds of Fargoans will be at the depot to see him.

"RECIPROCITY RALLY" IS HELD AT BUFFALO.

Buffalo, N. Y., April 13.—A "reciprocity rally," participated in by representatives of several cities, was held here last night under the auspices of the chamber of commerce and manufacturers' club. Resolutions were adopted indorsing the pending agreement between the United States and Canada, and commending President Taft and his cabinet for "inaugurating such an important step in the world's commerce."

NORTH DAKOTA WET.

CLOQUET SONS OF RED MEN GIVING SALUTE.

IS ACCUSED OF FORGERY

Sivert Loberg of Carlton County Said to Be Handy With Pen.

Passed $75 Check in Cloquet That Was Declared to Be Worthless.

Carlton, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—Deputy Sheriff John Flynn returned from Cloquet yesterday having in charge two men who were landed in the county jail. One of them was Sam Sampson, sent up for five days for drunkenness, who was also suffering from delirium tremens. The other, Sivert Loberg, was captured by Chief McSweeney of the Cloquet city force on Tuesday.

It is alleged that Loberg forged a check and passed it in Isaac Summerfield's store on Jan. 25. The check was for $75 and was signed by Ole Anderson, and the man went into the store and made a few trifling purchases, presenting the check in payment, which was accepted. Later the check was found to be a forgery.

Officer Finds His Man.

Loberg had left the city hurriedly, and his whereabouts was not known until a day or two ago, when the chief learned that a man answering his description was living at Loophole, near Mississippi Landing. Taking a helper along to identify Loberg the chief went to his home. Not finding him home McSweeney went to Mississippi Landing and met his quarry just starting home. He was promptly arrested and his preliminary hearing will take place today or tomorrow at Cloquet. He has a wife and four children living at Loophole. He is 35 years old.

HORSE STEALING CASE ALL WRONG

Mistaken Identity Gives Polk and Red Lake County Authorities Sensation.

East Grand Forks, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—An alleged horse stealing which created a stir among the authorities turned out to be only a case of mistaken identity and all things were righted without legal action. A well-known farmer drove to the city Saturday with a new horse which he had purchased that day. Late at night he identified his horse at the livery barn and drove home. Later John Powers came for his equine and found it missing. The police were at once notified and all surrounding cities notified of the stealing. A man driving into Red Lake Falls leading a horse behind his rig was arrested but released when he had proved that he had not been near this city.

It was Wednesday morning before this farmer drove into the city and discovered his mistake, being approached by the authorities as soon as the horse was recognized. After a long story he was hurried to the Smith & Sinclair livery barn, claimed his own horse, paid all telephone calls to the sheriff and then ordered "treats" for the crowd.

BRINGS $100 AN ACRE.

Banner Price Is Paid for Stearns County Farm.

St. Cloud, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—William Wortz, living two and one-half miles south of Watkins, Stearns county, sold his forty-acre farm for $4,000—$100 per acre. The land is first-class and this is certainly the highest price ever paid for farm land in this county. He then bought the farm of Leonard Lotz adjoining, 100 acres for $7,000—$70 per acre.

SHERIFF IS REMOVED.

Wisconsin Executive Relieves Forest County Official of Duties.

Madison, Wis., April 13.—Governor McGovern has removed Sheriff W. B. St. John of Forest county on a charge of malfeasance and appointed George W. Monte to succeed him.

St. John formerly was county treasurer of Forest county and at present is under indictment with a number of others on charges of embezzlement. The testimony taken by District Attorney Umbreit brought out the allegation that St. John $5,100 short in his county funds. District Attorney Umbreit stated that he had not decided as yet whether or not the state will proceed with the hearing against J. C. Mars, deposed district attorney of Forest county, which has been set for next Tuesday. Disbarment proceedings against the deposed county officer will be heard on April 23 and the state may rest its case against Mars until that time.

HAS DOCTOR ARRESTED.

Grand Forks Woman Proceeds Under New North Dakota Law.

Grand Forks, N. D., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—The first arrest under the new law passed by the last legislature concerning the practice of physicians in the state without passing examination by the state board, was made here yesterday, when Dr. J. E. Dornan of the United German Doctors, who have been touring the state, was taken in charge. The action was brought by Mrs. Mary Tracy, who charged that the doctor did not give her full value for money expended.

Leave Grand Forks Jail.

Grand Forks, N. D., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—The county jail lost three inmates yesterday, P. R. Flem, Ole H. Opperdahl and H. McDonald having served their time and were released. Flem and Opperdahl, convicted of blind-pigging in Nelson county, served ninety days, paid $200 fine and $20 costs, and McDonald served ten days for vagrancy.

Grand Forks Man Injured.

DULUTHIANS TO ATTEND

Grand Opening of Fargo Commercial Club April 21.

Fargo, N. D., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—The grand opening of the Fargo Commercial club will be held at the clubrooms April 21. The event will be in the nature of a big banquet and will be for members only.

Visitors will be in the city for the occasion from every representative city in the Northwest, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth, Valley City, Grand Forks, Wahpeton, Minnewaukon, Bismarck, Mayville and Minot Commercial clubs will send representatives to the big opening.

Michigan Legislator Drops Dead.

Lansing, Mich., April 13.—While on his way to attend a session of the legislature yesterday afternoon, Representative Benjamin F. Heckert of Paw Paw was stricken with heart disease and dropped dead on the street. He was 71 years old and was serving his third term in the house.

Negaunee—The funeral of Mrs. Richard Harvey, an old resident who died Monday, will be held Thursday afternoon. She was a native of England. She had passed her 71st birthday, and is survived by her husband, two sons and three daughters. The children are: Mrs. Michael Cox of Negaunee, Mrs. Julia Bartlett, Mrs. S. Treloar and R. H. Harvey of Kalamazoo, and Thomas Harvey of Crystal Falls.

Ishpeming—James E. Southey died suddenly Monday evening of heart disease. He was the Ishpeming representative of the Royal Tea company. He was about 35 years of age and is survived by his widow and one child. He has three sisters and one brother. Two of his sisters reside in Negaunee and the other lives in Gwinn.

Marquette—Mrs. Carl F. Rohl, long a resident of Marquette, died Tuesday as a result of a stroke of paralysis that she suffered about a week ago. Mrs. Rohl was 83 years of age, having been born in Germany April 18, 1828. Her marriage to Mr. Rohl occurred in Negaunee in 1870, and they came to Marquette the following year, having made this city their home for the past forty years. Four children survive.

Houghton—The Houghton county authorities have caused the burial of the body of the infant found in a suit case in a North-Western railray car at Calumet Monday, and have referred the matter to the Milwaukee authorities. No inquest was deemed necessary.

Houghton—Articles of association have been filed in the office of the county clerk by the incorporators of the R. B. Lang Dry Goods company of Houghton. The purpose of the association is to carry on the mercantile business of the present R. B. Lang store. The amount of the capital stock is $40,000 divided into 400 shares at $100 per share.

Negaunee—Angus MacDonald, brother-in-law of Richard Barkle of Hancock, has been removed from Colorado Springs, where he had been residing in hopes of benefiting his health, to Negaunee. He is not expected to live. Mr. MacDonald was a soldier in the Spanish-American war in Cuba and never fully recovered from sickness contracted there.

Hancock—S. Tuominen, a worker at the sixty-eighth level of No. 7 shaft of the Quincy mine, was injured seriously about the head Monday afternoon, by a fall of rock. He was hurried to the surface and given instant medical attention and then taken to St. Joseph's hospital. He is reported as resting easily.

Hancock—By a 7 to 11 vote, the motion to lay the matter of appropriating $1,000 to the treasury of the Upper Peninsula Development bureau on the table until the next meeting of the Houghton county board of supervisors was carried at the April meeting of the board Tuesday.

Calumet—At a special meeting of the Ahmeek village council, officers for the ensuing year were appointed as follows: Marshal, John Drinkman; deputy marshal, Joseph Salaso; street commissioner, John Kurle; election inspector, Joseph Ziehr; health officer, W. T. King.

Houghton—Ed Haas arrived home Tuesday from Cleveland, Ohio, where he closed a contract with a big mercantile company which is to occupy a building to be constructed by Mr. Haas in Houghton this summer. Mr. Haas would not divulge the name of the firm.

Calumet—Word has been received in Calumet announcing the death of Mrs. Sophie Welsenborn, wife of L. W. Welsenborn, formerly of Calumet, which occurred last Saturday at Portland, Or., after a prolonged illness. The deceased was 28 years of age and was born in this city, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Niva.

DAKOTA BRIEFS

Oakes, S. D.—Fire early Tuesday morning completely gutted the Vickel Hotel at this place. The structure was one of the oldest in town and was of frame, and fire spread so rapidly after discovery that nothing could be done to save the building or much of the contents.

Bismarck, N. D.—The Capital City now boasts of a Boy's Boat club which has as its purpose the amusement and instruction of its members. Most of the boys enrolled on its log book are between the ages of 12 and 14. They expect to derive considerable fun from their society this summer vacation. The club is named the Irene Boat club.

Bowbells, N. D.—F. E. Heckel has arrived in the city from Grand Forks and is going into the law business in partnership with Charles A. Verret of the Security Abstract company here. He was admitted to the bar in North Dakota last December, having studied law in the University of Chicago.

Grand Forks, N. D.—Mr. and Mrs. Matthew McDonald and children have left for Culbertson, Mont., where they will make their future home. They were among the pioneer settlers of the valley, having been engaged in farming near Ardoch for over twenty-five years.

Bismarck, N. D.—The office of the secretary of state has issued a charter to the Farmers' and Merchants' State Bank of Robinson. Robinson is located in Kidder county. The names appearing on the papers of incorporation are T. F. Pryse and F. A. Cameron, both of Dawson, and C. R. Weber of Jamestown. The bank will be capitalized for $10,000.

Grand Forks, N. D.—The regular spring meeting of Adams Presbytery opened at the Bethel church, east of this city Tuesday night, with the moderator's sermon which was delivered by Rev. Robert Sidebotham of Warroad. The regular business session was held Wednesday.

Fargo, N. D.—E. W. Parker appeared before Judge Hanson Tuesday afternoon in the county court and was given a sentence of ninety days in jail for keeping a house of ill fame. He pleaded guilty.

Park River, N. D.—A Fourth of July celebration that will surpass anything ever attempted in the east half of the state is an assured fact, the Commercial club having received assurance of the co-operation of the commercial organization of Medford, Fairdale, Lankin and Adams.

Fargo, N. D.—The force of workers at the office of J. W. Riley, the superintendent of the Cass county schools, has completed the gigantic task of grading almost 5,000 final papers. For weeks the corps of workers has been looking over the final examination papers of the Eighth grade students of the county.

MINNESOTA BRIEFS

Stillwater—The twenty-five girls working in the stitching factory of the Western Shoe company walked out Tuesday. They have no grievance as to wages or hours of work. Their protest was raised to the installing of Miss Tillie Charles as forewoman of the crew.

St. Cloud—Mrs. Annie Marie Anderson, wife of Casper Anderson of Waite Park, passed away Tuesday of heart trouble. The deceased was an old and respected resident. Mrs. Anderson was 6 years of age. She is survived by her husband and one daughter, Mrs. H. P. Larson of Waite Park.

Bemidji—Judge Gorham Powers of the Fergus Falls judicial district will address the Carr post, 174, department of Minnesota, G. A. R., on next Memorial day.

Argyle—The Argyle village council settled the saloon question for this year by fixing the license at $1,000 each, and there will be saloons here this year. The village voted in favor of saloons by a very narrow margin at the last election. The old council passed a resolution favoring placing the license at $5,000, which would be prohibitive.

Ada—J. G. Herringer last week sold his moving picture machine and a part of the other equipment of the Comet theater at Ada to W. B. Bosworth, manager of the opera house. Mr. Bosworth expects to run a moving-picture show this summer.

Crookston — Contractor E. Johnson left Tuesday for Warren, where he will start the brick work for the new Taralseth block, for which O. M. Sivertson has the general contract. The contract for the new North Star college has not been awarded, but will probably be given to Mr. Sivertson also.

South Haven—Fire, which it is believed was of an incendiary origin, Tuesday morning completely destroyed the lumber yard and implement house belonging to the Central Lumber company and the general merchandise store of Forsbest Bros.

Moorhead—Supt. A. B. Hess of the schools of Larimore, N. D., has accepted the superintendency of the Crookston schools for the coming year. He succeeds Supt. E. E. McIntyre, who has been at the head of the schools there for the last eight years.

Brainerd—Liberty Hose company has elected these officers: Foreman, Clyde McDonald; first assistant, Edward Anderson; second assistant, Gerald Barron; secretary, William Wallace; treasurer, Edward Crust.

Little Falls—Maj. Galladay of St. Paul, who is in the general recruiting service, opened a recruiting station upstairs in the Rhodes and Tanner block Wednesday morning, and is ready to enlist any young men between the ages of 18 and 35 for all branches of the army service.

Aitkin—A farmers' institute will be held at McGregor on Saturday afternoon. F. B. McLeran, one of the state instructors, will give a talk and demonstrations on general farm topics of interest to that locality. Mrs. Margaret Baker, the state domestic science lecturer and demonstrator, will be present to talk to the ladies, and the meeting will be one of much interest and profit to the people who attend.

Moorhead—Carrie Barney, who was arrested by Chief of Police Maivey on complaint of City Attorney Garfield Rustad, charged with selling liquor without a license, pleaded guilty and was fined $50 and costs.

Mankato—More than sixty dentists, a number of them accompanied by their wives, are attending the meeting of the Southern Minnesota Dental association. The sessions are being held at the Knights of Columbus hall.

Minneapolis—Another skyscraper for Minneapolis, to be constructed at a cost of about $1,000,000, is planned by John Gately of the Gately Clothing company, who has purchased a site adjoining the Orpheum theater on Seventh street between Nicollet and Hennepin avenues, from Martin Beck, owner of the Orpheum theater circuit The property is located at 35 Seventh street south and has a frontage of 50 feet and a depth of 167 feet.

WISCONSIN BRIEFS

Milwaukee—Steps toward the disbarment of William A. Stuart, the attorney convicted of having uttered a forged note and sentenced to eighteen months in the house of correction, were taken by the Milwaukee County Bar association Tuesday when Christian Doerfler, president of the association, transmitted a copy of the testimony in the case to E. L. Wood, chairman of the grievance committee.

Green Bay—Cornelius Toohey, formerly of Muscatine, Iowa, has leased the Hotel Cook, one of the oldest hotels in the state, and will conduct it after July 1. He will rename and remodel the hotel.

Madison—Articles of incorporation for the Burnett County State Bank of Webster in the town of Meenon were approved by Commissioner of Banking Kuehl, Tuesday. The bank is capitalized at $10,000 and the incorporators are A. P. Nelson, L. R. Roberts and O. Anderson.

La Crosse—While walking along the Burlington track in the sand pit at Stoodard, Max W. Wodzinski, a saloon keeper, was struck by a string of work train cars, killing him instantly. Wodzinski was unable to hear on account of the noise of a steam shovel.

Richland Center—S. W. Fogo, editor of the Republican Observer, of this city, son of the late W. M. Fogo, a well known newspaper man and politician, was married here Tuesday to Miss Theo Francisco of this city.

Ashland—At a special meting of the school board Monday evening, T. Hooper filed his formal resignation as superintendent of the public schools of Ashland to take effect at the close of the school year.

Milwaukee—Frederick C. Westfahl, president of the Milwaukee Pile works and for fifty-five years a resident of Milwaukee, died Tuesday in his home, 3001 McKinley boulevard, of cancer, after an illness since last January. Mr. Westfahl was born at Rostok, Germany, on Sept. 24, 1850, and came to Milwaukee with his parents when he was 6 years of age.

Grand Rapids—While closing his saloon Sunday night, Louis Schall was held up by two masked men, who confronted him with drawn revolvers. One of the men covered Schall, while the other emptied the cash register of $152 in cash, and they then escaped. Two suspects have been held by the police awaiting an investigation.

Madison—The Soo road on Tuesday filed a petition for a certificate of convenience and necessity with the state railway commission to authorize the building of a seventy-mile extension of its line from Frederic, Polk county, to a point near Foxboro, Douglas county, where it will join the trunk line. The commission will hold a hearing on May 2.

Eau Claire—Ole O. Arnstad, a manufacturer here, was discovered on Tuesday in the loft of his barn, dangling from the end of a small piece of clothesline which he had connected with a rafter. A first attempt, in same manner, failed. No cause for his act is known. His body was found by his small son.

Chews the Way to Health

What are you doing to give your children sound and healthy teeth? Out of 11,374 children inspected by the Medical Inspector in the schools of Toronto nearly 3,000 cases of physical defects were found. Of these 2,027 were credited to decayed and imperfectly formed teeth. Sound teeth and good bones come from thoroughly chewing a food that is rich in the phosphates. You can't build them with mushy porridges, soggy pastries or sweetmeats. Shredded Whole Wheat contains all the necessary phosphates in a digestible form. You HAVE to chew

SHREDDED WHEAT

The crispness of the shreds compels thorough chewing and a thorough mixing with saliva, which is the first process in digestion.

Shredded Wheat Biscuit every morning for breakfast, served with milk or cream, will build sturdy, robust youngsters and is a preventive of stomach and bowel disorders so common to children. Being ready-cooked and ready-to-serve it is so easy to prepare a nourishing meal with it in combination with fresh or preserved fruits—a meal that is deliciously satisfying to grown-ups as well as youngsters. Your grocer sells it.

Woman's Danger Periods Made Safe

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The Change of Life is the most critical period of a woman's existence, and neglect of health at this time invites disease.

Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs. Here is proof:

Natick, Mass.,—"I cannot express what I went through during the Change of Life before I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in such a nervous condition I could not keep still. My limbs were cold. I had creepy sensations and could not sleep nights. I was finally told by two physicians that I had a tumor.

"I read one day of the wonderful cures made by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it, and it has made me a well woman. My neighbors and friends declare it has worked a miracle for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth its weight in gold for women during this period of life. If it will help others you may publish this letter."—Mrs. Nathan B. Greaton, 51 No. Main St., Natick, Mass.

ANOTHER SIMILAR CASE.

Cornwallville, N. Y.—"I have been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for some time for Change of Life, nervousness, and a fibroid growth.

"Two doctors advised me to go to the hospital, but one day while I was away visiting, I met a woman who told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and I know it helped me wonderfully. I am very thankful that I was told to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Wm. Boughton, Cornwallville, N. Y., Greene Co.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as those above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for years.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

MINNEAPOLIS WILL HOLD BIG CONFERENCE MEET

500 Athletes Expected to Compete in Eleventh Annual Western Games.

Record Revision Gives Gopher Team Seventh Place in 1911 Meet.

One hundred and thirty schools and colleges have been invited to attend the track meet of the Intercollegiate Conference Athletic association, known popularly as the Western conference, to be held on Northrop field of the University of Minnesota, June 2 and 3. These institutions are in the Middle and Far West, covering a territory from Ohio to California and Oregon and from Minnesota and North Dakota to Louisiana.

The meet to be held on Northrop field is the eleventh annual meet of the conference and the first to be held in Minnesota. The 1910 meet was held at Champaign on Illinois field. Thirty-three colleges were entered and the total number of competing men ran over 400. At the time of the 1910 meet it was announced that Notre Dame had won first place, but that result has been corrected so that Notre Dame and Leland Stanford tied for first. This meet was the first in which a non-conference team won first place. Each conference team will make an effort in the 1911 meet to win back the title.

As the Intercollegiate conference was formed to make sports cleaner and put intercollegiate athletics on a sounder basis, the guests of the conference are asked to live up to conference eligibility rules. These rules eliminate freshmen and men who have already competed three years or have a college degree. Each athlete must be free from conditions or flunks, and must sign a statement that he is eligible to compete under the spirit and letter of the conference rules.

At the University of Minnesota many changes are being made in the field and equipment, to allow the better handling of the 500 men expected to compete in the meet. The track is being worked over daily and will be in the best possible shape for the runners. It has been proposed to bring a Harvard track expert West for a week to see that the track is built exactly right, but the matter has not been definitely settled. For the jumping ground, ground cork is being tried in the place of sand, and if the trial is successful, the cork will be permanently substituted.

In the armory, preparations are being made to house the coming 500. At other conference meets it has been impossible to give every man a locker, and in some cases adequate dressing room could not be provided. The Minnesota managers hope to furnish a locker in sections to teams, so that the men of each college will be together. The large drill floor will probably be used for rubbing and resting quarters.

The medals to be given at this meet will be of regular conference design. Winners of firsts will get gold medals; winners of second, silver; and winners of thirds, bronze. Places count five, three, and one toward the meet championship. In addition to the individual models, the Spalding cup will be given to the winner to keep as a trophy until the next meet. It becomes the possession of any college winning it in three successive meets. Michigan has a similar cup, won by winning the 1901, 1902 and 1903 meets.

The last event on the conference program is a relay race. The college winning this race will be presented with a large shield, bearing the name of the winner, the men running, the date and circumstances. The conference itself usually gives a trophy to the winner of the meet.

Following the conference meet last year, there was some question as to the eligibility of Philbrook and Dimmick of Notre Dame and Nelson of Washington. On April 1, the conference board of directors declared these men ineligible and their points forfeited. In the readjustment, Frank of Minnesota was given first in the shot put, and Hill was given third in the 100-yard dash and second in the 220.

Stanford and Notre Dame having tied for the championship, the conference trophy and the Spalding cup are now in possession of the board of directors and will not be given out again until after the Minnesota meet.

Five records were broken and one equalled in the last conference meet. It is hardly hoped that the records this year will be changed as much but the coaches are preparing for fast events and some phenomenal results are looked for. The new records set up were:

	Old.	new.
Mile; Baker of Oberlin	4:25	4:20:4-5
Quarter; Davenport, Chicago	:49:4-5	:48:4-5
220 hurdles; Fletcher, Notre Dame	:25	:24:4-5
Half mile; Davenport, Chicago	1:57:2-5	1:56:3-5
High jump; Baker Kansas	5:11	1-6 6:00:5-8 feet

Davenport of Chicago, who made two of the new records, expects to be in the conference this year.

Coach Grant of the University of Minnesota has twenty-four men training for the conference and will pick his team from this squad. Minnesota made more points in the last conference than in any since 1902. Encouraged by this fact, the men and the coach are working hard and expect to roll up a high score in the meet to be held on their own field.

SWEDISH COMMITTEE TO CURTAIL OLYMPIC GAMES

New York, April 13.—The list of events for the Olympic games to be held in Stockholm Sweden, in 1912 will be curtailed, according to the present plans.

The international Olympic committee finds itself concerned with the condensation and the necessity for standard conditions governing the events decided upon. The shortness of the period of the festival involves the omission of certain of the sports found on the London Olympic program, which called out English competitors exclusively.

The Swedish committee proposes to intrust the work of the actual management to subcommittees appointed by the governing associations of Sweden.

As the Swedes only will be appointed officials, but the Swedish committee may at its discretion avail itself of the assistance of foreigners, as was done occasionally—for instance, in fencing—by the British committee.

Changes in the Rules.

Mention is made in the general regulations of international juries, to be composed of representatives of all the nations taking part in the games, and having jurisdiction over different branches of sport. It is further laid down that the decision of protests will rest with the jury, and not, as heretofore, with the executive officials.

Running races at all of the most popular distances are retained, but there is only one walking contest, at the distance of 10,000 meters, as against those of 8,500 meters and ten miles held in 1908. The 400 meters hurdle and the steeplechase are eliminated, except that the latter will form part of the "modern Pentathlon." On the other hand a new event is introduced in a cross-country race at 8,000 meters, a short distance for a race of this kind. Similar objections could be made to the relay race of 400 meters, which must be a mistake, and intended to be 400 meters for each man, as races of the relay nature at 400 meters are only run by elementary school boys here.

Some Innovations Planned.

Greco-Roman will be the style in the wrestling bouts, this being the style universally used on the continent. In gymnastics a team competition in exercises according to the Swedish system is a new feature.

Noticeable innovations in the swimming events will be a 400 meters breast stroke and a 100 meters race, as well as a diving contest for ladies. Mention is made in the rowing line of but two first-class events, viz., the eights and the sculls. Instead of pairs and fours, two events are put forward for four-oared crews, one in best boats for coxswains, the other in inrigged boats, the special definition of which is to be issued by the Swedish R. A. at an early date.

Swedes Trained By Hjertberg.

According to Joe Kavanaugh, who is in Sweden now, every town and hamlet has its quota of athletes training under the supervision of Ernie Hjertberg, the former trainer of the Irish-American and New York Athletic clubs, who makes the rounds of all the towns in Sweden, stopping for a day or so in each place to advise the young men in their work.

The result of Hjertberg's work has been gratifying to the government officials, who brought him over for the special purpose of developing the Swedish athletes for the big games. He has formed clubs in each town, and every man who has any ability is forced to get into the contests.

MINNEAPOLIS GIRLS WILL SELL BASEBALL TICKETS.

Minneapolis, Minn., April 13.—When Minneapolis baseball fans wedge their way in front of the ticket windows at Nicollet park on the afternoon of April 25 they will be confronted by smiling feminine faces. The owners of the faces will be expected to make change just as rapidly as the box-office men and ask the usual questions about "grandstand or bleacher?"

President Michael Cantillon has determined upon the innovation after some thought, and believes that it will prove a success in Minneapolis. The idea has been tried before, but in nearly every instance the girls have given way to men ticket sellers.

PAL MOORE NO MATCH FOR WELSH

New York, April 13.—Freddie Welsh, the English lightweight, outfought, outpointed and outgeneralled Pal Moore of Philadelphia in a ten-round bout last night. The first and second rounds were about even; the others were Welsh's.

Welsh gave a clever exhibition of footwork and blocking. Repeatedly Moore jabbed with right and lefts, only to find Welsh's elbow in the way. Through the latter rounds the Englishman seemed merely to play with the Philadelphian.

In the third round Welsh got a hard jab to Pal's nose, making it bleed, and kept playing for this mark. In the fifth round the Philadelphian was staggered with a hard left to the body. He rallied and fought back gamely but could not land on the elusive Briton. This angered Moore and he made several swings which, however, were wild.

Open Season Sunday.

The Hungry Nine will play the N. A. Telegraph team next Sunday. The Hungrys are the messenger boys of the Western Union Telegraph company and the latter are the boys of the North American Telegraph company's messenger service. The Hungry Nine had a strong team last season. This will be the first time that the N. A. Telegraph company has had a team.

COMMENTS AND OPINIONS ON THE SPORTING PARADE

Comiskey and His Moose—Some Special Correspondence From California Jails—Hamlet Without the Melancholy Dane—That's Gratitude—New Wrinkle in Handling Pugilists.

CHICAGO papers have been playing up the story of the moose-bearing delegation of Duluth cits who will play the spot light stage center in the big festivities incident to the opening of the American league season in dear old Commy's South side park.

It might be said that all the Twin City papers have carried the story, mentioning the names of the men named in The Duluth Herald story. This moose incident has already done much to advertise the city of Duluth, already famed as the greatest big game country in the world, and before the moose is mounted in the office of the old Roman, genial Jack McGreevy and the other cits will have done lots, and then some, to place the fair name of Duluth more prominently on the map.

They are talking about the trip all over the city at the present time, and it is very likely that the delegation will be larger than was at first supposed. Commy holds a warm spot in the hearts of many of the good fellows here, and it is probable that he has as many friends in Duluth as in any city of its size in the country.

There is little doubt but that the Old Roman holds his many friends up here in high regard. He has had some of the best times in his life right up in the country around Duluth; while that moose hunt of last fall will be remembered by the kindly and genial owner of the White Sox as long as he lives.

The presenting of a monster bull moose by a delegation of citizens from a Far Northern city, comparatively speaking, is something quite unique, and will lend zest and the touch of novelty to the big baseball entertainment that has been planned for April 20.

Some Special Correspondence.

DREARY jail house, San Francisco, Cal., April 13.—(Special correspondence.)—Jack Johnson has been hanging around the local bars all day but has been drinking nothing but water. Yesterday a farmer drove by the jail with a wagon load of live chickens, and as the champion looked drearily out of the window, bitter tears ran down his ebony cheeks. There are also tiers in the jail.

A real tough man in the steel cage across the corridor from Johnson told the champion he was a big dub and that if Johnson would come outside he would lick him. Johnson didn't go outside. Today they served bean soup, which is the first Jack has had since the night he won the decision over George Gardner.

At six bells this morning one of the turnkeys hauled Artha out of bed and ordered him to the stable to curry the horses. Johnson tried to give the turnkey a watch fob, but he told Lil' Artha he would have to curry horses instead of favor.

The horse that Jack was told to primp is named Jeffries. It was named several years ago—yes, sir. Johnson was ordered to clean this horse. You know he also cleaned the other Jeffries. Johnson slapped the nag with the back of his curry comb and the plug kicked right out at the smoke. However, this is not the first kick the champion has had coming since he was incarcerated, which I have been informed, means locked up.

After the work in the stable Johnson had a light breakfast, consisting of beefsteak, eggs, chops, vegetables and potatoes, some porridge, for Jack is quite English in his habits, buckwheat cakes and coffee. While his diet has been cut down the food is substantial and the guards believe it will teach the champion discipline.

After weakfast Artha was placed on the job of white washing. Mayor Schmidt and Abe Ruef once tried to do some white washing out in San Francisco.

The champion has been wearing a suit discarded by a man sent up for vagrancy. One of the guards asked him if he was affected with ennui. An examination, however, showed that it was fleas.

Hamlet Without the Dane.

SOME years ago, when in the very height of his fame and popularity, Mister James J. Corbett visited England and the National Sporting club. Therein he saw many pictures of the world's most prominent fighters. Looking as thoroughly as he did, he failed to spy his own picture. It was here that Mr. Corbett remarked that the arrangement was very much like a play of Will Shakespeare's Hamlet without the Sothern, or the Hamlet.

Some few years ago there was to be a meeting of very prominent Republicans for the purpose of holding an important conference. Mr. Roosevelt was expected to take a very prominent part in the discussion. He was unable to come.

When it was learned that Mr. Roosevelt was unable to be present, one of the men rose and said, "Oh h—ll, fellows, we might as well call this meeting off."

All of which leads up to the point of saying that the Washington Baseball team without the presence of Walter Johnson would be quite as featureless as Reno, Nev.,—without divorce diversions.

That's Gratitude For You.

BASEBALL players of this day and generation are, as a rule, very smart and intelligent men. Many of them are graduates of colleges, who are in the game of baseball because they can make very much money at it. Baseball today pays highly, for talent is not growing on the bushes, or in the bushes.

Some few years ago it was not thusly. Indeed, Clarence, it was not so. The players were ignorant and some even hung their clothes on the bell cord of the sleeper. One ball player chased the colored porter the length of the car, because he thought he was trying to steal his shoes.

There was Pete Browning, and from what historians have written about him, he was a leaning tower of ignorance.

One day he was presented with a handsonme gold watch. There was a tremendous crowd on hand and the mayor did the presenting, making a flowery speech, as mayors are wont at times. Then he handed the watch over to the grinning player with an elaborate bow.

Old Pete looked at the watch closely an a frown gathered on his furrowed brow, as a cloud gathers on the fair sky forewarns the coming of a storm. He turned the handsome watch slowly in his ponderous paw, and then looking inquiringly at the mayor, he asked:

"Where is the chain?"

They Couldn't Calm Big Bill.

IF THIS Hugh McIntosh isn't original, there isn't a sun that rises and greets us workers every early morn. Just at the present time a story is going the rounds of the various papers, telling how the Australian promoter tried to keep the mind of Bill Lange off the Langford fight.

The story tells how the pugilist was taken for a long ride and then taken to the office of the promoter, where flowers and beautiful women were in abundance, not to mention profusion. The story called them beautiful women gowned in the most gorgeous gowns. English society women, by Jove, there to talk to Bill, and pour tea for him.

After the Reno fight a man struck town and one day was telling some of his impressions of Reno and the big fight. One of his most vivid impressions was Bill Lange. According to the description of this man, Lange has a face worse than a nightmare induced by a welsh rarebit.

His hair comes down his forehead and gets familiar with his eye brows. His eyes are small and glittering. He looks even tougher than a plumber with a grouch on, said this visitor.

Can you imagine this holding converse with the beautiful woman? Bill has so little mind that it is extremely hard to corner it. They should have hypnotized it and locked it in the safe.

STRONG TEAM FOR GRAND RAPIDS

Grand Rapids, Minn., April 13.—The Grand Rapids high school baseball team will open the season Saturday, April 15, with Deer River at the local South side park. The baseball candidates have begun their practice and by the time of the first game expect to have a first-class team whipped into shape. The high school boys expect to land the championship of Northern Minnesota. The game with the Duluth Centrals will be the main feature of the season. Bemidji, which will have the fastest team in that part of the state, will be brought here for a game.

The candidates for the team are: Will Whalling, Capt. David Rima, Tom Erskine, Will Powers, John Benton, Frank McAlpine, John Costello, Harold Lee, Webster Tyndall, Galen Finnegan, Ernest Parish, John Sinnet, Ed Farrell, Alelr Arsenault, Carl Hepfel, Russel Kremer.

The schedule that the manager has secured is as follows:

April 15—Deer River.
April 22—Coleraine.
April 29—Deer River.
May 6—Bemidji.
May 13—Coleraine.
May 20—Cass Lake.
May 27—Duluth.
June 10—Hibbing.

The local high school will be represented by a track team at the track and field meet to be held at Hibbing, May 20. In this meet every high school on the range will be represented and it promises to be a great event.

ROCHESTER TO GET CHIEF CHASE BACK.

From the Minneapolis team hangout at Toledo, where the Millers opened yesterday, comes the information that Chief Chase, the speed ball Indian with Rochetser last season, and accounted one of the very best pitchers in the league, will be returned to the Surgeons with a string attachment.

The chief has been with the Millers on th espring training trip and has worked in some of the exhibition games. Though showing improvement, it is given out that the Indian is not ripe for American association company. The return of Chase to the Mayo team will mean strength and confidence in Corbett's camp.

With the added experience he has gained with the Millers the redskin should prove about the best pitcher in the league the present season.

BARRIERS DROPPED IN THREE LEAGUES AND PENNANT RACES FOR 1911 ARE ON

Honored in one instance by participation of the presdient of the United States, and in others by chief executives of the cities, baseball—the national game—began a six-months season yesterday in seven major league and three American association parks to the cheers of thousands of enthusiasts.

Detroit was the only major league city where the weather prevented the appearance of the players. In Washington President Taft fossed out the first ball, and lent his support to the local team, which beat Boston 8 to 5.

The world's champions of Philadelphia opened by dropipng into the second division of the first night's standing in the 1911 race through a defeat by the New Yorks, 2 to 1. On the other hand, the American league tailenders of 1910 began with a flourish at St. Louis, where the locals easily beat Cleveland.

The National league season began with an eleven-inning tie in Chicago, where the contenders in the world series last year quit even with St. Louis after darkness put an end to the scoring, 3 to 3. Mayor-elect Carter Harrison threw out the first ball there, and a like ceremony was performed by Mayor Gaynor in New York. The New Yorks lost to Philadelphia by a ninth inning two-bagger.

Pittsburg took the opening game from Cincinnati, while Boston, the National league tailenders of 1910, started the race for the penant by defeating Brooklyn. President T. J. Lynch was a guest at the game and Mayor Fitzgerald did the first ball throwing.

The American association opened at Louisville, Indianapolis and Toledo, but season Toledo the game scheduled with St. Paul had to be postponed on account of rain.

GAME CALLED IN ELEVENTH WITH THE SCORE A TIE.

Chicago, April 13.—The National league baseball season in Chicago was inaugurated yesterday with St. Louis as opponents, when Carter Harrison, mayor-elect, tossed the first ball into the diamond.

After eleven innings the teams were on even terms and the umpire called the game on account of darkness. The final count was 3 to 3.

The visitors went to the front in the first inning. Reulbach got a bad start. He could not locate the plate and after walking two men on consecutive bases on balls, he threw two more and Manager Chance called upon Weaver to replace him. Weaver started well, but after pitching one ball, hit Mowry and the bases were filled. He forced in a run by hitting Konetchy. A sacrifice fly netted another run, while the third score was made on Bresnahan's out. St. Louis did no more scoring after this, Weaver allowing the St. Louis team but four scattered hits.

The home team played hard every inch of the game. The first run was the result of a pair of doubles. The second was a home run by Schulte, who knocked the ball over the right field bleachers, and the tieing run came when Hauser fumbled Chance's grounder and Tinker tripled after two were out.

Chicago batted Sallee hard at times, but he tightened up and was given excellent support in the pinches. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Chicago	3	10	0
St. L...	3	4	1

Batteries—Reulbach, Weaver and Kling; Sallee and Bresnahan. Umpires—Ringler and Finneran.

LUDERUS' TWO-SACKER WINS FOR PHILLIES.

New York, April 13.—A pitchers' duel which went for eight innings without a score and was ended in the ninth by two runs for Philadelphia, marked the opening game of the National league season in New York city yesterday. Mayor Gaynor tossed out the ball, and under a clear sky, albeit a bit chilly, real baseball began.

Ames was on the slab for the New Yorks. He pitched sensationally for six innings, not allowing a hit, but weakened toward the end. With two men out and men on second and third, Luderus, the Philadelphia first baseman, made a twobagger against the left field fence, driving in Lobert and Paskert.

Moore held the New Yorks to two singles, and although wild at times, always pulled himself together at critical stages. He received brilliant support.

Score:	R.	H.	E.
Philadelphia	2	5	1
New York	0	2	1

Batteries—Moore and Dooin; Ames and Myers. Umpires—Johnstone and Eason.

BUNCHED HITS IN EIGHTH WIN OPENER FOR BOSTON.

Boston, Mass., April 13.—Timely hitting in the eighth inning won for the Boston Nationals their first game from Brooklyn in the race for the National league pennant which was inaugurated yesterday afternoon. The game was anybody's up to the eighth inning, when the visitors connected with Brown, the local pitcher, and secured a single run before the side was out. With Boston up, a pass to first followed by an error and a two-bagger, gave the game to the home team.

The usual opening ceremonies began the first game of the season. Mayor Fitzgerald threw out the first ball.

Score:	R.	H.	E.
Brooklyn	1	4	1
Boston	2	5	1

Batteries — Barger and Bergen; Brown and Graham. Umpires—Klem and Doyle.

BABE ADAMS STRONG AND REDS ARE HUMBLED.

Cincinnati, Ohio, April 13.—Pittsburg overwhelmed Cincinnati yesterday afternoon by 14 to 0 in the opening game of the season. Both of the Cincinnati pitchers were hit hard and often, while Adams, for Pittsburg, was well-nigh invincible, holding Cincinnati to four scattered hits. Byrnes' batting was the feature of the game, he getting five hits and a base on balls in six times up. Cincinnati played miserably in the field. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Pittsburg	14	17	1
Cincinnati	0	4	6

PRESIDENT TAFT STARTS PLAY AT WASHINGTON.

Washington, April 13.—For the second time during his term as chief executive, President Taft yesterday officially opened the American league baseball season. From his box in the new grand stand at the local grounds he tossed the first ball to Pitcher "Dolly" Gray of the Washington team and saw Washington romp away from Boston in a ragged game, 8 to 5.

In the sixth inning the home team, overcoming four runs piled up by the visitors in the third and fourth sessions, batted Wood out of the box and scored six runs. Gray, who started in to pitch for Washington, gave way to Walker in the sixth, having been removed to make way for a substitute batter.

The Boston team did not make a good impression, its fielding being decidedly off color.

Walter Johnson, Washington's truant pitcher, came back from Coffeyville, Kan., yesterday and was in uniform. He will not be used for several days.

Score:	R.	H.	E.
Boston	5	7	5
Washington	8	10	2

Batteries—Walker, Gray and Street; Wood, Karger and Madden and Kleinow. Umpires—Connolly and Mullen.

WORLD'S CHAMPIONS LOSE FIRST TO NEW YORK.

Philadelphia, April 13.—New York defeated Philadelphia, the world's champions, yesterday afternoon in the opening game of the American league season here, 2 to 1. Vaughn pitched remarkable ball for the visitors and only three hits, two doubles and an infield single, were made off him. Philadelphia's run was the result of a muff of Bender's fly by Wolter, and Hogan's two-bagger.

New York scored in the third inning on Wolter's double and Murphy's wild throw and Hemphill's single.

In the eighth inning New York scored the winning run. Free drew a base on balls, Thomas threw wild on Johnson's sacrifice, a double play resulted on Blair's bunt fly, Vaughn singled and Barry fumbled Wolter's grounder. Before the game Collins was presented with an automobile. Four out of five New York players who tried to steal second base were thrown out. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
New York	2	7	3
Philadelphia	1	3	3

Batteries—Vaughn and Blair: Bender and Thomas. Umpires—Evans and Egan.

CLEVELAND SWAMPED BY BROWNS IN OPENER.

St. Louis, Mo., April 13.—St. Louis hit the Cleveland pitchers for sixteen hits and won the opening game of the local American league season, 12 to 3. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Cleveland	3	9	7
St. Louis	12	16	1

BREWERS LOSE CLOSE GAME TO INDIANS.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 13.—Indianapolis defeated Milwaukee in the opening game of the season yesterday, 1 to 0. The visitors were unable to hit Schlitzer, only securing three hits. The locals scored the one run of the game after two were out in the sixth inning when Nieloff was passed to first, stole second and scored on Carisch's two-base hit. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Indianapolis	1	9	2
Milwaukee	0	3	2

Batteries—Schlitzer and Carisch; Gilligan and Breen. Umpires—Bierhalter and Weddidge.

BLUES DEFEAT COLONELS IN BRILLIANT GAME.

Louisville, Ky., April 13—Kansas City defeated Louisville yesterday in the opening game here of the American association, 4 to 3. Despite the fact that the field was muddy, both teams played brilliant ball. The visitors scored their four runs in the sixth inning off Richter on an error, a base on balls and doubles by Corridon and Baker. Both Richter and Maddox were relieved on the slag. Threatening weather accompanied the opening. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Louisville	3	7	1
Kansas City	4	6	2

VICTORY TO MILLERS IN TEN-INNING BATTLE.

Toledo, Ohio, April 13.—It took Minneapolis ten innings to defeat Toledo yesterday afternoon in the season's opening game, bunched hits in the extra inning giving Minneapolis a 7 to 4 victory. The game was loosely played, the fielding of both teams being off color. Robinson, who started to pitch for Toledo, was taken out at the start of the fourth, and Slapnicka, who relieved him, had Minneapolis at his mercy until the tenth, when they made three singles and a double. Waddell lacked control and was helped out of three holes by as many fast double plays.

The sky was leaden and it was cold, but the opening day program was carried out. Mayor Whitlock pitched the first ball. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Toledo	4	10	3
Minneapolis	7	11	7

Detroit, Mich., April 13.—Though the outfield has suffered somewhat from the rain of yesterday, Bennett park is in good condition for today's baseball game between Detroit and Chicago which marks the postponed opening of the American league season here. The diamond has been covered since Tuesday and the protection is considered adequate.

Mullin and Stanage for Detroit and Walsh and Sullivan for Chicago are the battery choices of Managers Jennings and Duffy.

Several of the Detroit players who admit being somewhat superstitious were greatly disappointed over yesterday's postponement which they fear means that the local season either must open on the "thirteenth" or on a Friday. They reason that either day bodes ill for their club.

Today's probable batting order:

Chicago—McConnell, 2b; Lord, 3b; Zelder, ss; Dougherty, lf; Callahan, cf; McIntyre, rf; Jones, 1b; Sullivan, c; Walsh, p.

Columbus, Ohio, April 13.—Prospects early today for the opening of the American Association season here between Columbus and St. Paul were gloomy. It is raining all around Columbus and started to rain here at 9 o'clock. The opening was postponed yesterday because of rain. The grounds were reported to be in fair condition before the shower commenced.

AMATEUR BALL LEAGUE MEETING

At the meeting this evening of the officers of the Duluth-Superior Amateur Baseball league the matter of choosing two more teams as members of the organization will be taken up.

At the present time there are six teams which have been taken into the league. It has been decided to have an eight-club league the present season, with the result that the Scott Hardware team of Superior, the Big Duluths and Duluth Heights of this city will present their claims to membership through their managers.

The election of a league secretary, who will be paid a small salary, and the appointment of a schedule committee will be other important matters to come before the attention of the officers.

After the schedule committee has had a brief time to consider the matter of games for the season, a meeting will be called for further action. It is expected that this meeting will be held about the first of next month.

It is also stated that there will be a meeting of the officials of the hockey league before the baseball meeting is called. This is for the purpose of closing up the business of the year and formally awarding the championship to the Big Duluths.

JOHNSON SIGNS WITH SENATORS

Washington, April 13.—Walter Johnson, the Washington Aemrican league team's star pitcher who left the team while at Atlanta in training, refusing to sign for a salary less than $7,500, has come to terms with the club and signed a contract for three years at a salary said to be $21,000 for the term. Johnson has resumed training and will be pitched either tomorrow or Saturday.

LA CROSSE SECURES 'BUMPUS' JONES FROM RACINE, WIS.

Word reached here today that President John A. Elliott of the La Crosse club has secured the release of "Bumpus" Jones from the Racine, Wis., club, which means that the former pitcher will be the Outcast manager. The signing of Jones means that every club in the Minny has settled on a pilot for the present season.

Jones in his day was one of the best pitchers in the business. It is said that he is still capable of putting up a very convincing argument in the box and will be used by the La Crosse team in many of the games the present season.

DEMONT GETS DECISION OVER MONTE ATTELL.

Boston, Mass., April 13.—Al Demont, a local bantam weight, won the decision over Monte Attell of California in twelve rounds of fast, clean boxing last night. Attell did well for six rounds, but toward the end Demont had the Californian at his mercy.

Backache Means Dying Kidneys

A Remarkable Treatment That Saves the Kidneys. How You May Cure Yourself Quickly and Thoroughly.

With the progress of science comes one remarkable treatment for kidney diseases. It has been so thoroughly tested and its results have proven so revolutionary that a well-known firm in Michigan has undertaken its distribution into every part of the country.

Those who suffer from kidney trouble and the diseases resulting from it will be pleased to know that every package of this treatment is thoroughly guaranteed. This should assure at last a positive cure to every sufferer.

Every man and woman should know that backache is usually a well-defined symptom of advancing kidney disease which may end fatally unless treated in time; that rheumatism and bladder trouble are caused from nothing more nor less than kidneys that do not filter the poison from the blood; that dropsy, Bright's disease, diabetes and bladder-stones are caused by bad kidneys.

Once they are made to work properly, these diseases should quickly disappear.

This is done by the new treatment, Dr. Derby's Kidney Pills.

We urge everyone who has pain in the small of the back, profuse or scanty urination, pains in the bladder, cloudy or foul urine, not to fail to get a package today of Dr. Derby's Kidney Pills, and drop all other kidney treatments. Senator Stevenson, of Washington, writes from Olympia: "There is no question about the efficacy of Dr. Derby's Pure Kidney Pills in curing kidney and bladder trouble. I know whreof I speak."

Dr. Derby's Kidney Pills are now sold at all drug stores—25 and 50 cents, or direct from Derby Medicine Co., Eaton Rapids, Mich. If you would like to try them first, ask your druggist for a free sample package. Then buy a package; you will not regret it.

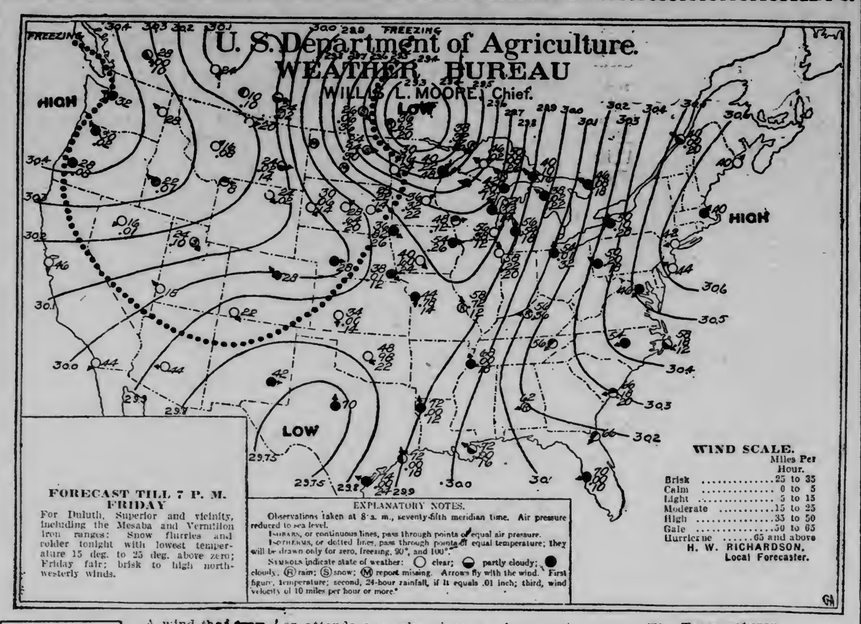
OFFICIAL MAP OF THE WEATHER



COLDER

A wind that sped-eled at the rate of 30 to 38 miles an hour all night and attained a maximum velocity of forty-eight miles an hour at 7 o'clock this morning was the most unpleasant feature of last night's offering of the weather man. Some rain fell and the evening was decidedly uncomfortable for those who had to venture out. The wind is still whisking things around today. The sun tried to break through the clouds, but spring is still sulking and low temperatures and snow flurries are predicted for tonight.

Delightful weather prevailed a year ago today.

The sun rose this morning at 5:24 and it will set at 6:53 this evening, giving thirteen hours and twenty-nine minutes of sunlight.

Mr. Richardson makes the following comment on weather conditions:

"During the last twenty-four to forty-eight hours light to heavy rains fell over the lake region, Ohio, Upper Mississippi and Lower Missouri valleys and South Atlantic states, and rain or snow throughout the Northwest and extreme West in connection with disturbances central over Manitoba and Texas. The Manitoba low pressure is preceded by strong easterly winds in the lake region and which have already shifted to high westerly on Western Lake Superior. Decidedly colder weather attends a marked increase in pressure to the westward of the Mississippi valley. This drop in temperature will reach the Head of the Lakes tonight, attended by snow flurries and continued brisk to high westerly winds and followed by fair weather and diminishing winds Friday."

General Forecasts.

Chicago, April 13.—Forecasts for twenty-four hours ending at 7 p. m. Friday.

Upper Michigan—Rain or snow and colder tonight; Friday local snows and colder.

Wisconsin—Generally fair and colder tonight and Friday.

Iowa—Generally fair tonight and Friday; colder tonight.

Minnesota—Generally fair tonight and Friday; except snow in northeast portion tonight; colder tonight.

North Dakota—Fair tonight and Friday, except threatening in northeast portion tonight; rising temperature Friday.

Montana—Fair tonight and Friday; rising temperature tonight.

Shippers' forecast: Protect 36-hour shipments of perishables against temperature 10 deg. to 25 deg. above zero in the Dakotas, Northern Minnesota and Northern Wisconsin.

Upper Lakes: Brisk to high southwest to northwest winds; fair tonight and Friday except rain or snow on Superior and rain tonight on Huron; colder.

OBJECTS OF FARM SCHOOL

What New Institution Will Do for Northern Minnesota Settlers.

No "White Collar" Students —Instruction Begins With Clearing Land.

The purchase of 200 to 300 acres of wild land; the erection of one building for boys and one building for girls, with accommodations for about sixty students in all; the installation of modern dairying machinery and appliances; the beginning of instruction with the clearing of land; the purchase of stock; the erection of barns, silo and other buildings, and the instruction of the boys and girls of Northeastern Minnesota in modern scientific methods of farming comprise the plans for the demonstration farm school to be established at Duluth as a result of the legislative action appropriating $65,000 for the establishing of the school and the maintenance for two years.

These are the plans outlined by the agricultural committee of the Commercial club and submitted to the various committes in the state legislature. The final working out of the plans is up to the board of regents, but the members of the board and Dean Woods of the state agricultural school have expressed their approval of the plans as submitted and it is expected they will be carried out substantially as outlined.

The plan for the demonstration farm school here is a new departure in this country, although it is extensively used in the countries of the Old World. Judging by the standards of the past, the appropriation is a small one, but it is sufficient for the school as planned. There will be no large expensive buildings; no luxurious living apartments, although the quarters will be commodious and comfortable; no expensive employed labor, for the students will do the work. "Simplicity" will be the slogan followed in laying out the school. "Brains, not buildings, are wanted," said C. P. Craig at the Commercial club last night.

Dean Woods of the agricultural school is enthusiastic over the project. He has expressed himself to members of the agricultural committee of the Commercial club, as in hearty accord with the principle of simplicity and efficiency laid down by those who planned the school and worked for the legislative action that makes it possible. He said that in his opinion, the spirit of the people of this section and the agricultural possibilities of Northeastern Minnesota are such that the school will grow to be the greatest in the state outside of the central agricultural school.

Located Near Duluth.

The bill as passed provides that the school shall be located at or near Duluth. The selection of the site is for the board of regents, but it is believed that they will go directly over the hill, where any amount of land can be obtained at reasonable prices. It is good land for general farming and good land for demonstration purposes, as the growth to be cleared and the soil to be cultivated are typical of this section of the state.

The farm buildings will be of frame construction—inexpensive but commodious, comfortable, well lighted and well heated. The two main buildings will be similar in construction. The heating plant will be in the basement; the grade floor will be given over to a modern dairy with all modern equipment, and the upper floors will be divided into class rooms and living apartments.

It is planned to begin instruction with the clearing of the land, for that is the first and one of the most formidable problems the Northern Minnesota farmer must solve. There will be no play during school hours and no "white collar" students at classes at the Duluth farm school. Every student will work for his board, but it will be work that is instructive in its practical application and nearly every part of the instruction will entail manual labor.

If the school is started this year, as it probably will be, most of the work will be in clearing. It is planned to erect greenhouses for winter culture of garden products, so that the classes will continue all the year around, dairying and garden work providing ample employment.

It is estimated that the establishment of the farm will cost $55,000 of the $65,000 appropriated, so that $10,000 will be available for maintenance. Once sufficient land is cleared and under cultivation, the farm school should be so nearly self supporting that the calls upon the legislature will be readily met in view of the great work the school is expected to do.

TONIGHT'S ATTRACTIONS.

ORPHEUM—Vaudeville.
ODEUM AND LYRIC—Photoplay.

Green Room Gossip.

Busy scenes have been the rule at the Lyceum theater the past few days. First there are the rehearsals of "The Girl Question." The chorus has been huddled down in the front of the house going through the many songs, while back on the stage the principals have been working and the scene builders have been putting the finishing touches on the elaborate scenic mounting.

One of the biggest sets of scenery ever turned out of the Lyceum studio has been built for "The Girl Question." The restaurant scene will be realistic and imposing and has called for some very hard work on the part of Scenic Artist Wegner and his assistants.

Three rehearsals have been held every day during the present week and will be continued to be held right up to the day of the production. The show will take the full strength of the company and in addition the chorus has been enlarged. "The Girl Question" will open with the Sunday matinee.

A. Seymour Brown, who is appearing at the Orpheum this week, and his partner, Nat D. Ayer, have, within the last three or four years, become two of the best known musical comedy song writers in America. Mr. Brown wrote the lyrics for "The Matinee Idol" on which De Wolf Hopper was seen here, Silvio Hein writing the music and Augustus Thomas the book. Mr. Brown and his partner also wrote "The Newlyweds and Their Baby," a musical comedy which had a good run. They are now working on five numbers to be interpolated by Blanche Ring in her new musical show, "The Wall Street Girl," and every year they write two or three musical numbers for "The Follies." They wrote all the numbers in their present act, including the "Chantecler Song" which has made a hit with Orpheum audiences this week, and they have scores of other songs being used by other vaudeville and musical comedy performers. They are now at work on a new musical comedy, which will probably be produced next year.

Scenes in the Antartic region, novelties to the photoplay houses, are shown at the Odeum this week in a film made on Dr. Charcot's trip toward the South Pole. "The Broken Cross," and "Billy's Valentine," are other films on the bill. George Lenz is singing "Dixie Gray." "Athalia," a Biblical story is the feature at the Lyric photoplay house this week and is meeting with favor among the patrons of the house. "By a Woman's Wit," a dramatic film and "When Women Strike," a comedy are the other films on the bill. I. S. Mistachkin sings "I Like You Because You're Not Like Anyone Else I Know."

Good results always follow the use of Foley Kidney Pills. They give prompt relief in all cases of kidney and bladder disorders. Try them. All druggists.

Particularly the Ladies.

Not only pleasant and refreshing to the taste, but gently cleansing and sweetening to the system, Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is particularly adapted to ladies and children, and beneficial in all cases in which a wholesome, strengthening and effective laxative should be used. It is perfectly safe at all times and dispels colds, headaches and the pains caused by indigestion and constipation so promptly and effectively that it is the one perfect family laxative which gives satisfaction to all and is recommended by millions of families who have used it and who have personal knowledge of its excellence.

Its wonderful popularity, however, has led unscrupulous dealers to offer imitations which act unsatisfactorily. Therefore, when buying, to get its beneficial effects, always note the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package of the genuine Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

For sale by all leading druggists. Price 50 cents per bottle.

GREAT DITCHING WORK SOON STARTS

Northwestern Minnesota to Be Scene of Extensive Operations This Year.

Thief River Falls, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—The numerous ditch construction companies operating in the upper part of the state are about to start throwing dirt again at a lively rate. The Northwestern Drainage company of this city, one of the largest concerns in this line of work in the United States, have a number of all kind of dredges ready to start work the latter part of this week. Their contracts cover many miles and involve the expenditure of $750,000. Some of them run over a term of years, making their undertakings in the ditch business in Northern Minnesota the most extensive in the country.

T. J. Fay is digging the Brown ditch in eastern Pennington county and he will soon complete this job when he will start action on the Erie ditch in the same neighborhood. The Sherwood & Pike company is at the head of the Trenda ditch in the same county, but cannot begin work until rains arrive to float the dredge. The Griffith & Sitliff dredge is all ready at the beginning of the Swanson ditch and is also waiting for rain. In case of a dry spring this dredge will be compelled to pump water from the river into the ditch and hold it by means of a dam to float their digger. A smaller ditch, known as the Kruby ditch, will be dug by team work. The prospects are that the ditching business will be at its height in this and Marshall county and that thousands of acres of the richest land in the state will be made possible of cultivation.

Calumet to Have Bernhardt.

Calumet, Mich., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—It is announced that Sarah Bernhardt will appear both at Hancock and at Calumet during her farewell tour of this country, coming to the Copper district during the month of May. The dates have already been set and contracts are now being prepared.

To Be Tried at Fargo.

Aberdeen, S. D., April 13.—A. E. Leavitt of Britton, S. D., who was arrested there recently for selling glandered horses, was taken before United States Commissioner William Wallace here on a charge of shipping glandered horses from Hettinger, N. D., to Aberdeen, in violation of the federal statutes. He will be tried at the next term of the federal court at Fargo, N. D., having given bond in the sum of $2,000 for his appearance.

PASS BILL PROVIDING FIFTH JUDGE FOR COUNTY

The house of representatives this afternoon passed by a unanimous vote the bill for the additional judge for the Eleventh Judicial district. It has already passed the senate and goes to the governor. Although the vote was unanimous, the bill did not pass without a struggle. It was feared for a time that it would go over, but the friends of the bill, led by Representative C. T. Knapp of Hibbing, worked hard and put the measure through. Mr. Knapp made the hardest kind of a fight for the bill, and the Duluth members concede him the credit for its passage.

With the exception of the Oneota dock site bill, the measure which passed today was the last measure of local importance to St. Louis county now before the legislature.

The governor will appoint the new judge and there is considerable speculation as to who will be the appointee. S. T. Harrison, H. A. Dancer, H. F. Greene and Warren E. Greene have been mentioned for the appointment. The name of L. C. Harris was prominently mentioned in the matter by scores of Duluth lawyers, but Mr. Harris let it be known through his friends that he would not accept the appointment if it were tendered him, it is said.

LOADING MOOSE IS A BIG JOB

It required about twenty men to get the "White Sox" into a car last evening. The inanimate animal which is destined to play a large part in the opening festivities of the American league baseball season at Comiskey's south side baseball park, is about the largest moose ever shot in these parts, and it was with extreme difficulty that the mounted specimen was finally shoved into the car.

Mister Moose was decorated with white sox and altogether bore a frenzied baseball appearance. The moose weighs something like 600 pounds and is said by men who know to be the finest specimen that ever was taken from the woods in the vicinity of this city.

Jack McGreevey and his crowd will leave Wednesday evening for Chicago, arriving in plenty of time for the game on the afternoon of April 20, between the White Sox and the Detroit Tigers. The Duluth cits will be the guests of Comiskey and a royal good time is assured.

NEAL TREATMENT HAS NEVER FAILED

Every Case of Liquor Drinking Has Been Successfully Treated in Three Days.

In the beautiful city of St. Paul, 676 Dayton ave., is the home of the Neal Three-Day Liquor Cure, which is known far and wide as the most successful treatment in the world for all forms of drunkenness.

Just think of it! The Neal treatment has never yet failed in a single case to make a cure—and it never will, for it is a perfect antidote for alcoholic poisoning—and alcohol is just as deadly a poison as any of the strong acids, only it acts more slowly. Of all the liquor cures known the Neal is the only one that claims, even, to make a cure, in three days' time, and without hypodermic injections or injurious drugs.

It makes no difference how long the patient has been drinking, how much or how little, or what he drinks, the result is always the same. Not only is all craving for alcoholic drink completely destroyed but in additon the patient is rapidly restored, mentally and physically, to a normal state.

If you are afflicted with the drink habit and really want to be freed, or if you are interested in a friend or relative who needs treatment, write to the Neal Institute Co., corner Belknap and Seventh streets, Superior, Wis., for their free booklet giving full information and a copy of their contract. It will be mailed to you under a plain sealed envelope and everything will be strictly confidential. You can be treated at the Superior Institute, or at St. Paul, Minn., Institute, 676 Dayton avenue, or the Minneapolis, Minn., Institute, corner Fourth avenue south and Seventh street, whichever happens to be the most convenient to you.

BUILDING IS BLOWN DOWN

Collapses Under High Wind During Early Morning Hours.

Was to Have Been Used as a Boarding-house.

A wind storm early today laid in ruins a $3,000 store and boarding house in course of construction at the steel plant site.

The building is a complete wreck. It collapsed about 2 o'clock this morning, when the wind velocity was the greatest. Not a wall was left standing. The loss will be close to $2,500. Except for plastering the building was finished.

Emil Kalenber is the owner of the structure. The name of the contractor, who put it up, was not learned. The building had been poorly erected, it is claimed, or it would not have blown down in the storm. It is considered fortunate that the collapse came when it did, instead of later when the building would probably have been occupied.

The structure is on Commonwealth avenue, about one mile north of New Duluth. It was the intention of the owner to use the lower floor as a store and convert the upper into a boarding place.

PROCTOR MAN IS MISSING

Left Home Last Saturday and Has Not Been Seen Since.

H. Strand, aged 40, a resident of Prindle's addition near Proctor, has been missing from his home since Saturday evening and relatives and friends fear that he has met with some mishap or foul play.

H. P. Dahlquist, a farmer living near Proctor, last evening requested the West Duluth police to make an effort to locate Strand, and furnished them with his description. He weighs about 190 pounds, and has a light complexion and is of Swedish nativity. He was employed by the Missabe road at Proctor.

Strand left home Saturday evening at 8 o'clock and told his family that he was going to West Duluth and would be back that evening. That was the last that has been seen of him.

BOY BURGLARS IN WEST DULUTH

Candy Store Is Entered Twice in Three Weeks.

Has West Duluth a trio of infant burglars?

Twice in three weeks, juvenile thieves have entered the candy store of Nels Nyphus, 7015 Grand avenue, and have stolen candies, gum, other sweets and tobacco. What use the tobacco was to them, no one has been able to figure out, but they took it anyway.

On March 25, a gang of three boys, whose names are withheld but are known to Lieut. Charles Wilcox of the West Duluth police department, one of whom was 6 and the other two 8, burglarized the store and took some candy, gum and tobacco. They ate the candy, chewed the gum and threw away the tobacco. The goods stolen were valued at about $2. Entrance to the store was gained by taking a board off a rear window.

Last evening, a similar affair occurred, only $8 worth of goods instead of $2 worth, was taken. Lieut. Wilcox stated that there was no direct evidence to show that the job was done by the same boys, although he does not consider them incapable of turning the trick. The glass in the front door was broken and the latch was lifted and the door opened.

KNOCKED DOWN AND ROBBED

Two Highwaymen Get $25 From New Duluth Man.

Joe Salochicz was knocked down and robbed of $25 last night at New Duluth by two of his countrymen. The robbers escaped after beating Salochicz. They are still fugitives from justice.

Salochicz stated that one of the robbers was John Grelichek and also furnished the police a description of the other man. Neither was masked, nor were they armed as far as Salochicz knew.

The robbery took place at 11:30 o'clock near the Kulaszwicz hall, Commonwealth avenue and Hulett street. Salochicz was on his way to his boarding house and as he passed the corner, he was seized by two men, who downed him and searched his pockets. They got $25.

Salochicz recognized both men as having stayed at the same boarding house at New Duluth. The police are working on the case but without success yet. The principals in the case are Austrians.

Former Pastor Here.

Rev. Samuel G. Briggs, a former pastor of the Merritt Memorial M. E. church, now of Mora, Minn., is in West Duluth for a few days a guest at the home of his daughter, Mrs. L. C. Merritt of 4107 West Seventh street. Rev. Mr. Briggs was pastor of the Oneota church for four years, leaving his work in this city two years ago.

SUPERIOR

WOULD NOT TAX NEW FACTORIES

Mayor Crumpton Advocates Plan for Attracting Industries to Superior.

Mayor Frank Crumpton favors exempting from taxation for five years all legitimate factories locating within the city and employing a sufficiently large force of men. The plan meets the approval of other city officials, and the city legal department may be asked to secure the necessary legislative action for the proposition.

Such exemption as favored by Mayor Crumpton would only apply to improvements, as he is not in favor of taking any land from the tax rolls. The plan is suggested with the view of making a strong bid for new factories. This idea has been worked with much success in several other cities in the United States, he stated, and is said to be better than the bonus scheme.

NEGRO HELD FOR CUTTING AFFRAY.

James Holmes, a negro arrested for a cutting affair in which John Ackridge, aged 17, his sister, Ethel, aged 20, and Marjorie Perkins, aged 35, all colored, were more or less slashed, will have an examination in police court tomorrow. He is held in default of $1,000 bail. Holmes is charged with assault with a dangerous weapon.

Jealousy prompted Holmes to do the carving act. The boy and the older woman, who interfered with him when he quarreled with the younger woman, received the most serious injuries, and are at St. Mary's hospital.

KNIGHT TEMPLARS WILL HOLD EASTER SERVICES.

Superior Commandery No. 35, Knights Templar, will observe Easter with special services at the Pilgrim Congregational church Sunday morning. HIT ON THE HEAD WITH A BEER BOTTLE.

Eno Selkanaa was badly cut on the head and face and John Maki was badly beaten up in a fight between the two in the American saloon, 324 Lake avenue south, this afternoon.

Selkana is a bartender in the saloon and Maki runs a restaurant in the rear of the saloon. A man from the saloon walked 'nto the restaurant and sat on a chair, breaking it. Selkanaa thought Maki demanded too much money for the chair and a fight ensued. Maki is said to have hit Selkanaa with a beer bottle, breaking the bottle, and then to have slashed Selkanaa on the face with the broken portion of the bottle. Selkanaa in return used his fists to good effect. Both men required the attention of a surgeon after they were arrested by Sergeant Roberg and Patrolman Link. The prisoners were charged with disorderly conduct.

FOUND DEAD IN HALLWAY.

Chicago Man Meets Death in Mysterious Manner.

Chicago, April 13.—Martin J. Breen of the liquor firm of Breen & Kennedy, was found dead in the hallway of an apartment building here today. Though blood issued from his ear, no mark of violence could be found on his body by the police surgeons. No one in the building knew him or how he came to be there, they told the police, and his relatives were unable to account for his presence there.

WILL BE SENT TO SUPERIOR

Mrs. Mary Gardner Is Believed to Be Insane.

Mrs. Mary Gardner of Superior, who was taken to St. Mary's hospital last evening and placed in the detention ward pending an examination as to her sanity, will probably never be examined in the local probate court.

Mrs. Gardner's home is in Superior and if an examination is necessary she will have it in the Douglas county probate court. The information has been filed against her in the local court, but the law pertaining to cases of this kind states that even though the information be furnished, the probate judge may investigate the case before he grants the examination. Judge Gilpin finds that the woman's residence is in Superior.

Mrs. Gardner visited the office of the Associated Charities yesterday afternoon and asked that she be given assistance. Her story was so incoherent that she was turned over to Sheriff Meining.

She is said to have come to Duluth Monday, registering at the La Salle hotel. Her actions, since her arrival in the city, have been queer. Tuesday afternoon she whipped her small son until the proprietor of the hotel became alarmed and notified the police.

Dr. Ignatius Murphy, police surgeon, was sent to examine the woman and she drove him out of the room with a broom.

The little son has disappeared. He ran away from his mother yesterday and it is presumed that he found his way back to his home in Superior.

HEAVY BLIZZARD.

Northwest Minnesota and North Dakota Have Big Storm.

St. Paul, Minn., April 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—A blizzard raged last night and early today in Northwest Minnesota and in North Dakota, stalling some of the freight trains of the Northern Pacific and Great Northern. Wind and sleet tore down the telegraph wires of the Northern Pacific for fifteen miles between Mandan and Jamestown, N. D. The prisoners were charged with disorderly conduct.

One of the freight trains of the Northern Pacific was unable to pull through west of Oriska, N. D., although three locomotives were in front. On the Dilworth division two inches of snow fell, with a heavy wind.

The Breckenridge, Minn., division was the storm center on the Great Northern, causing some hours delay to freight trains.

The wind died down during the morning and the latest reports are that traffic is moving in the usual manner.

MEN'S MISTAKES

The Northwest's Most Reliable Specialist in Diseases of Men. In Duluth for 20 Years.

Many a bright and promising career has been blighted by injurious habits of folly before the age of knowledge and understanding, and many have been cut short by the unfortunate contracting of some poisonous special disease, which through neglect or improper treatment has completely undermined and shattered the physical strength and mental faculties. No greater mistake can be made than to consider lightly the first evidence of the introduction of any disease into your system or to neglect the first symptoms of weakened mind and approach of nervous debility, caused by habits, dissipation, etc.

Such indifference and neglect of the first symptoms are responsible for thousands of human wrecks, failures in life and business, insanity, suicide, etc. Why take such desperate chances? The manifestations of the first symptoms of any disease or weakness should be a warning for you to take prompt steps to safeguard your future life and happiness. You should carefully avoid all experimental, dangerous or half way treatment, for upon the success of the first treatment depends whether you will be promptly restored to health again, with all the taint of the poisonous disease removed from your system, or whether it be allowed to become chronic and subject you to future recurrences of the disease, with the various resulting complications, etc. We cure KIDNEY AND URINARY DISEASES, STRICTURE, DISCHARGES, VARICOCELE, NERVOUS DEBILITY, CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON, STOMACH DISEASES, RHEUMATISM, NERVOUSNESS, SKIN DISEASES, RUPTURE, PILES and all diseases and weakness due to habits, dissipation, or to the result of special diseases. Write for symptom blank if you cannot call. CONSULTATION FREE AND CONFIDENTIAL.

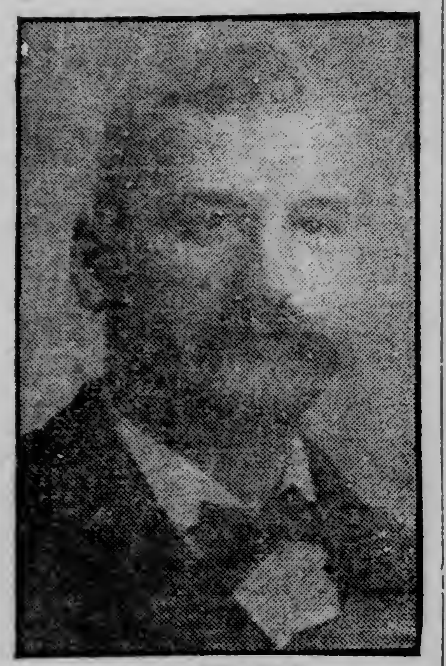
N. B. THAYER PASSES AWAY

Well-Known Duluth Land Attorney Dies of Heart Disease.

Came to Duluth Twenty-Five Years Ago From Fargo.

N. B. Thayer, a well known land attorney, died at 10 o'clock this morning at his home, 727 West Second street. He had been ill for some time, death resulting from a complication of diseases, principally heart trouble.

Mr. Thayer was 56 years old and was born in Wausau, Wis. He resided at Fargo for a number of years and came to Duluth twenty-seven years ago with G. G. Hartley. Mr. Thayer was receiver of the land office when Mr.



N. B. THAYER.

Hartley was register. Mr. Thayer also served a term as assessor of the city of Duluth about twenty-five years ago.

Mr. Thayer was one of the most prominent land attorneys in this section, especially in the early days before his health began to fail. He represented parties in some of the most important cases ever tried in the local land office and had an extensive practice in that branch of legal work.

He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Miss Marie Thayer. The funeral arrangements have not been made.

MAN KICKED BY HORSE, DIES

James Violet, who was brought to Duluth from Cornwall, Minn., and taken to St. Mary's hospital some weeks ago, died this morning. Violet had been kicked by a horse and sustained a fractured skull. He was unconscious when taken to the hospital and never regained consciousness. He leaves a wife and family at Cornwall.

"RED POLLS" ARE MIGRATING.

The thousands of little birds that have made Duluth their home for the past two or three days are known as Red Polls.

Out in the East end, they have settled on the trees by the thousands.

They come to Duluth every year about this time, on their way north.

They seem to like the Zenith City for they are making their stay even more prolonged than usual.

ATTEMPT TO DEFEAT LOCAL OPTION FAILS.

Springfield, Ill., April 13.—By a vote of 64 yeas and 80 nays the "wet" bill, repealing the present township local option law was defeated. Members who on the former roll opposed county option switched when the roll call was reached on the "wet" bill, and by their action leave the present law on local option unchanged.

NEW MANAGER OF NEW THEATER

GEORGE C. TYLER.

George C. Tyler will be the manager of the New Theater in New York next year, but it will not be known then as the New Theater. The failure of the enterprise in its present home, due in large measure to the poor judgment of its managers and in a greater measure to the size of the house, has determined the New Theater company to rent the building for regular theatrical productions next season and to erect a new building in the theater district for the season following. Mr. Tyler is the managing director of Liebler & Co.

ORIGINATOR OF SCHEME OF A GREAT WORLD MAP

PROF. ALBRECHT PENCK.

Prof. Penck of the University of Berlin originated the scheme for the making of a great world map, on which the United States Geological survey is now working. Nine of the fifty-two sheets of the American section are complete. Each represents 86,400 square miles. This map is to be called the international one-millionth map because its scale is 1 to 1,000,000. It will consist of about 1,500 sheets each 20 by 30 inches. Nine of the great nations of the world are working on the map.

ATHLETICS AND DRINKING.

St Louis Globe-Democrat: New material for the ever-hopeful, never-fatigued, we should say, in the work is offered, we should say, in the statement of the special secretary of the National Association for Colleges of North America:

"There are," he says, "12,000 college-bred men in New York alone who are down and out through liquor and associating with evil companions. There has been a marked decrease of the proportion of graduates who fall since the prevalence of college athletics, amounting, I estimate, to 50 per cent."

A cheerful and reassuring percentage, it must be said.

If athletics, then, are so powerful in defeating the wiles of Satan's alcoholic emissaries bring on the gymnasiums; gymnasiums not for college and clubs alone, but gymnasiums for everybody—who needs them.

It is not the cup that cheers that the misguided man of the busy marts of trade fancies his system calls for at 5 p. m., but the punching bag.

"Come in, Jones, and have a rum punch (with fists) with me," ought to be the familiar solicitation and not the other sort of punch.

Tired toilers will gather at the horizontal bar on which they may hang by the elbows of their legs instead of the elbows of their arms. Basket ball instead of high ball.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The ordinance by Alderman Hogan entitled "An ordinance to amend an ordinance entitled 'An ordinance granting to the Duluth, Winnipeg & Pacific Railroad company, its successors and assigns, a right-of-way over, along and across and under certain streets, avenues, alleys and public grounds in the city of Duluth, with the right, privilege and authority to construct, lay down and maintain railroad tracks and facilities over, along and across the same, and imposing certain obligations upon said company,' passed Feb. 7, 1910, and approved by the mayor Feb. 11, 1910," was brought up.

Alderman Wharton moved the adoption of the ordinance as amended.

Alderman Gibson moved to amend the ordinance by striking out the words "but in carrying the said lines over Fifty-ninth avenue west one set of posts may be placed in the center of said avenue," and substitute in lieu thereof "or in Fifty-ninth avenue west."

Messrs. Sang, Ramstad and Frey were accorded the privilege of the floor and spoke upon the amendment.

Alderman MacDonell moved that action on the amendment be postponed for one week, and that the city engineer be requested to report to this council whether, in his opinion, it would be better to cross the street by a clear span or by having posts in the center of the street. The motion was declared adopted upon the following vote:

Yeas—Aldermen Barnes, Bergstrom, Bernard, Hoar, Hogan, Gibson, Jordan, Krueger, MacDonell, Makowski, Miller, Wharton, President Shartel—13.

Nays—Aldermen Curren, Hector, Scott—3.

The resolution from the Committee on Light and Water directing the erection and maintenance of lights was read.

Chairman Hogan of the committee requested permission to withdraw the resolution, which permission was granted without objection.

To the Common Council:

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

To the Common Council:

Your Committee on Auditing and County Conference, having considered the question of audit of accounts and reports of city officers, recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

OTTO KRUEGER,
H. P. CURREN,
FRANK JORDAN,
Committee.

Resolved, That the Committee on Auditing and County Conference is hereby authorized to employed Alfred Le Richeux to audit the books of accounts and reports of city officers for the year 1910, for a term of not to exceed ninety-five days, at a compensation of $4.50 per day, the cost thereof to be paid out of the general fund.

Alderman Krueger moved the adoption of the resolution, and it was declared adopted by a unanimous yea vote of all present, on roll call.

Passed April 10, 1911.
Approved April 12, 1911.

To the Common Council:

Your Committee on City Property, Buildings and Markets, to which was referred that part of the mayor's message relative to method of disposing of small offenders in the police court, and suggesting the establishment of a workhouse or work farm, find that according to an opinion filed by the city attorney with this council Aug. 1, 1910, the city has no power under the charter to establish or maintain such an institution. Your committee believes that the position of the mayor is correct and that some such institution should be established by the city, but before same can be done it will be necessary that either the charter be amended giving the city the power to establish same, or that special legislation be passed by the state legislature conferring such power upon the city.

L. A. BARNES,
J. A. MacDONELL,
CHAS. J. HECTOR,
Committee.

The report was received.

L. A. BARNES,
J. A. MacDONELL,
CHAS. J. HECTOR,
Committee.

Resolved, That the Board of Public Works is hereby authorized to advertise for bids for furnishing a steam boiler and engine to take the place of the one now in use at the rock crusher.

Alderman Barnes moved the adoption of the resolution, and it was declared adopted by a unanimous yea vote of all present, on roll call.

Passed April 10, 1911.
Approved April 12, 1911.

To the Common Council:

Your Committee on City Property, Buildings and Markets, to which was referred communication from the city engineer and Board of Public Works, suggesting advisability of purchasing an auto for use of the two departments, having considered the same, recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

L. A. BARNES,
J. A. MacDONELL,
CHAS. J. HECTOR,
Committee.

Resolved, That the city engineer and Board of Public Works are hereby requested to furnish this council with a statement showing the relative cost of two driving outfits and of one auto which could be used jointly by the two departments, and such other information as they may deem pertinent to the proposition.

Alderman Barnes moved the adoption of the resolution, and it was declared adopted by a unanimous yea vote of all present, on roll call.

To the Common Council:

Your Committee on Drains, Sewers and Sanitation, which has had under consideration the matter of providing sanitary sewer service for the so-called Woodland district, report that this matter has been under consideration by the city officials and others interested for more than a year, and in the opinion of your committee should now receive immediate and definite consideration.

A public meeting was held in the council chamber, pursuant to notice, on Monday afternoon, April 3, 1911, at which H. B. Fryberger, as chairman of the committee representing the people of the Woodland district, the city engineer, the city attorney and others explained their position with reference to this matter.

It appears that since 1884, when Prof. Hering was employed by the city to lay out a sanitary sewer system for the city of Duluth and to determine the manner in which said sewers should be built, the city has pursued the policy of building sanitary sewers of sufficient capacity not only to take care of sewage proper, but also of the roof water of buildings in the district served by the sewer. Under this system it has become customary, and the building ordinance of the city of Duluth requires that roof water and the necessary drainage of foundation walls be conducted into sanitary sewers. This has been done primarily for the purpose of using such water as a flush for the sanitary sewers, and incidentally for the sanitary benefits that would result from the dilution of the sewage and the prevention of damp basements, and as far as your committee is informed, this has given complete satisfaction. The only objection that is made to this method by the people of the Woodland district is that such a sewer is more expensive than one which provides for sewage and seepage only.

It seems necessary, and is so stated by Prof. Bass, under employment of the people of the Woodland district, to prohibit by ordinance the connection of roof water with a sanitary sewer built solely for the purpose of taking care of sewage and seepage. In either kind of sewer, of course, provision must be made for the water which naturally will get into the pipes through the joints. A certain number of buildings already erected in the Woodland district now have their roof water and foundation drainage connected with the sanitary sewers now laid in said district.

In case a sewer for the accommodation of sewage and seepage only is constructed, it seems necessary to construct a screening plant in the vicinity of the Duluth & Iron Range railway right-of-way and Thirty-sixth avenue east, which will necessitate the expense of cleaning daily.

The difficulty of determining which kind of sewer should be built in this instance is greatly increased by the fact that the outlet sewer from St. Marie street, on the southerly end of the Woodland drainage district, is distant about one mile from the necessary outlet of the sewer in Lake Superior, and many of the people who own land that will properly have its sanitary outlet in the same outlet to be used by the people of the Woodland district are opposed to a sewer built for the accommodation of sewage and seepage only, and seem to prefer the larger sewer such as has always heretofore been constructed for sanitary sewer purposes.

The route of the outlet recommended by the people of the Woodland district also does not run far enough to the west to accommodate all of the property below St. Marie street between Tischer's creek and the water-shed to the east, and in the opinion of your committee, this also is important to consider in the determination of the general question.

There is a wide difference of opinion also among the different people interested, as to the cost of the installation of a sewer for sewage and seepage only, as compared with one which will provide for the accommodation of roof water, etc. On most of these matters there is such a difference of opinion between the city engineer and Prof. Bass that in the opinion of your committee it is desirable for many reasons that if the sewer be constructed for the accommodation of sewage and seepage only, it shall be under the complete charge of Prof. Bass, an engineer who is committed to the success of such a plan, rather than to our city engineer who has very serious doubts as to its feasibility, as also of the possibility of its construction within the estimate of $36,000.00 made by Prof. Bass.

The people of the Woodland district and our city engineer are entirely in accord as to the desirability of giving Prof. Bass entire charge of the work, in case the plan of Prof. Bass is adopted.

The members of your committee have grave doubts as to the advisability of changing the past policy of the city with reference to the construction of sanitary sewers, and are reluctant to impose on the owners of property lying between St. Marie street and the lake a kind of sewer which they do not desire, in order to give the people of the Woodland district the kind of sewer which they desire.

The present situation in the Woodland district is a menace to the health of the people in that vicinity, and there is, without a doubt, a necessity for immediate relief from such condition, which can only be met by the construction of a sanitary sewer of some kind. Therefore your committee recommends the adoption of the following resolution:

H. P. CURREN,
J. D. BERGSTROM,
WILLIAM L. BERNARD,
Committee.

Resolved, That in the opinion of this council, Prof. Frederic Bass should be employed as an assistant to the city engineer, to prepare plans and specifications, make the estimates as to cost, and have complete charge of the performance of the contract which shall be let for the construction of the sanitary sewer for the so-called Woodland district, and to be the official advisor of the Board of Public Works as to the making of the assessments for benefits therefor, and in all other respects to perform the duties pertaining to the office of the city engineer with respect to such improvement.

Resolved further, That inasmuch as the necessary expenses of making survey, plans, specifications and superintendence with respect to such sewer is assessable against the property benefited thereby, that H. B. Fryberger, as chairman of the committee representing the people of the Woodland district, be requested to report to this Council upon what terms Prof. Bass will perform the services hereinbefore specified.

Alderman Curren moved the adoption of the resolution, and it was declared adopted by a unanimous yea vote of all present, on roll call.

Passed April 10, 1911.
Approved April 12, 1911.

To the Common Council:

Your Committee on Finance, to which was referred communication from the Board of Public Works, having considered the some, recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

FRANK JORDAN,
LUCIEN A. BARNES,
FRANK MAKOWSKI,
Committee.

Resolved, That the city comptroller is hereby authorized to change the assessment against lot 230, block 37, Rice's Point, confirmed Feb. 27, 1911, for the improvement of Garfield avenue, from $15.26 to $10.25.

LEGAL NOTICES.

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE FORECLOSURE SALE—

DEFAULT has been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage executed by Carl M. Leone and Maria Leone, his wife, mortgagors, to Michael Leone, mortgagee, bearing date March 25th, 1909, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of St. Louis County, Minnesota, on the 25th day of March, 1909, in Book 236 of Mortgages, on page 436.

Said default consists in the non-payment of three hundred dollars ($300.00) upon that certain note for $300.00 dated March 25th, 1909, which became due, according to its terms, on or before March 25th, 1911, which note is secured by said mortgage, and no part of which has ever been paid.

By reason of such default the power of sale contained in said mortgage has become operative, and no action or proceeding at law or otherwise has ever been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage.

The property described in said mortgage and thereby mortgaged is Lot numbered twelve (12) in Block numbered eighty-six (86), West Duluth, Second Division, according to the plat thereof on file and of record in the office of said Register of Deeds of St. Louis County, Minnesota.

There is claimed to be due, and is due, upon said mortgage at the date hereof the sum of $300.50.

NOW THEREFORE, Notice is hereby given that, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises above described, which sale will be made at public auction to the highest bidder for cash by the Sheriff of St. Louis County, Minnesota, at the Front Door of the Sheriff's Office in the County Court House at Duluth, Minnesota, on Monday, the 22nd day of May, 1911, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, to satisfy the amount due on said mortgage (and the taxes, if any, on said premises) and $25.00 attorney's fees, as provided by said mortgage, together with the costs and disbursements allowed by law.

LONGS ARE UNDER WHEAT

They Try to Run Shorts in---Are Moderately Successful.

Snow Falls in North Dakota ---Foreign Markets Bearish.

Duluth Board of Trade, April 13.—Wheat was slightly stronger today, May and July advancing ⅛c each. Cash was 1c over May, oats gained ⅜c, rye and barley were unchanged and durum gained ⅛c.

Flaxseed was lifeless but stronger, May gaining 1c to $2.53 bid.

The drive against shorts continued, bull speculators working industriously to put up prices. The news was against them but the bears were timid about espousing the short side as they have been severely punished lately by successive drives against them. The bulls did not succeed in jacking up values very far as on each bulge short selling developed. Around the high places stop-loss orders were encountered which caused some buying.

The cash demand in the Northwest has shown improvement but in the Southwest it is reported as comparatively weak. The East is buying on a hand-to-mouth basis and is holding aloof until reciprocity legislation is either passed or defeated. If the present rate of buying continues there will be enough what at the Head af the Lakes to supply the Eastern demand until the new crop appears. Minneapolis wheat stocks decreased 650,000 bu for the week. There are sufficient supplies at Minneapolis to permit of a weekly decrease of 700,000 bu a week until the new crop is available even if shipments from the interior are scanty.

The strength in the market was weakened after noon by reports that the all-night rain in Eastern North Dakota had changed to snow and that snow was also falling over most of Manitoba. The snow fall in North Dakota in the last twenty-four hours has been so heavy as to delay trains. Seeding operations have been delayed but the presence of additional moisture easily compensates farmers for the delay to their field work. The forecast of the government predicts warmer weather for North Dakota and South Dakota, fair weather tonight and tomorrow for Minnesota except snow in the Northeastern territory.

Unfavorable Hungarian crop reports caused some covering at Liverpool but cables came lower. Argentine markets were weaker and the effect was felt in all of the European markets. Argentine shipments will be much larger this week. Russian offers are liberal and Plata offers are freer at a decline.

The recent record of small premiums or exceptionally small discounts for the new wheat futures as compared with May, in contrast with liberal discounts for these futures in most of the recent years, is not a propitious indication for the reason that this departure has been the result of longs changing from the May delivery to the new crop months. In order to escape early delivery in May of property evidently not wanted, May holdings have been sold and new crop futures bought, resulting in strength of new crop months in the face of unusually fine conditions for the new crop and the forthcoming heavy hedge selling against the actual grain.

The selling in May was overdone and there is some talk of congestion in that delivery. The leading bulls in the Chicago market appear to be endeavoring to punish shorts at a loss to themselves. How the longs can market their wheat at a profit in the face of the big winter wheat crop is difficult to understand. There is a world-wide surplus of wheat and the market has recognized this by a sharp decline in values from a year ago. This loss in the market has been borne by professional operators and to a smaller extent by millers, but not by the general public. In fact, the public is not and has not been speculating. It has left all grains severely alone and the absense of this outside investing factor has been to a considerable degree responsible for the declines in the entire list to values that may be regarded as a normal conservative supply-and-demand basis.

MARKET GOSSIP

Bromhall cabled from Liverpool: "Wheat—The market opened with pressure and values ¼d to ½d lower on the late decline in America and the weakness in Buenos Ayres at the close. The weather in the United Kingdom is very favorable and the rain in Argentine are very favorable for the new seeding which is progressing favorable and the forecast is for liberal shipments from Argentine this week with Russian offerings fair and La Plata offers liberal at a decline. Notwithstanding these bearish influences the market received good support after the opening and values advanced ⅛@¼d with speculators buying on an improved demand for spot and lighter arrivals here with some renewed support from the continent which caused shorts to take profits over the holidays. At 1:30 p. m. the market was steady and ⅛d higher from the opening and ⅛d to ⅜d lower than yesterday. Corn—Market opened firm and ⅛d higher on unfavorable reports from Argentine and lighter Danubian offers. Later the advance was lost on the free American offers and a smaller spot demand. At 1:30 p. m. the market was easy and unchanged from yesterday. Buenos Ayres—The market was weak at the close, due to realizing on the smaller foreign demand and the recent rains which is very beneficial for the new crop. Liverpool close—The market was still steady at the close, with some covering on the unfavorable Hungarian crop reports. Corn was easy and ¼d lower than 1:30 p. m. and realizing to expected larger shipments this week. Our Argentine agents report wheat and corn shipments this weeks as follows with comparisons with last week's actual shipments and those of a year ago: Wheat, 3,200,000 bu vs. 3,768,000 bu vs. 6,152,000 bu; corn, 120,000 bu vs. 8,000 bu vs. 114,000 bu. Both the plowing and sowing of wheat in the central provinces is making good progress, there having been beneficial rains with moderate temperatures."

Yesterday's Chicago Record-Herald: W. B. Snow of Bartlett, Frazier company had the following crop reports: Rocky Ford, Colo.—Big acreage of small grain planted. Weather ideal for spring work." Brenham, Tex.—"Owing to heavy rains of last two weeks farm work has been greatly delayed. Corn generally looking well. Oats rusting some, but acreage small." Hazleton, Kan.—"Since Feb. 10 there has been an abundance of moisture. Oats show very strong and vigorous plant, almost best ever seen. Nearly all winter wheat acreage has been either seeded to oats or is being listed to corn; not to exceed one-tenth the acreage will be left standing. Right name for wheat in this part of Kansas is failure." Kingston, Wis.—"No seeding done yet. Weather very unfavorable. Winter grain doing well; snow covering saved it from heavy frosts." Wilber, Neb.—"Oats all in. Farmers have commenced to plow for corn. Two inches of snow April 1, which was very good for winter wheat and early sown oats." Osceola, Iowa—"Spring wheat coming up and oats sprouting good. Most of the farmers are plowing, and ground working finely." Chillicothe, Mo.—"Bottom wheat has held its own, but plant is making poor growth. Rye on upland looks very bad. Oats all sowed and in good shape, but freeze at nights threatens to damage it."

Primaries: Wheat—Receipts today 304,000, last year 316,000; shipments 235,000 vs. 113,000. Corn—Receipts 272,000 vs. 255,000; shipments 367,000 vs. 382,000.

Price Current said: "Rains over greater part of the Central region is causing delay with farm work. Plowing for corn backward. Oats in good condition but expected large acreage will undoubtedly be slightly reduced owing to tardiness in finishing seeding. Winter wheat continues highly favorable throughout greater portion of region. Recent precipitation in Spring wheat region very beneficial and indications are that seeding will be general within a few days."

CHICAGO MARKET.

Wheat Rallies on Report of Damage to Hungarian Crops.

Chicago, April 13.—After being depressed a bit by forecasts of liberal shipments from the Argentine, wheat today rallied on account of Hungarian crops being officially reported as damaged 10.3 per cent. Trade was light. Dealers showed a desire to avoid having deals open during the holiday tomorrow, especially in view of a short session the last day of the week. Opening prices were the same as last night to ¼c below. May started at 88⅜@88½c, declined to 88¼@88⅜c and then rose to 88¾c.

It took only a little buying to increase the bulge. The close was easy with May at 89c, a net gain of ½c.

Buying for a prominent local firm strengthened corn. Selling was only scattered. May opened unchanged to ⅛c up at 49@49⅛c and advanced to 49½@49⅝c.

Wet weather, delay to plowing gave further aid to the bulls. The close was firm, ⅝@¾c up at 49⅝@49¾c.

There was but little pressure on oats. Accordingly the market tilted upward with corn. May started at 31½c, last night's level, and went to 31⅝c.

Higher prices for hogs tended to lift provisions. First sales were at yesterday's latest figures to 5c advance, with May options $15.15 for pork, $7.82½ for lard and $8.45 for ribs.

REMARKS—Light to heavy rains fell over all districts, turning to snow in the Red River valley. Much colder weather prevails from the Dakotas southward to Oklahoma.

H. W. RICHARDSON, Local Forecaster.

T. indicates inappreciable rainfall. *Maximum for yesterday. †Minimum for twenty-four hours, ending 8 a. m. 75th meridian time. ‡Minimum temperature for 12-hour period ending at 8 a. m.

NOTE.—The average maximum and minimum temperatures are made up at each center from the actual number of reports received, and the average rainfall from the number of stations reporting .1 inch or more. The "state of weather" is that prevailing at time of observation.

MINNEAPOLIS MARKET.

Wheat Strong at Opening But Meets Moderate Decline.

Minneapolis, April 13.—Early today the wheat market was strong, but during the late session, it declined moderately. The near contract was relatively stronger than the deferred months. May closed ⅜@½c higher than yesterday, July ⅛@¼c higher and September ⅛c lower. Local elevator stocks decreased 650,000 bu for the week. Minneapolis Chamber of Commerce adjourned today until Saturday morning, over Good Friday. Minneapolis today received 158 cars of wheat against 138 a year ago; Duluth 36 against 32, and Winnipeg 155 against 220. May wheat opened 94⅝c, high 95½c, low 94⅜c, closed 95⅛@95¼c. July opened 95⅝c to 95½c, high 96⅝c, low 95⅜c, closed 96@96⅛c. September opened 88⅞c, high 89¼c, low 88¾c, closed 89c.

Cash wheat steady to a trifle firmer. Excellent demand especially for choice spring grades. Milling demand in excess of moderate offerings. Bar silver, 53⅛c; Mexican dollars, 45c. Government bonds easy; railroad bonds steady.

The Cotton Market.

New York, April 13.—Cotton opened firm at an advance of 6@14 points, in response to higher cables than due, big English spot sales and prospects for bullish week-end figures. Continued unsettled weather in the South may have had some influence, as there appeared to be rather a better demand for new crop positions, and while there was some irregularity as a result of heavy realizing right at the call, shorts were evidently too apprehensive to carry their committments over the Easter holidays.

The market continued very active during the middle of the morning, with prices about 8@14 points above the closing figures of last night.

Spot closed quiet, 20 points higher; middling uplands, 14.85; do. gulf, 15.10. Sales, 1,100 bales. Futures closed steady. OLD FIREARMS IN HISTORIC HOUSE.

Enterprise Correspondence New Orleans Times-Democrat: Much excitement prevailed yesterday morning when the historic old residence owned by C. E. Burd was destroyed by fire. Within the walls of the structure were hidden a small arsenal of firearms, rifles and pistols, all loaded, and when the heat of the building reached them a regular Fourth of July bombardment began.

The house was one of the old landmarks of the town, having been built before the Civil war. D. Offitt, a Southern soldier, had recently written to the owner of the property that the Confederates had stored guns and ammunition in the walls of the old structure during the war, but Mr. Burd was unable to get at the relics owing to the fact that the building had been remodelled and strong walls had been built around the old ones.

The much prized relics, consisting of ante bellum firearms of the crudest make, were hidden in the walls of the old structure, in order to get them at the end of the struggle.

MOVEMENT IS NARROW

Intense Dullness in Stock Market and Fluctuations Slight.

Day Ends With Prices About the Same as on Wednesday.

New York, April 13.—The stock market was dull and irregular at the opening today, fluctuations in prices in most cases being confined to small fractions. Toledo, St. Louis & Western preferred had the widest movement, advancing ¾. Canadian Pacific and Missouri Pacific gained ½ and Southern Pacific lost ⅜.

Prices worked lower, but not enough stock was sold to create any marked changes in values. Missouri Pacific was quite irregular within a range of ½. United States Steel lost ½, but the preferred improved ¾. Associated Oil gave way 1½ and Long Island 1¼. American Steel Foundries advanced 1.

The influence of the coming holiday over the week end made itself felt this morning and trading was at low ebb. In view of uncertainty as to what action might be taken by congress or the supreme court, traders were unusually reluctant to be committed to either side of the market over the holidays, and soon after the opening business was almost suspended. Prices weakened slightly and recovered, with Missouri Pacific showing considerable strength on short covering. Bonds steady.

Pressure against Pennsylvania had a restrictive effect on the general buying and some of the Western stocks eased off. A few of the inactive stocks fluctuated a point either way.

There was scarcely any movement whatever to the market in the late afternoon, the occasional spurts of buying and selling being succeeded by intervals of intense dullness. Prices averaged pretty well up to yesterday's close.

The market closed steady. The speculation continued as dull and as uninteresting in the last hour as at any period of the session. The list scarcely moved at all and the day ended with prices just about where they left off yesterday.

GENERAL INVESTIGATION.

Democratic Chairman to Look Into Government Expenditures.

Washington, April 13.—Chairmen of all the expenditures committee of the house of representatives will meet Saturday with Speaker Champ Clark to plan for a geenral investigation of the government departments. This meeting is in accordance with an inquiry program planned by the Democrats following the election last fall, and which is designed as an economy campaign.

JEFFERSON ANNIVERSARY.

Author of Declaration of Independence Born 168 Years Ago.

Charlottesville, Va., April 13.—The 168th anniversary of the birth of Thomas Jefferson, author of the Declaration of Independence, president of the United States and father of the University of Virginia, was appropriately celebrated here today with the annual founders' day exercises at the University of Virginia. Jacob G. Schurmann, president of Cornell university, delivered the principal address of the day on the subject, "Jefferson and Public Policies of Today."

Ambassadors Nominated.

Washington, April 13.—Nominations sent by President Taft to the senate included the following: Ambassador to Turkey, William W. Rockhill; ambassador to Russia, Curtis Guild, Jr.

No Senator for Colorado Yet.

Denver, Colo., April 13.—E. M. Ammons received the thirty-four votes of the anti-Speer Democrats in another ineffectual ballot today for United States senator. Speer received twenty-eight votes.

THE GERMAN HELLO GIRL.

The German telephone girl gets her job through a civil service examination and usually hangs on to it for life. Her average age on entering the business must be near 30. As she can stay until she is 70 (but no longer) one sees many operators, says the Telephone Review, whose age it would be ungallant to guess.

Novices go to a training school, but are not paid while there, and the drill in practical operation is complicated with a good many technicalities of construction. On entering an exchange an operator is paid about 60 cents a day.

She has 4 cents a day increase each year until the eighth or ninth, when she is established, and cannot be discharged without considerable red tape. When she has worked up to $450 a year, and $150 extra for house rent, she stays at that pay until retired on pension.

On the back of each operator's chair are two bags, a black one to hold head set and service property and a brown one for her lunch and personal belongings. Operators freely talk back to a hostile subscriber and pleasantly pass the time of day with a friendly one. They apparently talk to one another with little restraint while at the board.

Working hours are about ten a day. Girls work the board from 6 a. m. to 10 p. m. Night operation is done by men, paid double wages, and they repair cords and work about the board as well as answer calls, for the night traffic is very light.

Supervisors are not so numerous as with us, and handle fifteen to twenty-five operators upon lines that do not tend to produce the quick service our public is accustomed to. The cardinal virtue of the German service is its cheapness and the cardinal defect is leisureliness.

Berlin calls average 2½ cents apiece, and it is possible to talk nearly 400 miles for 25 cents. But the German exchequer, of course, bears the burden of a deficit, on the same plan as Uncle Sam's postoffice.

One excellent practice universal in Germany Americans might well adopt. Telephone managers here are now trying to bring subscribers to identify themselves when answering the telephone. Every German does it, for instead of saying "Hello," the form of answering is invariably "Hier Karl Schmidt" or "This is Karl Schmidt."

Long distance operators identify themselves by their towns, so that when Frankfort-on-the-Main is rung up from Berlin the operator says "This is Miss Frankfort" or "Hier Fraulein Frankfort." The "Fraulein" is never left off.

While long distance is cheap, it is also crowded through the day, and considerable time is needed to get a message through as a rule. The Berlin operators on long distances speak several languages, as they are working with French, Italian, Russian, Swedish, Dutch and other operators.

The Ober-inspektor at Berlin gave one amusing fact on this point. While all his operators handling traffic to Paris speak French, learned in the thorough German fashion, only one or two long distance operators at Paris condescend to speak German.

Some of the exchanges have comfortable lunch rooms where coffee is served to the operators, and all will have them in time, it was said. The telephone service in Germany is like most business there in that the employes have two hours for a hearty meal in the middle of the day and go home to take a nap. Peaks in the traffic come at two points—9 to 11 in the morning, and 3:30 to 5:30 in the afternoon. A double charge is made for night traffic, and so it is light.

"Information" is also rather a placid person, and complaints are handled upon a system which furnishes many contrasts to the American practice. It is said that an operator will often enter into a detailed discussion with a subscriber who asks for a firm whose number he does not know and finally turn him over to "information" reluctantly.

When the call comes to the information desk the operator there has little but the official telephone directory to go by. If that will not answer the question it commonly goes begging. The directory is issued once a year and not even the list of new subscribers is posted promptly at the desk. If a complaint comes in, too, the operator will frequently discuss the matter with the subscriber, especially in the case of a wrong connection or premature cutoff.

If she cannot establish an alibi and it goes further, the supervisor or inspector reprimands her for that particular offense, but nothing else happens. If the complaint gets as far as writing, the authorities reply, stating to the subscriber that both parties are at fault and they will try to correct the shortcoming. The subscriber's letter is read to the operator with a caution.

One inspector said that the operators handle three complaints to his one, but added that this was largely the fault of subscribers, who have the habit of taking up trouble direct with the operator. If an operator complains that a subscriber has insulted or sworn at her the subscriber can be fined or have his telephone taken away.

TIME TO PAINT A SHIP.

Chicago Tribune: The latest thing in shipbuilding is to apply no paint at all—not until they have been at sea for some months at any rate. The constant repainting of armored ships and ships with steel hulls involves an enormous cost, and since it has been found that when a vessel is allowed to go unpainted for several months the steel scales, which usually comes loose under the paint and afford an opportunity for rust to attack the surface, wear off, the British government is experimenting with unpainted craft.

The training ship Exmouth was the first one tried. It was given two months at sea with no paint and then given four coats in drydock. At the end of five years there was scarcely a trace of wear except at the water line, and the bottom was in perfect condition. The idea was first suggested by A. C. Holzapiel, who had made a study of the Exmouth, and now the steel ships are all put out to soak before being painted.

ORDER TO EXAMINE FINAL ACCOUNT.

State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis, ss.

In Probate Court.

In the Matter of the Estate of Matt Pahjala, Decedent.

THE PETITION of Joseph D. Sattler, as representative of the above named decedent, together with his final account of the administration of said estate, having been filed in this court, representing, among other things that he has fully administered said estate, and praying that said final account of said administration be examined, adjusted and allowed by the Court, and that the Court make and enter its final decree of distribution of the residue of the estate of said decedent to the persons entitled thereto, and for the discharge of the representative and the sureties on his bond.

IT IS ORDERED, That said petition be heard, and said final account examined, adjusted and allowed by the Court, at the Probate Court Rooms in the Court House, in the City of Duluth in said County, on Monday, the 8th day of May, 1911, at 10 o'clock a. m., and all persons interested in said hearing and in said matter are hereby cited and required at said time and place to show cause, if any there be, why said petition should not be granted.

ORDERED FURTHER, That this order be served by publication in The Duluth Herald according to law.

Dated at Duluth, Minn., April 12th, 1911.

By the Court,
S. W. GILPIN,
Judge of Probate.

NO EXTRA SESSION OF LEGISLATURE WILL BE CALLED BY GOVERNOR

Friends of Reapportionment Feel Nothing Could Be Accomplished.

Much Better Bill Can Be Secured at Session of 1913.

House Passes Recall Bill With Several Important Amendments.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

St. Paul, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—In view of the final failure of reapportionment, there may be some who hold in mind the possibility of an extra session of the legislature called for the purpose of considering reapportionment.

This thought is based, of course, on a statement of Governor Eberhart at the Brainerd meeting of the Northern Minnesota Development association which practically amounted to a pledge to call an extra session if reapportionment failed.

Nobody, however, need waste much time or thought on this extra session, for there will be none.

None of the friends of reapportionment who are on the ground have any desire for an extra session, because they realize that nothing can come of it.

The senate, which was elected to serve in the regular sessions of 1911 and 1913, is determined to serve in those sessions, and that is the end of it.

The chance of getting a decently

WINE RIOTERS GROWING QUIET

Troops in Control of the Champagne Districts of France.

Epernay, Department of Marne, France, April 14.—Calm prevailed during the night throughout the department of Marne, the scene of three days' riotous outbreak on the part of the discontented wine growers and the authorities this morning are hopeful that the rioting is over.

The vote of the chamber of deputies in nullifying the action of the senate with reference to the delimitation of the champagne districts and the expressed intention of Premier Monis to refer the whole matter to the department of state for settlement, served to a large extent, it is believed, in appeasing the excited populace. The army corps sent to quell the outbreak and prevent the further destruction of property, remains, however, for the time being in the disturbed area.

A force of gendarmes just before daylight this morning, proceeded to Venteuil, one of the wine depots upon which the manifestants especially directed their operations of destruction of the wine presses and bottles of champagne, and arrested two of the ringleaders. While the gendarmes were escorting the accused men to the police station women rushed into the street and tried to tear incriminating documents from the arms of the public prosecutors.

Military aeroplanes played a prominent role in the maneuvers of the troops when the rioting was at its height.

ROCKNE FOR COMMITTEE

To Study Workingmen's Compensation and Prepare Satisfactory Bill.

Distance Tariff Bill Slated for Defeat in the Senate.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

St. Paul, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Because of the certainty that all pending measures looking to the enactment of a workingmen's compensation act will fail, Senator A. J. Rockne of Zumbrota, will on Monday introduce a resolution in the senate providing for the appointment by the lieutenant governor of a committee of five senators to study this question and to report a bill at the next session of the legislature. The committee is confined to the senate because a new house will be elected in 1912, and there is no probability that all of the house members that might be appointed on a joint committee would be re-elected.

Senator Rockne's idea is that the committee should be composed of senators who will take a lively interest in bringing about a fair solution of the

PUBLIC DOCK BILL PASSES

Senate Approves Lease of State Land at Oneota to Duluth.

All Objections Removed and Expected to Pass the House.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

St. Paul, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—The senate last night passed the bill providing for the leasing by the state to the city of Duluth of the old state elevator site at Oneota to be used for public dock purposes. The vote was 39 to 1. Senator F. J. Thoe of Dodge county being the only one to vote against it.

The bill, which was introduced in the senate by Senator Cheadle for the St. Louis county delegation, will now go to the house, where it will be substituted for a similar bill which is pending there, and there is little doubt that it will pass now that all objections have been met by amendments which had the approval of the former objectors and of the railroad and warehouse commission.

As it passed the senate, the measure provides for a twenty-five year lease at the nominal rental of $1 a year.

IOWA HAS ONLY ONE SENATOR NOW

Young Returns and Kenyon Has Not Yet Qualified.

Washington, April 14.—Lafayette Young, late senator from Iowa, left Washington today for his home in Des Moines. The services of Mr. Young as senator ended when the Iowa legislature elected W. S. Kenyon on Wednesday, although some senators were of the opinion that the appointive term would continue until Mr. Young's successor should qualify. So long as Mr. Kenyon remains in the service of the department of justice, where as assistant to the attorney general he had charge of trust cases, Iowa will have only one representative in the senate.

BIG FARGO CROWD GREETS ROOSEVELT

Colonel Gives Them Few Minutes' Talk, Recalling His Old Days.

Fargo, N. D., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Col. Roosevelt was in Fargo ten minutes today and 1,000 or more people who had crowded around hi: private car at the rear of the Northern Pacific train refused to be satisfied until he made a brief speech.

The distinguished traveler expressed pleasure at again being in the state whic: he adopted more than a score of years ago, urged good citizenship, congratulated everyody on big North Dakota crops. "The children," he said, "and North Dakota men are fine fellows, but their wives were better."

The colonel was accompanied 100 miles eastward by Former Lieutenant Governor Lewis, Former Speaker Twichell and several other warm personal friends of his old Dakota days.

O'REILLY DENIES ALL THE CHARGES

Former Counsel for Harry Thaw Answers to Indictments.

New York, April 14.—Daniel O'Reilly, former counsel for Harry K. Thaw, who was indicted yesterday on the charge of receiving property known to be stolen, surrendered himself at the district attorney's office today.

The charges against O'Reilly followed the return of $65,000 in securities stolen from Aaron Bancroft, an aged stock broker, who was robbed of $85,000 worth of securities early last month while he was taking them to a safe deposit vault. O'Reilly was indicted on statements made by Frank Plass, who was arrested recently on the accusation that he was concerned in certain developments of the robbery.

Abraham Levy, attorney for O'Reilly, said that his client got up from a sick bed to come to court.

"We can say that he is innocent and that we stand ready to prove it," said the attorney.

RIOTING AT MUSCATINE

Governor Sends Troops to Iowa City to Preserve Order.

Strike of the Button Makers Cause of the Disturbance.

Muscatine, Iowa, April 11.—Muscatine today is threatened with martial law, following riotous scenes growing out of the button makers' strike here last night.

Sheriff Vanatt, though issuing a proclamation this morning, in which he declared he would put the city under "military law," stated at 10 o'clock today that martial law had not yet been formally declared and would not be until he had received the proper legal advice. Troops are guarding the local factories and policing the districts, where it is believed trouble would be most likely.

Sheriff Vanatt's announced policy looking to order grows out of an angry demonstration on the part of strikers last night when, protesting against alleged drastic measures employed by imported special officers, the button makers surrounded the Commercial hotel, where the special officers were quartered, and threatened them with violence.

Troops Arrive.

This morning Company C, the local militia organization, was mobilized and put into service. Later in the day Company B of Davenport and the company at Washington arrived. The militia company from Iowa City is en route here.

GREAT DAMAGE BY TORNADOES

Meager Reports Coming in Show Earlier Ones Not Exaggerated.

De Soto, Mo., April 14.—With all telephones south of here crippled, reports from the districts swept by a tornado late yesterday afternonn are coming in slowly. It will be late today before a complete list of the destruction can be compiled.

Eight persons are known to have been killed in Valles Mines, Cadet and vicinity. Four negroes are dead at Valles Mines and two white women at Cadet. Two men, John Powers of Cape Girardeaux, and Joseph J. Boyers of De Soto, were killed while riding in an automobile in the southern part of Jefferson county. A third occupant of the machine, which was caught in the wind, is missing. The chauffeur, who escaped, telegraphed the report.

Meager reports tell of great havoc throughout Jefferson county. Farm buildings were demolished and great damage was done to crops.

HOTEL MAN IS HELD FOR LIFTING THE LID.

Hastings, Minn., April 14.—J. E. Doffing of the St. John's hotel was held to the next term of the district court, furnishing a bond of $100, for the alleged selling of liquor on Sunday.

BULLETS HIT AMERICANS

While Engaged in Daily Work at Douglas Across Border.

Rebels Under "Red" Lopez Capture Mexican Town and Hold It.

Federal Soldiers Surrender to Americans, Giving Arms to Lopez.

Agua Prieta, Mex., April 14, via Douglas.—During a battle which lasted all afternoon and resulted in the capture of this city by the rebels commanded by "Red" Lopez, American troops crossed the border and stopped the fighting. The action was taken after three had been killed and several wounded in Douglas, and the continued firing was endangering the lives of the Americans on United States territory.

Agua Prieta is the terminal of the Nacozari railroad into Sonora and is the most important point on the border between El Paso and the Pacific ocean.

Following are the American dead and injured:

ROBERT HARRINGTON,
J. C. EDWARDS.

Wounded: ——Diko; E. E. Crow, probably will die; A. R. Dickson, shot through the thigh, condition serious; Forest Rutherford, shot in foot; Carlos Linnon, shot in leg; W. Singleton, flesh wound in arm. Robert Harrington was a switchman employed in the yards of Douglas and was on his train at Fourth street. A bullet struck him in the head and he tumbled from the car. He was picked up and taken in a wagon to the Copper Queen hospital, where he died within an hour.

E. E. Crow, another switchman, was on the same train and the same volley that killed Harrington swept him from the cars also. He was shot through the body from side to side and probably will die. Crow's family resides in Colorado.

R. Dickson, half owner of the Washington mine, was shot through the thigh. The bone is broken and the wound may prove fatal.

Forest Rutherford, assistant superintendent of the Copper Queen smelter, went to his home near the smelter when the battle began. A bullet, among many which entered his home,

ADDITIONAL PUBLICITY

Of Campaign Contributions Required in Bill Before House.

Will Be Several Days Before Vote on Canadian Reciprocity.

Washington, April 14.—The Rucker bill, providing for additional publicity of campaign contributions, the second of the Democratic measures to be taken up in the house, will be passed this afternoon with many Republican votes in its favor.

With the publicity bill out of the way the house will proceed late today to the consideration of Canadian reciprocity. Chairman Underwood, of the ways and means committee, will concede ample time for debate, both to the opponents and friends of the measure and it will be several days before a vote is reached.

Representative James T. McDermott of Illinois, the only Democrat recorded as against the amendment providing for popular election of United States senators in the house yesterday, changed his vote today. "I did not mean to vote 'No,'" said Mr. McDermott. "If I answered 'No,' when my name was called, it was a mistake. I am not opposed to the amendment and want to be recorded as voting 'Aye.'"

RAILROADS MUST PAY FULL FARE

Ministers Will No Longer Get Reduced Rates on Railroads.

Western Roads Agree to Discontinue Long Established Custom.

According to statements made today by a passenger traffic official, it is practically certain that reduced fares for clergymen in Central Passenger association territory and in the district east of Buffalo to the seaboard will be eliminated at the end of May.

The subject was discussed at a meeting of the association at Chicago yesterday, and the preponderance of sentiment was in favor of discontinuing the practice. It was decided to obtain a final decision by sending circulars to all roads connected with the association.

There is little doubt, it is said, that the lines will indorse the plan and after a thirty days' notice has been given members of the clergy traveling on these roads will be required to pay the regular fare. Railroads operating east from Buffalo already have signified their willingness to adopt the proposed rate. Central Passenger association lines operate in the territory east of the Mississippi and north of the Ohio rivers and west of the Buffalo-Pittsburg line.

A move along the line of discontinuing the granting of special rates to clergymen has been in progress for more than a year, but it was found impossible to abandon half rates eastward because of the fact that several Eastern lines were not disposed to eliminate the reduced rates westward.

TRAIN MANY HOURS LATE

Canadian Northern Flyer Has Not Yet Reached Virginia.

The Canadian Northern train No. 1, due here at 8:31 this morning, had not reached Virginia at 2:30 this afternoon. The office of the road here had no information as to the cause of the delay, as the train had not yet been turned over to the Missabe road. It is believed that the delay was due to a freight wreck ahead of the train or to the storm raging along the border.

FARMERS PROSPERING ALONG SOUTH SHORE.

W. E. Fitch, president of the South Shore road, stated yesterday that the agricultural development on the line had been remarkable in the past few years.

Mr. Fitch referred particularly to that stretch of country between the Head of the Lakes and a small station called Sidnaw.

The county was what was known as cut over land. A few years ago it could have been purchased in large tracts at $1.50 an acre and at present it is hard to purchase any at $10.

There is a stretch of 175 miles between the station mentioned and the Head of the Lakes. The settlers are cleaning up their land and all seem prosperous.

As it is a great grass country most of the people have gone in for dairying and nearly all of them are making good at it.

OMAHA OFFICIALS INSPECT TERMINALS.

A. W. Trenholm, general manager of the Omaha; E. B. Peachin, general superintendent; E. C. Blundel, general road master; F. W. Kennedy, division superintendent, and George W. Bell, land commissioner, of the same company, reached Duluth today in a special train, coming for the annual inspection of the terminals.

It is the annual inspection trip of the road, the officials leaving for Ashland, Wis., this afternoon. The officials of the company did not come up to the local office of the road, inspecting only the docks and other property of the company.

GRANTED PERMISSION TO REDUCE RATES.

Washington, April 14.—The interstate commerce commission today in the case of the New York Produce exchange against the New York Central & Hudson River railroad and other Eastern carriers granted the carriers permission on three days' notice to establish at any time before May 1, a rate on ex-lake grain for export from Buffalo to the Atlantic seaboard ports lower than the rate now in effect.

It is understood by the commission to be the purpose of the railroads to put into effect a rate on export grain that practically will be a reduction of 2 cents a hundred pounds from the present rate and perhaps more. This export rate will not in any way affect the domestic rate, but is in the nature of a concession to shippers of grain intended for export received at Buffalo and transported by rail from that city to Atlantic ports.

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR INSTITUTES

Meeting to Be Held in Fargo April 27 of Commercial Bodies.

Fargo, N. D., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—President Hardy of the Commercial club has issued a call for a state wide convention of representatives of all commercial bodies of the state in Fargo, April 27, to devise methods of raising funds for the continuation of farmers' institute work. Governor Burke vetoed the appropriation passed by the legislature for that purpose and the work is left suspended. Imperative action must be taken promptly if it is to be continued. Addresses will be delivered by Prof. Thomas Shaw of St. Paul, President Worst of the North Dakota Agricultural college, Director Hoverstad of the institute board and others.

INDIANS ARE AFTER FARR

Circulate Petition for Removal of Fond du Lac Reservation Logger.

Nothing Personal Against Official, Claim Being He Is Paid Too Much.

Cloquet, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—It is reported here that a petition, signed by more than 100 of the Indians of the Fond du Lac reservation, has been forwarded to the Indian bureau in Washington, asking that W. H. Farr of Cloquet, logger for the allotted lands on the reservation, be removed. Various charges are said to have been made. In an interview with the superintendent of the reservation, A. A. Bear, the latter said that a rumor that such a petition had been circulated had reached the local office, but no official information had been received, and the superintendent hesitated to express any opinion in the matter.

Mr. Farr inspects all the logging on the allotted lands, and some conversation with well-known Indians from the reservation elicited the fact that such a petition has been sent to Washington and that the Indians are very much in earnest in their expressed wish that the present inspector be removed.

Nothing Personal in Affair.

Personally, they say they have no grievance against Mr. Farr; in fact, that he is pretty well liked among them. Several charges are mentioned, but the Indians say that the feeling against the inspector is that he is getting too much Indian money for the service he renders, and his salary is really paid by the Indians and not by the government, as with most other officials in the civil service. Mr. Farr receives $150 per month and expenses, and his duties keep him busy about four months in the year. All the timber on the allotted lands on the reservation is contracted for by William O'Brien of St. Paul, and out of the proceeds of the sale of timber the Indians pay the inspector. They feel that they are paying much more than they can afford. As one of them remarked, "We must look out for our own interests; nobody is going to do it for us." They are insistent that their rights be vindicated in the matter, and will take a determined stand. Mr. Farr has been the inspector on the Fond du Lac reservation for more than a year, and came here from the Bad River reservation at Ashland, Wis.

CALLED UPON HER BIRTHDAY

Sudden Death of Mrs. Lingren, Popular Cloquet Woman.

Cloquet, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Cloquet was shocked this morning to learn of the death of Mrs. F. A. Lingren, which occurred at 4 o'clock. Mrs. Lingren was taken ill last Saturday morning, but was not considered seriously sick until three hours before her death, when she became suddenly worse and passed away suddenly. Death was due to peritonitis. She leaves a husband and three daughters, Misses Mary, Florence and Ella, and one son, Rudolph. Mrs. Lingren was married in Brattleboro, Vt., in 1885, coming to this city soon afterwards, where she has lived ever since.

Few women were better known or more generally beloved. She has made her home a center for young people, and her death is a loss to the community. Her relatives are all in the East. Mrs. Lingren was 50 years old today, and the remembrances for her birthday have been arriving from Eastern friends all morning, while she lies dead in the family home. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at the Swedish Lutheran church, Rev. C. O. Swenson officiating.

AMERICAN TROOPS CROSS INTO MEXICO AND END BATTLE IN AGUA PRIETA

struck him in the foot. The injury is slight.

Bisbee Man Hit.

Carlos Linnon, a baker from Bisbee, was among the sightseers when a bullet, partially spent, struck him in the leg, passing through the flesh. He turned and started toward Douglas, when another struck him in the back. His wounds will not prove fatal. A number of other Americans were slightly wounded.

With the opening of the battle there began a rush of American sightseers from Douglas toward the international line, the greater number passing to the customs house. The rebels, with little rushes kept moving northward toward the customs house, until they were within its shadows. The customs house is surrounded on three sides facing Agua Prieta with a veranda which was crowded with Americans and Mexicans from Douglas.

The rebels swung up along the international line, taking possession of the Mexican guardhouse, which the federals had made their ammunition magazine. A squad of fifteen fought from this shelter with Lopez commanding. This house is only seventy feet from the line where hundreds of Americans stood.

As the rebels swung around to this flank it brought the federal fire from Agua Prieta directly in the American custom house. Telephone poles were shattered, shots dug up the sand on all sides but the sightseers, stood their ground.

White Flag Disregarded.

Dickson, the American shot through the thigh had taken up a position behind a little dirt embankment to the south of Nacozari station on the Mexican side, with a station employe. Both waved their white handkerchiefs at a squad of federals but the sign of peace was answered by a volley of shots, one of which struck Dickson as he lay on the ground.

One squad of federals charged to the outskirts of the town and the rebels fell back to a group of adobe buildings. The federals also took shelter in a building nearby but a few volleys caused them to abandon it.

With another rush a squad of rebels took possession of a second guardhouse by the international monument where they hoisted their red, white and green flag as they had done at the magazine.

On the tallest of the adobe buildings, the commissary headquarters, stood two federal officers, calmly noting the rebels' movements and directing their forces. They drew the fire of the rebel rifles unheeded, the Americans cheering their bravery. Suddenly one of them crumped up and fell. A moment later the federal commander ordered his men out of the cuartel. Dynamite charges, placed in the rear, were exploded and the whole wall was blown out to give them an exit.

United States Troops Appear.

At 3:35 o'clock Capt. J. F. Gaujot of Troop K, First cavalry, U. S. A., learned of the attack on Agua Prieta and ordered his command of forty troopers to the international line. Between the customs house and the first monument the federal bullets and those from the rebel rifles farther south pecked and dusted the desert. Into those rode the United States cavalry, deploying along the line.

The bullets whistled over the line and one trooper was grazed on the arm. As the federal fire continued to pour into the American city, bullets struck as far north as Fifteenth street. One ploughed through a store and another struck the Western Union telegraph building.

At the Douglas freight depot for a time there was a rain of lead. Foreman Curley of the yards was struck in the arm. A bullet entered the home of George B. Lee, superintendent of the Copper Queen smelter, while others passed through the home of Alexander Adams. Four shots went through the machine shop of the Copper Queen power house.

It is claimed by many that just before the federals blew up the cuartel, they elevated their guns and swept Douglas with a volley. It is declared that this volley swept Crow and Harrington off their trains.

Capt. Gaujot watched the fighting from the American line and notified the rebels that they must cease firing into the American town. He also twice sent word to the federals that their fire must not cross the border, but these notices went unheeded.

At this juncture Captains Andreas Basuito and Jesus Vargar, commanding the federal troops in the Mexican town, with twenty-nine soldiers, broke from the city and raced over the open field towards the American line, the rebels firing on them as they ran.

All reached the line except three carrying their guns. At the line they were stopped by American cavalry and surrendered. Their rifles, numbering forty, were stacked. With these deserting federals, besides the two captains, were Lieut. Martinez and Sub-Lieut. Enrique Fimeno. They were placed under guard of American cavalry.

Federal Officers Desert Men.

The other federals, deserted by their officers, chose to defend the town. They fired from doorways, from the corners of buildings and from the roofs. Four men carrying a wounded federal on a stretcher, passed into the open street directly in the zone of fire. For a moment the rebels paused. The rebels became bolder and deployed in the open between the Mexican town and Douglas.

Bullets now scattered the American sightseers.

Capt. Gaujot and Charles Jean, a civilian, rode across the line and entered Agua Prieta. Capt. Gaujot had been interviewed by the two Mexican captains.

"We will not surrender," was the reply of the federals. The rebels drew nearer, both little armies fighting from doorways and windows and in the open. The parley continued.

"We will surrender if our captain returns and so orders," said the federal force.

Finally Capt. Gaujot suggested that the federal garrison, many of whom were wounded, surrender themselves to the American troops, their guns and ammunition to be given up to the rebels, and the prisoners to be conducted across the line under the escort of American cavalry. Lopez agreed to this measure. Lieut. Moore escorted the federals, who had feared slaughter if they surrendered, to the American line. Their guns, numbering twenty-three, with bayonets and forty belts of cartridges, were turned over to Lopez.

The federal troops were conducted under guard to the American cavalry headquarters, where they are held awaiting instructions. The rebels hoisted their flag and Lopez immediately took command of the town, closing the saloons.

Fourteen Americans fought with the insurrectos. Albert Edwards of Roanoke, Va., was killed. He joined the rebels two weeks ago. His leg was shot off, but he continued to fire until he was struck twice more.

"Just let me get that fellow on the roof and I'll die happy," he said after he pulled the trigger, lying on the ground.

The rebels avenged Edwards. They concentrated their fire on the federal who shot him and he died face front. Edward Mason of Chicago, is another American killed among the rebels. The dead number fifteen, about equally divided among the federals and insurrectos.

Mexican girls and American women are caring for the wounded last night. Into the Red Cross hospital twenty-two dead and wounded were carried. Some of the wounded will die before morning.

An automobile brought out of Agua Prieta one woman who had been shot in the head. The wounded number about sixty.

The list of wounded Americans continues to grow tonight. William White, a young man, was seriously wounded as he sat in an automobile watching the fight near the customs house. Two other bullets tore through the machine. A youth named Young was shot through the ear.

Americans poured into Douglas from Bisbee when the word went out that a battle was on in Agua Prieta and many automobiles arrived in time to see the surrender of the town. A remarkable feature of the fight was the seeming nonchalence of the Americans who stood on the battlefield. In several instances Americans were within fifteen and twenty feet of the firing rebels.

Lopez Holds Town.

Agua Prieta, Mex., via Douglas, Ariz., April 14.—Revolutionists under "Red" Lopez today hold this town which they captured yesterday after a three-hour battle with Mexican federal troops. Reinforcements are expected by the insurrectos who intend holding their advantage at any cost. The town as a port of entry is an important point, and the insurrectos hope, by keeping it to secure recognition from the United States of their belligerency.

Further fighting is expected. One man in Douglas was killed and eight were wounded, one mortally, by bullets fired in the combat yesterday. The loss to the engaging forces was about equally divided and amounts to fifteen dead and about sixty wounded.

Two of the federal officers, and twenty-nine of their men fled across the international line where they were disarmed by the American troops, and Capt. Gaujot of Troop K, First cavalry, U. S. A., crossed the line with a message to the remaining federals from their officers telling them to surrender. This they refused to do for some time, but finally consented with the agreement of the insurrecto commander, to surrender to the American soldiers and for their munitions of war to be turned over to their victorious adversaries.

Fourteen Americans fought with the insurrectos and one of them, J. C. Edwards, a Virginian, was killed.

Battle Spectacular.

Agua Prieta surrendered last night after one of the most spectacular battles of the Mexican insurrection. There are many dead and wounded, including one American dead, E. W. Crow, who was struck by a stray bullet in Douglas. Others in Douglas were wounded.

This is the first time during the insurrection that any person has been killed on the American side as the result of the border fighting.

The dead and wounded of both the rebels and federals are being taken to Douglas.

The rebels shot down many federals as they ran. Wounded federal prisoners were escorted to the border where they were released as fugitives on American soil.

Lopez's band numbered not more than 150 while the federal defenders numbered sixty-five.

In Touch With Madero.

Washington, April 14.—With the appearance here of an informal peace commission of business men from Mexico City and the establishment of telegraphic communication between Dr. Vazquez Gomez, head of the revolutionist agency here, and Francisco I. Madero, the rebel leader in Chihuahua, news of definite developments toward peace in Mexico is expected at any time.

Dr. Gomez was advised today that his message to Madero requesting instructions in the formulation of peace proposals had reached the rebel leader and he expected to have a reply some time today.

Oscar Braniff and Esquival Obregon of Mexico City, in the meantime are awaiting eagerly the terms which Madero will set forth. Dr. Gomez has informed them that while he will communicate to them whatever information he receives from his chief, he is, however, unable to treat with them unless they be named official representatives of the Mexican government.

Senors Braniff and Obregon decided last week to devote themselves to the cause of peace. It is said that they conferred with government officials in Mexico City and while the Mexican government was willing that they might acknowledge having had such an interview it was pointed out that the envoys went privately and unofficially.

Senor Braniff was exceedingly reticent concerning his mission when seen today. "We expect to be here several days," he said.

To Hold Mexicans Responsible.

Washington, April 14.—The Mexican government, according to the view at the state department, will be held accountable for the loss of life and injury to Americans of Douglas, Ariz., during the fighting between federals and insurrectos at Agua Prieta yesterday. No matter whether the fire of the federals or that of the insurrectos inflicted the injury it will be the federal government to which the United States will look for reparation.

As soon as official reports upon the fighting and the casualties sustained by Americans shall have been received, representations will be made to the Mexican government, it is said, and in due course the claims of those injured will be presented. It is pointed out, however, that in some cases Mexico will have a counterclaim of contributory negligence on the part of injured Americans. That there will be some justice in such a contention is argued from the fact that Americans took their stand in such close proximity to the fighting as to place their lives in jeopardy. On the other hand, many of the wounded sustained their hurts while in pursuit of their usual business in the streets or buildings of Douglas.

As a renewal of fighting at Agua Prieta is looked for, it is expected that formal notice will be served upon both federals and insurrectos that American lives and American property on this side of the border must not be endangered.

The shrewdness of the insurrectos in making their attack from the north of Agua Prieta, so as to force its defenders to fire toward Douglas, has aroused comment here. They are believed to have recognized the possibility that such a movement might result in complication and the entanglement of the Mexican government with that of the United States.

Secretary of State Knox was at the White House at 9:30 o'clock this morning consulting with the president about the situation arising out of the battle of Agua Prieta. The conference was a protracted one.

The cabinet meets today and the situation may be discussed by the president with all of his advisers.

Go to Meet Rebel Leader.

San Antonio, Tex., April 14.—Francisco Madero, father of the insurrecto leader, accompanied by his son, Alfonso Madero and Rafael Hernandez, left this morning over the Southern Pacific for Eagle Pass, where they will cross the border and board a special car awaiting them on the Mexican International to take them to Chihuahua City.

At that place they will meet the insurrecto leader and discuss peace terms. They go to Chihuahua City in an unofficial capacity to ascertain whether Francisco Madero will not treat with the Mexican government on more reasonable terms than he has heretofore indicated. Hernandez, who accompanies the party, will, in a semi-official way, represent the Mexican government.

Anoka Attorney Acquitted.

Anoka, Minn., April 14.—The jury in the case of the state vs. F. S. Stewart, an Anoka attorney, charged with larceny in the first degree, for the alleged appropriation of money in trust to his own use, returned a verdict of not guilty. Judge Dickinson of Minneapolis presided and told the jury its verdict was right. The evidence showed that the money was loaned to Stewart.

CLOTHES ARE LACKING

When Girls Appear at Politicians' Fete in New Hampshire.

Boston, Mass., April 14.—Sedate New Hampshire, whose frivolities are supposed to reach the acme of real devilishness when the red ear of corn is found at a husking bee and a girl gets kissed, was rent asunder with indignation when the full story of a political club's dancing girl dinner became known. The midnight orgie was held at a hotel.

One of the quartet of artists imported into the state to make the occasion a pleasing one said she danced a Spanish number, "just the same as the Salome dance," except that instead of having on seven veils she had on only one. This was in the form of a shawl of white and silver. And it was zephyr-like in its gauzy effect.

Another girl appeared as a "diving Venus," and she came back in response to applause as "a Greek slave." Those Greek slaves were very poor and the price of clothing was high.

"Most Excellent."

Fergus Falls Council Elects.

Fergus Falls, Minn., April 14.—The city council elected the following officers for the year: Acting mayor, W. H. McBride; city attorney, N. F. Field; city clerk, Stener A. Levorsen; auditor, Fred Leffler; assessor, Oliver Olson; engineer, Hans Bisgen; health officer, Dr. J. G. Vigen; street commissioner and superintendent of poor, Charles Hanson.

"THE STORE OF QUALITY."

A Fashion Rendezvous for Belated Easter Shoppers

Women who must needs do their Easter shopping Saturday will do well to let us help. Such an array of Easter hats one seldom sees in big cities and the "French touch" is everywhere.

As for garments there are many different styles at as many divers prices. It were well to add, comparison will prove values to be exceptional.

All the accessories that go to make up the Easter toilette de luxe are here at decidedly sensible prices—

Fact is we've never had such an unbroken phalanx to offer our belated Easter friends.

Easter Millinery

A visit to our third floor reveals a concourse of dainty, saucy, ravishing hats that takes fair femininity by storm.

Paris hats, New York tailored models, and S. & B. chapeaux, include everything that Fashion has put on the crest of the mode. Trimmed with life-like flowers, pinions and French plumes—the showing is worthy of Paris itself.

One thing we would like to impress more than aught else on our friends, is that prices are not by any means prohibitive.

Few visitors leave without an Easter bonnet—a fact, which of itself is significant, as none are importuned to buy.

LaHelene Corsets

It's Another New Corset, sold here exclusively and is unequaled in selection of materials, boning, designing, finish, handiwork and all-round excellence.

The underlying principle that the proper corset makes the model gown has evolved for your benefit the most up-to-date Corset Shop in the Northwest.

The La Helene follows fashions demand for the slender long lines, but with added comfort as the bust is designed in divers lengths—from very high to extremely low—thereby insuring perfect freedom to figures of all proportions in any position whatsoever.

A more graceful encasement of the figure below the waist line results and brings a new idea in the shaping of the skirt.

It's an innovation exclusive to this new S. & B. corset—the La Helene.

Special and expert attention by skilled corsetieres. Appointments made by 'phone.

Prices from $3.50 to $25.

Juvenile Easter Suits

One glance tells they are remarkably good at $16.50. Copied from a much higher priced model they should really sell for $25. New style skirts, gored with distinctive back and front panel pleats. Straight, short, semi-fitting coats, with sailor collar and deep revers, trimmed with black and white or Persian silk—satin lined—materials include pin striped as well as fashionable plain blues—navy and lighter shades: for 13, 15 and 17 year-old girls.

HOLY WEEK SERVICES DRAWING TO A CLOSE

Good Friday Observed in Duluth—Easter in Local Churches.

Passover Also Being Observed By Jewish People of City.

Holy week, which has been fittingly celebrated in many churches, will come to a close Sunday, when the final services will be held in commemoration of the risen Christ.

Tonight the tenebrae will be observed for the last time in Catholic churches, consisting of chanting of the portions of the divine office known as the matins and lauds, with the lamentation of the prophet, Jeremiah. The chanting is attended by the extinguishing of lights on a triangular candlestick until only one light, that representing Christ, remains. The total darkness attending the hiding of the light signifies the darkness in which the world was plunged at the death of Christ. The reappearance of the lighted candle is significant of the resurrection.

There was no consecration of the Host in the masses in the Catholic churches today, this mass being the only one that is attended by the consecration. The mass of Good Friday is known as the Mass of the Pre-sanctified. The services tomorrow will be in the nature of a preparation for the celebration of the resurrection. In addition to the mass on the morning of Holy Saturday the ceremonies of blessing the new fire and incense, pascal candle, baptismal font and holy water are observed.

In the Episcopal churches services were held every day this week. Bishop Morrison was the celebrant at holy communion in the pro-cathedral, Superior street and Nineteenth avenue east, this morning. There was a lecture and devotional service in the pro-cathedral last night. The three-hour service today was conducted by the bishop, assisted by Dean Wurtele, Rev. A. Quinn of St. Johns' church, Rev. O. Collier of Holy Apostles church and the Rev. W. E. Harmann, who spoke on "The Seven Words From the Cross." Tomorrow there will be holy communion in the morning and baptism in the afternoon.

At St. Paul's Episcopal church, Second street and Lake avenue, holy communion was celebrated last evening. The Rev. A. W. Ryan, rector, presided over the service of commemoration from noon until 3 o'clock this afternoon. There will be a morning prayer tomorrow forenoon and in the afternoon a baptismal service.

At St. Paul's.

At St. Paul's Episcopal church the services on Easter Sunday will be elaborate. Holy communion will be observed at 8 a. m., communion and sermon at 11 a. m., carol service at 7:30 p. m. On Easter Monday holy communion will be celebrated at 10 a. m. The parish meeting will be held at 8 o'clock in the evening in the church. At the pro-cathedral services will be at 8:10 and 1 a. m., and children's service at 5 p. m. A dinner will be served Monday evening when the parish meeting will be held. A new memorial window will be dedicated after the service at 8 a. m.

Meetings have been held every evening this week in the Swedish Baptist temple. The services have been conducted by E. W. Elsinger and M. Berglund, Sunday school missionaries. The concluding services will be held at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow evening.

At St. John's Episcopal church, Lakeside, services will be held at 7:30 o'clock this evening. A litany service was held at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. Rev. Robert Yost will preach in the First Presbyterian church, Second street and Third avenue east, tonight on "The Cross Unavoidable." He preached in the church last night and Wednesday night. At Bethesda Norwegian church communion services were held last evening. Special services will be held in the church at 7:45 o'clock this evening.

Rev. John Walker Powell preached last night in the Endion Methodist Episcopal church, First street and Nineteenth avenue east, on "The Friendship of Christ." He will preach at 7:45 o'clock this evening in the church on "The Loneliness of Christ." This evening's service will be followed by communion.

At St. Peter's Episcopal church, Twenty-eighth avenue west and First street, services were held today from noon to 3 o'clock. A service in the Swedish language will be held at 8 o'clock this evening.

Services of a special nature were held in St. Mathew's German Lutheran church, Fourth street and Sixth avenue east, at 10:30 o'clock this morning. Confessional and holy communion will be held at 7:30 o'clock this evening. Confessional and communion will be included in the services at 10 o'clock Sunday morning. There will be no evening services Sunday, as the pastor, Rev. Herman Drews, will be in charge of services in the Grace Mission, Eveleth, Minn.

A prayer and praise service was held in the Lakeside Presbyterian church, Forty-fifth avenue east and McCulloch street, last evening. There will be no services tonight. A special service will be held at 8 o'clock this evening in St. John's English Lutheran church, Lake avenue north and Third street.

Union Service.

Eleven churches of West Duluth will hold union services at sunrise Easter morning in the Westminster Presbyterian church, Fifty-eighth avenue west and Ramsey street. The services will begin at 6:30 a. m. and will be led by Charles I. Towner. The music will be provided by the choir of the Ashbury Methodist Episcopal church.

Elaborate musical programs have been arranged by many churches for Easter. Miss Millie Oleson, soprano, will be the soloist at the First Norwegian-Danish M. E. church, Twenty-fourth avenue west and Third street. In the evening a Sunday school festival will be held.

At the Grace Methodist Episcopal church, Twenty-second avenue west and Third street, Miss Eva Adams will be the soloist at the annual Easter services at 10:30 a. m. Sunday. The annual offering for charity will be taken. Mrs. Mae E. Baillie, soprano, will be the soloist at the Central Baptist church, Twentieth avenue west and Fifth street. There will be special music by the choir at both morning and evening services. At the First Swedish Baptist church, Twenty-second avenue west and Third street, special music will be given under the direction of Prof. E. N. Erickson. Mrs. Carl Hagberg will be the soloist. The annual Easter program of the Sunday school was given last evening.

Special music will be sung at the morning service in the Bethany Swedish Lutheran church, Twenty-third avenue west and Third street, and a children's festival will be held in the evening.

Uptown the services will be especially elaborate. The music in the Sacred Heart cathedral, Second avenue west and Fourth street, will be under the direction of Alfred Wiley. The musical program will be given at solemn high mass at 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning. The choir will sing Gounod's "Messe Solemnelle." Miss Theresa Flynn will preside at the organ and Flaaten's orchestra will play. The offertory will be sung by a choir of children from St. James' orphanage.

G. Roy Hall, Miss Jean Wanless and Miss Myrtle Hobbs will be the soloists at the pro-cathedral, Nineteenth avenue east and Superior street. The choir will sing "As It Began to Dawn," and A. F. M. Custance's arrangement of the "Te Deum" will be sung. The music at St. Paul's Episcopal church, Lake avenue and Second street, will be unusually elaborate and will be under the direction of Prof. A. F. M. Custance.

Mrs. E. L. Zimmerman and Arthur McFadyen will be the soloists at the First Methodist Episcopal church, Third street and Third avenue east. The music will be under the direction of Horace W. Reyner. Special programs will be given in other churches. The complete programs will be published in tomorrow's editions of The Herald.

Feast of Passover.

The feast of the passover is being celebrated by the Jewish people and special services are held almost daily in the Jewish churches. The passover will end with the setting of the sun Tuesday. It is probably the most rigidly observed of the Jewish feasts, its observance extending to all Jews, orthodox or reformed. Leaven in either liquid or solid form is not permitted to be eaten and matzos, or unleavened bread, takes the place of the usual wheat bread. The home feast sadir takes place on the eve and first night of the period of the passover and is a very impressive and rigidly observed ceremony. During the first two days of the passover period, all Jews refrain from manual labor. Four days of routine life follow and for the remainder of the period, the faithful refrain from manual labor and attend morning and evening synagogue services.

The symbolic lights were extinguished last evening at the Maundy Thursday festivities of the Scottish Rite Masons and will be lighted again Easter Sunday. The annual reunion of the Scottish Rite Masons of Northeastern Minnesota was in session this week from Monday morning to midnight last night.

NO POISON IN CANDY EGGS

Colorings This Year Not So Brilliant, But They Are Pure.

Shortage in Violets Is Reported---Duluth Stores Are Busy.

Duluth people need have no fear in making purchases of colored and candied Easter eggs for the pure food inspector has been busy these many days visiting the different shops where goods of this class are sold. All the goods offered for sale are said to have been inspected and passed upon.

The proprietors of candy shops are anxious to comply with the law in this respect for they know that it will go hard with them if they don't. In a number of instances the inspector has been called in to examine goods before they have been placed on exhibition.

The colorings on the eggs and candies this year are not so pretty as they have been other years. This is because the colorings used are pure and it is impossible to get the old shades and still conform with the law.

Easter business is pronounced "very fair" by local candy companies and florists.

The clothing houses all seem to be enjoying their share of the Easter trade. The fine weather brought out the purchasers in crowds this morning and Superior street was thronged with shoppers. The millinery, suit and clothing departments of all the large stores were crowded this morning.

There are many novelties this year in candies and Easter trimmings for tables and at the book stores, candy stores and department stores, a large line of Easter novelties is being exhibited.

A very popular novelty this year is a stuffed duckling. The duckling is interesting because he comes from far away Japan to grace the tables of Americans.

There are candy boxes in satin, Easter egg candy boxes and novelties of all kinds.

At the last moment a shortage in violets is announced by local florists.

The rush for violets has been great for the last few days and the stock on hand is about gone.

A florist said this morning that he was notified by wire that only half his order could be shipped.

Most of the violets used in Duluth come from Chicago.

The price has not been advanced. The florists will sell what they have on hand and what is coming at the regular price as long as they last.

Easy to Take

Easy to operate—is true of Hood's Pills because they are made from the choicest and purest vegetable laxatives. No mercury or calomel. They never gripe nor cause any disturbance. Thus they are well liked by delicate women and children. 25c.

NOTES OF BOYS' DEPARTMENT

The Boy Scouts entertainment will be given Friday, April 28. Much interest is being manifested in the boys' department patrol of scouts, and the entertainment next Friday will give an opportunity of seeing some of the work the scouts can do. The program will consist of water boiling contests, scout cooking, first aid to the injured, signaling, resuscitating, history of the American flag, saluting and lowering of the flag, knot tying, stretcher drill and a one-act play entitled "The Findnd of Livingston." The first part of the program will be an exhibition of work done in the gymnasium; each class will put on one feature of their work.

Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock all the boys' department scouts will meet at the boys' building for a practice of work. This is to be followed by a period in the pool to practice rescuing from the water and resuscitating the apparently drowned. The scouts who have their uniforms are requested to wear them Saturday.

At the older boys' meet next Sunday at 4 o'clock Rev. Hunt will give the talk and Miss Bartholomew will sing. All boys in the city over 14 years of age are cordially invited.

The High School Bible class will close the winter term Monday evening. Dinner will be served at 6:15. All members of the class are requested to be present.

A special meeting of the boys' department cabinet has been called for Sunday following the regular Sunday afternoon meeting.

DISCUSS FINANCES OF MARKET ASSOCIATION.

The executive board of directors of the Producers' Co-operative Market association is to hold a meeting at the Commercial club this afternoon to discuss the finances of the association. Credit has been established for the association and the board will decide the amount of money that must be borrowed at this time and also the steps being taken to replace the credit with funds of the association.

Those of the executive board are: L. H. Bugbee of Wrenshall, A. J. McGuire of Grand Rapids, Ludwig Mossback of Ascov and E. A. Schulz and A. B. Hostetter of Duluth.

Exquisite Millinery: Our Own and Paris Made

Discriminating women are buying their Easter hats here. Millinery salon statistics show that 80 per cent of the visitors to this section the past two weeks were purchasers. Included in this count were four East end ladies who have previously gone out of Duluth for their hats, because they could not be suited.

The designing ability of our workrooms is unsurpassed. Years study of French millinery and many trips to Paris has qualified the head of this department to evolve hats of unique originality and exquisite charm at little cost.

Interest is divided between the daring, yet artistic, imported models that reign in the French rooms; and the charming designs of our own production. Of course, greater activities prevail in the latter, and the latitude of style and price diversity is great enough to suit all tastes.

We direct special attention Saturday to new Napoleon, helmet, toque and large undulating or abruptly upturned shapes of hemp, Tagal, nacre and straw braids, most becomingly trimmed, and selling at $5, $7.50, $10, $12 and $15.

PARTNERS OF PEOPLE

Advanced Ideas By President Vail of Bell Telephone System.

Present Argument in Favor of State Control and Regulation.

Boston, Mass., April 14.—Theodore N. Vail, president of the American Telephone & Telegraph company, believes that the time is coming when, through the combined use of telegraph and telephone facilities, the wire system in the United States will afford electrical communication of every kind of intelligence from every one at every place to every one at every other place. He believes that there can be created a wire system as universal and extensive as the highway system of the country which extends from every man's door to every other man's door.

If, however, the telephone and telegraph, in common with other great public utilities are to be brought to their highest efficiency, Mr. Vail believes that they must be developed under a system of state contract and regulation rather than of public ownership He takes the position that the public should be considered as virtual partners in all matters pertaining to the common welfare. Cardinal Gibbons, speaking of Mr. Vail's declaration, recently said: "This utterance from a man representing 70,000 stockholders is indicative of the progressive spirit of the times. It shows a broad appreciation of the rights of the people."

Its picture of the growth of electrical communication and its frank discussion of the question of state regulation as opposed to public ownership are giving to Mr. Vail's report, which is now being distributed in pamphlet form, a popular interest seldom attained by such documents. The report makes easy reading. It tells its story in terse and vigorous English and says things in a way to make them stick in the memory.

Striking Expressions.

Discussion of the relations of public utility corporations with the public is introduced by such expressions as these:

"The contest between the 'served' and the 'server,' the 'producer' and the 'consumer,' between 'he-who-has' and 'he-who-has-not,' has been going on from the dawn of civilization.

"There has always been and always will be the laudable desire of the great public to be served rightly, and as cheaply as possible, which sometimes selfishly degenerates into a lack of consideration for the rights of those who are serving.

"On the other hand there has always been the laudable desire of the 'server' or the producer to get a profit for his service or production which sometimes degenerates into a selfish disregard or lack of consideration for those who are served."

Public control or regulation of public service corporations has come and come to stay, declares the report, which then goes on to outline the principles which, in the judgment of Mr. Vail, and his fellow directors, should underlie a system of regulation designed to safeguard the public while dealing fairly with corporate interests.

State control as advocated by Mr. Vail would be applied by a permanent public service corporation, a quasi-judicial body which, in time, would establish a course of practice and precedent for the guidance of all concerned; but the opinion is expressed that the management and operation of public utilities should be left in the hands of men trained in the service of the corporations and possessed of that intimate knowledge and experience which can only be gained by continuous and practical participation in actual working. Such knowledge is required for successful operation while control or regulation can be intelligently exercised, after judicial hearing, by those who have not the knowledge or the experience to operate.

Proceeding to a further explanation of his ideas, Mr. Vail says that regulation should insure the highest possible standard in plant, the utmost extension of facilities, the highest efficiency in service and rigid economy in operation. Rates should be allowed that would warrant the highest wages for the best service, some reward for high efficiency in administration and such a return on the investment as would induce investirs not only to retain their securities but to supply the additional capital needed to meet the demands of the public. Such control and regulation should stop all abuses of capitalization, of extortion or of overcharges, of unreasonable division of profits.

Control of Competition.

This kind of regulation, as Mr. Vail views the problem, involves also the control and regulation of competition. He says that a public utility giving good service at fair rates should not be subjected to competition at unfair rates. It is not that all competition should be suppressed but that competition should be regulated and controlled. A corporation serving an entire community must serve some parts at a loss. Under such circumstances, he maintains that it is unfair to permit a rival company to establish competition in those places where the business is profitable, ignoring those where it must be done at a loss. State control and regulation, to be effective at all, says the report, should be of such a character that the results from the operation of one public utility would not warrant the expenditure or investment necessary for mere duplication and straight competition. In other words, the profits should not be so large as to warrant duplication of capitalization in the competition for the same business. In summing up his case against unregulated competiton, Mr. Vail says in part:

"Effective, aggressive competition, and regulation and control are inconsistent with each other and cannot be had at the same time.

"Control or regulation, to be effective, means publicity; it means semi-public discussion and consideration before action; it means deliberation, non-discrimination; it means everything which is the opposite of and inconsistent with effective competition.

"Competition — aggressive, effective competition—means strife, industrial warfare; it means contention; it oftentimes means taking advantage of or resorting to any means that the conscience of the contestants or the degree of the enforcement of the laws will permit. To make competition effective great and uncontrolled latitude of action is necessary; action must be prompt and secret.

"Competition which is not aggressive presupposes co-operative action, understandings, agreements, which result in general uniformity or harmony of action, which, in fact, is not competition but is combination, unstable but for the time effective."

State Controls Advantages.

Contrasting the advantages of state control with what he regards as the disadvantages of public ownership, Mr. Vail regards it as conceded that, as a rule, private management is better, more economical and more efficient than public management and much more advanced and enterprising while the economical margin between public and private management has been shown by experience to be more than sufficient to secure the best private administration.

As to state control, he says that it should be farseeing enough to encourage the introduction of new and novel enterprises, and that it should discriminate between the useful adventurers or promoters, pioneers in fact, and those pirates or sharks who, on the strength of other successes, extravagantly capitalize undeveloped ideas and exchange the worthless securities for the savings of deluded and credulous investors.

Mr. Vail thinks that state control or regulation to be effective, should, when exercised, be accepted and acquiesced in by the public. If decisions not in accord with the contention and desires of the public are to be condemned and if politics and political effect are to govern decisions, state control and regulation will become a disgrace and the evils which it was intended to correct will multiply.

The argument in favor of state control and regulation is set forth at considerable length in the report, not as applied to the telephone and telegraph industry in particulars but as it affects public service corporations in general.

READY FOR ANYTHING

When He Gets $50,000 From German Estate, Says Waiter.

Norfolk, Va., April 14.—Otto Landsberg, one of five heirs to the fortune left by Christian Landsberg, who died in Germany, eighty years ago, and whose estate is about to be divided, is the "king waiter" of Norfolk.

He and Mrs. Elizabeth Jacobs of this city, will receive $50,000 each, and Miss Leah Allen and Leonard Landsberg of Baltimore, will receive a like amount.

Otto said that when he gets his money he will not bet on the races, build a theater, or buy an airship.

"I am ready for anything else that looks good," he said.

Otto has been a waiter in the leading restaurant of this city, for several years, and is known far and wide as the "King Waiter."

"The House Where Your Credit Is Good."

POPULAR ELECTION

Of Senators Approved By House in Passing Resolution.

Provides for Submission to People of Question of Direct Vote.

Washington, April 14.—The house of representatives by a vote of 296 to 16, passed early last evening the Rucker resolution proposing a Constitutional amendment for the direct election of United States senators. This is the first of the Democratic program measures passed by the house. Backed by a solid Democratic phalanx it went through without modification and with a speed that brought protests from the Republicans. The resolution, as the house approved it, is in the form of the Borah resolution reported out of the senate judiciary committee in the closing days of the last congress.

Republican opposition yesterday was based on the fact that it did not contain the changes afterwards made in the fight in the senate, which assured to congress continued control over elections in the several states.

After six hours of debate, in which many demands were made for this change in the resolution, all but fifteen of the Republicans voted for the passage of the resolution. The majority of them had stated during the debate that they would support the resolution anyway, because they were convinced the public wanted such a Constitutional amendment submitted to the country as quickly as possible.

Those who opposed the resolution on the final vote were: Republicans—Cannon, Mann, Illinois; Danforth, Dwight, Melby, New York; Dodds, Fordney, McMoran, Michigan; Harris, Lawrence, McCall, Wilder, Massachusetts; Hinds, Maine; Sulloway, New Hampshire; Utter, Rhode Island. Democrats—McDermott, Illinois.

Do Not Like Form.

Former Speaker Cannon, Republican Leader Mann and others of the Republicans who voted against the measure, declared that its form was such as to threaten the Federal government with the loss of the control over senatorial elections in the states given to safeguard the integrity of these elections. They insisted, as did other Republicans who ultimately voted for the resolution, that the direct election amendment should be offered without any language attached that might be dangerous to the future congressional supervision of senatorial elections.

Democratic leaders declared that the Rucker resolution was open to no such construction, and that it offered the most nearly perfect constitutional amendment that could be devised. An amendment offered by Representative Young of Michigan, adding language that resembled that of the Sutherland amendment adopted in the senate two months ago, was defeated by a party vote, 121 to 19.

The Republican insurgents, led by Representatives Lenroot and Cooper of Wisconsin, forced a record vote on the final passage of the resolution. The house voted overwhelmingly in favor of the measure when Speaker Clark called for the viva voce vote; but the insurgents demanded a roll call to put the house on record on the subject. The Democrats quickly seconded this demand.

Day Full of Debate.

It was a day of lively debate. Practically every man who spoke favored the direct election amendment. The differences arose mainly over the form of the resolution and the constitutional argument of whether the powers of the federal government were in any way threatened.

New members jumped into the fray with enthusiasm. Representative Lafferty of Oregon, was a prominent figure among those and told the house at the beginning that he was an insurgent Republican. He sided with the Republican forces in urging a modification of the amendment.

Representative O'Shaughnessy, a newly elected Democrat from Rhode Island, informed the house that the legislature of Rhode Island did not represent the people of that state; that his state was the victim of "Archaic laws and a moribund Constitution" and that he hoped the amendment for direct election of senators would be "a short cut across lots that would give the people of poor, down-trodden Rhode Island those privileges that had been taken from them by moth-eaten charters."

Representative Utter, a new Republican from the same state, replied that Rhode Island did not need defense. Representative Baker of California, Tribble of Georgia and other new members figured in the debate.

Representative Norris of Nebraska, Cooper of Wisconsin and other leading Republican insurgents, declared that everybody favored the general idea and that the Democrats did wrong to couple with it language that might create doubt in the minds of voters and among members of state legislatures, as to the powers that are actually being surrendered by the federal government.

Chairman Rucker, with the approval of his Democratic colleagues, urged the house to defeat any amendments.

CREW NEVER REACHES SHORE

Six Men Perish When Schooner Ottawa Is Wrecked in Lake Michigan.

Sturgis, Wis., April 14.—The schooner Ottawa with a crew of six men was wrecked at Claybank and all of the crew lost some time yesterday morning. Owing to a fog nothing was known of the accident until late in the afternoon, when three bodies were washed ashore, and then farmers sent here for the life-saving crew, which located the schooner on the reef in the fog, a mile off shore.

Table Set for Breakfast.

It is supposed the schooner was wrecked early in the morning, because the table was set for breakfast, but the crew had not eaten. The men, it is said, were drowned while trying to get ashore, though if they had remained on the schooner all would have been rescued. The bodies of Claus Weborg, captain, and Carl Meyquist were washed ashore with that of an unidentified man.

Menominee Lumberman Bankrupt.

Menominee, Mich., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Wallace McPherson, a well known lumber dealer of this city, has filed a petition in bankruptcy. The unsecured liabilities are $10,000 and the unencumbered assets are said to be trifling.

THE CAUSE OF RHEUMATISM

Is the Rheumatic Poison in the Blood, Which Must Be Purified to Effect a Permanent Cure.

Many people believe that the twinges and tortures of rheumatism are due to cold, damp, or wet weather, and treat themselves by rubbing with liniments. This is a serious mistake, and one which allows the disease to progress to such an extent that it is often difficult to get it out of the system. Rheumatism is a disease of the blood and can be cured only by driving the rheumatic poison out of the blood. There is no medicine that will do this so speedily and surely as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They actually make the new, rich, red blood, which drives out the poison, builds up the system, and makes the sufferer well and strong.

Mrs. R. F. Browning, of No. 248 Walnut street, Lawrence, Kans., advises the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of rheumatism. The cure which the pills made in her case will interest every sufferer from this painful disease. She says:

"Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured me of rheumatism after two years of painful suffering. The disease settled in my arms and shoulders and seriously affected the joints of my fingers which were often so sore that I could not use them. The pain was a dull constant ache. Oftentimes when walking I would have a stitch in the back. I suffered from such intense pain at night that I could not sleep. At times I would be unable to do any work but was never flat down in bed.

"Nothing helped me until I used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills although I tried many other remedies. I could see improvement after taking a few boxes of the pills and used them until cured."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have also cured anaemia, chlorosis, general debility, after-effects of the grip and fevers and should be given a trial wherever a tonic for the blood and nerves is needed.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are always the same and are sold only in packages bearing the well-known trade-mark.

A copy of our new booklet, "Diseases of the Blood," containing full information about this treatment will be sent free upon request.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent to any address, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

DULUTH MAN AMONG SAVED

Many Others Have Been Saved By United Doctors' New System of Treatment.

John Flynn, who lives at 5811 Ramsey street, is another of the many who have been relieved from the pangs of disease by the United Doctors since they opened their Duluth institute on the third floor of the Columbia building a few weeks ago.

In a letter written for publication, Mr. Flynn says:

Duluth, Minn., April 3, 1911.

United Doctors — Gentlemen: For the past three or four years I have suffered severely from rheumatism. Much of the time I have been unable to work on account of the pains and stiffness. I have tried every treatment I heard of but was gradually getting worse in spite of them all.

Two weeks ago I heard of the cures being made by the United Doctors' new method of treatment and decided to try it. When I went to your office I could hardly get there, I was so sore and crippled up with the rheumatism. Now after this short course of treatment, I feel more than fifty per cent better, my pains are all gone and if I continue to improve as fast as I have, I will soon be able to go to work again.

I write this letter to recommend your treatment to my friends.

JOHN FLYNN.

News of the many wonderful cures being made right here in Duluth by this new "United" treatment has spread over the country and sick people come from far and near to be treated.

People who are suffering from any chronic, nervous or deep-seated disease of long standing are safe in consulting the United Doctors, for they relieve many who could not even be benefited by ordinary doctors. Their examination is free but they refuse to treat any case that they cannot benefit.

The grand free offer of treatment at cost is open to all who call before April 20th, after which time full regular fees will be charged to all.

SHOULD STATE CREED IN CONCRETE, SAYS WILSON

Democrats Should Define the Forms of Privileges They Oppose.

Governor Woodrow Wilson Sets Forth Objects of the Party.

—Copyrighted by George Grantham Bain.
WOODROW WILSON,
Governor of New Jersey.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 14.—In the absence of William J. Bryan, Governor Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey was the principal speaker of the Jefferson banquet of the National Democratic league of clubs here last night, at which all of the 1,000 plates were taken and the galleries were thronged. No presidential booms were launched and the speakers, from various sections of the United States, declared that Democracy was ready to follow any leader that might be chosen.

The oratory started with Governor Thomas R. Marshall of Indiana, who spoke feelingly of the absence of Col. Bryan and optimistically of the future of the Democratic party, and then introduced J. Hamilton Lewis of Chicago as the toastmaster.

Henderson S. Martin, Democratic state chairman of Kansas, spoke briefly made in the Sunflower state, and was followed by Former Governor George W. Peck of Wisconsin. In a humorous vein, Governor Peck told of the struggles of Democracy in Wisconsin.

Governor Wilson Speaks.

Governor Wilson was given the greatest ovation of the evening when he arose to speak on "The Party and The Present." He said in part:

"We are fond of speaking of ourselves as the party of Jefferson and Jackson, not because we are a party of old men, reminiscent of things gone by and in love with what has been, but because we are a party touched with the ideals which made these men great, whose names we recall with such reverence and enthusiasm, because the breath of our party's life is its utter faith in the principles of democracy. It is its devotion to the rights of the people of whatever class or degree as against all claims of privilege, as against all selfish interests which seek control instead of freely serving the life and development of the nation.

"It is so far from being a party of mere reminiscence, a party which tries to draw the country back to policies which belong to another time, to the circumstances of another age, that it is, above all others, a young man's party that presses toward the future with unshaken faith, with unwavering confidence and ever renewed hopes and aspirations for the principles of freedom, which are none other than the principles of opportunity, the principles of men not made, but on the make, struggling from achievement to achievement in a free exercise of their powers.

"These things are embodied in Jefferson, the thoughtful, philosophical, penetrating thinker for mankind, and in the rugged Jackson, who seemed to cut his way toward the right by rough instinct and the mere energy of an honest, indomitable nature; and so we see embodied in them the two sides of democracy. Its thoughtfulness, its confidence in the progress and liberation of mankind, and linked with these its force as of the common people, its abounding energy outside as well as within the field of cultivated thought.

What Democracy Is.

"Democracy is not a mere theory of government. It is an energy of life dwelling in the rank and file, interpreted once and again by great leaders, but not confined to their private cult and understanding. Its blood is the blood of the people. Its purposes are the purposes shared by all mankind. Its hopes are the hopes of all rational civilization.

"This is the da- upon which we utter our creed and renew our views. It behooves us to ask ourselves what our creed is, and to answer the question without subtlety or sophistication, in the plain terms of everyday life. We must state our creed in the concrete, not in the abstract. Our thoughts run back, of course, to the great Declaration of Independence which Jefferson gave us, but we cannot stop with that. The Declaration of Independence did not mention the questions of our day. It is a mere starting point for our thoughts. It is of no consequence to us unless we can translate its general terms into examples of the present day and substitute them in some vital way for the examples it itself gives, so concrete, so intimately involved in the circumstances of the day in which it was conceived and written. It is an eminently practical document, meant for the use of practical men, not a thesis for philosophers, but a whip for tyrants; not a theory of government, but a program of action. Unless we can translate it into questions of our own day, we are not worthy of it, we are not sons of the sires who acted in response to its challenge.

"We say that we are against privilege and for the rights of the people, but privilege has worn many forms. What is the especial form of privilege we now fight? How does it endanger the rights of the people, and what do we mean to do in order to make our contest against it effectual? What are to be the items of our new declaration of independence?

Meaning of Privilege.

"By privilege, as we now fight it, we mean control of the law, of legislation and of adjudication, by organizations which do not represent the people, by means which are private and selfish) and worthy of all condemnation. We mean specifically the conduct of our affairs and the shaping of our legislation in the interest of special bodies of capital and those who organize their use. We mean the alliance for this purpose of political machines with the captains of organized industry. We mean the exploitation of the people by legal and political means. We have seen our governments under these influences cease to be representative governments, cease to be governments representative of the people, and become governments representative of the special interests controlled by machines, which in their turn are not controlled by the people.

"We are not attacking men, we are attacking a system. The men are, most of them, honest. The great majority of them believe that in serving their own they are serving the interests of the country at large. Their conception of prosperity is that it will best proceed and gather under their management. They are willing, indeed they are anxious, that the people should share in it, but it must originate with them and be under their experienced control. They stand at the wrong point of view; they seek their objects, not by public argument, but by private management and arrangement, by influence, not by open political process.

Legislation Not in the Open.

"They are serving, served and assisted, not only by their political organizations which put men into office and into our legislatures, but also by our present methods of legislation. Legislation, as we nowadays conduct it, is not conducted in the open. It is not thrashed out in open debate upon the floors of our assemblies. It is on the contrary, framed, digested and concluded in committee rooms. It is in committee rooms that legislation not desired by the interests dies. It is in committee rooms that legislation desired by the interests is framed and brought forth. There is not enough debate of it in open house, in most cases, to discover the real meaning of the proposals made. Clauses lie quietly undiscovered in our statutes which contain the whole gist and purpose of the act; qualifying phrases which escape the public attention and casual definitions which do not attract attention, classifications so technical as not to be generally understood and which everyone most intimately concerned is careful not to explain or expound, contain the whole purpose of the law. Only after it has been enacted and has been come to adjudication in the courts is its scheme as a whole divulged. The beneficiaries are then safe behind their bulwarks.

"Of course the chief triumph of committee work, of covert phrase and unexplained classification, is the tariff law. Ever since the passage of the outrageous Payne-Aldrich tariff law our people have been discovering the concealed meanings and purposes which lay hidden in it. They are discovering item by item how deeply and deliberately they were deceived and cheated. This did not happen by accident; it came about by design, by elaborated, secret design. Questions put upon the floor in the house and senate were not frankly or truly answered and an elaborate piece of legislation was foisted on the country which could not possibly have passed if it had been comprehended by the whole country.

Other Ambushes.

"But there are other ambushes. Take, for example, the entirely legitimate extensions made of the idea of private property for the benefit of modern corporations and trusts. A modern joint stock corporation cannot in any proper sense be said to base its rights and powers upon the principles of private property. Its powers are wholly derived from legislation. It possesses them for the convenience of business at the sufferance of the public. Its stock is widely owned, passes from hand to hand, brings multitudes of men into its shifting partnerships and connects it with the interests and the investments of whole communities. It is a segment of the public; bears no analogy to a partnership or to the process by which private property is safeguarded and managed, and should not be suffered to afford any covert whatever to those who are managing it. Its management is of public and general concern, is in a very proper sense everybody's business.

"Hence our objects as a party. I take these objects to be to open all the processes of politics—open them wide to public view; to make them accessible to every force that moves, every opinion that prevails in the thought of revolutionary measures, but by a steady application of the principle that the people have a right to look into such matters and to control them; to safeguard our resources and the lives of our workmen and women and children (our chief natural resources) against the selfishness of private use and profit; to cut all privileges and patronage and private advantages and secret use of our fiscal legislation; to equalize the burdens of taxation, and to throw open the gates of opportunity to mankind."

fair reapportionment bill are ten times better in the regular session of 1913, when voting for reapportionment does not mean voting to cut one's term in two, than it is now.

In the meantime, there are two years in which to appeal to the sense of fair play that must exist in the hearts of the people of Minnesota, and if that sense of fair play is given expression before the 1913 session, it will be possible then to get a much better bill than the senate at this session is capable of producing.

President Maxfield of Wadena, Secretary MacKenzie of Bemidji, and the members of the executive committee of the Northern Minnesota Development association are here, and in a day or two they will issue a statement expressing their views on the failure of the senate to abide by personal and party pledges and to yield to the demands of justice.

Recall Bill Passes House.

The recall bill, temporarily playing the roll of battledore, was shuttlecocked back to the senate by the house yesterday afternoon, several important amendments having been adopted which will necessitate the action of that body.

Though this measure has had a parlous experience, and though the adoption by the house of amendments likely to create controversy in the senate give an opportunity to kill it by delay, the chances are that it will yet become a law; in which case the people of the state will vote upon it at the 1912 election and determine whether or not they wish the same control over their employes that private employers have over theirs.

First, recall bills, identical in form, were introduced in both branches. Then the senate passed the bill that was before it and sent it to the house. Then the house passed its bill, and sent it to the senate. This was a situation that boded ill for the measure, but its friends succeeded in making the senate bill a special order in the house for yesterday afternoon.

Two amendments of consequence were adopted by the house. One, proposed by Representative Congdon of Duluth, provided that members of the legislature may be recalled at any time after they have taken their oaths of office. This was because the senate had amended the bill so that no recall could be started until the officer attacked had served a year, which eliminated house members.

The other amendment, proposed by Representative Moyle Edwards of Breckenridge, made judges subject to recall, and on this there was the biggest fight of the day.

As it passed the house, the bill proposes a Constitutional amendment providing for the recall of elective officers on petition of 25 per cent of the voters. No recall petition, except in the case of a member of the legislature, can be circulated until the officer attacked has been in office a year.

Representative Moriarity raised a young storm by proposing an amendment to the effect that the petition must be signed by 25 per cent of those who voted for the officer involved. This would exclude from recall petitions anybody who voted against the officer, providing there were any way of finding out how the citizens voted. Much to the surprise of the house, by a standing vote the amendment was adopted, 52 to 47.

Applied to Legislators.

Representative Congdon offered an amendment providing that a recall petition could be circulated against a member of the legislature at any time after he had taken his oath of office. That amendment was also adopted.

Representative S. N. Lee proposed an amendment making judges subject to recall, the senate bill excepting them from its provisions.

Representative Lundeen said that from the number of amendments that had been offered, it was clear that the bill was marked for slaughter, and he protested against making "a Roman holiday" out of the occasion.

Representative W. I. Nolan wanted to postpone action until Saturday, but Representative Lee withdrew his amendment.

Then Representative D. P. O'Neill of Thief River Falls moved to reconsider the adoption of the Moriarty amendment, which had made the bill a joke. A roll call was demanded, and Representative Moriarity said he was willing to withdraw his amendment. The house had adopted it, however, and it was necessary for the house to expunge it from the bill, so the motion to reconsider carried, 88 to 24, after which Mr. Moriarity withdrew his amendment.

Representative Orr of St. Paul moved to reconsider the vote by which the house had adopted Representative Congdon's amendment making the bill applicable to house members.

"Do we want to go on record," asked Mr. Congdon, "as declaring that we want all office holders except ourselves subject to recall?"

Representatives Spooner, Lennon and Morton opposed the motion to reconsider, and Mr. Orr finally withdrew it.

Representative Conley offered the amendment making judges subject to recall, and promptly withdrew it. Representative Moyle Edwards of Breckenridge as promptly offered the same amendment, which was adopted, 86 to 22, after a debate.

Representative Moriarty then reoffered his amendment in a slightly different form, but it was voted down, and the bill as amended was passed by the following vote:

Pouse-Aker, Andrew Anderson, A. V. Anderson, J. Anderson, Boothroyd, Borgen, Bouck, G. W. Brown, L. D. State-Wide Primary Bill.

The state-wide primary bill passed by the senate was also a special order of the house for yesterday afternoon, but because there was a misunderstanding in the printing of the bill ti was postponed to tomorrow morning.

When the bill comes up tomorrow the house will consider the amendments proposed by the house committee on elections, which propose practically a new bill providing for conventions prior to the primaries at which party candidates will be selected, though the primaries will still be open to other candidates than those picked by the conventions. The object is to preserve party organizations; and the scheme originated with Frank M. Eddy. The chief objection heard to the plan from among the house membership is that it would require three fights for candidates, one before the convention, one at the primaries and the third at the election, and that there is nothing to prevent candidates who are defeated before the conventions from renewing the fight at the primaries.

The Keefe bill for the popular election of United States senators was to have been taken up in the senate yesterday afternoon, but because of the approaching adjournment until Monday a number of senators had left, and on motion of Senator S D. Works it was laid over to Monday.

The senate is due to have another fight on this proposition, and though the partisan Republicans will try to amend it to make it like the Murray bill which the senate passed and the house killed, there is a pretty fair chance that the Keefe bill go through without material amendment.

Representative Knapp yesterday had added in the house an amendment to a senate bill by Senator G. H. Sullivan which provides that the district court reporters shall be paid for transcript of records in criminal cases. The law at present is dubious on that point, and by a decision of Former Counsel W. J. Stevenson of the St. Louis county board the reporters in St. Louis county have not been paid for this work.

The house yesterday afternoon passed the senate bill by Senator G. H. Sullivan providing for the indeterminate sentence of persons convicted of crime.

THOUSANDS OF SKULLS

Are Gathered From Nearly Forty Ancient Cemeteries in Peru.

Explorations Made on Behalf of the Smithsonian Institution.

Washington, April 14.—Dr. Ales Hrdlicka of the United States National museum, who made extensive explorations among the ancient cities of Peru last summer and brought back with him 3,400 skulls and thousands of human bones gathered from nearly forty ancient cemeteries, has made a preliminary report to the Smithsonian institution of the results of his investigations.

He announces that with his material, together with the collections from Ancon and other localities of Peru already available, it will be possible now to learn definitely the physical characteristics of the population of the Peruvian coast for a distance of over 400 miles, and to establish a firm foundation for anthropological comparisons for the rest of the country.

His collections proceed mainly from the ancient sacred city of Pachacamac, and from the once powerful empire of the Chimu. The results of the work will be far-reaching, though.

"It is not yet possible," says Dr. Hrdlicka in his report, "to speak of the full scientific value of the collection, however, this is not readily overestimated.

"A number of the more important point which presented themselves during the preliminary work in the Pachacamac ruins are as follows:

"It was seen first of all that the remains here were derived partly from mummies, which were especially numerous in the neighborhood of the temple of the great deity of Pachacamac, and in part from simple burials; also that in rare instances cremation had been practiced.

"The mummies were not only artificial as to their exterior, but there appeared evidence that the bodies themselves or at least some of their parts, had been specially treated; thus a number of skulls, mostly such as were damaged by wounds, were found filled with cotton.

Victims of Strangulation.

"All the larger cemeteries about the extensive ruins contained burials of males, females and even children, but the last were nowhere very numerous and were in a decided minority near the temples. In one cemetery all persons interred were women and none of these had died a natural death, but were victims of strangulation. All were adults and one of the skulls showed gray hair. It is probable that the victims were strangled as sacrifices to the deity of the temple.

"The people buried at Pachacamac were in general of moderate stature and medium physical development, with shorter and weaker individuals not infrequent.

"The investigation in the cemeteries in the valley of Chicama, the region of the Chimu, emphasized the relative scarcity of the remains of children. This is not due to the earlier decay of children's bones, for where such were found they were in just as good condition as those of the adults. It indicates either a scarcity of children, in Dr. Hrdlicka's opinion, separated interments, or else a low infant mortality.

"The majority of the people in this valley were found to have been of the same type exactly as those of the much more southern region of Pachacamac, but it was also evident the valley of Chicama was peopled in the course of time by more than one tribe of natives, though all or nearly all were of the same stock.

Religious and Political Center.

"Pachacamac was a famous religious center comparable to the Egyptian Thebes or the Mohammedan mecca," says Dr. Hrdlicka. "It originally contained the shrine of the 'creator' god, Pachacamac, to which flocked pilgrims coming from all parts of Peru, 500 leagues or more," and later after conquest of the place by the Peruvians of the Highlands, it also had a famous temple of the Sun. It was at the same time a political center, the seat of a chief who ruled over the neighboring populous valleys. Its decline dates from the entrance of the Spaniards in 1533 and the destruction by them of the venerated statue of Pachacamac. In the sixteenth century the Augustinian monks transferred the town to the valley and in the first part of the seventeenth century the old place was already a desolate pile of ruins.

"The inhabitants disappeared, leaving scarcely a trace in history, but they left behind a vast number of graves. It is estimated the total number of burials within and about the ruins was between 60,000 and 80,000. There are six or more aggregations of graves which may be regarded as cemeteries, but burials often two deep existed apparently in every available part of the ground, within the temples, about and even within the dwellings.

"These cemeteries, with the exception of one smaller one, have been for years the prey of the peons, engaged in searching for pottery and precious metals, which are carried to Lima for sale. The result is the destruction of thousands of mummy bundles, and often the mummies themselves, scattering of the bones, damage to the walls and foundations and destruction or abandonment of everything that could not be sold.

Skulls Everywhere.

"The skulls, bones, wrappings, damaged fabrics, broken jars, etc., are left to litter the surface of the sands or are but partly buried by the earth thrown out from the excavations. When I arrived the place looked like a veritable Golgotha, or some great barbaric battlefield, with skulls and bones whitening the ground and ruins in every direction.

"In one sense these conditions, however they may be deprecated, proved of great service, giving an invaluable opportunity for investigation and collection of skeletal material. It made possible the examination on the spot of thousands of individual skulls, a good proportion of which, however, were not removed because of the damage done by the shovel of the diggers or the elements.

"From an archeological point of view the exploration brought out with special force the fact that the scientific value of such Peruvian collections of pottery and other antiquities as have been made or are being made by the untrained local collectors is very small. The peons gather indiscriminately what is salable and dispose of it now to this buyer and now to another. These buyers, generally, do not attempt in the least any type or locality identification. In consequence every large collection that has been sold from Peru by such collectors represents a heterogeneous mass of articles proceeding from different epochs and even different peoples, and what it can amount to scientifically under such circumstances can easily be imagined. If ancient Peru is to be known properly it will be necessary, as in Egypt, to re-dig the plundered cemeteries, establish the relations between the articles buried and the type and period of the people and to collect and not every object the graves offer. Perhaps then, on the basis of such work, it will become possible to properly classify the existing Peruvian archeological collections in our institutions."

"SUGAR PIE" SAYS HUBBY WAS FALSE

When He Wrote Endearing Letters, and Is Granted Alimony.

New York, April 14.—Edith M. Huff, who is the "dear sugar pie" of the many letters placed before Supreme Court Justice Greenbaum in her action for absolute divorce from George C. Huff of the Waldorf-Astoria, was granted $50 a week alimony. She wanted $1,000 a month, claiming that her husband had an income of $50,000 and was supporting another woman in luxury as his wife.

In one of his letters he spoke of the time when he would "fill her clothes and shoes with money" and buy her a magnificent estate on Long Island.

"When we get our house on Long Island," he wrote, "and our six-cylinder motor car, we will get younger every day. We can go to Oyster Bay, Long Branch, Garden City, etc., for sea food dinners. I tell you I see where I lose my sugar pie if I don't get a bulldog and shotgun. When she becomes an Eastern heart breaker she will be the candy kid with the sticky side up.

"Well, honey, love, hugs and kisses.
"Hubby."

Mrs. Huff says a letter signed by "A Sympathetic Friend" informed her last March that Mr. Huff as Mr. Denison had a "Mrs. Denison" with him at his hotel. Then she investigated and brought suit.

From Columbus, Ohio, Huff sent a letter complaining that the town was "dry." "I wish I had your sporting blood, honey," he wrote his wife. "We would break the record, and I think we will at that when I come home. Well, dearie, I must close for tonight. I hope that you are happy. Remember that you are booked for a hot old time soon."

Huff, in an answer denying his wife's charges, explained to the court that he is an independent real estate broker and that many of his big deals did not turn out very well for him. He says that he owes $60,000, and that there is an item of $1,600 due the hotel where he is living at present "by courtesy" of the management.

GUN PLAY KILLS CHICKENS.

Norfolk, Va., April 14.—The killing of many unhatched chickens and hundreds of hard shell crabs by the big twelve-inch guns of the battleship New Hampshire, when they sunk the old battleship San Marison, in Tangier sound, Chesapeake bay, during the naval experiments, has caused farmers and packers of the eastern shore of Virginia and Maryland to protest against further similar tests.

S.S.S. REMOVES THE CAUSE AND CURES CATARRH

Catarrh usually begins with irritated, inflamed membranes of the head, nose and throat, from which there is a constant and copious discharge of watery matter. This comes from inflammation of these mucous surfaces and is caused by catarrhal matters and impurities in the circulation. Nature intends that these membranes shall be nourished by the blood, but waste matters and impurities deposited into these delicate parts, sets up inflammation and the discharge is a natural result. When this secretion begins to dry it becomes thick and sticky, adhering to the back portion of the mouth and throat, causing the "hawking" and straining so troublesome to Catarrh sufferers. Other ordinary symptoms are caused from congestion of the circulation by the catarrhal impurities.

I suffered for a long time with a bad case of Catarrh. I had a continual headache, my cheeks grew purple, my nose was always stopped up, my breath had a sickening and disgusting odor and I coughed incessantly. I heard of your S. S. S. and commenced to use it, and after taking several bottles I was cured and have never since had the slightest symptom of the disease.
MRS. MARY L. WESSERMAN.
4449 Vista Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

I had all the symptoms that accompany Catarrh, such as mucus dropping in the throat, a constant desire to hawk and spit, feeling of dryness in the throat, cough and spitting upon arising in the morning, etc. I had thus suffered for five years. I commenced to take S. S. S., and after I had taken three large bottles, I noticed a change for the better, thus encouraged, I continued to take it, and in a short while was entirely cured. JUDSON A BELLAM.
211 Randolph St., Richmond, Va.

There is only one way to cure Catarrh, and that is to remove the cause by purifying the blood. Washes, sprays, inhalations, etc., do not reach the circulation, and therefore can only afford temporary relief. S. S. S. cures Catarrh by cleansing the blood of all impure catarrhal matter, and at the same time building up the system by its unequalled tonic effects. In other words S. S. S. cures Catarrh by purifying the blood so that the mucous surfaces and linings of the body are supplied with healthy nourishment instead of being continually irritated from the catarrhal impurities. Then the inflamed membranes heal, the discharge is checked, head noises cease, the stomach is toned up, and the throat is no longer clogged with mucus. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice free. S. S. S. is for sale at drug stores. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

BOUGHT FOR $1,250,000

Record Price Is Paid for Famous Library By Book Dealer.

Manuscripts of Washington and Franklin Features of Collection.

New York, April 14.—A world's record in the sale of books was made when George D. Smith, a dealer of No. 48 Wall street, paid $1,250,000 for the library of E. Dwight Church, a Brooklyn millionaire, who died a year and a half ago. No such figure ever has been approached at private sale or auction in the country or in Europe. Negotiations with the Church executors had been in progress for six months. Mr. Smith had one competitor in the bidding.

The collection, which contains between 35,000 and 40,000 volumes, is conceded to be one of the finest in America, privately owned. Every volume is a rare one, while manuscripts and prints of great value are included. It cost Mr. Church $30,000 to get up the seven volumes of the catalog. The books were placed in two divisions, five volumes of the catalog being devoted to American and two to English literature.

No Price Too High for Him.

Mr. Church spent thirty years in making his collection, and no price was too high when he found a book he wanted. Six months before his death he paid $2,000 for Samuel Champlain's narratives of his voyages and discoveries. This book was bought for four cents in Paris a few months before. At the auction sale a representative of P. Pierpont Morgan started the high bidding, but dropped out when he realized that Mr. Church was determined to purchase it.

All the classical authors are represented in the library and the collection of Shakespeare is ranked as the fourth best in existence, the other three being in public libraries in European capitals. There are forty-three quartos of the plays of the Bard of Avon, printed years before the folios. These probably would bring from $1,000 to $15,000 each in the market. There is a first edition of Shakespeare's "Lucrece," said to be worth $18,000.

Franklin's Life in Own Writing.

"The Life of Franklin," in his own handwriting, is one of the interesting features of the collection, one which couldn't be bought for less than $35,000. Then there are sixty of the original "Poor Richard Almanacs," one of which contains Franklin's daily program of work in his own handwriting. It shows that the great American arranged in advance for every hour of the day. A piece of paper ruled off in three columns and a line for each hour of the day starts with the daily motto. One reads: "The morning resolution—What good shall I do this day?" Then follows the hours of 5, 6 and 7 with this writing: "Rise, wash and dress. Powerful good rest. Continue day's business and take the resolution of the day." Eight, 9, 10 and 11 o'clock are checked off as "work," while at noon his scheduled program calls for "read or overlook my account." There are four hours' work in the afternoon and then 6, 7 and 8 o'clock bring this: "Put things in their places, supper, music or diversion or conversation." Nine o'clock brought an examination of his day's program and an hour later he was ready for sleep.

Writings By Washington.

Another book gives George Washington's genealogy of his family in his own handwriting. This work was finished in 1792, but was begun many years earlier, for in referring to himself in one place Washington had placed an asterisk. In a footnote he wrote "now president." Included, too, are original letters of Columbus.

The Bay psalm book, the first printed in this country, which came off the first press set up in Cambridge in 1640, is another treasure. There are two letters from Maj. Andre, and also his signature to a parole granted in Pennsylvania after he had been arrested the first time. There is a copy of Charles Lamb's letter of proposal to Frances Maria Kelley on July 20, 1819, and also her reply, showing she refused his marriage offer on the same day.

There is also an engraving of the Boston massacre, made by Paul Revere. There is a copy of the first laws of Massachusetts, said to be the only one in existence, and also of the New York Colony laws, turned out by William Bradford, New York's first printer, in 1693.

Mr. Smith said he hoped to sell the collection of Americana to the government.

HIS WOUNDS PROVE FATAL

Superior Policeman, Shot Three Weeks Ago By Thieves, Dies.

Men Whom He Was Trying to Arrest Fired at Him.

Patrolman Roy W. Jackson, who was shot three weeks ago by two thieves at Allouez, died at 6:25 o'clock this morning at St. Frances hospital, East end. Blood poisoning resulted from the bullet wound.

Jackson was shot through the stomach. The bullet lodged in his intestines and the only possible chance of saving his life, physicians say, was in an operation. He was operated upon yesterday afternoon. He failed to rally from the operation.

Jackson was 30 years old and a member of the Superior police force for four years. He came to the city seven years ago. He is survived by a wife and three children living at Allouez. The body will be sent Sunday to Montague, Mich., his former home.

Jackson was detailed to catch two bicycle thieves. The police had discovered the stolen vehicles hidden in some underbrush and Jackson waited there in the dark for them. When they appeared, Jackson was not quick enough and was shot before he could cover them with a gun. The two men escaped and have not been apprehended.

VEHICLE IS NEEDED FOR COUNTY JAIL PRISONERS.

Street car patrons on the East end lines are strenuously objecting to the practice of conveying prisoners from the superior and municipal courts at the West end to the county jail at the East end in the street cars. They will ask the county board to purchase an automobile or make other arrangements for transporting the prisoners from one part of the city to the other.

LAND & RIVER COMPANY OBJECTS TO IMPROVEMENT.

Objection to the opening and grading of North Third street from Grand to Bay street from Third to Fifth was raised yesterday at a hearing held by the board of public works. F. B. Southern, representing the Wisconsin Land & River company, owners of about two-thirds of the benefited property, appeared before the board and protested on the grounds that the improvements was not needed and that the property could not stand the assessment.

Damaged By Wind.

One of the two large coal handling rigs on Dock No. 2, Northwestern Fuel company, on St. Louis bay, was blown off the tracks by a prank of the high wind yesterday afternoon and nearly resulted in the smashing of the rig. It may take several days to get it back in operation again.

Twelfth Anniversary.

The twelfth anniversary of the organization of the Norwegian-Danish M. E. church at Garfield avenue and Eighteenth street, Billings Park, will be celbrated at the church Monday, April 24. Among the speakers will be Rev. A. M. Treistad, former pastor; Rev. Chris Olson, Rev. C. G. Gunderson, pastor; John O Wick, and others.

ALBERTA MINERS WANT BOARD OF CONCILIATION.

Ottawa, Ont., April 14.—The minister of labor received a telegram from the Alberta striking miners last night asking for the appointment of a board of conciliation to hold an investigation under the industrial dispute act. The ministers have named A. J. Carter. The minister telegraphed the operators acquainting them with the situation and asking them to name a representative. It is the expectation that the board will be organized within a few days.

EDWARD CUDAHY TO MARRY SOCIETY GIRL.

San Francisco, Cal., April 14.—A marriage license was issued yesterday at Redwood, near here, to Edward I. Cudahy, member of the wealthy packing house family of Omaha and Chicago, and Miss Leonora Brewer, society girl of Hillsborough, San Francisco's fashionable suburb.

NAMED AS POSTMASTER AT AVERILL, CLAY COUNTY.

Washington, April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Representative Steenerson has recommended the appointment of Mrs. F. A. Johnson to be postmaster at Averill, Clay county.

Senator Clapp went to Lancaster, Pa., where he is scheduled to deliver an address tonight on "Popular Government."

MURDERED AND THROWN DOWN ELEVATOR SHAFT.

Chicago, April 14.—Prowlers about the Atlas building are believed to have murdered James Fitzgerald, a watchman, and to have thrown the body down an elevator shaft, because of the condition in which the body was found by the police today. Every door of the elevator shaft was found closed.

No Election in Colorado.

Denver, Colo., April 14.—Anti-Speer Democrats today switched again in the vote for United States senator, casting their ballots for Former Governor Alvah Adams. Republicans voted for F. O. Roof. No election resulted. Adams received 31 votes; Speer, 27.

CHARGED WITH USING MAILS TO DEFRAUD.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 14.—Gilbert Perkins, head of the Perkins Union Detective agency, who, with his son, Walter, was arrested in Indianapolis, charged with using the United States mails to defraud, being accused of sending a letter to Charles L. Strong of Erie, demanding $50,000, or his home or family mausoleum would be blown up, returned to Pittsburg today. He refused to talk of the matter.

HARDWICK WOULD REPEAL FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT.

Washington, April 14.—A bill was introduced in the house today by Representative Hardwick of Georgia providing for the repeal of the Fourteenth amendment to the Constitution. The measure seeks to prevent congress from limiting the representation of the Southern states because of the disfranchisement of the negro, which curtails the voting population of the states.

NEW HAMPSHIRE EDITOR IS BURNED TO DEATH.

Claremont, N. H., April 14.—Samuel Henry Story, editor of the Narrative, a weekly publication, was burned to death here today. While apparently asleep on a sofa, fire from an overheated stove spread to the furniture and then to the editor.

Story lived alone in his newspaper office and, according to his own statement, existed on 9 cents a day. He was one of the oldest publishers in the state, having been born in 1833. He had no relatives so far as known.

INDIANIAN'S HUNGRY EAGLE.

Quincy correspondence Indianapolis News: C. E. Summers has a gray eagle which was captured in a steel trap here a few days ago. The bird measures seven feet from the tip of one wing to the tip of the other and its appetite makes it desirable for Mr. Summers to dispose of it at once. It was captured March 10 and has since eaten one rooster, two crows and about ten pounds of meat. Attacks on lambs cause sheep owners to set traps about their folds, with the result that the eagle was caught by Henry Mannan.

MILK BELOW STANDARD

Restaurant Proprietors May Be Arrested on Complaint of Health Department.

Results of Milk Inspection Are Unsatisfactory in Nine Places.

The inspection of the milk sold by restaurants in the city which was concluded yesterday by Milk Inspector Grant E. Owen of the health department, will probably result in a number of arrests, the complaints for which will likely be sworn out tomorrow.

Nine different restaurants, the majority of which are of the cheaper class, were found to be selling milk which was far below the standard required by the state law, which calls for a minimum of 3.5 per cent butter fat. Part of those from which samples were taken, tested under 2 per cent and one went as low as 1 per cent.

The first inspection of this kind which was made some months ago showed a startling condition of affairs. Hardly a restaurant in the city was selling milk which was up to grade. It was learned that they made a practice of skimming the cream from the milk which was delivered them to the dairymen, and selling the skimmed milk to the public. Since that time a vast improvement has been shown in almost all of the better places. And each of those which was found lacking this time gave strong assurances that they would hereafter comply with the law.

In some of the places taken in on the last inspection trip, Inspector Owen found that two vats were in use. He states that some of the trade was served from the vat which contained milk up to grade, and that the others got the skimmed product.

The officials of the health department state that they have given the restaurant proprietors every opportunity to comply with the law and have done everything in their power to aid them in getting milk which contained the required 3.5 per cent butter fat, or better. In some instances the warnings seem to have been unavailing, and it is announced that the warrants will follow.

Those which were below grade, with the tests, were: Home restaurant, 2.6 per cent; St. Paul restaurant, 2.7 per cent; Royal cafe, 1.7 per cent; Vienna restaurant, 2.4 per cent; Oregon restaurant, 1 per cent; Omaha restaurant, 2.2 per cent; Ohio restaurant, 1.5 per cent; Belmont restaurant, 1.7 per cent, and the City restaurant, 2.2 per cent.

FORECAST FOR SUNDAY

Fair and Warmer Weather Is Promised for Easter Fashion Parade.

Mr. Richardson Prepared to Hide Behind "Believe" If Forecast Fails.

THE WEATHER MAN'S MESSAGE.

"I believe the weather will be fair Sunday and that temperatures will be higher by that time."—H. W. Richardson, local forecaster, United States weather bureau.

Hurrah for the fashion parade! For once the weather man is inclined to divest himself of his usual grouch on special occasions and come across with a brand of weather on Easter Sunday that will not be a menace to the smart suits and expensive hats of the fair ones—not to mention those who are not fair. One wouldn't blame the weather man for sending a veritable deluge if anybody should appear in the parade with a harem skirt—grass cloth?—but there is little danger of that untoward event happening in Duluth and everybody may prepare for the big show with at least some assurance.

Mr. Richardson is not positive in his statement. He says he believes and there have been times when what the forecaster believed and what the weather man really sent were as far apart as winter weather in Sunny Southern Alberta and the summer climate of the equator. So if rain should fall Sunday, Mr. Richardson is prepared to hide behind that "believe" and stay hidden for four or five days.

The wind hit it up at a thirty-six mile clip again last night and the temperature was low enough to make those who were out in spring clothes doubtful of their judgment. The wind went down during the night, but the lowest temperature, 28 deg. was reached at 7 o'clock this morning.

Fair weather is promised for tonight and tomorrow, but there will be a heavy frost again tonight, with fair and warmer weather for Easter Sunday in the offing.

THREE CHILDREN ARE ORPHANS

Joseph Dolson of Duluth Heights Dies of Typhoid Fever.

Joseph Dolson, 43 years of age, an employe of the Northern Pacific railroad, died yesterday at St. Luke's hospital of typhoid fever, following an illness of four weeks. He is survived by three children, Athalia, 15 years of age; Lawrence, 13, and William, 10 years old. Their mother died when they were quite small, and the death of their father leaves them orphans. Mr. Dolson was a resident of Duluth Heights for twelve years, and was a member of the Modern Woodmen of America.

NO SESSIONS OF THE MARKETS

Good Friday Is Observed in Duluth and in the East.

The stock markets here and in the East were closed today in observance of Good Friday. The exchanges will remain closed tomorrow. Sessions will be held as usual on Monday, when it is possible that the supreme court of the United States will hand down decisions in the Standard Oil or American Tobacco cases, or both.

Grain exchanges in all countries were also closed today. American exchanges will remain closed until Monday. London and Liverpool will observe Easter Monday as a holiday, also.

The opening of rich ore on the twenty-third level of the Franklin south drift is considered very important. The twenty-third level is the farthest south of any of the levels, and as the Franklin is now opened every 100 feet down to the twenty-third level this same shoot of ore should be cut by the other levels as fast as they get under the point where the rich ore was encountered on the twenty-third level.

A report is current in California that in view of the trouble with the farmers on account of alleged damage fumes, the Mountain Copper, Balaklava and United States Smelting companies are considering the feasability of establishing a joint damage fund. The sum favored it is said is 25 cents per ton of ore treated.

Of the two strikes at North Butte the most important is the Croesus, from which very little ore has been extracted. This is one of the new veins to the north, and a width of sixteen feet of 9 to 11 per cent ore on the 1800-foot level is indicative of the opening of a very large ore body of exceptionally high value.

There is no evidence as yet of the inability of the Goldfield Consolidated to continue the payment of its $2 dividend rate, says Thompson, Towle & Co. Net earnings for March were $825,000, as compared with $719,000 for February, and dividend requirements call for $580,000 per month.

The lease terminates unless the city improves the property within five years. The city cannot sub-lease except with the approval of the railroad and warehouse commission, and if at any time within twelve years the farmers' co-operative elevator companies of the state get together and decide to build a farmers' terminal elevator, they must be provided with a space 100 feet by 350 feet on which to build it.

The joint conference committee appointed, pursuant to a resolution by Senator Cheadle, to investigate the bill, reported yesterday afternoon to the senate in its favor, and the report, which is unanimous, will be made to the house Saturday.

Both the house and senate had night sessions last night. While night sessions have become a habit with the house, this is the first the senate has held for the regular routine of business.

A house bill, creating a department of weights and measures under the railroad and warehouse commission, was passed by the senate.

The house passed a senate bill prohibiting the marriage of first cousins, and a senate bill prohibiting discrimination by innkeepers, common carriers or places of amusement against persons wearing the unifrom of the army, navy, marine corps or revenue cutter service of the United States or of the national guard of naval service of the state.

Consolidated Rural Schools.

The senate yesterday afternoon passed the house bill by Representative N. J. Holmberg of Renville county encouraging consolidated rural schools.

The bill is an enlargement of the provisions of the present law, and makes liberal appropriations to encourage rural schools to unite and form larger and stronger districts. It specifies three classes of schools, with state aid of $750 for one of two departments and at least twelve sections of land; $1,000 aid for one of three departments; and $1,500 for one of four or more departments, and in addition thereto 25 per cent of the cost of building, but in no case more than $1,500. Schools in districts of the last two classes must contain at least eighteen sections of land. Provision is made for teaching the elements of agriculture and other industrial work. Provision is also made whereby rural schools may become consolidated with a high school or graded school, in which case only the rural districts vote on the question.

The establishment of the schools, the fixing of the courses of study and the qualifications of the teachers are under the supervision of the state superintendent. There is already manifest a very general interest in this form of rural school consolidation, and it is expected that, within the next two years, much progress will be made in establishing schools of this type.

Mrs. H. W. Cheadle is in St. Paul, spending the closing days of the session with Senator Cheadle.

Neither body is in session today, this being a legal holiday. The house will put in a busy day tomorrow, but the senate will not meet until Monday.

AMBASSADOR HILL RESIGNS HIS POST

when the resignation goes into effect. Mr. Hill's letter to the president follows:

"Washington, April 12, 1911.—Dear Mr. President: I have the honor to remind you that at the beginning of your term of office I expressed to the secretary of state my readiness to terminate my mission as ambassador to Germany which your predecessor had intrusted to me. It was your pleasure soon afterwards to communicate to me in person your wish that I should continue at that post, and I was very happy, especially in view of the short time I had been at Berlin, to receive this mark of your confidence.

"The half of your administration having already passed, it appears to me fitting that I should express to you my grateful appreciation of the consideration you have shown me and that I should at this time place my resignation in your hands to take effect July 1 next, which I now do in order that, if you desire to do so, you may be able to make another appointment to that post.

"It has been a great pleasure to me to serve my country in this honorable and highly responsible office, which I have endeavored to fill to the best of my ability.

"Please accept, my dear president, the assurance of my great esteem and loyal sentiment. Your obedient servant, DAVID J. HILL."

The president's letter of acceptance reads:

"The White House, Washington, April 14, 1911.—My Dear Mr. Ambassador: In acknowledging your letter of the 12th instant it is with great reluctance that I accept your resignation and relieve you of a mission which you have discharged in a manner which I so highly appreciate both as to the actual work of the embassy, and as to your relation to the government to which you are a credit.

"I am glad that it will be convenient to you to retain your post until the first of next July, and I remain, my dear Mr. Hill, with renewed expression of appreciation and with every good wish, very sincerely yours,

"WILLIAM H. TAFT."

Ambassador Hill was ordered home from Berlin several weeks ago to discuss, according to an announcement by the state department at the time, the potash controversy between the United States and Germany, which for a long time has been the subject of diplomatic interchange in which Mr. Hill has been intimately engaged.

State department officials declined today to discuss the resignation.

The retiring ambassador has been connected with the state department for more than twelve years, entering the service as assistant secretary of state, Oct. 25, 1898. He was appointed minister to Switzerland in 1903, and two years later transferred to the Netherlands. Since April 2, 1908, he has been ambassador to Germany.

While Ambassador Hill's resignation was a great surprise to official Washington and to the diplomatic corps here, it was argued today that the fact that he is to remain at his post until July 1, indicates that there was nothing urgent in the ambassador's action.

The belief is general that Ambassador Hill's retirement is in accord with the custom of past administrations to appoint new ambassadors to all of the important posts. Changes have been made heretofore by President Taft at all such places except Great Britain and Germany.

In the case of Great Britain, President Taft offered the mission to Dr. Charles W. Eliot of Harvard university who declined.

Green Room Gossip.

The sale of seats for the opening performance of "The Girl Question," the fascinating, tuneful production from the pens of Hough, Adams and Howard, among the foremost of America's light musical authors, indicates that there is even more interest in the forthcoming production of the La Salle theater success than was manifested in the Mack-Leone production of "Forty-five Minutes From Broadway."

With an enlarged and specially drilled singing chorus, with new scenery constructed for the Duluth production, and with every member of the big company in the cast, "The Girl Question" promises to be the most notable success scored by the Mack-Leone Players since their return to this city.

"The Girl Question" opens with a Sunday matinee and will also have a special matinee on Monday and a regular Wednesday matinee, the engagement closing Wednesday evening.

No vaudeville performer who has visited Duluth this season has created more merriment off the stage, for his chance acquaintances than Joe Jackson, the "European Vagabond," who is appearing at the Orpheum this week.

Jackson is an Austrian, and speaks broken English, but he is alert and anuxious to learn English customs, and is said to be even more amusing and entertaining off the stage, than when attired in his comic tramp makeup, doing his pantomine. He has a great liking for English stories, and when he hears one he learns it by heart. His efforts to repeat it, have caused his friends in Duluth many spasms of merriment. He realizes that he is amusing his friends, but it willing to be "the goat," and his popularity has been growing by leaps and bounds since his arrival in the city. He has been the center of an admiring group at every meal taken in a downtown hotel, and his appearance at the hotel is always hailed with delight. In addition to his penchant for getting stories twisted, Jackson has many little amusing "parlor tricks" which he is always willing to present, and he is hailed by the people about the hotel where he is stopping as one of the best "mixers" that ever arrived in the city. Already he has more friends and acquaintances in Duluth than many people who have been here as many years as he has days.

The photoplay at the Odeum this week is exceptionally interesting because of the educational value of the films. Dr. Charcot's trip in the Antarctic region is shown and "The Broken Cross" and "Billy's Valentine" are other films on the bill. George Lenz sings "Dixie Grey."

At the Lyric, "Athalia," a story from the Bible is the feature. A comic film is "When Women Strike," "By a Woman's Wit," is a dramatic film. I. S. Mistachkin sings "I Like You Because You're Not Like Any One Else I Know."

Butte Miner Killed in Fight.

Butte, Mont., April 14.—Jack Walsh, a miner, was killed in a fight with John Whalen, a blow over the ear causing a hemorrhage. Whalen says that Walsh struck his head in falling. Whalen was arrested and released under a $10,000 bail bond.

COLLEGE HEADS COMING TO CITY

Michigan and Minnesota Presidents Will Be Duluth's Guests.

Duluth will be honored by visits from the presidents of two great Western universities next week.

Tuesday, President H. B. Hutchins of the University of Michigan will be here, and the following day President George E. Vincent of the University of Minnesota will be the guest of the city. Both men have recently taken their places as heads of their respective universities, President Hutchins succeeding the veteran President Angell and President Vincent succeeding President Northrup, also a veteran of Western educational work.

President Hutchins will be the guest of the Head of the Lakes Michigan Alumni association at a banquet at the Commercial club Tuesday evening. After the banquet a public reception will be held in the assembly room of the Commercial club, President Hutchins and prominent local alumni of the Michigan institution being on the program for speeches. J. J. Robinson, treasurer of the association, has charge of the tickets for the banquet, and he expects that every member of the association will be present.

President Vincent of Minnesota university will be the guest of the city Wednesday. In the evening a banquet will be tendered him at the Commercial club, and it is expected that a large number of representative Duluth citizens will attend.

HAMMOND IS "IN BAD."

Only Democrat on Committee to Oppose Reciprocity Bill.

Washington, April 14.—Representative W. S. Hammond of Minnesota is "in bad" with his Democratic colleagues in the committee on ways and means. Mr. Hammond was the only Democratic member of the committee to vote against favorable action on the Canadian agreement, which was today ordered reported to the house. Efforts were made to bring Mr. Hammond into line, but they failed.

The Minnesota member voted against the Canadian agreement when it was brought up in the house at the last session. He did so on the ground that the instrument, in effect, would be prejudicial to the interests of his district. In response to the pleadings of the leaders to stand in line for the party's sake, Mr. Hammond replied that he had made a record on this particular proposition and that he intended to stand by it.

On the farmers' bill, which provides for the transfer to the free list of a hundred or more articles of every-day use, Mr. Hammond voted with his Democratic brethren.

Only Three Men Know the Recipe

The recipe for Van Camp's Spaghetti is the only secret we have in our kitchens.

Our chefs spent two years to create a spaghetti better than any that is served in Rome. Better than you ever tasted.

To make it requires the proper blending of 17 prime ingredients.

Their success has given us the most popular dish that ever went out from our kitchens.

As soon as folks know it we shall be supplying spaghetti to millions of homes. For people who once try this recipe will never be content with another.

We use in the making:

Durum wheat spaghetti.
Herkimer County full cream cheese.
Best creamery butter.
The same superlative tomato sauce we use in Van Camp's Pork and Beans.

The dish comes ready-cooked. All you have to do is to heat it.

It costs you much less than to make it yourself, if you had the recipe.

It will always be the premier dish on your table, whatever else you serve.

And, however much you serve, you'll never find a mite left over.

We ask you to try it—to order it now of your grocer. It's a dish you need.

To Keep Easter Lilies Fresh

HOW to keep Easter lilies fresh is a bit of plant lore about which many housewives will be glad to be informed. And as the method of preserving them is a simple one, according to an expert florist, there is no reason why many women should not have them blooming for from two to three weeks.

"Besides watering lillies regularly, the most essential thing is to keep them out of drafts," he says, "for nothing is so injurious as to have sudden gusts of wind strike the leaves, blossoms or even the roots, for it blasts them, and they begin to wither.

"They should be sprayed with moderately cold water once each day, preferably in the morning. And the greatest care should be taken to get it directly on the roots and not on the flowers, for every drop of water will make a yellowish spot on the beautiful white petals that detracts from their dazzling color. These lillies need a lot of water for nourishment and once a day is none too often if they are to be kept in good condition. I have known more of them to wilt from neglected watering than from any other cause. So many women give them drinks regularly for three or four days and then forget about it for twenty-four or forty-eight hours, and in that time the mischief is done, and the plant has lost so much nourishment that it is never again fresh. The petals lose their glossy appearance and crispness, become dull and lifeless, the leaves droop and turn yellow, and the once beautiful things show every sign of decay.

"This condition can easily be retarded for from fourteen to twenty days by proper care. I would suggest the gentlest kind of treatment for these delicate flowers and warn persons against touching the petals, for they are easily bruised, and once the surface is cut or scraped the entire blossom quickly dies.

"I would try to keep the plants in a room where there is plenty of fresh air and light, though never in the direct rays of the sun, for if left in the heat they will be burned, because they are so tender and, of course, wilt, just as when they are put in a draft.

"Then, too, I would not allow them to be near heat or a fireplace and would endeavor to keep the atmosphere as near even as possible and never above 60 deg.

"With the cut lilies the best plan, if they are to be kept four days or a week, is to change the water once a day and to keep in a deep vase where the liquid will extend well up the stems. I would suggest cutting off the ends of the stocks every day, so the flowers will be readily nourished by the water. This is impossible after the pores in the ends close up, as they do unless removed every twenty-four hours."

Minneapolis Hotel Sold.

Minneapolis, Minn., April 14.—The Holmes hotel, between Eighth and Ninth streets on Henepin avenue, for years the beacon light of those wishing a strictly "home hostelry," has been sold, according to those who have interests in the hotel stock, to an Eastern corporation. The price is said to have been $130,000.

MORE KILLED BY TORNADO

Four Lose Lives in Town of Valles Mine, Mo.

Two Killed and Much Damage Done in St. Louis.

St. Louis, April 14.—Four negroes are known to be dead, a number injured, one seriously, and three missing, following a tornado which wrecked the town of Valles Mines, Mo., forty miles southwest of here yesterday afternoon. The dead:

A. C. Baker, Mrs. A. C. Baker, daughter of the Bakers, and her husband.

The injured—Bunce, postmaster; Valles Mines, will die.

The Bakers, their daughter and son-in-law, were killed when the Valles Mines postoffice and general store crashed in on them. Mr. Bunce, who is believed to have been the only other person in the place, was taken from the debris by rescuers half an hour after the storm. He is said to be dying at his home.

News of the storm which damaged much property, tore up trees, paralyzed wire communication and blocked railroads, was first received at Festus, Mo. A train crew raced over the rails of the Mississippi River & Borne Terre railroad from Valles Mines, carrying terrified passengers out of the danger zone.

Relief parties from Festus tried to reach the stricken town but found the roads blocked by high water. No word has come out of Valles Mines since 5 o'clock. It is believed that a second storm visited the place, as the one which demolished Cadet, Mo., ten miles south of Valles Mines, was reported from De Sota as sweeping in that direction at 4 o'clock.

Storm Hits St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., April 14.—A terrific wind, hail and thunder storm, accompanied by a heavy downpour of rain, swept over the city late yesterday afternoon causing many thousands of dollars of damage and indirectly three deaths. The dead include a driver of a team of mules, who with his mules was electrocuted by running into a wire; a woman who succumbed to fright and another woman who was killed in a runway. The horse she was driving took fright during the storm.

Houses were blown down in the outskirts of the city and in the extreme north end an eight-story elevator containing 1,000 bushels of wheat valued at $750,000, was blown into the Mississippi river.

Windows in the Bryan, Hill and John Marshall public schools and two churches were broken by the wind and hail.

The damage was particularly heavy in the West end, North side and in St. Louis county, wher many greenhouses were demolished by the hail stones, which measured more than two inches in diameter. The city parks were denuded of plants, and flowers in the city's greenhouses were destroyed.

Windows on Street Cars Broken.

The storm came as thousands were on their way home from down town. As windows in the street cars were broken, the excitement approximated a panic. Persons in various parts of the city were reported stunned by falling hailstones, though no serious injuries were reported.

The storm put an abrupt end to the American league game between the local and the Cleveland teams, when the steel flagpole was snapped by the wind and the players driven from the diamond by the storm.

Telephone service was interrupted and reports from the stricken districts were received slowly.

The dead are:

HARRY FOSTER, electrocuted.

MRS. REGINA MYER, 70 years old, who was run over by her carriage. She was alighting when the horses took fright from the hail.

Almost every manufacturing plant in the north side was left without windows after the storm.

Minnesotan Dies in California.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 14.—Ransom L. Foote of Royalton, Minn., died at his daughter's home, 1082 Atlantic avenue Tuesday night at the age of 82 years. He had been visiting in Long Beach for the past ten months. The body is being taken back to Royalton.

QUEEN MARY IS SHUT OUT

King George and Consort Visit Block of Bachelor Women's Flats.

Tried to Inspect Flat But Tenant Was Taking a Bath.

London, April 14.—King George and Queen Mary have been paying several impromptu visits to various places of interest in and about London for the past two weeks, to the consternation of some and the great delight of others of their subjects. The new rooms at the National Gallery and the Union Jack club were two of their destinations, and one day last week they went up to the Hampstead Garden suburb, which has been developed in the north of London. King George has just been overhauling his property which lies on just the opposite side of the city, and where some of the worst slums exist. These are now to be torn down gradually and model cottages built, and the visit to the Garden suburb was intended to give him some hints on the rebuilding of his own property.

On the Garden suburb there has been built a hotel for working women of the professional class, where some fifty private flats are built round a quadrangle, with dining hall and common room as part of the equipment. Naturally, the queen expressed a wish to see Waterlow court, as it is called, and so well was the secret of her visit kept that when three private automobiles drove up to the entrance, no one but the porter—alas! in mufti, when he might have been wearing his uniform and a row of medals won in service for his country—was there to welcome the royalties. Tea is always served in the dining hall, although most of the residents prefer to have it in their own flats, and five women only out of the whole lot were present and rose to their feet when the door was flung open with the announcement, The king and queen! Having expressed approval of the huge open-grate where a big fire was burning and also of the oak-beamed lattice-windowed room, the queen asked to see one of the flats.

Was Taking a Bath.

But the tenants guard their privileges very jealously, and consider that their flats are just as private as if no common fees or offices were attached to them, so the porter was somewhat in a fix. However, it is not every day that a queen wants to see where you live, so he knocked at the door of one of the flats, and getting no answer, knocked again. The door opened two inches and a figure in a dressing gown and bare feet inquired what was wanted.

"Her majesty the queen would like to see your flat, miss."

"Oh, I'm having a bath," was the reply of the embarrassed tenant; "could you wait ten minutes?" But queens are not used to waiting, and with an amused laugh, her majesty turned away, and was admitted to another flat instead, where she much admired the charming suite of rooms.

Meanwhile, the king was taken to the common room, and at once spotted the Waterlow Court Gazette—a quarterly journal gotten up by the residents. He turned to a page of clever cartoons by a young woman artist, representing the struggles with the winter mud, and un-made roads endured by the heroic spinsters, and then to another: As it Should Be, with private automobile and liveried attendants to wait on them. King George's sense of humor was tickled, and he laughed again and again.

In the absence abroad of the Duchess of Marlborough, Sunderland House, her comparatively new residence in Curzon street—once the site of the Rev. Charles Honeyman's chapel, as immortalized in Thackeray's Vanity Fair—is being partially redecorated, and to use a typically London expression, spring cleaned. The duchess expects several Vanderbilt cousins to come and stay with her for the coronation month, and preparations are in hand to accommodate a dozen visitors with their attendant maids and men.

Famous Vanderbilt Pearls.

The duchess among other historic jewelry owns the famous Vanderbilt pearls, a necklace which was once the property of the notorious Empress Catherine of Russia, and has been twice reset since then, each time being augmented by ten new and equally fine pearls. There are some women who cannot wear pearls, their necks are not swan-like enough—others, on the other hand, seem to accommodate themselves naturally to pearls—the duchess is of the latter kind, and she carries them as though to the manner born, which, in a way, she was.

Few folk remember today her literary activities, but, not so many years ago, she contributed a series of papers to the North American Review on the position of women—and very good papers they were, too; cogently argued, well expressed, and evidently the result of practical experience. No one has impressed herself more seriously on London society than the duchess, for despite a deal of domestic worry, she has asserted her individuality (and a charming individuality, too), has taken a great, active and useful part in practical charitable efforts and has brought up her two boys, the elder of whom, the marquis of Blandford, is now nearly 15 years old, with consummate tact and intelligence, despite the obvious drawbacks that beset her.

Sunderland house is one of the few quite modern places in town that offer at once equal accommodation for large social entertaining and comfortable, intimate home life. There are seven suites of bed, dressing and bathrooms, each with its attendant maid's room, and the arrangements for warming and general comfort are on a scale which is practically unapproached elsewhere. Someone once asked the duchess why she made her guests so particularly comfortable, and her quick answer in those low, even tones which constitute one of her greatest charms, was "I want everyone to feel just a little bit more comfortable than they do at home." Few hostesses, whether here or on the other side of the Atlantic, could offer a greater inducement. In fact, it is generally agreed that she is the most charming and hospitable American that ever came to England, "and that is saying a good deal," as a worldly wise critic of society justly added.

Anglo-American Peeresses.

It is difficult to reconcile Mrs. Elinor Glyn's opinion of American women as she professed to find them on your side with the impressions we get from those who have taken up their abode with us over here. Idle money-spenders sums up what she said about them to her interviewers on her return from America a little while ago, but that doesn't describe our Anglo-American peeresses. There are few among our squiresses of high degree who have the welfare of their poorer neighbors so much at heart and who work so hard at all institutions established to enable them to better themselves.

This was most graphically illustrated by the prominence of the best known of Anglo-American peeresses at the two sales that have been held in London during the last few days, the one held at the Mansion House promoted by the Scottish Home and Industries association, and the other at Lansdowne House of the Royal Irish Industries. At the first the duchess of Roxburghe—as chatelaine of her husband's extensive Scotch estates—held a stall and was indefatigable each day of the sale in disposing of her wares, which consisted chiefly of fine Shetland shawls, turning customer herself when business seemed to be slack. She was ably assisted by Mrs. Waldorf Astor, and the two of them showed a very respectable figure in receipts at the end of the sale.

Then she turned customer in good earnest at the Irish industries sale, which was held a few days later, at with her compatriot, Lady Granard, was the chief stallholder. Lord Granard, as you know, is Irish. The money they must both have spent ran well into four figures, I am sure.

Miss Deacon Causes Sensation.

Quite a sensation was caused at this sale by the entrance of a strikingly handsome girl, tall and fair and exquisitely dressed. Only a few people in the room recognized her as Miss Gladys Deacon, a heroine of one of the German crown prince's "little love affairs," and sister of Dorothy Deacon, who married Prince Albert Radziwill last year.

A large number of Americans are staying at Biarritz, that lovely and accessible spot in the Pyrenees, just now. Mr. Brandels, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Williams, Mr. Mayer and Mr. and Mrs. Beddington, all of New York, as well as Mr. and Mrs. Savage of San Francisco, are at the Hotel du Palais.

The Princess Frederica of Hanover (Baroness von Pawel Rammingen), a near relation to Queen Victoria, resides at Biarritz permanently. She does not go out much in general society, but interests herself in all charitable and philanthropic affairs in aid of local funds.

HOW A SLENDER PURSE CAN BUY REGAL BEAUTY

Beauty Parlor Secrets Divulged By Chemist Who Improved Many Formulas

(F. Howarth Dryden in Bradner's.)

"Beauty is not visionary as some imagine, but a tangible, possible thing for every woman — not reached by winding trails or devious paths, but along a road as straight and well defined as a city street.

"Specialized knowledge of toilet preparations places within my hands valuable formulas, some of which are here given for the use and beautification of every woman cherishing a clear, velvety skin, exquisite complexion and luxuriant tresses.

"FOR A VELVETY SKIN it is necessary that it is kept free of all impurities, and with a massage cream, to supply sufficient exercise whereby the delicate underlying tissues are kept in a healthy condition. Here is an elegant massage cream:

1 pint water.
2 ounces cerol.

"When the water reaches the boiling point, gradually pour in the cerol and stir until thoroughly dissolved and a smooth, creamy mass is formed. When cool apply this cerol cream and with a light rotary movement massage well into the skin. Using this dispels blackheads, pimples, and fine lines, and the sallow, oily, shiny or blotchy condition is changed to one of velvety smoothness and the complexion takes on the mystic charm of rare beauty.

"FOR LONG, GLOSSY HAIR and to keep the scalp free from dandruff and excess oil, try the following:

½ pint alcohol.
½ pint water.
1 ounce beta-canthol.

"Disolve the beta-canthol in the alcohol, then add water. Massage a little of this at a time in the scalp and the hair will become glossy, fluffy and luxuriant and the scalp will be kept in a healthy state. This is especially good for falling, straggly or brittle hair. Best results are obtained if the scalp is shampooed once in a while with eggol.

"A GOOD DEPILATORY: Hair or fuzz can be quickly removed if the following is used: Get an ounce of delol and with a little water mix enough into a paste to cover the hairy surface. Let remain two or three minutes, then rub off and wash the skin and the hairs are gone. The delol is a trifle expensive, but unfailing."

VERTICAL WRITING UPHELD IN MILWAUKEE SCHOLS.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 14.—Vertical writing will be retained in the public schools of Milwaukee.

This was decided by the school board when the minority report of the text book committee, signed only by one member, in favor of the vertical system, was adopted by a vote of 6 to 4.

The result of the meeting was a surprise even to the members, as few people appeared in favor of the vertical system during its discussion before the committee, while hundreds appeared in favor of adopting the slant system.

Destroys Liquor Craving

Drunkenness is a progressive disease; the moderate drinker is not satisfied with two or three drinks a day, the craving for more and more becomes irresistible as the disease advances; the result is Chronic Alcoholism.

It's wiser being good than bad;
It's safer being meek than fierce;
It's fitter being sane than mad.
My own hope is, a sun will pierce
The thickest cloud earth ever stretched;
That after Last returns the First,
Though a wide compass round be fetched;
That what began best can't end worst,
Nor what God blessed once prove accurst.

ANOTHER JUDGE FOR THE ELEVENTH.

It is a matter of great importance to this judicial district that the demand for another judge has been granted by the legislature. That a fifth judge was sadly needed was apparent to all who were even slightly familiar with the situation in the courts of the district. The rapid growth of the northern part of the state with the natural accompaniment of increased litigation has made the task of the courts a serious burden, and the result has been not only delay in the hearing and determination of many cases, but such a crowding of the time of the judges that they have been under a heavy strain.

It is to the credit of the men who have occupied the bench in the Eleventh district that they have shown no disposition to slight their work in spite of the multiplicity of cases which they have been called on to consider. They have given far more time to their judicial duties than could reasonably be demanded of any official, and have done good service for the people. But the task has been greater and far more burdensome than it should, and the addition of another judge to the district means a welcome and necessary relief.

It rests with the governor to determine who shall occupy the new position. There has been no definite intimation as to who will be chosen, but it is desirable that the choice be made soon, in order to get early relief from the present situation. The district is not lacking in capable men, and there cannot but be intense interest in the coming appointment. That the opinion of the local bar will have great weight in determining who is to be the new judge goes without saying. Any of the four men thus far suggested most prominently would be well qualified for such a place, and there would be little danger of serious criticism, probably, if any one of them were named. However, the final decision must be left with the governor. The new judgeship is assured, and the Eleventh district has ample reason to rejoice in that fact.

THE REPUBLICANS UP A TREE.

It is long since any party in the national congress has been so distinctly up a tree as the Republicans are now. The Democrats have had their way in the matter of proposed legislation smoothed for them wonderfully by the actions of their opponents, and the latter are making that way smoother by every move they make. In fact, they are qualifying spendidy to rob the Democrats of the significance of their party symbol, and adopt it for themselves.

The whole thing rests, thus far, on the proposal for reciprocity with Canada. The vote in the house committee was divided squarely on party lines, the Democrats favoring reciprocity and the Republicans opposing it. That, in a measure, at least, was to be expected. But the situation is complicated and beautified by the introduction of the Democratic additional free list, designed to meet the demands of some of the agricultural interests of the country that more of the articles that enter into the consumption of that class be freed from the tariff burden.

Looking back over the last few weeks, since the reciprocity agreement was published, one finds that there were but two grounds given for opposition by the Republicans. One was the standpat ground, the charge that reciprocity with Canada would mean the breaking down of the tariff graft. The other was the plea put forward by certain "progressive" Republicans, that the agreement "did not go far enough." Among those who took this stand was Senator Cummins, who declared that he proposed to extend the free list.

Was anything said then about referring the matter to the tariff board? Not a word. Yet the Republicans are clamoring now that these additions to the free list must not be made without such a reference. They would have every such article looked up and a report made on it. That is, they would delay the reciprocity agreement and everything connected with it, as long as possible. As long as congress was not in session and as long as the Democrats had not put forth an extended free list proposition, they were keen to supply one themselves, so they said. Now that it is supplied for them they are shocked and horrified at the very idea of such a thing.

The Republicans are up a tree, and it is the same tree, whether they be "regular" or "progressive" Republicans. It is the tree of bad faith with the people. They were sent to the Sixty-first congress on a tariff revision platform that was understood and said to mean downward revision. They gave revision upward. The people refused to stand for it, and the "insurgents" talked on the side of the people and denounced the Payne law. They said the "regulars" had broken faith.

The "insurgents" or "progressives," or whatever other handle is the appropriate one now, were sent to the Sixty-second congress on the strength of their anti-high tariff talk. They found themselves, in the last days of the last congress, confronted with reciprocity, and a whole bunch of them began to hedge. They said reciprocity "didn't go far enough." Now reciprocity is stretched, and they are hedging some more. They are saying that it goes too fast. Who is breaking faith now?

Plainly the Democrats are being aided and abetted generously by their friends, the enemy. The enemy has impetuously climbed a tree, and the Democrats, as far as the house is concerned, are in a position to enjoy the sight hugely. They can well afford to stand back and cheer while the Republicans are going through their accomplishments in the way of ground and lofty tumbling and acrobatics.

As to what the senate will say to it all, that is a pretty problem. If the Republican majority in the senate refuses to abide by the action of the Democratic majority in the house, the Republican chances in the next election will not be worth as much as a stewed pickle at a dollar dinner. If they acquiesce in the action of the house majority, the Democrats still can claim the credit for having started things going. Any way you look at it, the Republicans are up a tree. Unless the Democrats make some serious mistake, the Republican party might as well make the elephant's blanket into a rope and hang itself from one of the limbs.

THE ASSOCIATED CHARITIES' REPORT.

Great credit is due the Duluth Associated Charities for the work shown in the report made by Secretary Dinwiddie of the association, telling of what has been accomplished in the last four months. Aside from the aid given to the sick and unfortunate and the steps taken to relieve the conditions surrounding those forced to live in cramped quarters, the report shows that 150 men and women have been furnished with work, some of them securing permanent tasks through the operations of the association.

This is an excellent record. To be sure the rock pile has figured to a considerable extent in this employment feature, and the work there, while it serves to tide over a time of non-employment for men, is but temporary. But there have been cases where steady employment has been found for those seeking it, and this is an accomplishment that can hardly be overrated. It can hardly be appreciated fully by any man who has not found himself at some time out of a job and with no apparent means of getting one.

The feature of the association's work in the four months that has been most noticeable to the public in general has been the cleaning out of tramps and beggars from the city. Your professional mendicant has no love for either the rock pile or organized charity. The one means strenuous physical effort, to which he is constitutionally and mentally opposed. The other means that instead of getting free handouts in different parts of the city he is constantly referred back to the same place, where his record is known, and where he is likely to be turned over to the police if he persists in his begging.

Under the system introduced by the Associated Charities cases of this character are quickly spotted, and they have learned that Duluth is not a healthy locality for the willfully idle. If the work of the association had accomplished nothing more than the riddance of the city of this class of humanity it would be well worth while, for the guise of a beggar often conceals a lawless crook, and where the beggar and tramp are barred the crook has less chance to get in his work.

The Associated Charities is doing good work for Duluth and for those of its citizens who fall into need. The organization is to be congratulated on its showing thus far. May its good work go on with even more encouragement than it has heretofore received.

THE OLD FOLKS.

How are the old folks, your father and mother? Are they well, happy, prosperous? When did you hear from them last? Yes, and when did they hear from you last? Do you remember?

Last night The Herald told of the application of an aged woman to the St. Louis county poor commissioners for admission to the poor farm. The story was pathetic. She had lived with her husband on a farm that they had purchased in their younger days. Can you picture those days? Can you imagine the thrill of pride as these two looked over the few acres of land and realized that it belonged to them? Can you imagine the dream of the future that rose before their minds?

Then, after a time, there was a son, a little baby boy, and the father and mother could look ahead into the future, to the time when he would be big enough to help with the work. And then his brother came, and there were two boys who some day would be big enough to share with the parents the burden of caring for the place, tilling the soil, looking after such stock as they might have. Two boys, who some day would grow up to be young men, and who would be able to look after the old folks when the time came for them to lay down the active work of life.

Well, the boys grew up, as boys will if they have plenty of food and fresh air and proper care generally. But they did not take kindly to the farm and its restrictions and its work. They were restless. They wanted something different. And finally one of them went away to seek prosperity and fortune somewhere else. It was a day of sadness for the parents, but they believed in their son's ability and hoped for his success. The other boy was left with them, but after awhile he too went away, and they were left alone once more. It was hard to lose the boys, but would not the boys succeed somewhere else, and were there not years to come in which the parents would hear from them from time to time, and when they could, perhaps, visit these boys in their own homes?

But as weeks and months and years passed there came fewer and fewer letters. The boys were out in the world somewhere. They had new interests, new occupations, and they grew careless about writing to the old folks. The father weakened with age and was unable to keep the place up. Finally he died, leaving the mother burdened with a run-down farm and a load of debts. And then she found herself compelled to sell what little there was left and accept the assistance of others.

Today that mother is in the poor house, dependent on the county for her food and clothing and a place in which to sleep. The two boys, whom she loved and cared for and from whom she had reason to expect some help in her old age—where are they? Nobody knows, and they do not even know that their mother needs them. They have drifted away and forgotten their parents and the old home—not willfully, perhaps, but just carelessly. If they were here, if they even knew of her circumstances they could do something. Not much perhaps, but even a word of remembrance and love would mean so much to her. But they are not here. Nobody knows where they are.

The old folks — your father and mother — how are they? Where are they? When did you hear from them last? Yes, and when did they hear from you last? Do you remember?

The proprietors of the building where New York's latest fire horror occurred have been indicted for manslaughter. That is one way to impress on otherwise unimpressionable minds the fact that human life has a value.

THE OPEN COURT.

(Readers of The Herald are invited to make free use of this column to express their ideas about the topics of general interest. Letters should not exceed 300 words—the shorter the better. They must be written on one side of the paper only, and they must be accompanied in every case by the name and address of the writer, though these need not be published. A signed letter is always more effective, however.)

TOLSTOI, MARK TWAIN, EMMA GOLDMAN AND ANARCHISTS.

To the Editor of The Herald:

I hasten to answer Mr. Jenkins' article in your issue of the 12th.

Why should we both thoughtlessly keep an anxious public on the thin edge of waiting? Why delay in settling all the vexing questions of philosophies and creeds, when one can so easily do so?

Yet, I do not intend to enter into a philosophical argument of "isms" and "ists," being mindful of the sad example of those certain people who so readily "rush in where angels fear to tread." Still, having written once, I feel it my duty to call attention to a few of Mr. Jenkins' inconsistencies.

Mr. Jenkins is indignant because Dr. Lefkovits termed certain materialists as "hair-brained"; yet Mr. Jenkins in the same column is delightful enough to term "Christian Science" as a "misconception of mind"—a polite term, not at all complimentary to the Christian Science viewpoint. Really, "people who live in glass houses"—should be careful at what time they put the blinds up.

No doubt some representative of the Christian Science church will fittingly answer Mr. Jenkins.

That Mark Twain wrote a book ridiculing Christian Science can have no more weight than if some expert in geometry should write a book to ridicule music.

Power of thought develops a broad mind—yet sometimes it also develops one that is narrow.

The first beginning of a larger mind is a humbler mind.

It is no more necessary for Mr. Jenkins to defend freedom of thought and speech than it is for him to defend the Ten Commandments.

We all defend Emma Goldman's right to free thought and speech; yet we have a right to point out that some of her doctrines spring, not from science, but from self-indulgence; not from Darwin or Haeckel, but from Baal and Ashtoreth. If the fruit of what is termed as The Modern School of Materialism is the doctrine of Emma Goldman, let Emma Goldman speak. It is well that the fruit should be seen clearly, so that we may judge the tree better; "By their fruits shall ye know them."

Unlimited self-indulgence is playing a false game when it takes on a self-erected scientific sanction.

Mr. Jenkins judges Tolstoi as an anarchist. Emma Goldman says he was not. We assume that anarchy, like all cults of that nature, has as many different explanations as there are anarchists. Almost every anarchistic pamphlet denies a Deity. Emma Goldman denies that there is anything higher than her own little self-sufficiency. Tolstoi, on the other hand, was an intense believer in a God. This is the one point that should settle that question.

Emma Goldman, preaching a doctrine which is the limit of selfishness, calls that doctrine "anarchy." At the same time she dares to class the doctrine of Christ, which reaches the trine of unselfishness, as also anarchistic. Is she trying to get a religious as well as a scientific sanction for her doctrines, which include "free love," and others that are worse?

No one wishes to attack materialism or scientists, because there are so many different kinds. To some we listen with great respect and gratitude; to some we listen with indifference; to some with charity; and to all with toleration; but we do insist that they sail under their own flags.

Everyone, from ditch digger to astronomer, has the right to peer into the immensity of things, and then to form his own opinion as to what set it all in motion, and as to what is the origin of life, or its end. One who has seen and is satisfied, should not condemn others, because others have seen something else, though equally satisfying.

But above all, let us not attach too much importance to it when some poor, half blind, biped, standing weakly astride his earthly grave, looks into the tremendous and rhythmic sweep of force and matter through endless space and time, and then turns to his fellows to babble out "There is nothing—only myself."

PROF. SHAW ON RECIPROCITY.

Minot Optic: More than twenty years ago Prof. Thomas Shaw, associate editor of the Dakota Farmer, Aberdeen, S. D., former editor of the Orange Judd Farmer, former editor of The Farmer, St. Paul, and at one time professor of animal husbandry at the state college of agriculture, wrote a pamphlet on commercial union between Canada and the United States in which he called reciprocity "the most momentous question that agitates the mind today in the Dominion of Canada."

This was in 1887, when Prof. Shaw was secretary of the Permanent Central Farmers' Institute and a Canadian citizen. Returning to St. Paul for the first time since reciprocity again became an issue, Prof. Shaw, now an American citizen, declares that from his present standpoint he favors reciprocity with Canada a thousand times more strongly than he did when a Canadian citizen.

Prof. Shaw in the West since last November, has heard reciprocity discussed by the farmers. He has been in an intensely anti-reciprocity atmosphere but he declares emphatically that nothing has happened since 1854 when United States and Canada had reciprocity, to make him change his views.

"I find that the farmers generally are opposed to reciprocity, but this is true because they misunderstand the whole question," he says.

"The introduction of Canadian wheat into America would be beneficial to the American farmer rather than detrimental. Farmers of the Northwest are anxious to get bran and shorts in greater quantities than they can now, for food, for stock and the resultant supply of fertilizer amounting as I have said to a value estimated at 18 cents a bushel. The potential fertility to the soil of the American farmer brought to this side by the admittance of Canadian wheat would more than recompense for any injury the farmer thinks would be done him by a reciprocity treaty.

"I feel that some products used by the farmers, such as dressed meats and flour, should come in free also but I believe that the present pact is a step in the right direction. It is better to get what is offered now and more concessions are bound to follow in the future."

A Good Booster.

In its annual supplement, the Minneapolis Journal gives 114 large pages of Minneapolis and Minnesota, enclosed in artistically planned and printed colored paper covers and brim full of information about the city and its industries, society, history, present conditions and prospects. There are illustrations galore, showing the principal buildings, public and otherwise, and including portraits of some of the men who have figured prominently in the history of the city. The schools, parks, playgrounds and summer resorts get generous attention. There are articles and illustrations regarding the state university, and every form of state and municipal activity in the city is given recognition. One page is devoted exclusively to St. Louis county and its advantages.

The supplement is attractive both in form and matter, and is one of the best Minneapolis - Minnesota boosters that has appeared. It ought to command wide attention, not only among those interested commercially in learning about the Gopher state and its largest city, but among all classes who are even remotely interested in obtaining information about the Northwest, its present, past and future.

MINNESOTA OPINIONS.

Hit By His Home Paper.

Madelia Times-Messenger, commenting on a letter from Senator Haycraft defending his vote against reapportionment: The above letter from Senator Haycraft may be accepted by some as a justification for his vote against reapportionment, but there are many of his constituents who still hold fast to the belief that he, and all other Republican members of the legislature, should have voted in favor of that measure, for the state Constitution expressly provides for it, and the last Republican state convention emphatically indorsed it. If we are not mistaken the state Constitution calls for reapportionment according to population, and what could be more just? At first thought it would seem that reapportionment upon that basis would give the counties containing large cities an unfair advantage because they would have more members in the legislature than would counties with a less population, and would consequently have greater control of legislation. But why would that be unfair? Is not every man in the large city taxed the same as the man in the rural district; and if so, is he not equally entitled to representation? Would Senator Haycraft say that Lewisville, Grogan, Butterfield, etc., should have each as many delegates to our county convention as Madelia has? Madelia has more delegates because she has more people entitled to representation, and so, in the state legislature, the counties which have large populations are very justly entitled to greater representation than the counties with fewer people. If Snator Haycraft had fault to find with the Congdon bill, but was in favor of reapportionment of some kind, why did he vote against recommitting the bill, or why did he not introduce a bill agreeable to his views? If he and the other Republicans who voted against the Congdon bill were in sympathy with the reapportionment plank of the Republican state platform, why did they spurn the invitation of Governor Eberhart to meet with him for a discussion of the matter?

No Reason to Wonder.

Lake Crystal Union: Just think of it: One hundred thousand dollars slush fund was raised to elect United States Senator Lorimer. Do you wonder at the Democrats being in control of the house?

A High Liver's Hope.

Little Falls Transcript: "Food Prices Are on the Toboggan," says a headline in today's dispatches. Here's hoping double porterhouse, mushrooms and fresh lobsters are aboard the toboggan.

Treat All Alike.

Litchfield Independent: A law has passed the Minnesota house giving laborers a lien for their wages on the crops of the employer. They are just as much entitled to this protection as a lumber dealer or laborer in the building trades, but no more so than is a newspaper man for a subscription or advertisnig account, or a merchant for groceries or dry goods sold. Instead of favoring one class after another who besiege our legislature for protection why not enact a comprehensive law that will give everybody an equal chance to collect their debts, or else wipe out these special privileges now enjoyed by the favored few.

Covered With Sawdust.

Winona Independent: The sainted Senator Lorimer's halo needs a little polishing.

The Farmers Misled.

Stillwater Gazette: Such men as Prof. Thomas Shaw, who has given the best years of his life in the interest of the farmers, Dean Woods of the Minnesota agricultural school, Secretary Wilson, head of the agricultural department, as well as many others who have given the reciprocity bill consideration, declare the farmers have been misled on the question.

Know Their Tools.

Mower County Transcript: The trusts and monopolies know the congressmen who have been their tools in supporting legislation inimical to the interests of the consumer and the common people and are showing them public honor. Meanwhile the people despise these threacherous congressmen.

His Name Will Be Honored.

Cambridge Independent-Press: Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland is dead and in his death there is removed from the scene of worldly effort one of the truest and most favorable of America's public men. Wherever civic virtue and unselfish devotion to a righteous cause inspire admiration, Tom L. Johnson's name will be honored among men. Would that we had more men in public life like him.

Wise Legislation Is Good Politics.

Minneapolis Tribune (Republican): Is this the Democratic party we have been calling unfit to govern the country? It knows how to legislate anyway. The politics it plays is the high politics of sound legislation.

The more the legislative program develops the shrewder and wiser it looks. It meets the president more than half way and leaves the Republicans none but narrow partisan or selfish personal ground of opposition. Any other is cut from under Canadian reciprocity by giving the farmers and insurgents who have been asking tariff revision just what they demanded in connection with free food products.

Free manufactures for farmers' use could not be put in the agreement, because Canada will not admit ours free. But a bill giving them to our farmers is to go to the senate with the reciprocity bill. Other bills to reduce cotton and woolen duties are to follow close, and probably the steel schedule will not escape. Then other legislation promised and denied by the Republicans will be sent to the senate.

Of course this is playing politics, but can the Republicans beat the game? We made promises in 1908 and broke them in 1909, in spite of the efforts of the president to hold the party to its word. Now the Democratic house proposes to unite with a Republican president in keeping them. Where will it leave the party if the senate block the way?

Consider This.

Emporia Gazette: Suppose we did not have the commission form of government. Suppose the council had leased the light plant. Suppose there had been agitation, as there would have been and as there should be, what a scandal it would have made. What a row it would have made. A great minority of the town would have gone to their graves honestly thinking the council stole the light plant. A row would have been precipitated that would last for years, because no one could say positively what public sentiment actually is.

Now we have an expression. Both sides are satisfied. The majority was decisive. And the people have leased their own plant by their own votes.

The commission plan of government provides for a vote on all these matters. There can be no scandal after such a contest. Moreover, after twenty-four hours of discussion, it is over. The people speak, there is no talk of money.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Taken From the Columns of The Herald of This Date, 1891.

About twenty prominent citizens assembled at the chamber of commerce this forenoon to discuss matters pertaining to the Duluth, Red Lake Falls & Northern road, the general manager of which, J. B. Holmes, was present. W. C. Sherwood was made chairman. It was stated that the road had just completed its survey and would need about $2,500 to pay for making profiles and arranging data as well as to make up a deficit that had accrued on the survey. Mr. Holmes said he had been assured by New York parties of aid to build the road as soon as the data relating to the route could be laid before them. A committee was appointed to canvass the business men of Duluth for subscriptions to the fund.

THE HERALD COMPLIMENTED.

Hibbing Tribune: George Reid is being roundly complimented by the business and professional men of Hibbing on the excellence of the edition which he published on Hibbing in Monday evening's Duluth Evening Herald. While the writeup dealt primarily with agriculture and showed the way for farmers to come in here and make an easy and profitable living, the chief features of this village were all incorporated in the story.

The able and competent manner in which Mr. Reid presented his facts has caused many of the local people to realize that Hibbing is a much greater village than they have ever given it credit for. All of the representative merchants took "space" and the showing made is, indeed, a most creditable one.

The Tribune desires to compliment Mr. Reid and The Duluth Evening Herald.

SENATOR YOUNG'S SPEECH.

Springfield Union: Senator Lafayette Young of Iowa is not much given to espousing new methods either in government or politics. He is rated as a standpatter. The doctrine of high protection is good enough for him, and as for the initiative, the referendum and the recall, he thinks they are merely fads that sensible commonwealths should let alone. So when Senator "Lafe" Young arises to address the august senate in favor of commission rule for American cities his remarks are bound to attract attention. If Senator Owen or Senator La Follette had made the speech that the senator from Iowa made yesterday the cause of commission government would not have been much helped in those cities where the progressive ideas of the newest political school are not held in high esteem. But where is the conservative municipality that will not think commission government is worth at least an investigation when a conservative like Senator Young gives it his unqualified approval?

We are glad to have Senator Young's testimony concerning the fruits of commission rule in his home city of Des Moines. "We have not reduced expense," he said, "but we have secured more for our money," and he advises other cities to emulate the good example set by Des Moines. He even approves the recall, the initiative and the referendum as beneficial provisions of a municipal charter, although he let it be known that he conediered these devices wholly impracticable for state governments.

Senator Young asserts that there is entirely too much machinery in the old type of city government and far more offices than the service demands. "We have cut out all boards and commissioners," he explained. "We never complain to paving inspectors; we complain to the commissioner having charge of the work. We never go to the subordinate; we go to his boss." He characterized the Des Moines system as the application of business common sense to municipal affairs, and said: "Governing municipalities is a business proposition and in no sense political. Cut out the city hall. Cut out the city council. Ninety per cent of all municipal functions are executive and not legislative; yet every municipal government has been organized on the supposition that at least one-half of the municipal functions were legislative."

Coming from a man of Senator Young's attitude toward new fangled ideas in government, his indorsement is significant.

A City's Songs.

"If Rochester seems to have been receiving more than its share of publicity in recent months, the reason," says Charles Mulford Robinson in The Survey, "is found in the evidences of civic spirit and progressiveness which that city has been offering.

"A novel and striking illustration of this is in the publication of a Rochester song book. In a foreword the editors state the belief that this is the first considerable attempt of its kind for any American city.' Of the songs, which fill 175 pages, many of course have been published before and are familiar in Rochester. Others were written especially for the song book. They are assembled under the headings, Songs of the Genesee, Songs of Rochester, Patriotic and Fraternal Songs, and School and College Songs. A professor of the university, Kendrick P. Shedd, is editor-in-chief with a representative board of associates.

"In Rochester, where the public schools are used evenings by immense civic or neighborhood clubs, there is perhaps a greater demand for this sort of book than in other cities of like size. The songs vary a good deal in musical and literary quality, but there can be no doubt that the compilation is calculated to increase local pride and affection for the city. No one, for instance, can read the words of the songs of the Genesee without being impressed by the part which Rochester's river plays in the lives and hearts of the people. Nor is the fact without significance that these songs praise not the majesty or water power of the river, but its tranquil beauty and its attractiveness for canoeing."

A Kentucky Family's Longevity Record

Hopkinsville New Era: There is a family in Hopkins county that probably holds the record for longevity. The head of the family, James Madison, was 102 years of age on Jan. 20. His wife will be 82 this spring. Mrs. Lillie Satterfield, a sister of Mr. Madison, is in her 104th year and Mr. Madison's mother died many years ago at the advanced age of 106.

His War Time Cigars.

Philadelphia North American: Joseph Martin, a farmer of the Lettersburg district, last week presented to his employe, Fred Hartman, a black cigar which he has had in his possession since July 4, 1863.

Hartman tasted the ancient brand and decided it was all right. Hartman's verdict satisfied Martin that he had made a good bargain when the cigar, together with another like it and $15 in cash, came into his possession in return for a horse. The deal was made with a Confederate soldier on the retreat from Gettysburg. Mr. Martin will keep the other cigar for another of his discriminating friends.

The Easter Clothes for Your Boy Are Ready at The Big Duluth

The Big Duluth's popular Boys' Department is far better prepared than ever this year to give you the proper Spring Clothes for young men and the little fellows to wear on Easter Sunday.

Next Sunday is Easter, and after a long and dreary winter, "that boy" is ready to be outfitted in his new togs for Easter. You'll look in vain in other stores for the new things that The Big Duluth is showing in abundance.

We're ready for you with a Spring Line that is brimful of novelty, style, quality and worth, and take great pride in telling that the greater part of our Boys' Spring Clothes are made especially for us by

Ivan Frank & Co. of New York

Who devote their entire time and energy in making good clothes for our sturdy American youth.

For the Small Chaps, 2½ to 7 Years—We are showing nobby Military and Sailor Collar Russian Spring Suits in fancy tweeds, worsted, cheviots and cassimeres—fabrics that are unsurpassed for wear and made especially for us by Ivan Frank & Co. of New York—also many styles of Nobby Reefers that the little fellow will need when the wind blows off the lake. Ivan Frank's Spring Suits and Reefers, $4.95, $6.45, $6.95, $7.45, $8.45 and $10.00. Other makes, $2.45, $2.95 and $3.45.

For the Boys, 5 to 10 Years—The Suit that that sturdy energetic boy of yours needs is here—for we heartily indorse the fabrics, style and tailoring that Ivan Frank & Co. of New York have embodied in these classy Junior Norfolk and Sailor Spring Suits and Reefers we are showing. Ivan Frank & Co.'s Spring Suits and Reefers, $4.95, $6.45, $7.45, $8.45 and $10.00. Other makes, $2.45, $2.95 and $3.45.

For the Boys, 7 to 18 Years—Boys of these ages are extremely hard on clothes; but the most critical mother is not half so critical as Ivan Frank & Co. of New York on the subject of Boys' Clothing, and every piece of material that goes into these boys' suits must be of the best all wool material that will insure a strong wear-resisting garment and give its wearer the greatest satisfaction—also his mother. For boys 7 to 14 years old we are showing nobby Norfolk Suits in Blue Serges and Fancy Mixtures. Ivan Frank Boys' Spring Suits, $4.95, $6.45, $7.95, $10.00 up to $16.50. Other makes, $2.45, $2.95, $3.45 and $3.95.

For the Young Man—Our Spring showing of Young Men's Suits fairly sparkle with new ideas. They are the cleverest shapes and models we have ever shown, made up of the liveliest cloths and colors we have ever had the opportunity of choosing. We are showing these new Spring Clothes that are Dashing, Daring and Different, made for us by Ivan Frank & Co. of New York at $15, $18, $20, $22.50, $25, $30 and $35. Lorimer Committee Wants to See Bank Record of Edward Tilden.

Strong Attempt to Be Made to Discredit Testimony of Edward Hines.

Springfield, Ill., April 14.—Two important developments occurred in yesterday's hearing of the state senate committee which is investigating the election of William Lorimer to the United States senate. The first was the disclosure by the attorneys and investigators of the committee of an alleged campaign to discredit Edward Hines, the Chicago lumberman, who is charged with having collected a large fund to elect Lorimer. Hines testified two weeks ago that he had no knowledge of any such fund.

The second development to arouse general comment was the practical refusal of Edward Tilden, president of the National Packing company and a banker, to produce before the committee his accounts in the various banks through which he does business.

Mr. Tilden's attitude on the witness stand resulted in the issuance of a second subpoena by the committee. This subpoena was served upon Mr. Tilden as he stepped from the witness chair in the supreme court building late yesterday afternoon. The subpoena commands Mr. Tilden to produce before the committee next Thursday the records of his various bank accounts in the year 1909.

Refusal to do so, Mr. Tilden was given to understand by Attorney Healy of the committee, will result in an order of contempt being issued by the committee against him.

One witness and three affidavits were used before the committee in renewed efforts to break down the denial of Edward Hines. It is understood that Attorney Healy has a dozen more witnesses at hand to be used for the same purpose. It is said to be the plan to present two or three of these witnesses in each succeeding session of the committee.

Hines' Testimony Contradicted.

When Mr. Hines' testimony has been contradicted by a dozen or more men, it is said that the Chicago lumberman will be recalled to the witness stand and cross-examined as to each individual story disclosed before the committee.

Attorney Healy considers that the testimony given a week ago by Clarence S. Funk, general manager of the International Harvester company, was today corroborated to a considerable degree by Herman H. Hettler of Chicago, president of the Herman H. Hettler Lumber company.

Although Mr. Hettler stated that Mr. Hines said nothing of the use of money or improper methods in the election of Mr. Lorrimer, Mr. Hines was quoted as boasting of a personal achievement in "putting Lorimer over."

Further Mr. Hettler said he met Mr. Hines in the Union League club, the same club in which Mr. Funk said he met Mr. Hines when the alleged proposal to contribute $10,000 to the Lorimer election fund, was made to Mr. Funk.

When it became known that Former United States Senator Albert J. Hopkins could not reach Springfield as he had expected, the session of the bribery committee was postponed until Thursday of next week.

Members of the committee now plan three days next week.

More subpoenas were placed in the hands of deputy sergeants-at-arms of the senate late yesterday. A dozen former members of the legislature, it is said, will be served with subpoenas in various quarters of the state.

Forester First Witness.

James Forester of Duquoin, Ill., manager of the Muddy Valley Mining company, was the first witness yesterday.

Mr. Forester was asked if he met and held a conversation with Charles Ward of Duquoin and John I. Hughes of Chicago in the St. Nicholas hotel in the spring of 1909. Forester said he had not met these men, that he "remembered." He was asked if he was in a room in the St. Nicholas about this time, when a bag or satchel was displayed containing $30,000 or $35,000 in money.

The witness declared that he had no recollection of any such thing. Forester said that he was not in Springfield at any time in the spring of 1909.

Herman H. Hettler of Chicago, president of the Herman H. Hettler Lumber company, followed Forester on the witness stand. When questioned by Attorney Healy, Mr. Hettler said that he had known Edward Hines of Chicago for twenty years. He said he met Mr. Hines in the Union League club in Chicago on May 20, 1909.

"This meeting," said Mr. Hettler, "occurred by accident at the cigar stand in the club."

"I stopped in the Union League club on the day of Senator Lorimer's election," said Mr. Hettler. "I was leaving Chicago for a trip to Toronto. As I was buying some cigars, I felt a tap on my shoulder; I looked around and met Mr. Hines. Mr. Hines was apparently elated and happy. He said: 'I have just had a telephone call from Springfield, and I have elected our next senator.' Mr. Hines was emphatic in his remarks that he personally had effected the election of Mr. Lorimer.

"Mr. Hines said that he had been having a great time in Washington and that he (Hines) had beaten President Taft on the tariff."

Mr. Hettler declared under cross-examination that Mr. Hines had said nothing to him regarding money or the use of improper methods in the election of Lorimer.

Outburst of Personal Vanity.

"I simply took Mr. Hines' actions on the day that I met him in the league club as an outburst of personal vanity or egotism. He was bragging more or less about the election of Mr. Lorimer," said Mr. Hettler.

N. B. Coan, special investigator for the senate bribery committee, followed Mr. Hettler on the witness stand. Mr. Coan related his experience on a recent trip to Marquette, Mich. He told of seeing and talking with Frank J. Russell, Robert C. Lowe, E. D. Moser, Rush Culver and Shelby B. Jones.

Coan said that he had secured affidavits from the first three of these five men. The investigators stated that these men had met Hines in the Marquette hotel in the summer of 1909 and that Hines had boasted of "putting over" William Lorimer as federal senator from Illinois.

"Mr. Jones refused to make an affidavit," said Mr. Coan, "but he told substantially the same story as the other men." According to this story Hines, while drinking with these Marquette men, declared that he had financed the election of Lorimer and had raised personally a large sum of money to effect this election.

The affidavit further stated that this conversation resulted from a discussion of the tariff on lumber.

Lowe's affidavit, which was next read, stated that Hines had declared the reason for raising the $100,000 fund to elect Lorimer, was to assure a high tariff on lumber.

Cornell Coach Rows Gasoline Launch to Safety in Darkness.

Ithaca, N. Y., April 14.—Using his oldtime rowing prowess to great effect despite his 61 years, Coach Courtney of the Cornell crew pulled his gasoline launch to safety off Lake Cayuga after a lively time in the darkness, Tuesday night.

When the gasoline gave out, Courtney and Assistant Coach Hoyle were stranded two miles out in the lake. Courtney grasped the oars and, by the time anything wrong was scented, had pulled the heavy launch into the new cut.

GEN. GRANT DECLINES.

Washington, April 14.—Gen. Frederick D. Grant has decided not to attend the coronation as the military representative of this government, and Maj. Gen. A. W. Greeley, retired, will attend in his stead.

It is understood that the fact that the military and naval aides may not take their wives brought about Gen. Grant's decision.

Gen. Greeley is celebrated, owing to his polar expedition.

MANY MASONS AT BANQUET

Over 600 Gather Around the Board at Masonic Temple.

Thirty-Second Degree Is Conferred on Fifty-Four Candidates.

The banquet held last night in the banquet hall at the Masonic temple by the Scottish Rite Masons of Northern Minnesota was the largest ever held in this city. More than 600 attended and the big banquet hall which has been found adequate up to this time for all occasions proved to be too small to properly accommodate the large crowd in attendance.

The banquet was the winding up of the degree work of the past week by the Scottish Rite branch of the Masonic lodge. The work on a class which numbered fifty-four was begun Monday morning. The candidates were taken up and through the thirty-second degree, the highest degree that can be conferred outside of Washington. The thirty-second degree was conferred just previous to the banquet held last night.

As the result of the over-crowding of the hall at the banquet, it was decided at the close of the program to enlarge the banquet hall by next year by removing a partition which will throw the entire floor space of the first floor into one large room. This it is believed, will make room for 750 to be comfortably seated at the tables.

With the new members taken in during the week the membership of Scottish Rite Masons in Northern Minnesota was announced at 938. Maurice Lefkowitz responded on the part of the class at the banquet. He told in an interesting way the impressions he had received from the various degrees.

Music was furnished by Flaaten's orchestra during the serving of the banquet. The Scottish Rite quartet rendered several numbers. W. B. Patton responded to the toast, "The Grand Body" and A. A. Farrington spoke on "The Government of Our Country." "Scottish Rite Free Masonry and Humanity," was responded to by Warren E. Greene.

The large banquet hall was elaborately trimmed in purple and white, the colors, and flowers were used on the banquet tables.

When the speaking was over the impressive ceremony of extinguishing the lights was held. They will be relighted Easter Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the auditorium of the temple with the special service of the lodge for the occasion. The auditorium will be in complete darkness until the members are in their places. The ceremony of lighting will then take place. The Scottish Rite quartet will furnish music and Rev. John Walker Powell will deliver the sermon. This service is for Masons, their families and their friends.

Gold Dust

makes clean, healthy homes

NEW HAMPSHIRE TAKES A HAND IN EDDY CASE.

Concord, N. H., April 14.—To protect the interest of the state of New Hampshire, in the will of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, Attorney General Edwin G. Eastman entered his appearance yesterday, in the suit of George W. Glover against Henry M. Baker, executor of the will of Mrs. Eddy. He declares that New Hampshire has an interest of $125,000 in inheritance taxes, chargeable against the estate.

GIRLS MUST DIE.

Sixty Chinese Offered for Sale Find No Purchasers.

Shanghai, April 14.—Pitiful stories of suffering in the famine-stricken areas of China reach this city daily. Sixty girls were offered for sale at one small town without a purchaser, because the food the slaves eat was more valuable than their lives. Only death, therefore, awaits them.

Heavy rains have partly re-flooded the famine districts for the third time in two years, rendering extremely difficult the importation of grain for the relief of the starving thousands. In some cases the water is so high that it prevents the gathering of herbs in the fields and also cuts the people off from relief stations.

LOSES MUCH MONEY.

Widow Will Relinquish Half Million By Marrying Again.

Philadelphia, April 14.—When Mrs. Kate Felton Elkins, widow of William L. Elkins, Jr., is married to William Delaware Neilson, prominent attorney of this city, the announcement of whose engagement has stirred society, she will relinquish her right to a third interest in the $1,250,000 estate of her husband, who died nine years ago.

The Elkins will provided that in the event of the widow marrying again her share of the estate shall be divided between the two children—Felton B. Elkins and Marie Louise Elkins.

Mrs. Elkins, however, has another fortune in her own name. Her father, Former Senator Charles M. Felton of California, made money in the California gold fields in '49.

Since the death of her husband Mrs. Elkins has spent most of the time with her father in San Francisco and abroad. At the present time she is stopping with friends in this city.

FISH FRY SENT OUT BY HATCHERY.

Millions of fish fry are being put out by the hatchery located at Duluth, the work having started this week. There will be about 8,000,000 trout fry, 15,000,000 wall-eyed pike and 10,000,000 white fish fry. Most of the former is lake fry. The importance of keeping the lake stocked with trout and white fish is not under estimated by the officials, and millions of fry are being put in each year. The output of fry this season is not quite as heavy as it was last year, but the difference is not great enough to cause comment.

OWES NEARLY $1,000,000.

Financial Operations of Patrick Keiran Disastrous for Many.

New York, April 14.—Patrick J. Keiran, one time head of the bankrupt Fidelity Funding company, whose sky rocket finance operations involved fifty or more Catholic institutions, owes nearly $1,000,000, with known assets of less than $125,000. This was disclosed in bankruptcy schedules filed here yesterday. The known liabilities are given as $921,150; the known assets as $123,181.

Included in the assets are debts due aggregating $121,681.97; $1,000 balances in different banks, and all the bankrupt's interest in the stocks of the Fidelity Funding company, Fidelity and Columbian Construction companies, the Nauvoo waterworks and in bonds of the Western Illinois & Iowa Railroad company.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

WILL GATHER AT BRAINERD

Upper Mississippi Medical Society Will Meet in Annual Session Tuesday.

Personal Injury Suit Against Northern Pacific Settled Out of Court.

Brainerd, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—The thirty-second regular meeting of the Upper Mississippi Medical society will be held here next Tuesday, April 18. Dr. Walter R. Ramsey of St. Paul, a noted specialist in children's diseases, will read an important paper. Dr. N. L. Linnemann, recently returned from his studies at Vienna and other European centers of medical learning, will give an informal talk on European clinics and hospital work.

The program embraces the following numbers: "Recent Progress in Pediatrics as Related to the Digestive Tract," Dr. Walter R. Ramsey of St. Paul; "Blood Pressure and Its Significance," Dr. Bert E. Hemstead of Brainerd; "Some Ultra Professional Duties and Aims of Medical Men," Dr. William Reid of Deerwood; "Report of a Case," Dr. J. A. Thabes of Brainerd.

There will be a banquet at the Ransford hotel in the evening and an informal reception tendered the ladies of the party by the ladies of Brainerd.

Many Hear University Musicians.

The Glee and Mandolin club of the University of Minnesota played to a crowded house last evening, gaining frequent applause. The club is composed of thirty-five young men, with Ralph Knight as manager. The tour so far has been very successful, the boys playing to good houses at St. Cloud, Alexandria and Glenwood.

Damage Suit Settled.

The personal injury suit brought by Otto Tynkkynen against the Northern Pacific railway has been settled for $1,000 and costs. Tynkkynen was run over by a switch engine about a year ago and was pulled out from under the engine with his back injured and legs broken. The engine crushed him, but fortunately the wheels did not run over him. The young man lives on the Oak street road.

BESSEMER MAN DIES SUDDENLY

Frank B. Jones, Pioneer Druggist, Stricken With Heart Failure.

Ironwood, Mich., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Frank B. Jones, a pioneer druggist of Bessemer, dropped dead yesterday morning at his home. Mr. Jones went out feeling as well as usual, and walked as far as the waterworks plant, then returned home about 9 o'clock. On reaching his home he asked for a drink, and complained of a pain in his chest, then told his daughter to summon a doctor. Before a physician arrived, he was dead, only living a few minutes after he reached home. Mrs. Jones is prostrated with grief.

He was an old and respected citizen of Bessemer, being engaged in the drug business for twenty years. Two years ago he sold out to Charles Warner, and since that time, he has traveled in the West but remaining away only a short time. The inquest was held and the jury returned a verdict of death being due to heart failure. Deceased leaves a widow and one daughter, Miss Jennie Jones, and was about 65 years of age. The funeral will be held on Sunday afternoon under the auspices of the Masonic lodge of Bessemer.

TWO COUNTIES TO SETTLE ACCOUNTS

Beltrami and Clearwater Will Probably Adjust Old Standing Differences.

Bemidji, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Beltrami and Clearwater counties are making an effort to compromise the suit now pending in district court, in which Beltrami county seeks to recover from Clearwater county a portion of the amount of the indebtedness of Beltrami county at the time Clearwater was created. The county board of each county has appointed two of its members—Viggo Peterson and A. E. Rako for Beltrami county, and T. O. Nelson and Theodore Welte for Clearwater—to endeavor to reach a mutual agreement, and these gentlemen, with the attorneys of each county, are today investigating the facts involved.

Clearwater contends its taxpayers were required to and did pay to Beltrami county taxes for county revenue purposes, levied in 1902 in the aggregate sum of about $18,000, which said taxes were illegally levied, and for which Clearwater county should now have credit. The pending action has been before the district court several times in a preliminary way and an order of the district court on one of the points involved was affirmed by the supreme court about a year ago. Issue was finally joined in the case a few months ago and a trial is to be held in the chambers here, before Judge McClenhan, in the near future, if the attempt at an amicable adjustment proves futile.

RAPS LUMBER CONCERNS.

Wisconsin Speaker Leaves Chair to Take Hand in Discussion.

Madison, Wis., April 14.—When the bill creating the town of Round Lake in Sawyer county appeared in the house on Wednesday, it brought from Speaker Ingram, who called Assemblyman Harper to the chair, a statement that he resented the interference of the immense lumber companies in matters before the legislature.

Mr. Ingram said that the settlers brought in the bill in good faith but when the lumbermen representing the interests of the Weyerhauser and Hines companies got in their work the settlers were scared out.

"I object to having the legislature toyed with in this way," said Speaker Ingram.

Directing his remarks to Speaker Ingram, Assemblyman Knight said:

"Men who were making politics out of this incident not so long ago were glad to have the patronage of these big companies. Those interested in Sawyer county have done much to build up the country. I am not here representing the interests of the lumber company, in fact they fought me because they thought I was an honest man."

PREACHING IN SALOON.

Sunday School Tracts Piled Upon Former Whitewood, S. D., Bar.

Whitewood, S. D., April 14.—Using a former saloon building for a house of worship, Rev. Nathaniel Leavitt is attracting attention at Vale, a town northeast of here in Butte county. Vale has no regular church building, and a number of Presbyterians got together and turned the abandoned saloon into a church. The bar was removed to the rear of the building and is now used to store Sunday school tracts, while the wine tables of the former liquor room now holds hymnals and other church books.

STATE OFFERED BUST OF GOVERNOR RAMSEY.

St. Paul, Minn., April 14.—James J. Hill has offered the state of Minnesota, through the governor, a life-sized bust of Alexander Ramsey, the second governor of the state. Mr. Hill intimated that he would be ready to present the bust at any time.

"I did not accept," said Governor Eberhart, "but probably will do so within a few days. I believe the gift a valuable one. Mr. Hill said it is the only bust of ex-Governor Ramsey."

FERGUS FALLS WILL BAR BREWERY-OWNED SALOONS

Fergus Falls, Minn., April 14.—The city council has decided to limit the number of saloons to six, and to raise the license from $1,200, which was the figure a year ago, to $1,500 this year.

On motion of Alderman Angus, it was also agreed that no license should be issued to any one who was unable to state that he was paying for the license himself, and that no brewery or wholesale liquor house had any interest in it. Eleven applications have been received for licenses.

SENATOR STEPHENSON TO BUILD MODEL ROAD.

Kenosha, Wis., April 14.—United States Senator Isaac Stephenson is to give the farmers of Kenosha county a lesson in road building of a practical nature, and he has instructed the foreman in charge of his big farm in this county to build a mile and a quarter of sample road along the Stephenson farm.

"I don't want this road to be fussy or out of the reach of the regular farmers in the neighborhood," said Senator Stephenson, "but I want it to be the best possible road that can be built under the circumstances.

"I don't care what it costs if it will just stand as an example to the farmers in Kenosha county."

The work will be started at once and it is expected that the "object lesson road" will be completed before the close of the present summer at a cost of approximately $30,000.

STARBUCK YOUNG MAN FOUND DEAD ON STREET.

Glenwood, Minn., April 14.—Olger Smeadstead, aged 22, son of L. O. Smeadstead of Starbuck, Pope county, was found lying on the street of that village early Monday. Coroner Elsey held an inquest and an autopsy, the jury finding that death resulted from pneumonia. Wild rumors were first current as to the cause of death as the deceased the evening previously had been drinking with several friends.

Would You Gain a Pound

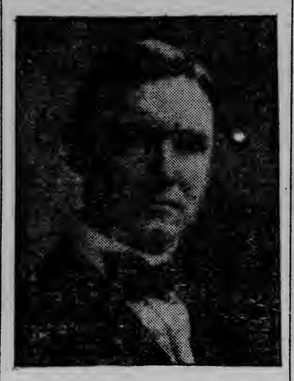
A Week for Three Months?

Then begin taking regularly three grain hypo-nuclane tablets, which are made from a health-germ of ordinary yeast and combined with hypophosphites and an absorptive phosphorus.

Physicians and chemists assert that this tablet is very largely used for increasing the weight and improving the nervous system because of its aid to digestion, assimilation and absorption. The food elements which go to make blood and solid tissue is retained when this treatment is regularly used for several months. Most physicians and apothecary shops supply them in sealed packages.

Pain-Away-Pills relieve headache and periodical pains. All druggists sell them.

ISHPEMING'S MAYOR



W. J. McCORKINDALE, Popular Executive of Upper Peninsula City.

WANT TROOPS WITHDRAWN.

Butte Miners' Union Call Upon Taft to Bring Soldiers Back.

Butte, Mont., April 14.—The Butte Miners' union, the parent body of the Western Federation of Miners, has adopted resolutions demanding that President Taft withdraw the troops from the Mexican border, and that Montana representatives in congress demand for the miners that the troops be immediately withdrawn. A mass meeting was called for next Sunday, when a public protest will be made against the ratification of the treaty between the United States and Great Britain, on the grounds that it is unwise for the American government to discriminate in favor of the English.

HOTEL MAN, FATHER OF HOTEL MEN, DIES.

Redwood Falls, Minn., April 14.—Henry Kahler, proprietor of the Hotel Kahler of this city, died recently at the home of a son in Granite Falls at the age of 72 years. He had been in the hotel business for many years, and had a host of friends among the traveling public. He leaves a wife and five boys, all engaged in the hotel business in the Northwest, and two daughters.

SWAN LAKE SETTLERS WANT SCHOOLHOUSE.

Hermantown, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—The clerk of School District No. 6, A. Nordstrom, has posted notice for a special school meeting to be held at Five Corners in the McKinley schoolhouse Saturday afternoon, April 22, at 4 o'clock. The meeting is called on request of a petition from settlers along the Swan Lake road, as they want a new two-room schoolhouse built on the northwest corner of section 10, somewhere near the church which was built last summer.

RESUME TEARING UP LOGGING ROAD TRACK.

Pine River, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Work is to be resumed the middle of next week upon the removal of the equipment and steel of the old Cross Lake logging road, which was purchased by the Jones Purchasing agency of Minneapolis. About twenty miles of trackage remains to be taken up and the bulk of the equipment remains, all of which will have to be hauled overland, a distance of fourteen miles, to some point on the M. & I.—probably this point or Jenkins.

BEMIDJI TEACHERS WHO REMAIN ANOTHER YEAR.

Bemidji, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—The following members of the present corps of teachers in the Bemidji have accepted their re-election: Elisa Loe, W. Z. Robinson, Mabel Wager, Ella Bickford, Katherine Grest, Anna McGillin, Minnie Lyons, Inez Patterson, Fannie Mosford, Maebelle Wheeler, Julia Kleve, Nellie Erb, Golda Hill, Dorothy Clark, Madeline Johnson, Elsie Schmitt, Rose Endres, Lois Ohert, Mamie Jones, Edna Hill, Karna Anderson, Nora Pfeil, Nancy Dunaven, Charlotte Wunsch and Ethel Murray.

North Dakota Game Wardens.

Bismarck, N. D., April 14.—At the first regular meeting of the new game board in this city E. H. Stenvick of Minot and Adolph Bjorke of Abercrombie were appointed game wardens for the north and south districts respectively. Mr. Stenvick succeeds W. N. Smith of Grafton, who has resigned and will remove to Montana.

The following officers of the board were elected: President, Thomas Griffiths, Grand Forks; vice president, W. S. Byerly, Velva; secretary, Tobias D. Casey, Grafton.

Woman Homesteader Burns.

Pierre, S. D., April 14.—Miss Anna Bray, a homesteader near Lacy, was brought to the Fort Pierre hospital yesterday, suffering from severe burns received while attempting to save her homestead building and contents from a prairie fire.

Former Minnesotan Washington Judge.

Spokane, Wash., April 14.—Thomas E. Grady, formerly of Chippewa Falls, Wis., and afterward of St. Paul and Minneapolis, has become judge of the superior court of Yakima county, west of Spokane, a department of justice created by the legislature of Washington a short time ago.

Houghton Jeweler Returns.

Houghton, Mich., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Louis Kobecker, the Copper country jeweler, who created a sensation at Lansing, where he went to fight extradition proceedings by attempting suicide by inhaling chloroform, has returned to this city and will resume his business.

Marinette Horses Abused.

Marinette, Wis., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—During the past few weeks horses rented from livery stations have been mistreated in a manner which has aroused public indignation. An example was made of Bernard Norman who was fined $12.50 and assessed $5 damages.

Old Gateman Drops Dead.

Minneapolis, Minn., April 14.—After thirty-two years of faithful service as switchman and gateman for the Great Northern railroad, at the Dale street yard, St. Paul, Thomas Pewter dropped dead at his post Wednesday. It was the first time he failed to open the gate since he has been employed by the road. He died of heart disease.

DAKOTA BRIEFS

Grand Forks, N. D.—W. B. Snyder, formerly instructor in chemistry at the university, but for some time head of the Hebron experiment station, has resigned his position to become general manager of the Missouri Valley High Carbon Fuel company, which will manufacture lignite briquets and gas. He will enter his new field about May 1.

Fargo, N. D.—The state enforcement league, in session here, elected these officers: President, R. B. Griffith of Grand Forks; vice president, J. P. Jackson of Bismarck; secretary, C. A. McNamara of Fargo; treasurer, R. M. Pollock of Fargo; field superintendent, F. L. Watkins of Dickinson.

Grand Forks, N. D.—Preparations are being made for the organization of five troops of Boy Scouts. These troops will be at the Methodist, Baptist and Presbyterian churches, and at the Y. M. C. A. It is probable that another troop will be organized in East Grand Forks.

Fargo, N. D.—E. Buckmaster, one of the oldest pioneers of Fargo, died Tuesday afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. P. G. Stevens. He was 86 years old and leaves seven children, E. L. Buckmaster of Wisconsin, Mrs. Deans and W. H. Buckmaster of Fairmont, Ind., Mrs. Nels Johnson and Mrs. P. G. Stevens of Fargo, J. J. Buckmaster of Jamestown and Mrs. Wheeler of Woodruff, Kan.

Richardton, N. D.—George G. Davis, a popular young man of Richardton, and Miss Ida Johnstone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnstone of this place, were married Tuesday evening at a prettily appointed home ceremony at the residence of the bride's parents and in the presence of only relatives and intimate friends.

Bismarck, N. D.—Mrs. Carl Knudson, who has been a resident of the city for the past few months, is stated to have made an attempt to end her life Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock by taking a dose of laudnum at her rooms on Eighth street.

Mandan, N. D.—There was a meeting of the Morton County Fair association here Tuesday evening at which time the preliminary steps were taken for the organization of the Missouri Slope Agricultural Fair association, which was authorized at the last session of the legislature and for which an appropriation was made. The new association will be incorporated for $50,000.

MINNESOTA BRIEFS

New York Mills—The school board elected the following corps of teachers for the ensuing year: Prof. J. E. Reichert of Minneapolis, eighth and ninth grades; Miss Elizabeth Rice of Wadena, sixth and seventh grades; Miss Carolyn Larson of Audubon, fourth and fifth grades; Miss Cora Mellum of Moorhead, second and third grades; and Miss Ida J. Skein of Moorhead and Miss Anna Peters of Waverly in the primary department.

Crookston—Contractor Charles Ross has erected a tool shed at the rear of the proposed Elks building on Main street, and material is being hauled preparatory to active work on construction. The basement was completed last fall and the walls will shoot up very rapidly.

Bemidji—Mrs. Fred E. Brinkman left Wednesday noon for Duluth and Chicago, and at each place will be met by friends who will accompany her to Michigan City, Ind., where the party will be joined by Mr. Brinkman's mother. The party will then go to West Baden Springs, where they will remain several weeks.

Red Wing—Lovira Hurd, aged 82, died at her home in Wabasha recently after an illness of several weeks. Mrs. Hurd was one of the very early pioneers of this section, going to Wabasha in 1855, who with her husband, B. S. Hurd, was one of the first settlers to open up a hotel which was in the year 1856.

Isanti—The village school is having the Easter vacation this week. Miss Chapman is at her home in Minneapolis, Miss Jefferson at Stacy, and Miss Margret is visiting her sister, Miss Mabel, at Ogilvie.

Winona—It is now definitely a settled matter that Winona will have through packet service this season between the Twin Cities and Davenport. This was made known Wednesday when H. Clark of St. Paul, general agent for the Northern Steamboat company of Davenport, came into the city in the interest of his company to arrange for docking privileges for the Morning Star, which will make the run every week.

Mankato—The Southern Minnesota Dental association has elected these officers: President, Dr. A. C. Fawcett, Rochester; vice president, Dr. C. L. Burrill, Heron Lake; secretary, C. A. Himz, Springfield; treasurer, Dr. C. J. Peterson, Mankato.

Owatonna—Masons from all over the state were Wednesday en route to Austin, where the cornerstone of the new postoffice building was laid at 2 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon with elaborate ceremonies. Quite a number of the Owatonna Masons attended and participated in the ceremonies.

Brainerd—The case against Joseph Maquire of Crosby for keeping an unlicensed drinking place, was called Wednesday afternoon in Judge Warner's court and continued until the afternoon of May 2.

St. Cloud—A. G. Whitney has purchased two pedigreed Percheron stallions which have been placed on his farms west and south of the city. Mr. Whitney's purchase includes two of four handsome and valuable animals shipped to the city by an importing firm.

Fergus Falls—The Matthews house near Maine, which has been occupied by Archie Northrup and family, burned to the ground recently while the family were gone. Only the cook stove and a few dishes were saved. The origin of the fire is not known.

WISCONSIN BRIEFS

Green Bay—Walter Noe, who escaped from the county jail by jumping through an office window, and was arrested in Milwaukee, has been given a year's sentence by Judge Monohan.

Prairie du Chien—Two strangers, about 21 years old, are being traced by the police on suspicion that they were the robbers who entered the clothing store of Zeman & McCloskey, and secured jewelry and clothing valued at $200.

Beloit—If it is found that such action is legal, all lodges and societies in Beloit serving liquor over a bar will be compelled to pay for a regular liquor license. The common council has instructed the city attorney to investigate the matter.

La Crosse—The will of James Vincent, filed here on Wednesday, bequeaths the estate, with the exception of minor bequests, to the widow and two daughters, Miss Agnes Vincent of this city and Mrs. Frank B. Seymour of Green Bay. The widow gets $50,000 in property outright, each of the daughters $40,000, while the bulk of the $1,000,000 estate is split in the same proportion between the three.

Fond du Lac—The Rev. J. J. Keenan, aged 66, rector of St. Patrick's parish for thirty years, died Wednesday after an illness extending over a period of several months. Father Keenan was born in Ireland and came to this country when 18 years old. He graduated from Mount St. Mary's college, Emmitsburg, Md., in 1868, and afterward was engaged as professor at Plon Nono college.

Madison—Governor McGovern today appointed Walter H. Garfield of Shawano coroner of Shawano county to fill the vacancy caused by the failure of the official elected last fall to qualify.

Appleton—Warren Dickerson, aged 21, committed suicide in the Outagamie county insane asylum Wednesday afternoon by strangling himself with a strap with which he was strapped in a chair. He had been violently insane for over a year.

PENINSULA BRIEFS

Calumet—A baseball club has been organized with these officers: Honorary president, James MacNaughton; president, F. S. Eaton; vice presidents, John D. Cuddihy and F. H. Schumaker; secretary, George Horkins; treasurer, Frank J. Koilinaas; managers, George Horkins and Michael Leary.

Houghton—The contract for the erection of a 45-foot steel span at Redridge on the Copper Range new track to the Baltic mill was given to the Worden-Allen company. The erection of this bridge will be begun immediately.

Calumet—John Abola of the Osceola, aged 80 years, is dead. The decedent was one of Calumet's oldest residents, and is survived by a large family of grown-up children, besides a number of grandchildren. His wife died just six weeks ago. The funeral will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Finnish Apostolic church on Pine street.

Hancock—John E. Caine of Duluth, traveling freight agent of the Northern Pacific railroad, was in the city Wednesday on a business visit.

Calumet—A number of new automobiles will be received in Calumet this year, no fewer than six cars having already been ordered. The local agencies anticipate other orders and look for a very favorable season.

Hancock—A two-story frame dwelling house located in the extreme west of the city north of Quincy street, owned by Nettie Jenkins of Houghton, was burned to the ground early Wednesday morning. The house was unoccupied except by an old caretaker known as "Joe Pete," who could not be located after the fire. Later he was found in Houghton, and said he hadn't been in the house since 4:30 Tuesday afternoon.

Calumet—August Palsa, known as Gus Paulson, aged about 50, a well-known resident of Pine street, suffered a hemorrhage of the heart Tuesday evening, just outside the Blum saloon on Pine street, and expired shortly after being removed to the Lundahl pharmacy.

Hancock—J. Frank Quinn, managing head of Hancock's semi-centennial and home-coming celebration, July 17 to 24, has taken up his tasks and has opened his office in room 36, third floor of the Superior National Bank building. The office will be headquarters of the Greater Hancock club while the big observance is in the making.

RELIABLE LAXATIVE FOR OLD PEOPLE GIVEN FREE

Life is so arranged that there is a close resemblance between infancy and old age. By this is not meant the mental but the physical faculties. For example, the organ of digestion is the most difficult thing the child has to contend with, as it in that of the old person.

When a person gets past middle life his power of digestion decreases, and continues to grow weaker, and for that reason so many old people are habitually constipated. They try everything recommended from hot water to strong cathartics without avail. Now, if there is any one thing a person of advanced years should not take it is a cathartic. The bowels cannot stand it. What is required is a mild, gentle, non-griping liquid laxative.

You have it exactly as required in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which stands today, after a generation, as the ideal remedy for old people, women, children and all others who require a mild, natural remedy. We could give the names of thousands of old people who use nothing else but Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, among them Mr. A. A. Lewis of Bentonville, Ark., and Mr. Enoa Gilpin of Danville, Ill.

They first sent to Dr. Caldwell for a free sample bottle, which every reader is invited to do, and then, having tested it and found it satisfactory, they bought it of their druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle. Their words of public praise should prompt the present reader to at least send for a sample bottle. It costs nothing. Results are absolutely guaranteed or money will be refunded.

Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy ends his obligation. He has specialized in stomach, liver and bowel diseases for over forty years and will be pleased to give the reader any advice on the subject free of charge. All are welcome to write him. Whether for the medical advice or the free sample address him Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 541 Caldwell Building, Monticello, Ill.

LATEST SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

CRAWFORD IS LATEST HOPE

Stocky Fighter Reaches Duluth and Issues Defi to All Comers.

Battle With Hawkins May Be Held on Superior Side of Bay.

Tommy Crawford, with blood in his mild blue eyes, and his fighting togs in his trunk, hit Duluth yesterday afternoon and signed his John Hancock to the St. Louis hotel register. The sturdy battler from the East comes to this section of the country looking for any fighter's game, not putting the barriers down for any of the fighting brothers.

Crawford is the boy who fought George Gunther a draw, and he was only a youngster at the time, green and inexperienced. Only recently in Milwaukee, according to the statement of his manager, Bill Steele, Thomas stepped a few rounds with Al Kaufmann, surprising that gent somewhat with his punching powers and ability to take care of himself.

Yesterday Steel stated that Crawford was brought here to engage in a number of fights in Wisconsin. Cleve Hawkins is one of the men Crawford wants. He wants to fight at catch weights, and he is also willing to fight either Tony Caponi or Tommy Dillon. As these men are middleweights and Crawford frankly confesses he cannot make the middleweight poundage, some hitch might occur over the weight question.

In appearance Crawford is short and stocky. While it is hard to tell a man's physical characteristics, Crawford looks like a chap possessing immense physical strength for his size, and also looks as if he might pack a punch in either hand.

Yesterday he stated that he considered himself one of the "hopes," but they are all doing that nowadays. Crawford also made the statement that he would fight Carl Morris. Unk Russell did the same. But the Thomas person does not boast in the least and merely asks for the opportunity to show his fistic ability. According to the statement of his manager, W. F. Steele, this will be given the stubby battler in the very near future, and Mons Steele also says that his man will make good.

A large scrapbook carried by Tommy with tender solicitude, tells in lurid language of many of the hard fights of the stocky boy. It shows accounts of the Gunther, Lewis, Thomas, Mantell and many other fights. This fellow has met some of the good ones, all right, and the only question is just how good he is at the present time.

"Leave it to me and Tommy to show you," is the way the confident Mr. Steele puts it, and so waiting seems the best thing to do under the circumstances.

Arrangements have been made for the training of Crawford at a Lake avenue gymnasium. While the fighter says he is in fairly good shape, he says he is not in the "pink" by any means. A week or so of hard work and he believes he will begin to feel like a man who has been told he has inherited a million or two.

Fans at the Head of the Lakes would like muchly to see Crawford in action with Hawkins and are hoping that a mill is arranged for Superior.

"GAME CALLED" FOR ADDIE JOSS

Cleveland Pitcher Dies at Toledo After Short Illness.

Toledo, Ohio, April 14.—Adrian C. Joss, better known in the baseball world as "Addie," well known pitcher of the Cleveland American league baseball team, died at his home here this morning. Death was due to tubercular meningitis, from which he had been a sufferer since last Sunday. Joss was 31 years old.

Teammates Surprised.

St. Louis, Mo., April 14.—The death of Adrian C. Joss at Toledo today was a great surprise to his teammates, who are playing here today. Manager James McGuire said today's game would be played. He spoke highly of Joss as a player and a man.

JAMES J. JEFFRIES IS GOING TO "YOORUP."

Chicago, April 14.—James J. Jeffries, former heavyweight champion pugilist of the world, arrived here yesterday for a week's visit before going to New York, whence he sails for Germany, May 4. He was accompanied by his wife.

Jeffries, who plans remaining abroad several months, denied that he would appear on the European vaudeville circuits. He declared that his trip was merely for pleasure.

COLUMBUS OPENING AGAIN POSTPONED.

Columbus, Ohio, April 14.—The opening game of the American Association baseball here was postponed today for the third time because of unseasonable weather. Minneapolis will open here tomorrow if the weather permits and the St. Paul team, which ever since Sunday has been ready to open the season, with Columbus, will go to Toledo.

BIG DULUTHS RECEIVE 1911 HOCKEY PENNANT.

A meeting last evening of the officials of the Duluth Hockey league closed up the business of the past season. The pennant was formally awarded to the Big Duluths. Reports of the various committees were received, and from their tenor it has been declared that the season past was the most successful financially in the history of hockey in this city. Plans and projects for next season were discussed. The 1911-1912 season promises to be even more successful than the past one, as the long hoped for rink will be available.

COMMENTS AND OPINIONS ON THE SPORTING PARADE

"Doc" Roller and the Limelight—Learning to Fly By Mail—Superior Stirring in Her Sleep—Chris on the Coast.

(BY BRUCE.)

HERE is a chance for much advertising for the promoters of Sapulpa, the starting place of Casey Jones Morris. "Doc" Roller would meet the "hope" of the desert sands, or at least he says he will, and asks to be seriously considered as the barrier in the path of the ex-throttle holder.

When the genial physician was last in this city he told of his efforts with the gloves. From his statements, they were eminently successful. Some one asked "Doc" why he didn't keep right on in the pugilistic uplift work. The reply was quite uniquely Rolleresque.

"I can make more money in the wrestling business," frankly replied the doctor from the fog banks of Seattle.

Trust Dr. Benjamin Franklin Roller to keep a weather eye on the mazuma. He likes it, because, man of the world, he knows that the cheerful gink with the lucre is quite it, and that the it in the case of money is capitalized—both ways.

No doubt he sees money and advertising in the prospective encounter with Moose Morris. Mayhap, also, he has been tipped by loving friends, and remember that it was King Henry VIII who was so well advertised by his loving friends that the bearcat of growing Oklahoma is nothing more than a boob with an advertising agency.

Roller has had several fights. Maybe he could go in and make the engineer run faster than he ever did on the 3 per cent grades of the Santa Fe. When in doubt, advertise; that is just what Roller is doing. The fight would attract a lot of attention, in Oklahoma, and "Doc" knows it. There you have the answer. Besides, the doctor possibly has never been in Oklahoma, and there might be some very excellent opportunities to pick up some land cheap.

Aviating By Correspondence.

SOME Chicago geek is sensible and sane as well as enterprising. He is teaching aviating by correspondence. Reports say he has 100 pupils to date. It serves them right, if they can't take a joke.

But coming down to the curb. It should be said that the bean of the Chi boy is full of thought. The only safe and sensible way, for the teacher, is by the correspondence route. No matter whether he knows nothing about the bird business or not, his pupils will never suspect any deficiency.

If they don't learn to fly, teacher can lay it to ignorance on the part of little corresponding pupil. Should any one of the long distance maniacs fall and sever a vertebra, teacher can tell the police and the weeping relatives that the ambitious aviator to be failed miserably to follow instructions, pulling the wrong lever when the phychological moment was on the back stretch.

In this manner the teacher would be taking no risks. What is the use of taking risks? That is precisely what the insurance companies are for. A pawnbroker never takes needless risks; why should a man teaching aviating?

It is a splendid scheme for the teacher, and if his pupils continue to increase we are sure to increase the business of the undertakers.

Paris, Society and Pugilists.

FADS have been thriving in France since the French revolution. During that strenuous time it was the fad to behead people. Since that time fads have grown milder.

One of the greatest fads of Paris at the present time is prizefighting. As women played a heavy part in the French revolution, so they have times of talking parts in the present game of pugilism. Society so far has been one of the features of the Paris fights. For the most part the fights themselves have been without feature and have been quite eclipsed in brilliance by the social side of the festivities.

Can you imagine some French grand dame yelling to Sam McVey, black and classic in his hideousness: "Hit him in ze mug, Monsieur McVey. Allez tres bein, mon ami. Kick ze Sam Lang in ze slats."

That would sound funny, now wouldn't it? From some of the reports given substance and fact by the cable, some of the ladies around Paris do just cut up scandalously.

The impulsive temperament of the Gaelic, that little strain of excitability which makes the Frenchman want to stick his fellow men with a cute little sword and drink absinthe and want to go to war with England through the newspapers, has developed strong in the audiences that gather to watch the prize fighters.

After the battle some of the audiences have amused themselves by throwing chairs and bottles and heated remarks. The gendarmes have been called in to decorate countenances and clear the hall upon more than one occasion.

But the dear French women. They yell, and scream and almost rave. Any old fight is the excuse to throw a couple of fits, and after reading some of the descriptions of ringside scenes, there is every reason to believe that the carrying on of one of these Paris blondes would make the ranting of some poor if earnest actor in Macbeth seem like the gentle sighing of some sweet young thing in the midst of one of Pansy's prose effects.

Superior Is Becoming Real Smart.

WHAT has happened to Superior? They are getting awfully sporty on the other side of the bay. If rumor is quite right, they are going to have some real prize fights. It is the first time since the Indian scare that the suburbanites have been roused from a deep and somewhat perpetual slumber.

Many confusing rumors have been going the rounds. One story says that Pal Brown and Tommy Garry will mix at Superior on the bright evening of April 18, the fight to be held in a livery barn. One naturally associated stalls with a livery barn. It is to be hoped that this fight will not be a stall.

Tommy Crawford arrived in our fair city yesterday, which you have learned by The Herald, and it is said that they are framing up a regular fight for the stocky boy from the East. If the Crawford boy fights this Cleve Hawkins there will be a regular quarrel, and some real earnest milling should result.

They have just apparently awakened to the fact that if fights can be held in other Wisconsin cities, they might as well be held in Superior. In Milwaukee, Kenosha, Fond du Lac, Racine and even Eau Claire, they are holding fights. There seems no reason why the boxing game should not prosper in Superior. It is quite large enough to support a large mill, and it is up to the promoters to give the fans the kind of entertainment that will give them a run for their money.

Chris, the Traveler.

AN Associated Press report tells of the meeting in Stockton, Cal., of Chris Person, veteran Chris, known to mat fans of this city, and Frank A. Gotch, king of the wrestling brigade.

By the terms of the agreement Gotch was to throw Chris and some other wrestler in an hour. It is quite needless to say that the champion fulfilled his part of the contract.

What must the Californians think of Hackenschmidt after the exhibitions Gotch has given them of his wonderful wrestling ability? Westergaard and Ordemann put up a mighty struggle against the Russian invader, and here comes Gotch and makes short work of these two men, perhaps the greatest of the second division grapplers.

Most every time Frank wrestles there is some excuse for writing something about the greatest wrestler of them all. The easy way in which he threw Ordemann and Westergaard makes it quite certain that the Iowan is quite removed from the near-great. It will probably be years, if ever, before another wrestler of the wonderful ability of the big boy is discovered.

Batteries—Bell and Bergen; Mattern, Frock, Burk and Graham. Umpires—Klem and Doyle.

CHRISTY MATHEWSON IS HIT HARD BY PHILLIES.

New York, April 14.—The Philadelphia National league club yesterday defeated New York, 6 to 1, and hammered Christy Matthewson to all parts of the field. Only his own brilliant fielding kept the score down to respectable dimensions. Paskert, the Quakers' center fielder, made one of the greatest catches ever seen on the Polo grounds in the eighth inning when he captured Snodgrass' fly with his bare hand while racing toward the fence. Rowan made his first appearance in a Philadelphia uniform and incidentally defeated Matthewson for the first time.

CYCLONE IS OPPORTUNE AND BROWNS ARE WINNERS

St. Louis, Mo., April 14.—A cyclonic wind and hail storm during which the steel flagpole snapped and crashed into the bleachers while the players were driven from the diamond by the bombardment from the skies, brought the Cleveland-St. Louis American league game to an abrupt ending in the first half of the ninth inning.

Spectators in the grandstand, newspaper men and the official scorer in the press box, were obliged to take refuge under the seats and many were bruised on the face and head by being struck by the hailstones. The scorer's record was ruined and he was obliged to make up a new one from borrowed notes.

The score reverted back to the eighth inning although one run had been made, three men were on bases and there was no one out. The final score was 3 to 1 in favor of the local team.

Score:	R.	H.	E.
Cleveland 00000010	1—1	4	2

HIGHLANDERS TAKE SECOND GAME FROM CHAMPIONS.

Philadelphia, April 14.—New York again defeated Philadelphia yesterday afternoon by a batting rally in the eighth inning, when four hits, including a double by Blair and a triple by Wolter were made off Coombs' delivery. Hartsell made one of the greatest one-handed stops ever seen at Shibe park and robbed Barry of a two-bagger.

Score:	R.	H.	E.
New York 00100002	0—3	10	0
Philadelphia 00000100	0—1	5	2

Batteries—Caldwell, Fisher, Quinn, and Sweeney and Blair; Coombs and Lapp. Umpires—Evans and Egan.

CRAWFORD AND COBB WIN FOR THE TIGERS.

Detroit, Mich., April 14.—Hard hitting by Crawford and Cobb and Mullins' steady pitching enabled Detroit to defeat Chicago, 4 to 2, in the opening game of the American league season here. Detroit found Walsh for a home run, a triple and three singles in the first three innings, after which he resorted to his spit-ball with much better success.

Crawford's triple to left center scored Jones in the first, and in the third inning Ty Cobb drove the ball over the left field screen for a home run. Bush's single and stolen base, followed by Crawford's double and a wild pitch in the eighth gave Detroit two more runs. McConnell scored in the sixth on a pass, Lord's infield hit, Mullin's wild throw to first and Dougherty's single. Bush dropped Zelder's short fly in the ninth and Callahan's single resulted in a tally.

Gainer made his debut as a Detroit regular and his senational pick-up back of first base in the third inning, which retired the side, with men on bases, proved the star fielding feature.

Mayor Thompson pitched the first ball, with Charlie Bennett behind the bat. Score: R. H. E.

Chicago 00000100	1—2	6	1
Detroit 10100002	x—4	8	2

Batteries—Walsh and Payne and Sullivan; Mullin and Stanage. Umpires—Perrine and Sheridan.

NATIONALS WIN AGAIN FROM BOSTON RED SOX.

Washington, April 14.—Washington bunched three hits in the sixth inning yesterday and with Cunningham's triple and Miller's single in the eighth defeated Boston, 3 to 2. The fielding of Milan and the batting of Miller were features. Score: R. H. E.

Washington 00000201	x—3	8	4

NICHOLSON MAY JOIN EAU CLAIRE

Schoonhoven Dickering With Barrett for Return of Star Slabman.

La Crosse, Wis., April 14.—Although Pitcher Nicholson, the hurling phenom from Eleva, Wis., was some pitcher with the Eau Claire pennant winners last season, he has failed to show anything with the Milwaukee club on the spring training trip and the chances are that "Nick" will be farmed out by the Brewer leader before the end of another week. Advance season dope by those who consider themselves dyed-in-the-wool prognosticators of the future of ballplayers to the effect that the Eleva boy would develop into a second Bill Schardt, formerly of La Crosse, falls flat. Clarence Short, the Edgerton, Wis., southpaw who pitched part of last season with Eau Claire, is not coming up to press notices he has received and will likely go the way of many of the other Cubs. Short has all sorts of stuff but the control seems to be lacking.

Tommy Schoonhoven, the Eau Claire pilot who has been hanging around the Brewer camp for some time, has probably argued Havenor into letting him have Nicholson again if he is released. Tommy is always silent in regard to his plans and his opinions of various players, and hence it is not known whether he will make an effort to get Short when he receives his blue billet doux.

With Nicholson back, Schoonhoven would have the nucleus of another good pitching staff. Last year he won 27 games and lost 13, ranking third among the Minny pitchers. Dahlgren and Lakoff having it on him by a narrow margin. "Nick" fielded .954 and hit for an average of .112.

Neither the Milwaukee fans nor Pilot Barrett are enthusiastic over the pitching staff that Havenor has gathered together for the Brewers. The holes left by Pitchers Schardt and Dougherty were supposed to be filled by Nicholson and Short. One glance is enough to convince anyone with baseball knowledge that the pitching staff at present is weaker than last year. There is 40-year old "Stoney" McGlynn, who is hardly expected to "come back." Ralph Cutting did not show much last year; neither have Short and Nicholson done anything during the training trip. Gilligan and Graham seem weak. The Brewers are after two good pitchers and Short and Nicholson are prepared to say goodbye at any moment.

Manager Barrett says that he does not know the real ability of the men yet and will hang onto them for a few days so that they may receive better chances to show what they possess in their repertoire of curves and slants.

KELLY-THOMPSON GO.

Kenosha Fight Club Makes Liberal Offer for Mill.

Chicago, Ill., April 14.—The proposed battle between Hugo Kelly, the Chicago middleweight, and "Cyclone Johnny" Thompson, the Sycamore, Ill., claimant to the title, is regarded as certain here today, following the acceptance by Kelly of an offer from the Drexel A. C. of Kenosha, Wis.

The Kenosha club offers Thompson a guarantee of $3,000, with the option of 35 per cent of the gate for a fight with Kelly and it is thought the Sycamore boxer will sign for a 10-round go with the Italian.

YALE-HARVARD ROWING DATE IS CAUSING ILL FEELING

New Haven, Conn., April 14—The announcement of the date of the Yale-Harvard boat race to be held on June 30, has caused considerable of a tempest among both graduates and undergraduates of Yale. It means that for another year Yale men will be denied the right to see their own crew in its championship race. Yale cheerfully granted the right to Harvard last year with the moral agreement that Harvard would return the favor this year and allow Yale a date which would permit the event to be during Yale's commencement festivities instead of a week later when the last Yale man has left for home.

But Harvard's ultimatum was thrown down and rather than allow the race to be given up, the Yale management gave in. It is safe to say that if the same state of affairs exists next year there will be either a race in accordance with Yale's wishes or no race at all. The undergraduate and graduate papers rarely comment on any squabble which might occur between the managers, but this year the Yale News and Yale Alumni Weekly have come out in very strong editorials against the action of the Harvard management. It has become so much of a custom for Harvard to insist upon all of her wishes being acceded to upon every occasion. A dispute generally arises, as for instance, the selection of football officials, the dates and places for baseball and hockey games.

For the last two years the date of the crew races has been the subject of a squabble and Yale men are very seriously considering the advisability of securing a more sportsmanlike rival. It is conceded that Yale made a diplomatic mistake in crew negotations this year. Yale wished the date on June 22, 23 or 24, as she had a right to do. Harvard's date being accepted last year and as the race should be held to favor each university alternately, Harvard held out for one date, which was June 29. Yale then suggested June 30, which was absolutely of no advantage to Yale, but would give one day longer for a period of training. Harvard instantly accepted, as it was immaterial to Harvard whether the race was June 29 or 30, and then sent forth word to the world that she had accepted the date proffered by Yale.

It has served to delude the public, much to the amusement of Yale men. A very prominent graduate in rowing matters said today that it begins to appear as if a graduate advisory committee would have to handle negotiations between the two universities and thus secure a more equable settlement of the disputes arising between Yale and Harvard or else omit all events entirely which give rise to the controversies.

Another such dispute as the present one and such an attitude as assumed by Harvard considering the present temper of Yale men as evidenced by the letters pouring in protesting against Harvard's action, would very likely cause a serious break in athletic relations between Yale and Harvard. The Yale temper has been strained to the breaking point.

FIRE VISITS GIANTS' HOME

Grandstand and Bleachers Destroyed and Loss Is $250,000.

Games May Be Played on Grounds---American League Park Offered.

New York, April 14.—"Although the damage to the Polo grounds in my opinion will easily amount to $250,000, I believe that if we can get in touch with the officials of the fire department and the building department, we can clear away the debris and place chairs about, so that the game scheduled for today can be held on these grounds," said John J. McGraw, manager of the New York National league baseball club, early this morning, while he was looking over the scene of the fire that destroyed the grandstand at the home of the New York Nationals, on the eve of the third baseball game of the season.

Starting a half hour after midnight this morning, the flames within fifteen minutes were greedily devouring the big grandstand and hope of saving it was given up. Only the work of the firemen in separating into two parts the vast oval of seats by means of water curtains, one on the north and one on the south, saved the club house of the Nationals on Eighth avenue, and the bleachers at the easterly end of the grounds.

Six Firemen Injured.

The fire, after eating its way from the south end of the grandstand to the north end, set fire to the repair shops on the elevated terminus of the Interborough Railway company, which abutts against the fence surrounding the grandstand. Although employes of the railway company, who were in the repair shops when the fire gained headway, fought the blaze with apparatus stored in their rooms, seven trailer cars, valued at $5,000 each, were destroyed, as well as four electric motors stored in the repair shops, valued at $25,000.

Three firemen playing hose on the north side of the grandstand on a platform which collapsed under them, were thrown into a mass of smouldering embers. They and three other firemen who pulled them out of danger were painfully burned about the face and body.

Farrell Offers His Park.

Atlantic City, N. J., April 14.—Frank Farrell, president of the New York American league baseball club, has offered the New York National club the use of his grounds. Mr. Farrell was staying here and left for Philadelphia this morning.

Will Aid Giants.

Philadelphia, April 4.—Thomas G. Davis, secretary of the New York American league club, which is playing here, left this morning for New York to arrange for the opening of the American league grounds there for the use of the New York National league club in case it desires to use the field.

Frank Farrell, president of the Americans, who spent last night at Atlantic City, called Mr. Davis on the telephone this morning and told him he had offered the grounds to the homeless Giants and asked him to go to New York at once to help out the Nationals. Mr. Davis did not know whether the offer would be accepted.

NINE TEAMS FOR LEAGUE

Duluth-Superior Amateurs Add Three New Teams to Circuit.

Season Opens May 7, With Prospects for Successful Year.

At the meeting last evening of the officials of the Duluth-Superior Amateur Baseball league, held at the Northern Hardware company's store, the applications of the Scott team of Superior, the Big Duluth and Duluth Heights, were favorably acted upon, which will in addition to the six teams already decided upon for league membership, make nine teams in the pennant race the present season.

The schedule of the league will open on May 7 and will close on Sept. 3. By the ruling adopted last evening, all postponed and tie games will have to be out of the way by Sept. 17.

H. S. Swenson was appointed secretary at a small salary, and it was also decided to pay the umpires and official scorers.

M. Erickson, George Stauber and D. O'Brien were appointed on the grounds committee. It will be the business of this committee to see that the grounds are kept in proper shape. The Duluth Heights team was admitted with the understanding that the grounds of that aggregation be kept in proper playing condition, and this will be one of the duties of the committee.

F. McGrath, Al Swanstrom and H. S. Swanson were appointed members of the schedule committee and will report at the next meeting of the league officials.

Following are the members of the league and the team managers:

Teams—	Managers.
Big Duluths	Al Swanstrom
Scott Hardware Co	F. J. Ennis
Binghams	J. H. Hussey
Duluth Heights	C. C. Brisco
Jeffersons	M. Erickson
Oak Halls	George Stauber

EXCAVATING FOR THE NEW SCHOOL

Work on Proposed Chisholm Structure Is Making Good Progress.

Chisholm, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—The excavation work for the new school building in the north end of town continues favorably. A crew of twenty-five men and five or six teams are at work every day. Considerable blasting of stumps, boulders and frozen ground has to be done. It will not be long before some stone will be laid for the foundation. This new school will be as large as the present high school building and will cost, approximately, $115,000.

Mrs. R. Bell and family, who moved into town lately from Keewatin are visiting old friends this week in Grand Rapids, Minn. She expects to be home by Sunday.

Passion week is being observed by special services in both the Catholic and the Methodist churches. The audiences in the Methodist church are not large.

Matt Borlin of the Borlin Livery company, has put up a new automobile house on Maple street near Central avenue. Mr. Borlin uses the auto in connection with his livery business.

COST OF PAVING BEING DISCUSSED

Eveleth Aldermen Considering Work to Be Undertaken This Year.

Eveleth, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.—The aldermen are considering the estimate of City Engineer P. F. Huntington of over $13,000 to pave the streets and alleys between Monroe and Jones streets and Douglas and Grant and Adams avenues, with tar macadam. The streets are at present in a very muddy condition and much mud is deposited on Grant avenue, the main thoroughfare, which is paved, by horses and vehicles coming from the adjoining streets and avenues. The residents on Jones street, wish the pavement extended from Adams avenue to Roosevelt avenue, and many of them are opposed to having macadam laid in the residence portion. All concede that the improvement is very necessary and it is thought that the city clerk will soon be asked to advertise for bids for the work.

William F. Killbride of Marquette, Mich., who laid over 50,000 feet of cement sidewalks here last year for the city, will commence work next month to complete his contract. When his work is done this year, the city will be without boardwalks. The completion of the contract is being eagerly awaited by the residents of the outlying districts because they are at present denied free mail delivery service as no sidewalks front their homes.

The council will soon visit the local streets to decide the various grades which will be embodied in an ordinance to govern the laying of cement walks.

PLAINTIFF IS GIVEN VERDICT

Under Instructions of Court, Jury Finds for Paul Williams.

Hibbing, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—The banks are closed today it being a legal holiday, and many of the stores closed mid-day. The district court adjourned shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon until Monday forenoon at 9 o'clock. The civil case before the court yesterday closed before adjournment; the plaintiff being Paul Williams, and the defendant, Peter Higen. The action, as reported in Thursday's Herald was to recover the sum of $375, with interest alleged to be due on payment of a house. After hearing the evidence, the court directed the jury to give a verdict for the plaintiff with $10 interest, the figures being, $385.

"The Liver Pills act So Naturally and Easily."

Such a statement, coming from the cashier of a bank, shows what confidence responsible people have in these pills. Mr. A. L. Wilson after trying them wrote:

"I have used Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills and also your Anti-Pain Pills, on myself, with good results. The Liver Pills act so naturally and so easily that I scarcely know that I have taken a pill. Frequently being troubled with headache I take an Anti-Pain Pill and get immediate relief in every case."

A. L. Wilson, Sparta, Ill.

Mr. Wilson was for a number of years cashier of the First National Bank of Sparta.

Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills are different from others. Many kinds of liver pills are "impossible" after one trial on account of their harshness. Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills do not act by sheer force but in an easy, natural way, without griping or undue irritation. They are not habit forming.

GRAND RAPIDS HIGH FIVE BEAT CARLTON GLEE CLUB

THE GRAND RAPIDS BASKET BALL CLUB.

Grand Rapids, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—In a fast and exciting game of basket ball here at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon the Grand Rapids high school basket ball team won from the Carlton College glee club team at the high school gymnasium by a score of 21 to 8. The game was fast, but the locals had the lead from the start. A very large and enthusiastic crowd witnessed the game.

The official lineup and score was as follows:

Grand Rapids.		Carlton College.
Brandon	l.f.	Wilson
Powers	r.f.	Dack
Hepfel	c.	Greaves
Whaling	r.g.	Schmitz
Erskine	l.g.	Jacobson

For Grand Rapids—Brandon, 6 field baskets; Powers, 2 field baskets and 1 free throw; Hepfel, 2 field baskets; total, 21.

EVELETH THEATERS BEING REMODELED

Bijou and Othello Playhouses Are Being Fixed Over By Owners.

Eveleth, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Max Stipitech, proprietor of the Bijou theater, the only playhouse in town, has let the contract for the extensive remodeling of his building. Application has been made to the council for permission to erect a two-story brick addition, 18 by 24 feet, in the rear, while the front and interior will also be remodeled. New floors will be installed and it is very probable that a gallery will be added. New seats will be added and the capacity of the house gretly increased, electrical features will be provided, and a new ceiling and other interior improvements made. Vaudeville and motion pictures are being given at the playhouse.

Frank Winchester, contemplates remodeling his quarters in the Campbell block and install a vaudeville house therein. He is receiving estimates for the work but he has not fully decided whether he will build this year.

The Othello theater is being remodeled, and the ruins of the recent fire removed. The first floor is in good condition, and it is believed it will be possible to again use the four concrete walls that were left standing after the fire. P. E. Dowling, the owner, has not definitely decided whether he will again build a theater on the site of the burned playhouse.

FISHERMEN ARE AT ISLE ROYALE

The Flyer Was Delayed Three Days and Four Nights at Susie Island.

Two Harbors, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Helge Johnson, Otto Olson and Nels Swanson, local fishermen, who left here recently for Isle Royale, reached their destination safely after a rough voyage according to a letter received by Mrs. Olson, mother of Otto Olson, which disproves the report they perished.

Michael Johnson left for Isle Royale April 2 on Easton. There is no truth to the story about the fishermen being lost on Flyer. They reached Grand Marais and Grand Portage safely but were delayed for three days and four nights on Susie island, midway between Grand Portage and Isle Royale and about sixteen miles from Washington harbor. They reached Isle Royale safely April 6. A letter was received by Mrs. Olson, mother of Otto Olson, telling of their safe arrival.

HILL VISITS EVELETH.

Minnesota Track Team Captain Enjoys Brief Rest.

Eveleth, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Stanley Hill, captain of the University of Minnesota track team, left here this morning for his home at Minneapolis, after spending his Easter vacation week in making up a condition in underground surveying which he received last summer by attending the conference meet at Chicago. This condition has kept Hill out of intercollegiate track work so far this season. With the condition made up he is again eligible and will compete in all the meets from now on. As Hill is one of the fastest sprinters in the Middle West his eligibility again is very pleasing to followers of Minnesota athletics.

GRAND RAPIDS WEDDING.

Keewatin Man Is Married to Young Lady of County Seat.

Grand Rapids, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—At 9 o'clock yesterday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Kremer, was celebrated the marriage of Miss Erma May Kremer, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kremer, to William Lloyd Johnson of Keewatin.

The ceremony, which was a pretty ring service and which was performed by Rev. J. J. Parish of the Methodist church, took place on the parlors of the Kremer home, where an arch had been constructed under which the bridal pair met, the bride on the arm of her father, and the groom unattended. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white marquisette over white satin, and carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Only the members of the girls' club of which Miss Kremer was a member, and the immediate relatives were present at the ceremony which was a very quiet one. After the ceremony, the couple started by automobile to the train for their wedding journey which will include a trip to the Twin Cities and other points.

CHISHOLM WOMAN DIES.

Mrs. Julaski, Wife of Chisholm Mine Man, Is Called.

Chisholm, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. J. Julaski, wife of the foreman in the machine shops of the Shenango mine, died Wednesday night in the hospital in Hibbing, from blood poisoning. She had been ill but a short time. Her remains were taken to the home.

Deceased was about 25 years old and leaves besides her husband, three small children, the youngest being a little over 1 year old.

PREPARING TO SHIP.

Hawkins Mine at Nashwauk Will Soon Be Sending Down Ore.

Nashwauk, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Hawkins mine which has been closed all winter is being placed in shape to begin shipping ore.

The men are getting the tracks to the pit into shape for steam shovels. The force will be increased as fast as the work progresses.

The Pearson mine is also expected to open within the next week. This property was closed last August, all of the men being laid off. The Pearson is an underground proposition and when the water is pumped out a force of 100 men will be employed.

GILBERT NEWS NOTES.

Gilbert, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Ed. Traedwell is remodeling his residence on West Michigan avenue. He has raised it to two stories and is making other improvements.

Carl Swedberg has his new residence on Wisconsin avenue west about completed and expects to move his family into it in the near future.

A miner at the Schley mine was taken out unconscious Monday evening, he having inhaled gas from a powder explosion.

SOON START STRIPPING.

At the New Virginia Property Near to Eveleth.

Eveleth, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Work will soon be started at the new Virginia mine stripping by Winston Bros. & Deaf company. The contractors believe they will be able to complete their work in three months. The Virginia Mine company, which started mining operations at the property last year, will resume work soon. Larger crews will be used than last year, and day and night shifts employed.

No word has as yet been received relative to the opening of the shipping season, but it is thought that shipping operations will be started early next month.

A new pumphouse has been installed at the 350-foot level of the steel shaft that is being sunk at the Leonidas mine. Another pumphouse will be installed, when the level at which mining operations will be started is reached. It was originally planned to sink the shaft 620 feet, but mining operations will be started at a higher level, between 500 and 600 feet below the surface. The shaft may be sunk to the original depth within a few years.

MRS. WEAVER'S FUNERAL HELD

Body of Two Harbors Woman Taken to Osage, Iowa, for Interment.

Two Harbors, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mrs. Mary Weaver died Wednesday evening of cancer of the stomach from which she had suffered for more than a year. Mrs. Weaver was born in Binghampton, N. Y., 44 years ago, moving to Osage, Iowa, with her parents. She was married to G. D. Weaver and for a time lived in Fargo, N. D. Her husband was an engineer on the D. & I. R. and was killed May 23, 1896. Deceased leaves one sister, Mrs. Ida Kenyon of Waterloo, Iowa, and a daughter, Mrs. Jessie Towne of this city and two stepchildren, Mrs. Jay Bryan of Chicago and Charles Weaver of St. Paul. Her mother died here several years ago and her father passed away only last December. Last spring, Mrs. Weaver underwent an operation for cancer at the Mayo hospital in Rochester. She recovered and continued her work in the local postoffice up to a couple of weeks ago. She had worked in the local postoffice for several years.

The remains were taken to Osage, Iowa, her former home for interment, being taken on the afternoon train Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. James Towne accompanied the remains to attend the funeral.

The funeral services here took place yesterday afternoon at the family residence Rev. T. Stanley Oadams of the First Methodist church delievered a short but impressive discourse. There was a very large gathering of the friends of the deceased, who for years has been a familiar official in the local postoffice.

Gillon, Charles Cotter, E. A. Daniels and F. F. James. The service was Episcopalian, though held in the Presbyterian church.

FINAL DEBATE NEXT FRIDAY

Two Harbors Team Will Then Meet Humboldt St. Paul High at Minneapolis.

Two Harbors, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—The next and last debate to decide the championship of the state will be held at Minneapolis on April 21. The Two Harbors team, composed of Edwin Strand, Leroy Pegelow and Carl Olson, will have the negative side of the city commission question, and the Humboldt high school team of St. Paul, composed of Abraham Levin, Arthur Hawkins and Virgil Peters will have the affirmative. The debating team of the Humboldt high school defeated the debaters from the Farmington high school in a debate held March 18. The state championship debate will be held at the state university. It is resolved, That the Cities of Minnesota Should Adopt a Commission Form of Government" will be the topic for debate. Both teams have been victorious several times, the local team having debated only on the negative side, and it is expected the contest will be keen, the two trios being regarded as even opponents. The Humboldt high school is the only institution in the Twin Cities that entered the state league.

The trophy for the winners of the coming contest is a magnificent silver cup. Miss Mark is the coach for the local team, while the St. Paul debaters are being drilled by Miss E. S. Graves.

Hibbing Jewish Services.

Hibbing, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Jewish residents are holding their annual passover services, the first taking place on Wednesday, and lasting for a week. On account of there being no synagogue in Hibbing the services are held at the residences of the different members, and all are well attended.

problem by bringing labor and capital together on some equitable basis, so that the wastes of litigation may be eliminated. The failure of such legislation at this session is largely due to the fact that employers and employes have locked horns, and nobody has been able to propose anything acceptable to both.

"This is one of the most important matters confronting the legislature," said Senator Rockne this morning, "and I believe it can be settled as well this way as any way. The members of the committee should serve without pay, and there need be no expense to the state. No trip to Europe will be needed, as the committee can get together such facts as have been gathered and can get any additional information by sending for it. By meeting two or three times a year in the two years intervening before the next session, and by getting representatives of labor and capital together to talk things over, I see no reason why a scheme of legislation cannot be worked out that can be passed in 1913."

Will Come to Lum's Aid.

Representative C. H. Warner of Aitkin has prepared a joint resolution which will be introduced by him in the house tomorrow, requesting the railroad and warehouse commission to take up L. E. Lum's petition for a reduction in iron ore freight rates on the Great Northern from Grand Rapids to Superior. Mr. Lum asked the commission to prosecute his case for him, but the commission held that the matter is not of sufficient public importance to the state to warrant it in acting without the specific request of the legislature, and a provision of sufficient money to handle the cases.

For Burned Out Districts.

Representative O'Neill of Thief River Falls this morning succeeded in getting the senate finance committee to agree to an appropriation of $5,000 to help rebuild schools in the burned-out districts of the border. His bill as it passed the house provided for $15,000, but the senate committee recommended it for defeat. Mr. O'Neill took it up with the committee this morning and succeeded in getting an allowance of $5,000, which the legislature will doubtless adopt.

Distance Tariff Bill.

The Crane distance tariff bill, which Speaker Dunn hammered through the house Wednesday, is not only slated for failure in the senate because of the nearness of final adjournment but the senate committee on railorads, because of the fact that passage of the bill would nullify the state's pending rate cases, will recommend it for defeat.

St. Louis County Bills.

The only remaining local bills from St. Louis county are all favorably located, and there is no doubt that all of them will be passed. The range court bill has passed the house and will be reached soon in the senate. The same thing is true of the two Congdon house bills regulating the finance of the Duluth school district. The Cheadle-Ribenack bill allowing several range high schools to receive state aid is favorably slated in both houses, and is likely to be reached. The public dock site bill has passed the senate and will pass the house. The bill allowing Duluth to issue $100,000 in bonds for dock purposes will not be far behind it, having already passed the senate.

come the presence of the militia, preferring the soldiers to the imported special officers. The latter left the city early today.

At a great union rally held last evening the most vehement protests were made against the actions of the special officers, who in disturbances at the factories yesterday afternoon used their clubs. Several innocent bystanders were injured, among them a little girl, who was caught in the crush when the special officers cleared the streets. The report that the child was dying added to the anger of the surging crowds last night.

Labor Commissioner to Scene.

Des Moines, Iowa, April 14.—State Labor Commissioner Van Duyn left early today for Muscatine, called by the strike riots among the button workers. A. T. Urick, president of the Iowa Federation of Labor, after a conference with Governor Carroll, announced that he leaves for uscatine at noon. Maj. George Ball of Iowa City has been placed in charge of the four companies of Iowa militia now assembling at Muscatine.

Four companies of the Iowa National Guard were ordered to Muscatine early today by Governor Carroll and Adjutant General Guy A. Logan to stop the riots among the striking button workers. The companies ordered out are those of Muscatine, Davenport, Iowa City and Washington. Adjutant General Logan left for Muscatine at an early hour to take charge of the situation.

Davenport Company Leaves.

Davenport, Iowa, April 14.—Thirty-five members of Co. B, Iowa National Guard, left this morning for Muscatine to go on strike duty. Capt. Evers received the order from the adjutant general during the night, following a labor disturbance. All necessary supplies for camping were taken.

ENGINEER HELD FOR PASSING BAD CHECK.

E. J. McDonough, an engineer, was arrested yesterday on a charge of obtaining money by false pretenses. It is alleged that he passed a check signed by himself and drawn on a Brainerd bank for $5 on George Larsen, a Superior street saloon keeper. It is claimed that the check was returned with the statement that he had no funds in the bank. He was arraigned in police court on a charge of petit larceny. He entered a plea of not guilty and his trial was set for next Tuesday morning. Bail was fixed at $100.

WOMAN'S REALM.

The work being carried on at the Neighborhood house in the West end by the philanthropy department of the Twentieth Century club has grown so rapidly and has broadened out so that larger quarters than the ones now occupied at 2423 West Superior street, will have to be provided. The quarters now provided are inadequate to the needs of the hundreds of boys and girls who are waiting to become members of the various club and classes conducted under this work. To provide for the maintenance of the enterprise and to add some very necessary equipment, a series of benefits has been planned, and all of the proceeds will go to the Neighborhood house fund.

Next Wednesday evening an entertainment of varied numbers will be given for this purpose at the gymnasium of the Y. M. C. A., commencing at 8 o'clock. One of the numbers on this program will be made up of numbers given by the Daniel Boone boys and the rest of the program will be made up of numbers by an orchestra, vocal solos, readings, trained animals, a game by some boys from the Junior Y. M. C. A. and a basketball game by some young women from the Y. W. C. A.

On April 28 and 29 and May 1, a course of lectures by Dr. Nathaniel I. Rubinkam will be given, the proceeds from which will go to the same fund. The first two lectures will be afternoon lectures and will be on "Tennyson and Darwin," and "Jose Echegaray and the Great Goieotto." The third lecture, which will be on "Maeterlinck and the Blue Bird," will be given on the evening of Monday, May 1.

Some of the women interested in the work have also planned for a rummage sale, one of the popular means of raising money for the benefit of the same fund. This sale will be held on Friday of next week, April 20, in the Old Herald building on West Superior street. The public is asked to assist in all of these enterprises.

The Neighborhood house was established by the Twentieth Century club three years ago when it was little more than a small club for boys, but the work has grown so steadily and with such rapidity that now there are several boys clubs, viz: "Daniel Boone Boys," "Lincoln Literary club," "Knights of the Round Table," and "The Twentieth Century Boys." Miss Jean Polrier, Miss Mary Paine and Miss Julia Morrow are in charge of the boys' clubs, directing their work and play and attending their meetings. Mrs. W. G. Bonham is general chairman of this department of the club work.

Mrs. C. P. Catlin is the head of the sewing school which is conducted for the girls there, numbering about 150 girls of all ages over 8 years. These classes have been of a most beneficial nature to the girls. Great care is given to the cutting of garments and the best methods of putting them togeher. This is a most material aid to the young girls, as under this instruction they are able to make, at home many useful garments.

The boys clubs have their plays, debates and talks on general subjects of importance and they also have gymnastic exercises, games, etc. The girls have a literary meeting every Friday afternoon when they listen to readings and talks on interesting topics.

The Neighborhood house is Duluth's beginning in what is termed "Settlement Work" in cities and while the growth of such enterprises is of necessity slow, its worth has been demonstrated in every city in which such enterprises exist. A splendid example is the well known "Hull House," in Chicago, founded and fostered by Miss Jane Addams. This house, not many years ago was but a small club, but today it has grown so that its influence is felt over the whole of the country.

Society Entertained.

The members of the Adelphia society were entertained last evening at the home of Mrs. M. L. Olander, 1019 North Fifty-ninth avenue west. A musical program was given and games were played. There were twenty present.

Tea for Visitor.

Mrs. Edward Cook Bradley was hostess at an informal afternoon tea this afternoon at her home, 1922 East Fourth street in compliment to Miss Miller of St. Paul, who is the guest of Miss Sophie St. Clair. About fifteen guests were entertained.

MAY BE BRIDE OF JOHN JACOB ASTOR

MADELINE FORCE.

Ever since his divorce from Ava Willing Astor, rumor has been busy associating the name of John Jacob Astor with those of some of the prettiest women in society. Rumor will not admit the possibility of Mr. Astor remaining single. The latest rumor says that he is very attentive to Miss Madeline Force. Miss Force is one of two sisters who are noted society beauties. Katherine is the older and Madeline has just made her debut. They are the daughters of William H. Force and their mother was Katherine Talmage.

Four Tables of Bridge.

Miss Nellie McFadden, who is home from the University of Minnesota, was the guest of honor at a bridge party given last evening by Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. McFadden of Lakeside. Four tables were used for the game and red carnations were the flowers.

Saturday Club Program.

The Saturday club will meet tomorrow afternoon at the clubroom in the library and the final French history program of the year will be given under the leadership of Mrs. Mann. There will be a general discussion on the following subject: "Does the Present Republic Give Promise of Permanency?"

The current events discussion will be based on individual topics.

This program will be followed by a social hour.

Pattinson-Rees.

The wedding of Miss Gladys Rees, daughter of Mrs. Stephen G. Rees, to Chauncey Ray Pattinson took place this morning at the manse of the Pilgrim Congregational church. Rev. Alexander Milne read the service at 8:15, after which Mr. and Mrs. Pattinson left for a wedding trip to Montana, where Miss Rees' relatives live. They will be gone about three weeks and upon their return will be at home at 1218 East Fifth street, May 15.

Mr. Pattinson has been connected with the water and light department of the city for several years.

Miss Sherwood and Arthur Kreitter were the attendants at the wedding. The bride was married in her traveling suit.

KINDERGARTNER COMING.

Will Give Talks in Duluth and Superior.

Miss Harriet M. Mills of the New York Kindergarten Training school will come to the Twin Ports next week and will give a series of eight talks on the work under the auspices of the Duluth-Superior branch of the International Kindergarten union. Four of the talks will be given in Duluth and the other four in Superior. Miss Jennie Davis of Superior, president of this branch, will be at the head of the arrangement committee.

MARRIED IN DULUTH.

Eveleth People Steal a March on Their Friends.

Eveleth, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—It is reported here that Arthur M. Cannon, principal of the high school, and Miss Olive Pfiffner, a teacher in the Spruce school, were married at Duluth Tuesday, by Rev. J. H. Hanscom of the Methodist Episcopal church. It is known that they secured a marriage license in the Zenith City, and that Rev. Mr. Hanscom was also in Duluth Tuesday, to meet his wife and children who were en route from their old home in Maine.

It was believed here that the two were going to their separate homes to spend the Easter vacation, but stole a march on their friends. Mr. Cannon is a graduate of De Pauw university and has taught school in Illinois for a number foy ears, coming from that state to accept the position as principal here last September. Miss Pfiffner is very well known here, having taught school in this city for some time.

A marriage license was issued to Mr. Cannon and Miss Pfiffner on Tuesday and it is believed that they were married in this city, although the ceremony did not take place at any of the local hotels.

THE EVENING STORY

OFF THE TRAIL

By Romain Johnson.

A hardy youngster was Francisco Carrarego, and though handicapped with a withered leg he could do what other youngsters could not do with their full complement of limbs. He was a Spanish boy, and, with his brothers and sisters, was reared among the mountains.

One day Francisco and his brother, Joseph, were sent off on an errand to a neighboring town on the other side of the mountains. Joseph rode Blanco, an animal which had been on the ranch for years.

Though nervous, Blanco was frightened by one thing only—a coyote. Francisco, carrying his crutch crosswise between his body and the saddle horn, was on a scraggy old mare called Chivo, steady as a clock, but prone to wander off after green grass at every opportunity.

Over the first few miles the horses picked their way with ease. Their troubles began in the bit of trail crossing the bottom of a canon.

"We had better take the upper trail!" called Francisco, in warning. "It's longer, but its safer."

"We'll make this all right!" shouted Joseph. Just then Blanco slipped, and one hind foot dug deep into the loose slate.

Joseph threw his weight forward, and the horse, by merely standing still, kept his balance and regained his foothold.

"Go on!" yelled Joseph, exasperated. Although Blanco trembled with fear of being struck, he did not jump. He knew more about crossing the place than did Joseph.

Slowly lifting one hoof, then another, he was half to the firm trail beyond the dangerous break when, fifty yards above them, at the edge of the shale, a frightened coyote shot from a clump of sage brush and started for the top of the hill.

But his hind feet flew from under him, and he rolled head over heels.

Blanco saw him coming. He gave one wild snort of dismay and tried to wheel. His legs sank to the knee in rattling, moving shale.

Joseph, terrified, could do nothing. The coyote still whirling toward him, Blanco in his frenzy lunged backward and went over.

Chivo, a few yards away, was not to be frightened by a mere coyote, but as Blanco sheeled in the shale, a shower of tiny slate flew over Chivo, and a sharp piece struck her a maddening blow in one eye.

Up went her head as she plunged frantically. Her hind hoofs landed off the trail in the treacherous shale. She struggled to keep her footing.

In the quick space of time that measures periods in emergencies, Francisco grasped that it was his weight that kept her from regaining the trail. He jumped, instinctively seizing the crutch as he left the saddle.

He landed forty feet below. His sound leg was jammed beneath him into the loose stones, and the momentum of his body hurled him downward. On his back he slid head first to the bottom, carrying a small landslide with him. His shoulders were thrust into a sage brush.

The first sensation that came to Francisco was a terrible pain in his hitherto good ankle.

The cry of a horse reached Francisco's ears as he sat up half dazed and half blinded. He saw Blanco, kicking and struggling turn a back somersault and land on his feet at the edge of a thicket, into which he was shot headlong by the force of the whirl down the hillside.

What of Joseph?

As he saw Blanco wheel and felt him going backward, Joseph kicked his feet from the stirrups and let go. He could do no more, and lucky, indeed, was he that he could do that much.

He fell into the shale, and Blanco crashed down beside him, back downward. A flying stirrup caught Joseph between the eyes and limp, as if lifeless, he rolled and was brought up at the foot of the hill a few yards from Francisco.

The crippled boy crawled to Joseph, who lay with his face in the grass, his head hidden by his arms, his legs sprawled helplessly.

"Joseph, Joseph!" called Francisco, as he pulled the boy over on his back. Francisco groaned and lay still, blood running from his nose.

In consternation, Francisco sat up and looked around him. He was too much of a mountaineer to cry his eyes out as long as there was anything undone that could be done. There was no likelihood that any one would pass that way, and Francisco saw that if anything was to be done for Joseph he must do it.

Blanco, fighting his way through the thicket, had torn off down the ravine and was far out of sight. Francisco could see Chivo quietly eating grass on the hill at the turn of the point near the beginning of the shale.

Crawling for his crutch, Francisco used it to help drag himself to a pool of water against a boulder, and when he drank he felt better. He took some water in his hat, and pulling the hat along beside him, he got back and poured the water into Joseph's mouth, and Joseph gave a sigh.

Chivo at the edge of the hill was looking thoughtfully down at Francisco as she continued her feeding.

Francisco had to climb that sliding mass of slate or lie where he was and see Joseph die.

At last he reached the top, tired out, weak, his clothes worn to shreds, his elbows and knee raw and his arms aching as if they had been beaten.

Chivo was still feeding. Used to the antics of the children at play stalking Indians, she seemed not at all frightened when Francisco came toward her, crawling along on hands and knee.

"Chivo old horse!" pleaded Francisco, reassuringly. He got his tired fingers on the reins, dragging over one side of the mare's neck, but to the boy the grasping of those reins lifted for a minute the largest burden he had ever carried.

Painfully Francisco made his way along the trail. The ankle now swollen into a misshapen bundle, could have hurt him no more had it been thrust into fire.

The long exertion and the pain were beginning to make the boy dizzy, and a terrible weakness had long since taken possession of his stomach. Every muscle called for rest, and the boy had to fight the inclination of weakness to sink his hot face in the green grass and close his aching eyes. But yard after yard he made his way.

The trail circled downward hugging the hillside, and Chivo followed easily in the beaten path. When he had found a small point of rocks jutting close alongside the horse, Francisco clambered upward to the top, clinging to the grass and small brush, the reins still in his teeth.

From the rocks he reached the horn of the saddle with one hand and the cantle with the other. His hands quivered as his enfeebled fingers closed on their hold. He nerved himself for his effort. With one jerk of his arms, Francisco had his head and shoulders over the seat. Quickly he got astride, tossed the reins over Chivo's ears and hurried her gait. His spirits began to rise. He was making for home.

But he was too close to exhaustion for his exultation to last long. The sun on his bare head was, he thought, responsible for the strange trembling and dimness of the landscape before his eyes. He shook his head vigorously to dispel the impression, and the very earnestness of his thought that he must keep his senses to save Joseph seemed to ward off approaching dizziness.

Senor Cassarego came running out of the stable on hearing the clatter of an approaching horse. It was a pain-racked boy that he lifted from the saddle and into the house. Leaving him in charge of his mother, on hearing of Joseph's helplessness and injury, Cassarego jumped into the saddle and gave Chivo the run of her life back to the shale hill. He left her panting at the point where Francisco had reached her after his terrible journey up the incline.

At the bottom of the hill he saw Joseph sprawled out and still. Senor Cassarego would not venture the shortest route, down through the shale, so he made a detour through the brush, crossed the ravine, and in a few minutes was kneeling beside Joseph, who was just regaining consciousness.

Feeling from bone to bone, Senor Cassarego decided there was none broken. "Only stunned!" he cried. He used his hat to carry water to the injured boy. Then Joseph whispered: "Francisco, where is Francisco? Is he hurt?"

"No, not badly, considering what it might have been."

Hearing the whinney of Blanco far down the canyon, Senor Cassarego went after the horse, which he found standing in the brush, bleeding from numerous small cuts, the saddle torn and twisted. The man loosened the girths, straightened the blanket and saddle and led the animal to the place where Joseph was sitting up, feeling fit for the journey home.

Senor Cassarego lifted the boy in his strong arms and placed him in the saddle. He was starting on a wide detour for the trail above, when he said: "I wonder how in the world Francisco got out of this?"

WEST END HOUSE IS SCORCHED

Fire of unknown origin this morning damaged the residence of Alex McDonald at 1015 West Fourth street, to the extent of about $1,000. The roof was burned out, causing a loss of approximately $800 on the building. The furniture of W. H. Garvey, who occupied the upstairs, was almost completely destroyed, causing a loss of about $600. The furniture of Mr. McDonald, who resided downstairs, was damaged approximately $200 by water and smoke. The losses are partly covered by insurance. The blaze broke out in the rear of the building, and because of the high wind gave the firemen a hard battle. It was with difficulty that they prevented the property from being a total loss.

ALCOHOLIC POISONING

Causes Morbid Craving and Unnatural Desire for Strong Drink.

PERFECT CURE DISCOVERED.

A Harmless Vegetable Remedy That Cures in 3 Days.—No Failures.

There are few who become addicted to drink who, in their sober moments do not resolve to reform. They realize that they are on the downward road. They have gone far enough to know that it is no primrose path. They realize that to the drinker comes loss of employment, loss of reputation, loss of substance, loss of character, loss of the respect of friends and loss of self-respect. They know that the man who is a slave to his appetite for stimulants brings disgrace to his friends, poverty and privation to his family and ultimately degenerates into the bar room "bum" where no worse fate awaits him. When a man realizes that he is on the downward grade it's time for him to stop, and he knows it. But when he tries to he finds that he can't. The craving for liquor has mastered him, and if no helping hand is held out to him ninety-nine times out a hundred he goes from bad to worse. What these men need is something that will destroy the craving for drink which they find themselves unable to resist. This is what the Neal Cure will do. It is the antidote to the appetite for strong drink. It destroys it. It takes it away entirely. In fact, an aversion and distaste for liquor takes its place. By taking the Neal Cure, even the habitual drunkard becomes again his own master. The cure is simple. It requires only three days. It is absolutely effective and absolutely harmless. It involves no considerable loss of time. No hypodermic injections are given and no powerful or poisonous drugs are used. There are no bad after-effects. Every patient receives a plain contract agreeing to effect a perfect cure in three days—and to the entire satisfaction of the patient—or the return of the full fee paid at end of third day. If you are afflicted with the drink habit and really want to be freed, or if you are interested in a friend or relative who needs treatment, write to the Neal Institute Co., corner Belknap and Seventh streets, Superior, Wis., for their free booklet giving full information and a copy of their contract. It will be mailed to you under a plain sealed envelope and everything will be strictly confidential. You can be treated at the Superior Institute, or at St. Paul, Minn., Institute, 676 Dayton avenue, or the Minneapolis, Minn., Institute, corner Fourth avenue south and Seventh street, whichever happens to be the most convenient to you.

SPEAKS IN OWN BEHALF

Judge Cowan Reviews Charges and Pleads Not Guilty to Each.

Says That Impeachment Proceedings Are Result of Politics.

Bismarck, N. D., April 14.—Although the court had limited the time for the opening arguments in the Cowan impeachment case to three hours, the accused judge occupied the entire day in presenting his case. Judge Cowan reviewed every charge brought against him and pleaded not guilty to each specification. The senate gallery was packed with people from all parts of the state.

It was not a case of an ordinary nature, he said, but one in which momentous consequences must be suffered in the event of conviction. "It is strictly and purely criminal in every sense," he said, "and is so recognized by all authorities on the question. Impeachment is an act not far removed from the days of barbarism, and this is the first and last case North Dakota will ever have."

He predicted that when the history of this action is written the people of the state will demand a change in the Constitution and eliminate such procedure. "Ninety-nine out of a hundred impeachments are due to political movements," he said, "and such is the case here. I was not impeached by a cool and deliberative body, as a grand jury should be." The house of representatives, he said, was carried from its feet by carefully manufactured indignation meetings at four points, brought on by preconceived motives.

ARTHUR S. NETCHER

Will Fight to Last Ditch.

His faith in the senate, he declared, was full and complete. Public sentiment, which he said was even now being worked up in an effort to convict, would not be allowed to stand in the way of justice being done.

On the question of why he should fight the case, so often asked of him, Cowan declared that it was a fight for his honor, for his wife, his two boys and his two girls. For their sake he would fight to the last ditch.

The first charge, that of habitual drunkenness, was passed over rapidly, Cowan offering himself as exhibit No. 1 to disprove that charge. He then took up the specifications under the second charge, numbering eighteen, which he characterized as "standard drunks," following with unspecified drunks.

The charge that he had been intoxicated in Rugby on June 18, 1909, he said, would be met with evidence showing that the witnesses testifying for the prosecution were mistaken. The prosecution contended that he was drunk that day in the hotel, on the streets and in the courtroom, but evidence for the defense, he said, would show that he had retired to his room the evening before, which was exceedingly hot, and that he laid restless upon his bed for many hours. Hearing groans from another room he investigated and found a friend who was ill. He called a physician and remained with his friend the rest of the night, going to the courtroom at 8:30 a. m., and holding court. This was the affair testified to by Rex and Campbell.

The charge that he had slept in the courtroom would be disproved by evidence showing that it was a habit with him to sit for long periods with his eyes closed for the purpose of resting them.

W. C. T. U. Members to Testify.

As to the charge that he had been drunk during the trial of the Slaven's case in Rugby, in January, 1910, he said witnesses would be produced, who would refute such evidence without any modification, one of the witnesses to be called being the woman who attended the trial. This woman, he said, was one of the leaders of the North Dakota W. C. T. U., in whose word the court must place every confidence.

Cowan referred to the board of managers as a mountain laboring to bring forth a mouse and stated that the evidence of witnesses that he was "awful drunk" must be so if he really hugged Rex. This caused a roar of laughter. Cowan told of his doings and comings on the day in question and stated he would bring witnesses to prove he was not intoxicated and was in full possession of his faculties and transacted a large amount of business.

As to the time he was alleged to have been drunk on the Chatauqua grounds at Devils Lake, Cowan said it was a falsehood and he would bring witnesses in plenty to prove it such. As to the singing fest in the Vanderhoff hotel, Cowan said it was not a fact and that while he considered himself somewhat of a singer, he did not think he was in the classical class, but sometimes sang for the benefit of a small company of friends.

Specification eight, in which it is alleged that he was drunk and that Flynn was with him, Cowan said would be disproved by the testimony of James Stinson, who was present.

Explains Court Adjournment.

Specifications nine and ten, which were testified to by George Hancock of Fargo, were explained by the statement that at the time the case was alleged to have been postponed on account of the drunkenness of the judge, the druggists' convention was in Devils Lake and court was adjourned so that the jurors and attorneys might meet the delegates. The judge gave as a cause for the animus of Hancock the fact that the case in Cowan's court had gone against him. He charged Traynor with having fixed up the testimony before Hancock went on the stand. He made fun of the "dribbling" incident, and said that Traynor had not noticed it, but that Hancock had done so. Had he been "dribbling drunk," whatever that is, Traynor would certainly have noticed and testified to it.

Roast for Brennan.

The most scathing arraignment of the forenoon was that of D. Y. Brennan. Judge Cowan, in referring to the testimony of Brennan, tending to show a proposal by Cowan of a political combination with Brennan, called attention to the statement of Brennan that the purification of Devils Lake depended on the running out of Cowan and his friends. The roast for Brennan was ended by a fervent prayer that no other boys might have the same bringing up and career as "this boy."

The Devils Lake postoffice incident, testified to by Rev. A. W. Burr, would be disproved, he said. The incident of Oct. 31, when it was said he was drunk in the courtroom at Devils Lake, would be left to Assistant Attorney General Zurger to say whether or not he was intoxicated. This was testified to by Mr. and Mrs. Godward and Mrs. Hopkins.

James Fitzgerald's evidence, that the judge had slept in the Gordon livery barn, would be shown up, Cowan saying that he was not in the habit of rooming and boarding in livery barns.

The accused took occasion to score the board of managers for failing to charge against him the offense of frequenting houses of ill repute, a charge that was made against him in the newspapers when he was before the house of representatives, declaring that the managers did not have the manhood to present this charge that he might clear himself.

Restorative Treatment for Nervous Men.

Coming from a source of unquestioned authority on the ailments of men it is presumed to be infallible, while the profession generally endorse the ingredients and prescribe them in many different forms of various diseases. The following formula is highly efficient in quickly restoring in nervous exhaustion, melancholia, anxiety, timidity in venturing, dizziness, heart palpitation, trembling limbs, insomnia, thinness, cold extremities, tired-all-in feeling and general inability to do those natural and rational acts upon which depends a man's success and happiness in social and every-day life.

The instructions for mixing at home secretly so that no embarrassment may be felt, are as follows: First, get three ounces of syrup sarsaparilla compound and one ounce compound fluid balmwort: mix and let stand two hours. Then add one ounce compound essence cardiol and one ounce tincture cadomene compound (not cardamom), and mix all together. The directions are to take one teaspoonful after each meal and one when retiring, until bounding health and full strength are restored. Even a few weeks will witness most wonderful results.

Astonishing nervous force and equilibrium follow the treatment, no matter how serious the case.

This contains no opiates whatsoever and may also be used by women who suffer with their nerves with absolute certainty of prompt and lasting benefits.

GIVES $300,000 ON BIRTHDAY

Dr. Daniel K. Pearsons of Chicago Now Ninety-One Years Old.

Chicago, April 14.—Dr. Daniel K. Pearsons, the Chicago philanthropist, whose benefactions to various colleges and benevolent institutions have exceeded $6,000,000, celebrated his 91st birthday today, and marked the occasion by the distribution of $300,000 more.

A dozen educators and intimate friends dined with him at the Hinsdale sanatorium, Hinsdale, Ill., where he has been staying during the winter months. Dr. Pearsons then discharged the last of his "debts"—promises of aid to colleges made by him. He is hale and hearty, in better health than he has been at any time for a year.

Dr. Pearsons' gifts today include the following: Berea college, Kentucky, $100,000; American Board of Foreign Missions, $100,000; Doane college, Nebraska, $75,000; McKendree college, Lebanon, Ill., $10,000. He will also give an endowment fund for the aid of students at Montpelier seminary in Vermont, the amount of which he has not yet determined.

Dr. D. K. Pearsons has contributed by word of mouth to his physician in Hinsdale from week to week some philosophy on right living. Here is some of it:

"When I sit down to a meal I always say to myself: 'Fret not thy gizzard.'

"I drink buttermilk and eat graham bread, baked apples and fresh vegetables.

"I chew my food carefully.

"I never go out evenings to supper because I'm afaaid I'll eat something that will keep me awake nights.

"I eat my meals regularly.

"Hardly any meat passes my lips.

"I go to bed at 7 p. m. and sleep until 7 a. m.

"I sold my horse so I should have to walk.

"I believe in being anointed with oil, so once a week I have somebody rub me with it.

"I don't worry and I never spent $20 foolishly in my life.

"I have lived in Chicago thirty years, but I never went to a theater but once in my life.

"I never spent any time reading novels, and I never want to have anything to do with them.

"I say the same for saloons and fast company."

Escanaba Grocer Arrested.

Escanaba, Mich., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Alfred Nelson, grocer, who failed a few days ago has been arrested on complaint of Joannes Bros. of Green Bay on the charge of being a fraudulent debtor.

A complete settlement has been effected with the insuarnce adjuster by M. A. Burns and Patrick Finnegan for the loss sustained in the recent fire. Mr. Burns has sold the entire stock of damaged goods to a salvage company in Chicago.

FUGITIVE FROM SUPERIOR CAUGHT.

William Putz was arrested on the Bowery late last night as he stepped from a Duluth-Superior street car and booked at headquarters as a fugitive wanted at Superior for larceny. It is alleged that he stole a quantity of silverware across the bay. The arrest was made in response to a telephone call from the Superior police. Putz is said to have admitted his guilt and to have told the police that the stolen goods were left by him in a Superior saloon on Third street. He was taken back to Superior today.

WILL NOT REMOVE WARDEN RUSSELL

Governor Osborn Will Ignore Action of House of Representatives.

Detroit, Mich., April 14.—A Detroit Journal special from Lansing quotes Governor Osborn saying that he will not ask for the resignation of Warden James Russell and the board of control of the state prison at Marquette, as directed by the minority report of the house of representatives prison investigating committee adopted by the house early today, 55 to 29.

"I hav known Warden Russell for twenty-five years and the members of the board of control nearly that long," said Governor Osborn, "and I have been at Marquette prison a score of times. I think I know more about conditions there than a few legislators who spent a few days at the prison investigating."

It is understood that the governor may appoint a citizens' committee to investigate the entire matter.

GIANTS WILL PLAY ON BORROWED FIELD.

New York, April 14.—This afternoon President Lynch of the National league, sent telegrams to the various clubs asking if they objected to the New York club playing either on the Brooklyn grounds or at the American league park. President Lynch explained that he believed that there would be no opposition to this plan but that the constitution of the league required the consent of three-fourths of the clubs to allow the switching of games. He added that the majority of the games probably would be played on the American league team's field, as the Brooklyn club would be using its grounds on most of the New York National club's home dates.

Easter's Choicest Millinery At This Store

The women of Duluth are quick to welcome the new modes, and this store has set a new standard for artistic scope and reasonable prices. You will find here all the variety and elegance of the most exclusive millinery in such varieties and moderation of prices that are without precedent. Public approval has been most enthusiastic, and our sales are naturally greater than our expectations. The Fashions shown in new models at $3.50, $5, $7.50, $10 and $12.50 have met with the most cordial reception by the public, reflecting, as they do, the latest things in fashion at almost one-half what others ask.

Exquisite new Hats are shown tomorrow for the first time. Select your Easter Hat here tomorrow.

BATTLE WAS BLOODY ONE

Eno Selkamaa and John Makl, the two men who engaged in a bloody battle in the American saloon on Lake avenue south yesterday afternoon, entered pleas of not guilty to disorderly conduct when arraigned in police court yesterday afternoon. Their trials were set for next Tuesday afternoon.

Both men were terribly beaten and slashed. Selkamaa, who is the bartender, had his head cut open and his face slashed open, while Makl, who runs a restaurant in the rear of the saloon, had his lip split open, his eyes closed and the sides of his head cut and bruised.

Following a quarrel over the price that a drunken man should pay for a chair which he broke in the restaurant, Maki hit Selkamaa over the head with a beer bottle, smashing the bottle. With the neck of the bottle remaining in his hand he slashed the bartender's face. The bartender then went after Maki with his fists and feet, giving him a terrible beating. Sergeant Roberg and Patrolman John Link dashed into the place and separated the bloody combatants, placing them under arrest on charges of disorderly conduct. Both men were placed under the care of a physician, after which they were arraigned in police court.

BOY FOUND EASY MARK

Representing himself as a policeman, Frank Cullen, 17 years old, induced Hugh Cameron, a laborer, to hold his hands over his head while he rifled his pockets, securing $3 in cash.

It appears that the two men were together in a resort on East Superior street, Cameron stating that he went there to sleep on a couch in one of the rooms. Cameron said that he fell asleep, and that he awoke to find Cullen standing over him.

Demanding to know who he was and what he wanted, Cameron asserts that Cullen informed him that he was an officer and that he was going to search him. He let the boy go through his pockets and extract $3 which he had. Then he says that when he protested that he was "broke," the youth gave him back a dollar. The boy was unarmed and made no pretense at using force or threats, it is said.

When Cameron thought the matter over later he came to the conclusion that Cullen was a peculiar officer, and went to a policeman with his tale. The officer went to the place with him and placed Cullen under arrest on a charge of petit larceny. He entered a plea of guilty when arraigned with the grist in police court this morning. Judge Cutting continued the case until Monday morning for sentence in order to get a more complete report, particularly as to the boy's past record. Cullen said that he was drunk and that the liquor had been given to him by Cameron.

To Abolish Corporal Punishment.

Lansing, Mich., April 14.—By a vote of 73 to 8 the house of representatives today passed the Ogg bill prohibiting corporal punishment in the prisons of the state. The bill now goes to the senate.

Mechanical Skipping Rope.

One of the new devices for the summer amusement parks is a mechanical skipping rope, which swings when one steps on the platform. The more rapid one jumps the more rapid the rope swings, working just as the children do in their skipping games. The pastime is said to be very fatiguing for older people, who have not "skipped" for many years, and if you should try the new game, be sure to follow it with a tonic of golden grain belt beers, the pure muscle rester and tonic builder. Your dealer or duluth branch minneapolis brewing company will supply you.

Have Your Clothes Pressed Free.

If you buy your clothes at the "3 Winners," they will keep them pressed free for two years.

IN HOURLY FEAR OF ANOTHER BATTLE

Douglas, Ariz., April 14.—The citizens of Douglas are living in hourly fear of another battle across the line at Agua Prieta, which may result more disastrously to American noncombatants than the one of yesterday. Three hundred rebels are in full possession of Agua Prieta today and the port is closed. The Mexican federal troops are believed to be approaching Agua Prieta from the south, bringing with them machine guns for an assault upon the city.

Only One Railroad Open.

Eagle Pass, Tex., April 14.—The Laredo gateway is now the only railroad open from the United States to the interior of Mexico, rebels having cut off communication south of Ciudad Porfiro Diaz, burning six railroad bridges. This is the first serious disturbance in the state of Coahuila.

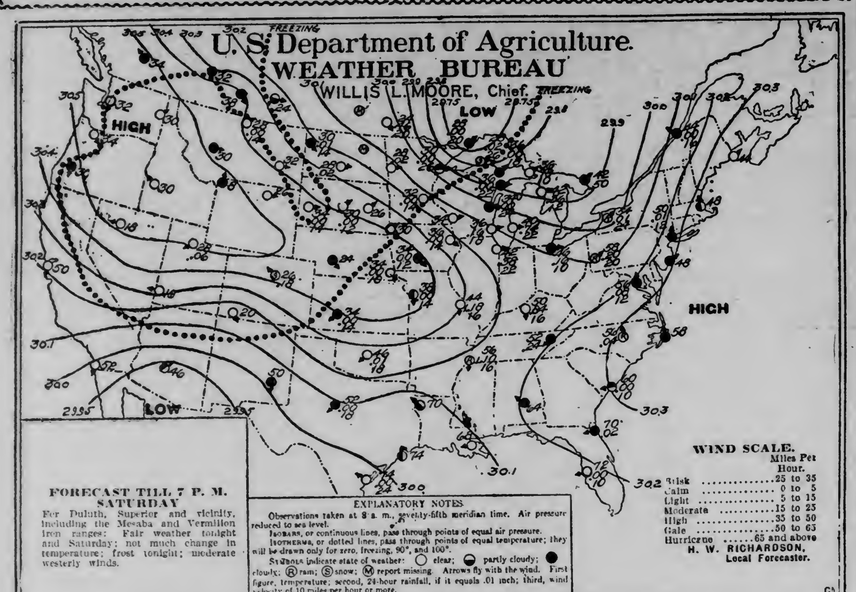
OFFICIAL MAP OF THE WEATHER



FAIR

The wind and low temperature made up a sharp combination last evening and the mercury dropped to 28 deg. at 7 o'clock this morning. Today is bright and fair, with a slight lingering touch of winter in the air. Another frost is predicted for tonight, but the weather man is inclined to be kind and promises warmer temperatures and fair weather for Easter Sunday.

Fair weather prevailed a year ago today, with rain in the evening.

The sun rose this morning at 5:22 and it will set at 6:55 this evening, giving thirteen hours and thirty-three minutes of sunlight.

Mr. Richardson makes the following comment on weather conditions:

"The central Canada depression caused further rains in the Lake region, Ohio and Middle Mississippi valley and Southeastern states, and snow fell over Northern Minnesota, North Dakota, Manitoba, Colorado and Northern Utah during the last twenty-four hours. Very heavy rains fell over Eastern Missouri, Southern Illinois and over parts of Indiana, Kentucky and Ohio. Somewhat cooler weather prevails from the Western Lake region southward over the Mississippi valley At the Head of the Lakes fair and cool weather will be the rule during the ensuing thirty-six hours, with an excellent prospect of frost tonight."

General Forecasts.

Chicago, April 14.—Forecasts for twenty-four hours ending at 7 p. m. Saturday:

Upper Michigan—Fair and cooler tonight, with freezing temperature, Saturday fair.

Wisconsin, Minnesota and Iowa—Fair tonight and Saturday; frost tonight.

North and South Dakota and Montana—Fair and continued cool tonight and Saturday.

Upper Lakes—Moderate west winds; fair tonight and Saturday; cooler tonight.

Shippers' forecast—Protect 36-hour shipments of perishables against temperature 25 to 30 deg. in the Eastern Dakotas, Minnesota, Wisconsin and the Michigan Copper country.

DENMAN THOMPSON OF "OLD HOMESTEAD" DIES

previous his father, Capt. Rufus Thompson, had left West Swanzey, which in later years this boy of the wilderness was to make a household word as the setting of the "Old Homestead."

At 14, Denman returned to West Swanzey and for three years worked with his father as a carpenter. When 17 he set out for Boston in search of employment and soon after joined Tyson's circus as a property boy and actor. The following winter he made his first stage appearance as a "supe" under Charlotte Cushman, who was playing in "Lady Macbeth" at the Howard Athenaem. Two years later, in Lowell, he had his first speaking part, and following this he went about the country playing Irish and negro sketches.

While traveling Thompson was taken ill with rheumatism and as he lay in bed in Pittsburg he thought out the sketch called "Joshua Whitcomb," which later developed into the "Old Homestead," and made him famous. At the Boston theater in 1886, "The Old Homestead" was first produced, and it has had a continual run since that time. Until a few years ago Mr. Thompson traveled constantly with the company but as the weight of years bore more heavily upon him he was obliged to give up all but the principal cities to an understudy and finally to quit altogether. During the winter of 1910 he created a short sketch modeled from a portion of the original "Joshua Whitcomb," which he played in vaudeville for two months.

This year the old fascination of the footlights returned, and early in the season he started out with his "Old Homestead" company, playing in New York, Philadelphia and Washington and planning to close the season with the company in Boston, but failing health forced him to abandon the idea.

MAYORESS TO USE "MOP."

She Promises to Make Kansas Town a Model Place.

Hunnewell, Kan., April 14.—"Mayoress" Mrs. Ella Wilson presided over this week's meeting of the common council. Her masculine opponent failed to get enough votes at the election, was unlucky when lots were drawn, and, after being counted in by a friendly canvassing board, he ran squarely into the law, so the certificate was given to Mrs. Wilson.

There is some muttering among his friends, but he seems inclined to give up the struggle.

"There is no city marshal, now, but there will be if I can get one," said Mrs. Wilson. "Also pool halls will be closed or put under such control by license and strict regulation as to make them harmless to the youth of Hunnewell. I intend to take up other reforms and make this a model town.

"But there are five councilmen, and I may not get very far with any reforms I wish to put in force. I want Hunnewell to be a cleaner city, but can tell how much or how little hope there is for betterment only when I have an opportunity to observe the attitude of the council."

Most of the people of Hunnewell, and many persons from the surrounding country attended the first session of the council.

PILLAGER CHILD DIES IN BRAINERD HOSPITAL.

Brainerd, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Clyde Ralston, aged 1½ years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin R. Ralston of Pillager, died of brain fever Wednesday night after the little one had been removed from Pillager to Brainerd for treatment, having been sick but three days. The funeral will be held at Pillager Saturday forenoon.

Rev. J. Wilfrid Loughridge Resigns After Seventeen Years of Service.

Pueblo Minister Will Succeed Him in Central Baptist Church.

Rev. J. Wilfrid Loughridge, pastor of the Central Baptist church, Twentieth avenue west and First street, for the past seventeen years, has resigned and next week will sever his connection with the congregation.

Rev. M. Fish of Pueblo, Colo., will be his successor. Rev. Mr. Loughridge will preach his farewell sermon to the congregation Easter Sunday and the new pastor will take charge of affairs about the first Sunday in May.

About two months ago, a reception was held for Rev. Mr. Loughridge and he was presented with a handsome gold watch by the congregation.

Rev. Mr. Loughridge is not sure of his plans for the future, he says. He expects to travel during the summer and next fall take up some work at a theological seminary in Chicago. Later he will probably go into the evangelistic work.

Rev. Mr. Fish, who will be his successor, has accepted a call to Duluth and will move his family to Duluth partly with the view of securing a change in climatic conditions, as his wife, it is understood, is in poor health.

Rev. Mr. Loughridge is moderator of the Lake Superior Baptist association, having been chosen to this office at the annual election held last year. The association comprises all of the English speaking churches of the Baptist denomination at the Head of the Lakes.

The exercises will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. The social will be given under the auspices of the Men's society of the Bethany church.

REV. THEODORE A. EKBLAD.

RHEUMATISM FATAL.

West End Man Dies at Hospital After Long Illness.

Ralph Nelson, aged 40, who for the past few years has divided his time between the West end and Kelsey, where he had a homestead, died of rheumatism this morning at St. Luke's hospital.

Nelson had no relatives in this country and was a single man. He had been afflicted with rheumatism for several years, but his condition was never regarded as serious until two days ago, when he was removed to the hospital.

Nelson was well known to West end people. He lived at 1923 West First street when in Duluth.

UNITE FOR GOOD FRIDAY SERVICES.

Union services were held this morning at the First Swedish M. E. church, Twentieth avenue west and Third street, Rev. J. J. Daniels, pastor of the Mission church preaching the principal sermon.

The congregations participating in the Good Friday services were the First Swedish Baptist, Swedish Mission, Swedish Methodist Episcopal and First Norwegian-Danish M. E. church.

West End Briefs.

The funeral of A. F. Schultz, who died Wednesday, was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from Stewart's undertaking rooms, Third avenue west and Third street, to Forest Hill cemetery. Members of the Old Settlers' association attended. Mr. Schultz lived at 312 South Twenty-eighth avenue west.

Mrs. J. J. Daniels is ill at her home on Twenty-first avenue west.

A large crowd attended the initial dancing party of the Adams Athletic association last evening at Lincoln Park pavilion.

The Young People's society of the First Swedish Baptist church last evening gave its annual Easter program at the Swedish temple, Twenty-second avenue west and Third street.

A. Lincoln Kirk, a monologue entertainer, will appear at the Central Baptist church Wednesday, April 19. On his program he includes a number of monologues and impersonations of well-known characters.

The Lion drug store has moved to the new Anderson-Thoorsell block, 2030 West Superior street.

The funeral of Gustaf Hanson, aged 49, who died Tuesday at his home, 2015 West Fourth street, was held this afternoon from the home to Park Hill cemetery. Rev. Swaney Nelson officiated. Members of the Swedish Christian Sick Benefit society, of which Mr. Hanson was a member, attended the funeral in a body.

WILL PAVE THIS SPRING

Grand Avenue Contract Will Not Be Delayed Any Longer.

Storm Sewer Will Be Constructed Before Pavement Is Laid.

Grand avenue, between Fifty-fourth and Fifty-ninth avenues west, will be paved this spring. This will be done in spite of objections raised by some of the property holders to having the paving follow the laying of the storm sewer and other underground improvements without waiting several months for the ground to settle.

After the storm sewer has been laid, the fill will be put in and then water soaked. This, it is claimed by the city engineers, will settle the fill and make as good a foundation for the pavement, as if the ground had been allowed to settle for half a year. Arrangements have been made with the water and light department to furnish the water for this work free of charge.

The storm sewer job, according to preliminary estimates, will cost $9,000, the expense to be paid for by the city out of a special fund laid aside for this purpose. All other necessary underground improvements, which are not already in will also be installed. The street car company last fall put its feed wires underground. There are now double tracks as far west as Fifty-seventh avenue. The double tracks will be extended to Fifty-ninth avenue on account of the paving job. The company will also install a "Y" at Fifty-seventh avenue before the pavement is laid.

Just what kind of pavement will be laid has not been decided by the property owners. Several kinds are advocated, asphalt, cement brick and sandstone block paving. It will be necessary for the board of public works to call a meeting of the property holders so that they may express their views on this matter.

The property holders have already paid in practically all of the first assessment of $29,000, 80 per cent of the estimated cost. The other assessment will be made as soon as the job has been completed and the exact cost determined. The street intersections are to be paid for by the city, according to the provisions of one of the recent charter amendments.

The entire job will cost in the neighborhood of $50,000 including the expense of the storm sewer and street intersections which are to be paid for by the city. The improvement has been long needed and can come none too soon for most of the property holders and business men of West Duluth.

WILL CONFER WITH CLUB

Canadian Northern Representatives Will Talk Over West Duluth Bridge.

N. J. Upham and W. D. Bailey, representing the Canadian Northern railway, will attend the meeting of the West Duluth Commercial club this evening and talk over the Fifty-ninth avenue west bridge proposition, with the members of the club.

The sentiment of the club is opposed to the placing of posts in the street to support the overhead spans. The council has been asked by the club to arrange to have the bridge plans changed in this respect.

Just what Mr. Upham and Mr. Bailey will have to say at the meeting, has not been intimated. There is much interest in the matter among West Duluth residents and it is expected that there will be a representative turnout of members.

Resident Engineer Hazen of the Canadian Northern was also expected to attend the meeting this evening, but was called out of the city today and cannot do so.

NEW CHAPTER OF EASTERN STAR

A chapter of the Eastern Star, an auxiliary Masonic organization, will be organized among the wives and daughters of West Duluth Masons this spring.

A meeting of those interested will be held Monday at the West Duluth Masonic hall, Central avenue, near Cody street. Several of the members of the Duluth chapter of the Eastern Star plan to be present and assist the West Duluth women in working out the plans for the new chapter.

A number of years ago, before the new Masonic hall was built, the Eastern Star order had a small chapter in West Duluth, but it afterwards went out of existence.

Fugitive Arrested.

John Corbett, aged 20, was arrested by the West Duluth police this morning and charged with being a fugitive from justice. He was apprehended at the request of the Superior police, who want him on a charge of beating a board bill.

Samaritans Will Meet.

The West Duluth council of the Modern Samaritans will hold a general jollification in the lodge rooms in the Commercial club next Monday evening. It will be an open meeting and it is expected that the largest crowd of the year will be in attendance. Following a general program refreshments will be served.

West Duluth Briefs.

Joseph Gosler, who has been visiting at his home at Bay City, Mich., has returned to West Duluth, where he will be employed this summer.

Mrs. Otto Klober of St. Paul is a guest at the home of her brother, Jerry F. Mikiska of 5819 Wadena street.

HERALD ADS BRING QUICK RESULTS

Read Herald's Saturday List of Property for Sale or Rent.

If you want to buy a house, a lot or farm—if you want to rent a house, flat or room, look at the list that will be published in The Herald tomorrow. Every effort is being made to have a complete list of the properties for sale and rent in the city, an issue that will be a valuable directory for buyers and renters.

Only two weeks until "moving day" and there will be a great many people to whom this directory will be a convenience. It will be of special advantage to the seller and landlord because their various propositions are sure to receive consideration by hundreds and thousands of readers of The Herald.

Herald ads have always brought returns to advertisers and there is no reason why there should be an exception in your case.

If you have any property to sell or rent tell the people about it in The Herald tomorrow. It will cost a few cents and you will get dollars in return.

If you have any articles of furniture or house furnishings that you do not need, The Herald tomorrow will offer a good opportunity to find a buyer.

Think it over, then call up The Herald early tomorrow morning and place your ad.

SPRING TERM

will begin at the Duluth Business University on Monday, April 17. The college office will be open from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. Saturday, April 15, for the enrollment of students. Location, 118-120 Fourth avenue west, Christie bldg.

Petitions in Bankruptcy.
Andrew T. Northcott and Louise M. Ginster, individually and as partners, doing business under the firm name of F. E. Ginster & Co., filed petitions in voluntary bankruptcy in United States court yesterday. The firm's liabilities are placed at $13,461.30 and assets at $5,679.63. Mr. Northcott's personal liabilities are placed at $1,-962.50 and his assets at $175, all claimed exempt. The other partner's liabilities are placed at $1,700 and assets at $400, all claimed exempt.

Pulford, How & Company
Have moved their offices to No. 609 Alworth building.

Your New Hat
Can be paid for out of the rent you can get by renting that spare room to some desirable person. The Saturday Herald Room For Rent columns is the best place to advertise your room, if you want to rent it quickly.

Going to Move?
If so, you stand the best show of getting the house you want at the price you want to pay by reading the "House For Rent" columns of The Saturda Herald.

Easter Sale

HOTEL WILL BE ENLARGED

Three New Floors Will Be Added to the Holland.

Three additional stories are soon to be added to the Holland hotel.

The plans are being drawn by Bray & Nystrom.

When the three additional floors have been completed, the hotel will have 170 rooms. The addition gives the hotel fifty new rooms, each with a bath.

The building is at present six floors in height, with an additional half story. S. I. Levin is the owner and the building is under lease to the Holland Hotel company.

Work, it is understood, will begin within a few weeks.

OBITUARY

George S. Terry, assistant United States treasurer, at New York, died at York Cottage at Aitkin, S. C., April 14. He had been suffering for a week from an attack of diabetes. A son was the only member of the family present at the deathbed. The body will be sent to New York.

John McLane, former governor of New Hampshire, died at Southern Pines, N. C., April 13. The cause of death was cirrhosis of the liver. Governor McLane was offlical host of the Russian-Japanese envoys during the Portsmouth peace conference.

F. W. Benson, secretary of state of Oregon, died in Redlands, Cal., April 14, after an illness of months. Mr. Benson was a former governor of Oregon.

Mrs. Wercink Dombrowski, 107 years old, died April 13, in West Hammond, Ill., of bronchitis.

Miss Evelyn S. Hall for the past twenty-seven years principal of the Northfield seminary at Northfield, Mass., died April 14 at the home of the Rev. Samuel M. Cathcart there. Miss Hall was widely known in the religious education field, having been brought into close relationship with many missionaries and other religious and social workers through the annual conference at Northfield. She was born in Stonington, Conn., Dec. 13, 1853, and was a graduate of Wellesley college in the class of 1879. For four years she taught in a private school at Chicago, leaving there to become head of Dwight L. Moody's seminary at Northfield. Interment will be at Northfield on Tuesday.

Former Governor G. W. Glick of Kansas died at Atchison, Kan., April 13. Mr. Glick had been ill for more than a year. On March 29, 1910, he broke his hip while at Lakeland, Fla., and it was this wound that eventually caused his death. He was governor of Kansas from 1883 to 1885.

W. A. Tawney, a half brother of ex-Congressman James A. Tawney and Attorney D. E. Tawney of Winona, is dead. He was a farmer and stock raiser in Pierce county near Osmond, Neb. He came with the other members of the Tawney family years ago from Pennsylvania to Cedar Bluff, Neb., which was made the family home. Later he purchased a small tract of land in Pierce county, 100 miles away, and has since made his horae there. At the time of his death he owned a half section of the finest land in Nebraska. He was 38 years old and is survived by a widow and three sons.

INCREASE IN SALARIES.

Representatives Preparing Bill for Benefit of Federal Clerks.

Washington, April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Representatives Cary of Wisconsin and Davis of Minnesota are engaged in drafting a bill looking for a general increase in salaries of clerks in the federal service. Last session Representative Cary introduced a bill providing an increase of 25 per cent in salaries of all clerks drawing less than $2,000.

This is recognized as being a little too great an increase as a starter, and he and Representative Davis are engaged in the preparation of a bill whereby a happy medium may be struck and a reasonable and substantial increase secured.

Rains At Thief River.
Thief River Falls, Minn., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Heavy rains have been falling in this section of the state for the past two days and the soil is now saturated sufficiently for seeding. Unless the rains let up soon and warming weather arrives the spring work may be delayed some. The Red Lake river is rising and the ice will disappear within a few hours, thus moving the sawlogs for the mill which will open immediately for the season's cut when the ice is gone.

Easter Plants.
Prices right; big stock. Victor Huot's.

LEGAL NOTICES.

BARTHE-MARTIN CO'S. EDITORIAL

To some of the DULUTH KNOCKERS regarding the cost of living, climate, etc., of Duluth:

The writer hears almost daily on the street cars and elsewhere about town, of our good citizens bewailing the cost of living in Duluth; that they pay fabulous prices for groceries here; that they could procure same in other towns for much less money.

Two grocery catalogues came to the writer's hand recently; one from a big Milwaukee company and one from a big St. Paul company. On looking them over, he found their prices from 5 to 10 per cent higher on regular and listed groceries than Barthe-Martin Co. of Duluth quote in their price list.

To any one really interested in the cost of living we would be glad to have you come to our place of business and we will show you.

Do not jump in and knock Duluth just because you have heard some one else knock. DON'T BE AN ECHO. Get at the facts and know what you are talking about.

SUNKIST LEMONS

"Sunkist" Lemons

If you want the finest lemons grown ask for "Sunkist" brand and note how much juicier they are and how much farther they go in preparing sauces, cakes, pies, salads and drinks

Seedless—Fibreless—Juicy and Sweet—A Perfect Fruit

Five thousand California orange farmers, raising 60 per cent of the state's entire crop, select, each season, their perfect oranges and pack them under the name "Sunkist." This enables you to recognize and buy California's choicest, tree-ripened oranges.

Until you have tasted a luscious "Sunkist" orange, you cannot begin to appreciate the excellence of oranges that are properly grown, rigidly inspected, carefully packed and swiftly transported. Serve "Sunkists" on your table tomorrow morning and learn the superiority of tree-ripened, fibreless, seedless, solid and sound oranges over the commonplace kind. "Sunkist" oranges are so nearly all food that they are much the cheapest kind to buy.

"Sunkist" oranges are thin-skinned and are hand-picked. The "Sunkist" orange is a firm, solid fruit. Ask your dealer for the "Sunkist" kind and make sure that each orange you get is packed in a tissue paper wrapper labeled "Sunkist." For these wrappers are valuable.

MARINE NEWS

LAKE STRIKE IS RENEWED

Seamen on Salt Water Ships May Also Go Out This Year.

Object to Welfare Plan—Vessel Owners Are Not Worried.

A strike of 10,000 seamen on the Great Lakes was renewed yesterday by order of officials of the Lake Seamen's union. The strike, which began two years ago, is directed, with the opening of the navigation season, against the Lake Carriers' association's open shop policy on its ships.

An official of the union said today that a great international marine strike, including seamen on the Atlantic coast who sail in foreign ships, and sailors of seven European countires, may be called on May 1.

Object to "Welfare Plan."

The salt water sailors demand an abolition of the "welfare plan" inaugurated by the Shipping Federation, Limited, of London, an international association of European ship owners. A similar "welfare plan" was established by the Lake Carrier's association three years ago.

Both fresh and salt water sailors insist the welfare plan is a "marine blacklist." Should the threatened ocean strike be called it would involve more than 250,000 sailors.

Instead of the welfare plan, the sailors demand the creation of an international board of conciliation to adjust grievances. Under the "welfare plan" every sailor must have a "record book," which is filled out by the captain. Unless the record is clear, the seamen say, the men are prevented from securing work aboard any association ship.

Duluth vessel owners say that no attention will be paid by the Lake Carriers' association to the renewal of the strike. Although the strike has been in progress for two years, the boats on the lakes have been run regularly, they say, and the business in sight for this year is so light that no trouble is expected in obtaining sufficient men to operate the vessels.

OPENING IN NAME ONLY

No Boats Will Leave Harbor When Marine Insurance Takes Effect.

Although midnight tomorrow is set for the official opening of navigation, locally "there ain't goin' to be no openin'."

The reason is simple and to the point; the St. Mary's river is ice-coated and it may be two weeks before boats will be able to get down to the lower lakes. In view of this condition, the going into effect of lake insurance will pass without notice at this end of the lake.

The Davock and the Penobscot are the only vessels loading at the Head of the Lakes at the present time. These boats are loading with grain over on the other side of the bay, but will be unable to make the trip to Buffalo for some time.

As far as the package freight situation is concerned, there are no boats at the Head of the Lakes even loaded. Loading will begin next week, though the prospect of sailing is something like two weeks off, unless there is some change in the situation at St. Mary's river.

The Mutual Transit company has four boats here, the North Sea, Northern King, Northern Wave and North Wind. Loading on these boats will begin next week. The boats have been inspected and with the loading will await the breaking up of the ice obstruction.

Only one boat of the Western Transit company is at the Head of the Lakes at the present time, that being the Buffalo. No loading will be done on this boat until some time next week.

The Anchor line has the Wissahickon and the Alleghaney. As in the case of the other package freighters, no loading will be done on these boats until next week, possibly Monday.

With no boats to leave the Head of the Lakes harbors on the official opening of navigation for the season of 1911, the going into effect of lake vessel insurance will lack the importance it has held in seasons past.

FLOUR MAY GO "ACROSS LAKE"

That Minneapolis millers are considering the matter of diverting their flour and feed shipments to "across lake" instead of by all lake from Duluth to Buffalo on account of high rates asked by the lake carriers, is the statement made by the Northwestern Miller. It has developed that several Minneapolis millers instead of having their flour shipped from Duluth to Buffalo by water, are planning to send their shipments across Lake Michigan to a Michigan point and then having them carried via the Pere Marquette or some other road to Eastern points. This is what is called in milling parlance "across lake."

It is contended that the rates by the across lake route break bulk, are only $4 per minimum car higher than by lake and rail. Taking $1.25 per car in marine insurance and other items of saving insured by shipping across lake, it is a question if across lake rates are not about as low as those via all rail. The Northwestern Miller further contends that the lake carriers are imposing a heavy and unjust burden on them, and they are disposed to take advantage of this means of securing relief.

EASTON IS SAFE AT GRAND MARAIS.

The hard wind of las night caused the Booth line steamer Easton to lay up at Two Harbors. No damage was done to the boat, which resumed its journey early this morning and at 10 o'clock was reported at Grand Marais.

DREDGING IS RESUMED

Duluth-Superior Company Is Again at Work on Big Contract.

More Than 2,000,000 Cubic Yards to Be Removed in Harbor.

The Duluth-Superior Dredge company resumed operations on its contract for the enlarging of the harbor basin yesterday when one dredge was put at work. More dredges will be added a little later in the season and good progress toward the completion of the contract is expected to be made this year.

The contract calls for the removal of nearly 3,000,000 cubic yards of earth and work was begun late last season. The amount of earth removed last year was small compared with the total amount and over 2,000,000 yards remain to be dredged. The contract calls for the completion of the work by Oct. 12, 1912, but that time limit was regarded as a liberal one when set and there is no doubt but that the work will be completed before that time.

The dredging of the Duluth harbor basin and a large job of dredging in the enlargement of the Superior basin, both inside of the canal and inside of the breakwater, will make up the bulk of the dredge work in the Duluth-Superior harbor this year. The work at the Superior entry, which is in line with the improvements that have been made there in the past few years, has not yet been contracted for, but it is expected the contract will be let early this season.

Some rock work also remains to be done at the Superior entry, being a part of the uncompleted contract on the breakwater.

There will be some dredging out of shoals in the clearing of the channels in the harbor, that being an annual proceeding. The shoal situation this year is not serious, but considerable work will be necessary, especially around the coal docks on the Superior side.

Other big dredging jobs in Maj. Shunk's district are at Ashland and Marquette. The Northern Dredge & Dock company has the contract for enlarging the Marquette harbor basin and work was started last year. It will be resumed early this season and is expected to be completed before the end of the year.

NEW SLUICE GATES AT SOO.

Milwaukee Firm Is Awarded Contract for Construction Work.

Of eleven bids received on constructing and erecting three sluice gates for the new headrace in St. Mary's Falls canal, that of the Milwaukee Bridge company of $25,865.80 was the lowest.

The gates are intended to regulate the flow through the headrace of the government power plant. Four piers are being built, each about sixteen feet wide, provided with recesses, roller tracks and sills to receive the sluice gates which will be erected about 800 feet north of St. Mary's falls canal and 600 feet west of Poe lock at Sault Ste. Marie.

The work includes the supplying of structural steel, rollers, towers, footbridges, operating machinery and all labor, plant and supplies necessary to construct, install and complete the gates ready for operation.

Each sluice gate will be approximately 35 feet long, 15 feet high and 4 feet deep, made of three horizontal plate girders connected by lateral bracing on the downstream side and with transverse stiffeners in three vertical planes.

The next lowest bid called for $25,982.80.

RAILROADS WILL REDUCE GRAIN RATES VOLUNTARILY

While the interstate commerce commission refused to compel the railroads to lower the ex-lake rates on grain from Buffalo to seaboard as asked by the Chicago Board of Trade, the carriers will concede the reductions of their own accord.

A member of the traffic commission of the Duluth Commercial club received a message last night from Buffalo which said that a rate of 4 cents a bushel would be made effective in thirty days in place of the rate of 5½ cents from Buffalo to Boston which was regarded by grain men as objectionable.

The railroads made this concession, said the message, because they did not want traffic diverted by way of the St. Lawrence river.

TWO TUGS ARE IN COMMISSION.

The tugs Superior and America are doing some harbor work at the present time. The Superior is in charge of Capt. Green, while Capt. Hoy is on the America. No appointments have been made as yet for the present season and the fact that these two captains are in charge of these tugs does not indicate that they will remain so during the season.

FIRST MENOMINEE BOAT.

Menominee, Mich., April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—The steamer Pahlow with the barge Delta in tow, was the first boat to make the local port this season. The steamer Bon Ami has resumed her run on Green Bay. She is nearly two weeks later in getting into commission this year than last. The steamer Amazon which has wintered here will go into commission on May 1, when she will leave for Escanaba.

LAWS OF MICHIGAN ALLOW PURCHASE

Provide That One Mining Company May Acquire Stock in Another.

Detroit, Mich., April 14.—That the laws of Michigan explicitly provide that one mining company may acquire stock in another and that the United States circuit court of appeals at Cincinnati, decided in the Bigelow case in 1909, that the purchase of stock of other companies by the controlling interests of Calumet & Hecla was not in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, was argued by Attorney A. F. Rees of Houghton before United States District Judge Swan here today.

It was the second day of the hearing on the petition of G. M. Hyams of New York for a temporary injunction to prevent the proposed amalgamation of the Calumet & Hecla and nine other mining companies, the Osceola, Tamarack, Ahmeek, Seneca, Centennial, La Salle, Allouez, Superior and Laurium.

The figures were presented by Mr. Rees to show that of 959,127 shares of outstanding stock of all the ten companies, 693,241 had been voted in favor of the consolidation at a meeting of the respective companies and only 13,887 against it.

The fairness of the proposed consolidation, which he said, had been clearly shown by affidavits submitted to Judge Swan yesterday in explanation of the system by which values had been assigned to the respective properties and to the respective issue of stock.

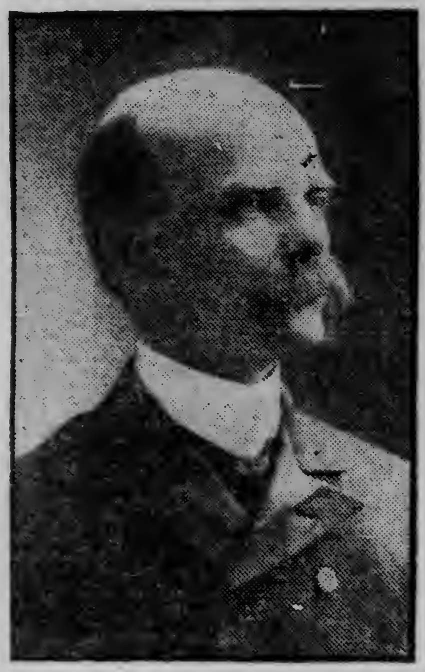
SOME LIKELY CANDIDATES FOR FIFTH JUDGESHIP OF THE ELEVENTH DISTRICT



S. T. HARRISON.

HENRY F. GREENE.

WARREN E. GREENE.

Since the passage of the bill providing for a fifth district court judge for this district, speculation has been rife as to who would receive the appointment.

A number of Duluth attorneys have been mentioned for the place. Warren E. Greene, assistant county attorney; L. C. Harris, H. A. Dancer of the firm of Baldwin, Baldwin & Dancer; S. T. Harrison and Henry F. Greene have been among the most prominent.

S. T. Harrison and Henry F. Greene are said to be candidates for the place and their friends are lining up support for them. L. C. Harris has made it known to his friends that he does not want the place. Warren E. Greene and H. A. Dancer are said to be passive candidates.

The appointment will be made by the governor.

A meeting of the Bar association of the Eleventh judicial district will be held either at noon Saturday at the Commercial club or at the same time on Monday. At the meeting some one of the mentioned candidates for the place will be recommended and the recommendation sent to the governor. The appointment will probably be made very soon.

The work of the local court has grown to such an extent during the last few months that some time ago it was found necessary that another judge be provided. The matter was taken up by the Duluth attorneys with the St. Louis county delegation and the bill has finally passed both houses and is ready for the governor's signature.

It was thought some months ago when Judge Hughes was appointed, that the congestion would be relieved. The work has increased many times since Judge Hughes took his place, and for some months past the local judges have been swamped under a heavy and ever increasing load of work.

The appointment of a fifth judge, it is expected, will make the work easier for all and enable the attorneys to dispose of their cases more quickly.

EASTER LAMB IN MARKET

Demand for Easter Eggs Very Heavy and Price Is Low.

Green Vegetables More Plentiful—Price of Strawberries Lower.

Lamb and mint sauce! Duluth housewives can order this now for their Easter dinner as the markets are offering fine new quarters of tender spring lamb and fresh mint is also in market.

The lamb is sold only by the quarter and is priced at $1.50 for a front quarter and $2.50 for a hind quarter. Mint is selling for 5 cents a bunch. Many housewives get the mint gelatin which makes a delightful relish to serve with the lamb instead of using the fresh leaves.

Eggs in market now are selling for 17 cents and 20 cents a dozen, and the grocers have reported a large sale of Easter eggs.

A greater variety of fresh vegetables is being brought in every week now. Fresh green peas head the list this week and are selling at 12½ cents a quart. These go well with the Easter lamb. Green string beans are also in market and are selling at 20 cents a quart. New cabbages at 5 cents a pound, cucumbers, new cauliflower at 25 and 30 cents apiece, new beets at 10 cents a bunch, new carrots at 10 cents a bunch, green peppers at 7 cents apiece or four for 25 cents, new Bermuda onions at 12½ cents a pound, green onions at 5 cents a bunch, head lettuce at 20 cents a bunch and leaf lettuce at 5 cents a bunch are among the tempting "green" things which are especially good at this time of the year.

Malaga grapes have made their appearance again in the fruit markets. These have been scarce and poor for some time but fine sound grapes are now displayed at 25 cents a pound. These are especially good in fruit salads and fruit desserts.

Strawberries this week are a little lower selling two pint boxes for 25 cents. Last week they were "15 cents straight." The other fruits remain about the same, oranges range from 30 to 60 cents a dozen, bananas from 25 to 35 cents a dozen; grape fruit 10 and 15 cents apiece; pineapples are 25 cents apiece, and fine eating apples are 75 cents a peck.

The egg trade has broadened considerably in the last few days. Speculators have been buying with as much avidity as if they had made money on cold storage holdings last season. Retailers came in for their full share of offerings and the trade developed large proportions. The heavy receipts were absorbed at firm prices.

Egg prices showed firmness but even on the hard spot they were several cents lower than the quotations in force at this time last year. With indications pointing to a lighter production this year than last speculators are beginning to fight tooth and nail for stocks to place in cold storage.

Low costs also had a stimulating influence on the consumptive demand and retailers' purchases were larger than in previous weeks by a wide margin. At the close of the week the market appears to be in an exceptionally strong position. The Easter demand caused a bulge in the consumptive requirements.

The trade in butter was not characterized by the same display of activity although prices were easier. The situation in the market for this commodity is exceedingly precarious. Sellers maintain that they could not get rid of any but the best makes of creamery butter and the heavy accumulations of lower grades on the market substantiated them in their statements.

Buying of chickens for consumption during the Jewish holidays gave the market an exceptionally strong undertone and sales of both fowls and springs were made at the highest prices recorded in several months, with quotations only a short distance below the record breaking prices of a year ago.

Potatoes are higher and the market is firm. The situation is the strongest noted in some time. Inclement weather has checked the movement of supplies marketward at a time when the consumptive demand appeared at its height. Other vegetables sold at steady to strong figures.

Raw, wet weather affected the fruit trade adversely and the demand did not make any expansion. Prices were steady to slightly lower on the perishable varieties of fruit, with strawberries showing considerable weakness, only the hardier varieties displaying signs of steadiness.

From California comes the news that the weather has been decidedly unfavorable to the apricot trees and that a shortage of the crop will probably result. Heavy continued rains in the apricot district, it is said, have washed out the pollen of the flower and will lessen the amount of fruit borne by the trees. Both in the canned article and the dried fruit higher prices are expected in consequence. Packers predict that 12c a pound will be the opening price for choice dried apricots as compared with 9c last yiear. Spot dried apricots are being closely concentrated and are exceptionally firm.

URGES SURVEY OF ST. LOUIS RIVER

Representative Miller Presents Case to Gen. Bixby, Chief of Engineers.

Washington, April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Gen. Bixby, chief of engineers and Representative Miller this morning had a talk in relation to the proposed channels of the St. Louis river leading up to Commonwealth avenue, New Duluth. Representative Miller has twice secured the consent of congress to his request for a survey of this portion of the river, and both times has been confronted by an adverse report from Maj. Fitch, district engineer.

Representative Miller's call upon Gen. Bixby was for the purpose of inducing the chief engineer to reverse the decision of Maj. Fitch. Gen. Bixby gave Mr. Miller's plea close attention and said he would look into the question very closely and advise him by letter.

Mr. Miller today introduced a bill to permit "Soo" Railway company to construct a bridge across the St. Croix at a point in Pine county. The "Soo" is about to commence in earnest to construct a new line to connect the Twin Cities with Duluth and work thereon is to be pushed with vigor this summer and the authorization for the bridging of the St. Croix is therefore important.

If you will bring your Calumet & Arizona and Superior & Pittsburg certificates to Paine, Webber & Co.'s office, we will have them transferred into the new Calumet & Arizona stock for you.

TO INVESTIGATE THE JONES CASE

Washington, April 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Representative Miller this morning received a letter from Secretary Knox advising him that the United States consul at Jaurez has been directed to proceed to Casa Granda, where James H. Jones of Duluth is held as a prisoner of war by the Mexican federals. The consul is under instructions to make a full investigation as to how Jones is being treated and ascertain, if possible, all circumstances leading up to his capture and make a full report of his findings immediately to the state department.

ORDER FOR HEARING PROOF OF FOREIGN WILL—
State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis —ss.
In Probate Court.
In the Matter of the Estate of Jon Shastid, Deceased:

WHEREAS, Certain writings purporting to be duly authenticated copies of the Last Will and Testament of Jon Shastid, late of Perry, County of Pike and State of Illinois, deceased, and the Probate thereof in County Court of Pike County, Illinois, have been delivered to this Court;

And whereas, Esther C. Shastid has filed therewith her petition, representing among other things that said Jon Shastid lately died in said County of Pike, State of Illinois, testate, possessed of certain real estate situated in said County of St. Louis, and that the said petitioner is the executrix named in said will and praying that the said instrument may be admitted to probate, and that letters testamentary be to her issued thereon.

IT IS ORDERED, That the proofs of said instrument, and the said petition, be heard before this Court at the Probate Office in said County, on Monday the 8th day of May, A. D. 1911, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, when all persons interested may appear for or contest the probate of said instrument;

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, That notice of the time and place of said hearing be given to all persons interested, by publishing this order once in each week for three successive weeks prior to said day of hearing, in The Duluth Herald, a daily newspaper printed and published at Duluth, in said County, and that a copy of this order be served on the County Treasurer of St. Louis County not less than ten days prior to said day of hearing.

Dated at Duluth, Minn., this 13th day of April, A. D. 1911.

By the Court,
S. W. GILPIN,
Judge of Probate.

ORDER OF HEARING ON PETITION FOR PROBATE OF FOREIGN WILL—
State of Minnesota, County of St. Louis—ss.
In Probate Court.
In the Matter of the Estate of Calvin H. Carter, Decedent:

Certain instruments purporting to be authenticated copies of the last Will and Testament of Calvin H. Carter, and of the probate thereof in the Surrogate's Court in and for the County of Madison, State of New York, having been presented to this court, and the petition of Chauncey F. Carter and Charles H. Kimberley being filed herein, representing, among other things, that said decedent, then being a resident of the County of Madison, State of New York, died testate in the County of Madison, State of New York, on the 9th day of March, 1909, leaving estate in the County of St. Louis, State of Minnesota, and that said instrument has been allowed and admitted to probate as his Will in the court above named, and praying that said Will be allowed and admitted to probate in this state, and that letters testamentary be issued thereon to Chauncey F. Carter and Charles H. Kimberley,

IT IS ORDERED, That said petition be heard before this court, at the Probate Court Rooms in the Court House, in Duluth, in said County, on Monday, on the 1st day of May, 1911 at ten o'clock a. m., and all persons interested in said hearing and in said matter are hereby cited and required at said time and place to show cause, if any there be, why said petition should not be granted.

ORDERED FURTHER, That this order be served by publication in The Duluth Herald according to law, and that a copy of this order be served on the County Treasurer of St. Louis County not later than ten days prior to said day of hearing.

Dated at Duluth, Minn., April 4th, 1911.
